Asset and Equity Purchase Agreement

On August 28, 2009, Tronox Incorporated, a Delaware corporation (Tronox Incorporated), Tronox LLC, a Delaware limited liability company (Tronox LLC), Tronox Pigments (Savannah) Inc., a Georgia corporation (Tronox Pigments), Tronox Worldwide LLC, a Delaware limited liability company (Tronox Worldwide), Tronox Western Australia Pty Ltd (ACN 009 331 195), a Western Australian company (Tronox Australia), Tronox Pigments (Netherlands) B.V., a Dutch limited liability company (Tronox Netherlands) and, together with Tronox Incorporated, Tronox LLC, Tronox Pigments, Tronox Worldwide, Tronox Australia, the Sellers, and each individually, a Seller) entered into an asset and equity purchase agreement (the Agreement) with Huntsman Pigments LLC, a Delaware limited liability company (the U.S. Buyer), Huntsman Australia R&D Company Pty Ltd, an Australian company (the Australia Buyer), and together with U.S. Buyer, the Buyers), and Huntsman Corporation (Huntsman). Pursuant to the Agreement, the Sellers agreed to sell to the Buyers substantially all of the assets relating to Sellers titanium dioxide and electrolytics businesses, including the related working capital, as well as equity interests of certain of Tronox Incorporated s subsidiaries for a purchase price of $415 million, subject to specified adjustments, and the Buyers agreed to assume certain liabilities associated with the ongoing operations of the businesses being acquired. If the Sellers fail to obtain specified consents, U.S. Buyer may elect to not purchase certain assets related to the Sellers Henderson, Nevada site and reduce the purchase price by $32.5 million. Under the Agreement, Huntsman agreed to guarantee to Sellers payment of the purchase price and certain other payment obligations of Buyers. Moreover, pursuant to the Agreement, Australia Buyer agreed to purchase a 50% joint venture interest in another titanium dioxide facility in Australia and associated mining operations.

The Agreement is subject to approval by the United States Bankruptcy Court for the Southern District of New York (the Bankruptcy Court), in which the bankruptcy cases of Tronox Incorporated and 14 of its subsidiaries (collectively, the Debtors) under chapter 11 of the United States Bankruptcy Code (the Bankruptcy Code) are being jointly administered as In re Tronox Corporation, et al., Case No. 09-10156 (ALG). The Buyers entered into the Agreement as a stalking horse bidder, and the purchase of the Sellers assets and the equity interests of certain of Tronox Incorporated s subsidiaries under the Agreement are subject to the Sellers solicitation of higher or otherwise better offers pursuant to specified bidding procedures and an auction process to be conducted under supervision of the Bankruptcy Court. Under the Agreement, the Buyers made a $12.45 million deposit toward the purchase price on the date of the execution of the Agreement.

The Buyers and the Sellers have made customary representations, warranties, and covenants in the Agreement, including, among others, a covenant by the Sellers to conduct their business in the ordinary course during the time between the execution of the Agreement and the consummation of the transaction.

The consummation of the transactions contemplated by the Agreement is subject to various conditions, including the termination or expiration of applicable waiting periods under the Hart-Scott-Rodino Antitrust Improvements Act of 1976, as amended, Bankruptcy Court approval and absence of circumstances constituting a Material Adverse Effect (as defined in the Agreement). The Sellers may terminate the Agreement if the Bankruptcy Court approves an alternative transaction, including a reorganization under the Bankruptcy Code, upon payment to the Buyers of a break-up fee of $12.45 million and reimbursement of up to $3.0 million of the Buyers transaction-related expenses. The Agreement may also be terminated prior to the closing by either the Buyers or the Sellers upon the occurrence of specified events. In the event of a termination under certain circumstances, the Sellers could be required to pay to the Buyers the break-up fee and/or expense reimbursement or could be entitled to retain the Buyers deposit.

The foregoing description of the terms of the Agreement is qualified in its entirety by reference to such Agreement, which is filed herewith as Exhibit 10.1.

Pursuant to Section 5.17 of the Waiver and Amendment (the "Waiver and Amendment"), dated May 11, 2009, to the Credit Agreement (the "Credit Agreement"), dated as of January 13, 2009, among Tronox Incorporated, Tronox Worldwide, the lenders from time to time party thereto, Credit Suisse, as administrative agent, and JPMorgan Chase Bank, N.A., as collateral agent, which was filed with the Bankruptcy Court on May 11, 2009, Tronox Incorporated is required to execute, on or prior to August 30, 2009, one or more asset purchase agreements with a stalking horse bidder or bidders providing, in the aggregate for the sale of all or substantially all of the assets of Tronox Incorporated and its subsidiaries under section 363 of the Bankruptcy Code. By executing the Agreement, Tronox Incorporated complied with this requirement. Among other things, the Waiver and Amendment also amended certain sections of the Credit Agreement regarding financial covenants. The foregoing description of the terms of the Waiver and Amendment is qualified in its entirety by reference to such Waiver and Amendment, which is filed herewith as Exhibit 99.1.

The Agreement has been included to provide investors and security holders with information regarding its terms. It is not intended to provide any other factual information about Tronox Incorporated. The representations, warranties and covenants contained in the Agreement were made only for purposes of such agreement and as of specific dates, were solely for the benefit of the parties to the Agreement, and may be subject to limitations agreed upon by the contracting parties, including being qualified by confidential disclosures exchanged between the parties thereto in connection with the execution of the Agreement. The representations and warranties may have been made for the purposes of allocating contractual risk between the parties to the Agreement instead of establishing these matters as facts, and may be subject to standards of materiality applicable to the contracting parties that differ from those applicable to investors.
