Item 8.01 Other Events.

On January 1, 2009, we adopted Statement of Financial Accounting Standards No. 160, Noncontrolling Interests in Consolidated Financial Statements-an amendment to ARB No. 51, now ASC 810 (SFAS No. 160). SFAS No. 160 changes the accounting and reporting for minority interests, recharacterizing them as noncontrolling interest. It requires that, among other things, (1) we change certain presentation and disclosures in our financial statements retrospectively for the existing noncontrolling interest; (2) we continue to present the noncontrolling interest in the mezzanine section of the balance sheet because the noncontrolling interest has a redeemable feature outside the Company's control; and (3) because the redeemable feature of the noncontrolling interest is based on a formula, we will record prospectively from the adoption date the change in value of the noncontrolling interest through additional paid-in capital and utilize the two class method to calculate earnings per share on net income attributable to our common stockholders. Any impact on net income attributable to common stockholders will be prospective from the adoption date of January 1, 2009. Accordingly, we have included as Exhibit 99 to this Form 8-K our audited consolidated financial statements as of December 31, 2008 and 2007 and for the years ended December 31, 2008, 2007 and 2006, which we have retrospectively adjusted to account for the new presentation and disclosure requirements of SFAS No. 160. We have applied, and will continue to apply, all other requirements of SFAS No. 160 on a prospective basis for periods after January 1, 2009.

This Form 8-K and Exhibit 99, which is attached to and incorporated herein by reference, do not reflect any events or disclosures occurring after the filing of our annual report on Form 10-K on March 12, 2009, except those subsequent events described in Note 16 of our audited consolidated financial statements included as Exhibit 99. Further, this Form 8-K and Exhibit 99 do not modify or update the disclosures contained in our annual report on Form 10-K, other than as specifically described above.
