In response to growing concerns over the long-term viability of the Federal Home Loan Mortgage Corporation (Freddie Mac) and the Federal National Mortgage Association (Fannie Mae), Glacier Bancorp, Inc. (Nasdaq: GBCI) continues to evaluate the possibility of an other than temporary impairment charge with respect to its investments in Freddie Mac preferred stock and Fannie Mae common stock. The term other than temporary impairment is not intended to mean that the decline in value is permanent.

The Company owns 150,000 shares of Series O preferred stock issued by Freddie Mac and 1,200 shares of Fannie Mae common stock. As of June 30, 2008, the Company had a combined investment of $7,593,000 in such securities with a temporary unrealized loss of $2,322,000, or $1,408,000 after tax. Fortunately, the Company does not have a significant investment in these securities relative to its size of $5 billion in total assets. Based on the value of such securities as of August 28, the unrealized loss has increased to $4,614,000, or $2,796,000 after tax ($0.05 per fully diluted share). Should the entire $7,593,000 investment be deemed other than temporarily impaired, the Company would incur an after tax charge to earnings of $4,602,000, or $0.09 per fully diluted share.

There is ongoing discussion among bank regulators, the accounting profession and the banking industry on this topic. The Company will continue to monitor industry and political developments with respect to Freddie Mac and Fannie Mae to assess the amount, if any, of the Company's investments therein that may be other than temporarily impaired.
