PART III NARRATIVE

State below in reasonable detail why Forms 10-K, 20-F, 11-K, 10-Q, 10-D, N-SAR, N-CSR, or the transition report or portion thereof, could not be filed within the prescribed time period.

Wright Express Corporation (the Company) is filing this Form 12b-25 to disclose that it cannot file its quarterly report on Form 10-Q for the period ended September 30, 2006 (Third Quarter Form 10-Q) within the prescribed time period because additional time is necessary to amend the Form 10-K for the year ended December 31, 2005 and quarterly reports for the periods ending March 31, 2006 and June 30, 2006 (the Periodic Reports). However, prior to filing the Periodic Reports, the Company will need to receive additional information from Cendant Corporation (Cendant) (through its successor entity, Avis Budget Group, Inc.) and from PHH Corporation, a former sister company. The Company believes the Periodic Reports should be filed prior to filing the Third Quarter Form 10-Q. The Company expects to file its Periodic Reports and Third Quarter Form 10-Q no later than November 20, 2006

On October 30, 2006, Management and the Audit Committee of the Company's Board of Directors concluded that Cendant incorrectly allocated goodwill relating to its 2001 acquisition of the Company. Correcting this error will result in an increase of both goodwill and stockholders' equity on the Company's previously issued balance sheets.

At this time, the Company continues to believe that there will be no effect on the income statements that have been publicly released by the Company since its initial public offering. There will be an income statement impact for a 10 month period in 2001 when the Company was required to amortize goodwill.

With the adoption of FAS 142 in January 2002, the Company was no longer required to amortize goodwill. In addition, the Company believes there will be no impact on cash flows, and does not expect to record an impairment charge. The Company is working to file corrected financial statements as soon as possible. Because of the foregoing, the Company filed a current report on Form 8-K on October 31, 2006 to report that the previously issued financial statements and earnings releases should no longer be relied upon.

This Form 12b-25 contains forward-looking statements, including statements regarding Wright Express Corporation's belief that there will be no effect on the income statements that have been publicly released by the Company since its initial public offering; belief that there will be no impact on cash flows; expectation that it will not record an impairment charge; and expectation that it will file its Third Quarter Form 10-Q no later than November 20, 2006.

These forward-looking statements include risks and uncertainties that are difficult to qualify, but that could result in outcomes different from those we have predicted in this Form 12b-25. These risks and uncertainties include: the impact of actions by the Company's former parent and sister companies; changes in the expected accounting treatment of its financial statements; the possibility that the Company could receive comments from the Securities and Exchange Commission with respect to the Company's filings; and the other risks and uncertainties included from time to time in the Company's filings with the Securities and Exchange Commission, including the annual report on Form 10-K filed on March 15, 2006, and the Company's other periodic and current reports. Wright Express Corporation undertakes no obligation to update these forward-looking statements at any future date or dates except as required by law.
