INFORMATION STATEMENT ACTION TAKEN BY
WRITTEN CONSENT OF STOCKHOLDERS

Notice is hereby given that on October 23, 2002, PATRON HOLDINGS, INC., a Nevada corporation formerly known as Combined Professional Services, Inc. (the "Corporation"), obtained the written consent of the holders of a majority of its outstanding stock as of October 23, 2002, to the following action:

A change in domicile and reincorporation of the Corporation from the State of Nevada to the State of Delaware by merger (the "Merger") of the Corporation with and into its wholly owned subsidiary, Patron Systems, Inc., a Delaware corporation ("Patron"), which will also result in:

- (a) the change of the Corporation's name to Patron Systems, Inc.;
- (b) the creation of a classified Board of Directors for the Corporation; and
- (c) the adoption of a Second Amended and Restated Certificate of Incorporation and Amended and Restated Bylaws.

Section 78.320 of the Nevada General Corporation Law provides that any action which may be taken at a meeting of the stockholders may be taken without a meeting, without prior notice and without a vote, if a consent in writing, setting forth the action so taken, shall be signed by the holders of outstanding stock having not less than the minimum number of votes that would be necessary to authorize or take such action at a meeting at which all shares entitled to vote thereon were present and voted, provided that prompt notice of the taking of the corporate action without a meeting by less than unanimous written consent shall be given to those stockholders who have not consented in writing.

On October 23, 2002, by unanimous written consent, the Board of Directors of the Corporation (the "Board") approved the Merger as described in the Agreement and Plan of Merger (the "Plan of Merger"). A consent in writing approving the foregoing was signed by holders of outstanding stock having 19,000,000 votes, which shares represented greater than a majority of the total number of shares outstanding of the Corporation. The Plan of Merger has also been approved by the Corporation as the sole stockholder of Patron and by the directors of Patron, in unanimous written consents of the stockholder and directors, each dated October 23, 2002.

This Information Statement is being mailed on or about March 7, 2003 to stockholders of record as of October 23, 2002, in order to provide such stockholders with information relating to the Merger.

SHARE EXCHANGE;
CHANGE IN CONTROL

On September 27, 2002, the Corporation entered into, and on October 11, 2002, the Corporation consummated the transactions contemplated by, an Amended and Restated Share Exchange Agreement (the "Exchange Agreement") among the Corporation, Patron and the holders of all of the outstanding capital stock of Patron (the "Patron Stockholders"). Pursuant to the Exchange Agreement, the Corporation agreed to issue at closing to each Patron Stockholder, on a one for one basis and in exchange for all of the outstanding shares of capital stock of Patron, an aggregate of 25,400,000 shares of the Corporation's common stock, par value $0.001 per share (the "Common Stock"), and to reserve for issuance 11,000,000 shares of Common Stock pursuant to certain transactions proposed by Patron (the "Share Exchange"). On September 27, 2002, the Board approved, and no stockholder approval was necessary for, the Share Exchange. Upon the closing of the Share Exchange, the Patron Stockholders held approximately 85% of the outstanding capital stock of the Corporation.

Patron was formed in April 2002 by a group of business leaders to provide comprehensive, end-to-end information security solutions to global corporations and government institutions. Patron plans to focus on two primary areas: trusted security services and next generation integrated security products. The Patron security services group plans to work with organizations to ensure that global enterprises implement information security policies, procedures and products which result in "trusted" information environments. Patron expects to offer information security and vulnerability assessments, certification programs, remediation, implementation, training, monitoring and management services.

Patron's product group, through the planned acquisition of selected third generation software, intends to provide a range of products which will be recognizable, certifiable, and standards-based to ensure a "trusted" solution for the enterprise. Patron currently has no material assets and no current operations. To date, Patron's principal activities have consisted of the development of its business plan, capital raising, and evaluation and negotiation of potential acquisitions. Patron's business plan contemplates the completion of acquisitions with several leading security services and software product firms in the United States and the United Kingdom.

MERGER OF THE CORPORATION INTO PATRON

The Board believes that it is in the best interests of the Corporation and its stockholders that the Corporation be reincorporated from the State of Nevada to the State of Delaware. The reincorporation will be accomplished by merging the Corporation with and into its wholly owned subsidiary, Patron, pursuant to the terms and conditions set forth in the Plan of Merger to be entered into between the Corporation and Patron, a copy of which is attached to this Information Statement as Exhibit A.

MECHANICS OF THE MERGER

The Merger will become effective upon the filing of a Certificate of Merger with the Secretary of State of the State of Delaware and Articles of Merger with the Secretary of State of the State of Nevada. At the time of the effectiveness of the Plan of Merger (the "Effective Date"), the following shall occur:

- o The Corporation will merge with and into Patron, with Patron continuing as the surviving corporation.
- o The name of the surviving corporation will be Patron Systems, Inc.
- o The surviving corporation will be domiciled in the State of Delaware and will be governed by the General Corporation Law of Delaware.
- o Each share of common stock of the Corporation outstanding immediately prior to the Effective Date will be automatically converted into one share of common stock of Patron. All the shares of common stock of Patron previously held by the Corporation will be cancelled.
- o The persons serving as officers and directors of Patron will serve in the same capacity for the surviving corporation. The certificate of incorporation governing the surviving corporation will authorize the issuance of 150,000,000 shares of common stock, $0.01 par value per share and 75,000,000 shares of preferred stock, $0.01 par value per share.

Edgar Filing: PATRON HOLDINGS INC - Form DEFM14C

PURPOSE OF THE REINCORPORATION

Delaware has an established policy of encouraging public companies to establish domicile in that state. Delaware has been a leader in adopting comprehensive, modern and flexible corporate laws, which are periodically updated and revised to meet changing business needs. As a result, many major corporations have initially chosen Delaware for their domicile or have subsequently reincorporated in Delaware in a manner similar to that proposed by the Corporation. Delaware courts have developed considerable expertise in dealing with corporate issues, and a substantial body of case law has developed construing Delaware law and establishing public policy with respect to corporate legal issues.

The Board believes that the overall effect of the Merger will be to enhance the Board's ability to consider all appropriate courses of action with respect to significant transactions, along with more general corporate matters, for the benefit of all stockholders. Moreover, the Board believes that (a) the enhanced certainty with respect to the duties of directors could be an important factor in attracting and retaining quality persons to serve on the board of directors, and (b) a Delaware domicile could result in the Corporation being more attractive to prospective investors.

CLASSIFIED BOARD OF DIRECTORS

The Corporation's articles of incorporation and bylaws currently provide that each of the Corporation's directors is elected to serve for a term of one year. Patron's certificate of incorporation, which will govern the surviving corporation after the Merger, provides that commencing with the 2002 annual meeting of stockholders (or at the effective time of a written consent in lieu thereof), the board of directors is to be divided into three classes which shall be as nearly equal in number as possible. The initial term of each class of directors shall expire at the annual meeting of stockholders to be held in the following years: Class I - 2003; Class II - 2004; and Class III - 2005. At each annual meeting of stockholders after the 2002 annual meeting of stockholders, the successors to the class of directors whose term shall then expire shall be identified as being of the same class of directors they succeed and shall be elected to hold office for a term expiring at the third succeeding annual meeting of stockholders. When the number of directors is changed, any newly-created directorships or any decrease in directorships shall be so apportioned among the classes by the board of directors as to make all classes as nearly equal in number as possible; provided, however, that no decrease in the number of directors shall shorten or terminate the term of any incumbent director. Each director shall serve until his successor is elected and qualified.

A classified board of directors could make it more difficult for stockholders, including those holding a majority of the surviving corporation's outstanding stock, to force an immediate change in the composition of a majority of the board of directors. Since the terms of only one-third of the incumbent directors expire each year, it requires at least two annual elections for the stockholders to change a majority, whereas a majority of a non-classified board of directors may be changed in one year. In the absence of the provisions of Patron's certificate of incorporation classifying the board of directors, all of the directors would be elected each year. The provision for a staggered board of directors affects every election of directors and is not triggered by the occurrence of a particular event such as a hostile takeover. Thus, a staggered board of directors makes it more difficult for stockholders to change the majority of directors even when the reason for the change would be unrelated to a takeover.

CONVERSION OF COMMON STOCK; EXCHANGE OF STOCK CERTIFICATES.

On the Effective Date, the corporate existence of the Corporation will cease and each share of Common Stock issued and outstanding immediately prior to the Merger will be converted automatically into one share of Patron common stock.

The Corporation anticipates that its transfer agent will serve as its exchange agent (the "Exchange Agent") to act for holders of Common Stock in implementing the exchange of their certificates.

As soon as practicable after the Effective Date, stockholders will be notified and requested to surrender their certificates representing shares of Common Stock to the Exchange Agent in exchange for certificates representing Patron common stock. One share of Patron common stock will be issued in exchange for each issued and outstanding share of Common Stock. Unless and until surrendered, each certificate representing Common Stock will be deemed to represent the same number of shares of Patron common stock.

DO NOT SEND IN ANY OF YOUR STOCK CERTIFICATES REPRESENTING SHARES OF COMMON STOCK UNTIL SUCH TIME AS SURRENDER OF THE COMMON STOCK IS REQUIRED. DELIVERY OF CORPORATION STOCK CERTIFICATES WILL CONSTITUTE DELIVERY FOR TRANSACTIONS IN SHARES OF PATRON COMMON STOCK AFTER THE EFFECTIVE DATE OF THE MERGER. FOLLOWING CONSUMMATION OF THE MERGER, POSITIONS IN SHARES OF THE COMMON STOCK HELD WITH THE DEPOSITORY TRUST COMPANY WILL BE TRANSFERRED AUTOMATICALLY TO POSITIONS IN THE SAME NUMBER OF SHARES OF PATRON COMMON STOCK.

APPROVALS.

A Certificate of Merger must be filed with the State of Delaware and Articles of Merger must be filed with the state of Nevada to effect the Merger. Except for these filings and certain filings with the Securities and Exchange Commission to recognize Patron as a successor to the Corporation, no federal or state regulatory requirements apply and no governmental approvals are required in connection with the Merger.

ADDRESSES OF THE CORPORATION AND PATRON.

Following the Merger, the mailing address for Patron, as the surviving corporation will be: 311 Belle Foret Drive, Suite 150, Lake Bluff, Illinois 60044. The phone number for Patron, as the surviving corporation, will be 847-295-7338.

COMPARISON OF RIGHTS UNDER NEVADA AND DELAWARE LAW AND CHARTER AND BYLAWS OF THE CORPORATION AND PATRON.

The Merger will result in changes to your rights as a stockholder due to differences between Nevada and Delaware corporate laws and differences between the governing documents of Nevada and Delaware corporations. Attached as Exhibits B and C are the Second Amended and Restated Certificate of Incorporation and the Amended and Restated Bylaws of Patron, which will survive the Merger.

After the Merger, the former stockholders of the Corporation, a Nevada corporation, will become stockholders of Patron, a Delaware corporation. The rights of Patron stockholders are governed by its certificate of incorporation, its bylaws and the Delaware General Corporation Law (the "DGCL.") The rights of the Corporation's stockholders are governed by its articles of incorporation, its bylaws and the Nevada Revised Statutes (the "NRS"). Upon completion of the Merger, the rights of the Corporation stockholders who become Patron stockholders will be governed by the certificate of incorporation and bylaws of Patron and the DGCL.

Although Nevada and Delaware corporate laws are substantially the same in many respects, there are some differences between the laws of the two states. It would be impracticable to state all of the differences; however, the following is a summary of certain significant differences between such laws and the differences between the Corporation's existing corporate documents and the Second Amended and Restated Certificate of Incorporation and the Amended and Restated Bylaws of Patron:

CLASSIFICATION OF COMMON STOCK

The common stock of Patron is not divided into separate classes or series. The common stock of the Corporation is not divided into separate classes or series.

VOTING

Each Patron stockholder has the right to one vote for each share of common stock held by the stockholder. Each stockholder of the Corporation has the right to one vote for each share of common stock held by the stockholder.

SPECIAL MEETING OF STOCKHOLDERS

Under the DGCL, a special meeting of stockholders may be called by the board of directors or by any other person authorized to do so in the certificate of incorporation or the bylaws. The Patron bylaws provide that special meetings of the stockholders may be called only by the chairman of the board, if any, or pursuant to a resolution approved by a majority of the whole board of directors or by a committee of the board of directors authorized to call such meetings and by no other person.

The NRS is silent as to who may call a special meeting of stockholders. The bylaws of the Corporation provide that special meetings of the stockholders may be called by the president or by the board of directors, and shall be called by the president at the written request of the holders of 10% of the issued and outstanding capital stock of the Corporation.

RECORD DATE FOR DETERMINING STOCKHOLDERS

The Patron bylaws provide that the board of directors may fix a record date which:

- o in the case of determination of stockholders entitled to notice of or to vote at any meeting of stockholders or adjournment of any meeting, shall not be more than 60 nor less than 10 days before the date of the meeting; and

- o in the case of any other action, shall not be more than 60 days prior to the action.

The NRS provides that the board of directors may prescribe a period not exceeding 60 days or fix a record date which shall not be more than 60 or less than 10 days prior to the date of any meeting of the stockholders, during which period no transfer of stocks on the books of the corporation may be made because the date as of which stockholders entitled to notice of and to vote at that meeting must be determined.

The Patron bylaws provide that if the board of directors does not fix a record date in the manner described above, then:

- o the record date for determining stockholders entitled to notice of or to vote at a meeting of stockholders shall be at the close of business on the day next preceding the day on which notice is given, or, if notice is waived, at the close of business on the day next preceding the day on which the meeting is held; and
- o the record date for determining stockholders for any other purpose shall be at the close of business on the same day on which the board of directors adopts the related resolution.

The NRS provides that if the board of directors does not fix a record date in the manner described above, then the record date for determining stockholders entitled to notice of and to vote at a meeting of stockholders shall be at the close of business on the day before the day on which notice is given to the stockholders.

ELECTION OF DIRECTORS

Subject to the rights of holders of the preferred stock, if any, the holders of Patron common stock elect all members of Patron's board of directors; there is no series vote.

The holders of the Common Stock elect all members of the Corporation's board of directors; there is no series vote.

NUMBER OF DIRECTORS

Both the DGCL and the NRS provide that the board of directors must consist of at least one director, with the corporation having the option of specifying a fixed or a variable number of directors within a fixed range. The Patron bylaws provide that the board of directors shall initially consist of three directors. Thereafter, the number of directors may be amended from time to time by resolution adopted by affirmative vote of a majority of the whole board of directors; provided that no such amendment may shorten the term of any incumbent director. The Patron certificate of incorporation provides that the directors, other than those who may be elected by the holders of preferred stock, shall be divided into three classes, as nearly equal in number as possible, and designated as Class I, Class II and Class III. The articles of incorporation and bylaws of the Corporation provide that the board of directors shall consist of no less than one director. Thereafter, the number of directors may be amended from time to time by resolution adopted by affirmative vote of a majority of the whole board of directors.

REMOVAL OF DIRECTORS

The DGCL provides that for corporations such as Patron which have a classified board of directors, any director or the entire board may be removed, but only with cause, unless the certificate of incorporation provides otherwise. The Patron certificate of incorporation provides that any director may be removed at any time, but only for cause and only by the affirmative vote of the holders of at least 50 percent of the voting power of the then outstanding voting stock, voting together as a single class.

The NRS provides that any director or one or more of the incumbent directors may be removed from office by the vote of stockholders representing not less than two-thirds of the voting power of the issued and outstanding stock entitled to vote. The articles of incorporation and bylaws of the Corporation do not specifically provide for the removal of directors.

BOARD OF DIRECTORS VACANCIES

Under the DGCL, vacancies and newly created directorships may be filled by a majority of the directors then in office, even though less than a quorum, unless (1) otherwise provided in the certificate of incorporation or bylaws of the corporation or (2) the certificate of incorporation directs that a particular class is to elect the director, in which case any other directors elected by the class, or a sole remaining director, may fill the vacancy. The Patron certificate of incorporation states that subject to the rights of the holders of any preferred stock to fill any newly created directorships or vacancies, any vacancy may be filled by a majority of the directors then in office, although less than a quorum, or by a sole remaining director.

The NRS provides that all vacancies, including those caused by an increase in the number of directors, may be filled by a majority of the remaining directors, though less than a quorum, unless it is otherwise provided in the articles of incorporation. The bylaws of the Corporation further provide that vacancies on the board of directors may be filled by the stockholders at any regular or special meeting, or at any adjourned meeting thereof. In the alternative, a majority of the remaining members of the board of directors may elect a successor to hold office for the unexpired portion of the term of the director whose place has become vacant and until his successor shall have been elected and qualify.

SPECIAL MEETINGS OF THE BOARD OF DIRECTORS

The Patron bylaws provide that special meetings may be called by the chairman of the board, if any, the president, the secretary, or by any member of the board of directors. The bylaws require that notice of the meeting be given by the person or persons calling the meeting at least twenty-four hours before the special meeting is to take place.

The bylaws of the Corporation provide that the president or secretary may call a special meeting of the board of directors. The bylaws require that at least three days notice be given by mail or by telegraph.

BOARD ACTION - GENERALLY

The Patron certificate of incorporation provides that the board of directors may lawfully take into account the long-term as well as short-term interests of the corporation and its stockholders, as well as the interests of creditors, customers, employees and other constituencies of the corporation and its subsidiaries. The Patron certificate of incorporation also provides that a majority of the whole board of directors shall constitute a quorum for the transaction of business. Board action requires the vote of a majority of the directors present at a meeting at which a quorum is present. The Patron bylaws further state that a director who directly or indirectly is a party to a contract or transaction with the corporation may be counted in determining whether a quorum is present at a board meeting, and such director may participate in the meeting and vote on such authorization to the extent permitted by applicable law, including Section 144 of the DGCL.

Edgar Filing: PATRON HOLDINGS INC - Form DEFM14C

The bylaws of the Corporation provide that any and all business may be transacted by any meeting of the board of directors. The NRS provides that the act of directors holding a majority of the voting power of the directors, present at a meeting at which a quorum is present, is the act of the board of directors. Any action required or permitted to be taken at a meeting of the board of directors may be taken without a meeting if, before or after the action, a written consent to that action is signed by all the members of the board.

BOARD ACTION - TRANSACTIONS WITH RELATED PARTIES

The Patron certificate of incorporation and bylaws do not contain any provisions regarding transactions with related parties. The articles of incorporation and bylaws of the Corporation do not contain any provisions regarding transactions with related parties.

PREFERRED STOCK

The Patron certificate of incorporation authorizes the board of directors to issue up to 75,000,000 shares of preferred stock in one or more series and to fix the designations, preferences, powers and rights of the shares to be included in each series. The articles of incorporation of the Corporation do not authorize the issuance of any preferred stock.

The Patron certificate of incorporation provides that, except to the extent otherwise provided in a preferred stock designation, the holders of shares of the series shall have no voting rights or right to receive notice of any meeting of stockholders at which they are not entitled to vote.

INDEMNIFICATION

The Patron certificate of incorporation provides that its directors and officers shall be indemnified by the corporation in accordance with and pursuant to the bylaws. The bylaws provide that the corporation will also indemnify those serving at the request of the corporation as a director, officer, employee or agent of another corporation, partnership, joint venture or similar enterprise. The Patron certificate of incorporation also provides that Patron may, by action of its board of directors, indemnify employees and other persons to the same extent as directors and officers.

Neither the articles of incorporation nor the bylaws of the Corporation

provide indemnification for its directors and officers.

Patron is not permitted to indemnify its officers or directors if the expenses, liability and losses incurred are the result of the individual's intentional misconduct, fraud or knowing violations of the law. The certificate of incorporation of Patron also prevents indemnification for the payment of dividends in violation of Section 174 of the DGCL.

Both the DGCL and NRS provide that a corporation shall indemnify the expenses incurred by any director, officer, employee or agent that has been successful on the merits or otherwise in defense of any action, suit or proceeding. The DGCL and NRS further provide that indemnification may be made by a corporation upon a determination that indemnification of a former or present director, officer, employee or agent is proper because that person acted in good faith and in a manner the person believed to be in or not opposed to the best interest of the corporation. Under the DGCL, this determination must be made by:

- o a majority vote of disinterested directors, even if less than a quorum;
- o a committee of disinterested directors designated by a majority vote of the disinterested directors, even if less than a quorum;
- o independent legal counsel in a legal opinion if there are no disinterested directors; or
- o the stockholders.

Under the NRS, this determination must be made by:

- o the stockholders;
- o the board of directors by a majority vote of a quorum consisting of directors who were not parties to the action, suit or proceeding;
- o by independent legal counsel in a written opinion of a majority vote if a quorum consisting of directors who were not parties to the action, suit or proceeding so orders; or
- o by independent legal counsel in a written opinion if a quorum consisting of directors who were not parties to the action, suit or proceeding cannot be obtained.

LIMITATION ON LIABILITY

The DGCL permits corporations to adopt a provision in their certificate of incorporation eliminating the liability of a director to the corporation or its stockholders for monetary damages for breach of the director's fiduciary duty of care. With certain exceptions, the NRS permits corporations to adopt similar provisions in their articles of incorporation eliminating the liability of a director to the corporation or its stockholders for monetary damages for breach of the director's fiduciary duty. The Patron certificate of incorporation provides that a director of Patron shall not be liable to Patron or any of its stockholders for monetary damages for breach of fiduciary duty as a director. The articles of incorporation of the Corporation contain a similar provision limiting the prospective liability of directors.

Edgar Filing: PATRON HOLDINGS INC - Form DEFM14C

DIVIDENDS/DISTRIBUTIONS

Subject to any restrictions contained in a corporation's certificate of incorporation, the DGCL generally provides that a corporation may declare and pay dividends out of surplus, defined as net assets minus stated capital, or, when no surplus exists, out of net profits for the fiscal year in which the dividend is declared or for the preceding fiscal year. Dividends may not be paid out of net profits if the capital of the corporation is less than the amount of capital represented by the issued and outstanding stock of all classes having a preference upon the distribution of assets. The Patron certificate of incorporation contains no restrictions on the declaration or payment of dividends.

The NRS provides that no distribution to stockholders may be made if the corporation would not be able to pay its debts as they become due in the usual course of business or the corporation's total assets would be less than the sum of its total liabilities plus the amount that would be needed, if the corporation were to be dissolved at the time of distribution, to satisfy the preferential rights upon dissolution of stockholders whose preferential rights are superior to those receiving the distribution. A distribution to stockholders under the NRS may be in the form of a declaration or payment of a dividend, a purchase, redemption or other acquisition of shares, a distribution of indebtedness or otherwise. The NRS provides that in declaring and paying distributions, a director is fully protected in relying in good faith upon the books of account of the corporation or statements prepared by any of its officials as to the value and amount of the assets, liabilities or net profits of the corporation, or any other facts pertinent to the existence and amount of money from which distributions may properly be declared.

Neither the articles of incorporation nor the bylaws of the Corporation contain any provisions with regard to distributions.

LIQUIDATION

Under the DGCL, a dissolution must be consented to in writing by stockholders holding 100% of the total voting power or the dissolution must be initiated by the board of directors and approved by the holders of a majority of the outstanding voting shares of the corporation. Under the NRS, unless otherwise provided in the corporation's articles of incorporation, stockholders holding a majority of the total voting power may authorize a corporation's dissolution.

Neither the certificate or articles of incorporation nor the bylaws of either Patron or the Corporation contain provisions regarding liquidation.

AMENDMENT OF CERTIFICATE OR ARTICLES OF INCORPORATION

Under both the DGCL and the NRS, unless the certificate or articles of incorporation or bylaws provide otherwise, amendments to the certificate or articles of incorporation generally require the approval of the holders of a majority of the outstanding shares entitled to vote. The DGCL provides that if any amendment would increase or decrease the number of authorized shares of any class or series or the par value of such shares or would adversely affect the shares of such class or series, a majority of the outstanding shares of that class or series would have to approve the amendment. The NRS provides that if any proposed amendment, including a proposed increase or decrease in the number of authorized shares, would alter or change any preference or any relative or other right given to any class or series of outstanding shares, then a majority of the outstanding shares of the affected class or series would have to approve the amendment.

AMENDMENT OF BYLAWS

The DGCL provides that the stockholders entitled to vote shall have the power to adopt, amend or repeal the bylaws of a corporation. The Patron bylaws provide that the board of directors or stockholders holding not less than 66 2/3% of the total voting power of the then outstanding capital stock of Patron entitled to vote thereon may adopt, amend or repeal the bylaws.

The bylaws of the Corporation provide that amendments and changes to the bylaws may be made at any regular or special meeting of the Board of Directors by a vote of not less than all of the entire Board, or may be made by a vote of, or a consent in writing signed by the holders of 51% of the issued and outstanding capital stock.

STOCKHOLDER VOTING WITH RESPECT TO MERGERS

Both the NRS and the DGCL generally require that a majority of the stockholders of the merging corporations approve statutory mergers. The DGCL does not require a stockholder vote of the surviving corporation in a merger, unless the corporation provides otherwise in its certificate of incorporation, if:

- o the merger agreement does not amend the existing certificate of incorporation;
- o each share of the corporation outstanding before the merger is an identical outstanding or treasury share of the surviving corporation after the merger; and
- o the number of shares to be issued by the surviving corporation in the merger does not exceed 20% of the shares of the corporation outstanding immediately prior to the merger.

The NRS provides that the vote of the stockholders of a surviving corporation on a plan of merger is not required if:

- o the articles of incorporation of the surviving corporation will not differ from the articles before the merger;
- o each stockholder of the surviving corporation whose shares were outstanding immediately before the effective date of the merger will hold the same number of shares, with identical designations, preferences, limitations and relative rights immediately after the merger;
- o the number of voting shares outstanding immediately after the merger, plus the number of voting shares issued as a result of the merger, either by the conversion of securities issued as a result of the merger or the exercise of rights and warrants issued as a result of the merger, will not exceed by more than 20% the total number of voting shares of the surviving corporation outstanding immediately prior to the merger; and

- o the number of participating shares outstanding immediately after the merger, plus the number of participating shares issuable as a result of the merger, either by the conversion of securities issued as a result of the merger or the exercise of rights and warrants issued as a result of the merger, will not exceed by more than 20% the total number of participating shares outstanding immediately prior to the merger.

The DGCL generally does not require class voting, except in certain transactions involving an amendment to the certificate of incorporation which adversely affects a specific class of shares. The NRS provides that separate voting by class is required (1) on a plan of merger if the plan contains a provision that, if contained in the proposed amendment to the articles of incorporation, would entitle particular stockholders to vote as a class on the proposed amendment or (2) on a plan of exchange by each class or series of shares included in the exchange, with each class or series constituting a separate voting class.

APPRAISAL AND DISSENTERS' RIGHTS

Under both the NRS and the DGCL, a stockholder of a corporation participating in certain major corporate transactions may, under varying circumstances, be entitled to appraisal or dissenters' rights under which such stockholder may receive cash in the amount of the fair market value of his or her shares in lieu of the consideration he or she would otherwise receive in the transaction.

Under the DGCL, appraisal rights are not available:

- o with respect to the sale, lease or exchange of all or substantially all of the assets of a corporation;
- o with respect to a merger or consolidation by a corporation the shares of which are either listed on a national securities exchange or are held of record by more than 2,000 holders if the stockholders receive only shares of the surviving corporation or shares of any other corporation which are either listed on a national securities exchange or held of record by more than 2,000 holders, plus cash in lieu of fractional shares; or
- o to stockholders of a corporation surviving a merger if no vote of the stockholders of the surviving corporation is required to approve the merger.

The NRS provides that dissenters' rights are not available with respect to a merger or exchange by a corporation the shares of which are listed on a national securities exchange, included in the national market system by the National Association of Securities Dealers, Inc. or held of record by more than 2,000 holders unless the articles of incorporation of the corporation issuing the shares provides otherwise or the holders of the class or series are required under the plan of merger or exchange to accept for the shares anything other than cash or owner's interests of the surviving entity or any other entity which was either listed on a national securities exchange, included in the national market system by the National Association of Securities Dealers, Inc. or held of record by more than 2,000 holders.

STOCKHOLDER APPROVAL OF CERTAIN BUSINESS COMBINATIONS

Sections 78.411 to 78.444 of the NRS prohibit a Nevada corporation from engaging in certain "combinations" with any "interested stockholders." With certain exceptions, an interested stockholder is a person or group who or which owns 10% or more of the corporation's outstanding voting stock, including any rights to acquire stock under an option, warrant, agreement, arrangement or understanding, or upon the exercise of conversion or exchange rights, and stock with respect to which the person has voting rights only, or is an affiliate or associate of the corporation and was the owner of 10% or more of the corporation's voting stock at any time within the previous three years. For purposes of Sections 78.411 to 78.444, the term "combination" is defined broadly to include:

- o mergers or consolidations with the interested stockholder or any other corporation which is, or after the merger or consolidation would be, an affiliate or associate of the interested stockholder;
- o sales or other dispositions to the interested stockholder, or any affiliate or associate of the interested stockholder, of assets of the corporation or a subsidiary equal to:
 - o 5% or more of the aggregate market value of the corporation's consolidated assets or its outstanding stock; or
 - o 10% or more of the corporation's consolidated earning power or net income;
- o the issuance or transfer by the corporation or a subsidiary of stock of the corporation or the subsidiary having an aggregate market value equal to 5% or more of the aggregate outstanding stock of the corporation to the interested stockholder, except for the exercise of warrants or rights to purchase shares offered, or a dividend or distribution paid or made, pro rata to all stockholders of the corporation;
- o the adoption of any plan or proposal for the liquidation or dissolution of the corporation proposed by, or under agreement with, the interested stockholder or any affiliate or associate of the interested stockholder;
- o a reclassification, recapitalization, merger, consolidation or other similar transaction, whether or not with, proposed by or under agreement with the interested stockholder, which has the effect of increasing the proportionate share of the outstanding shares of any class or series of the corporation's outstanding stock owned by the interested stockholder or any affiliate or associate of the interested stockholder, except for immaterial changes because of adjustments of fractional shares; or

- o receipt by the interested stockholder, except proportionately as a stockholder, directly or indirectly, of any loans, advances, guarantees, pledges or other financial benefits provided by or through the corporation or a subsidiary.

Sections 78.411 to 78.444 prohibit combinations with an interested stockholder for three years from the date of the interested stockholder's acquisition of the shares of the corporation unless prior to the date on which the person becomes an interested stockholder, the board of directors approves the combination or the transaction which resulted in the person becoming an interested stockholder.

Furthermore, sections 78.411 to 78.444 prohibit combinations with an interested stockholder after the expiration of the three-year moratorium unless:

- o the holders of stock representing a majority of the outstanding voting power of the corporation not beneficially owned by the interested stockholder proposing the combination, or any affiliate or associate of the interested stockholder, approves the combination at a meeting called for that purpose no earlier than three years after the interested stockholder's date of acquiring the shares; or

- o the aggregate amount of cash and the market value, as of the date of the consummation of the combination, of the consideration other than cash to be received per share by all of the holders of common stock not beneficially owned by the interested stockholder is at least equal to the higher of:

- o the highest price per share paid by the interested stockholder, at a time when he was the beneficial owner of 5% or more of the outstanding voting stock of the corporation, for any common shares of the same class or series acquired by him within three years immediately before the date of the announcement with respect to the combination or within three years immediately before the transaction in which he became an interested stockholder, whichever is higher, plus compounded interest; or

- o the market value per share of common stock on the date of the announcement with respect to the combination or the interested stockholder's date of acquiring shares, whichever is higher, plus compounded interest; and

- o the aggregate amount of cash and the market value, as of the date of the consummation of the combination, of the consideration other than cash to be received per share by all of the holders of shares other than common stock not beneficially owned by the interested stockholder is at least equal to the higher of:

- o the highest price per share paid by the interested stockholder, at a time when he was the beneficial owner of 5% or more of the outstanding voting stock of the corporation, for any common shares of the same class or series acquired by him within three years immediately before the date of the announcement with respect to the combination or within three years immediately before the transaction in which he became an interested stockholder, whichever is higher, plus compounded interest;

o the highest preferential amount per share to which the holders of shares of the class or series of shares are entitled in the event of any voluntary liquidation, dissolution or winding up of the corporation, plus the aggregate amount of any dividends declared or due to which the holders are entitled before payment on another class or series of shares; or

o the market value per share of the class or series of stock on the date of the announcement with respect to the combination or the interested stockholder's date of acquiring shares, whichever is higher, plus compounded interest.

Although Nevada corporations may elect to opt out of sections 78.411 to 78.444 of the NRS by amending their articles of incorporation, such amendment would not be effective until 18 months after the stockholder vote approving it. The Corporation has not made such an election and is therefore subject to these provisions.

Sections 78.378 and 78.379 of the NRS further regulate tender offers and business combinations involving Nevada corporations by providing that any acquisition by a person, either directly or indirectly, of ownership of, or the power to direct the voting of 20% or more of the outstanding voting securities ("Control Shares") of a corporation is an "Acquisition of a Controlling Interest." Before the Control Shares may be voted, such an acquisition must be approved by the holders of a majority of the voting power of the corporation, excluding those shares as to which any interested stockholder exercises voting rights, or, if the acquisition will result in any change of a preference or any relative or other right given to any class or series of outstanding shares, then it must be approved by the holders of a majority of each class or series affected, excluding those shares as to which any interested stockholder exercises voting rights. A special meeting of stockholders must be held by the corporation to approve an Acquisition of a Controlling Interest within 50 days after a request for such meeting is submitted by the person seeking to acquire control. If the Control Shares are accorded full voting rights and the acquiring person has acquired Control Shares with a majority or more of the voting power of the corporation, all stockholders who have not voted in favor of granting full voting rights to the Control Shares have dissenters' rights. The NRS further provides that a corporation may opt out of the Acquisition of a Controlling Interest protections by expressly specifying in its articles of incorporation or bylaws that these provisions do not apply (which provision must be in effect on the tenth day following the acquisition). The Corporation has not amended its bylaws to provide that the foregoing protections do not apply to it.

Section 203 of the DGCL prohibits a Delaware corporation from engaging in a "business combination" with an "interested stockholder" for three years following the date that the person becomes an interested stockholder. With certain exceptions, an interested stockholder is a person or group who or which owns 15% or more of the corporation's outstanding voting stock, including any rights to acquire stock under an option, warrant, agreement, arrangement or understanding, or upon the exercise of conversion or exchange rights, and stock with respect to which the person has voting rights only, or is an affiliate or associate of the corporation and was the owner of 15% or more of the corporation's voting stock at any time within the previous three years. For purposes of Section 203, the term "business combination" is defined broadly to include:

- o mergers with or caused by the interested stockholder;
- o sales or other dispositions to the interested stockholder, except proportionately with the corporation's other stockholders, of assets of the corporation or a subsidiary equal to 10% or more of the aggregate market value of the corporation's consolidated assets or its outstanding stock;
- o the issuance or transfer by the corporation or a subsidiary of stock of the corporation or the subsidiary to the interested stockholder, except for transfers in a conversion or exchange or a pro rata distribution or certain other transactions, none of which increase the interested stockholder's proportionate ownership of any class or series of the corporation's or the subsidiary's stock; or
- o receipt by the interested stockholder, except proportionately as a stockholder, directly or indirectly, of any loans, advances, guarantees, pledges or other financial benefits provided by or through the corporation or a subsidiary.

The three-year moratorium imposed on business combinations by Section 203 does not apply if:

- o prior to the date on which the person becomes an interested stockholder the board of directors approves either the business combination or the transaction which resulted in the person becoming an interested stockholder;
- o the interested stockholder owns 85% of the corporation's voting stock upon consummation of the transaction which made him an interested stockholder, excluding from the 85% calculation shares owned by directors who are also officers of the target corporation and shares held by employee stock plans which do not permit employees to decide confidentially whether to accept a tender or exchange offer; or

- o on or after the date the person becomes an interested stockholder, the board approves the business combination and it is also approved at a stockholder meeting by 66 2/3% of the voting stock not owned by the interested stockholder.

Section 203 only applies to Delaware corporations which have a class of voting stock that is listed on a national securities exchange, are quoted on an interdealer quotation system such as The Nasdaq National Market or are held of record by more than 2,000 stockholders. A Delaware corporation may elect not to be governed by Section 203 by a provision in its original certificate of incorporation or an amendment to the certificate or to the bylaws, which amendment must be approved by majority stockholder vote and may not be further amended by the board of directors. The certificate of incorporation of Patron does not contain any provision evidencing an election not to be governed by Section 203. However, Patron could choose to amend its certificate of incorporation or bylaws in the future and elect not to be governed by Section

INSPECTION OF STOCKHOLDERS' LIST

The DGCL allows any stockholder to inspect the stockholders' list for a purpose reasonably related to that person's interest as a stockholder, upon written demand under oath stating the purpose of the request. The NRS allows any person who has been a stockholder for at least six months or who holds an aggregate of 5% or more of the corporation's shares to inspect the stockholders' list. The Patron bylaws allow any stockholder to inspect the stockholder list at least 10 days prior to the annual meeting of stockholders. Neither the articles of incorporation nor the bylaws of the Corporation contain provisions regarding the inspection of the stockholders' list.

VOTE REQUIRED - ADOPTION OF PLAN OF MERGER.

On October 23, 2002, the outstanding voting securities of the Corporation were 29,888,888 shares of Common Stock, par value $0.001 per share. Each share of Common Stock held of record counted as one vote. A majority, or 14,944,445 votes, were required to adopt the Plan of Merger. 19,000,000 votes, representing approximately 63.5% of the issued and outstanding Common Stock, signed the consent of stockholders approving the Merger.

RIGHTS OF DISSENTING STOCKHOLDERS.

Any Corporation stockholder is entitled to be paid the fair value of its shares in accordance with Section 92A.300 to 92A.500 of the NRS if the stockholder dissents to the Merger. A brief summary of the provisions of NRS Sections 92A.300 to 92A.500 is set forth below and the complete text of such provisions is set forth in Exhibit D.

Because the Merger will be approved by the required vote of the Corporation's stockholders effective twenty days from the mailing of this Information Statement, each holder of shares of Common Stock who asserts dissenters' rights and who follows the procedures set forth in Chapter 92A of NRS, will be entitled to have his or her shares of Common Stock purchased by Patron for cash at their fair market value. The fair market value of shares of Common Stock will be determined as of the day before the first announcement of the terms of the Merger, excluding any appreciation or depreciation in consequence of the Merger.

A holder who wishes to exercise dissenters' rights must:

1. deliver to the Corporation written demand for payment of fair value for his shares of Common Stock (see Form of "Dissenter's Demand for Payment" attached hereto as Exhibit E);
2. have acquired beneficial ownership of the shares prior to October 23, 2002, the date that the Merger was first announced publicly; and
3. deposit his or her stock certificates with the Corporation at 311 Belle Foret Drive, Suite 150, Lake Bluff, Illinois 60044, Attention: Corporate Secretary.

Edgar Filing: PATRON HOLDINGS INC - Form DEFM14C

The written demand must be received by the Corporation, ON OR BEFORE 10:00 A.M. CENTRAL STANDARD TIME ON April 26, 2003. Any stockholder who does not follow the foregoing is not entitled to payment for his or her shares under the NRS.

Within 30 days after receipt of a demand for payment, Patron shall pay each dissenter who complied with the requirements set forth in the dissenter's notice the amount it estimates to be the fair value of the stockholder's shares, plus accrued interest (computed from the effective date of the action until the date of payment). Payment must be accompanied by the Corporation's balance sheet as of the end of a fiscal year ending not more than 16 months before the date of payment, a statement of income for that year, a statement of changes in the stockholders' equity for that year and the latest available interim financial statements, if any, along with a statement of the Corporation's estimate of the fair value of the shares, an explanation how the interest was calculated, a statement of the dissenter's rights to demand payment under NRS Section 92A.480 and a copy of NRS Sections 92A.300 through 92A.500.

Pursuant to NRS Section 92A.470, the Corporation may withhold payment from a dissenter unless he was the beneficial owner of the shares before the date set in the dissenter's notice. If the Corporation withholds payment, after taking the proposed action, it shall estimate the fair value of the shares, plus accrued interest, and shall offer to pay this amount to each dissenter who agrees to accept it in full satisfaction of his demand. The offer shall contain a statement of its estimate of the fair value, an explanation of how the interest was calculated, and a statement of dissenters' rights pursuant to NRS Section 92A.480.

A dissenter may notify the Corporation in writing of his estimate of the fair value of the shares and the amount of interest due and demand payment of his estimate, less any payment made pursuant to NRS Section 92A.460, or reject the offer made pursuant to NRS 92A.470 and demand payment of the fair value of his shares and interest due. A dissenter waives his right to demand payment unless he makes his demand in writing within 30 days after the Corporation has made or offered payment for his shares.

If any demand for payment remains unsettled, the Corporation shall commence a proceeding within 60 days of the dissenter's demand with the district court in the County of Clark, State of Nevada (location of registered office), petitioning the court to determine the fair value of the shares and accrued interest. All dissenters whose demands remain unsettled, whether or not residents of Nevada, shall be made parties to the court action and shall be served with a copy of the petition. Nonresidents may be served by registered or certified mail or by publication as provided by law. If the Corporation does not so petition the court within this 60-day period, it shall pay all unsettled demands. Each dissenter who is party to the proceeding is entitled to a judgment:

- o for the amount, if any, by which the court finds the fair value of his shares, plus interest, exceeds the amount paid by the Corporation; or
- o for the fair value, plus accrued interest, of his after-acquired shares for which the Corporation elected to withhold payment pursuant to NRS Section 92A.470. The court shall assess costs pursuant to NRS Section

Edgar Filing: PATRON HOLDINGS INC - Form DEFM14C

92A.500.

The foregoing summary does not purport to provide comprehensive statements of the procedures to be followed by a dissenting stockholder who seeks payment of the fair value of his shares of Common Stock. The NRS establishes the procedures to be followed and failure to do so may result in the loss of all dissenters' rights. Accordingly, each stockholder who might desire to exercise dissenters' rights should carefully consider and comply with the provisions of these sections, the full text of which is set out in Exhibit D to this Information Statement and consult his or her legal advisor.

THE CORPORATION HAS RESERVED THE RIGHT TO ABANDON THE MERGER IF IT DECIDES THAT THE NUMBER OF STOCKHOLDERS EXERCISING DISSENTERS' RIGHTS EXCEEDS AN AMOUNT IT DEEMS ACCEPTABLE IN ITS SOLE AND ABSOLUTE DISCRETION.

Communications with respect to dissenters' rights should be addressed to the Corporation at 311 Belle Foret Drive, Suite 150, Lake Bluff, Illinois 60044, attention: Corporate Secretary.

Upon filing a demand for payment a dissenting stockholder will cease to have any of the rights of a stockholder except the right to be paid the fair value of his Common Stock pursuant to the NRS. Stockholders holding shares not represented by certificates will not be permitted to transfer their shares after a demand for payment is filed. If a stockholder loses his dissenters' rights, either by withdrawal of his demand, abandonment of the Merger by the Corporation or otherwise, he will not have the right to receive a cash payment for his Common Stock and will be reinstated to all of his rights as a stockholder as they existed at the time of the filing of his demand.

THE PROVISIONS OF NRS SECTIONS 92A.300 TO 92A.500 ARE TECHNICAL AND COMPLEX. ANY STOCKHOLDER WHO DESIRES TO EXERCISE RIGHTS TO DISSENT SHOULD CONSULT LEGAL COUNSEL, BECAUSE FAILURE TO COMPLY STRICTLY WITH SUCH PROVISIONS MAY LEAD TO A LOSS OF DISSENTERS' RIGHTS.

FEDERAL INCOME TAX CONSEQUENCES OF THE MERGER

The Corporation and Patron intend and believe that, for federal income tax purposes:

- o the Merger will constitute a reorganization within the meaning of Section 368(a) of the Internal Revenue Code of 1986, as amended;
- o no gain or loss will be recognized by Corporation stockholders upon the exchange of Common Stock for Patron common stock in the Merger;
- o a stockholders' aggregate tax basis in Patron common stock after the Merger will be the same as such holder's aggregate tax basis in the shares of the Common Stock immediately prior to the Merger; and
- o no gain or loss will be recognized by the Corporation or Patron as a consequence of the Merger.

Neither the Corporation nor Patron has requested or intends to request a ruling from the Internal Revenue Service or an opinion of counsel regarding any tax consequences of the Merger.

THE DISCUSSION SET FORTH ABOVE CONCERNING CERTAIN FEDERAL INCOME TAX

These shares were subsequently cancelled.

Mr. Allin also is eligible to participate in stock option and other employee benefit plans of Patron that may be in effect from time to time.

If Mr. Allin's employment is terminated as a result of his death, Patron will pay to Mr. Allin's estate his accrued but unpaid base salary, his accrued but unused vacation and a pro rata annual bonus. If Mr. Allin's employment is terminated because of his incapacity, Patron will pay to Mr. Allin for not fewer than three years an annual disability benefit equal to 60% of the sum of his base salary and annual bonus, reduced by amounts payable to Mr. Allin under Patron's disability insurance policy. If Mr. Allin's employment is terminated by Patron for Cause (as defined in the employment agreement) or by Mr. Allin without Good Reason (as defined in the employment agreement), Patron will pay to Mr. Allin his accrued but unpaid base salary. (c) Notwithstanding anything to the contrary in this Plan of Merger, each stockholder of the Company, by virtue of such stockholder's execution and delivery of a written consent dated the date hereof approving the Merger and this Plan of Merger, has waived any and all rights that such stockholder might otherwise have to dissent from the Merger and this Plan of Merger and to demand appraisal for such stockholder's shares of the Company Stock.

Common Stock shall be entitled to one vote for each such share upon all questions presented to the stockholders.

(D) Vote. Except as may be provided in this Certificate of Incorporation or in a Preferred Stock Designation, or as may be required by applicable law, the Common Stock shall have the exclusive right to vote for the election of directors and for all other purposes, and holders of shares of Preferred Stock shall not be entitled to receive notice of any meeting of stockholders at which they are not entitled to vote.

(E) Record Holders. The Corporation shall be entitled to treat the person in whose name any share of its stock is registered on the stock transfer books of the Corporation as the owner thereof for all purposes and shall not be bound to recognize any equitable or other claim to, or interest in, such share on the part of any other person, whether or not the Corporation shall have notice thereof, except as expressly provided by applicable law.

ARTICLE V

The Board of Directors is hereby authorized to create and issue, whether or not in connection with the issuance and sale of any of its stock or other securities or property, rights entitling the holders thereof to purchase from the Corporation shares of stock or other securities of the Corporation or any other corporation. The times at which and the terms upon which such rights are to be issued will be determined by the Board of Directors and set forth in the contracts or instruments that evidence such rights. The authority of the Board of Directors with respect to such rights shall include, but not be limited to, determination of the following:

(A) The initial purchase price per share or other unit of the stock or other securities or property to be purchased upon exercise of such rights;

(B) Provisions relating to the times at which and the circumstances under which such rights may be exercised or sold or otherwise transferred, either together with or separately from, any other stock or other securities of the Corporation;

(C) Provisions which adjust the number or exercise price of such rights or amount or nature of the stock or other securities or property receivable upon exercise of such rights in the event of a combination, split or recapitalization of any stock of the Corporation, a change in ownership of the Corporation's stock or other securities or a reorganization, merger, consolidation, sale of assets or other occurrence relating to the Corporation or any stock of the Corporation, and provisions restricting the ability of the Corporation to enter into any such transaction absent an assumption by the other party or parties thereto of the obligations of the Corporation under such rights;

(D) Provisions which deny the holder of a specified percentage of the outstanding stock or other securities of the Corporation the right to exercise such rights and/or cause the rights held by such holder to become void;

(E) Provisions which permit the Corporation to redeem or exchange such rights; and

(F) The appointment of a rights agent with respect to such rights.

ARTICLE VI

(A) In furtherance and not in limitation of the powers conferred by law, the Board of Directors is expressly authorized and empowered:

(i) to adopt, amend or repeal the Bylaws of the Corporation, provided, however, that the Bylaws may also be altered, amended or repealed by the affirmative vote of the holders of at least 66 2/3 percent of the voting power of the then outstanding Voting Stock (as defined in Article VIII below), voting together as a single class; and

(ii) from time to time to determine whether and to what extent, and at what times and places, and under what conditions and regulations, the accounts and books of the Corporation, or any of them, shall be open to inspection of stockholders; and, except as so determined, or as expressly provided in this Certificate of Incorporation or in any Preferred Stock Designation, no stockholder shall have any right to inspect any account, book or document of the Corporation other than such rights as may be conferred by applicable law.

(B) In addition to any other considerations which the Board of Directors may lawfully take into account, in determining whether to take or to refrain from taking corporate action on any matter, including proposing any matter to the stockholders of the Corporation, the Board of Directors may take into account the long-term as well as short-term interests of the Corporation and its stockholders (including the possibility that these interests may be best served by the continued independence of the Corporation), and the interests of creditors, customers, employees and other constituencies of the Corporation and its subsidiaries, including the effect upon communities in which the Corporation and its subsidiaries do business.

(C) The Corporation may in its Bylaws confer powers upon the Board of Directors in addition to the foregoing and in addition to the powers and authorities expressly conferred upon the Board of Directors by law.

ARTICLE VII

Effective from and after the date upon which the Corporation shall be subject to the reporting requirements of Section 13 or 15(d) of the Securities Exchange Act of 1934, as amended, subject to the rights of the holders of any series of Preferred Stock to elect additional directors under specific circumstances or to consent to specific actions taken by the Corporation, any action required or permitted to be taken by the stockholders of the Corporation must be effected at a duly called annual or special meeting of stockholders of the Corporation and may not be effected by any consent in writing in lieu of a meeting of such stockholders.

ARTICLE VIII

(A) Subject to the rights of the holders of any series of Preferred Stock to elect additional directors under specific circumstances, the number of directors that shall constitute the whole Board of Directors of the Corporation shall be fixed in the manner prescribed in the Bylaws of the Corporation and may be increased or decreased from time to time in such a manner as may be prescribed by the Bylaws.

Edgar Filing: PATRON HOLDINGS INC - Form DEFM14C

(B) Subject to the rights of the holders of any series of Preferred Stock to fill any newly created directorships or vacancies, any vacancy on the Board of Directors that results from an increase in the number of directors or for any other reason may be filled by a majority of the directors then in office, although less than a quorum, or by a sole remaining director.

(C) Unless and except to the extent that the Bylaws of the Corporation shall so require, the election of directors of the Corporation need not be by written ballot.

(D) The directors, other than those who may be elected by the holders of any series of Preferred Stock, shall be divided into three classes, as nearly equal in number as possible, and designated as Class I, Class II and Class III. Class I directors shall be initially elected for a term expiring at the 2003 annual meeting of stockholders, Class II directors shall be initially elected for a term expiring at the 2004 annual meeting of stockholders, and Class III directors shall be initially elected for a term expiring at the 2005 annual meeting of stockholders. Members of each class shall hold office until their successors are duly elected and qualified. At each succeeding annual meeting of the stockholders of the Corporation, the successors of the class of directors whose term expires at that meeting shall be elected by a plurality of the votes of the shares of Voting Stock present in person or represented by proxy at such meeting and entitled to vote on the election of directors and shall hold office for a term expiring at the annual meeting of stockholders held in the third year following the year of their election, and until their successors are duly elected and qualified, subject to death, resignation or removal from office.

(E) Notwithstanding the foregoing, whenever the holders of any one or more classes or series of Preferred Stock issued by the Corporation shall have the right, voting separately by class or series, to elect directors at an annual or special meeting of stockholders, the election, term of office, filling of vacancies and other features of such directorships shall be governed by the terms of this Certificate of Incorporation applicable thereto, and such directors shall not be divided into classes pursuant to this Article VIII unless expressly provided by such terms.

(F) Subject to the rights of the holders of any series of Preferred Stock, any director may be removed from office at any time, but only for cause and only by the affirmative vote of the holders of at least 50 percent of the voting power of the then outstanding Voting Stock, voting together as a single class. For the purposes of this Certificate of Incorporation, "Voting Stock" shall mean the outstanding shares of capital stock of the Corporation entitled to vote generally in the election of directors.

ARTICLE IX

No director of the Corporation shall be personally liable to the Corporation or its stockholders for monetary damages for breach of fiduciary duty as a director, except for liability (i) for any breach of the director's duty of loyalty to the Corporation or its stockholders, (ii) for acts or omissions not in good faith or which involve intentional misconduct or a knowing violation of law, (iii) under Section 174 of the General Corporation Law of the State of Delaware, or (iv) for any transaction from which the director derived an improper personal benefit. Any amendment or repeal of this Article IX by the stockholders shall not adversely affect any right or protection of a director of the Corporation existing hereunder in respect of any act or omission occurring prior to such amendment or repeal.

ARTICLE X

Each person who is or was or had agreed to become a director or officer of the Corporation, or each person who is or was serving or who had agreed to serve at the request of the Board of Directors or an officer of the Corporation as a director, officer, employee or agent of another corporation, partnership, joint venture, trust or other enterprise (including the heirs, executors, administrators of estate of such person), shall be indemnified by the Corporation in accordance with and pursuant to the Bylaws of the Corporation. The Corporation may provide indemnification to employees and agents of the Corporation to the extent provided by action of the Board of Directors pursuant to the Bylaws. Without limiting the generality or the effect of the foregoing, the Corporation may enter into one or more agreements with any person which provide for indemnification greater or different than that provided in this Article X. Any amendment or repeal of this Article X shall not adversely affect any right or protection existing hereunder in respect of any act or omission occurring prior to such amendment or repeal.

ARTICLE XI

In furtherance and not in limitation of the powers conferred by law or in this Certificate of Incorporation, the Board of Directors (and any committee of the Board of Directors) is expressly authorized, to the extent permitted by law, to take such action or actions as the Board of Directors or such committee may determine to be reasonably necessary or desirable to (A) encourage any individual, limited partnership, general partnership, corporation or other firm or entity (a "person") to enter into negotiations with the Board of Directors and management of the Corporation with respect to any transaction which may result in a change in control of the Corporation which is proposed or initiated by such person or (B) contest or oppose any such transaction which the Board of Directors or such committee determines to be unfair, abusive or otherwise undesirable with respect to the Corporation and its business, assets or properties or the stockholders of the Corporation, including, without limitation, the adoption of such plans or the issuance of such rights, options, capital stock, notes, debentures or other evidences of indebtedness or other securities of the Corporation, which rights, options, capital stock, notes, debentures or other evidences of indebtedness and other securities (i) may be exchangeable for or convertible into cash or other securities on such terms and conditions as may be determined by the Board of Directors or such committee and (ii) may provide for the treatment of any holder or class of holders thereof designated by the Board of Directors or any such committee in respect of the terms, conditions, provisions and rights of such securities which is different from, and unequal to, the terms, conditions, provisions and rights applicable to all other holders thereof.

ARTICLE XII

The Corporation shall have the right at any time and from time to time to amend, alter, change or repeal any provision contained in this Certificate of Incorporation, or any Preferred Stock Designation, and any other provisions authorized by the laws of the State of Delaware at the time in force may be added or inserted, in the manner now or hereafter prescribed herein or by law; and all rights, preferences and privileges of whatsoever nature conferred upon stockholders, directors or any other persons whomsoever by and pursuant to this Certificate of Incorporation in its present form or as hereafter amended are granted subject to the right reserved in this Article XII; provided, however, that any amendment or repeal of Article IX or Article X of this Certificate of Incorporation shall not adversely affect any right or protection existing hereunder in respect of any act or omission occurring prior to such amendment or repeal; and provided further that no Preferred Stock Designation shall be amended after the issuance of any shares of the series of Preferred Stock created thereby, except in accordance with the terms of such Preferred Stock Designation and the requirements of applicable law.

Stockholders Meetings

Section 1.1 Annual Meetings.

(a) An annual meeting of stockholders shall be held for the election of directors and the transaction of such other business as may properly be brought before the meeting in accordance with these Bylaws at such date, time and place, if any, as may be fixed by resolution of the Board of Directors of the Corporation from time to time. The Board of Directors may, in its sole discretion, determine that the meeting shall not be held at any place, but shall be held solely by means of remote communication, subject to such guidelines and procedures as the Board of Directors may adopt, as permitted by applicable law. Subject to paragraph (b) of this Section 1.1, any other proper business may be transacted at an annual meeting.

(b) Only such business shall be conducted at an annual meeting of stockholders as shall have been properly brought before the meeting. For business to be properly brought before the meeting, it must be: (i) authorized by the Board of Directors and specified in the notice, or a supplemental notice, of the meeting, (ii) otherwise brought before the meeting by or at the direction of the Board of Directors or the chairman of the meeting, or (iii) otherwise properly brought before the meeting by a stockholder. For business to be properly brought before an annual meeting by a stockholder, the stockholder must have given written notice thereof to the Secretary of the Corporation, delivered or mailed to and received at the principal executive offices of the Corporation not less than 90 days nor more than 120 days prior to the anniversary date of the immediately preceding annual meeting; provided, however, that in the event that no annual meeting was held in the previous year or the annual meeting is called for a date that is not within 30 days from the anniversary date of the preceding year's annual meeting date, written notice by a stockholder in order to be timely must be received not later than the close of business on the tenth day following the day on which the first public disclosure of the date of the annual meeting was made. Delivery shall be by hand or by certified or registered mail, return receipt requested. In no event shall the public disclosure of an adjournment of an annual meeting commence a new time period for the giving of stockholder's notice as described above. A stockholder's notice to the Secretary shall set forth as to each item of business the stockholder proposes to bring before the meeting: (1) a description of such item and the reasons for conducting such business at the meeting, (2) the name and address, as they appear on the Corporation's records, of the stockholder proposing such business, (3) a representation that the stockholder is a holder of record of shares of stock of the Corporation entitled to vote with respect to such business and intends to appear in person or by proxy at the meeting to move the consideration of such business, (4) the class and number of shares of stock of the Corporation which are beneficially owned by the stockholder (for purposes of the regulations under Sections 13 and 14 of the Securities Exchange Act of 1934, as amended), and (5) a description of all arrangements or understandings between such stockholder and any other person or persons (including their names) in connection with the proposal of such business by such stockholder and any material interest of such stockholder in such business. No business shall be conducted at any annual meeting except in accordance with the procedures set forth in this paragraph (b). The chairman of the meeting at which any business is proposed by a stockholder shall, if the facts warrant, determine and declare to the meeting that such business was not properly brought before the meeting in accordance with the provisions of this paragraph (b), and, in such event, the business not properly before the meeting shall not be transacted.

Section 1.2 Special Meetings. Special meetings of stockholders for any purpose or purposes may be called at any time only by the Chairman of the Board, if any, or pursuant to a resolution approved by a majority of the whole Board of Directors or by a committee of the Board of Directors authorized to call such meetings and by no other person. The Board of Directors may, in its sole discretion, determine that the special meeting shall not be held at any place, but shall be held solely by means of remote communication, subject to such guidelines and procedures as the Board of Directors may adopt, as permitted by applicable law. The business transacted at a special meeting of stockholders shall be limited solely to matters relating to the purpose or purposes stated in the Corporation's notice of meeting.

Section 1.3 Notice of Meetings. A written notice of each annual or special meeting of stockholders shall be given stating the place, if any, date and time of the meeting, the means of remote communications, if any, by which stockholders and proxyholders may be deemed to be present in person and vote at such meeting and, in the case of a special meeting, the purpose or purposes for which the meeting is called. Unless otherwise provided by law, the Certificate of Incorporation or these Bylaws, such notice of meeting shall be given not less than ten nor more than 60 days before the date of the meeting to each stockholder of record entitled to vote at such meeting, personally, by mail or, to the extent and in the manner permitted by applicable law, electronically. If mailed, such notice shall be deemed to be given when deposited in the mail, postage prepaid, directed to the stockholder at such stockholder's address as it appears on the records of the Corporation.

Section 1.4 Adjournments. Any annual or special meeting of stockholders may be adjourned from time to time to reconvene at the same or some other place, if any, and notice need not be given of any such adjourned meeting if the date, time and place, if any, thereof and the means of remote communication, if any, by which stockholders and proxyholders may be deemed present in person and vote at such adjourned meeting are announced at the meeting at which the adjournment is taken. At the adjourned meeting any business may be transacted which might have been transacted at the original meeting. If the adjournment is for more than 30 days, or if after the adjournment a new record date is fixed for the adjourned meeting, a notice of the adjourned meeting shall be given to each stockholder of record entitled to vote at the adjourned meeting in accordance with Section 1.3.

Section 1.5 Quorum. Except as otherwise provided by law, the Certificate of Incorporation or these Bylaws, the presence in person or by proxy of the holders of stock having a majority of the votes which could be cast by the holders of all outstanding stock entitled to vote at the meeting shall constitute a quorum at each meeting of stockholders. In the absence of a quorum, the stockholders so present may, by the affirmative vote of the holders of stock having a majority of the votes which could be cast by all such holders, adjourn the meeting from time to time in the manner provided in Section 1.4 of these Bylaws until a quorum is present. If a quorum is present when a meeting is convened, the subsequent withdrawal of stockholders, even though less than a quorum remains, shall not affect the ability of the remaining stockholders lawfully to transact business.

Section 1.6 Conduct; Remote Communication. (a) Meetings of stockholders shall be presided over by the Chairman of the Board, if any, or if there is none or in his or her absence, by the President, or in his or her absence, by a chairman designated by the Board of Directors, or in the absence of such designation by a chairman chosen at the meeting. The Secretary shall act as secretary of the meeting, but in his or her absence the chairman of the meeting may appoint any person to act as secretary of the meeting.

(a) If authorized by the Board of Directors in accordance with these Bylaws and applicable law, stockholders and proxyholders not physically present at a meeting of stockholders may, by means of remote communication, (1) participate in a meeting of stockholders and (2) be deemed present in person and vote at a meeting of stockholders, whether such meeting is to be held at a designated place or solely by means of remote communication, provided that (i) the Corporation shall implement reasonable measures to verify that each person deemed present and permitted to vote at the meeting by means of remote communication is a stockholder or proxyholder, (ii) the Corporation shall implement reasonable measures to provide such stockholders and proxyholders a reasonable opportunity to participate in the meeting and to vote on matters submitted to the stockholders, including an opportunity to read or hear the proceedings of the meeting substantially concurrently with such proceedings, and (iii) if any stockholder or proxyholder votes or takes other action at the meeting by means of remote communication, a record of such vote or other action shall be maintained by the Corporation.

Section 1.7 Voting.

(a) Except as otherwise provided by the Certificate of Incorporation, each stockholder entitled to vote at any meeting of stockholders shall be entitled to one vote for each share of stock held by such stockholder which has voting power on the matter in question.

(b) Voting at meetings of stockholders need not be by written ballot and need not be conducted by inspectors of election unless so required by Section 1.9 of these Bylaws or so determined by the holders of stock having a majority of the votes which could be cast by the holders of all outstanding stock entitled to vote which are present in person or by proxy at such meeting. Unless otherwise provided in the Certificate of Incorporation, directors shall be elected by a plurality of the votes cast in the election of directors. Each other question shall, unless otherwise provided by law, the Certificate of Incorporation or these Bylaws, be decided by the vote of the holders of stock having a majority of the votes which could be cast by the holders of all stock entitled to vote on such question which are present in person or by proxy at the meeting.

(c) Stock of the Corporation standing in the name of another corporation and entitled to vote may be voted by such officer, agent or proxy as the Bylaws or other internal regulations of such other corporation may prescribe or, in the absence of such provision, as the board of directors or comparable body of such other corporation may determine.

(d) Stock of the Corporation standing in the name of a deceased person, a minor, an incompetent or a debtor in a case under Title 11, United States Code, and entitled to vote may be voted by an administrator, executor, guardian, conservator, debtor-in-possession or trustee, as the case may be, either in person or by proxy, without transfer of such shares into the name of the official or other person so voting.

(e) A stockholder whose voting stock of the Corporation is pledged shall be entitled to vote such stock unless on the transfer records of the Corporation the pledgor has expressly empowered the pledgee to vote such shares, in which case only the pledgee, or such pledgee's proxy, may represent such shares and vote thereon.

(f) If voting stock is held of record in the names of two or more persons, whether fiduciaries, members of a partnership, joint tenants, tenants in common, tenants by the entirety or otherwise, or if two or more persons have the same fiduciary relationship respecting the same shares, unless the Secretary is given written notice to the contrary and is furnished with a copy of the instrument or order appointing them or creating the relationship wherein it is so provided, their acts with respect to voting shall have the following effect: (i) if only one votes, such act binds all; (ii) if more than one vote, the act of the majority so voting binds all; and (iii) if more than one votes, but the vote is evenly split on any particular matter each faction may vote such stock proportionally, or any person voting the shares, or a beneficiary, if any, may apply to the Court of Chancery of the State of Delaware or such other court as may have jurisdiction to appoint an additional person to act with the persons so voting the stock, which shall then be voted as determined by a majority of such persons and the person appointed by the Court. If the instrument so filed shows that any such tenancy is held in unequal interests, a majority or even split for the purpose of this subsection shall be a majority or even split in interest.

(g) Stock of the Corporation belonging to the Corporation, or to another corporation a majority of the shares entitled to vote in the election of directors of which are held by the Corporation, shall not be voted at any meeting of stockholders and shall not be counted in the total number of outstanding shares for the purpose of determining whether a quorum is present. Nothing in this Section 1.7 shall limit the right of the Corporation to vote shares of stock of the Corporation held by it in a fiduciary capacity.

Section 1.8 Proxies.

(a) Each stockholder entitled to vote at a meeting of stockholders may authorize another person or persons to act for such stockholder by proxy filed with the Secretary before or at the time of the meeting. No such proxy shall be voted or acted upon after three years from its date, unless the proxy provides for a longer period. A duly executed proxy shall be irrevocable if it states that it is irrevocable and if, and only as long as, it is coupled with an interest sufficient in law to support an irrevocable power. A

stockholder may revoke any proxy

which is not irrevocable by attending the meeting and voting in person or by filing with the Secretary an instrument in writing revoking the proxy or another duly executed proxy bearing a later date.

(b) A stockholder may authorize another person or persons to act for such stockholder as proxy (i) by executing a writing authorizing such person or persons to act as such, which execution may be accomplished by such stockholder or such stockholder's authorized officer, director, partner, employee or agent (or, if the stock is held in a trust or estate, by a trustee, executor or administrator thereof) signing such writing or causing his or her signature to be affixed to such writing by any reasonable means, including, but not limited to, facsimile signature, or (ii) by transmitting or authorizing the transmission of a telegram, cablegram or other means of electronic transmission (a "Transmission") to the person who will be the holder of the proxy or to a proxy solicitation firm, proxy support service organization or like agent duly authorized by the person who will be the holder of the proxy to receive such Transmission; provided that any such Transmission must either set forth or be submitted with information from which it can be determined that such Transmission was authorized by such stockholder.

(c) Any inspector or inspectors appointed pursuant to Section 1.9 of these Bylaws shall examine Transmissions to determine if they are valid. If no inspector or inspectors are so appointed, the Secretary or such other person or persons as shall be appointed from time to time by the Board of Directors shall examine Transmissions to determine if they are valid. If it is determined that a Transmission is valid, the person or persons making that determination shall specify the information upon which such person or persons relied. Any copy, facsimile telecommunication or other reliable reproduction of such a writing or Transmission may be substituted or used in lieu of the original writing or Transmission for any and all purposes for which the original writing or Transmission could be used; provided that such copy, facsimile telecommunication or other reproduction shall be a complete reproduction of the entire original writing or Transmission.

Section 1.9 Voting Procedures and Inspectors of Elections.

(a) If the Corporation has a class of voting stock that is (i) listed on a national securities exchange, (ii) authorized for quotation on an interdealer quotation system of a registered national securities association or (iii) held of record by more than 2,000 stockholders, the Board of Directors shall, in advance of any meeting of stockholders, appoint one or more inspectors (individually an "Inspector," and collectively the "Inspectors") to act at such meeting and make a written report thereof. The Board of Directors may designate one or more persons as alternate Inspectors to replace any Inspector who shall fail to act. If no Inspector or alternate is able to act at such meeting, the chairman of the meeting shall appoint one or more other persons to act as Inspectors. Each Inspector, before entering upon the discharge of his or her duties, shall take and sign an oath faithfully to execute the duties of Inspector with strict impartiality and according to the best of his or her ability.

(b) The Inspectors shall (i) ascertain the number of shares of stock of the Corporation outstanding and the voting power of each, (ii) determine the number of shares of stock of the Corporation present in person or by proxy at such meeting and the validity of proxies and ballots, (iii) count all votes and ballots, (iv) determine and retain for a reasonable period of time a record of the disposition of any challenges made to any determination by the Inspectors and (v) certify their determination of the number of such shares present in person or by proxy at such meeting and their count of all votes and ballots. The Inspectors may appoint or retain other persons or entities to assist them in the performance of their duties.

(c) The date and time of the opening and the closing of the polls for each matter upon which the stockholders will vote at a meeting shall be announced at such meeting. No ballots, proxies or votes, nor any revocations thereof or changes thereto, shall be accepted by the Inspectors after the closing of the polls unless the Court of Chancery of the State of Delaware upon application by any stockholder shall determine otherwise.

(d) In determining the validity and counting of proxies and ballots, the Inspectors shall be limited to an examination of the proxies, any envelopes submitted with such proxies, any information referred to in paragraphs (b) and (c) of Section 1.8 of these Bylaws, ballots and the regular books and records of the Corporation, except that the Inspectors may consider other reliable information for the limited purpose of reconciling proxies and ballots submitted by or on behalf of banks, brokers, their nominees or similar persons which represent more votes than the holder of a proxy is authorized by a stockholder of record to cast or more votes than such stockholder holds of record. If the Inspectors consider other reliable information for the limited purpose permitted herein, the Inspectors, at the time they make their certification pursuant to paragraph (b) of this Section 1.9, shall specify the precise information considered by them, including the person or persons from whom such information was obtained, when and the means by which such information was obtained and the basis for the Inspectors' belief that such information is accurate and reliable.

Section 1.10 Fixing Date of Determination of Stockholders of Record.

(a) In order that the Corporation may determine the stockholders entitled (i) to notice of or to vote at any meeting of stockholders or any adjournment thereof, (ii) to receive payment of any dividend or other distribution or allotment of any rights, (iii) to exercise any rights in respect of any change, conversion or exchange of stock, or (iv) to take, receive or participate in any other action, the Board of Directors may fix a record date, which shall not be earlier than the date upon which the resolution fixing the record date is adopted by the Board of Directors and which (1) in the case of a determination of stockholders entitled to notice of or to vote at any meeting of stockholders or adjournment thereof, shall, unless otherwise required by law, be not more than 60 nor less than ten days before the date of such meeting; and (2) in the case of any other action, shall be not more than 60 days before such action.

(b) If no record date is fixed, (i) the record date for determining stockholders entitled to notice of or to vote at a meeting of stockholders shall be at the close of business on the day next preceding the day on which notice is given, or, if notice is waived, at the close of business on the day next preceding the day on which the meeting is held; and (ii) the record date for determining stockholders for any other purpose shall be at the close of business on the day on which the Board of Directors adopts the resolution relating thereto.

(c) A determination of stockholders of record entitled to notice of or to vote at a meeting of stockholders shall apply to any adjournment of the meeting, but the Board of Directors may fix a new record date for the adjourned meeting.

Section 1.11 List of Stockholders Entitled to Vote. The Secretary shall prepare, at least ten days before every meeting of stockholders, a complete list of the stockholders entitled to vote at the meeting, arranged in alphabetical order, and showing the address and the number of shares registered in the name of each stockholder. Such list shall be open to the examination of any stockholder, for any purpose germane to the meeting for a period of at least ten days prior to the meeting: (i) on a reasonably accessible electronic network, provided that the information required to gain access to such list is provided with the notice of the meeting, or (ii) during ordinary business hours, at the principal place of business of the Corporation. In the event that the Corporation determines to make the list available on an electronic network, the Corporation may take reasonable steps to ensure that such information is available only to stockholders of the Corporation. If the meeting is to be held at a place, the list shall also be produced and kept at the time and place of the meeting during the whole time thereof and may be inspected by any stockholder who is present. If the meeting is to be held solely by means of remote communication, the list shall be open to the examination of any stockholder during the whole time thereof on a reasonably accessible electronic network, and the information required to access such list shall be provided with the notice of the meeting. The stock ledger shall be the only evidence as to who are the stockholders entitled to examine the stock ledger, the list of stockholders or the books of the Corporation, or to vote in person or by proxy at any meeting of stockholders.

ARTICLE II

Board of Directors

Section 2.1 Number. The initial Board of Directors shall consist of three directors. Thereafter, the number of directors may be amended from time to time by resolution adopted by affirmative vote of a majority of the whole Board of Directors; provided that no such amendment may shorten the term of any incumbent director.

Section 2.2 Election; Resignation; Vacancies.

(a) At each annual meeting at which the term of office of a class of directors expires, the stockholders shall elect directors of such class each to hold office until the annual meeting at which the terms of office of such class of directors expire and the election and qualification of his or her successor, or until his or her earlier death, resignation or removal.

Edgar Filing: PATRON HOLDINGS INC - Form DEFM14C

(b) Only persons who are nominated in accordance with the procedures set forth in this paragraph (b) shall be eligible for election as directors of the Corporation. Nominations of persons for election to the Board of Directors may be made at a meeting of stockholders by the Board of Directors or by any stockholder of the Corporation entitled to vote in the election of directors at the meeting who complies with the notice procedures set forth in this paragraph (b). Any nomination by a stockholder must be made by written notice to the

Secretary delivered or mailed to and received at the principal executive offices of the Corporation: (i) with respect to an election to be held at an annual meeting of stockholders, not less than 90 days nor more than 120 days prior to the anniversary date of the immediately preceding annual meeting; provided, however, that in the event that no annual meeting was held in the previous year or the annual meeting is called for a date that is not within 30 days from the anniversary date of the preceding year's annual meeting date, written notice by the stockholder in order to be timely must be so received not later than the close of business on the tenth day following the day on which public disclosure of the date of the annual meeting was made, and (ii) with respect to an election to be held at a special meeting of stockholders called for the purpose of electing directors, not later than the close of business on the tenth day following the day on which the first public disclosure of the date of the special meeting was made. Delivery shall be by hand, or by certified or registered mail, return receipt requested. In no event shall the public announcement of an adjournment of any annual or special meeting commence a new time period for giving of a stockholder notice as described above. A stockholder's notice to the Secretary shall set forth (x) as to each person whom the stockholder proposes to nominate for election or re-election as a director: (1) the name, age, business address and residence address of such person, (2) the principal occupation or employment of such person, (3) the class and number of shares of stock of the Corporation which are beneficially owned by such person (for the purposes of the regulations under Sections 13 and 14 of the Securities Exchange Act of 1934, as amended), (4) any other information relating to such person that would be required to be disclosed in solicitations of proxies for the election of such person as a director of the Corporation pursuant to Regulation 14A under the Securities Exchange Act of 1934, as amended, had the nominee been nominated by the Board of Directors, and (5) such person's written consent to being named in any proxy statement as a nominee and to serving as a director if elected; and (y) as to the stockholder giving notice: (1) the name and address, as they appear on the Corporation's records, of such stockholder, (2) the class and number of shares of stock of the Corporation which are beneficially owned by such stockholder (determined as provided in clause (x)(3) above), (3) a representation that the stockholder is a holder of record of stock of the Corporation entitled to vote on the election of directors at such meeting and that such stockholder intends to appear in person or by proxy at the meeting to nominate the person or persons specified in the notice, and (4) a description of all agreements, arrangements or understandings between the stockholder and each nominee of the stockholder and any other person or persons (naming such person or persons) pursuant to which the nomination or nominations are to be made by the stockholder. At the request of the Board of Directors any person nominated by the Board of Directors for election as a director shall furnish to the Secretary that information required to be set forth in a stockholder's notice of nomination which pertains to the nominee. The Corporation may require any proposed nominee to furnish such other information as may reasonably be required by the Corporation to determine the eligibility of such proposed nominee to serve as a director of the Corporation. The chairman of the meeting at which a stockholder nomination is presented shall, if the facts warrant, determine and declare to the meeting that such nomination was not made in accordance with the procedures prescribed by this paragraph (b), and, in such event, the defective nomination shall be disregarded.

(c) Any director may resign at any time by giving written notice to the Chairman of the Board, if any, the President or the Secretary. Unless otherwise stated in a notice of resignation, it shall take effect when received by the officer to whom it is directed, without any need for its acceptance.

(d) Any newly created directorship or any vacancy occurring in the Board of Directors for any reason may be filled by a majority of the remaining directors (excluding any director elected by any class or series of preferred stock), although less than a quorum, or by a plurality of the votes cast in the election of directors at a meeting of stockholders. Each director elected to replace a former director shall hold office until the expiration of the term of office of the director whom he or she has replaced and the election and qualification of his or her successor, or until his or her earlier death, resignation or removal. A director elected to fill a newly created directorship shall serve until the annual meeting at which the terms of office of the class of directors to which he or she is assigned expire and the election and qualification of his or her successor, or until his or her earlier death, resignation or removal.

Section 2.3 Regular Meetings. Unless otherwise determined by the Board of Directors, a regular annual meeting of the Board of Directors shall be held, without call or notice, immediately after and, if the annual meeting of stockholders is held at a place, at the same place as the annual meeting of stockholders, for the purpose of organizing the Board of Directors, electing officers and transacting any other business that may properly come before such meeting. Additional regular meetings of the Board of Directors may be held without call or notice at such times as shall be fixed by resolution of the Board of Directors.

Section 2.4 Special Meetings. Special meetings of the Board of Directors may be called by the Chairman of the Board, if any, the President, the Secretary or by any member of the Board of Directors. Notice of a special meeting of the Board of Directors shall be given by the person or persons calling the meeting at least twenty-four hours before the special meeting. The purpose or purposes of a special meeting need not be stated in the call or notice.

Section 2.5 Organization. Meetings of the Board of Directors shall be presided over by the Chairman of the Board, if any, or if there is none or in his or her absence, by the President, or in his or her absence, by a chairman chosen at the meeting. The Secretary shall act as secretary of the meeting, but in his or her absence the chairman of the meeting may appoint any person to act as secretary of the meeting. A majority of the directors present at a meeting, whether or not they constitute a quorum, may adjourn such meeting to any other date, time or place without notice other than announcement at the meeting.

Edgar Filing: PATRON HOLDINGS INC - Form DEFM14C

Section 2.6 Quorum; Vote Required for Action. At all meetings of the Board of Directors a majority of the whole Board of Directors shall constitute a quorum for the transaction of business. Unless the Certificate of Incorporation or these Bylaws otherwise provide, the vote of a majority of the directors present at a meeting at which a quorum is present shall be the act of the Board of Directors.

Section 2.7 Committees. The Board of Directors may designate one or more committees, each committee to consist of one or more directors of the Corporation. The Board of Directors may designate one or more directors as alternate members of any committee, who may replace any absent or disqualified member at any meeting of the committee. In the absence or disqualification of a member of the committee, the member or members present at any meeting and not disqualified from voting, whether or not a quorum, may unanimously appoint another member of the Board of Directors to act at the meeting in place of any such absent or disqualified member. Any such committee, to the extent permitted by law and provided in these Bylaws or in the resolution of the Board of Directors designating such committee, or an amendment to such resolution, shall have and may exercise all the powers and authority of the Board of Directors in the management of the business and affairs of the Corporation, and may authorize the seal of the Corporation to be affixed to all papers which may require it.

Section 2.8 Telephonic Meetings. Directors, or any committee of directors designated by the Board of Directors, may participate in a meeting of the Board of Directors or such committee by means of conference telephone or other communications equipment by means of which all persons participating in the meeting can hear each other, and participation in a meeting pursuant to this Section 2.8 shall constitute presence in person at such meeting.

Section 2.9 Informal Action by Directors. Unless otherwise restricted by the Certificate of Incorporation or these Bylaws, any action required or permitted to be taken at any meeting of the Board of Directors, or of any committee thereof, may be taken without a meeting if all members of the Board of Directors or such committee, as the case may be, consent thereto in writing (which may be in counterparts) or by electronic transmission, and the written consent or consents or electronic transmission or transmissions are filed with the minutes of proceedings of the Board of Directors or such committee. Such filing shall be made in paper form if the minutes of the Corporation are maintained in paper form and shall be in electronic form if the minutes are maintained in electronic form.

Section 2.10 Committee Rules. Unless the Board of Directors otherwise provides, each committee designated by the Board of Directors may make, alter and repeal rules for the conduct of its business. In the absence of such rules each committee shall conduct its business in the same manner as the Board of Directors conducts its business pursuant to this Article II of these Bylaws.

Section 2.11 Reliance upon Records. Every director, and every member of any committee of the Board of Directors, shall, in the performance of his or her duties, be fully protected in relying in good faith upon the records of the Corporation and upon such information, opinions, reports or statements presented to the Corporation by any of its officers or employees, or committees of the Board of Directors, or by any other person as to matters the director or member reasonably believes are within such other person's professional or expert competence and who has been selected with reasonable care by or on behalf of the Corporation, including, but not limited to, such records, information, opinions, reports or statements as to the value and amount of the assets, liabilities and/or net profits of the Corporation, or any other facts pertinent to the existence and amount of surplus or other funds from which dividends might properly be declared and paid, or with which the Corporation's capital stock might properly be purchased or redeemed.

Section 2.12 Interested Directors. A director who is directly or indirectly a party to a contract or transaction with the Corporation, or is a director or officer of or has a financial interest in any other corporation, partnership, association or other organization which is a party to a contract or transaction with the Corporation, may be counted in determining whether a quorum is present at any meeting of the Board of Directors or a committee thereof at which such contract or transaction is considered or authorized, and such director may participate in such meeting and vote on such authorization to the extent permitted by applicable law, including Section 144 of the General Corporation Law of the State of Delaware.

Section 2.13 Compensation. Unless otherwise restricted by the Certificate of Incorporation, the Board of Directors shall have the authority to fix the compensation of directors. The directors shall be paid their reasonable expenses, if any, of attendance at each meeting of the Board of Directors or a committee thereof and may be paid a fixed sum for attendance at each such meeting and an annual retainer or salary for services as a director or committee member. No such payment shall preclude any director from serving the Corporation in any other capacity and receiving compensation therefor.

ARTICLE III

Officers

Section 3.1 Executive Officers; Election; Qualification; Term of Office. The Board of Directors shall elect a President and may, if it so determines, elect a Chairman of the Board from among its members. The Board of Directors shall also elect a Secretary and may elect one or more Vice Presidents, one or more Assistant Secretaries, a Treasurer and one or more Assistant Treasurers. Any number of offices may be held by the same person. Each officer shall hold office until the first meeting of the Board of Directors after the annual meeting of stockholders next succeeding his or her election, and until his or her successor is elected and qualified or until his or her earlier death, resignation or removal.

Section 3.2 Resignation; Removal; Vacancies. Any officer may resign at any time by giving written notice to the Chairman of the Board, if any, the President or the Secretary. Unless otherwise stated in a notice of resignation, it shall take effect when received by the officer to whom it is directed, without any need for its acceptance. The Board of Directors may remove any officer with or without cause at any time, but such removal shall be without prejudice to the contractual rights of such officer, if any, with the Corporation. A vacancy occurring in any office of the Corporation may be filled for the unexpired portion of the term thereof by the Board of Directors at any regular or special meeting.

Section 3.3 Powers and Duties of Executive Officers. The officers of the Corporation shall have such powers and duties in the management of the Corporation as may be prescribed by the Board of Directors and, to the extent not so provided, as generally pertain to their respective offices, subject to the control of the Board of Directors. The Board of Directors may require any officer, agent or employee to give security for the faithful performance of his or her duties.

Section 3.4 Chief Executive Officer. The Chief Executive Officer of the Corporation shall in general supervise and control all of the business affairs of the Corporation, subject to the direction of the Board of Directors. The Chief Executive Officer may execute, in the name and on behalf of the Corporation, any deeds, mortgages, bonds, contracts or other instruments which the Board of Directors or a committee thereof has authorized to be executed, except in cases where the execution shall have been expressly delegated by the Board of Directors or a committee thereof to some other officer or agent of the Corporation.

Section 3.5 Secretary. In addition to such other duties, if any, as may be assigned to the Secretary by the Board of Directors, the Chairman of the Board, if any, or the President, the Secretary shall (i) keep the minutes of proceedings of the stockholders, the Board of Directors and any committee of the Board of Directors in one or more books provided for that purpose; (ii) see that all notices are duly given in accordance with the provisions of these Bylaws or as required by law; (iii) be the custodian of the records and seal of the Corporation; (iv) affix or cause to be affixed the seal of the Corporation or a facsimile thereof, and attest the seal by his or her signature, to all certificates for shares of stock of the Corporation and to all other documents the execution of which under seal is authorized by the Board of Directors; and (v) unless such duties have been delegated by the Board of Directors to a transfer agent of the Corporation, keep or cause to be kept a register of the name and address of each stockholder, as the same shall be furnished to the Secretary by such stockholder, and have general charge of the stock transfer records of the Corporation.

ARTICLE IV

Stock Certificates and Transfers

Section 4.1 Certificate. Every holder of stock shall be entitled to have a certificate signed by or in the name of the Corporation by the Chairman of the Board, if any, or the President or a Vice President, and by the Secretary or an Assistant Secretary, of the Corporation, certifying the number of shares owned by such stockholder in the Corporation. Any or all of the signatures on the certificate may be facsimile, stamp or other imprint. In case any officer, transfer agent, or registrar who has signed or whose facsimile, stamp or other imprint signature has been placed upon a certificate shall have ceased to be such officer, transfer agent or registrar before such certificate is issued, it may be issued by the Corporation with the same effect as if such officer, transfer agent, or registrar continued to be such at the date of issue.

Section 4.2 Lost, Stolen or Destroyed Certificates; Issuance of New Certificates. The Corporation may issue a new certificate for stock in the place of any certificate theretofore issued by it, alleged to have been lost, stolen or destroyed, and the Corporation may require the owner of the lost, stolen or destroyed certificate, or such stockholder's legal representative, to give the Corporation a bond sufficient to indemnify it against any claim that may be made against it on account of the alleged loss, theft or destruction of any such certificate or the issuance of such new certificate.

Section 4.3 Transfers of Stock. Upon surrender to the Corporation or the transfer agent of the Corporation of a certificate for stock of the Corporation duly endorsed or accompanied by proper evidence of succession, assignment or authority to transfer or, if the relevant stock certificate is claimed to have been lost, stolen or destroyed, upon compliance with the provisions of Section 4.2 of these Bylaws, and upon payment of applicable taxes with respect to such transfer, and in compliance with any restrictions on transfer applicable to such stock certificate or the shares represented thereby of which the Corporation shall have notice and subject to such rules and regulations as the Board of Directors may from time to time deem advisable concerning the transfer and registration of stock certificates, the Corporation shall issue a new certificate or certificates for such stock to the person entitled thereto, cancel the old certificate and record the transaction upon its books. Transfers of stock shall be made only on the books of the Corporation by the registered holder thereof or by such holder's attorney or successor duly authorized as evidenced by documents filed with the Secretary or transfer agent of the Corporation. Whenever any transfer of stock shall be made for collateral security, and not absolutely, it shall be so expressed in the entry of transfer if, when the certificate or certificates representing such stock are presented to the Corporation for transfer, both the transferor and transferee request the Corporation to do so.

Section 4.4 Stockholders of Record. The Corporation shall be entitled to treat the holder of record of any stock of the Corporation as the holder thereof and shall not be bound to recognize any equitable or other claim to or interest in such stock on the part of any other person, whether or not it shall have express or other notice thereof, except as otherwise required by the laws of the State of Delaware.

ARTICLE V

Notices

Section 5.1 Manner of Notice. (a) Except as otherwise provided by law, the Certificate of Incorporation or these Bylaws, whenever notice is required to be given to any stockholder, director or member of any committee of the Board of Directors, such notice may be given by (i) personal delivery, (ii) depositing it, in a sealed envelope, in the United States mails, first class, postage prepaid, addressed, (iii) delivering to a company for overnight or second day mail or delivery, (iv) delivering it to a telegraph company, charges prepaid, for transmission, or by transmitting it via telecopier, or (v) any other reliable means permitted by applicable law (including, subject to Section 5.1(b), electronic transmission) to such stockholder, director or member, either at the address of such stockholder, director or member as it appears on the records of the Corporation or, in the case of such a director or member, at his or her business address; and such notice shall be deemed to be given at the time when it is thus personally delivered, deposited, delivered or transmitted, as the case may be. Such requirement for notice shall also be deemed satisfied, except in the case of stockholder meetings, if actual notice is received orally or by other writing by the person entitled thereto as far in advance of the event with respect to which notice is being given as the minimum notice period required by law or these Bylaws.

(b) Without limiting the foregoing, any notice to stockholders given by the Corporation pursuant to these Bylaws shall be effective if given by a form of electronic transmission consented to by the stockholder to whom the notice is given. Any such consent shall be revocable by the stockholder by written notice to the Corporation and shall also be deemed revoked if (1) the Corporation is unable to deliver by electronic transmission two consecutive notices given by the Corporation in accordance with such consent and (2) such inability becomes known to the Secretary of the Corporation, the transfer agent or other person responsible for the giving of notice; provided, however, that the inadvertent failure to treat such inability as a revocation shall not invalidate any meeting or other action. Notice given by a form of electronic transmission in accordance with these Bylaws shall be deemed given: (i) if by facsimile telecommunication, when directed to a number at which the stockholder has consented to receive notice; (ii) if by electronic mail, when directed to an electronic mail address at which the stockholder has consented to receive notice; (iii) if by a posting on an electronic network, together with separate notice to the stockholder of such specific posting, upon the later of such posting and the giving of such separate notice; and (iv) if by another form of electronic transmission, when directed to the stockholder.

Section 5.2 Dispensation with Notice.

(a) Whenever notice is required to be given by law, the Certificate of Incorporation or these Bylaws to any stockholder to whom (i) notice of two consecutive annual meetings of stockholders, or (ii) all, and at least two, payments (if sent by first class mail) of dividends or interest on securities of the Corporation during a 12-month period, have been mailed addressed to such stockholder at the address of such stockholder as shown on the records of the Corporation and have been returned undeliverable, the giving of such notice to such stockholder shall not be required. Any action or meeting which shall be taken or held without notice to such stockholder shall have the same force and effect as if such notice had been duly given. If any such stockholder shall deliver to the Corporation a written notice setting forth the then current address of such stockholder, the requirement that notice be given to such stockholder shall be reinstated.

(b) Whenever notice is required to be given by law, the Certificate of Incorporation or these Bylaws to any person with whom communication is unlawful, the giving of such notice to such person shall not be required, and there shall be no duty to apply to any governmental authority or agency for a license or permit to give such notice to such person. Any action or meeting which shall be taken or held without notice to any such person with whom communication is unlawful shall have the same force and effect as if such notice had been duly given.

Section 5.3 Waiver of Notice. Any written waiver of notice, signed by the person entitled to notice, whether before or after the time stated therein, shall be deemed equivalent to notice. Attendance of a person at a meeting shall constitute a waiver of notice of such meeting, except when the person attends a meeting for the express purpose of objecting, at the beginning of the meeting, to the transaction of any business because the meeting is not lawfully called or convened. Neither the business to be transacted at, nor the purpose of, any regular or special meeting of the stockholders, directors, or members of a committee or directors need be specified in any written waiver of notice.

ARTICLE VI

Indemnification

Section 6.1 Right to Indemnification.

(a) The Corporation shall indemnify and hold harmless, to the fullest extent permitted by law as in effect on the date of adoption of these Bylaws or as it may thereafter be amended, any person who was or is made or is threatened to be made a party or is otherwise involved in any action, suit or proceeding, whether civil, criminal, administrative or investigative (a "proceeding") by reason of the fact that he or she, or a person for whom he or she is the legal representative, is or was a director, officer, employee or agent of the Corporation or is or was serving at the request of the Corporation as a director, officer, employee or agent of another corporation, partnership, joint venture or other enterprise, against any and all liability and loss (including judgments, fines, penalties and amounts paid in settlement) suffered or incurred and expenses reasonably incurred by such person; provided that any standard of conduct applicable to whether a director or officer may be indemnified shall be equally applicable to an employee or agent under this Article VI. The Corporation shall not be required to indemnify a person in connection with a proceeding initiated by such person, including a counterclaim or crossclaim, unless the proceeding was authorized by the Board of Directors.

(b) For purposes of this Article VI: (i) any reference to "other enterprise" shall include all plans, programs, policies, agreements, contracts and payroll practices and related trusts for the benefit of or relating to employees of the Corporation and its related entities ("employee benefit plans"); (ii) any reference to "fines", "penalties", "liability" and "expenses" shall include any excise taxes, penalties, claims, liabilities and reasonable expenses (including reasonable legal fees and related expenses) assessed against or incurred by a person with respect to any employee benefit plan; (iii) any reference to "serving at the request of the Corporation" shall include any service as a director, officer, employee or agent of the Corporation or trustee or administrator of any employee benefit plan which imposes duties on, or involves services by, such director, officer, employee or agent with respect to an employee benefit plan, its participants, beneficiaries, fiduciaries, administrators and service providers; (iv) any reference to serving at the request of the Corporation as a director, officer, employee or agent of a partnership or trust shall include service as a partner or trustee; and (v) a person who acted in good faith and in a manner he or she reasonably believed to be in the interest of the participants and beneficiaries of an employee benefit plan shall be deemed to have acted in a manner "not opposed to the best interests of the Corporation" for purposes of this Article VI.

Section 6.2 Prepayment of Expenses. The Corporation shall pay or reimburse the reasonable expenses incurred in defending any proceeding in advance of its final disposition if the Corporation has received an undertaking by the person receiving such payment or reimbursement to repay all amounts advanced if it should be ultimately determined that he or she is not entitled to be indemnified under this Article VI or otherwise.

Section 6.3 Claims. If a claim for indemnification or payment of expenses under this Article VI is not paid in full within 60 days after a written claim therefor has been received by the Corporation, the claimant may file suit to recover the unpaid amount of such claim and, if successful in whole or in part, shall be entitled to be paid the expense of prosecuting such claim. In any such action the Corporation shall have the burden of proving that the claimant was not entitled to the requested indemnification or payment of expenses under applicable law.

Section 6.4 Non-Exclusivity of Rights. The rights conferred on any person by this Article VI shall not be exclusive of any other rights which such person may have or hereafter acquire under any statute, provision of the Certificate of Incorporation, these Bylaws, agreement, vote of stockholders or disinterested directors or otherwise.

Section 6.5 Other Indemnification. The Corporation's obligation, if any, to indemnify any person who was or is serving at its request as a director, officer, employee, partner or agent of another corporation, partnership, joint venture or other enterprise shall be reduced by any amount such person may collect as indemnification from such other corporation, partnership, joint venture or other enterprise.

Section 6.6 Amendment or Repeal. Any repeal or modification of the foregoing provisions of this Article VI shall not adversely affect any right or protection hereunder of any person in respect of any act or omission occurring prior to the time of such repeal or modification.

ARTICLE VII

General

Section 7.1 Fiscal year. The fiscal year of the Corporation shall be determined by resolution of the Board of Directors.

Section 7.2 Seal. The corporate seal, if any, shall have the name of the Corporation inscribed thereon and shall be in such form as may be approved from time to time by the Board of Directors.

Edgar Filing: PATRON HOLDINGS INC - Form DEFM14C

Section 7.3 Form of Records. Any records maintained by the Corporation in the regular course of its business, including its stock ledger, books of account, and minute books, may be kept on, or be in the form of, punch cards, magnetic tape, photographs, microphotographs, electronic format or any other information storage device, provided that the records so kept can be converted into clearly legible form within a reasonable time. The Corporation shall so convert any records so kept upon the request of any person entitled to inspect the same.

Section 7.4 Definitions. (a) For purposes of these Bylaws, "electronic transmission" means any form of communication, not directly involving the physical transmission of paper, that creates a record that may be retained, retrieved and reviewed by a recipient thereof, and that may be directly reproduced in paper form by such a recipient through an automated process.

(b) For purposes of these Bylaws, "public disclosure" shall mean disclosure in a press release reported by the Dow Jones News Service, Associated Press or comparable national news service, or in a document publicly filed by the Corporation with the Securities and Exchange Commission pursuant to Section 13, 14 or 15(d) of the Securities Exchange Act of 1934, as amended.

Section 7.5 Amendment of Bylaws. These Bylaws may be altered or repealed, and new Bylaws made, by the majority vote of the whole Board of Directors, but the stockholders may make additional Bylaws and may alter and repeal any Bylaws whether adopted by them or otherwise by the affirmative vote of the holders of at least sixty six and two-thirds percent (66 2/3%) of the outstanding voting power of the Corporation's capital stock entitled to vote thereon, voting together as a single class.
