It is very important that you be represented at the Annual Meeting regardless of the number of shares you own or whether you are able to attend the Annual Meeting in person. Your continued support of, and interest in, R&G Financial Corporation are sincerely appreciated.

Very truly yours,

VÍCTOR J. GALÁN

PROXY STATEMENT

ANNUAL MEETING OF STOCKHOLDERS

April 25, 2003

This Proxy Statement is furnished to the holder of Class A common stock, $0.01 par value per share (the Class A Shares), and holders of Class B common stock, $0.01 par value per share (the Class B Shares) (collectively, the Common Stock), of R&G Financial Corporation (the Company). Proxies are being solicited on behalf of the Board of Directors of the Company to be used at the Annual Meeting of Stockholders (Annual Meeting) to be held at The Bankers Club of Puerto Rico, 208 Munoz Rivera Ave., PH Floor, Hato Rey, San Juan, Puerto Rico 00918, on Friday, April 25, 2003 at 10:00 a.m., local time, for the purposes set forth in the Notice of Annual Meeting of Stockholders. This Proxy Statement is first being mailed to stockholders on or about March 31, 2003.

Your vote is important. Because many stockholders cannot attend the Annual Meeting in person, it is necessary that a large number be represented by proxy. Stockholders may vote by completing the enclosed proxy card and mailing it in the postage-paid envelope provided. If you hold your shares in street name through a brokerage firm, you may be able to use a toll-free telephone number or the Internet to vote (instructions would be supplied to you by your broker). The telephone and Internet voting procedures, if provided by your broker, are designed to authenticate stockholders by use of a control number and to allow stockholders to confirm that their instructions have been properly recorded.

The method by which you vote will in no way limit your right to vote at the Annual Meeting if you later decide to attend in person. If your shares are held in the name of a broker or other holder of record, you must obtain a proxy, executed in your favor, from the holder of record to be able to vote at the Annual Meeting.

The proxy card included herein, if properly signed and returned to the Company and not revoked prior to its use, will be voted in accordance with its instructions. If no contrary instructions are given, each proxy card received will be voted (i) FOR the nominees for director described herein; (ii) FOR ratification of the appointment of PriceWaterhouseCoopers LLP as the Company s independent auditors for fiscal 2003; and (iii) upon the transaction of such other business as may properly come before the Annual Meeting in accordance with the best judgment of the persons appointed as proxies.

Any stockholder giving a proxy has the power to revoke it at any time before it is exercised by (i) filing with the Secretary of the Company written notice thereof (mailed to the attention of Secretary, R&G Financial Corporation, R-G Plaza, 280 Jesús T. Piñero Avenue, Hato Rey, San Juan, Puerto Rico 00918); (ii) filing a later dated proxy (using a proxy card or the telephone or Internet voting procedures possibly made available by your brokerage firm); or (iii) appearing at the Annual Meeting and giving the Secretary notice of his or her intention to vote in person. Proxies solicited hereby may be exercised only at the Annual Meeting and any adjournment thereof and will not be used for any other meeting.

VOTING

Only stockholders of record at the close of business on March 28, 2003 (Voting Record Date) will be entitled to vote at the Annual Meeting. On the Voting Record Date, there were 14,553,056 Class A shares outstanding and 19,486,286 Class B shares outstanding. The Company has no other class of Common Stock or other voting securities outstanding. The holder of Class A shares, the Chairman and Chief Executive Officer of the Company, is entitled to two votes per share and the holders of Class B shares are entitled to one vote per share at the Annual Meeting on all matters properly presented at the Annual Meeting.

The Chairman of the Board and Chief Executive Officer, who through his holdings of Class A Shares controls 59.90% of the outstanding Common Stock on the Voting Record Date, has indicated his intention to vote his shares FOR the nominees for directors and FOR ratification of the appointment of PriceWaterhouseCoopers LLP as the Company's independent auditors for 2003. Accordingly, the proposals presented for consideration by the stockholders at this Annual Meeting of stockholders are expected to be approved as presented.

Directors are elected by a plurality of the votes cast with a quorum present. The four persons who receive the greatest number of votes of the holders of Common Stock represented in person or by proxy at the Annual Meeting will be elected directors of the Company. Abstentions are considered in determining the presence of a quorum but will not affect the vote required for the election of directors. The affirmative vote of the holders of a majority of the total votes present in person or by proxy is required to ratify the appointment of the independent auditors. Abstentions will not be counted as votes cast, and will have no effect on the voting of the appointment of the Company's independent auditors. Under rules applicable to broker-dealers, the proposals for consideration at the Annual Meeting are considered discretionary items upon which brokerage firms may vote in their discretion on behalf of their clients if such clients have not furnished voting instructions. Thus, there will be no broker non-votes at the Annual Meeting.

Stockholder Nominations

Section 4.15 of the Company's Bylaws governs nominations for election to the Board of Directors and requires all such nominations, other than those made by the Board or a committee thereof, to be made at a meeting of stockholders called for the election of directors, and only by a stockholder who has complied with the notice provisions in that section. Stockholder nominations must be made pursuant to timely notice in writing to the Secretary of the Company. To be timely, a stockholder's notice must be delivered to, or mailed and received at, the principal executive offices of the Company not later than 90 days prior to the anniversary date of the mailing of proxy materials by the Company in connection with the immediately preceding annual meeting of stockholders of the Company. Each written notice of a stockholder nomination is required to set forth certain information specified in the Bylaws. No stockholder nominations were received with respect to this Annual Meeting.

INFORMATION WITH RESPECT TO NOMINEES FOR DIRECTORS,

CONTINUING DIRECTORS AND EXECUTIVE OFFICERS

Election of Directors

The Board of Directors is divided into three classes, each of which contains approximately one-third of the Board. The directors are elected by the stockholders of the Company for staggered three year terms, or until their successors are elected and qualified. Stockholders of the Company are not permitted to cumulate their votes for the election of directors.

Unless otherwise directed, each proxy executed and returned by a stockholder will be voted for the election of the nominees for director listed below. If the person or persons named as nominee should be unable or unwilling to stand for election at the time of the Annual Meeting, the proxies will nominate and vote for one or more replacement nominee(s) recommended by the Board of Directors. At this time, the Board of Directors knows of no reason why the nominees listed below may not be able to serve as directors if elected.

Officers, directors and greater than 10% stockholders are required by regulation to furnish the Company with copies of all forms they file pursuant to Section 16(a) of the Exchange Act. Benefits

Stock Option Plan. The Company maintains a Stock Option Plan. The Stock Option Plan is designed to attract and retain qualified personnel in key positions, provide officers and key employees with a proprietary interest in the Company as an incentive to contribute to the success of the Company and reward key employees for outstanding performance and the attainment of targeted goals. An amount of Common Stock equal to 10% of the aggregate number of Class B Shares sold in the Company's initial public offering (869,400 shares, as adjusted for the Company's stock dividends and splits) were authorized under the Stock Option Plan, which may be filled by authorized but unissued shares, treasury shares or shares purchased by the Company on the open market or from private sources. The Stock Option Plan provides for the grant of stock options and stock appreciation rights (collectively Awards). Awards are available for grant to key employees of the Company and any subsidiaries.

Profit Sharing Plan. R&G Mortgage and Premier Bank have adopted a Profit Sharing Plan (the Plan), which is intended to comply with the Internal Revenue Code of 1986, as amended (the Code), the Employee Retirement Income Security Act of 1974, and the Puerto Rico Income Tax Act of 1954. All employees of R&G Mortgage and Premier Bank are eligible to participate in the Plan except, among others, for those employees who are non-resident aliens. Eligible employees may enter the Plan on January 1, April 1, July 1, and October 1 following attaining age 21 and completing one year of service. Under the Plan, a separate account is established for each participating employee and R&G Mortgage and Premier Bank may make discretionary contributions to the Plan which are allocated to employee's accounts. Employees may also contribute to the Plan by making salary reductions up to 10% of annual compensation for the year. Such contributions defer the employee's earning up to a maximum of $8,000 in each plan year. In 2002, R&G Mortgage and Premier Bank each matched an employee's contribution to the Plan up to 62.5% of the first 5% of an employee's compensation as follows: 12.5% when an employee has 0 to 5 years of service, 25% when an employee has 6 to 10 years of service, 39.5% when an employee has 11 to 15 years of service, 50% when an employee has 16 to 20 years of service, and 62.5% when an employee has 21 or more years of service.

Employees' contributions to the Plan are immediately vested, and employees become 100% vested in employer contributions upon the completion of 5 years of service. All funds contributed to the Plan are held in a trust fund. R&G Mortgage and Premier Bank direct the investment of matching and discretionary contributions and employees direct the investment of elective contributions and rollover contributions. Contributions may be directed into eight separate funds. Distributions from the Plan are made upon termination of service, death, or disability in a lump sum or installment payments. The normal retirement age under the Plan is age 65.

Certain Relationships and Related Transactions

During the year ended December 31, 2002, VIG Leasing, S.E., a Puerto Rico real estate partnership which is 95.8% owned by the family of Víctor J. Galán, the Company's Chairman of the Board and Chief Executive Officer, received lease payments from the Company of $2.9 million on properties owned. The Company believes that the lease terms are on terms substantially the same as they would have negotiated with a non-affiliated party.

Under applicable federal law, loans or extensions of credit to executive officers and directors must be made on substantially the same terms, including interest rates and collateral, as those prevailing at the time for comparable transactions with the general public and must not involve more than the normal risk of repayment or present other unfavorable features.

Table of Contents

Premier Bank and Crown Bank have policies that provide that all loans made by either bank to directors and officers are made in the ordinary course of business, on substantially the same terms, including interest rates and collateral, as those prevailing at the time for comparable transactions with other persons. These policies provide that such loans may not involve more than the normal risk of collectability or present other unfavorable features. As of December 31, 2002, mortgage and consumer loans to directors and executive officers of the Company in excess of $60,000 aggregated approximately $3,456,000 or 0.52% of the Company's consolidated stockholders' equity as of such date. All such loans were made in accordance with the aforementioned policies.

In July 1995, R&G Mortgage made a $900,000 construction loan to a real estate development company owned by Pedro Ramirez, a former director (who resigned in October 2002) of the Company, R&G Mortgage and Premier Bank. The subject real estate development project was scheduled to be completed in phases. As of December 31, 2002, the loan had an outstanding balance of $250,000 at an interest rate of 2% over the prime rate. The outstanding balance of the loan is related to the final phase of the construction project.

During the year ended December 31, 2002, Enrique Umpierre-Suárez, a director and Secretary of each of the Company and Premier Bank, provided legal services to borrowers of Premier Bank and R&G Mortgage in connection with the closing of consumer and commercial loans. During the year ended December 31, 2002, Mr. Umpierre-Suárez received $669,000 in fees for such legal services, all of which were paid for by customers of Premier Bank and R&G Mortgage in connection with loan closings.

R&G Mortgage originates first mortgage loans secured by single-family residential properties which are either insured by the Federal Housing Administration (FHA) or guaranteed by the Veterans Administration (VA). R&G Mortgage pools such FHA/VA loans into mortgage-backed securities which are guaranteed by the Government National Mortgage Association (Ginnie Mae), which securities are sold to securities broker dealers and other investors. During the year ended December 31, 2002, R&G Mortgage sold approximately $5.1 million of such Ginnie Mae securities to Mr. Victor J. Galán, the Chairman of the Board and Chief Executive Officer of the Company, approximately $3.6 million to Mr. Ramón Prats, the President of the Company, approximately $1.1 million to Mr. Enrique Umpierre-Suárez, a director and the Secretary of the Company, approximately $100,000 to Ms. Ana M. Armendáriz, a director and the Treasurer of the Board of Directors of the Company, approximately $50,000 to Mr. Steven Vélez, the Executive Vice President of R&G Mortgage, approximately $25,000 to Mr. Benigno Fernández, a director of the Company and approximately $25,000 to Mr. Eduardo McCormack, a director of the Company. In purchasing these securities, such persons receive a benefit on the purchase price equal to 20% of either the premium quoted above par or the discount quoted below par.

Compensation Interlocks and Insider Participation

The Executive Committee of the Company's Board of Directors reviews the compensation and benefits for the Company's employees and recommends to the Board adjustments in such compensation. During fiscal 2002, the members of the Executive Committee were Messrs. Víctor J. Galán (Chairman), Prats (Vice Chairman), McCormack, and Víctor L. Galán. Mr. Víctor J. Galán and Mr. Prats are executive officers of the Company and Mr. Víctor L. Galán is an executive officer of R&G Mortgage and the son of Mr. Víctor J. Galán. During the year ended December 31, 2002, no member of the Board of Directors or of its Executive Committee served as a member of the board of directors or compensation committee of an unaffiliated entity that had one or more executive officers serving as members of the Company's Board of Directors or its Executive Committee.

The NYSE submitted to the SEC on August 16, 2002 corporate governance rule proposals (the Proposed Rules). The Proposed Rules would require companies listed with the NYSE to have, among other things, certain corporate governance activities be addressed solely by independent directors, including matters pertaining to director nominations and compensation of executive officers. The Proposed Rules contain an exception for controlled companies, which are that small percentage of NYSE listed companies for whom more than 50% of the voting power is held by an individual or group. Víctor J. Galán, the Chairman of the Board and Chief Executive Officer of the Company, and the sole holder of Class A Shares, has 59.90% of the voting power of the Company as of the Voting Record Date; therefore, the Company qualifies as a controlled company. The effect of this qualification is that pursuant to the Proposed Rules, the Company need not have a nominating/ corporate governance committee or a compensation committee composed solely of independent directors. Nonetheless, the Company has a compensation committee headed by Mr. Eduardo McCormack, an independent director, who approves the salary and bonus compensation to be paid by the Company to its senior officers. His approval is based on the examination of six peer group comparisons.

Report of the Executive Committee on Executive Compensation

The following Report of the Executive Committee on Executive Compensation shall not be deemed incorporated by reference by any general statement incorporating this Proxy Statement into any filing under the Securities Act or under the Exchange Act, except to the extent that the Company specifically incorporates this information by reference, and shall not otherwise be deemed filed under the Securities Act or the Exchange Act.

The purpose of this Committee is to, among other things, compensate qualified, competent management; motivate executives to achieve a range of performance goals consistent with a business plan approved by the Board of Directors of the Company; and ensure that the financial costs of current or proposed compensation and benefit programs are reasonable and consistent with industry standards, management performance and stockholders' interest.

The Executive Committee considered the following criteria in recommending to the Board the compensation of the Chief Executive Officer as well as the approval of compensation of other executive officers of the Company and its subsidiaries:

1. The overall financial, market and competitive performance of the Company and its subsidiaries during the fiscal year under consideration after adjusting for economic conditions occurring during the year.
2. The level of and/or increases in return on assets and return on equity without encouraging short-term profitability through unreasonable risk-taking or a deterioration of long-term asset quality.
3. Consideration of individual as well as combined measures of progress of the Company and its subsidiaries including the quality of the loan portfolio, the level of the changes in capital ratios, the overall growth of the Company and its subsidiaries, the improvement in market share, the improvement in book value per share, the improvement in earnings per share, the level of non-performing loans and real estate owned, efficiency ratio levels as compared to peer groups and other objectives as may be established by the Board of Directors of the Company.
4. The individual commitment of the executive officers relative to overall management efficiency, inspirational leadership, professional involvement, civic activities and the maintenance of corporate stature enhancing the image of the Company and its subsidiaries in their market place.
5. The compensation and benefit levels of comparable positions to peer group institutions within the financial services industry, and similar asset and operating characteristics with a concentration on those institutions operating in the Company's market areas.

The compensation arrangements and recommendations of the Executive Committee include a base salary and a bonus component if the executive's performance is judged to warrant such a bonus.

The base compensation of Víctor J. Galán, Chief Executive Officer of the Company, Premier Bank and Crown Bank, was established at $341,759 on January 1, 2002. Mr. Galán's compensation level, determined consistent with the before mentioned criteria, was based on an examination of 6 peer group comparisons relative to salary and bonus compensation for Chief Executive Officers. Mr. Galán's performance is measured by the profit, capital position, asset quality and the low ratio of operating expenses of the Company, R&G Mortgage Premier Bank and Crown Bank as well as other measures of executive compensation so noted in determining his specific compensation. Mr. Galán was given a bonus of $200,000 for his service during 2002 based on his overall performance as well as other activities which ensued during the course of the year.

With respect to the other executive officers of the Company and its subsidiaries, the Committee also considered salary and bonus recommendations prepared by the Chief Executive Officer to establish 2002 compensation. The salary adjustment recommendation and bonus was based on the Company's overall performance in the past year as well as an analysis of competitive compensation levels necessary to maintain and attract quality personnel.

Following extensive review and approval by the Executive Committee, all issues pertaining to executive compensation were submitted to the full Board of Directors for their approval. Mr. Víctor J. Galán does not participate in the review of his compensation.

R&G FINANCIAL CORPORATION

AUDIT COMMITTEE

CHARTER

The Board of Directors of R&G Financial Corporation (the Company) has constituted and established an Audit Committee (the Committee) with authority, responsibility, and specific duties as described in this Audit Committee Charter.

A. COMPOSITION

The Committee shall consist of three or more directors, each of whom is independent as such term is defined in the Sarbanes-Oxley Act of 2002 (the Act) and regulations promulgated thereunder and under the rules of the New York Stock Exchange (NYSE).

Each director shall be free from any relationship that, in the opinion of the Board of Directors, as evidenced by its annual selection of such Committee members, would interfere with the exercise of independent judgment as a Committee member. Each Committee member shall be able to read and understand financial statements (including the company's balance sheet, income statement and cash flow statement). At least one Committee member shall have past employment experience in finance or accounting, requisite professional certification in accounting, or other comparable experience resulting in financial sophistication (including having been a chief executive officer, chief financial officer or other senior officer with financial oversight responsibilities) such that he or she meets the definition of a financial expert as such term is defined in regulations issued by the Securities and Exchange Commission (the SEC).

These requirements are intended to satisfy the Act and the NYSE listing requirements relating to the composition of audit committees, and shall be construed accordingly.

B. MISSION STATEMENT AND PRINCIPAL FUNCTIONS
