PROXY STATEMENT OF WELCH ALLYN HOLDINGS, INC.

PROSPECTUS OF HILL-ROM HOLDINGS, INC.

Dear Welch Allyn Holdings, Inc. Shareholder:

On June 16, 2015, Welch Allyn Holdings, Inc. ("Welch Allyn") and Hill-Rom Holdings, Inc. ("Hill-Rom") entered into an Agreement and Plan of Merger (as amended by the Amendment to Agreement and Plan of Merger dated as of August 27, 2015, and as may be further amended from time to time, the "merger agreement"), which provides for a merger in which Welch Allyn will become a wholly owned subsidiary of Hill-Rom (the "merger").

If the merger is completed, the aggregate merger consideration to be received by holders of outstanding shares of Welch Allyn common stock will consist of:

$1,625,000,000 in cash, which amount is subject to adjustments for cash and cash equivalents, indebtedness (as defined in the merger agreement), certain other adjustments (as defined in the merger agreement), including the amount of certain fees, costs and expenses of Welch Allyn and the shareholder representative, net working capital, certain change in control payments (as defined in the merger agreement), including long-term incentive plan cash incentive payments (as defined below) and payments to the holders of phantom stock appreciation rights and phantom share awards (other than any portion of such payments deposited in the escrow account), as described in more detail in the accompanying proxy statement/prospectus; and

8,133,722 shares of Hill-Rom common stock, without par value (the "Hill-Rom common stock").

$75,000,000 of the cash consideration otherwise deliverable to holders of outstanding shares of Welch Allyn common stock, phantom stock appreciation rights and phantom share awards following the closing of the merger will be withheld pro rata from such holders and deposited in an escrow account to secure any post-closing adjustment to the closing cash consideration and certain indemnification obligations of such holders pursuant to the merger agreement. These funds will be released by the escrow agent in accordance with the terms set forth in the escrow agreement. For more information regarding the adjustments to the cash consideration and the amounts withheld under the escrow agreement, see the sections entitled "The Merger Agreement Merger Consideration Adjustments" and "The Merger Agreement Escrow" beginning on page 86 and 85, respectively, of the accompanying proxy statement/prospectus and the merger agreement attached to the accompanying proxy statement/prospectus as Annex A. The aggregate amount of the cash consideration will not be known until shortly before the effective time of the merger and, accordingly, will not be known at the time of the special meeting at which Welch Allyn shareholders will be asked to vote on the merger. See "The Merger Effects of the Merger; Merger Consideration" for an illustrative calculation of the per share closing consideration that would have been payable to Welch Allyn shareholders had the merger been consummated on July 31, 2015. The receipt of the merger consideration by a U.S. holder in exchange for Welch Allyn common stock pursuant to the merger will be a taxable transaction for United States federal income tax purposes.

Hill-Rom common stock is traded on the New York Stock Exchange (the "NYSE") under the symbol "HRC." On June 16, 2015, the last trading day prior to the announcement of the merger, the closing price per share of Hill-Rom common stock on the NYSE was $52.38. On August 26, 2015, the most recent practicable date prior to the filing of the accompanying proxy statement/prospectus, the closing price per share of Hill-Rom common stock on the NYSE was $52.84. We urge you to obtain current stock price quotations for Hill-Rom common stock and to review carefully the other information contained in the accompanying proxy statement/prospectus, or incorporated by reference into the accompanying proxy statement/prospectus, when considering whether to vote in favor of the proposal to adopt the merger agreement and thereby approve the merger and the other transactions contemplated by the merger agreement.

After careful consideration, the board of directors of Welch Allyn has adopted and declared advisable the merger agreement, has approved the transactions contemplated by the merger agreement, and has determined that the merger agreement and the transactions contemplated by the merger agreement, including the merger, are fair to, and in the best interests of, Welch Allyn and its shareholders. Therefore, the board of directors of Welch Allyn recommends that you vote your shares "FOR" the proposal to adopt the merger agreement and thereby approve the merger and the other transactions contemplated by the merger agreement.

Completion of the merger is conditioned upon the adoption of the merger agreement by the affirmative vote at the special meeting, either in person or by proxy, of holders representing at least two-thirds of the outstanding shares of Welch Allyn Class A common stock. The shares of Welch Allyn Class A common stock and Welch Allyn Class B common stock are sometimes referred to herein collectively as "Welch Allyn common stock". Following the execution of the merger agreement, Hill-Rom entered into a voting agreement with the voting trustees (each, a "voting trustee") of the voting trust (the "voting trust") created under the voting trust agreement dated as of February 5, 2014 (the "voting trust agreement") by and among the voting trustees and certain holders of Welch Allyn Class A common stock party thereto, pursuant to which the voting trustees (i) executed and delivered to Hill-Rom an irrevocable proxy with respect to the 96,406,486 shares of Welch Allyn Class A common stock subject to the voting trust agreement, which shares constitute in the aggregate 89.94% of the total number of shares of Welch Allyn Class A common stock outstanding as of August 10, 2015, and (ii) for purposes of the shareholders' agreement of Welch Allyn dated as of February 5, 2014, by and among Welch Allyn and certain shareholders of Welch Allyn (the "Shareholders' Agreement") consented to the transfer (as defined in the Shareholders' Agreement) of the shares of Welch Allyn Class A common stock subject to the voting trust, as described in more detail in the section titled "Material Contracts Between the Parties" beginning on page 102 of the accompanying proxy statement/prospectus. The vote by Hill-Rom at the special meeting with respect to the shares of Welch Allyn Class A common stock subject to the irrevocable proxy to adopt the merger agreement will be sufficient to adopt the merger agreement and thereby approve the merger and the other transactions contemplated by the merger agreement. No vote of Hill-Rom shareholders is required to complete the merger.

Welch Allyn will hold a special meeting of its shareholders at which Welch Allyn's shareholders will be asked to consider and vote upon a proposal to adopt the merger agreement and the transactions contemplated thereby, including the merger, and a proposal to approve one or more adjournments of the special meeting, if necessary, for the Welch Allyn board of directors to solicit additional proxies in favor of the merger agreement.

The special meeting of Welch Allyn shareholders will be held on Tuesday, September 8, 2015, at 8:30 a.m., local time at The Lodge, located at 4355 State Street Road, Skaneateles Falls, NY 13152. All shareholders of record are cordially invited to attend the special meeting in person.

If you are a record holder of outstanding shares of Welch Allyn Class A common stock as of that date, you are urged to complete, date and sign the enclosed proxy and promptly return it to Welch Allyn. See the section titled "Special Meeting" beginning on page 39 of the accompanying proxy statement/prospectus.

The obligations of Welch Allyn and Hill-Rom to complete the merger are subject to several other conditions set forth in the merger agreement and summarized in the accompanying proxy statement/prospectus. More information about Welch Allyn, Hill-Rom and the merger is contained in the accompanying proxy statement/prospectus. You are encouraged to carefully read the accompanying proxy statement/prospectus in its entirety, which includes important information about the merger, including the section titled "Risk Factors" beginning on page 29 of the accompanying proxy statement/prospectus.

On behalf of the board of directors of Welch Allyn, thank you for your continued support.

Sincerely,
/s/ STEPHEN F. MEYER

Following the execution of the merger agreement, Hill-Rom entered into a voting agreement with the voting trustees of the voting trust created under the voting trust agreement, pursuant to which the voting trustees (i) executed and delivered to Hill-Rom an irrevocable proxy with respect to the 96,406,486 shares of Welch Allyn Class A common stock subject to the voting trust agreement, which shares constitute in the aggregate 89.94% of the total number of shares of Welch Allyn Class A common stock outstanding as of the date of this proxy statement/prospectus, and (ii) for purposes of the shareholders' agreement of Welch Allyn dated as of February 5, 2014, by and among Welch Allyn and certain shareholders of Welch Allyn, referred to in this proxy statement/prospectus as the Shareholders' Agreement, consented to the transfer (as defined in the Shareholders' Agreement) of the shares of Welch Allyn Class A common stock subject to the voting trust, as described in more detail in the section titled "Material Contracts Between the Parties" beginning on page 102 of this proxy statement/prospectus. shares of Class A common stock of Welch Allyn subject to the irrevocable proxy to adopt the merger agreement will be sufficient to adopt the merger agreement and thereby approve the merger and the other transactions contemplated by the merger agreement. Welch Allyn is holding a special meeting of its shareholders on Tuesday, September 8, 2015 at 8:30 a.m., local time, at The Lodge, located at 4355 State Street Road, Skaneateles Falls, NY 13152, at which Welch Allyn shareholders will consider and vote on the merger proposal. Welch Allyn is soliciting proxies from the Welch Allyn Class A shareholders in order to obtain votes to approve the proposal to adopt the merger agreement. In addition, Welch Allyn is soliciting proxies from the Welch Allyn Class A shareholders in order to obtain votes to approve a proposal to adjourn the special meeting, if necessary, to permit the Welch Allyn Board of Directors (the "Welch Allyn Board") to solicit additional proxies in favor of the merger proposal.

This proxy statement/prospectus is being provided to you in connection with Welch Allyn soliciting a proxy to vote on your behalf at the special meeting. This proxy statement/prospectus contains important information about the merger and the merger agreement, and you should read this proxy statement/prospectus carefully.

Q: What will happen to Welch Allyn as a result of the merger, and what will I receive in the merger?

A: As a result of the merger, Welch Allyn will become a wholly owned subsidiary of Hill-Rom, and shares of Welch Allyn common stock will be cancelled. Upon the closing of the merger, you will be entitled to receive a combination of cash and shares of Hill-Rom common stock.

Under the merger agreement, Hill-Rom will pay to holders of outstanding shares of Welch Allyn common stock an aggregate amount equal to $1,625,000,000 in cash, which amount is subject to adjustments for cash and cash equivalents, indebtedness (as defined in the merger agreement), certain other adjustments (as defined in the merger agreement), including the amount of certain fees, costs and expenses of Welch Allyn and the shareholder representative, net working capital, certain change in control payments (as defined in the merger agreement), including LTIP cash incentive payments (as defined below), and payments to the holders of Welch Allyn PHASARs and PSU Awards (each as defined below) (other than any portion of such payments deposited in the escrow account), and 8,133,722 shares of Hill-Rom common stock. See the sections titled "The Merger Effects of the Merger; Merger Consideration" beginning on page 51 of this proxy statement/prospectus.

Q: What will holders of Welch Allyn long-term incentive awards receive in the merger?

A: Holders of Welch Allyn long-term phantom equity incentive awards, which consist of phantom stock appreciation rights ("PHASARs") and phantom share awards ("PSU Awards"), will, upon the closing of the merger, be entitled to receive from Hill-Rom a cash amount in exchange for such phantom equity incentive awards. Holders of Welch Allyn cash-based, long-term incentive awards that are not based on the value of Welch Allyn common stock ("LTIP Cash Incentive Awards") will receive an amount in cash equal to the total cash amount subject to such LTIP Cash Incentive Award (assuming satisfaction of performance goals at target levels) (the aggregate amount of such payments, the "LTIP cash incentive payments").

Under the merger agreement, the cash amount paid in respect of each PHASAR or PSU Award will generally be equal to the aggregate value of the cash and stock consideration received by holders of outstanding shares of Welch Allyn common stock, less the value of the grant price in the case of any PHASAR. See the sections titled "The Merger Treatment of Welch Allyn PHASARs, PSU Awards and LTIP Cash Incentive Awards" beginning on page 54 of this proxy statement/prospectus.

These funds will be released by the escrow agent in accordance with the terms set forth in the escrow agreement.

For more information, see the sections entitled "The Merger Agreement Merger Consideration Adjustments" and "The Merger Agreement Escrow" beginning on pages 86 and 85, respectively, of this proxy statement/prospectus and the merger agreement attached to this proxy statement/prospectus as Annex A.

Hill-Rom and Welch Allyn agreed to the acquisition of Welch Allyn by Hill-Rom under the terms of the merger agreement described in this proxy statement/prospectus. Pursuant to the merger agreement, Merger Sub will merge with and into Welch Allyn, with Welch Allyn continuing as the surviving corporation and a wholly owned subsidiary of Hill-Rom. The merger agreement is attached as Annex A to this proxy statement/prospectus. Hill-Rom and Welch Allyn encourage you to carefully read the merger agreement in its entirety because it is the legal document that governs the merger.

(see pages 51 and 83)

At the effective time of the merger, each outstanding share of Welch Allyn common stock (other than any shares of Welch Allyn common stock as to which the holders of such shares have properly complied with the provisions of Sections 623 and 910 of the NYBCL as to dissenters' rights, which shares are referred to as dissenting shares in this proxy statement/prospectus, and any shares of Welch Allyn common stock owned by Hill-Rom, Merger Sub or any subsidiary of Hill-Rom) will be cancelled and automatically converted into the right to receive the merger consideration consisting of a combination of cash and shares of Hill-Rom common stock.

Upon the terms and subject to the conditions set forth in the merger agreement and subject to certain adjustments as described more fully in this proxy statement/prospectus, Welch Allyn shareholders will receive in the aggregate approximately:

$1,625,000,000 in cash (which amount is subject to adjustments for cash and cash equivalents, indebtedness (as defined in the merger agreement), certain other adjustments (as defined in the merger agreement), including the amount of certain fees, costs and expenses of Welch Allyn and the shareholder representative, net working capital, certain change in control payments (as defined in the merger agreement), including LTIP cash incentive payments (as defined in the merger agreement), payments to the holders of Welch Allyn PHASARs and PSU Awards (other than any portion of such payments deposited in the escrow account)), which amount is referred to as the cash consideration in this proxy statement/prospectus; and

8,133,722 shares of Hill-Rom common stock, which are referred to as the stock consideration in this proxy statement/prospectus.

$75,000,000 of the cash consideration otherwise deliverable to holders of outstanding shares of Welch Allyn common stock, PHASARs and PSU Awards will be withheld pro rata from such holders and deposited in an escrow account to secure any post-closing adjustment to the closing cash consideration and certain indemnification obligations of such holders pursuant to the merger agreement. These funds will be released by the escrow agent in accordance with the terms set forth in the escrow agreement. For more information regarding the adjustments and the amounts withheld under the escrow agreement, see the sections entitled "The Merger Agreement Merger Consideration Adjustments" and "The Merger Agreement Escrow" beginning on pages 86 and 85, respectively, of this proxy statement/prospectus and the merger agreement attached to this proxy statement/prospectus as Annex A. The aggregate amount of the cash consideration will not be known until shortly before the effective time of the merger, and, accordingly, will not be known at the time of the special meeting at which Welch Allyn shareholders will be asked to vote on the merger. See "The Merger Effects of the Merger; Merger Consideration" for an illustrative calculation of the per share closing consideration that would have been payable to Welch Allyn shareholders had the merger been consummated on July 31, 2015.

The merger consideration will be allocated among Welch Allyn shareholders. The precise amount of the merger consideration to be paid to each Welch Allyn shareholder will vary, depending on the amount of the cash consideration and the number of shares of Welch Allyn common stock outstanding immediately prior to the effective time of the merger.

Hill-Rom will not issue fractional shares of Hill-Rom common stock in the merger. As a result, Welch Allyn shareholders will receive cash for any fractional share of Hill-Rom common stock that they would otherwise be entitled to receive in the merger.

For a full description of the merger consideration, see the section titled "The Merger Agreement Effects of the Merger; Merger Consideration" beginning on page 83 of this proxy statement/prospectus.

Treatment of Welch Allyn PHASARs, PSU Awards and LTIP Cash Incentive Awards
(see page 54)

At the effective time of the merger:

each outstanding PHASAR, whether vested or unvested, will be cancelled, with the holder of such PHASAR becoming entitled to receive an amount in cash equal to the product of (a) the number of phantom shares of Welch Allyn common stock ("Phantom Shares") subject to such PHASAR as of immediately prior to the effective time of the merger and (b) the excess, if any, of the Phantom Merger Consideration (as defined below) (divided by 20 in the case of any PHASAR granted prior to January 1, 2012) over the grant price of such PHASAR, less any required withholding taxes;

each outstanding PSU Award will be cancelled, with the holder of such PSU Award becoming entitled to receive an amount in cash equal to the product of (a) the number of Phantom Shares subject to such PSU Award as of immediately prior to the effective time of the merger and (b) the Phantom Merger Consideration (divided by 20 in the case of any PSU Award granted prior to January 1, 2012), less any required withholding taxes; and each outstanding LTIP Cash Incentive Award will be cancelled, with the holder of such LTIP Cash Incentive Award becoming entitled to receive an amount in cash equal to the total cash amount subject to such LTIP Cash Incentive Award, assuming satisfaction of performance goals at target levels, less any required withholding taxes.

The "Phantom Merger Consideration" is an amount in cash equal to the quotient of (a) the sum of (i) the cash consideration, subject to the adjustments to cash consideration described above, excluding the adjustment for payments of PHASAR and PSU awards, (ii) the cash value of the stock consideration at the effective time of the merger (determined pursuant to the merger agreement) and (iii) the sum of the grant prices of each outstanding PHASAR divided by (b) the sum of (i) all shares of Welch Allyn common stock, (ii) all PHASARs and (iii) all PSU Awards, in each case, outstanding at the effective time of the merger and divided by 20 in the case of any PHASAR or PSU Award granted prior to January 1, 2012.

If Welch Allyn, on or prior to the effective time of the merger, declares any dividends or other distributions directly or indirectly on shares of Welch Allyn common stock that are paid or set-aside on or following June 16, 2015, then the Phantom Merger Consideration as defined above will be increased by the aggregate per share amount of such dividends or other distributions.

In addition, $75,000,000 of the cash consideration otherwise deliverable to holders of outstanding shares of Welch Allyn common stock, PHASARs and PSU Awards will be withheld pro rata from such holders and deposited in an escrow account to secure any post-closing adjustment to the closing cash consideration and certain indemnification obligations of such holders pursuant to the merger agreement. These funds will be released by the escrow agent in accordance with the terms set forth in the escrow agreement. Pursuant to the terms of the LTIP Cash Incentive Awards and the merger agreement, no portion of the cash amount each individual receives in respect of his or her LTIP Cash Incentive Awards will be withheld under the escrow agreement. For more information regarding the adjustments and the amounts withheld under the escrow agreement, see the sections entitled "The Merger Agreement Merger Consideration Adjustments" and "The Merger Agreement Escrow" beginning on pages 86 and 85, respectively, and the merger agreement attached to this proxy statement/prospectus as Annex A.

Hill-Rom expects to issue 8,133,722 shares of Hill-Rom common stock in the merger in partial consideration for the outstanding shares of Welch Allyn common stock. Based on the number of shares of Hill-Rom common stock outstanding on June 16, 2015, immediately after completion of the merger, Welch Allyn shareholders that existed immediately prior to the merger are expected to own, in the aggregate, approximately 13% of the then outstanding shares of Hill-Rom common stock.

Under the merger agreement, following the effectiveness of the registration statement on Form S-4 of which this proxy statement/prospectus forms a part, Welch Allyn has agreed to allow Hill-Rom and its financing sources a period of up to 20 consecutive business days (throughout which the registration statement on Form S-4 of which this proxy statement/prospectus forms a part must remain effective or such period shall restart when it becomes effective) to arrange its debt financing in an amount sufficient to complete the merger. Welch Allyn also has agreed to, and to cause its officers, employees and representatives to, provide Hill-Rom all cooperation reasonably requested that is necessary or reasonably required in connection with Hill-Rom's debt financing.

Risk Factors
(see page 29)

In evaluating the merger agreement and the merger, you should carefully read this proxy statement/prospectus and especially consider the factors discussed in the section titled "Risk Factors" beginning on page 29 of this proxy statement/prospectus.

Vote Required

Completion of the merger is conditioned upon the adoption of the merger agreement by the affirmative vote at the special meeting, either in person or by proxy, of holders representing at least two-thirds of the outstanding shares of Welch Allyn Class A common stock. Following the execution of the merger agreement, Hill-Rom entered into a voting agreement with the voting trustees of the voting trust created under the voting trust agreement, pursuant to which the voting trustees (i) executed and delivered to Hill-Rom an irrevocable proxy with respect to the 96,406,486 shares of Welch Allyn Class A common stock subject to the voting trust agreement, which shares constitute in the aggregate 89.94% of the total number of shares of Welch Allyn Class A common stock outstanding as of the date of this proxy statement/prospectus, and (ii) for purposes of the Shareholders' Agreement, consented to the transfer (as defined in the Shareholders' Agreement) of the shares of Welch Allyn Class A common stock subject to the voting trust, as described in more detail in the section titled "Material Contracts Between the Parties" beginning on page 102 of this proxy statement/prospectus. A copy of the voting agreement is attached to this proxy statement/prospectus as Annex B. The vote by Hill-Rom at the special meeting with respect to the shares of Welch Allyn Class A common stock subject to the irrevocable proxy to adopt the merger agreement will be sufficient to adopt the merger agreement and thereby approve the merger and the other transactions contemplated by the merger agreement, referred to in this proxy statement/prospectus as the merger proposal.

The affirmative vote, either in person or by proxy, at a special meeting of the shareholders of Welch Allyn by holders representing a majority of the outstanding Welch Allyn Class A common stock as of the record date, is required to approve one or more adjournments of the special meeting, if necessary, to permit the Welch Allyn board of directors to solicit additional proxies in favor of the merger proposal, referred to in this proxy statement/prospectus as the adjournment proposal.

The Special Meeting

The special meeting of the shareholders of Welch Allyn will be held on Tuesday, September 8, 2015, at 8:30 a.m., local time at The Lodge, located at 4355 State Street Road, Skaneateles Falls, NY 13152. At the special meeting:

- (1) holders of Welch Allyn Class A common stock will be asked to consider and vote to approve the merger proposal; and
- (2) holders of Welch Allyn Class A common stock will be asked to consider and vote to approve the adjournment proposal.

With respect to the merger proposal, only the holders of record of shares of Welch Allyn Class A common stock at the close of business on August 27, 2015, the record date, will be entitled to vote at the special meeting. Each share of Welch Allyn Class A common stock is entitled to one vote on the merger proposal at the special meeting and any adjournment(s) of the special meeting.

With respect to the adjournment proposal, only the holders of record of shares of Welch Allyn Class A common stock as of the record date will be entitled to vote at the special meeting. Each share of Welch Allyn Class A common stock is entitled to one vote on the adjournment proposal at the special meeting and any adjournment(s) of the special meeting. As of the record date, there were 107,514,697 shares of Welch Allyn common stock outstanding, consisting of 107,186,027 shares of Welch Allyn Class A common stock outstanding and 328,670 shares of Welch Allyn Class B common stock outstanding.

As of August 27, 2015, the directors and executive officers of Welch Allyn collectively beneficially owned 25,424,342 shares of Welch Allyn common stock (including shares of Welch Allyn Class A common stock and Welch Allyn Class B common stock), which represent, in the aggregate, approximately 23.6% of the outstanding shares of Welch Allyn common stock on that date.

Completion of the merger is conditioned upon the adoption of the merger agreement by the affirmative vote at the special meeting, either in person or by proxy, of holders representing at least two-thirds of the outstanding shares of Welch Allyn Class A common stock. Following the execution of the merger agreement, Hill-Rom entered into a voting agreement with the voting trustees of the voting trust created under the voting trust agreement, pursuant to which the voting trustees (i) executed and delivered to Hill-Rom an irrevocable proxy with respect to the 96,406,486 shares of Welch Allyn Class A common stock subject to the voting trust agreement, which shares constitute in the aggregate 89.94% of the total number of shares of Welch Allyn Class A common stock outstanding as of the date of this proxy statement/prospectus, and (ii) for purposes of the Shareholders' Agreement, consented to the transfer (as defined in the Shareholders' Agreement) of the shares of Welch Allyn Class A common stock subject to the voting trust, as described in more detail in the section titled "Material Contracts Between the Parties" beginning on page 102 of this proxy statement/prospectus. The vote by Hill-Rom at the special meeting with respect to the shares of Welch Allyn Class A common stock subject to the irrevocable proxy to adopt the merger agreement will be sufficient to adopt the merger agreement and thereby approve the merger and the other transactions contemplated by the merger agreement. Assuming the presence of a quorum, the affirmative vote at the special meeting of holders representing a majority of the outstanding Welch Allyn Class A common stock present at the special meeting, in person or by proxy, is required to approve the adjournment proposal. If you are a Welch Allyn Class A shareholder and mark "ABSTAIN" on your proxy with respect to the merger proposal or the adjournment proposal, it will have the same effect as a vote "AGAINST" the merger proposal or the adjournment proposal, as applicable. If you fail to submit a proxy or vote in person at the special meeting with respect to the merger proposal, it will have the same effect as a vote "AGAINST" the merger proposal, while shares not in attendance at the special meeting will have no effect on the outcome of any vote to adjourn the special meeting.

After careful consideration, the board of directors of Welch Allyn has adopted and declared advisable the merger agreement, has approved the transactions contemplated by the merger agreement, and has determined that the merger agreement and the transactions contemplated by the merger agreement, including the merger, are fair to, and in the best interests of, Welch Allyn and its shareholders. Therefore, the board of directors of Welch Allyn recommends that you vote your shares "FOR" the proposal to adopt the merger agreement and thereby approve the merger and the other transactions contemplated by the merger agreement.

For a description of various factors considered by the Welch Allyn board of directors in reaching its decision to adopt the merger agreement and approve the merger and the other transactions contemplated by the merger agreement, see the section titled "The Merger Recommendation of the Welch Allyn Board of Directors and Its Reasons for the Merger" beginning on page 56 of this proxy statement/prospectus.

Interests of Directors and Executive Officers of Welch Allyn in the Merger

In considering the recommendation of the Welch Allyn board of directors that the Welch Allyn shareholders vote to approve the merger proposal at the special meeting of Welch Allyn shareholders, you should be aware that certain of Welch Allyn's directors and executive officers have financial interests in the merger that are different from, or are in addition to, the interests of the Welch Allyn shareholders generally, as more fully described below. The members of the Welch Allyn board of directors were aware of and considered these interests, among other matters, in evaluating and negotiating the merger agreement, and in evaluating the merger and in recommending to the Welch Allyn shareholders that they approve the merger proposal at the special meeting of Welch Allyn shareholders.

The interests of the members of Welch Allyn's board of directors generally include the right to receive, at the effective time of the merger (1) the cancellation of each outstanding PHASAR and PSU Award immediately prior to the effective time of the merger in exchange for the right to receive the Phantom Merger Consideration with respect to such PHASAR and each PSU Award (less the grant price in the case of PHASARs) and (2) accelerated cash payment of previously earned and vested amounts deferred under the Deferred Compensation Plan for the Board of Directors of Welch Allyn (amended and restated as of January 1, 2012) (the "Directors Deferred Compensation Plan").

The interests of Welch Allyn's executive officers include the rights to:

at the effective time of the merger, cancellation of each outstanding PHASAR and PSU Awards immediately prior to the effective time of the merger in exchange for the right to receive the Phantom Merger Consideration (divided by 20 in the case of any PHASAR or PSU awards granted prior to January 1, 2012) with respect to such PHASAR and each PSU Award (less the grant price in the case of PHASARs);

at the effective time of the merger, cancellation of each outstanding LTIP Cash Award in exchange for the total cash amount subject to such LTIP Cash Incentive Award (assuming satisfaction of performance goals at target levels);

at the effective time of the merger, accelerated cash payment of previously earned and vested amounts deferred under the Deferred Compensation Plan for Certain Executive Employees of Welch Allyn Companies (amended and restated as of January 1, 2014) (the "Executive Deferred Compensation Plan" and together with the Directors Deferred Compensation Plan, the "Deferred Compensation Plans");

Welch Allyn's directors and executive officers also have the right to indemnification and insurance coverage following the effective time of the merger. Please see the section below entitled "The Merger Interests of Directors and Executive Officers of Welch Allyn in the Merger" beginning on page 68 of this proxy statement/prospectus for additional information about these interests.

Listing of Hill-Rom Common Stock
(see page 76)

Application has been made to have the shares of Hill-Rom common stock issued in the merger approved for listing on the NYSE.

Table of Contents

Dissenters' Rights

Welch Allyn shareholders have dissenters' rights under the NYBCL in connection with the merger. Welch Allyn shareholders who do not vote in favor of the adoption of the merger agreement and who otherwise comply with the applicable provisions of the NYBCL will be entitled to dissent from the merger and obtain payment of the "fair value," as determined pursuant to Section 623 of the NYBCL, of their shares if the merger is completed. Any shares of Welch Allyn common stock held by a shareholder who has not voted in favor of the adoption of the merger agreement and who has exercised dissenters' rights for such shares in accordance with the NYBCL, will not be converted into a right to receive the merger consideration, unless such shareholder fails to perfect, withdraws or otherwise loses such shareholder's right to dissent under the NYBCL. If, after the consummation of the merger, such holder of Welch Allyn common stock fails to perfect, withdraws or otherwise loses his or her or its rights to dissent, each such share will be treated as if it had been converted as of the consummation of the merger into a right to receive the merger consideration as shares that made no election.

You are encouraged to read these provisions carefully and in their entirety. Due to the complexity of the procedures for exercising dissenters' rights, Welch Allyn shareholders who are considering exercising such rights are encouraged to seek the advice of legal counsel. Failure to strictly comply with these provisions will result in the loss of dissenters' rights. See the section entitled "The Merger Dissenters' Rights" beginning on page 76 of this proxy statement/prospectus for additional information and the text of Sections 623 and 910 of the NYBCL reproduced in their entirety as Annex C to this proxy statement/prospectus.

(see page 66)

Hill-Rom and Welch Allyn currently expect to complete the merger prior to September 30, 2015, subject to the receipt of regulatory approvals and the satisfaction or waiver of the other conditions to the merger contained in the merger agreement. However, it is possible that factors outside the control of Hill-Rom and Welch Allyn could require Hill-Rom and Welch Allyn to complete the merger at a later date or not complete it at all.

United States Antitrust. Under the Hart-Scott-Rodino Antitrust Improvements Act of 1976, as amended, and related rules, which are collectively referred to as the HSR Act in this proxy statement/prospectus, certain transactions, including the merger, may not be completed until notifications have been given and information furnished to the Antitrust Division of the United States Department of Justice, which is referred to as the Antitrust Division in this proxy statement/prospectus, and the United States Federal Trade Commission, which is referred to as the FTC in this proxy statement/prospectus, and all statutory waiting period requirements have been satisfied. Hill-Rom and Welch Allyn filed Notification and Report Forms with the Antitrust Division and the FTC on June 25, 2015, and early termination of the waiting period under the HSR Act with respect to the merger was granted effective as of July 8, 2015.

At any time before or after the effective time of the merger, the Antitrust Division, the FTC or others (including states and private parties) could take action under the antitrust laws, including seeking to prevent the merger, to rescind the merger or conditionally approve the merger upon the divestiture of assets of Hill-Rom or Welch Allyn or subject to other remedies. There can be no assurance that a challenge to the merger on antitrust grounds will not be made or, if such a challenge is made, that it would not be successful.

Germany Antitrust. Under the German Act against Restraints of Competition (Gesetz gegen Wettbewerbsbeschränkungen) as amended, and related rules, which are collectively referred to as the ARC in this proxy statement / prospectus, certain transactions, including the merger, may not be completed until a valid notification has been submitted to the German Federal Cartel Office, which is referred to as the FCO in this proxy statement / prospectus, and all statutory waiting period requirements have been satisfied (or the FCO has confirmed its approval of the merger prior to the expiry of any statutory waiting period). A notification regarding the merger was filed with the FCO on June 29, 2015 and a clearance decision from the FCO was issued on July 14, 2015.

As part of its review of the merger, the FCO could decide to prohibit the merger or to conditionally approve the merger upon the divestiture of assets of Hill-Rom or Welch Allyn, or subject the parties to other remedies. There can be no assurance that the FCO will not prohibit the merger or to conditionally approve the merger upon the divestiture of assets of Hill-Rom or Welch Allyn, or subject the parties to other remedies.

In addition, at any time during the ARC's statutory waiting period, third parties may apply to the FCO to join the proceedings as "intervening parties" should the FCO decide that the interests of such third parties are materially affected by the merger. Intervening parties are entitled to appeal decisions of the FCO. There can be no assurance that an appeal of the FCO's decision about the merger will not be made or, if such an appeal is made, that it would not be successful.

The foregoing is a summary of the material regulatory requirements for the merger, satisfaction or waiver of certain of which requirements is a condition to the completion of the merger. There can be no guarantee as to if and when any of the consents or approvals required for the merger will be obtained or as to the conditions that such consents and approvals may contain. For further information, see the section titled "Risk Factors" beginning on page 29 of this proxy statement/prospectus.

Opinion of the Financial Advisor to Welch Allyn
(see page 58)

In connection with the merger, Barclays Capital Inc. ("Barclays") delivered to the Welch Allyn board of directors its written opinion dated June 16, 2015, to the effect that, as of that date and based on and subject to the various assumptions, matters considered and limitations described in its opinion, from a financial point of view, the merger consideration offered to the Welch Allyn shareholders was fair to the Welch Allyn shareholders. The full text of the written opinion of Barclays, which sets forth the assumptions made, matters considered and limits on the review undertaken by Barclays in rendering its opinion, is attached to this proxy statement/prospectus as Annex D. The opinion was addressed to, and for the benefit and use of, the Welch Allyn board of directors, was limited to the fairness, from a financial point of view, of the merger consideration, expressed no opinion as to the merits of the underlying decision by Welch Allyn to engage in the merger or the relative merits of the merger as compared to any alternative business strategies, and expressed no opinion or recommendation as to how any Welch Allyn shareholder should vote with respect to the merger or as to whether any Welch Allyn shareholder should authorize a proxy to vote its shares in favor of the adoption of the merger agreement and the approval of the merger.

(see page 75)

Hill-Rom and Welch Allyn prepare their financial statements in accordance with accounting principles generally accepted in the United States, which are referred to as GAAP in this proxy statement/prospectus. The merger will be accounted for in accordance with FASB ASC Topic 805,

Table of Contents

Business Combinations, with Hill-Rom considered the accounting acquirer and Welch Allyn as the accounting acquiree. Accordingly, consideration to be given by Hill-Rom to complete the merger with Welch Allyn will be allocated to assets and liabilities of Welch Allyn based on their estimated fair values as of the date of the completion of the merger, with any excess merger consideration being recorded as goodwill.

The merger agreement contains provisions that, among other things, require Welch Allyn to immediately cease existing discussions or negotiations with any person other than Hill-Rom with respect to an acquisition transaction. Additionally, neither Welch Allyn nor any of its affiliates, directors, officers, employees, representatives or agents may, directly or indirectly, solicit, initiate, facilitate or knowingly encourage inquiries or the making of any proposal with respect to an acquisition transaction, or negotiate or otherwise facilitate, encourage, solicit, initiate or engage in discussions, negotiations or submissions of proposals or offers with any person with respect to any acquisition transaction, enter into any written agreement, arrangement, or understanding requiring it to abandon, terminate, or fail to consummate the merger or otherwise cooperate in any way with or assist or participate in, facilitate or encourage, any effort or attempt by any other person to do or seek any of the foregoing. The term "acquisition transaction" is defined in the section titled "The Merger Agreement Exclusivity" beginning on page 94 of this proxy statement/prospectus.

Efforts to Complete the Merger
(see page 94)

Upon the terms and subject to the conditions in the merger agreement, Hill-Rom and Welch Allyn have agreed to use their best efforts to take or cause to be taken all actions, and to do, or cause to be done, all things necessary to consummate and make effective, in the most expeditious manner possible, the transactions contemplated by the merger agreement, including using their best efforts to obtain all waivers, consents and approvals of all governmental authorities necessary and parties to contracts with Welch Allyn or any of its subsidiaries that may be or become necessary for the performance of obligations pursuant to the merger agreement and the consummation of the transactions contemplated by the merger agreement.

Conditions to Completion of the Merger
(see page 97)

The obligations of each of Hill-Rom and Welch Allyn to complete the merger are subject to the satisfaction (or waiver) of the following conditions:

the Welch Allyn shareholder approval has been obtained;

any waiting period (and any extension of such period) applicable to the consummation of the merger under the HSR Act has expired or been terminated and consents, approvals and filings required under foreign antitrust laws, the absence of which would prohibit the consummation of the merger, have been obtained;

no order, decree or ruling issued by any governmental authority or other law preventing the consummation of the merger is in effect;

the registration statement of which this proxy statement/prospectus forms a part has become effective and no stop order suspending such effectiveness has been issued and no proceeding for that purpose has been initiated or threatened and not withdrawn;

the representations and warranties of the other party must be true and correct as of the date of the merger agreement and as of the closing of the merger as though made on the closing date of the merger (except those representations or warranties that are made as of a specific date, in which case, such representations or warranties must be true and correct in all respects as of that date), subject to, in certain cases, certain materiality or other thresholds;

the other party having performed in all material respects all obligations required to be performed by it under the merger agreement prior to the closing of the merger; and

The obligation of Hill-Rom to complete the merger is further subject to the satisfaction (or waiver) of the following conditions:

Neither Hill-Rom nor Welch Allyn can give any assurance that all of the conditions to the merger will either be satisfied or waived or when or if the merger will occur.

(see page 99)

The merger agreement may be terminated at any time prior to the closing of the merger by mutual written consent of Hill-Rom and Welch Allyn. The merger agreement may also be terminated subject to the limitations set forth in the merger agreement:

if any governmental authority issues an order, decree or ruling or takes any other action permanently enjoining, restraining or otherwise prohibiting the merger that is final and non-appealable; or

(i) if Hill-Rom fails to complete the merger when required to do so under the merger agreement, (ii) all conditions to closing have been satisfied (other than those conditions that by their terms are to be satisfied at closing) and (iii) Welch Allyn has given written notice to Hill-Rom that it stands ready, willing and able to consummate the merger; or

Material United States Federal Income Tax Consequences of the Transaction
(see page 79)

The receipt of the merger consideration by a U.S. holder in exchange for Welch Allyn common stock pursuant to the merger will be a taxable transaction for United States federal income tax purposes. For United States federal income tax purposes, generally you will recognize capital gain or loss as a result of the merger measured by the difference, if any, between the fair market value of the merger consideration (including the sum of cash received, the fair market value (as of the effective time of the merger) of the shares of Hill-Rom common stock received and the value of the right to receive payments pursuant to the escrow that are not treated as interest) and your adjusted tax basis in the shares of Welch Allyn common stock exchanged for the merger consideration in the merger. You may be able to report gain on the installment method.

You should read the section titled "The Merger Material United States Federal Income Tax Consequences of the Transaction" beginning on page 79 of this proxy statement/prospectus for a more complete discussion of the United States federal income tax consequences of the merger.

Tax matters can be complicated, and the tax consequences of the merger to you will depend on your particular tax situation. Hill-Rom and Welch Allyn urge you to consult your tax advisor to determine the tax consequences of the merger to you.

Welch Allyn shareholders, whose rights are currently governed by (i) New York law, (ii) Welch Allyn's Amended and Restated Certificate of Incorporation, as amended, which is referred to as the Welch Allyn certificate of incorporation, and (iii) the Amended and Restated By-Laws of Welch Allyn, which are referred to as the Welch Allyn by-laws, will, upon completion of the merger, become Hill-Rom shareholders, and their rights will be governed by (a) Indiana law and (b) Hill-Rom's Amended and Restated Articles of Incorporation and Amended and Restated Code of By-Laws, which are referred to as the Hill-Rom articles of incorporation and the Hill-Rom by-laws, respectively. As a result, Welch Allyn shareholders will have different rights once they become Hill-Rom shareholders due to the differences between the governing documents of Welch Allyn and Hill-Rom. These differences are described in detail in the section titled "Comparison of Shareholder Rights" beginning on page 120 of this proxy statement/prospectus.

SELECTED HISTORICAL FINANCIAL DATA OF WELCH ALLYN

The following tables set forth selected historical consolidated financial and other data of Welch Allyn. The selected consolidated statement of income data for the years ended December 31, 2014, 2013 and 2012 and the selected consolidated balance sheet data as of December 31, 2014 and 2013 have been derived from Welch Allyn's audited consolidated financial statements included elsewhere in this proxy statement/prospectus. The selected consolidated statement of income data for the years ended December 31, 2011 and 2010 and the summary consolidated balance sheet data as of December 31, 2012, 2011 and 2010 have been derived from Welch Allyn's audited consolidated financial statements which are not included in this proxy statement/prospectus.

The selected historical consolidated financial data of Welch Allyn as of July 4, 2015 and for the six month periods ended July 4, 2015 and June 28, 2014 have been derived from Welch Allyn's historical unaudited interim condensed consolidated financial statements included elsewhere in this proxy statement/prospectus. These financial statements are unaudited, but, in the opinion of Welch Allyn's management, contain all adjustments (consisting of normal recurring accruals) considered necessary for a fair presentation of Welch Allyn's financial condition, results of operations and cash flows for the periods presented.

Results of interim periods are not necessarily indicative of the results expected for a full year or for future periods. This information is only a summary and should be read in conjunction with the section titled "Information about Welch Allyn Management's Discussion and Analysis of Financial Condition and Results of Operations" beginning on page 136 of this proxy statement/prospectus and

(1) Adjusted EBITDA is a non-GAAP financial measure. Hill-Rom management used this measure in evaluating the performance of Welch Allyn in the course of evaluating the merger. Adjusted EBITDA is defined as GAAP operating income of Welch Allyn adjusted for the impact from discontinued product lines, special charges, and other unusual events, which may be highly variable, difficult to predict and of a size that sometimes have substantial impact on the Company's reported operations for a period, and the impact of other items, such as the discontinuance of the Domestic International Sales Corporation ("DISC") commissions, which are not permitted under IRS regulations for public companies, and stock-based compensation expense. Investors should consider non-GAAP measures

SELECTED UNAUDITED PRO FORMA FINANCIAL DATA

The following selected unaudited pro forma condensed combined financial statements present the combination of the historical consolidated financial statements of Hill-Rom and Welch Allyn, adjusted to give effect to the merger. The summary unaudited pro forma condensed combined balance sheet combines the unaudited historical condensed consolidated balance sheet of Hill-Rom as of June 30, 2015 and the unaudited historical condensed consolidated balance sheet of Welch Allyn as of July 4, 2015, to give effect to Hill-Rom's acquisition of Welch Allyn and related financing transactions (collectively, the "Transactions"), as if they had occurred on June 30, 2015. The summary unaudited pro forma condensed combined income statement for the fiscal year ended September 30, 2014 assumes that the combination took place on October 1, 2013, the beginning of Hill-Rom's most recently completed fiscal year. Hill-Rom's audited consolidated statement of income for the fiscal year ended September 30, 2014 has been combined with Welch Allyn's audited consolidated statement of income for the fiscal year ended December 31, 2014. For the unaudited pro forma condensed combined income statement for the nine months ended June 30, 2015, Hill-Rom's unaudited consolidated statement of income for the nine months ended June 30, 2015 has been combined with Welch Allyn's unaudited consolidated statement of income for the three months ended December 31, 2014 and Welch Allyn's unaudited consolidated statement of income for the six months ended July 4, 2015.

The pro forma adjustments are preliminary and have been made solely for purposes of developing the pro forma financial information for illustrative purposes. The actual results reported in periods following the Transactions may differ significantly from that reflected in these pro forma financial statements for a number of reasons, including, but not limited to, differences between the assumptions used to prepare these pro forma financial statements and actual amounts, cost savings from operating efficiencies and impact of potential synergies, the impact of the incremental costs incurred in integrating Welch Allyn's operations, changes in the allocation of purchase price, and the actual interest rates applicable to the funds borrowed to finance the acquisition of Welch Allyn.

The selected unaudited pro forma condensed combined financial statements are derived from, and should be read in conjunction with, the consolidated financial statements and related notes of Hill-Rom incorporated by reference into this proxy statement/prospectus, and the consolidated financial statements and related notes of Welch Allyn included elsewhere in this proxy statement/prospectus, together with the more detailed unaudited pro forma condensed combined financial information provided in the section titled "Unaudited Pro Forma Condensed Combined Financial Information" beginning on page 105 of this proxy statement/prospectus. Table of ContentsCOMPARATIVE HISTORICAL AND UNAUDITED PRO FORMA PER SHARE DATA

The following table sets forth for the periods presented certain historical per share data of Hill-Rom common stock and Welch Allyn common stock on a historical basis and on unaudited pro forma and pro forma equivalent bases after giving effect to the merger under the acquisition method of accounting. The historical per share data of Hill-Rom and Welch Allyn has been derived from, and should be read in conjunction with, the historical consolidated financial statements of Hill-Rom incorporated by reference into this proxy statement/prospectus and the historical consolidated financial statements of Welch Allyn and notes thereto included elsewhere in this proxy statement/prospectus. The unaudited pro forma per share data has been derived from, and should be read in conjunction with, the unaudited pro forma condensed combined financial information provided in the section titled "Unaudited Pro Forma Condensed Combined Financial Information" beginning on page 105 of this proxy statement/prospectus. The unaudited pro forma and pro forma equivalent income and dividend per share data for the nine months ended June 30, 2015 were prepared based on the unaudited condensed consolidated financial statements of Hill-Rom for the nine month period ended June 30, 2015 and the combination of the unaudited condensed consolidated financial statements of Welch Allyn for the three month period ended December 31, 2014 and for the six month period ended July 4, 2015. The unaudited pro forma and pro forma equivalent income and dividend per share data for the year ended September 30, 2014 were prepared based on the audited consolidated financial statements of Hill-Rom for the year ended September 30, 2014 and of Welch Allyn based on the audited consolidated financial statements for the year ended December 31, 2014. The pro forma and pro forma equivalent net book value per share reflect the merger as if it had been effective on June 30, 2015 and were prepared based on the unaudited condensed consolidated balance sheets of Hill-Rom as of June 30, 2015.

The unaudited pro forma equivalent data of Welch Allyn was calculated by multiplying the corresponding unaudited pro forma consolidated data of Hill-Rom by the ratio (0.075652187) which the maximum total number of shares of Hill-Rom common stock to be issued as part of the merger consideration (8,133,722) bears to the number of outstanding Welch Allyn common stock as of July 4, 2015 (107,514,697). These computations exclude the benefit to Welch Allyn shareholders from receiving the cash portion of the merger consideration. The actual exchange ratio may vary as described in this proxy statement/prospectus. This data shows how each share of Welch Allyn common stock would have participated in net income and book value of Hill-Rom if the companies had always been consolidated for accounting and financial reporting purposes for all periods presented. These amounts, however, are not intended to reflect future per share levels of net income and book value of Hill-Rom.

RISK FACTORS

In addition to general investment risks and the other information included in and incorporated by reference into this proxy statement/prospectus, including the matters addressed in the section titled "Cautionary Statement Regarding Forward-Looking Statements" beginning on page 37 of this proxy statement/prospectus, Welch Allyn shareholders should consider carefully the matters described below in determining whether to adopt the merger agreement and thereby approve the merger and the other transactions contemplated by the merger agreement. In addition, Welch Allyn shareholders should read and consider the risks associated with an investment in Hill-Rom common stock. These risks can be found in Hill-Rom's Annual Report on Form 10-K for the fiscal year ended September 30, 2014, as updated by subsequent Quarterly Reports on Form 10-Q, all of which are filed with the SEC and incorporated by reference into this proxy statement/prospectus. For further information regarding the documents incorporated into this proxy statement/prospectus by reference, see the section titled "Where You Can Find Additional Information" beginning on page 159 of this proxy statement/prospectus.

Risks Relating to the Merger

There is no assurance when or if the merger will be completed. Any delay in completing the merger may substantially reduce the benefits that Hill-Rom and Welch Allyn expect to obtain from the merger.

Completion of the merger is subject to the satisfaction or waiver of a number of conditions as set forth in the merger agreement. There can be no assurance that Hill-Rom and Welch Allyn will be able to satisfy the closing conditions or that closing conditions beyond their control will be satisfied or waived. For a discussion of the conditions to the completion of the merger, see the section titled "The Merger Agreement Conditions to Completion of the Merger" beginning on page 97 of this proxy statement/prospectus. If the merger and the integration of the companies' respective businesses are not completed within the expected timeframe, such delay may materially and adversely affect the synergies and other benefits that Hill-Rom and Welch Allyn expect to achieve as a result of the merger and could result in additional transaction costs, loss of revenue or other effects associated with uncertainty about the merger.

Hill-Rom and Welch Allyn can agree at any time to terminate the merger agreement, even if Welch Allyn shareholders have already adopted the merger agreement and thereby approved the merger and the other transactions contemplated by the merger agreement. Hill-Rom and Welch Allyn can also terminate the merger agreement under other specified circumstances. See the section titled "The Merger Agreement Termination of the Merger Agreement" beginning on page 99 of this proxy statement/prospectus.

Hill-Rom is expected to incur substantial expenses related to the merger and the integration of Welch Allyn.

Hill-Rom is expected to incur substantial expenses in connection with the merger and the integration of Welch Allyn. Specifically, based on estimates as of August 25, 2015, Hill-Rom expects to incur approximately $30 million of transaction costs related to the merger. Additionally, there are a large number of processes, policies, procedures, operations, technologies and systems that must be integrated, including purchasing, accounting and finance, sales, billing, payroll, manufacturing, marketing and employee benefits. While Hill-Rom expects to incur integration and restructuring costs and other costs incurred to execute the transaction following completion of the merger in 2015 that are estimated to range between $35 million and $40 million, many of the expenses that will be incurred are, by their nature, difficult to estimate accurately. These expenses could, particularly in the near term, exceed the savings that Hill-Rom expects to achieve from elimination of duplicative expenses and the realization of economies of scale and cost savings. Although Hill-Rom and Welch Allyn expect that the realization of efficiencies related to the integration of the businesses will offset incremental transaction, merger-related and restructuring costs over time, Hill-Rom and Welch Allyn cannot give any assurance that this net benefit will be achieved in the near term, or at all.

Covenants in the merger agreement place certain restrictions on Welch Allyn's conduct of business prior to the closing of the merger.

The merger agreement restricts Welch Allyn from taking certain specified actions without Hill-Rom's consent while the merger is pending. These restrictions may prevent Welch Allyn from pursuing otherwise attractive business opportunities or other capital structure alternatives and making other changes to its business or executing certain of its business strategies prior to the completion of the merger.

The announcement and pendency of the merger could have an adverse effect on Hill-Rom's and/or Welch Allyn's business, financial condition, results of operations or business prospects.

The announcement and pendency of the merger could disrupt Hill-Rom's and/or Welch Allyn's businesses in the following ways, among others:

the attention of Hill-Rom's and/or Welch Allyn's management may be directed towards the completion of the merger and other transaction-related considerations and may be diverted from the day-to-day business operations of Hill-Rom and/or Welch Allyn, as applicable, and matters related to the merger may require commitments of time and resources that could otherwise have been devoted to other opportunities that might have been beneficial to Hill-Rom and/or Welch Allyn, as applicable;

Hill-Rom's and/or Welch Allyn's employees may experience uncertainty regarding their future roles in the combined company, which might adversely affect Hill-Rom's and/or Welch Allyn's ability to retain, recruit and motivate key personnel; and customers, suppliers and other third parties with business relationships with Hill-Rom and/or Welch Allyn may decide not to renew or may decide to seek to terminate, change and/or renegotiate their relationships with Hill-Rom and/or Welch Allyn as a result of the merger, whether pursuant to the terms of their existing agreements with Hill-Rom and/or Welch Allyn or otherwise.

Any of these matters could adversely affect the businesses of, or harm the financial condition, results of operations or business prospects of, Hill-Rom and/or Welch Allyn.

The merger agreement contains provisions that limit Welch Allyn's ability to pursue alternatives to the merger, which could discourage a potential acquirer of Welch Allyn from making an alternative transaction proposal.

The merger agreement contains provisions that make it more difficult for Welch Allyn to sell its business to a party other than Hill-Rom. These provisions include a general prohibition on Welch Allyn taking certain actions prior to the termination of the merger agreement that might lead to or otherwise facilitate a proposal by a third party for a competing transaction. These provisions might discourage a third party that might have an interest in acquiring all or a significant part of the stock, properties or assets of Welch Allyn from considering or proposing such acquisition. In addition, following the execution of the merger agreement, Hill-Rom entered into a voting agreement and irrevocable proxy with certain shareholders of Welch Allyn representing in aggregate at least the number of shares of Welch Allyn common stock sufficient to approve the merger.

Failure to complete the merger could negatively impact the future business and financial results of Hill-Rom and Welch Allyn.

If the merger is not completed, the ongoing businesses of Hill-Rom and Welch Allyn may be adversely affected. Hill-Rom and Welch Allyn will be subject to several risks, including the following:

having to pay certain costs relating to the merger, such as legal, accounting, financial advisory, filing and printing fees; diversion of management focus and resources from operational matters and other strategic opportunities while working to complete the merger; and reputational harm due to the adverse perception of any failure to successfully complete the merger.

Hill-Rom and Welch Allyn cannot assure their respective shareholders that, if the merger is not completed, these risks will not materialize and will not materially adversely affect the business and financial results of either company.

Hill-Rom's share price may fluctuate prior to the completion of the merger, and the value of the merger consideration at the closing of the merger may not be the same as at the time of the signing of the merger agreement or on the date of this proxy statement/prospectus.

Upon completion of the merger, shares of Welch Allyn common stock will be converted into the merger consideration, which will consist of cash and shares of Hill-Rom common stock. Any change in the market price of Hill-Rom common stock prior to completion of the merger will affect the dollar value of the stock consideration that Welch Allyn shareholders receive upon completion of the merger. Changes in the market price of Hill-Rom common stock could result from a variety of factors, many of which are beyond Hill-Rom's control, including:

general market and economic conditions, including market conditions in the medical product industry;

actual or expected variations in results of operations;

changes in recommendations by securities analysts; operations and stock performance of industry participants;

significant acquisitions or strategic alliances by competitors;

sales of Hill-Rom common stock, including sales by Hill-Rom's directors and officers or significant investors; recruitment or departure of key personnel; loss of customers or suppliers; and failure to achieve the perceived benefits of the merger as rapidly as, or to the extent, expected.

Edgar Filing: Hill-Rom Holdings, Inc. - Form S-4/A

In connection with the merger and as part of the merger consideration, Hill-Rom will issue shares of Hill-Rom common stock to Welch Allyn shareholders. The issuance of Hill-Rom common stock in the merger may result in fluctuations in the market price of Hill-Rom common stock, including a stock price decrease.

Welch Allyn shareholders will have a reduced ownership and voting interest in Hill-Rom after the merger relative to their current ownership and voting interest in Welch Allyn and, as a result, will be able to exert less influence over management.

In the merger, each Welch Allyn shareholder will receive shares of Hill-Rom common stock as a portion of the merger consideration, which will result in such Welch Allyn shareholder becoming a shareholder of Hill-Rom with a percentage ownership of Hill-Rom after the merger that is significantly smaller than such shareholder's current percentage ownership of Welch Allyn. It is expected that Welch Allyn shareholders immediately prior to the merger will own, in the aggregate, approximately 13% of the outstanding shares of Hill-Rom common stock immediately after the completion of the merger. Accordingly, Welch Allyn shareholders will have substantially less influence on the management and policies of Hill-Rom after the merger than they now have with respect to the management and policies of Welch Allyn.

There has been no public market for Welch Allyn common stock and the lack of a public market makes it difficult to determine the fair market value of Welch Allyn.

The outstanding capital stock of Welch Allyn is privately held and is not traded on any public market. The lack of a public market may make it more difficult to determine the fair market value of Welch Allyn than if Welch Allyn common stock were traded publicly. The value ascribed to Welch Allyn's securities in other contexts may not be indicative of the price at which Welch Allyn common stock may have traded if it were traded on a public market. The merger consideration to be paid to Welch Allyn shareholders was determined based on negotiations between the parties and likewise may not be indicative of the price at which Welch Allyn common stock may have traded if it were traded on a public market.

Some of Welch Allyn's directors and executive officers have interests in seeing the merger completed that are different from, or in addition to, those of other Welch Allyn stockholders. Therefore, some of Welch Allyn's directors and executive officers may have a conflict of interest in recommending the proposals being voted on at Welch Allyn's special meeting.

In considering the recommendation of the Welch Allyn board of directors that the Welch Allyn shareholders vote to approve the merger proposal at the special meeting of Welch Allyn shareholders, you should be aware that certain of Welch Allyn's directors and executive officers have financial interests in the merger that are different from, or are in addition to, the interests of the Welch Allyn shareholders generally, as more fully described below. The members of the Welch Allyn board of directors were aware of and considered these interests, among other matters, in evaluating and negotiating the merger agreement, and in evaluating the merger and in recommending to the Welch Allyn shareholders that they approve the merger proposal at the special meeting of Welch Allyn shareholders.

The interests of the members of Welch Allyn's board of directors generally include the right to receive, at the effective time of the merger (1) the cancellation of each outstanding PHASAR and PSU Award immediately prior to the effective time of the merger in exchange for the right to receive the Phantom Merger Consideration with respect to such PHASAR and each PSU Award (less the grant price in the case of PHASARs) and (2) accelerated cash payment of previously earned and vested amounts deferred under the Directors Deferred Compensation Plan.

The interests of Welch Allyn's executive officers include the rights to:

at the effective time of the merger, cancellation of each outstanding PHASAR and PSU Awards immediately prior to the effective time of the merger in exchange for the right to receive the Phantom Merger Consideration (divided by 20 in the case of any PHASAR or PSU Awards)

granted prior to January 1, 2012) with respect to such PHASAR and each PSU Award (less the grant price in the case of PHASARs);

at the effective time of the merger, cancellation of each outstanding LTIP Cash Award in exchange for the total cash amount subject to such LTIP Cash Incentive Award (assuming satisfaction of performance goals at target levels);

at the effective time of the merger, accelerated cash payment of previously earned and vested amounts deferred under the Executive Deferred Compensation Plan;

at or following the effective time of the merger, special bonus payments to certain executive officers;

in the event of a qualifying termination of employment following the effective time of the merger, certain severance payments and benefits; and certain continuing employee benefits following the effective time of the merger pursuant to the merger agreement.

Welch Allyn's directors and executive officers also have the right to indemnification and insurance coverage following the effective time of the merger. Please see the section below entitled "The Merger Interests of Directors and Executive Officers of Welch Allyn in the Merger" beginning on page 68 of this proxy statement/prospectus for additional information about these interests.

The merger may be completed even though material adverse changes may result from the announcement of the merger, industry-wide changes or other causes.

In general, Hill-Rom can refuse to complete the merger if there is a material adverse effect (as defined in the merger agreement) affecting Welch Allyn prior to the closing of the merger. However, some types of changes do not permit Hill-Rom to refuse to complete the merger, even if such changes would have a material adverse effect on Welch Allyn. If adverse changes occur but Hill-Rom must still complete the merger, the market price of Hill-Rom common stock may suffer. For a more complete discussion of what constitutes a material adverse effect on Welch Allyn under the merger agreement, see the section titled "The Merger Agreement Representations and Warranties" beginning on page 91 of this proxy statement/prospectus.

Risks Relating to the Combined Company Following the Merger

Successful integration of Welch Allyn with Hill-Rom and successful operation of the combined company are not assured. Also, integrating Hill-Rom's business with that of Welch Allyn may divert the attention of management away from operations.

If the merger is completed, Welch Allyn will become a wholly owned subsidiary of Hill-Rom but will, at least initially, continue its operations on a basis that is separate from Hill-Rom's operations. There can be no assurance that after the merger Welch Allyn will be able to maintain and grow its business and operations. In addition, the market segments in which Welch Allyn operates may experience declines in demand and/or new competitors. Integrating and coordinating certain aspects of the operations and personnel of Welch Allyn with Hill-Rom will involve complex operational, technological and personnel-related challenges. This process will be time-consuming and expensive, may disrupt the businesses of either or both of the companies and may not result in the full benefits expected by Hill-Rom and Welch Allyn, including cost synergies expected to arise from supply chain efficiencies and overlapping general and administrative functions. The potential difficulties, and resulting costs and delays, include:

managing a larger combined company;

consolidating corporate and administrative infrastructures; issues in integrating manufacturing, warehouse and distribution facilities, research and development and sales forces;

difficulties attracting and retaining key personnel;

loss of customers and suppliers and inability to attract new customers and suppliers;

unanticipated issues in integrating information technology, communications and other systems; incompatibility of purchasing, logistics, marketing, administration and other systems and processes; and unforeseen and unexpected liabilities related to the merger or Welch Allyn's business.

Additionally, the integration of Hill-Rom's and Welch Allyn's operations, products and personnel may place a significant burden on management and other internal resources. The diversion of management's attention, and any difficulties encountered in the transition and integration process, could harm the combined company's business, financial condition and operating results.

The pro forma financial statements are presented for illustrative purposes only and may not be an indication of the combined company's financial condition or results of operations following the completion of the merger.

The pro forma financial statements contained in this proxy statement/prospectus are presented for illustrative purposes only and may not be an indication of the combined company's financial condition or results of operations following the completion of the merger for several reasons. The pro forma financial statements have been derived from the historical financial statements of Hill-Rom and Welch Allyn and adjustments and assumptions have been made regarding the combined company after giving effect to the merger. The information upon which these adjustments and assumptions have been made is preliminary, and these kinds of adjustments and assumptions are difficult to make with accuracy. Moreover, the pro forma financial statements do not reflect all costs that are expected to be incurred by the combined company in connection with the merger. For example, the impact of any incremental costs incurred in integrating Hill-Rom and Welch Allyn are not reflected in the pro forma financial statements. As a result, the actual financial condition and results of operations of the combined company following the completion of the merger may not be consistent with, or evident from, these pro forma financial statements. The assumptions used in preparing the pro forma financial information may not prove to be accurate, and other factors may affect the combined company's financial condition or results of operations following the merger. Any decline or potential decline in the combined company's financial condition or results of operations may cause significant variations in the market price of Hill-Rom common stock.

The combined company's business may suffer if it does not retain its senior management.

The combined company's future success requires it to continue to attract and retain competent personnel. In particular, the combined company's future success will depend on its senior management. As a result of the merger, Hill-Rom's and Welch Allyn's current and prospective employees could experience uncertainty about their future roles and the integration process. The loss of services of members of the combined company's senior management team could adversely affect its business until suitable replacements can be found. There may be a limited number of persons with the requisite skills to serve in these positions, and the combined company may be unable to locate or employ qualified personnel on acceptable terms.

Hill-Rom will incur substantial additional indebtedness in connection with the merger, may not be able to refinance the bridge credit agreement on favorable terms, if drawn upon, and may not be able to meet all of its debt obligations.

In connection with the merger, Hill-Rom expects to enter into (i) a $1.0 billion senior secured term loan A facility (the "TLA Facility"), (ii) a $800 million senior secured term loan B facility (the "TLB Facility") and (iii) a $500 million senior secured revolving facility (collectively with the TLA Facility and the TLB Facility, the "Senior Secured Facilities"). In addition, Hill-Rom may issue up to an additional $425 million in debt pursuant to an unsecured note offering or unsecured bridge facility (the "Additional Debt Financing"). Proceeds from the Senior Secured Facilities and the Additional Debt Financing will be used to finance, in part, the cash consideration for the merger and to pay fees and expenses incurred in connection with the merger. Hill-Rom's debt outstanding as of June 30, 2015 was approximately $578 million and, immediately after the completion of the merger, the combined company's debt is anticipated to be approximately $2.3 billion. As of June 30, 2015, Hill-Rom's debt service obligations, comprised of principal and interest (excluding capital leases), during the next 12 months would, in the absence of the merger, have been approximately $31 million. Based on assumed interest rates, leverage ratios and credit ratings, the combined company's debt service obligations, comprised of principal and interest (excluding capital leases), during the 12 months following the completion of the merger is expected to be approximately $143 million. As a result of this increase in debt, demands on the combined company's cash resources will increase after the completion of the merger. The increased level of debt could, among other things:

require the combined company to dedicate a large portion of its cash flow from operations to the servicing and repayment of its debt, thereby reducing funds available for working capital, capital expenditures, research and development expenditures and other general corporate requirements; limit the combined company's ability to obtain additional financing to fund future working capital, capital expenditures, research and development expenditures and other general corporate requirements;

limit the combined company's flexibility in planning for, or reacting to, changes in its business and the industry in which Hill-Rom operates;

restrict the combined company's ability to make strategic acquisitions or dispositions or to exploit business opportunities; place the combined company at a competitive disadvantage compared to its competitors that have less debt; adversely affect the combined company's credit rating, with the result that the cost of servicing the combined company's indebtedness might increase; adversely affect the market price of Hill-Rom common stock; and limit the combined company's ability to apply proceeds from an offering or asset sale to purposes other than the servicing and repayment of debt.

The market price of Hill-Rom common stock after the merger may be subject to significant fluctuations and may be affected by factors different from those currently affecting the market price of Hill-Rom common stock.

Upon completion of the merger, each Welch Allyn shareholder will become a Hill-Rom shareholder. While Hill-Rom common stock has an observable trading history, Hill-Rom common stock on a post-merger basis may trade differently than its pre-merger trading history, and the market price of Hill-Rom common stock could be subject to significant fluctuations following the merger.

In addition, the businesses of Hill-Rom differ from those of Welch Allyn in important respects and, accordingly, the results of operations of the combined company and the market price of Hill-Rom common stock following the merger may be affected by factors different from those currently affecting the independent results of operations of Hill-Rom and Welch Allyn. For a discussion of the business of Hill-Rom and of certain factors to consider in connection with Hill-Rom's business, see the documents incorporated by reference into this proxy statement/prospectus referred to in the section titled "Where You Can Find Additional Information" beginning on page 159 of this proxy statement/prospectus. For a discussion of the business of Welch Allyn and of certain factors to consider in connection with Welch Allyn's business, see the section titled "Information about Welch Allyn" beginning on page 132 of this proxy statement/prospectus.

The merger may cause dilution to Hill-Rom's earnings per share, which may negatively affect the market price of Hill-Rom common stock.

Although Hill-Rom anticipates that the merger will have an immediate accretive impact on the adjusted earnings per share of Hill-Rom common stock, Hill-Rom's current expectation is based on preliminary estimates as of the date of the public announcement of the merger, which may materially change. Hill-Rom could also encounter additional transaction-related costs or other factors, such as the failure to realize all of the benefits anticipated to result from the merger. In addition, Hill-Rom expects that Welch Allyn shareholders immediately prior to the merger will own, in the aggregate, approximately 13% of the then outstanding shares of Hill-Rom common stock following the merger, based on the number of outstanding shares of Hill-Rom common stock on June 16, 2015. Once its shares are issued in the merger, Hill-Rom's earnings per share may be lower than it would have been in the absence of the merger. All of these factors could cause dilution to Hill-Rom's earnings per share or decrease or delay the expected accretive effect of the merger, and cause a decrease in the market price of Hill-Rom common stock. There can be no assurance that any increase in Hill-Rom's earnings per share will occur, even over the long term. Any increase in Hill-Rom's earnings per share as a result of the merger is likely to require, among other things, Hill-Rom to successfully manage the operations of Welch Allyn and increase the consolidated earnings of Hill-Rom after the merger.

The rights of Welch Allyn shareholders who become Hill-Rom shareholders in the merger will be governed by the Hill-Rom articles of incorporation and the Hill-Rom by-laws.

Welch Allyn shareholders who receive shares of Hill-Rom common stock in the merger will become Hill-Rom shareholders and will be governed by the Hill-Rom articles of incorporation and the Hill-Rom by-laws, rather than the Welch Allyn certificate of incorporation and the Welch Allyn by-laws. There may be material differences between the current rights of Welch Allyn shareholders, as compared to the rights they will have as Hill-Rom shareholders. For more information, see the section titled "Comparison of Shareholder Rights" beginning on page 120 of this proxy statement/prospectus.

These risks and uncertainties include, but are not limited to:

the failure of the merger to be completed for any other reason;

legal or regulatory proceedings or other matters that affect the timing or ability to complete the merger as contemplated;

the risk that the proposed merger disrupts current plans and operations;

Pursuant to the merger agreement, Merger Sub will merge with and into Welch Allyn, with Welch Allyn surviving the merger. In connection with the merger, if it is approved and consummated, Welch Allyn shareholders will have their shares converted into the right to receive, in the aggregate (i) $1,625,000,000 (which amount is subject to adjustments for cash and cash equivalents, indebtedness (as defined in the merger agreement), certain other adjustments (as defined in the merger agreement), including the amount of certain fees, costs and expenses of Welch Allyn and the shareholder representative, net working capital, certain change in control payments (as defined in the merger agreement), including LTIP cash incentive payments (as defined in the merger agreement), payments to the holders of Welch Allyn PHASARs and PSU Awards (other than any portion of such payments deposited in the escrow account), which amount is referred to as the cash consideration in this proxy statement/prospectus, and (ii) 8,133,722 shares of Hill-Rom common stock, which are referred to as the stock consideration in this proxy statement/prospectus.

Completion of the merger is conditioned upon the adoption of the merger agreement by the affirmative vote at the special meeting, either in person or by proxy, of holders representing at least two-thirds of the outstanding shares of Welch Allyn Class A common stock. Following the execution of the merger agreement, Hill-Rom entered into a voting agreement with the voting trustees of the voting trust created under the voting trust agreement, pursuant to which the voting trustees (i) executed and delivered to Hill-Rom an irrevocable proxy with respect to the 96,406,486 shares of Welch Allyn Class A common stock subject to the voting trust agreement, which shares constitute in the aggregate 89.94% of the total number of shares of Welch Allyn Class A common stock outstanding as of the date of this proxy statement/prospectus, and (ii) for purposes of the Shareholders' Agreement, consented to the transfer (as defined in the Shareholders' Agreement) of the shares of Welch Allyn Class A common stock subject to the voting trust, as described in more detail in the section titled "Material Contracts Between the Parties" beginning on page 102 of this proxy statement/prospectus. A copy of the voting agreement is attached to this proxy statement/prospectus as Annex B. The vote by Hill-Rom at the special meeting with respect to the shares of Class A common stock of Welch Allyn subject to the irrevocable proxy to adopt the merger agreement will be sufficient to adopt the merger agreement and thereby approve the merger and the other transactions contemplated by the merger agreement.

Quorum

The presence, in person or by proxy, of holders representing one half of the outstanding shares of Welch Allyn Class A common stock is necessary in order for there to be a quorum at the special meeting. A quorum must be present in order for the vote on the merger proposal or the adjournment proposal to occur. However, if there is no quorum, then the special meeting can be postponed or adjourned until such time as a quorum can be obtained. As of the record date for the special meeting, holders representing 53,593,014 shares of Welch Allyn Class A common stock will be required to be present at the special meeting, in person or by proxy, to achieve a quorum.

Voting by Welch Allyn's Directors and Executive Officers

As of the close of business on the record date, there were 107,186,027 outstanding shares of Welch Allyn Class A common stock, each of which is entitled to one vote at the special meeting. On that date, directors and executive officers of Welch Allyn beneficially owned a total of approximately 23.9% of the outstanding shares of Welch Allyn Class A common stock and approximately 23.6% of the outstanding Welch Allyn common stock.

Voting Agreement

Following the execution of the merger agreement, Hill-Rom entered into a voting agreement with the voting trustees of the voting trust created under the voting trust agreement, pursuant to which the voting trustees (i) executed and delivered to Hill-Rom an irrevocable proxy with respect to the 96,406,486 shares of Welch Allyn Class A common stock subject to the voting trust agreement, which shares constitute in the aggregate 89.94% of the total number of shares of Welch Allyn Class A common stock outstanding as of the date of this proxy statement/prospectus, and (ii) for purposes of the Shareholders' Agreement, consented to the transfer (as defined in the Shareholders' Agreement) of the shares of Welch Allyn Class A common stock subject to the voting trust, as described in more detail in the section titled "Material Contracts Between the Parties" beginning on page 102 of this proxy statement/prospectus. A copy of the voting agreement is attached to this proxy statement/prospectus as Annex B. The vote by Hill-Rom at the special meeting with respect to the shares of Class A common stock of Welch Allyn subject to the irrevocable proxy to adopt the merger agreement will be sufficient to adopt the merger agreement and thereby approve the merger and the other transactions contemplated by the merger agreement.

Voting of Proxies

Shares of Welch Allyn common stock represented by properly executed proxies received at or prior to the special meeting will be voted at the special meeting in the manner specified by the holders of such shares. Properly executed proxies that do not contain voting instructions will be voted "FOR" the merger proposal and "FOR" the adjournment proposal.

Any Welch Allyn Class A shareholder present in person or by proxy at the special meeting who abstains from voting will be counted for purposes of determining whether a quorum exists. Because approval of the merger agreement requires the affirmative vote of holders representing at least two-thirds of the outstanding Welch Allyn Class A common stock, any such abstentions will have the same effect as votes "AGAINST" the merger proposal. The Welch Allyn board of directors urges the Welch Allyn Class A shareholders to complete, date, and sign the accompanying proxy card and return it promptly in the enclosed, postage-paid envelope, or to vote by telephone, fax, or email.

Revocability of Proxies

If you are a Welch Allyn Class A shareholder as of the record date, the grant of a proxy on the enclosed proxy card does not preclude you from voting in person or otherwise revoking your proxy. If you are a Welch Allyn Class A shareholder as of the record date, you may revoke a proxy at any time prior to its exercise by delivering to Gregory Porter either a duly executed revocation or a proxy bearing a later date. In addition, if you are a record holder, you may revoke a proxy prior to its exercise by voting in person at the special meeting. All written notices of revocation should be addressed to Gregory Porter, at 4341 State Street Road, Skaneateles Falls, NY 13153. Attendance at the special meeting will not in and of itself constitute revocation of a proxy.

Solicitation of Proxies

Welch Allyn is soliciting proxies from holders of Welch Allyn Class A common stock in conjunction with the special meeting. Welch Allyn will pay all the costs of soliciting proxies in connection with the special meeting and one-half of the costs of printing and mailing this proxy statement/prospectus (Hill-Rom will pay the other half of such costs). Solicitation of proxies may be made in person or by mail, telephone or facsimile, or other form of communication by directors, officers and employees of Welch Allyn who will not be specially compensated for such solicitation.

No person is authorized to give any information or to make any representation not contained in this proxy statement/prospectus and, if given or made, such information or representation should not be relied upon as having been authorized by Hill-Rom, Welch Allyn or any other person. The delivery of this proxy statement/prospectus does not, under any circumstances, create any implication that there has been no change in the business or affairs of Hill-Rom or Welch Allyn since the date of the proxy statement/prospectus.

Dissenters' Rights

Welch Allyn shareholders have dissenters' rights under the NYBCL in connection with the merger. Welch Allyn shareholders who do not vote in favor of the adoption of the merger agreement and who otherwise comply with the applicable provisions of the NYBCL will be entitled to dissent from the merger and obtain payment of the "fair value," as determined pursuant to Section 623 of the NYBCL, of their shares if the merger is completed. Under Sections 623 and 910 of the NYBCL, a dissenting shareholder will be entitled to payment only if, among other things, written objection to the merger, including a notice of intent to demand payment, is delivered to Welch Allyn before the vote is taken and the shareholder does not vote in favor of the merger proposal. A copy of Sections 623 and 910 of the New York Business Corporation Law is attached as Annex C to this proxy statement/prospectus.

Therefore, the board of directors of Welch Allyn recommends that you vote your shares "FOR" the proposal to adopt the merger agreement and thereby approve the merger and the other transactions contemplated by the merger agreement.

For a description of various factors considered by the Welch Allyn board of directors in reaching its decision to adopt the merger agreement and approve the merger and the other transactions contemplated by the merger agreement, see the section titled "The Merger Recommendation of the Welch Allyn Board of Directors and Its Reasons for the Merger" beginning on page 56 of this proxy statement/prospectus.

THE MERGER

The following is a description of the material aspects of the merger. While Hill-Rom and Welch Allyn believe that the following description covers the material aspects of the merger, the description may not contain all of the information that is important to you. The following summary is qualified in its entirety by reference to the complete text of the merger agreement, which is attached as Annex A to this proxy statement/prospectus and incorporated into this proxy statement/prospectus by reference. Hill-Rom and Welch Allyn encourage you to carefully read this entire proxy statement/prospectus, including the merger agreement attached to this proxy statement/prospectus as Annex A, for a more complete understanding of the merger.

The Merger

At the effective time of the merger, Merger Sub will merge with and into Welch Allyn, with Welch Allyn continuing as the surviving corporation and a wholly owned subsidiary of Hill-Rom.

Background of the Merger

The Welch Allyn Board, together with the company's senior management and various external advisors, have periodically reviewed and considered various strategic opportunities available to Welch Allyn, including whether the execution of Welch Allyn's strategy as a stand-alone company, the possible acquisition by Welch Allyn of one or more third parties, the possible initial public offering of Welch Allyn common stock, or the possible sale of Welch Allyn to, or a combination of Welch Allyn with, a third party offered the best avenue to generate shareholder value.

During the course of the company's strategic planning process in the first half of 2014, Welch Allyn directors, shareholders and senior management discussed Welch Allyn's strategic goals and options in light of the company's current and future business prospects and developments in the medical technology sector, including but not limited to increasing consolidation among Welch Allyn's customers and competitors. These discussions included consideration of the need for additional capital to execute certain strategic options, as well as the interest of certain shareholders in diversification of their holdings and additional liquidity.

As a result of these discussions, the Welch Allyn directors determined to invite financial advisors to attend a Welch Allyn Board meeting for the purpose of discussing these matters with the full board of directors. On May 6, 2014, during its regular quarterly board meeting, the Welch Allyn Board met with financial advisors to discuss developments and opportunities in the medical technology sector, including the potential availability of options in the capital markets, in an effort to determine the best strategy for Welch Allyn to drive the success of the business and generate shareholder value. The Welch Allyn Board continued these strategy discussions at its next quarterly board meeting on August 5, 2014.

At the following quarterly board meeting, on November 11 and 12, 2014, the Welch Allyn Board met separately with three different financial advisors, including Barclays Capital Inc. ("Barclays"), for extensive review and discussion regarding the strategic position of Welch Allyn and a variety of potential strategic and financial options.

On December 10 and 11, 2014, the Welch Allyn Board held a special meeting in New York City to further consider Welch Allyn's strategic options, including meeting with Barclays at their offices on December 11. The Welch Allyn Board discussed and considered a variety of strategic and financial options that could be undertaken by Welch Allyn, including the continued execution of Welch Allyn's strategy as a stand-alone company driving growth through strategic acquisitions and other potential strategic alternatives to generate shareholder value, the possible initial public offering of Welch Allyn common stock, and the possible sale of the company to, or other combination with, a third party.

On December 20, 2014, the Welch Allyn Board held a special teleconference to consider the status of acquisition opportunities Welch Allyn was pursuing and to follow up on the discussions from the prior board meeting. The Welch Allyn Board authorized and directed the finance committee of the Welch Allyn Board (the "Welch Allyn Finance Committee") to work with senior management to explore a potential sale process, including the negotiation of the terms of a potential transaction, subject to final board and shareholder approval. The Welch Allyn Finance Committee is comprised of three directors: Greg Norden, who chairs the Finance Committee as well as the Audit Committee; Eric Allyn, who serves as Co-Chairman of the Welch Allyn Board; and Larry Buckelew. On December 22, the Welch Allyn Finance Committee directed senior management to meet with Barclays and develop the criteria and timetable for such a potential sale process.

On February 2, 2015, the Welch Allyn Finance Committee met regarding the potential sale process, including consideration of the appropriate criteria, timetable and expected outcomes. During the subsequent board meeting of February 3 and 4, 2015, the Welch Allyn Finance Committee and senior management updated the Welch Allyn Board on the development of the criteria and timetable for a potential sale process, as well as the expectations for the outcome of such a process. The full board discussed and gave feedback as to the price and other terms that would most likely be necessary to obtain board and shareholder approval.

On February 25, 2015, following further review of the plans for the potential sale process with Barclays and senior management in meetings on February 19 and 25, the Welch Allyn Finance Committee concluded that, although the company was under no pressure to sell, it was an opportune time to commence a process of identifying and negotiating with certain qualified strategic purchasers to ascertain whether a transaction could be arranged that would be attractive to the Welch Allyn Board and shareholders. Accordingly, the Finance Committee recommended to the full board that Welch Allyn formally commence the implementation of such a process with Barclays, including entering into an engagement letter with Barclays and initiating contact with potential purchasers. The full Welch Allyn Board entered into a unanimous consent resolution, as of February 25, 2015, formally authorizing the initiation and pursuit of such process, including entering into an engagement letter with Barclays, but reserved approval by the board and shareholders of any transaction that might be proposed as a result of such process.

Barclays began calling qualified potential strategic purchasers on February 28, 2015. On March 3, 2015, the Welch Allyn Finance Committee met with Barclays and senior management, and Barclays continued inviting additional qualified potential strategic purchasers approved by the Welch Allyn Finance Committee to participate in the sale process. These interested parties were provided with summary information regarding Welch Allyn and a form of non-disclosure agreement. Between February 28 and April 23, 2015, 17 qualified strategic parties, including Hill-Rom, were invited to participate in the sale process and provided with the aforementioned documentation.

On March 13, 2015, Hill-Rom, provided comments on the proposed non-disclosure agreement to Welch Allyn and Welch Allyn's counsel, Cravath, Swaine and Moore LLP ("Cravath"). From March 13, 2015 through March 20, 2015, the parties negotiated a non-disclosure agreement, which was executed by Welch Allyn and Hill-Rom on March 20, 2015. Eight other potential purchasers executed non-disclosure agreements. On March 22, the Welch Allyn Finance Committee met with Barclays and senior management to discuss the status of the process, including the plans for the upcoming management presentations to, and discussions with, qualified participants.

During March and April 2015, Welch Allyn management provided summary management presentations to, and discussed the potential for a transaction with, seven potential purchasers that had signed non-disclosure agreements, including a meeting with Hill-Rom on April 2, 2015. The seven potential purchasers also were provided access to certain due diligence information through an electronic data site.

On April 10, 2015, the Welch Allyn Finance Committee met with senior management and Barclays to review the status of the process and next steps. During the week of April 13, 2015, a first round process letter with invitations for submission of indications of interest was sent to six potential purchasers. The letter instructed potential purchasers to submit a non-binding proposal for the acquisition of all outstanding equity of Welch Allyn by May 1, 2015. The purchasers were instructed to give an indication of their proposed purchase price on a cash-free, debt-free basis, and the form of consideration to be offered, and describe their ability to obtain, and expected sources of, financing. They were also instructed to describe the level of review of the proposed acquisition within their company to date, their strategic rationale and plans for the Welch Allyn business, any required approvals or consents and expected timing for completion of the acquisition and any further due diligence requirements.

During late March and April of 2015, Barclays and Welch Allyn received inquiries from three potential strategic purchasers and three potential financial purchasers that had not been invited to participate in the sale process, but had become aware of the sale process. On April 22, 2015, the Welch Allyn Finance Committee held a meeting via teleconference with Barclays and senior management to review these inquiries. The Welch Allyn Finance Committee authorized Barclays to invite two of the potential strategic purchasers that inquired about the sale process, Party C and Party D, to participate in the sale process, and deferred any decision on whether to invite the third potential strategic purchaser, Party E, to participate in the sale process, due to possible competitive and regulatory concerns.

On April 24 and April 27, 2015, Party C and Party D, respectively, executed non-disclosure agreements with Welch Allyn.

On May 1, 2015, Welch Allyn received indications of interest from three potential purchasers, including Hill-Rom, ranging from $1.3 billion to $2.0 billion.

On May 4 and 5, 2015, the Welch Allyn Board held a regularly scheduled board meeting in The Hague, Netherlands. The board received the report of the Welch Allyn Finance Committee and senior management on the status of the potential sale process on May 4, 2015. The board and senior management also met, via teleconference on May 4, with Barclays to discuss the progress, including the indications of interest that had been received. Barclays noted that Hill-Rom had the highest price range, and that it would likely finance all, or almost all, of the purchase price. Barclays discussed the leverage that would be required for such borrowing and the expectation that such a transaction would be accretive for Hill-Rom. Barclays noted that Party A is a very large company, with an exceptionally strong cash position, that would be capable of closing with little or no financing. Barclays also noted that Party A, which had elected to state a single number, as opposed to a range, was capable of paying more, and that Party A might increase its price after further diligence and consideration of synergies. The Welch Allyn Finance Committee, with the support of the Welch Allyn Board, determined to continue, for the time being, the sale process with two of the potential purchasers that had submitted indications of interest, Party A and Hill-Rom. Prospective inclusion of other parties was discussed, including Party E, but a decision to expand the process was deferred for the time being, pending ongoing review of further developments in negotiations with the parties who had provided indications of interest.

On May 5, 2015, Barclays invited Party B to improve the terms contained in the indication of interest Party B had submitted to Welch Allyn in order to continue in the potential sale process, but Party B declined to submit an amended indication of interest. Barclays also indicated to Party A that it would need to increase its price, and indicated to Hill-Rom that it would need to exceed the high end of its range and demonstrate, among other things, certainty of financing, in order to obtain Welch Allyn Board and shareholder approval.

On May 6, 2015, Party A and Hill-Rom were provided access to additional diligence materials through the electronic data site.

On May 15, 2015, Welch Allyn provided a summary management presentation and first round process letters to Party C and Party D. Soon thereafter, Party A informed Welch Allyn that it remained interested in a transaction but would not be able to participate in the process under the expected timeframe, because Party A had agreed to certain other very large transactions.

On May 19, 2015, the Welch Allyn Finance Committee met with senior management and Barclays, via teleconference, to review the status of the process, to discuss the terms and conditions of a proposed merger agreement, and to consider whether additional parties should be brought into the process. The Welch Allyn Finance Committee met in executive session on May 21, 2015 to follow up on the previous meeting, and then continued its review and discussion of the matters considered with senior management and Barclays on May 22, 2015, highlighting the essential terms and conditions of an agreement that would be suitable for submission to the Welch Allyn Board and shareholders and reiterating that the shareholders were under no pressure to sell.

On May 26, 2015, Party C submitted an indication of interest, including a purchase price range within the initial purchase price range submitted by Party A, Party B and Hill-Rom. Party C's indication of interest was subject to the condition that $100 to $150 million of the price would be payable only upon the realization of certain performance milestones.

On May 27, 2015, the Welch Allyn Board met in executive session to be updated by the Welch Allyn Finance Committee, and to provide input, with regard to the process. After the board meeting, the Welch Allyn Finance Committee held a meeting with senior management and Barclays, via teleconference, to further review and discuss the progress of the sale process, the status of participating potential buyers' diligence and the proposed second round process, the indication of interest submitted by Party C, the potential inclusion of Party E and/or other parties in the process, and the proposed terms and conditions of a draft merger agreement. Barclays noted that Hill-Rom was continuing to express very high interest in a transaction, as Hill-Rom believed that the combination would be an excellent strategic fit and substantially accretive to Hill-Rom earnings, and that Hill-Rom's price range was clearly higher than those of the other bidders. Barclays also reported that Hill-Rom continued to request the opportunity to negotiate on an exclusive and/or accelerated basis. The Welch Allyn Finance Committee, after considering the advice of Barclays and senior management, considered and declined Hill-Rom's request to secure an exclusive negotiating period, reserving Welch Allyn's right to continue discussions with other parties, including parties who might subsequently be included in the process. However, based on its consideration of various inputs from advisers, directors, shareholders and management during the course of the process, the Welch Allyn Finance Committee addressed with Barclays and senior management the conditions under which the accelerated negotiation process requested by Hill-Rom would be considered appropriate.

On May 27, 2015, a second round process letter was sent to Hill-Rom, and a draft of the merger agreement was made available to it. The letter instructed Hill-Rom to submit a definitive, binding proposal for the acquisition of all outstanding equity of Welch Allyn by June 17, 2015. Hill-Rom was instructed to provide its exact purchase price on a cash-free, debt-free basis, the form of consideration to be offered and, if financing was required, the source of financing. Hill-Rom was also instructed to confirm that all required internal approvals had been obtained and specify any required regulatory or other external approvals or consents and the expected timing of obtaining those approvals and consents and the expected timing for closing the transaction. Proposals were not to be subject to any financing condition or any further due diligence requirements. A marked copy of the draft merger agreement was required to be submitted with the proposal.

On May 27, 2015, Barclays informed Party C that its proposal was not sufficient in light of the expectations of the Welch Allyn Finance Committee, and Party C informed Welch Allyn that it would continue to evaluate a potential transaction and whether it would improve the terms contained in its indication of interest.

On May 29, 2015, following its consultations with the Welch Allyn Finance Committee and senior management, Barclays contacted Hill-Rom to indicate that Welch Allyn would consider an accelerated process to negotiate an agreement with Hill-Rom if Hill-Rom were prepared to offer favorable terms including an aggregate transaction price in excess of $2 billion, and that, if the price and other terms were attractive enough, it was expected that the Welch Allyn shareholders would be willing to accept, in the context of such a transaction, a mix of cash and stock consideration that would result in Welch Allyn shareholders owning approximately 10% of Hill-Rom's common stock on a pro forma basis. This potential transaction would be subject to Welch Allyn's comfort with the financial leverage necessary for Hill-Rom to finance the transaction, confirmation that Hill-Rom expected the transaction to be substantially accretive to Hill-Rom's earnings, and the certainty of closing such a transaction, as well as Welch Allyn's satisfaction with all other aspects of the transaction, including all terms and conditions of the merger agreement and completion of Welch Allyn's expanded due diligence with respect to Hill-Rom in light of the shares to be issued to Welch Allyn shareholders. Under such an accelerated negotiation timeline, the parties would attempt to negotiate and execute a definitive merger agreement on or prior to June 17, 2015. Cravath distributed a draft of the disclosure letter to the merger agreement to Hill-Rom and Winston & Strawn LLP ("Winston") on June 1, 2015. Hill-Rom was instructed to provide any requested changes to the draft merger agreement and disclosure letter with Hill-Rom's bid.

On June 2, 2015, Hill-Rom and Winston provided a limited mark-up addressing certain parts of the draft merger agreement to Welch Allyn and Cravath, and provided no comments on the draft disclosure letter. Hill-Rom indicated that it needed additional time for due diligence and to complete its mark-up of the agreement and disclosure letter. Hill-Rom indicated that it would target the end of the week to determine a proposed price based on further due diligence.

On the evening of June 5, 2015, Hill-Rom's financial advisor indicated to Barclays that Hill-Rom would be willing to pay an aggregate purchase price of $2 billion, consisting of $1.6 billion in cash and $400 million in shares of Hill-Rom common stock, provided that all other terms and conditions proposed by Hill-Rom, or to be proposed by Hill-Rom in its final mark-up of the draft merger agreement, were accepted by Welch Allyn and subject to satisfactory completion of Hill-Rom's due diligence.

On June 6, 2015, the Welch Allyn Finance Committee held a meeting by telephone conference with senior management, Barclays and Cravath to discuss the communication from Hill-Rom's financial advisor, including issues raised by Hill-Rom's mark-up of the draft merger agreement that were related to various material terms of the transaction other than the purchase price. Because Hill-Rom had provided only a limited mark-up of the draft agreement and no comments on the draft disclosure letter, the Committee noted that it was not in a position to fully consider Hill-Rom's proposal. However, the Committee rejected Hill-Rom's proposed purchase price and indicated that an aggregate purchase price of $2.1 billion (with the $100 million increase in the proposed purchase price consisting of no more than 50% in Hill-Rom common stock) would be required for the Committee and senior management to recommend approval of a transaction to the Welch Allyn board and shareholders, in addition to Hill-Rom's agreement to numerous other outstanding material contract points and the satisfactory completion of Welch Allyn's due diligence regarding the value of Hill-Rom's shares and Hill-Rom's ability to finance and close the transaction.

Subsequently on June 6, 2015, Barclays communicated the Welch Allyn position to Hill-Rom's financial advisor. Barclays also requested full mark-ups of the drafts of the merger agreement and disclosure letter and Hill-Rom's financing commitment papers for immediate review.

On June 7, 2015, Hill-Rom's financial advisor advised Barclays that Hill-Rom could offer a purchase price of $2.05 billion, consisting of $1.625 billion in cash and a fixed number of shares of Hill-Rom common stock having a value at signing of $425 million, but could not go any higher. Hill-Rom's financial advisor also indicated that Hill-Rom was willing to agree to certain other terms and conditions that had been discussed on June 6.

Subsequently on the evening of June 7, 2015, the Welch Allyn Finance Committee met with senior management and Barclays via teleconference to discuss the Hill-Rom communication and consider an appropriate response. After receiving advice and discussing the alternatives, the Welch Allyn Finance Committee authorized Barclays to communicate that it could not fully consider Hill-Rom's proposal until Hill-Rom addressed all the terms and conditions of the transaction; however, the proposed purchase price could be recommended to the Welch Allyn Board and shareholders if the other terms and conditions of a complete proposal, including certain issues that had been raised by Hill-Rom's proposed mark-up, were acceptable. Any agreement would be subject to satisfactory resolution of all other outstanding material terms and conditions, receipt of Hill-Rom's remaining comments on the drafts of the merger agreement and disclosure letter and satisfactory resolution of any issues raised by those comments, negotiation of a definitive agreement, and satisfactory completion of Welch Allyn's ongoing due diligence related to Hill-Rom. It was noted that the overall terms and conditions needed to be very attractive to gain approval of the Welch Allyn Board and shareholders, given that the shareholders were under no pressure to sell.

Later on during the evening of June 7, 2015, Barclays communicated the Welch Allyn Finance Committee's response to Hill-Rom's financial advisor.

On June 8, 2015, the chief executive officers of Hill-Rom and Welch Allyn met via telephone to discuss the progress made, as well as the known outstanding issues, and the process for identifying and negotiating the material issues not yet considered (including the need for a full mark-up of the draft merger agreement and disclosure letter from Hill-Rom and Winston). They indicated their mutual intent to work in good faith to resolve the numerous material financial and other issues, to complete due diligence necessary for each party, and to obtain the necessary approvals of both companies' boards and of the voting trustees (as described below) on an expedited basis.

Hill-Rom required not less than five of the six voting trustees of the voting trust created under the voting trust agreement (representing in aggregate at least the number of shares of Welch Allyn common stock required for shareholder approval) to enter into a voting agreement (to be executed and delivered within 24 hours of signing) pursuant to which the voting trustees would covenant, among other things, to vote in favor of the merger and to consent to the transfer of shares pursuant to the merger, including by providing Hill-Rom with an irrevocable proxy to vote in favor of the merger.

On June 8, 2015, Party D informed Welch Allyn that it would not pursue a potential transaction with Welch Allyn. Also on June 8, Party C informed Barclays that it was continuing to evaluate a potential transaction.

On June 9, 2015, the parties discussed Hill-Rom's and Winston's initial comments on the draft merger agreement, and Hill-Rom and Winston provided a revised mark-up of the draft merger agreement to Welch Allyn and Cravath later that day. On June 9 and June 11, 2015, Winston provided Cravath and Welch Allyn initial drafts of the voting agreement and irrevocable proxy to be executed by the voting trustees.

On June 11, 2015, as part of its due diligence of Hill-Rom, Welch Allyn and its advisers conducted due diligence meetings with the Chief Executive Officer, Chief Financial Officer and other representatives of Hill-Rom, including Hill-Rom's independent accountants, at Welch Allyn's offices in Skaneateles Falls, New York and by teleconference. Greg Norden, Chairman of the Finance and Audit Committees, participated in these meetings, along with members of Welch Allyn senior management.

Also on June 11, 2015, Welch Allyn and Cravath provided a revised draft of the merger agreement to Hill-Rom and Winston. From the evening of June 11 through and including the evening of June 15, Winston and Hill-Rom negotiated continuously with Welch Allyn and Cravath in order to address numerous financial and other material issues and complete a form of definitive agreement that the parties were willing to submit to their respective boards of directors for review and approval, and to the voting trustees for their review and approval in connection with the execution of the voting agreement and the irrevocable proxy.

On June 12, 2015, the Welch Allyn Finance Committee met with the Chairman of the Welch Allyn Compensation and Management Development Committee, via teleconference, to discuss the potential transaction and related matters. On June 15, 2015, the Compensation and Management Development Committee met via teleconference, along with the Welch Allyn Finance Committee and all other Board members, to follow up on the prior discussions.

After the Committee meeting on June 15, 2015, the Welch Allyn Board held a meeting, in person and by telephone conference, together with senior management, the company's legal and financial advisors and the voting trustees, at which the proposed merger agreement and other transaction documents were reviewed and considered at length. All members of the Board of Directors and all voting trustees were in attendance. It was noted that some issues were still being negotiated. At the meeting Barclays gave a presentation to the Welch Allyn Board on the conduct of the sale process, negotiations and due diligence on Hill-Rom, as well as its financial analyses of the merger consideration and its view of the terms of the merger agreement. Cravath gave a presentation to the Welch Allyn Board regarding the proposed merger agreement and the fiduciary duties of the directors and reviewed the terms and conditions of the merger agreement, the voting agreement and the irrevocable proxy. Following discussions and the presentations by Barclays and Cravath, the board of directors asked questions of the advisers and senior management, and discussed the terms of the proposed transaction, including the merger agreement and the other transaction documents.

On June 16, 2015, Hill-Rom and Welch Allyn agreed upon proposed execution forms of the merger agreement and other transaction documents, including the voting agreement and irrevocable proxy.

On June 16, 2015, the Welch Allyn Board held a meeting in person and by telephone conference, together with the company's legal and financial advisors and the voting trustees, at which the final terms of the proposed merger agreement and other transaction documents were reviewed and considered, with all members of the Board of Directors and all voting trustees in attendance. At the request of the Welch Allyn Board, Barclays then orally rendered its opinion to the board of directors (subsequently confirmed in writing) that, as of such date and based upon and subject to the factors and assumptions set forth in the written opinion, the cash and common stock to be paid to the holders of outstanding shares of common stock of Welch Allyn pursuant to the merger agreement was fair from a financial point of view to such holders. Following further questions to its advisers and additional discussion and deliberation with regard to the proposed transaction, the Welch Allyn Board unanimously approved, and authorized the execution and delivery of, the merger agreement substantially in the form presented to the Welch Allyn Board. The merger agreement was executed and delivered by the parties later that day, together with the accompanying disclosure letter.

Subsequent to the approval of the merger agreement on June 16, 2015, the voting trustees, having attended the board meetings of June 15 and 16 and considered the same advice, presentations and materials, approved the transaction and executed and delivered the voting agreement and the irrevocable proxy as required by the merger agreement.

On June 17, 2015, Hill-Rom and Welch Allyn issued a joint press release announcing the transaction.

On August 27, 2015, Hill-Rom and Welch Allyn entered into an Amendment to Agreement and Plan of Merger, pursuant to which certain provisions relating to compensation and reimbursement of expenses of the shareholder representative were amended and a related escrow account was established.

Effects of the Merger; Merger Consideration

At the effective time of the merger, each outstanding share of Welch Allyn common stock (other than any shares of Welch Allyn common stock as to which the holders of such shares have properly complied with the provisions of Sections 623 and 910 of the NYBCL as to dissenters' rights, which shares are referred to as dissenting shares in this statement/prospectus, and any shares of Welch Allyn common stock owned by Hill-Rom, Merger Sub or any subsidiary of Hill-Rom) will be cancelled and automatically converted into the right to receive consideration consisting of a combination of cash and shares of Hill-Rom common stock, which consideration is referred to as the merger consideration or the per share merger consideration in this proxy statement/prospectus.

Upon the terms and subject to the conditions set forth in the merger agreement and subject to certain assumptions and adjustments described more fully in this proxy statement/prospectus, holders of outstanding shares of Welch Allyn common stock will receive in the aggregate approximately:

$1,625,000,000 plus the estimated cash and cash equivalents of Welch Allyn as of the close of business on the day immediately preceding the closing date of the merger minus the amount of any cash dividends or distributions to holders of Welch Allyn common stock on the closing date of the merger prior to the closing of the merger, minus the estimated indebtedness (as defined in the merger agreement) of Welch Allyn outstanding as of immediately prior to the closing of the merger, minus certain other adjustments (as defined in the merger agreement) as of immediately prior to the closing of the merger, including the amount of certain fees, costs and expenses of Welch Allyn and the shareholder representative, plus the estimated net working capital as of the close of business on the day immediately preceding the date of the closing of the merger, minus $56,100,100 (which is the target net working capital amount), minus the escrow amount of $75,000,000, minus certain change in control payments (as defined in the merger agreement), including LTIP cash incentive payments (as defined in the merger agreement), minus payments to the holders of Welch Allyn phantom PHASARs and PSU Awards (other than any portion of such payments deposited in the escrow account), which total is referred to as the closing cash consideration in this proxy statement/prospectus; and

8,133,722 shares of Hill-Rom common stock, which are referred to as the closing stock consideration in this proxy statement/prospectus.

$75,000,000 of the cash consideration otherwise deliverable to holders of outstanding shares of Welch Allyn common stock, PHASARs and PSU Awards will be withheld pro rata from such holders and deposited in an escrow account to secure any post-closing adjustment to the closing cash consideration and certain indemnification obligations of such holders pursuant to the merger agreement. These funds will be released by the escrow agent in accordance with the terms set forth in the escrow agreement. For more information regarding the adjustments and the amounts withheld under the escrow agreement, see the sections entitled "The Merger Agreement Merger Consideration Adjustments" and "The Merger Agreement Escrow" beginning on pages 86 and 85, respectively, and the merger agreement attached to this proxy statement/prospectus as Annex A. The precise amount of the closing cash consideration and the resulting per share closing cash consideration will not be known until shortly before the effective time of the merger and, accordingly, will not be known at the time of the special meeting. The closing cash consideration also will be subject to certain adjustments following the closing of the merger. In addition, the merger consideration will be allocated among Welch Allyn shareholders. The precise amount of the merger consideration to be paid to each Welch Allyn shareholder will vary, depending on the amount of the cash consideration and the number of shares of Welch Allyn common stock outstanding immediately prior to the effective time of the merger.

Table of Contents

Hill-Rom will not issue fractional shares of Hill-Rom common stock in the merger. As a result, Welch Allyn shareholders will receive cash for any fractional share of Hill-Rom common stock that they would otherwise be entitled to receive in the merger. After the merger is completed, Welch Allyn shareholders will have only the right to receive the merger consideration, any cash in lieu of such fractional shares of Hill-Rom common stock and any dividends or other distributions with respect to shares of Hill-Rom common stock and with a record date occurring after the effective time of the merger or, in the case of Welch Allyn shareholders that properly exercise and perfect dissenters' rights, the right to receive the fair market value for such shares, and will no longer have any rights as Welch Allyn shareholders, including voting or other rights.

If a change in the outstanding shares of capital stock of Hill-Rom occurs prior to the effective time of the merger by reason of any reclassification, recapitalization, stock split or combination, exchange or readjustment of shares, stock dividend or any similar event, any number or amount contained in the merger agreement which is based on the price of Hill-Rom common stock or the number of shares of Hill-Rom common stock will be appropriately adjusted to reflect such reclassification, recapitalization, stock split or combination, exchange or readjustment of shares, stock dividend or any similar event and to provide to the holders of Welch Allyn common stock as of immediately prior to the effective time of the merger the same economic effect as contemplated by the merger agreement prior to such event. Unless a change in the outstanding shares of capital stock of Hill-Rom occurs prior to the effective time of the merger by reason of any reclassification, recapitalization, stock split or combination, exchange or readjustment of shares, stock dividend or any similar event, in no event will Hill-Rom be obligated to issue any shares of Hill-Rom common stock in excess of the aggregate stock consideration in connection with the merger.

The following table sets forth an illustrative calculation of the per share closing consideration that would have been payable to Welch Allyn shareholders had the merger been consummated on July 31, 2015. This illustrative calculation is based solely on estimates available to Hill-Rom and Welch Allyn as of July 31, 2015, and the per share cash consideration payable to Welch Allyn shareholders in the merger is subject to change based on, among other things, fluctuations in net working capital, cash, indebtedness and selling expenses of Welch Allyn. Hill-Rom and Welch Allyn do not expect fluctuations in these items from the estimates presented below to be material on a per share basis. In addition, the figures in the table below reflect the estimated amount of the distribution of certain assets that Welch Allyn intends to make to its shareholders prior to the effective time of the merger. See "Market Price and Dividend Information."

(1) Estimated Cash assumes the distributions to the Welch Allyn shareholders described in the section titled "Market Price and Dividend Distribution" and the deposit by Welch Allyn of $5 million into escrow to secure payment of the Representative Expenses (as defined in the section titled "The Merger Agreement The Shareholder Representative") described in the section titled "The Merger Agreement The Shareholder Representative" were made prior to July 31, 2015, the assumed effective date of the merger for purposes of this table. The shareholder representative escrow is intended to provide the shareholder representative with a source of funds for the payment of potential Representative Expenses. The actual shareholder representative escrow amount will be determined by the Welch Allyn Board prior to closing and may differ from the estimated shareholder representative escrow amount included herein for purposes of this table. Any cash remaining in such escrow account after all payments to the shareholder representative are made will be distributed to persons that held Welch Allyn common stock (other than dissenting shares, shares for which share certificates have not been surrendered, and shares owned by Hill-Rom, any subsidiary of Hill-Rom or the surviving corporation) immediately prior to the effective time of the merger and to the persons that held a Welch Allyn phantom share appreciation right or a phantom share unit immediately prior to the effective time of the merger, with payments allocated pro rata based on the number of shares of Welch Allyn common stock held by the person or the number of phantom shares underlying the person's phantom share appreciation right or phantom share units, as applicable. See "Market Price and Dividend Distribution and "The Merger Agreement The Shareholder

After all claims for indemnification have been resolved, the escrow agent will pay any remaining amount in the escrow account to persons that held Welch Allyn common stock (other than dissenting shares, shares for which share certificates have not been surrendered, and shares owned by Hill-Rom, any subsidiary of Hill-Rom or the surviving corporation) immediately prior to the effective time of the merger and to the persons that held a Welch Allyn phantom share appreciation right or a phantom share unit immediately prior to the effective time of the merger, with payments allocated pro rata based on the number of shares of Welch Allyn common stock held by the person or the number of phantom shares underlying the person's phantom share appreciation right or phantom share units, as applicable. Assuming $75,000,000 remains in the escrow account upon release of the escrow funds to such holders, $0.65 per share of Welch Allyn common stock and phantom share will be distributed to such holders from such escrow fund. For information concerning the $75 million withheld under the escrow agreement, see "The Merger Agreement Escrow."

- (3) The number of shares of Hill-Rom common stock to be issued in the merger is fixed at 8,133,722 and, accordingly, is not subject to adjustment prior to the effective time of the merger. Based on the 107,514,697 shares of Welch Allyn common stock outstanding as of July 31, 2015, Welch Allyn shareholders would be entitled to approximately 0.076 shares of Hill-Rom common stock per share of Welch Allyn common stock. Hill-Rom and Welch Allyn do not expect the number of shares of Welch Allyn common stock outstanding immediately prior to the effective time of the merger to differ materially from the number of shares outstanding as of July 31, 2015. The implied value of the Hill-Rom common stock to be issued in the merger is based upon the closing price per share of the Hill-Rom common stock on the NYSE on July 31, 2015. For historical information regarding the market price of the Hill-Rom common stock, see "Market Price and Dividend Information."
- (4) The per share consideration payable to Welch Allyn shareholders is based on the number of shares of Welch Allyn common stock outstanding as of July 31, 2015.

Treatment of Welch Allyn PHASARS, PSU Awards and LTIP Cash Incentive Awards

At the effective time of the merger:

each outstanding PHASAR, whether vested or unvested, will be cancelled, with the holder of such PHASAR becoming entitled to receive an amount in cash equal to the product of (a) the number of Phantom Shares subject to such PHASAR as of immediately prior to the effective time of the merger and (b) the excess, if any, or the Phantom Merger Consideration (divided by 20 in the case of any PHASAR granted prior to January 1, 2012) over the grant price of such PHASAR, less any required withholding taxes;

each outstanding PSU Award will be cancelled, with the holder of such PSU Award becoming entitled to receive an amount in cash equal to the product of (a) the number of Phantom Shares subject to such PSU Award as of immediately prior to the effective time of the merger and (b) the Phantom Merger Consideration (divided by 20 in the case of any PSU Award granted prior to January 1, 2012), less any required withholding taxes; and

each outstanding LTIP Cash Incentive Award will be cancelled, with the holder of such LTIP Cash Incentive Award becoming entitled to receive an amount in cash equal to the total cash amount subject to such LTIP Cash Incentive Award, assuming satisfaction of performance goals at target levels, less any required withholding taxes.

If Welch Allyn, on or prior to the effective time of the merger, declares any dividends or other distributions directly or indirectly on shares of Welch Allyn common stock that are paid or set-aside on or following June 16, 2015, then the Phantom Merger Consideration as defined above will be increased by the aggregate per share amount of such dividends or other distributions.

In addition, $75,000,000 of the cash consideration otherwise deliverable to holders of outstanding shares of Welch Allyn common stock, PHASARs and PSU Awards will be withheld pro rata from such holders and deposited in an escrow account to secure any post-closing adjustment to the closing cash consideration and certain indemnification obligations of such holders pursuant to the merger agreement. These funds will be released by the escrow agent in accordance with the terms set forth in the escrow agreement. Pursuant to the terms of the LTIP Cash Incentive Awards and the merger agreement, no portion of the cash amount each individual receives in respect of his or her LTIP Cash Incentive Awards will be withheld under the escrow agreement.

Ownership of Hill-Rom Following the Merger

Hill-Rom expects to issue 8,133,722 shares of Hill-Rom common stock in the merger for consideration to be paid to the outstanding shares of Welch Allyn common stock. Based on the number of shares of Hill-Rom common stock outstanding on June 16, 2015, immediately after completion of the merger, Welch Allyn shareholders immediately prior to the merger are expected to own, in the aggregate, approximately 13% of the then outstanding shares of Hill-Rom common stock.

The merger will not affect the continuing ownership by Hill-Rom shareholders of shares of Hill-Rom common stock owned prior to the effective time of the merger. Accordingly, Hill-Rom shareholders will hold the same number of shares of Hill-Rom common stock that they held immediately prior to the merger. However, because Hill-Rom will be issuing new shares of Hill-Rom common stock to Welch Allyn shareholders in the merger, each outstanding share of Hill-Rom common stock immediately prior to the merger will represent a significantly smaller percentage of the total number of shares of Hill-Rom common stock outstanding after the merger. It is expected that Hill-Rom shareholders immediately prior to the merger will hold approximately 87% of the total Hill-Rom common stock outstanding upon completion of the merger.

Board of Directors and Management of Hill-Rom After the Merger

The directors and officers of Hill-Rom immediately prior to the effective time of the merger will continue to be directors and officers of Hill-Rom immediately following the merger.

Information about current directors and executive officers of Hill-Rom, including biographical information, executive compensation and stock ownership, can be found in Hill-Rom's proxy statement for the 2014 annual meeting of Hill-Rom shareholders and Annual Report on Form 10-K for the fiscal year ended September 30, 2014, both of which are filed with the SEC and incorporated by reference into this proxy statement/prospectus. See the section titled "Where You Can Find Additional Information" beginning on page 159 of this proxy statement/prospectus.

Hill-Rom's Reasons for the Merger

Hill-Rom has aggressively pursued external growth opportunities, with the goal of leveraging Hill-Rom's existing channel strength. By doing so, Hill-Rom believes that it can advance its strategic objectives of being a stronger, more diversified organization with sufficient scale and resources to enhance customer relevance, thereby generating additional value across its entire product portfolio. Hill-Rom believes that a combination with Welch Allyn significantly advances these strategic objectives. In approving the merger and the other transactions contemplated by the merger agreement, the Hill-Rom board of directors considered a variety of factors related to these strategic priorities, including the following:

the combined company will have a stronger, more significant product, service and solutions platform than either has individually;

Hill-Rom can use the additional infrastructure, capabilities and products it will gain as a result of the merger to enable it to pursue a business model that meets the evolving needs of patients and customers and delivers superior healthcare outcomes across multiple care settings;

The merger will result in an enhanced financial profile for Hill-Rom, creating the opportunity for accelerated organic and inorganic growth; and the merger will have an immediate accretive impact on the adjusted earnings per share of Hill-Rom common stock.

In addition to these factors, the Hill-Rom board of directors also considered the potential adverse effects of other factors weighing negatively against the merger, including, without limitation, the following:

Hill-Rom's ability to engage in additional acquisitions may be more limited after the merger;

the anticipated synergies would be more difficult to achieve or would take longer to achieve than anticipated; and the potential challenges of integrating Hill-Rom's and Welch Allyn's operations.

The foregoing discussion of the factors considered by the Hill-Rom board of directors is not intended to be exhaustive, but rather includes the material factors considered by the Hill-Rom board of directors. In reaching its decision to approve the merger and the other transactions contemplated by the merger agreement, the Hill-Rom board of directors did not quantify or assign any relative weights to the factors considered, and individual directors may have given different weights to different factors. The Hill-Rom board of directors considered all these factors as a whole, including discussions with, and questioning of, Hill-Rom management and Hill-Rom's legal and financial advisors, and overall considered the factors to be favorable to, and to support, its decision.

Recommendation of the Welch Allyn Board of Directors and Its Reasons for the Merger

The Welch Allyn Board believes that the merger agreement, the merger and the other transactions contemplated thereby are advisable and in the best interests of Welch Allyn and its shareholders. Accordingly, the Welch Allyn Board has unanimously approved the merger agreement, the merger and the other transactions contemplated thereby and unanimously recommended that Welch Allyn's shareholders adopt the merger agreement and approve the merger and the other transactions contemplated thereby.

As described under " Background of the Merger", the Welch Allyn Board, prior to and in reaching its decision at its meeting on June 16, 2015 to approve the merger agreement, the merger and the other transactions contemplated thereby, consulted with Welch Allyn management and Welch Allyn's legal and financial advisors and considered a variety of factors weighing positively in favor of the merger, including, but not limited to, the following:

the value to be received by holders of Welch Allyn common stock in the merger;

the fact that the approximately 79.3% cash and 20.7% stock split in the merger consideration (based on a per share value of $52.2516 for Hill-Rom common stock, which was calculated as the volume weighted average price per share of Hill-Rom common stock on the New York Stock Exchange (as reported by Bloomberg L.P.) for the period commencing at the opening of trading on the New York Stock Exchange on the tenth day prior to the date of the merger agreement and ending at the close of trading on the date of the merger agreement) to be paid to Welch Allyn's shareholders affords Welch Allyn's shareholders the opportunity both to receive cash for a portion of the value of their shares through the cash component and to participate in the growth and opportunities of the combined company through the stock component;

the opportunity, because the stock portion of the merger consideration is a fixed number of shares of Hill-Rom common stock, for Welch Allyn's shareholders to benefit from any increase in the trading price of Hill-Rom common stock between the announcement of the merger and the completion of the merger;

the Welch Allyn Board's analysis of other strategic alternatives for Welch Allyn, including continued growth as a stand-alone company, an initial public offering of Welch Allyn common stock and the potential to acquire, be acquired or combine with third parties;

the strategic benefits of the transaction, including the complementary nature of the products, customers, geographic territories and personnel of Welch Allyn and Hill-Rom and the belief that combining the businesses of Welch Allyn and Hill-Rom will create a scalable platform for growth and acquisitions in the medical diagnostic and technologies sector, which are expected to create value for the combined company's shareholders;

the advantages that the combined company will have over Welch Allyn as a standalone company, including increased scale and breadth of product offerings;

the belief that the terms of the merger agreement and the other transaction documents, taken as a whole, provide a significant degree of certainty that the merger will be completed, including the facts that (i) the conditions required to be satisfied prior to completion of the merger, such as the receipt of Welch Allyn shareholder approval and antitrust clearance, are expected to be fulfilled, (ii) the merger agreement does not include a financing condition to Hill-Rom's obligation to consummate the merger and (iii) there are limited circumstances in which Hill-Rom may terminate the merger agreement;

the belief that the terms of the merger agreement, including the parties' representations, warranties and covenants and the conditions to their respective obligations, are reasonable;

the financial presentation of Barclays and its written opinion to the Welch Allyn Board, dated June 16, 2015, to the effect that, as of that date and based on and subject to various assumptions, matters considered and limitations described in its opinion, the merger consideration was fair, from a financial point of view, to the holders of Welch Allyn common stock; and the diversification and liquidity afforded to the shareholders by the transaction.

In addition to these factors, the Welch Allyn Board also considered the potential adverse effects of other factors weighing negatively against the merger, including, without limitation, the following:

the risk that, because the stock portion of the merger consideration is a fixed number of shares of Hill-Rom common stock, Welch Allyn's shareholders could be adversely affected by a decrease in the trading price of Hill-Rom common stock after the date of execution of the merger agreement, and the fact that the merger agreement does not provide Welch Allyn with a price-based termination right or similar protection, such as a "collar" with respect to Hill-Rom's stock price, for Welch Allyn or its shareholders;

the indemnification obligations of the Welch Allyn shareholders and the related escrow arrangements pursuant to the merger agreement, as a result of which Welch Allyn shareholders receive a portion of the merger consideration after a significant delay, if at all, and may under certain circumstances incur additional liabilities to Hill-Rom after the closing of the merger;

the fact that the merger might not be completed in a timely manner or at all, due to a failure of certain conditions, including a failure of the parties to obtain required regulatory approvals in accordance with the terms of the merger agreement;

the risks and costs to Welch Allyn if the merger does not close, including the diversion of management and employee attention, potential employee attrition and the potential adverse effect on Welch Allyn's customer and other commercial relationships;

the fact that some of Welch Allyn's directors and executive officers may have interests in the merger that are different from, or in addition to, those of Welch Allyn's shareholder generally, including those interests that are a result of employment and compensation arrangements with Welch Allyn's executive officers and the manner in which they would be affected by the merger, as described more fully in the section entitled " Interests of Directors and Executive Officers of Welch Allyn in the Merger";

the restrictions on Welch Allyn's ability to solicit or participate in discussions or negotiations regarding alternative business combination transactions, which the Welch Allyn Board understood, although having the potential effect of discouraging third parties from proposing a competing business combination transaction, were conditions to Hill-Rom's willingness to enter into the merger agreement and were reasonable in light of, among other things, the benefits of the merger to Welch Allyn's shareholders;

the inability of Welch Allyn to terminate the merger agreement even if the Welch Allyn Board changes its recommendation, which the Welch Allyn Board understood, although having the potential effect (in combination with the voting agreement) of preventing Welch Allyn's shareholders from accepting a competing business combination transaction, was a condition to Hill-Rom's willingness to enter into the merger agreement and was reasonable in light of, among other things, the benefits of the merger to Welch Allyn's shareholders;

the restrictions on the conduct of Welch Allyn's business prior to the completion of the merger, which may delay or prevent Welch Allyn from undertaking business opportunities that may arise during the term of the merger agreement, whether or not the merger is completed;

the fact that the receipt of the merger consideration will be taxable to Welch Allyn's shareholders for U.S. federal income tax purposes;

the challenges of combining the businesses, operations and workforces of Hill-Rom and Welch Allyn and realizing the anticipated cost savings and operating synergies;

the risks that the financial results and the stock price of the combined company might decline, including the possible adverse effects on the stock price and financial results of the combined company if the benefits of the synergies expected of the merger are not obtained on a timely basis or at all; and the risks described in the section entitled "Risk Factors" beginning on page 29.

The foregoing discussion of the factors considered by the Welch Allyn Board is not intended to be exhaustive, but rather includes the material factors considered by the Welch Allyn Board. In reaching its decision to declare the merger agreement advisable and that the merger is in the best interests of Welch Allyn and Welch Allyn's shareholders, and, in approving the merger agreement, the merger and the other transactions contemplated by the merger agreement, the Welch Allyn Board did not quantify or assign any relative weights to the factors considered, and individual directors may have given different weights to different factors. The Welch Allyn Board considered all these factors as a whole, including discussions with, and questioning of, Welch Allyn management and Welch Allyn's legal and financial advisors, and overall considered the factors to be favorable to, and to support, its decision.

For the reasons set forth above, the Welch Allyn Board unanimously declared the merger agreement advisable and determined that the merger is in the best interests of Welch Allyn and its shareholders, unanimously approved the merger agreement, the merger and the other transactions contemplated by the merger agreement and unanimously recommended that Welch Allyn's shareholders adopt the merger agreement and approve the merger and the other transactions contemplated thereby.

This explanation of Welch Allyn's reasons for the merger and other information presented in this section is forward-looking in nature and, therefore, should be read in light of the factors described under "Cautionary Statement Regarding Forward-Looking Statements" beginning on page 37.

Opinion of the Financial Advisor to Welch Allyn

Welch Allyn has retained Barclays as its financial advisor to advise the Welch Allyn Board in connection with the merger. At the June 16, 2015 meeting of the Welch Allyn Board, Barclays delivered to the Welch Allyn Board its oral opinion, which opinion was confirmed by delivery of a written opinion dated as of June 16, 2015, to the effect that, as of that date and based on and subject to the various assumptions, qualifications, matters considered and limitations described in its written opinion, from a financial point of view, the merger consideration offered to the Welch Allyn shareholders was fair to the Welch Allyn shareholders.

The full text of the written opinion of Barclays dated June 16, 2015, which sets forth, among other things, the assumptions made, procedures followed, qualifications to, matters considered and limits on the review undertaken by Barclays in rendering its opinion, is attached as Annex D to this proxy statement/prospectus. Barclays' opinion, the issuance of which was approved by Barclays' fairness opinion committee, was addressed to the Welch Allyn Board and addressed only the fairness, from a financial point of view, of the merger consideration offered to the Welch Allyn shareholders and expressed no opinion as to the merits of the underlying business decision by Welch Allyn to engage in the merger or the relative merits of the merger as compared to any alternative business strategies, nor did it express an opinion or recommendation as to how any Welch Allyn shareholder should vote with respect to the merger or as to whether any Welch Allyn shareholder should authorize a proxy to vote its shares in favor of the adoption of the merger agreement and the approval of the merger or the likelihood of the consummation of the merger. In addition, Barclays expressed no opinion on, and Barclays' opinion does not in any manner address, the fairness of the amount or the nature of any compensation to any officers, directors or employees of any parties to the transactions contemplated by the merger agreement, or any class of such persons, relative to the consideration paid in the merger or otherwise. The terms of the merger were determined through arm's-length negotiations between Welch Allyn and Hill-Rom and were approved by the Welch Allyn Board. The summary of the Barclays opinion and the methodology that Barclays used to render its opinion set forth in this proxy statement/prospectus is qualified in its entirety by reference to the full text of the opinion attached hereto as Annex D.

In connection with Barclays' role as financial advisor to Welch Allyn and in arriving at its opinion, Barclays reviewed and analyzed, among other things:

the merger agreement, and the specific terms of the merger;

financial and operating information with respect to the business, operations and prospects of Welch Allyn furnished to Barclays by Welch Allyn, including financial projections of Welch Allyn prepared by management of Welch Allyn (the "Welch Allyn projections"); publicly available information concerning Hill-Rom that Barclays believed to be relevant to its analysis, including Hill-Rom's Annual Report on Form 10-K for the fiscal year ended September 30, 2014 and Quarterly Reports on Form 10-Q for the fiscal quarters ended December 31, 2014 and March 31, 2015;

a trading history of Hill-Rom common stock from June 12, 2010 to June 12, 2015 and a comparison of that trading history with those of other companies that Barclays deemed relevant;

a comparison of the historical financial results and present financial condition of the Company and Hill-Rom with each other and with those of other companies that Barclays deemed relevant;

a comparison of the financial terms of the merger with the financial terms of certain other transactions that Barclays deemed relevant;

the pro forma impact of the merger on the future financial performance of the combined company, including the estimated amounts and timing of the cost savings and operating synergies reviewed by the management of Welch Allyn in connection with the merger (the "expected synergies");

published estimates of independent research analysts with respect to the future financial performance and price targets of Hill-Rom (the "Hill-Rom projections"); and such other things as Barclays deemed appropriate.

In addition, Barclays had discussions with the management of Welch Allyn and Hill-Rom concerning their respective business, operations, assets, liabilities, financial condition and prospects and has undertaken such other studies, analyses and investigations as Barclays deemed appropriate.

In arriving at its opinion, Barclays assumed and relied on the accuracy and completeness of the financial and other information made available to it, or publicly accessed by it, without any independent verification of such information (and has not assumed responsibility or liability for any independent verification of such information) and further relied upon the assurances of management of Welch Allyn that they were not aware of any factors or circumstances that would make such information inaccurate or misleading. With respect to the Welch Allyn projections, upon the advice of Welch Allyn, Barclays assumed that such projections were reasonably prepared on a basis reflecting the best available estimates and judgments of the management of Welch Allyn as to the future financial performance of Welch Allyn and that Welch Allyn will perform substantially in accordance with such projections and, at the direction of Welch Allyn, Barclays relied on the Welch Allyn projections in performing its analysis and arriving at its opinion. Furthermore, upon the advice of Welch Allyn, Barclays assumed that the amounts and timing of the expected synergies will be realized in accordance with such estimates. With respect to the Hill-Rom projections, upon the advice of Welch Allyn, Barclays assumed that such projections were reasonably prepared on a basis reflecting the best available estimates as to the future financial performance of Hill-Rom and that Hill-Rom will perform substantially in accordance with such projections and, at the direction of Welch Allyn, Barclays relied on the Hill-Rom projections in performing its analysis and arriving at its opinion. Barclays assumed no responsibility for and expressed no view as to any such projections or estimates or the assumptions on which they were based. In arriving at its opinion, Barclays did not conduct a physical inspection of the properties and facilities of Welch Allyn or Hill-Rom and did not make or obtain any evaluations or appraisals of the assets or liabilities of Welch Allyn or Hill-Rom. Barclays' opinion was based upon market, economic and other conditions as they existed on, and can be evaluated as of, the date of its opinion. Barclays assumed no responsibility for updating or revising its opinion based on events or circumstances that may occur after the date of its opinion. Barclays expressed no opinion as to the prices at which shares of Hill-Rom common stock would trade following the announcement or consummation of the merger. Barclays' opinion did not provide any assurance that the market value of the Hill-Rom common stock to be held by the Welch Allyn shareholders after the consummation of the merger will be in excess of the market value of the Welch Allyn common stock owned by such shareholders at any time prior to the announcement or consummation of the merger.

Barclays assumed the accuracy of the representations and warranties contained in the merger agreement and all agreements related thereto and that the adjustments to the merger consideration provided in the merger agreement will not result in any adjustments to the consideration that Barclays deemed were material to its analysis. Barclays also assumed, upon the advice of Welch Allyn, that all material governmental, regulatory and third party approvals, consents and releases for the merger will be obtained within the constraints contemplated by the merger agreement and that the merger will be consummated in accordance with the terms of the merger agreement without waiver, modification or amendment of any material term, condition or agreement thereof. Barclays did not express any opinion as to any tax or other consequences that might result from the merger, nor did Barclays' opinion address any legal, tax, regulatory or accounting matters.

The following is a summary of the material financial analyses contained in the presentation that was made by Barclays to the Welch Allyn Board on June 15 and June 16, 2015 and that were used by Barclays in connection with rendering its opinion described above. The following summary, however, does not purport to be a complete description of the financial analyses performed by Barclays, nor does the order of analyses described represent the relative importance or weight given to those analyses by Barclays. Some of the summaries of the financial analyses include information presented in tabular format. The tables must be read together with the full text of each summary and alone are not a complete description of Barclays' financial analyses. In arriving at its opinion, Barclays did not attribute any particular weight to any single analysis or factor considered by it, but rather made qualitative judgments as to the significance and relevance of each analysis and factor relative to all other analyses and factors performed and considered by it and in the context of the circumstances of the merger. Accordingly, Barclays believes that its analyses must be considered as a whole, as considering any portion of such analyses and factors, without considering all analyses and factors as a whole, could create a misleading or incomplete view of the process underlying its opinion. Except as otherwise noted, the following quantitative information, to the extent that it is based on market data, is based on market data as it existed on or before June 16, 2015, and is not necessarily indicative of current market conditions. In performing its analyses, Barclays made numerous assumptions with respect to industry performance, general business and economic conditions and other matters, many of which are beyond the control of any party to the merger. Barclays assumes no responsibility if future results are materially different from those discussed. Any estimates contained in these analyses are not necessarily indicative of actual values or predictive of future results or values, which may be significantly more or less favorable than as set forth below.

Selected Comparable Company Analysis

Welch Allyn

Barclays reviewed and compared certain financial information for Welch Allyn to the corresponding financial information, ratios and public market multiples for the following publicly traded medical technology companies, which are referred to below as the "Welch Allyn comparable companies":

Bio-Rad Laboratories, Inc.;

CONMED Corporation;

Hill-Rom;

Hologic, Inc.;

Integra LifeSciences Holdings Corp.;

Masimo Corporation;

Merit Medical Systems, Inc.;

Mindray Medical International Ltd;

STERIS Corp.

Barclays calculated and compared various financial multiples and ratios of Welch Allyn and the selected companies. As part of its comparable company analysis, Barclays calculated and analyzed: (1) each company's ratio of its current stock price to its estimated earnings per share, or EPS, for the 2015 and 2016 calendar years (commonly referred to as a price earnings ratio, or P/E), (2) each company's enterprise value to estimated revenue for the 2015 and 2016 calendar years and (3) each company's enterprise value to estimated EBITDA for the 2015 and 2016 calendar years. The enterprise value of each company was obtained by adding its short- and long-term debt to the sum of the market value of its common stock and subtracting its cash and cash equivalents. All these calculations were performed based on (1) the Hill-Rom projections, in the case of Hill-Rom, or (2) the consensus of independent research analysts earnings estimates compiled by I/B/E/S at that time and closing prices as of June 12, 2015. The results of this selected comparable company analysis are summarized below:

Barclays selected the Welch Allyn comparable companies because their businesses and operating profiles are reasonably similar to that of Welch Allyn. However, because of the inherent differences between the business, operations and prospects of Welch Allyn and those of the Welch Allyn comparable companies, Barclays believed that it was inappropriate to, and therefore did not, rely solely on the quantitative results of the selected comparable company analysis. Accordingly, Barclays also made qualitative judgments concerning differences between the business, financial and operating characteristics and prospects of Welch Allyn and the Welch Allyn comparable companies that could affect the public trading values of each in order to provide a context in which to consider the results of the quantitative analysis. These qualitative judgments related primarily to the differing sizes, growth prospects, profitability levels and degree of operational risk between Welch Allyn and the companies included in the comparable company analysis. Based on these judgments, Barclays selected ranges of 11.5x to 13.5x multiples of 2015 calendar year estimated EBITDA and 20.0x to 24.0x multiples of 2015 calendar year estimated EPS and applied such ranges to Welch Allyn management projections to calculate a range of implied enterprise values. The following summarizes the result of these calculations:

	Implied Enterprise Value (dollars in billions)
Enterprise Value as a Multiple of CY2015E EBITDA	$1.820 - $2.140
Stock Price as a Multiple of CY2015E EPS	$1.480 - $1.810

Barclays noted that on the basis of the selected comparable company analysis, the merger consideration to be offered in the merger was within the range of implied enterprise value calculated using estimated 2015 calendar year EBITDA and above the range of implied enterprise value calculated using estimated 2015 calendar year EPS.

Hill-Rom

estimates compiled by I/B/E/S at that time and closing prices as of June 12, 2015. The results of this selected comparable company analysis are summarized below:

	Enterprise Value as a Multiple of Revenue for the Calendar Year		Enterprise Value as a Multiple of EBITDA for the Calendar Year		Stock Price as a Multiple of EPS for the Calendar Year
	2015E	2016E	2015E	2016E	2015E	2016E

Median	2.46	2.36	13.5	12.4	21.0	19.0
Low	1.88	1.73	10.3	8.6	16.7	12.5

Barclays selected the Hill-Rom comparable companies because their businesses and operating profiles are reasonably similar to that of Hill-Rom. However, because of the inherent differences between the business, operations and prospects of Hill-Rom and those of the Hill-Rom comparable companies, Barclays believed that it was inappropriate to, and therefore did not, rely solely on the quantitative results of the selected comparable company analysis. Accordingly, Barclays also made qualitative judgments concerning differences between the business, financial and operating characteristics and prospects of Hill-Rom and the Hill-Rom comparable companies that could affect the public trading values of each in order to provide a context in which to consider the results of the quantitative analysis. These qualitative judgments related primarily to the differing sizes, growth prospects, profitability levels and degree of operational risk between Hill-Rom and the companies included in the comparable company analysis. Based on these judgments, Barclays selected ranges of 11.0x to 13.0x multiples of 2015 calendar year estimated EBITDA and 16.0x to 20.0x multiples of 2016 calendar year estimated EPS and applied such ranges to the Hill-Rom projections to calculate a range of implied share price values. The following summarizes the result of these calculations:

	Implied Share Price Value
Enterprise Value as a Multiple of CY2015E EBITDA.	$48.53 - $58.81
Stock Price as a Multiple of CY2016E EPS	$45.90 - $57.38

Discounted Cash Flow Analysis

Barclays performed a discounted cash flow analysis of Welch Allyn. A discounted cash flow analysis is a traditional methodology used to derive a valuation of an asset by calculating the "present value" of estimated cash flows of the asset. "Present value" refers to the current value of future cash flows or amounts and is obtained by discounting those future cash flows or amounts by a discount rate that takes into account macroeconomic assumptions and estimates of risk, the opportunity cost of capital, expected returns and other appropriate factors.

To calculate the estimated enterprise value of Welch Allyn common stock using the discounted cash flow method, Barclays added (1) projected unlevered free cash flows of Welch Allyn for fiscal years 2015 through 2019 based on the management projections to (2) the "terminal value" of Welch Allyn as of December 31, 2019, and discounted such amount to its present value using a range of selected discount rates. The unlevered free cash flows were calculated by taking the earnings before interest and tax expense, subtracting tax expense calculated using Welch Allyn's projected tax rate of 32.0%, adding depreciation and amortization and subtracting capital expenditures and changes in working capital. The residual value of Welch Allyn at the end of the forecast period, or "terminal value", was estimated using the "perpetuity growth" method, whereby estimated unlevered free cash flows in fiscal year 2020 were divided by the difference between the discount rate and an estimated perpetuity growth rate. The range of discount rates of 9.0% to 10.0% was selected based on an analysis of the weighted average cost of capital of Welch Allyn. The range of perpetuity growth rates of 2.0% to 3.0% was selected based on longer term growth expectations for Welch Allyn.

Based upon these perpetuity growth rates and discount rates, Barclays then calculated a range of implied enterprise values of $1.645 billion to $2.120 billion. Barclays noted that on the basis of the discounted cash flow analysis, the merger consideration was within the range of implied enterprise values calculated using management's projections.

Barclays also calculated the estimated enterprise value of Welch Allyn using the discounted cash flow method using adjusted projected unlevered free cash flows of Welch Allyn that excluded cash flows generated by certain new business lines, or the "sensitivity projections". The range of discount rates of 9.0% to 10.0% and range of perpetuity growth rates of 2.0% to 3.0% were selected on the same basis as described above. Based upon these perpetuity growth rates and discount rates, Barclays then calculated a range of implied enterprise values of $1.465 billion to $1.885 billion. Barclays noted that on the basis of the discounted cash flow analysis, the merger consideration was above the range of implied enterprise values calculated using sensitivity projections which exclude certain new business lines.

Leveraged Buyout Analysis

Barclays also analyzed Welch Allyn from the perspective of a potential purchaser that would effect a leveraged buyout of Welch Allyn to determine the prices at which a financial sponsor might effect such a leveraged buyout, using the estimated unlevered free cash flow calculated based upon (1) the Welch Allyn projections and (2) the sensitivity projections which exclude certain new business lines. Barclays assumed a transaction closing date of December 31, 2015, with approximately $1.0 billion of new debt, a target internal rate of return ranging from approximately 20% to 25% and a five-year investment period ending on December 31, 2020. Applying an illustrative adjusted leverage ratio (defined as the ratio of total debt to estimated non-GAAP earnings before interest, taxes, depreciation and amortization, or EBITDA) of 6.25x and the illustrative range of target internal rates of return described above and assuming a last twelve-month EV/EBITDA multiple on the exit date equal to the last-twelve-month EV/EBITDA multiple implied by the purchase price on the closing date, Barclays derived the following range of implied enterprise values for Welch Allyn:

	Implied Enterprise Value (dollars in billions)
Welch Allyn Projections	$1.605 - $1.930
Sensitivity Projections	$1.285 - $1.605

Barclays noted that on the basis of the leveraged buyout analysis, the merger consideration was above the range of implied enterprise values calculated using Welch Allyn projections and using sensitivity projections which exclude certain new business lines.

Comparable Transaction Analysis

In order to assess the purchase price offered to the shareholders of Welch Allyn in the merger relative to the purchase prices in other transactions, Barclays reviewed the purchase prices in selected mergers and acquisitions transactions involving targets in the medical technology industry from January 1, 2007 to June 1, 2015. For each transaction, Barclays calculated the enterprise value as a multiple of EBITDA for the last twelve months prior to the transaction. The results of this comparable transaction analysis are summarized below:

	Enterprise Value as a Multiple of EBITDA for the Last Twelve Months Prior to the Transaction
High	34.0x
Mean	14.1
Median	12.2
Low	6.8

In addition, among these selected mergers and acquisitions transactions, Barclays identified a subset of transactions, the "focus group", which it deemed most relevant for comparison to the proposed transaction for Welch Allyn. The results of this comparable transaction analysis for the focus group of transactions are summarized below:

	Enterprise Value as a Multiple of EBITDA for the Last Twelve Months Prior to the Transaction
High	18.2x
Mean	12.7
Median	12.4
Low	9.9

The reasons for and the circumstances surrounding each of the transactions analyzed in the transaction premium analysis were diverse and there are inherent differences in the business, operations, financial conditions and prospects of Welch Allyn and the companies included in the comparable transaction analysis. Accordingly, Barclays believed that a purely quantitative transaction premium analysis would not be particularly meaningful in the context of considering the proposed transaction. Barclays therefore made qualitative judgments concerning the differences between the characteristics of the selected transactions and the proposed transaction which would affect the acquisition values of the target companies and Welch Allyn. Based on these judgments, Barclays selected a range of enterprise value as a multiple of EBITDA for the last twelve months prior to the transaction of 12.0x to 15.0x to calculate a range of implied enterprise values of $1.820 billion to $2.280 billion. Barclays noted that on the basis of the comparable transaction analysis, the merger consideration to be offered in the merger was within the range of implied enterprise values.

Other Analyses

The analyses and data described below were presented to the Welch Allyn board for informational purposes only and did not provide the basis for, and were not otherwise considered in connection with, the rendering of Barclays' opinion.

General

Barclays is an internationally recognized investment banking firm and, as part of its investment banking activities, is regularly engaged in the valuation of businesses and their securities in connection with mergers and acquisitions, investments for passive and control purposes, negotiated underwritings, competitive bids, secondary distributions of listed and unlisted securities, private placements and valuations for estate, corporate and other purposes. The Welch Allyn Board selected Barclays because of its familiarity with Welch Allyn and its qualifications, reputation and experience in the valuation of businesses and securities in connection with mergers and acquisitions generally, as well as substantial experience in transactions comparable to the proposed transaction.

Barclays is acting as financial advisor to Welch Allyn in connection with the merger. As compensation for its services, Welch Allyn agreed to pay Barclays a fee of $1 million in connection with the delivery of Barclays' opinion (the "opinion fee") and a fee equal to the sum of (i) 0.675% of the amount of consideration actually received in the merger up to the first $1.75 billion of such consideration and (ii) 2.000% of the amount of any consideration actually received in the merger over $1.75 billion payable upon completion of the merger (the "advisory fee"). Welch Allyn and Barclays have agreed that the opinion fee shall be creditable once against the advisory fee. For purposes of the foregoing calculation, (1) "consideration" (A) means the gross value of all cash, securities and other property payable by an acquiror and its affiliates for the transfer of equity securities in connection with the merger and (B) is deemed (x) to include the aggregate principal amount of any indebtedness for money borrowed and any capital leases as set forth on the balance sheet of Welch Allyn immediately prior to the closing of the merger and (y) to exclude cash or cash equivalents, if any, of Welch Allyn or its subsidiaries as set forth on the balance sheet of the Company immediately prior to the closing of such Sale, and (2) the value of the shares of Hill-Rom common stock received will be calculated in accordance with the mechanics specified in the merger agreement. In addition, subject to certain limitations, Welch Allyn has agreed to reimburse Barclays for its reasonable out-of-pocket expenses incurred in connection with the proposed transaction and to indemnify Barclays for certain liabilities that may arise out of its engagement by Welch Allyn and the rendering of Barclays' opinion.

Barclays is a full service securities firm engaged in a wide range of businesses from investment and commercial banking, lending, asset management and other financial and non-financial services. In the ordinary course of its business, Barclays and affiliates may actively trade and effective transactions in the equity, debt and/or other securities (and any derivatives thereof) and financial instruments (including loans and other obligations) of Hill-Rom and its affiliates for its own account and for the accounts of its customers and, accordingly, may at any time hold long or short positions and investments in such securities and financial instruments.

Expected Timing of the Merger

Hill-Rom and Welch Allyn currently expect to complete the merger prior to September 30, 2015, subject to the receipt of regulatory approvals and the satisfaction or waiver of the other conditions to the merger contained in the merger agreement. However, it is possible that factors outside the control of Hill-Rom and Welch Allyn could require Hill-Rom and Welch Allyn to complete the merger at a later date or not complete it at all.

Interests of Directors and Executive Officers of Hill-Rom in the Merger

As of August 25, 2015 Hill-Rom's directors and executive officers owned less than one percent of the outstanding shares of Hill-Rom's common stock. None of Hill-Rom's executive officers is expected to receive any severance or other compensation as a result of the transactions contemplated by the merger agreement. The directors and executive officers of Hill-Rom are not expected to receive any extra or special benefit that is not shared on a pro rata basis by all other holders of Hill-Rom common stock in connection with the transactions contemplated by the merger agreement.

Details of the beneficial ownership of Welch Allyn's directors and executive officers of Welch Allyn's common stock are set out in the section titled "Stock Ownership of Welch Allyn Directors, Executive Officers and Certain Beneficial Owners" beginning on page 67 of this proxy statement/prospectus. In considering the recommendation of the Welch Allyn board of directors that the Welch Allyn shareholders vote to approve the merger proposal at the special meeting of Welch Allyn shareholders, you should be aware that certain of Welch Allyn's directors and executive officers have financial interests in the merger that are different from, or are in addition to, the interests of the Welch Allyn shareholders generally, as more fully described below. The members of the Welch Allyn board of directors were aware of and considered these interests, among other matters, in evaluating and negotiating the merger agreement, and in evaluating the merger and in recommending to the Welch Allyn shareholders that they approve the merger proposal at the special meeting of Welch Allyn shareholders. These interests are described in further detail below. For purposes of all of the plans and agreements described below, the consummation of the merger will constitute a "change in control", "change of control" or term of similar meaning with respect to Welch Allyn.

The interests of the members of Welch Allyn's board of directors generally include the right to receive, at the effective time of the merger (1) the cancellation of each outstanding PHASAR and PSU Award immediately prior to the effective time of the merger in exchange for the right to receive the Phantom Merger Consideration with respect to such PHASAR and each PSU Award (less the grant price in the case of PHASARs) and (2) accelerated cash payment of previously earned and vested amounts deferred under the Directors Deferred Compensation Plan.

The interests of Welch Allyn's executive officers include the rights to:

at the effective time of the merger, cancellation of each outstanding PHASAR and PSU Awards immediately prior to the effective time of the merger in exchange for the right to receive the Phantom Merger Consideration (divided by 20 in the case of PHASAR or PSU awards granted prior to January 1, 2012) with respect to such PHASAR and each PSU Award (less the grant price in the case of PHASARs);

at the effective time of the merger, cancellation of each outstanding LTIP Cash Award in exchange for the total cash amount subject to such LTIP Cash Incentive Award (assuming satisfaction of performance goals at target levels);

at the effective time of the merger, accelerated cash payment of previously earned and vested amounts deferred under the Executive Deferred Compensation Plan;

at or following the effective time of the merger, special bonus payments to certain executive officers;

in the event of a qualifying termination of employment following the effective time of the merger, certain severance payments and benefits; and

certain continuing employee benefits following the effective time of the merger pursuant to the merger agreement.

The value of the consideration that Welch Allyn executive officers and directors will receive for each PHASAR and PSU Award, including the Phantom Dividend Amount per share, is the same as Welch Allyn shareholders will receive for each share of Welch Allyn common stock, including the dividends and other distributions such shareholders will receive per share of Welch Allyn common stock prior to the effective time of the Merger, except that the consideration to be received by Welch Allyn executive officers and directors for each PHASAR will be net of the grant price of the underlying phantom share and the cash consideration to be paid to holders of PHASARs and PSU Awards in lieu of stock consideration will be based upon the volume weighted average price of Hill-Rom's common stock for the preceding 10 trading days as reported by Bloomberg at the close of trading on the second successive complete trading day prior to the closing date of the merger.

Welch Allyn's directors and executive officers also have the right to indemnification and insurance coverage following the effective time of the merger. Please see the sections below entitled " Director and Officer Indemnification and Insurance" and "The Merger Agreement Director and Officer Indemnification and Insurance" beginning on pages 74 and 95, respectively, of this proxy statement/prospectus.

Treatment of Phantom Equity Awards

As of the date of this proxy statement/prospectus, certain members of Welch Allyn's board of directors and certain of Welch Allyn's employees, including Welch Allyn's executive officers, hold PHASARs and PSU Awards.

For information regarding beneficial ownership of Welch Allyn common stock by each member of Welch Allyn's board of directors and certain of Welch Allyn's executive officers and all of such directors and executive officers as a group, please see the section titled "Stock Ownership of Welch Allyn Directors, Executive Officers and Certain Beneficial Owners" beginning on page 67 of this proxy statement/prospectus. The members of Welch Allyn's board of directors and Welch Allyn's executive officers will be entitled to receive, for each share of Welch Allyn common stock, the same per share merger consideration in cash and Hill-Rom common stock in the same manner as other Welch Allyn shareholders.

Treatment of PHASARs

The merger agreement provides that, at the effective time of the merger, each outstanding PHASAR held by a member of Welch Allyn's board of directors or a Welch Allyn employee, including Welch Allyn's executive officers, whether vested or unvested, will be cancelled, with the holder of such PHASAR becoming entitled to receive an amount in cash equal to the product of (a) the number of Phantom Shares subject to such PHASAR as of immediately prior to the effective time of the merger and (b) the excess, if any, or the Phantom Merger Consideration over the grant price of such PHASAR, less any required withholding taxes; provided that, if Welch Allyn, on or prior to the effective time of the merger, declares any dividends or other distributions directly or indirectly on shares of Welch Allyn common stock that are paid or set-aside on or following June 16, 2015 (including the distributions described on page 105 of this proxy statement/prospectus under "Market Price and Dividend Information"), then the Phantom Merger Consideration will be increased by the aggregate per share amount of such dividends or other distributions. In the case of each PHASAR granted prior to January 1, 2012, the Phantom Merger Consideration, including any portion related to dividends or other distributions, will be divided by 20 in order to properly reflect the value of such PHASAR.

In addition, $75,000,000 of the cash consideration otherwise deliverable to holders of outstanding shares of Welch Allyn common stock, PHASARs and PSU Awards will be withheld pro rata from such holders and deposited in an escrow account to secure any post-closing adjustment to the closing cash consideration and certain indemnification obligations of such holders pursuant to the merger agreement. These funds will be released by the escrow agent in accordance with the terms set forth in the escrow agreement.

Based on the number of outstanding PHASARs, whether vested or unvested, held by Welch Allyn's directors and executive officers as of July 31, 2015, and an estimated per share merger consideration of $17.74, as described in "The Merger Agreement Effects of the Merger; Merger Consideration" beginning on page 83 of this proxy statement/prospectus, plus an estimated Phantom Dividend Amount of $2.03 per share, based on the dividends and distributions described in "Market Price and Dividend Information" on page 105 of this proxy statement/prospectus as if they had been made as of July 31, 2015, the estimated aggregate amounts that would become payable to Welch Allyn's directors and executive officers at the effective time of the merger with respect to such PHASARs is $14,810,008.

Treatment of PSU Awards

The merger agreement provides that, at the effective time of the merger, each outstanding PSU Award held by a member of Welch Allyn's board of directors or a Welch Allyn employee, including Welch Allyn's executive officers, will be cancelled, with the holder of such PSU Award becoming entitled to receive an amount in cash equal to the product of (a) the number of Phantom Shares subject to such PSU Award as of immediately prior to the effective time of the merger and (b) the Phantom Merger Consideration, less any required withholding taxes; provided that, if Welch Allyn, on or prior to the effective time of the merger, declares any dividends or other distributions directly or indirectly on shares of Welch Allyn common stock that are paid or set-aside on or following June 16, 2015 (including the distributions described on page 104 of this proxy statement/prospectus under "Market Price and Dividend Information"), then the Phantom Merger Consideration will be increased by the aggregate per share amount of such dividends or other distributions. In the case of each PSU Award granted prior to January 1, 2012, the Phantom Merger Consideration, including any portion related to dividends or other distributions, will be divided by 20 in order to properly reflect the value of such PSU Award.

In addition, $75,000,000 of the cash consideration otherwise deliverable to holders of outstanding shares of Welch Allyn common stock, PHASARs and PSU Awards will be withheld pro rata from such holders and deposited in an escrow account to secure any post-closing adjustment to the closing cash consideration and certain indemnification obligations of such holders pursuant to the merger agreement. These funds will be released by the escrow agent in accordance with the terms set forth in the escrow agreement.

Based on the number of outstanding PSU Awards held by Welch Allyn's directors and executive officers as of July 31, 2015, and an estimated per share merger consideration of $17.74, as described in "The Merger Agreement Effects of the Merger; Merger Consideration" beginning on page 83 of this proxy statement/prospectus, plus an estimated Phantom Dividend Amount of $2.03 per share, based on the dividends and distributions described in "Market Price and Dividend Information" on page 105 of this proxy statement/prospectus as if they had been made as of July 31, 2015, the estimated aggregate amounts that would become payable to Welch Allyn's directors and executive officers at the effective time of the merger with respect to such PSU Awards is $24,371,841.

Treatment of LTIP Cash Incentive Awards

As of the date of this proxy statement/prospectus, certain of Welch Allyn's employees, including Welch Allyn's executive officers, hold LTIP Cash Incentive Awards. The merger agreement provides that, pursuant to the terms of the applicable Welch Allyn long-term incentive plan, at the effective time of the merger, each outstanding LTIP Cash Incentive Award will be cancelled, with the holder of such LTIP Cash Incentive Award becoming entitled to receive an amount in cash equal to the total cash amount subject to such LTIP Cash Incentive Award, assuming satisfaction of performance goals at target levels, less any required withholding taxes. Pursuant to the terms of the LTIP Cash Incentive Award and the merger agreement, the cash amount each employee, including each Welch Allyn executive officer, receives in respect of his or her LTIP Cash Incentive Awards will not depend on the value of the merger consideration, and will not be withheld under the escrow agreement.

Based on the number of outstanding LTIP Cash Incentive Awards held by Welch Allyn's executive officers as of July 31, 2015, the estimated aggregate amount that would become payable to Welch Allyn's executive officers at the effective time of the merger with respect to such LTIP Cash Incentive Awards is $5,198,017.

Deferred Compensation Plans

The Deferred Compensation Plans consist of two plans that permit members of Welch Allyn's board of directors and certain of Welch Allyn's employees, including each Welch Allyn executive officer, to defer receipt of a portion of their previously earned and vested compensation. As is customary in order to protect such amounts, the Deferred Compensation Plans provide that the accrued amounts under the Deferred Compensation Plans will be paid out in connection with a change in control of Welch Allyn. Therefore, at the effective time of the merger, each member of the Welch Allyn board of directors and each Welch Allyn employee, including each Welch Allyn executive officer, who participates in a Deferred Compensation Plan will become entitled to receive a lump sum payment in cash equal to the accrued balance of his or her account under the applicable Deferred Compensation Plan.

Based on the amount of each of Welch Allyn's director's and executive officer's accrued benefits under the Deferred Compensation Plans as of August 11, 2015, the estimated aggregate amounts that would become payable to Welch Allyn's directors and executive officers at the effective time of the merger pursuant to the Deferred Compensation Plans is $5,782,669.

Special Bonuses

Under the provisions of the merger agreement imposing operating limitations on Welch Allyn between signing and closing, Welch Allyn is permitted to pay special bonuses to certain executives upon the closing of the merger in an aggregate amount not to exceed $3 million without the consent of Hill-Rom. Such payments, if any, would be designed to retain Welch Allyn's key executive officers through the closing of the merger and/or to recognize their achievements in connection with the merger and/or other matters. The Welch Allyn Board has determined to pay approximately $1 million of such bonuses, but the Welch Allyn Board has not yet made any determinations as to whether it would exercise its discretion to pay any other special bonuses. Any such special bonus payment is expected to be conditioned on the applicable executive officer's continued employment with Welch Allyn and its affiliates through the effective time of the merger.

Severance Entitlements

Welch Allyn maintains the Welch Allyn Executive Severance Pay Plan, effective August 1, 2011 (the "Executive Severance Plan") for its executive officers to provide severance payments and benefits in the event an executive officer incurs a "qualifying termination" (as defined below) under the Executive Severance Plan. Each executive officer of Welch Allyn would be eligible to receive a portion of the payments and benefits described below upon a qualifying termination in the absence of a change in control, and therefore, only a portion of such payments and benefits are directly related to the transactions contemplated by the merger agreement.

Upon a qualifying termination within the two-year period following the effective time of the merger, a participant in the Executive Severance Plan is generally eligible to receive: (a) a cash, lump-sum payment equal to two times (2.5 times in the case of the Welch Allyn President and CEO) the sum of the executive's base salary and target annual bonus for the incentive plan year prior to the year in which the effective time occurs; (b) continued welfare benefits coverage until the executive is eligible for other employer group health coverage, but no later than the end of the second calendar year after the calendar year in which the effective time of the merger occurs (or up to 30 months for the Welch Allyn President and CEO, if longer); and (c) outplacement assistance through the end of the second calendar year after the calendar year in which the effective time of the merger occurs (but not to exceed $12,000). The executive officers must sign a waiver and general release of claims in order to receive the severance payments and benefits under the Executive Severance Plan. However, one officer does not participate in the Executive Severance Plan, and upon a termination without 'cause' would instead receive, pursuant to a letter agreement with Welch Allyn, a cash, lump-sum payment equal to one times his base salary at the time of termination plus outplacement assistance in accordance with Welch Allyn's policies regarding severance.

For purposes of the Executive Severance Plan, a "qualifying termination" is a termination of a participant's employment by Welch Allyn without "cause" or, following a change in control, an executive terminates employment with "good reason". "Cause" generally means the executive's: (i) theft, embezzlement, fraud or disloyalty; (ii) commission or conviction of a crime that the administrator of the Executive Severance Plan reasonably believes had or will have a material detrimental effect on Welch Allyn's reputation or business; or (iii) willful act which constitutes involvement in activities representing conflicts of interest or improper disclosure of confidential information and which is injurious to Welch Allyn.

"Good reason" generally means the occurrence of one or more of the following without the executive's explicit written consent on or before the second anniversary of the change in control: (A) a significant diminution in the nature and scope of the executive's duties, responsibilities or authority from those existing immediately prior to the inception of negotiations related to the change in control; (B) a more than 10% reduction in the executive's total compensation from that immediately prior to the inception of negotiations related to the change in control; or (C) the executive is requested to relocate (except for office relocations that would not increase the executive's one way commute by more than 50 miles). Pursuant to the merger agreement, Hill-Rom has acknowledged that, as a direct result of the transactions contemplated by the merger agreement, Stephen Meyer, Joseph Hennigan, Daniel Fisher and Gregory Porter will be deemed to have the ability to terminate their employment with good reason beginning on the date that is six months following the effective time of the merger (but will no longer be able to terminate their employment with good reason beginning on the second anniversary of the effective time of the merger pursuant to the terms of the Executive Severance Plan); provided that such executive officers may terminate their employment with good reason prior to such date if an event constituting good reason occurs following the effective time of the merger and prior to such date.

Pursuant to the merger agreement, Hill-Rom has agreed to not amend, modify or terminate the Executive Severance Plan without, in respect of each Welch Allyn executive officer (1) obtaining such executive officer's written consent, (2) adopting a no less favorable replacement severance plan or agreement to cover such executive officer or (3) waiving and refraining from enforcing any non-compete restrictions that such executive officer was subject to as of the effective time of the merger.

In addition, pursuant to a letter agreement dated May 20, 2014 between Welch Allyn and Joseph Hennigan, Mr. Hennigan is eligible to receive one-time retention bonuses in the amounts of $350,000 and $100,000 (each a "Retention Bonus"), subject to his continued employment with Welch Allyn through January 2, 2017 and January 2, 2018, respectively (each a "Retention Date"). However, if Mr. Hennigan experiences a qualifying termination within 365 days prior to a Retention Date, upon such qualifying termination, in addition to the severance payments and benefits described above, he will also receive the Retention Bonus associated with such Retention Date. If Mr. Hennigan experiences a qualifying termination more than 365 days prior to a Retention Date, he will forfeit the Retention Bonus associated with such Retention Date.

Based on compensation and benefits levels in effect as of July 31, 2015, the estimated aggregate amount of the severance payments and benefits that would become payable to Welch Allyn's executive officers at the effective time of the merger, assuming that each director and executive officer experienced a qualifying termination of employment at such time, is $11,770,288.

2015 Annual Bonuses

Pursuant to the merger agreement, Hill-Rom has committed to providing each individual who is employed by Welch Allyn and continues to be employed immediately following the effective time of the merger (each, a "Welch Allyn Employee"), including each Welch Allyn executive officer, with a cash bonus payment in respect of Welch Allyn's fiscal year 2015 that is no less than such Welch Allyn Employee's cash target bonus amount for such fiscal year (a "2015 Bonus"), with such 2015 Bonuses to be paid in the normal course. The payment of the 2015 Bonus to each Welch Allyn Employee is subject to such Welch Allyn Employee's continuing employment through December 31, 2015, unless such Welch Allyn Employee experiences a qualifying termination prior to such date. Based on compensation levels in effect as of July 31, 2015, the estimated aggregate amount of the 2015 bonus amounts that would become payable to Welch Allyn's executive officers at the effective time of the merger, assuming that each director and executive officer experienced a qualifying termination of employment at such time, is $2,024,441.

New Management Arrangements

As of the date of this proxy statement/prospectus, neither Welch Allyn nor Hill-Rom has entered into any employment agreements with Welch Allyn's executive officers in connection with the merger.

Benefit Arrangements Following the Effective Time of the Merger

The merger agreement requires Hill-Rom and its subsidiaries (including, following the effective time of the merger, Welch Allyn combined), for a period commencing at the effective time of the merger and ending on the second anniversary of the effective time of the merger, to provide, or cause to be provided, each Welch Allyn Employee, including each Welch Allyn executive officer, with, for so long as such individual continues to be employed by Hill-Rom or its subsidiaries (a) a base salary, base wages and annual cash bonus opportunity that are at least equal to those provided to such Welch Allyn Employee by Welch Allyn or its subsidiaries immediately prior to the effective time of the merger and (b) employee benefits that are, in the aggregate, no less favorable than those provided to such Welch Allyn Employee by Welch Allyn or its subsidiaries immediately prior to the effective time of the merger. In addition, for such two-year period, Hill-Rom and its subsidiaries have agreed to provide 12 Welch Allyn Employees (who are to be mutually agreed upon between Welch Allyn and Hill-Rom prior to the effective time of the merger) with long-term incentive awards that are substantially comparable in value in the aggregate to the value of long-term incentive awards provided to the applicable Welch Allyn Employee by Welch Allyn immediately prior to the effective time of the merger.

In addition, from and after the effective time of the merger, Hill-Rom has committed to honor all benefit plans and compensation arrangements and agreements of Welch Allyn in accordance with their terms as in effect immediately before the effective time of the merger. Hill-Rom will also generally recognize each Welch Allyn Employee's years of service with Welch Allyn, including those of each Welch Allyn executive officer, for purposes of determining eligibility to participate, level of benefits, vesting and benefit accruals (other than the accrual of benefits under a defined benefit pension plan and early retirement subsidies) to the extent recognized under the comparable Welch Allyn plan prior to the effective time of the merger. Hill-Rom will generally waive any pre-existing condition limitations, exclusions, actively at work requirements and waiting periods under any employee welfare benefit in which Welch Allyn Employees, including Welch Allyn executive officers, will be eligible to participate to the extent such conditions were satisfied under the corresponding Welch Allyn plan prior to the effective time of the merger and recognize co-payments, deductibles and similar expenses incurred by each Welch Allyn Employee during the year in which the effective time of the merger occurs to the extent credited under the corresponding employee welfare benefit plan maintained by Welch Allyn prior to the effective time of the merger.

Director and Officer Indemnification and Insurance

Hill-Rom has agreed to cause the surviving corporation to honor all of Welch Allyn's obligations to indemnify the current and former directors, officers and employees of Welch Allyn against losses, claims, taxes, damages, liabilities, fees and expenses, judgments, fines and amounts paid in settlement arising from, or relating to, or otherwise in respect of actions or omissions by such directors, officers and employees occurring prior to the effective time of the merger to the extent that such obligations of Welch Allyn existed on the date of the merger agreement, and such obligation will continue in full force and effect until the expiration of the applicable statute of limitations with respect to any claims against such directors, officers and employees arising out of such acts or omissions. In addition, prior to the effective time of the merger, Welch Allyn will, and if Welch Allyn is unable prior to the effective time of the merger, Hill-Rom will cause the surviving corporation as of the effective time of the merger to, obtain and fully pay the premium (with such payment of premium to be deemed an other adjustment (as defined in the merger agreement) if paid by the surviving corporation) for a "tail" policy extension of the directors' and officers' insurance policies, for a claims reporting or discovery period of at least six years from and after the effective time of the merger with respect to any claim related to any period of time at or prior to the effective time with terms, conditions, retentions and limits of liability that are not less advantageous than the coverage provided under Welch Allyn's existing policies, with respect to any actual or alleged error, misstatement, misleading statement, act, omission, neglect, breach of duty or any matter claimed against a director, officer or employee of Welch Allyn or any subsidiary of Welch Allyn by reason of him or her serving in such capacity that existed or occurred at or prior to the effective time of the merger (including in connection with the merger agreement or the transactions or actions contemplated thereby).

For a more detailed description of the provisions of the merger agreement relating to director and officer indemnification and liability insurance, please see the section of this proxy statement/prospectus entitled "The Merger Agreement Director and Officer Indemnification and Insurance" beginning on page 95 of this proxy statement/prospectus.

Regulatory Matters

United States Antitrust. Under the HSR Act, certain transactions, including the merger, may not be completed until notifications have been given and information furnished to the Antitrust Division and the FTC and all statutory waiting period requirements have been satisfied. Hill-Rom and Welch Allyn filed Notification and Report Forms with the Antitrust Division and the FTC on June 25, 2015, and early termination of the waiting period under the HSR Act with respect to the merger was granted effective as of July 8, 2015.

At any time before or after the effective time of the merger, the Antitrust Division, the FTC or others (including states and private parties) could take action under the antitrust laws, including seeking to prevent the merger, to rescind the merger or to conditionally approve the merger upon the divestiture of assets of Hill-Rom or Welch Allyn or subject to other remedies. There can be no assurance that a challenge to the merger on antitrust grounds will not be made or, if such a challenge is made, that it would not be successful.

Germany Antitrust. Under the ARC, certain transactions, including the merger, may not be completed until a valid notification has been submitted to the FCO and all statutory waiting period requirements have been satisfied (or the FCO has confirmed its approval of the merger prior to the expiry of any statutory waiting period). A notification regarding the merger was filed with the FCO on June 29, 2015 and a clearance decision from the FCO was issued on July 14, 2015.

As part of its review of the merger, the FCO could decide to prohibit the merger or to conditionally approve the merger upon the divestiture of assets of Hill-Rom or Welch Allyn, or subject the parties to other remedies. There can be no assurance that the FCO will not prohibit the merger or to conditionally approve the merger upon the divestiture of assets of Hill-Rom or Welch Allyn, or subject the parties to other remedies.

In addition, at any time during the ARC's statutory waiting period, third parties may apply to the FCO to join the proceedings as "intervening parties" should the FCO decide that the interests of such third parties are materially affected by the merger. Intervening parties are entitled to appeal decisions of the FCO. There can be no assurance that an appeal of the FCO's decision about the merger will not be made or, if such an appeal is made, that it would not be successful.

General. In connection with obtaining the approval of all necessary governmental authorities to complete the merger, including but not limited to the governmental authorities specified above, there can be no assurance that:

governmental authorities will not impose any conditions on the granting of their approval and, if such conditions are imposed, that Hill-Rom and Welch Allyn will be able to satisfy or comply with such conditions;

compliance or non-compliance will not have adverse consequences on Hill-Rom and Welch Allyn after completion of the merger; or the required regulatory approvals will be obtained within the time frame contemplated by Hill-Rom and Welch Allyn or on terms that will be satisfactory to Hill-Rom and Welch Allyn.

Hill-Rom and Welch Allyn cannot assure you that a challenge to the merger will not be made or that, if a challenge is made, it will not prevail. See the section titled "The Merger Agreement Conditions to Completion of the Merger" beginning on page 97 of this proxy statement/prospectus.

Accounting Treatment

Hill-Rom and Welch Allyn prepare their financial statements in accordance with GAAP. The merger will be accounted for in accordance with FASB ASC Topic 805, Business Combinations, with Hill-Rom considered the accounting acquirer and Welch Allyn as the accounting acquiree. Accordingly, consideration to be given by Hill-Rom to complete the merger with Welch Allyn will be allocated to assets and liabilities of Welch Allyn based on their estimated fair values as of the date of the completion of the merger, with any excess merger consideration being recorded as goodwill.

Listing of Hill-Rom Common Stock

Application has been made to have the shares of Hill-Rom common stock issued in the merger approved for listing on the NYSE, where Hill-Rom common stock currently is traded under the symbol "HRC."

Dissenters' Rights

Holders of Welch Allyn common stock are entitled to dissent from the merger and obtain the fair value of their Welch Allyn common stock in cash in accordance with the procedures established by New York law.

Sections 623 and 910 of the NYBCL provide that, if the merger is consummated, holders of Welch Allyn common stock who object to the merger in writing prior to the vote by the holders of Welch Allyn common stock on the adoption of the agreement and who follow the procedures specified in Section 623 (summarized below), will have the right to receive cash payment of the fair value of their Welch Allyn common stock. A copy of Section 623 and Section 910 of the NYBCL is attached as Annex C to this proxy statement/prospectus. The express procedures of Section 623 must be followed precisely; if they are not, a holder of Welch Allyn common stock will lose his or her right to dissent. As described more fully below, such "fair value" would potentially be determined in judicial proceedings, the result of which cannot be predicted. We cannot assure you that holders of Welch Allyn common stock exercising dissenters' rights will receive consideration equal to or greater than the value of the Hill-Rom common stock to be owned by them and/or cash paid to them following completion of the merger.

The statutory procedures outlined below are complex. What follows is a summary, which is qualified in its entirety by reference to the full text of Section 623 and Section 910 of the NYBCL. Holders of Welch Allyn common stock wishing to exercise their dissenters' rights should consult with their own legal advisors to ensure that they fully and properly comply with the requirements of New York law.

Any holder of Welch Allyn common stock will have the right to receive a cash payment of the fair value of his or her Welch Allyn common stock and the other rights and benefits provided in Section 623, if such shareholder:

does not vote in favor of the adoption of the merger agreement; and files with Welch Allyn a written objection to the merger prior to the vote by the holders of Welch Allyn common stock on the adoption of the agreement. The written objection must include:

notice of the holder of Welch Allyn common stock's election to dissent;

the name and residence address of the dissenting holder of Welch Allyn common stock;

the number of shares of Welch Allyn common stock as to which the holder of such common stock dissents; and a demand for payment of the fair value of such Welch Allyn common stock if the agreement is consummated.

A vote against adoption of the merger agreement will not satisfy the requirement of filing a written objection. Failure to vote against adoption of the merger agreement will not waive a Welch Allyn shareholder's right to receive payment if the shareholder has filed a written objection in accordance with Section 623 and has not voted in favor of adoption of the merger agreement. If a shareholder abstains from voting on adoption of the merger agreement, this will not waive his or her dissenter's rights so long as the appropriate written objection to the merger is properly and timely filed.

Table of Contents

Since a signed proxy left blank will be voted for adoption of the merger agreement, any Welch Allyn shareholder who wishes to exercise his or her dissenter's rights must either vote against adoption of the agreement, abstain or not vote in person or by proxy. Written objection at this time may not be required from any shareholder to whom Welch Allyn did not give proper notice of the special meeting of Welch Allyn shareholders contemplated by this proxy statement/prospectus.

A holder of Welch Allyn common stock may not dissent as to less than all Welch Allyn common stock held of record that he or she owns beneficially. A nominee or fiduciary may not dissent on behalf of any beneficial owner of Welch Allyn common stock as to less than all Welch Allyn common stock of such owner held of record by the nominee or fiduciary.

All written objections to the merger and notices of election to dissent should be addressed to:

Welch Allyn Holdings, Inc.
4341 State Street Road
Skaneateles Falls, NY 13153
Attention: Gregory D. Porter

If the agreement is adopted by holders of Welch Allyn common stock, within ten days after such approval, Welch Allyn will give written notice of the approval by registered mail to each holder of Welch Allyn common stock who filed a timely written objection or from whom objection was not required, except for any shareholder who voted in favor of adoption of the merger agreement. Any holder of Welch Allyn common stock from whom objection was not required and who elects to dissent must file with Welch Allyn, within 20 days after the giving of notice to him or her, a written notice of election to dissent, stating his or her name and residence address, the amount of Welch Allyn common stock as to which he or she dissents and a demand for payment of the fair value for his or her Welch Allyn common stock.

Either at the time of filing of the notice of election to dissent or within one month thereafter, a dissenting Welch Allyn shareholder must submit the certificates representing his or her dissenting Welch Allyn shares to Welch Allyn. Welch Allyn shall note conspicuously on the certificates that a notice of election has been filed and will then return the certificates to the shareholder. Any Welch Allyn shareholder who fails to submit his or her certificates for notation within the required time shall, at the option of Welch Allyn upon written notice to such Welch Allyn shareholder within 45 days from the date of filing such notice of election to dissent, lose his or her dissenter's rights unless a court, for good cause shown, otherwise directs.

Within 15 days after the expiration of the period within which Welch Allyn shareholders may file their notices of election to dissent, or within 15 days after the completion of the merger, whichever is later (but in no case later than 90 days after Welch Allyn shareholders adopt the agreement), Welch Allyn will make a written offer by registered mail to each Welch Allyn shareholder who has filed a notice of election, to pay for his or her dissenting shares at a specified price, which Welch Allyn considers to be their fair value. If the merger has occurred, Welch Allyn must accompany the offer by an advance payment to each shareholder who has submitted his or her stock certificates of an amount equal to 80% of the amount of the offer. Acceptance of such payment does not constitute a waiver of any dissenters' rights. The offer must be made at the same price per share to all the dissenting Welch Allyn shareholders. If, within 30 days after the making of an offer, Welch Allyn and any dissenting Welch Allyn shareholders agree on the price to be paid for dissenting shares, the balance of payment for the shares must be made within 60 days after the making of the offer or the completion of the merger, whichever is later, and upon surrender of the certificates representing such Welch Allyn shares.

If Welch Allyn fails to make an offer to dissenting Welch Allyn shareholders within the 15-day period described above, or if it makes the offer and any dissenting Welch Allyn shareholder fails to agree with Welch Allyn within 30 days thereafter upon the price to be paid for his or her shares, Welch

Allyn is required, within 20 days after the expiration of whichever is the applicable of the two periods, to institute a special proceeding in the supreme court in the judicial district in which the office of Welch Allyn is located to determine the rights of dissenting Welch Allyn shareholders and to fix the fair value of their shares. If Welch Allyn fails to institute a proceeding within the 20-day period, any dissenting shareholder may institute a proceeding for the same purpose not later than 30 days after the expiration of the 20-day period. If a dissenting shareholder does not institute a proceeding within the 30-day period, all dissenters' rights are lost unless the court, for good cause shown, otherwise directs.

During each proceeding, the court will determine whether each dissenting shareholder is entitled to receive payment for his or her shares and, if so, will fix the value of such shares as of the close of business on the day prior to the date Welch Allyn shareholders voted to adopt the agreement, taking into consideration the nature of the transaction giving rise to the shareholder's right to receive payment for his or her dissenting shares and its effects on Welch Allyn and its shareholders, the concepts and methods then customary in relevant securities and financial markets for determining the fair value of shares of a corporation engaging in a similar transaction under comparable circumstances and all other relevant factors. The court shall determine the fair value of the shares without a jury and without referral to an appraiser or referee. The court will also award interest on such amount to be paid from the completion of the merger to the date of payment at such rate as the court finds equitable, taking into account all relevant factors, including the rate of interest which Welch Allyn would have had to pay to borrow money during the pendency of the proceeding, unless the court finds that a Welch Allyn shareholder's refusal to accept Welch Allyn's offer of payment was arbitrary, vexatious or otherwise not in good faith, in which case no interest will be awarded. Each party to such proceeding will bear its own costs and expenses unless the court finds that the Welch Allyn shareholder's refusal to accept Welch Allyn's offer was arbitrary, vexatious or otherwise not in good faith, in which case Welch Allyn's costs may, in the discretion of the court, be assessed against any or all dissenting Welch Allyn shareholders who are parties to such proceeding. The court, in its discretion, may also apportion or assess any part of the dissenting Welch Allyn shareholder's costs against Welch Allyn if it finds that the fair value of the shares as determined materially exceeds the amount which Welch Allyn offered to pay, or that no offer or advance payment was made by Welch Allyn, or that Welch Allyn failed to institute such special proceeding within the specified period, or that the action of Welch Allyn in complying with its obligations under Section 623 was arbitrary, vexatious or otherwise not in good faith. Within 60 days following the final determination of the proceeding, Welch Allyn shall pay to each dissenting Welch Allyn shareholder the amount found to be due him or her, upon the shareholder's surrender of all certificates representing dissenting shares.

The enforcement by a Welch Allyn shareholder of his or her right to receive payment for shares in accordance with Section 623 excludes the enforcement by such shareholder of any other right to which he or she might otherwise be entitled by virtue of his or her ownership of shares (unless the shareholder withdraws his or her notice of election or the merger is abandoned), except that the shareholder will retain the right to bring or maintain an appropriate action to obtain relief on the grounds that the merger will be or is unlawful or fraudulent as to him or her. A Welch Allyn shareholder's notice of election may be withdrawn at any time prior to his or her acceptance in writing of an offer to purchase his or her dissenting shares by Welch Allyn, but no withdrawal may be made later than 60 days from the completion of the merger (unless Welch Allyn failed to make a timely offer, in which case a withdrawal may be made no later than 60 days after such offer is made) without the written consent of Welch Allyn. In order for a withdrawal of a Welch Allyn shareholder's notice of election to be effective, it must be accompanied by a return to Welch Allyn of any advance payment made to such shareholder.

If the merger is approved by the requisite vote of the shareholders of Welch Allyn at the special meeting, then following the closing of merger, Hill-Rom will assume the obligations of Welch Allyn under Section 623.

Restrictions on Sales of Shares of Hill-Rom Common Stock Received in the Merger

The shares of Hill-Rom common stock to be issued in connection with the merger will be freely transferable under the Securities Act and the Exchange Act, except for shares issued to any shareholder who may be deemed to be an "affiliate" of Hill-Rom for purposes of Rule 144 under the Securities Act. Persons who may be deemed to be affiliates include individuals or entities that control, are controlled by, or are under the common control with Hill-Rom and may include the executive officers, directors and significant shareholders of Hill-Rom. Material United States Federal Income Tax Consequences of the Transaction

The following discussion is a summary of the material United States federal income tax consequences to the holders of shares of Welch Allyn common stock as a result of the merger. The following discussion is based on the Internal Revenue Code of 1986, as amended (the "Code"), laws, regulations, rulings and decisions in effect on the date hereof, all of which are subject to change, possibly with retroactive effect, which could result in United States federal income tax consequences different from those described below. The discussion is not binding on the Internal Revenue Service (the "IRS") or a court and there are no assurances that the tax consequences described in this discussion will not be challenged by the IRS or will be sustained by a court if challenged by the IRS. No ruling has been or will be sought from the IRS, and no opinion of counsel has been or will be rendered, as to the tax consequences of the merger.

The following discussion addresses only the United States federal income tax consequences to holders of Welch Allyn common stock who hold their shares as capital assets. The discussion does not address all of the United States federal income tax consequences that may be relevant to particular holders of Welch Allyn common stock in light of their individual circumstances. For example, the discussion does not address taxpayers that may be subject to the alternative minimum tax provisions. Further, the discussion of income tax rates only addresses holders that are subject to the highest United States federal income tax rates applicable to the character of income recognized.

This discussion also does not address the tax consequences to holders of Welch Allyn common stock who are subject to special rules, including, without limitation:

banks, insurance companies, and other financial institutions, mutual funds,

traders,

tax-exempt organizations, partnerships and other pass through entities, dealers in securities or commodities, expatriates,

non-United States holders, persons who hold their shares as or in a hedge against currency risk,

In addition, this discussion does not address the tax consequences to holders of shares of Welch Allyn common stock under any state, local or foreign tax laws and does not address any non-income tax consequences such as estate or gift tax consequences.

If an entity taxed as a partnership for United States federal income tax purposes holds shares of Welch Allyn common stock, the United States federal income tax consequences of a partner will generally depend on the activities of the partnership and the status of the partner. If you are a partner in a partnership (or entity taxed as a partnership for United States federal income tax purposes) holding shares of Welch Allyn common stock, you should consult your own tax advisor to determine the tax consequences of the exchange of Welch Allyn common stock pursuant to the merger.

Tax Consequences to Holders of Welch Allyn Common Stock as a Result of the Merger

General

Holders of shares of Welch Allyn common stock who exchange such shares for merger consideration, including the rights to the escrow amount, in the merger will have the following United States federal income tax consequences:

Each such holder of shares of Welch Allyn common stock will realize gain or loss in an amount equal to the difference between (i) the amount of consideration received pursuant to the merger (including the sum of cash received, the fair market value (as of the effective time of the merger) of the shares of Hill-Rom common stock received and the value of the right to receive payments pursuant to the escrow that will not be treated as interest) and (ii) the holder's adjusted tax basis in the shares exchanged therefor. The holder will have a tax basis in the shares of Hill-Rom common stock received equal to the fair market value (as of the effective time of the merger) of such stock.

Such gain or loss will be long-term capital gain or loss if the shares of Welch Allyn common stock exchanged in the merger were held for more than one year as of the Closing Date and will be short-term capital gain or loss if the shares of Welch Allyn common stock were held for a shorter period.

Although such gain or loss realized will be capital gain or loss, a portion of the payments of the escrow amount will be treated as interest income and taxed at ordinary income tax rates as discussed below under the heading " Escrow Amount Interest."

The taxable year in which a holder of shares of Welch Allyn common stock recognizes such capital gain or loss depends on certain rules, including the installment sales rules, which are discussed below under the heading " Escrow Amount Installment Sale Rules."

Taxation of Capital Gains or Losses

Capital gains and losses recognized on the exchange of Welch Allyn common stock pursuant to the merger have the following United States federal income tax consequences:

For noncorporate taxpayers, short-term capital gains are currently taxed at a rate of 39.6% and long-term capital gains are currently taxed at a preferential rate of 20%.

Table of Contents

Additionally, a net investment income tax ("NIIT") is imposed on investment income, including interest, dividends and capital gains. The NIIT applies at a rate of 3.8% to the net investment income of individuals, estates and certain trusts that have income above the statutory threshold amounts. Generally, an individual will be subject to the NIIT if he or she has adjusted gross income over $200,000 (single) or $250,000 (married filing jointly).

For corporate taxpayers, capital gains are taxed at the ordinary corporate income tax rate, which currently have a maximum rate of 35%.

The use of capital losses is restricted and, in general, may only be used to offset capital gains. However, individuals may deduct up to $3,000 of capital losses in excess of capital gains. Any excess capital losses may be carried over to and deducted in other taxable years subject to certain limitations.

Escrow Amount Interest

A portion of the payment of the escrow amount will be treated as interest income for United States federal income tax purposes. The portion of such payment that constitutes interest income is taxed at the ordinary income tax rate. Such interest will be computed based on the appropriate applicable federal rate. For reference, the applicable federal rate in effect as of August 2015 with respect to obligations with maturities of 3 years or less is 0.48%. As further described above, the portion of such payment that constitutes interest income will be subject to the NIIT.

Escrow Amount Installment Sale Rules

A holder of shares of Welch Allyn common stock who realizes gain on the exchange of his or her shares in the merger may report the gain attributable to the escrow amount (as well as any other amounts, if any, received after the end of the taxable year that includes the Closing Date) under the installment sale rules. Under those rules, since the maximum amount that a holder could receive with respect to the merger (taking into account the final determination of net working capital and any other amounts that will not be determinable at the Closing) can be determined as of the end of the taxable year in which the Closing occurs, the holder's adjusted tax basis in his shares of Welch Allyn common stock will be allocated proportionally among each payment, including payments of the escrow amount, based on the maximum amount that the holder could receive under each separate payment (other than amounts characterized as interest). To the extent a holder receives a payment from the escrow amount or any other payment after the year of the Closing, the holder will recognize capital gain in the year of receipt to the extent the payment (which is not treated as interest) exceeds the adjusted tax basis allocated to such payment.

Each holder of shares of Welch Allyn common stock may affirmatively elect to not use the installment sale rules. In such event, or if the holder of shares of Welch Allyn common stock realizes a loss with respect to such holder's shares as a result of the merger or is not otherwise permitted to utilize the installment sale rules, the holder recognizes gain or loss in the taxable year of the merger equal to the difference between the amount realized (including the value of the right to receive escrow amount) and the holder's tax basis in his or her shares. In that event, the holder of shares of Welch Allyn common stock will recognize gain or loss in one or more subsequent taxable years to the extent the amounts the holder actually receives with respect to the escrow amount (and not treated as interest) differs from the amount used to determine the amount of gain or loss recognized by the holder in the taxable year that included the Closing Date.

Under Section 453A of the Code, additional annual interest charges will be imposed each year on the portion of a holder's tax liability that is deferred by the installment method in connection with sales of any property (including Welch Allyn common stock) with a sales price greater than $150,000, to the extent that the aggregate face amount of installment receivables that arise from all such sales in excess of $150,000 by the holder (including rights to the escrow amount) exceeds $5 million (provided such receivables remain outstanding as of the close of such year).

Each holder of shares of Welch Allyn common stock should consult with his, her or its tax advisor regarding the application of the installment sale rules, including the tax consequences if the actual payment of the escrow amount received is less than the adjusted tax basis allocated to such payment and the potential for having to pay interest to the IRS on any gain deferred under Section 453A. Each holder of shares of Welch Allyn common stock should also consult with his, her or its tax advisor regarding the advisability of electing out of the installment sales rules and the tax consequences if such election is made or if the installment sale rules do not apply.

Exercise of Dissenters' Appraisal Rights

The discussion under the headings "Tax Consequences to Holders of Welch Allyn Common Stock as a Result of the Merger" do not apply to holders of shares of Welch Allyn common stock who exercise dissenters' appraisal rights. A holder of shares of Welch Allyn common stock who exercises dissenter's appraisal rights with respect to the merger and receives consideration in exchange for the shares will recognize gain or loss equal to the difference between (i) the value of consideration received in exchange for the shares and (ii) the holder's adjusted tax basis in the shares exchanged therefor. Such gain or loss will be long-term capital gain or loss if the shares exchanged were held for more than one year as of the closing and will be short-term capital gain or loss if the shares were held for a shorter period. Please see the discussion under the heading "Tax Consequences to Holders of Welch Allyn Common Stock as a Result of the Merger Taxation of Capital Gains or Losses" as to the United States federal income tax treatment of capital gains and losses.

Backup Withholding

Certain noncorporate holders of shares of Welch Allyn common stock may be subject to backup withholding, which is currently at a rate of 28%, including payments under the escrow amount, received pursuant to the merger. Backup withholding will not apply, however, to a holder who (i) furnishes a correct taxpayer identification number and certifies that the holder is not subject to backup withholding on IRS Form W-9 or a substantially similar form or (ii) is otherwise exempt from backup withholding. A holder who does not provide a correct taxpayer identification number on IRS Form W-9 or a substantially similar form is subject to penalties imposed by the IRS. Backup withholding is not an additional tax and may be refunded or credited against the holder's United States federal income tax liability, provided that the holder furnishes the required information to the IRS.

Table of Contents

complied with the provisions of Sections 623 and 910 of the NYBCL as to dissenters' rights, which shares are referred to as dissenting shares in this statement/prospectus, and any shares of Welch Allyn common stock owned by Hill-Rom, Merger Sub or any subsidiary of Hill-Rom) will be cancelled and automatically converted into the right to receive consideration consisting of a combination of cash and shares of Hill-Rom common stock, which consideration is referred to as the merger consideration or the per share merger consideration in this proxy statement/prospectus.

Upon the terms and subject to the conditions set forth in the merger agreement and subject to certain assumptions and adjustments described more fully in this proxy statement/prospectus, holders of outstanding shares of Welch Allyn common stock will receive in the aggregate approximately:

$1,625,000,000, plus the estimated cash and cash equivalents of Welch Allyn as of the close of business on the day immediately preceding the closing date of the merger minus the amount of any cash dividends or distributions to holders of Welch Allyn common stock on the closing date of the merger prior to the closing of the merger, minus the estimated indebtedness (as defined in the merger agreement) of Welch Allyn outstanding as of immediately prior to the closing of the merger, minus certain other adjustments (as defined in the merger agreement) as of immediately prior to the closing of the merger, including the amount of certain fees, costs and expenses of Welch Allyn and the shareholder representative, plus the estimated net working capital as of the close of business on the day immediately preceding the date of the closing of the merger, minus $56,100,100 (which is the target net working capital amount), minus the escrow amount of $75,000,000, minus certain change in control payments (as defined in the merger agreement), including LTIP cash incentive payments, minus payments to the holders of Welch Allyn phantom share appreciation rights and phantom share units (other than any portion of such payments deposited in the escrow account), which total is referred to as the closing cash consideration in this proxy statement/prospectus; and

8,133,722 shares of Hill-Rom common stock, which are referred to as the closing stock consideration in this proxy statement/prospectus.

$75,000,000 of the cash consideration otherwise deliverable to holders of outstanding shares of Welch Allyn common stock, phantom share appreciation rights and phantom share units will be withheld pro rata from such holders and deposited in an escrow account to secure any post-closing adjustment to the closing cash consideration and certain indemnification obligations of such holders pursuant to the merger agreement. These funds will be released by the escrow agent in accordance with the terms set forth in the escrow agreement. For more information regarding the adjustments and the amounts withheld under the escrow agreement, see the sections entitled " Merger Consideration Adjustments" and " Escrow" beginning on pages 86 and 85, respectively, and the merger agreement attached to this proxy statement/prospectus as Annex A. The precise amount of the closing cash consideration and the resulting per share closing cash consideration will not be known until shortly before the effective time of the merger and, accordingly, will not be known at the time of the special meeting. The closing cash consideration also will be subject to certain adjustments following the closing of the merger.

The merger consideration will be allocated among Welch Allyn shareholders. The precise amount of the merger consideration to be paid to each Welch Allyn shareholder will vary, depending on the amount of the cash consideration and the number of shares of Welch Allyn common stock outstanding immediately prior to the effective time of the merger. See "The Merger Effects of the Merger; Merger Consideration" for an illustrative calculation of the per share consideration that would have been payable to Welch Allyn shareholders had the merger been consummated on July 31, 2015.

Hill-Rom will not issue fractional shares of Hill-Rom common stock in the merger. As a result, Welch Allyn shareholders will receive cash for any fractional share of Hill-Rom common stock that they would otherwise be entitled to receive in the merger. After the merger is completed, Welch Allyn shareholders will have only the right to receive the merger consideration, any cash in lieu of such fractional shares of Hill-Rom common stock and any dividends or other distributions with respect to shares of Hill-Rom common stock and with a record date occurring after the effective time of the merger or, in the case of Welch Allyn shareholders that properly exercise and perfect dissenters' rights, the right to receive the fair market value for such shares, and will no longer have any rights as Welch Allyn shareholders, including voting or other rights.

If a change in the outstanding shares of capital stock of Hill-Rom occurs prior to the effective time of the merger by reason of any reclassification, recapitalization, stock split or combination, exchange or readjustment of shares, stock dividend or any similar event, any number or amount contained in the merger agreement which is based on the price of Hill-Rom common stock or the number of shares of Hill-Rom common stock will be appropriately adjusted to reflect such reclassification, recapitalization, stock split or combination, exchange or readjustment of shares, stock dividend or any similar event and to provide to the holders of Welch Allyn common stock as of immediately prior to the effective time of the merger the same economic effect as contemplated by the merger agreement prior to such event. Unless a change in the outstanding shares of capital stock of Hill-Rom occurs prior to the effective time of the merger by reason of any reclassification, recapitalization, stock split or combination, exchange or readjustment of shares, stock dividend or any similar event, in no event will Hill-Rom be obligated to issue any shares of Hill-Rom common stock in excess of the aggregate stock consideration in connection with the merger.

Escrow

At the closing, the escrow amount of $75,000,000 in cash of the closing cash consideration otherwise deliverable to Welch Allyn shareholders, phantom share appreciation rights and phantom share units following the closing of the merger will be withheld pro rata from such holders and deposited in an escrow account to secure any adjustment to the closing merger consideration and certain indemnification obligations of such holders pursuant to the merger agreement. The escrow amount will be held by Citizens Bank, N.A., as the escrow agent, pursuant to an escrow agreement to be entered into by Hill-Rom, Welch Allyn, the shareholder representative and the escrow agent.

Under the terms of the merger agreement, a net adjustment to the closing merger consideration will be calculated after the closing of the merger. The amount of the net adjustment may be positive or negative, and the amount of the net adjustment as finally determined under the terms of the merger agreement is referred to as the net adjustment amount in this proxy statement/prospectus. See " Merger Consideration Adjustments" below. If the net adjustment amount is positive, Hill-Rom must pay the net adjustment amount to the escrow agent for deposit into the escrow account within five business days after the net adjustment amount is finally determined under the merger agreement. The escrow agent will then be instructed, first, to pay the shareholder representative an amount equal to the expenses incurred by the shareholder representative in performing its duties under the merger agreement, and second, to pay the remaining portion of such net adjustment amount to each person that held Welch Allyn common stock (other than dissenting shares, shares for which share certificates have not been surrendered, and shares owned by Hill-Rom, any subsidiary of Hill-Rom or the surviving corporation) immediately prior to the effective time of the merger and each person that held a Welch Allyn phantom share appreciation right or a phantom share unit immediately prior to the effective time of the merger, with payments allocated pro rata based on the number of shares of Welch Allyn common stock held by the person or the number of phantom shares underlying the person's phantom share appreciation right or phantom share units, as applicable. If the net adjustment amount is negative, within five business days after the net adjustment is finally determined under the Merger Agreement the escrow agent will be instructed to pay to Hill-Rom an amount equal to the lesser of (i) the absolute value of the net adjustment amount and (ii) the amount then left in the escrow account.

Promptly following the date that is 12 months after the closing of the merger, Hill-Rom must provide to the shareholder representative a written notice setting forth Hill Rom's reasonable and good faith estimate of the maximum aggregate amount of losses to Hill-Rom, Merger Sub and their respective affiliates, officers, directors, employees, shareholders, agents and representatives, for which they would reasonably be expected to be indemnified by the escrow amount under the merger agreement for claims that have been timely asserted under the merger agreement but not resolved, which is referred to in this proxy statement/prospectus as the projected indemnity amount, along with reasonable supporting calculations and documentation. The escrow agent will then pay the amount by which the funds in the indemnity escrow account at such time exceeds the projected indemnity amount to the persons that held Welch Allyn common stock (other than dissenting shares, shares for which share certificates have not been surrendered, and shares owned by Hill-Rom, any subsidiary of Hill-Rom or the surviving corporation) immediately prior to the effective time of the merger and to the persons that held a Welch Allyn phantom share appreciation right or a phantom share unit immediately prior to the effective time of the merger, with payments allocated pro rata based on the number of shares of Welch Allyn common stock held by the person or the number of phantom shares underlying the persons phantom share appreciation right or phantom share units, as applicable. After all claims for indemnification have been resolved, the escrow agent will pay any remaining amount in the indemnification escrow account in the same manner to the persons that held Welch Allyn common stock (other than dissenting shares, shares for which share certificates have not been surrendered, and shares owned by Hill-Rom, any subsidiary of Hill-Rom or the surviving corporation) immediately prior to the effective time of the merger and to the persons that held a Welch Allyn phantom share appreciation right or a phantom share unit immediately prior to the effective time of the merger.

Merger Consideration Adjustments

Closing Adjustment to Merger Consideration

Not less than two business days before the anticipated date of closing the merger, Welch Allyn must deliver to Hill-Rom a good-faith estimate setting forth the following:

The estimated amount of cash and cash equivalents of Welch Allyn as of the close of business on the day immediately preceding the closing of the merger, minus the amount of any cash dividends or distributions to be paid to holders of Welch Allyn common stock on the date of the closing of the merger but prior to the effective time, which is referred to as the estimated cash in this proxy statement/prospectus;

The estimated amount of indebtedness (as defined in the merger agreement) of Welch Allyn outstanding as of immediately prior to the closing of the merger, which is referred to as the estimated indebtedness in the proxy statement/prospectus;

The estimated amount of all unpaid fees and expenses incurred by Welch Allyn prior to the closing of the merger (including financial, accounting and legal advisory fees, other professional fees and expenses), which is referred to as the estimated other adjustments in this proxy statement/prospectus; and

The estimated net working capital as of the close of business on the day immediately preceding the date of the closing of the merger, which is referred to as the estimated net working capital in this proxy statement/prospectus.

The closing cash consideration to be paid by Hill-Rom for distribution to the Welch Allyn shareholders will be equal to:

$1,625,000,000, which is referred to in this proxy statement/prospectus as the base consideration, plus

The estimated cash, minus

Table of Contents

The estimated indebtedness, minus

The estimated other adjustments, plus

The estimated net working capital, minus

The target net working capital, which is equal to $56,100,000, minus

The escrow amount of $75,000,000, minus

The aggregate amount of specified change in control payments (as defined in the merger agreement), including LTIP cash incentive payments (as defined in the merger agreement), payable by Welch Allyn or its subsidiaries as a result of the transactions contemplated in the merger agreement, minus

The amount of payments to holders of Welch Allyn phantom share appreciation rights and phantom share units (other than the portion of any such payments deposited into the escrow account).

For illustration purposes only, if the estimated cash was $30 million, the estimated indebtedness was $4 million, the estimated other adjustments was $20 million, the estimated net working capital was $65 million, the total of all change in control payments and Welch Allyn cash incentive plan payments was $30 million, and the total of all payments to holders of Welch Allyn phantom share appreciation rights and phantom share units (other than the portion of any such payments deposited into the escrow account) was $101 million, the total adjustment to the base consideration would be $191 million and the closing cash consideration would be equal to $1.434 billion.

The closing cash consideration will be allocated among Welch Allyn shareholders. The precise amount of the closing cash consideration to be paid to each Welch Allyn shareholder will vary, depending on the amount of the cash consideration and the number of shares of Welch Allyn common stock outstanding immediately prior to the effective time of the merger.

Post-Closing Adjustment to Merger Consideration

No later than 75 days after the date of the closing of the merger, Hill-Rom must prepare and deliver to the shareholder representative a closing statement setting forth Hill-Rom's calculation of:

The amount of cash and cash equivalents of Welch Allyn as of the close of business on the day immediately preceding the closing of the merger, minus the amount of any cash dividends or distributions paid to holders of Welch Allyn common stock on the date of the closing of the merger but prior to the effective time, which is referred to as the closing cash in this proxy statement/prospectus;

The amount of indebtedness (as defined in the merger agreement) of Welch Allyn outstanding as of immediately prior to the closing of the merger, which is referred to as the closing indebtedness in this proxy statement/prospectus;

The sum of all unpaid fees and expenses incurred by Welch Allyn on or prior to the closing of the merger (including financial, accounting and legal advisory fees, other professional fees and expenses), which is referred to as the closing other adjustment in this proxy statement/prospectus; and

The net working capital of Welch Allyn as of the close of business on the day immediately preceding the date of the closing of the merger, which is referred to as the closing net working capital in this proxy statement/prospectus.

If the shareholder representative disagrees with Hill-Rom's calculations set forth on the closing statement, Hill-Rom and the shareholder representative will determine the final calculations through a customary dispute resolution process. The final determinations of the closing cash, closing indebtedness, closing other adjustments and closing working capital then will be used to calculate the net adjustment to the closing merger consideration. The net adjustment amount will be the amount equal to:

The amount by which the estimated net working capital is less than the closing net working capital as finally determined which is referred to as the final net working capital in this proxy statement/prospectus, minus

The amount by which the estimated net working capital is greater than the final net working capital, plus

The amount by which the estimated cash is less than the closing cash as finally determined, which is referred to as the final cash in this proxy statement/prospectus, minus

The amount by which the estimated cash is greater than the final cash, minus

The amount by which the estimated indebtedness is less than the closing indebtedness as finally determined, which is referred to as the final indebtedness in this proxy statement/prospectus, plus

The amount by which the estimated indebtedness is greater than the final indebtedness, minus

The amount by which the estimated other adjustments is less than the closing other adjustments as finally determined, which is referred to as the final other adjustments in this proxy statement/prospectus, plus

The amount by which the estimated other adjustments is greater than the final other adjustments.

For illustration purposes only, if the estimated net working capital was $65 million, the estimated cash was $30 million, the estimated indebtedness was $4 million, the estimated other adjustments was $20 million, the final net working capital was $70 million, the final cash was $15 million, the final indebtedness was $2 million, and the final other adjustments was $25 million, the net adjustment amount would be $(13) million.

If the net adjustment amount is positive, Hill-Rom must pay the net adjustment amount to the escrow agent for deposit into the escrow account within five business days after the net adjustment amount is finally determined under the merger agreement as described above under " Escrow." If the net adjustment amount is negative, the escrow agent will be instructed to pay to Hill-Rom an amount equal to the lesser of (i) the absolute value of the net adjustment amount and (ii) the amount then left in the escrow account, as described above under " Escrow."

Treatment of PHASARs, PSU Awards and LTIP Cash Incentive Awards

At the effective time of the merger:

each outstanding PHASAR, whether vested or unvested, will be cancelled, with the holder of such PHASAR becoming entitled to receive an amount in cash equal to the product of (a) the number of Phantom Shares subject to such PHASAR as of immediately prior to the effective time of the merger and (b) the excess, if any, or the Phantom Merger Consideration (divided by 20 in the case of any PHASAR granted prior to January 1, 2012) over the grant price of such PHASAR, less any required withholding taxes;

each outstanding PSU Award will be cancelled, with the holder of such PSU Award becoming entitled to receive an amount in cash equal to the product of (a) the number of Phantom Shares subject to such PSU Award as of immediately prior to the effective time of the merger and (b) the Phantom Merger Consideration (divided by 20 in the case of any PSU Award granted prior to January 1, 2012), less any required withholding taxes; and

each outstanding LTIP Cash Incentive Award will be cancelled, with the holder of such LTIP Cash Incentive Award becoming entitled to receive an amount in cash equal to the total cash amount subject to such LTIP Cash Incentive Award, assuming satisfaction of performance goals at target levels, less any required withholding taxes.

If Welch Allyn, on or prior to the effective time of the merger, declares any dividends or other distributions directly or indirectly on shares of Welch Allyn common stock that are paid or set-aside on or following June 16, 2015, then the Phantom Merger Consideration as defined above will be increased by the aggregate per share amount of such dividends or other distributions.

In addition, $75,000,000 of the cash consideration otherwise deliverable to holders of outstanding shares of Welch Allyn common stock, PHASARs and PSU Awards will be withheld pro rata from such holders and deposited in an escrow account to secure any post-closing adjustment to the closing cash consideration and certain indemnification obligations of such holders pursuant to the merger agreement. These funds will be released by the escrow agent in accordance with the terms set forth in the escrow agreement. Pursuant to the terms of the LTIP Cash Incentive Awards and the merger agreement, no portion of the cash amount each individual receives in respect of his or her LTIP Cash Incentive Awards will be withheld under the escrow agreement.

Exchange Procedures

Prior to the effective time of the merger, Hill-Rom will select an exchange agent reasonably satisfactory to the shareholder representative. The exchange agent will provide to each Welch Allyn shareholder of record a letter of transmittal and instructions for surrendering Welch Allyn stock certificates in exchange for the right to receive the merger consideration.

Immediately following the effective time of the merger, Hill-Rom will provide to the exchange agent all the cash and Hill-Rom common stock necessary for the exchange agent to pay the per share closing merger consideration to Welch Allyn shareholders. Hill-Rom will also deposit with the exchange agent, from time to time as needed, any cash payable as merger consideration in lieu of fractional shares of Hill-Rom common stock.

Upon surrender to the exchange agent of a Welch Allyn stock certificate, a duly executed letter of transmittal completed in accordance with the instructions provided by the exchange agent and any other documents reasonably required by the exchange agent, the holder surrendering the stock certificate will be entitled to receive (i) cash in an amount equal to the per share closing cash consideration multiplied by the number of shares of Welch Allyn common stock represented by the surrendered stock certificate, (ii) the number of whole shares of Hill-Rom common stock equal to the per share stock consideration multiplied by the number of shares of Welch Allyn common stock represented by the surrendered stock certificate, and (iii) any cash payable in lieu of fractional shares of Hill-Rom common stock that the holder surrendering the stock certificate is entitled to receive under the merger agreement. In addition, following the surrender of any stock certificate, the holder of the shares of Hill-Rom common stock issued in exchange for the surrendered certificate will be entitled to receive the amount of dividends, if any, with a record date after the effective time of the merger previously paid with respect to the Hill-Rom common stock and, on the appropriate payment date, the amount of any declared but unpaid dividends with respect to the Hill-Rom common stock with a record date after the effective time of the merger but prior to the date of surrender of the certificate.

After the effective time of the merger, holders of Welch Allyn stock certificates will cease to have any rights with respect to shares of Welch Allyn common stock except the right to receive the cash and shares of Hill-Rom common stock provided for in the merger agreement in accordance with the procedures set forth in the merger agreement or, in the case of Welch Allyn shareholders that properly exercise and perfect dissenters' rights, the right to receive the fair market value for such shares. After the effective time of the merger, Welch Allyn will not register any transfers of Welch Allyn common stock.

Welch Allyn shareholders should not send in their Welch Allyn stock certificates until they receive a letter of transmittal from the exchange agent with instructions for the surrender of Welch Allyn stock certificates.

Distributions with Respect to Unexchanged Shares

Welch Allyn shareholders are entitled to receive any dividends or other distributions with respect to shares of Hill-Rom common stock with a record date occurring after the effective time of the merger, but only after such holder has surrendered its Welch Allyn common stock certificates. The amount of any dividends or other distributions, if any, with respect to Hill-Rom common stock with a record date after the effective time of the merger will be paid (i) at the time of surrender of the Welch Allyn common stock certificates, if the payment date is on or prior to the date of surrender and such dividend or other distribution payable in respect of such shares of Welch Allyn common stock has not been previously paid, or (ii) on the appropriate payment date, if the payment date is subsequent to such surrender.

Any portion of the merger consideration that remains undistributed six months after the effective time of the merger will be delivered to the surviving corporation upon demand. Any holder of a Welch Allyn stock certificate that was outstanding immediately prior to the effective time and that has not been surrendered to the exchange agent will be required thereafter to look to the surviving corporation for payment of its claim to merger consideration. No interest will be paid or will accrue on any cash payment to holders of unsurrendered Welch Allyn stock certificates under the merger agreement.

Lost, Stolen and Destroyed Certificates

If a Welch Allyn stock certificate has been lost, stolen or destroyed, the holder of such certificate must deliver an affidavit of that fact and, if required by Hill-Rom, must provide an indemnity bond (in such reasonable amount as Hill-Rom may direct) prior to receiving any merger consideration, including any cash in lieu of fractional shares and any dividends or other distributions to which such holder may be entitled.

Dissenting Shares

Welch Allyn shareholders who do not vote in favor of the adoption of the merger agreement and who otherwise comply with the applicable provisions of the NYBCL will be entitled to dissent from the merger and obtain payment of the fair value of their shares if the merger is completed. The shares of Welch Allyn common stock held by holders who have properly exercised dissenters' rights will not be converted into the right to receive the merger consideration discussed above, but will instead be entitled to such rights as are granted by Sections 623 and 910 of the NYBCL, copies of which are attached to this proxy statement/prospectus as Annex C. See the sections titled "The Merger Effects of the Merger; Merger Consideration" and "The Merger Dissenters' Rights" beginning on pages 51 and 76, respectively, of this proxy statement/prospectus.

Withholding Rights

Each of Hill-Rom, the surviving corporation, and the exchange agent will be entitled to deduct or withhold, from any of the merger consideration otherwise payable to any person pursuant to the merger agreement such amounts as it is required to deduct and withhold with respect to all of the merger consideration payable to such person under any provision of federal, state, local or foreign tax law. All amounts so deducted or withheld and paid over to the applicable governmental authority will be treated for all purposes of the merger agreement as having been paid to the holder of shares of

Welch Allyn common stock or Welch Allyn phantom equity awards, as applicable, in respect of which such deduction and withholding was made. Before making any deduction and withholding with respect to a holder of shares of Welch Allyn common stock, the paying party will give notice of its intention to make such deduction and withholding at least 10 days prior to the date of payment.

Exclusivity

Welch Allyn has agreed that it will immediately cease existing discussions or negotiations with any person other than Hill-Rom with respect to an acquisition transaction. Welch Allyn also has agreed that neither it nor any of its affiliates, directors, officers, employees, representatives or agents will, directly or indirectly:

solicit, initiate, facilitate or knowingly encourage inquiries or the making of any proposal with respect to an acquisition transaction; negotiate or otherwise facilitate, encourage, solicit, initiate or engage in discussions, negotiations or submissions of proposals or offers with any person with respect to any acquisition transaction;

As used in this proxy statement/prospectus, the term "acquisition transaction" means any merger, consolidation, or other business combination involving Welch Allyn or any of its subsidiaries or the acquisition of all or any amount of the assets or the capital stock of the Welch Allyn or any of its subsidiaries other than as permitted or contemplated by the merger agreement.

Welch Allyn Shareholder Approval

seek to obtain the approval of the Welch Allyn shareholders of the merger.

the transactions contemplated by the merger agreement and to fully carry out the purposes of the merger agreement. Notwithstanding the foregoing, Hill-Rom is not required to take any action that, individually or in the aggregate, would or would reasonably be expected to result (after giving effect to any reasonably expected proceeds of any divestiture or sale of assets) in a material adverse effect (as defined in the merger agreement) on Welch Allyn, Welch Allyn's subsidiaries, Hill-Rom and Hill-Rom's subsidiaries, taken as a whole, combined in the manner intended by Welch Allyn and Hill-Rom.

Director and Officer Indemnification and Insurance

Hill-Rom has agreed, to the fullest extent permitted by law, to cause the surviving corporation to honor all of Welch Allyn's obligations to indemnify the current and former directors, officers and employees of Welch Allyn against losses, claims, taxes, damages, liabilities, fees and expenses, judgments, fines and amounts paid in settlement arising from, or relating to, or otherwise in respect of actions or omissions by such directors, officers and employees occurring prior to the effective time of the merger to the extent that such obligations of Welch Allyn existed on the date of the merger agreement, and such obligation will continue in full force and effect until the expiration of the applicable statute of limitations with respect to any claims against such directors, officers and employees arising out of such acts or omissions. Additionally, prior to the effective time of the merger, Welch Allyn will, and if Welch Allyn is unable prior to the effective time of the merger, Hill-Rom will cause the surviving corporation as of the effective time of the merger to, obtain and fully pay the premium (with such payment of premium to be deemed an other adjustment (as defined in the merger agreement) if paid by the surviving corporation) for a "tail" policy extension of the directors' and officers' insurance policies, for a claims reporting or discovery period of at least six years from and after the effective time of the merger with respect to any claim related to any period of time at or prior to the effective time with terms, conditions, retentions and limits of liability that are not less advantageous than the coverage provided under Welch Allyn's existing policies, with respect to any actual or alleged error, misstatement, misleading statement, act, omission, neglect, breach of duty or any matter claimed against a director, officer or employee of Welch Allyn or any subsidiary of Welch Allyn by reason of him or her serving in such capacity that existed or occurred at or prior to the effective time of the merger (including in connection with the merger agreement or the transactions or actions contemplated thereby). If Welch Allyn, the surviving corporation and Hill-Rom for any reason fail to obtain such "tail" insurance policies as of the effective time of the merger, the surviving corporation will continue to maintain in effect for a period of at least six years from the effective time of the merger the directors' and officers' insurance policies, the cost of which will be deemed an other adjustment (as defined in the merger agreement), with respect to claims arising from or related to facts or events which occurred on or before the effective time of the merger.

Employee Matters

The merger agreement provides that, for two years following the effective time of the merger, the Welch Allyn Employees will receive (i) base salaries, base wages and annual cash bonus opportunities (excluding defined benefit pension, nonqualified retirement, equity, phantom equity and long-term incentive compensation benefits) that are at least equal to the base salaries, base wages and annual cash bonus opportunities provided to such Welch Allyn Employees immediately prior to the effective time of the merger, (ii) severance benefits that are generally at least equal to the severance benefits provided by Welch Allyn immediately prior to the effective time of the merger, and (iii) employee benefit plans and arrangements (other than base salary, base wages, annual bonus opportunities, long-term incentive compensation, equity, phantom equity and severance benefits) that are no less favorable to such arrangements offered to Welch Allyn Employees immediately prior to the effective time of the merger.

Twelve executives of Welch Allyn who are Welch Allyn Employees will also receive, for a period of two years after the effective time of the merger, equity, equity-based or phantom equity awards under Hill-Rom's incentive plans that are substantially comparable in value to the aggregate equity, phantom equity and long-term incentive compensation grants that they received with respect to the 2015 fiscal year prior to the effective time of the merger, excluding any one-time retention incentives and change-in-control bonuses. In addition, Hill-Rom has agreed to honor Welch Allyn's obligations under Welch Allyn's benefit plans and programs in accordance with their terms as in effect immediately prior to the effective time of the merger.

Hill-Rom will also recognize that four participants in Welch Allyn's Executive Severance Plan will, as a result of the transactions contemplated by the merger agreement, be deemed able to voluntarily terminate their employment for "good reason" at any point at least six months after the effective time of the merger (but no later than the second anniversary of the effective time of the merger). Should Hill-Rom amend, modify or terminate a Welch Allyn executive severance plan (including the Executive Severance Plan) without the consent of the participants therein and without adopting a replacement severance plan that is no less favorable to such participants than the applicable Welch Allyn executive severance plan, Hill-Rom will waive and refrain from enforcing any non-compete restrictions to which such participants may be subject as of the effective time of the merger.

For purposes of determining eligibility to participate, vesting and benefit accruals (excluding equity, phantom equity, long-term incentive, early retirement subsidies and benefit accruals under any defined benefit pension plans and schemes) under all employee benefit plans of Hill-Rom or its affiliates, Hill-Rom will give each Welch Allyn Employee full credit for such Welch Allyn Employee's service with Welch Allyn and its affiliates (or any predecessor employer) to the same extent recognized by Welch Allyn or its affiliates immediately prior to the effective time of the merger, except to the extent such recognition would result in duplication of benefits. Subject to certain exceptions, Hill-Rom also will use commercially reasonable efforts to waive any pre-existing condition limitations, exclusions, actively at work requirements and waiting periods under any welfare benefit plans of Hill-Rom or its affiliates in which such Welch Allyn Employees (and their dependents) will be eligible to participate from and after the effective time of the merger, and will use commercially reasonable efforts to recognize the dollar amount of all co-payments, deductibles and similar expenses incurred by each such Welch Allyn Employee (or his or her eligible dependents) under the benefit plans of Welch Allyn during the year in which the merger is effective for purposes of satisfying such year's deductible and co-payment limitations under the relevant welfare benefit plans in which such Welch Allyn Employee (or his or her eligible dependents) will be eligible to participate from and after the effective time of the merger.

The merger agreement further provides that Hill-Rom will pay, in the ordinary course, each Welch Allyn Employee a cash bonus under Welch Allyn's annual incentive plan for the fiscal year in which the merger is effective, of no less than the applicable employee's cash target bonus amount, subject to such Welch Allyn Employee's continued employment with Welch Allyn through the end of the fiscal year in which the merger is effective; provided, however, that if such Welch Allyn Employee's employment is terminated other than for cause, death or disability, or if such Welch Allyn Employee terminates employment for good reason, as defined in and to the extent such employee has good-reason termination rights under the applicable Welch Allyn executive severance plan (including the Executive Severance Plan), then such Welch Allyn Employee will be entitled to receive such bonus payment.

With respect to any Welch Allyn Employee based outside of the United States, Hill-Rom's obligations described above are modified to the extent necessary for Hill-Rom to comply with the requirements of the applicable law where such Welch Allyn Employee is based.

Financing for the Merger

Under the merger agreement, following the effectiveness of the registration statement on Form S-4 of which this proxy statement/prospectus forms a part, Welch Allyn has agreed to allow Hill-Rom and its financing sources a period of 20 consecutive business days (throughout which the registration statement on Form S-4 of which this proxy statement/prospectus forms a part must remain effective or such period shall restart when it becomes effective), which period is referred to as the marketing period in this proxy statement/prospectus, to arrange its debt financing in an amount sufficient to complete the merger. Welch Allyn also has agreed to, and to cause its officers, employees and representatives to, provide Hill-Rom all cooperation reasonably requested that is necessary or reasonably required in connection with Hill-Rom's debt financing.

Other Covenants and Agreements

The merger agreement contains certain other covenants and agreements, including, among others, those relating to:

access by Hill-Rom and its representatives to certain information about Welch Allyn and its subsidiaries during the period prior to the effective time of the merger;

confidentiality and restrictions on making public announcements regarding the merger; obligations of Hill-Rom with respect to certain tax matters; obligations of Welch Allyn with respect to notices required under the NYBCL to be provided to Welch Allyn shareholders; and obligations of Welch Allyn with respect to "golden parachute payments" pursuant to Section 280G of the Code.

Conditions to Completion of the Merger

Conditions to Each Party's Obligations. Each party's obligation to complete the merger is subject to the satisfaction or waiver of the following conditions:

the Welch Allyn shareholder approval has been obtained; and any waiting period (and any extension of such period) applicable to the consummation of the merger under the HSR Act has expired or been terminated and consents, approvals and filings required under foreign antitrust laws, the absence of which would prohibit the consummation of the merger, have been obtained;

no order, decree or ruling issued by an governmental authority or other law promoting the conservation of the merger is in effect;

the registration statement of which this proxy statement/prospectus forms a part has become effective and no stop order suspending such effectiveness has been issued and no proceeding for that purpose has been initiated or threatened and not withdrawn; and the shares of Hill-Rom common stock to be issued to Welch Allyn shareholders in the merger have been approved for listing on the NYSE, subject to official notice of issuance.

Conditions to Hill-Rom's and Merger Sub's Obligations. The obligations of Hill-Rom and Merger Sub to complete the merger are subject to the satisfaction or waiver of the following additional conditions:

representations and warranties that are made as of a specific date, in which case, such representations and warranties must be true and correct in all respects as of that date), other than where the failure of the representations and warranties to be true and correct, individually or in the aggregate, have not had and would not reasonably be expected to have a material adverse effect (as defined in the merger agreement);

Welch Allyn has performed in all material respects all obligations required to be performed by it under the merger agreement prior to the closing of the merger;

since the date of the merger agreement, no event, circumstance, development, condition, occurrence, state of facts, change or effect has occurred or arisen that has had, or would reasonably be expected to have a material adverse effect (as defined in the merger agreement);

Welch Allyn has delivered or caused to be delivered to Hill-Rom a certificate executed by a duly authorized officer of Welch Allyn certifying that the foregoing conditions have been satisfied;

Welch Allyn has delivered to Hill-Rom executed copies of certain other documents; and holders of not more than 10% of the outstanding shares of Welch Allyn common stock have demanded appraisal of their shares of Welch Allyn common stock pursuant to the NYBCL.

Conditions to Welch Allyn's Obligations. The obligation of Welch Allyn to complete the merger is subject to the satisfaction or waiver of the following further conditions:

the representations and warranties of Hill-Rom and Merger Sub in the merger agreement must be true and correct as of the date of the merger agreement and as of the closing of the merger as though made on the closing date of the merger (except those representations and warranties that are made as of a specific date, in which case, such representations and warranties must be true and correct in all respects as of that date), other than where the failure of the representations and warranties to be true and correct, individually or in the aggregate, have not had and would not reasonably be expected to have a material adverse effect (as defined in the merger agreement);

Hill-Rom and Merger Sub have performed in all material respects all obligations required to be performed by them under the merger agreement prior to the closing of the merger; and

Hill-Rom has caused to be delivered to the shareholder representative a certificate executed by a duly authorized officer of Hill-Rom certifying that the foregoing conditions have been satisfied.

Each of Hill-Rom and Welch Allyn may, to the extent permitted by applicable law, waive the conditions to the performance of its respective obligations under the merger agreement and complete the merger even though one or more of these conditions have not been met.

Indemnification

The merger agreement provides that Welch Allyn shareholders will indemnify and hold harmless Hill-Rom and Merger Sub and their respective affiliates, officers, directors, employees, shareholders, agents and representatives to the extent of the escrow amount from and against any and all losses directly arising out of or based upon:

any misrepresentation in or breach of any representation or warranty made by Welch Allyn in the merger agreement;

any breach or nonfulfillment prior to the closing of the merger of any covenant, agreement or other obligation of Welch Allyn set forth in the merger agreement;

consideration paid to holders of dissenting shares exceeding the merger consideration attributable to the dissenting shares, with the amount of any losses limited to the amount of the difference of the consideration paid to the dissenting shares less the merger consideration attributable to the dissenting shares; and all Indemnified Taxes (as defined in the merger agreement).

Solely for purposes of determining the amount of losses associated with any claim for indemnification for any misrepresentation in or breach of any representation or warranty made by Welch Allyn in the merger agreement (and not for purposes of determining any misrepresentation in or breach of any representation or warranty), the representations and warranties set forth in the merger agreement will be deemed to be made as though there were no "material", "in all material respects", "material adverse effect" or other materiality qualifier.

In addition, Hill-Rom will indemnify and hold harmless the shareholder representative, Welch Allyn shareholders or their respective affiliates, officers, directors, employees, shareholders, agents and representatives from and against any and all losses directly arising out of or based upon:

any breach of any representation, warranty, covenant or agreement of Hill-Rom or Merger Sub in the merger agreement; any breach or nonfulfillment of any covenant, agreement or other obligation of Hill-Rom or Merger Sub set forth in the merger agreement; and any breach or nonfulfillment after the closing of the merger of any covenant, agreement or other obligation of the surviving company set forth in the merger agreement;

The indemnification obligations of Welch Allyn shareholders, Hill-Rom and Merger Sub under the merger agreement are subject to limitations, including:

the representations and warranties contained in the merger agreement (other than those related to tax matters, which do not survive the closing of the merger) and the covenants required to be performed prior to the closing of the merger will survive for a period ending on the date that is 12 months following the closing date;

the indemnification obligations of Welch Allyn shareholders described in this section are to be paid solely and exclusively from the escrow amount, which is an amount equal to $75,000,000;

except with respect to (a) any loss arising out of any breach of certain fundamental representations and warranties, or (b) fraudulent misrepresentations, no losses from a single indemnification claim or aggregated claims arising out of the same facts events or circumstances will be paid by an indemnifying party unless the amount of the losses from the claim or aggregated claims exceed $250,000;

except with respect to (a) any loss arising out of any breach of certain fundamental representations and warranties, or (b) fraudulent misrepresentations, no indemnification claims for losses under the merger agreement will be paid by an indemnifying party unless the aggregate amount of the losses that would otherwise be payable by that party exceeds $20 million, in which case the indemnified party will be entitled to receive only amounts for losses in excess of $20 million;

the amount of losses otherwise recoverable under the indemnification provisions described in the merger will be limited to the amount of any loss that remains after deducting from the loss any insurance proceeds and any indemnity, contribution or other similar cash payment actually received by the indemnified parties from any third party; and in no event will an indemnifying party be liable under the indemnification provisions described in the merger agreement for any punitive, speculative, special, treble or other multiple damages required by statute, law, ordinance, rule, regulation or code.

Termination of the Merger Agreement

The merger agreement may be terminated prior to the closing of the merger only as follows:

Edgar Filing: Hill-Rom Holdings, Inc. - Form S-4/A

by mutual written consent of Hill-Rom and Welch Allyn;

by Hill-Rom or Welch Allyn:

if the merger is not consummated on or before November 30, 2015;

if any governmental authority issues an order, decree or ruling or takes any other action permanently enjoining, restraining or otherwise prohibiting the merger that is final and non-appealable; or if any condition to the obligation of such party to consummate the merger becomes incapable of satisfaction prior to November 30, 2015;

by Welch Allyn:

if Hill-Rom breaches or fails to perform in any material respect any of its representations, warranties or covenants contained in the merger agreement, which breach or failure to perform (i) would give rise to the failure of a condition to consummate the merger and (ii) cannot be or has not been cured within 30 days of notice from Welch Allyn; or

(i) if Hill-Rom fails to complete the merger when required to do so under the merger agreement, (ii) all conditions to closing have been satisfied (other than those conditions that by their terms are to be satisfied at closing) and (iii) Welch Allyn has given written notice to Hill-Rom that it stands ready, willing and able to consummate the merger; or by Hill-Rom if Welch Allyn breaches or fails to perform in any material respect any of its representations, warranties or covenants contained in the merger agreement, which breach or failure to perform (i) would give rise to the failure of a condition to consummate the merger and (ii) cannot be or has not been cured within 30 days of notice from Hill-Rom.

Effect of Termination

If the merger agreement is terminated as described above, the merger agreement will become null and void and no party will have any liability under the merger agreement, except that:

nothing in the merger agreement will relieve or release any party from liability arising from any knowing and intentional breach of any representation, warranty or covenant; and designated provisions of the merger agreement will survive termination, including (i) the confidential treatment of information, (ii) each party's responsibility to pay its own brokers' fees and other fees and expenses, and (iii) certain other general provisions governing the merger agreement.

Shareholder Representative

By virtue of the execution and delivery of a letter of transmittal, in the case of holders of shares of Welch Allyn common stock, and accepting the Per Share Phantom Merger Consideration (as defined in the merger agreement), in the case of holders of PHASARs or PSU Awards, each holder of shares of Welch Allyn common stock, PHASARs or PSU Awards will appoint a shareholder representative to act on its behalf for all purposes under the merger agreement and the transactions contemplated thereby, and any such actions by the shareholder representative will be binding on such holders. The shareholder representative will be entitled to reasonable compensation for, and reimbursement of all fees, expenses and costs incurred in connection with, the performance of the shareholder representative's duties under the merger agreement (collectively, "Representative Expenses"). Prior to the effective time of the merger, in order to provide the shareholders representative with a source of funds for the payment of the Representative Expenses, Welch Allyn will deposit into an escrow account an amount the Welch Allyn Board estimates is sufficient to pay potential Representative Expenses that may be incurred after the merger. Any cash remaining in such escrow account after all payments to the shareholder representative are made will be distributed to persons that held Welch Allyn common stock (other than dissenting shares, shares for which share certificates have not been surrendered, and shares owned by Hill-Rom, any subsidiary of Hill-Rom or the surviving corporation) immediately prior to the effective time of the merger and to the persons that held a Welch Allyn phantom share appreciation right or a phantom share unit immediately prior to the effective time of the merger, with payments allocated pro rata based on the number of shares of Welch Allyn common stock held by the person or the number of phantom shares underlying the person's phantom share appreciation right or phantom share units, as applicable. In addition, such holders will indemnify and hold harmless the shareholder representative and its partners, shareholders, affiliates, directors, officers, fiduciaries, employees and agents thereof from and against all losses, liabilities, claims or expenses incurred or suffered by such indemnitee as a result of, or arising out of, or relating to any actions taken or omitted to be taken by the shareholder representative under the merger agreement or the escrow agreement or in connection with the incurrence, payment, discharge or settlement of any of the obligations of such holders, except to the extent arising on account of the shareholder representative's gross negligence or willful misconduct. There can be no assurance the shareholder representative will have sufficient assets to satisfy any liabilities to holders of shares of Welch Allyn common stock, PHASARs or PSU Awards under the merger agreement.

Amendment; Extension and Waiver

The merger agreement may be amended by Hill-Rom, Welch Allyn and Merger Sub prior to receipt of the Welch Allyn Shareholder approval. In addition, any amendment of the provisions of the merger agreement relating to Hill-Rom's debt financing sources in a manner that is adverse to such financing sources requires the prior written consent of such financing sources. Any amendment of the merger agreement after receipt of the Welch Allyn shareholder approval may only be made after further shareholder approval if such approval is required by law.

Third-Party Beneficiaries

The merger agreement is not intended to confer upon any person who is not a party to the merger agreement any right or remedy of any nature whatsoever, except for, among other things:

the right of holders of outstanding shares of Welch Allyn common stock, PHASARs, PSU Awards and LTIP Cash Incentive Awards to receive payment in accordance with the terms of the merger agreement; the right of certain employees to benefits and payments as described above under " Employee Matters;"

certain provisions with respect to which Hill-Rom's debt financing sources are third party beneficiaries; and the provisions described above under " Director and Officer Indemnification and Insurance," pursuant to which the persons referenced in such section are third-party beneficiaries.

Governing Law

The merger agreement is governed by the laws of the State of New York and provides that any action or proceeding relating to or arising out of the merger agreement will be subject to the exclusive jurisdiction and venue of the Supreme Court of the State of New York, County of New York, Borough of Manhattan (and the applicable appellate courts) or, the United States District Court for the Southern District of New York, as applicable.

MATERIAL CONTRACTS BETWEEN THE PARTIES

The following describes the material provisions of the voting agreement dated as of June 16, 2015 (the "voting agreement"), which was filed with the SEC on Form 8-K on June 17, 2015, by and among Hill-Rom and the voting trustees of the voting trust created under the voting trust agreement. The description in this section and elsewhere in this proxy statement/prospectus is qualified in its entirety by reference to the voting agreement. This summary does not purport to be complete and may not contain all of the information about the voting agreement that is important to Welch Allyn shareholders. Hill-Rom and Welch Allyn encourage Welch Allyn shareholders to carefully read the voting agreement, which is attached to this proxy statement/prospectus as Annex B, in its entirety.

Following the execution of the merger agreement, Hill-Rom entered into the voting agreement, pursuant to which the voting trustees (i) executed and delivered to Hill-Rom an irrevocable proxy with respect to the 96,406,486 shares of Welch Allyn Class A common stock subject to the voting trust agreement, which shares constitute in the aggregate 89.94% of the total number of shares of Welch Allyn Class A common stock outstanding as of August 27, 2015, and (ii) for purposes of the Shareholders' Agreement, consented to the transfer (as defined in the Shareholders' Agreement) of the shares of Welch Allyn Class A common stock subject to the voting trust. The irrevocable proxy grants to certain officers of Hill-Rom or their designees the right to vote the shares subject to the proxy at the special meeting of the Welch Allyn shareholders in favor of the merger. The vote by Hill-Rom at the special meeting with respect to the shares of Welch Allyn Class A common stock subject to the irrevocable proxy to adopt the merger agreement will be sufficient to adopt the merger agreement and thereby approve the merger and the other transactions contemplated by the merger agreement. Under the voting agreement, the voting trustees also agreed not to consent to any transfer (as defined in the voting agreement) of shares of Welch Allyn Class A common stock by an eligible shareholder (as defined in the voting agreement); enter into any voting agreement, voting trust or similar agreement with respect to any shares of Welch Allyn Class A common stock, or grant any proxy, consent or power of attorney with respect to any shares of Welch Allyn Class A common stock; or amend or terminate the voting trust agreement or amend or terminate the voting trust. The voting agreement and irrevocable proxy will terminate upon the earlier to occur of (a) the effective time of the merger and (b) such time as the merger agreement is terminated in accordance with its terms.

DEBT FINANCING

Loan Commitment

On June 26, 2015, Hill-Rom entered into an amended and restated commitment letter with Goldman Sachs Bank USA ("GS Bank") and Goldman Sachs Lending Partners LLC ("GS Lending") and certain other financial institutions party thereto (which we refer to collectively with GS Bank, GS Lending and each of their respective affiliates in this proxy statement/prospectus as the "Commitment Parties"). The commitment letter provides that the Commitment Parties will commit to provide to Hill-Rom (i)(A) a $1.0 billion TLA Facility, (B) a $725 million senior secured TLB Facility and (C) a $500 million senior secured revolving facility, which Senior Secured Facilities will be secured on a first priority basis by substantially all of Hill-Rom's assets, and (ii) up to a $500 million senior unsecured bridge facility (the "Bridge Facility"). Subsequent to the date of the Commitment Letter, the parties agreed to increase commitments under the TLB Facility to $800 million. The Commitment Letter was not subsequently amended to reflect this increase.

The commitment of the Commitment Parties with respect to the Senior Secured Facilities and the Bridge Facility expires on the earliest to occur of (i) the termination of the merger agreement in accordance with its terms, (ii) the consummation of the Transactions with or without the funding of the Senior Secured Facility and the Bridge Facility and (iii) November 30, 2015.

High Yield Notes Offering

On August 18, 2015, Hill-Rom and certain of its wholly-owned subsidiaries entered into a purchase agreement with Goldman, Sachs & Co., as representative of the several initial purchasers named therein, related to the issuance and sale by Hill-Rom of $425 million aggregate principal amount of its 5.75% senior notes due 2023 (the "High Yield Notes"). Hill-Rom expects the offering of the High Yield Notes to close on September 1, 2015, subject to customary closing conditions.

The High Yield Notes bear interest at a rate per annum of 5.75%, payable semi-annually in arrears on March 1 and September 1 of each year, beginning on March 1, 2016. The High Yield Notes will mature on September 1, 2023. The High Yield Notes are a direct unsecured general obligation of Hill-Rom, rank equally with all of its existing and future unsecured and unsubordinated debt and contain covenants and events of default customary for this type of financing.

Upon the first to occur of either (i) November 30, 2015, if the merger is not consummated prior to such date, or (ii) the date on which the agreement relating to the merger is terminated, Hill-Rom will be required to redeem the High Yield Notes (the "Special Mandatory Redemption") in whole, at a redemption price equal to 100% of the aggregate principal amount of the High Yield Notes, plus accrued and unpaid interest from and including the date of initial issuance, or the most recent date to which interest has been paid, whichever is later, to but not including the date of the Special Mandatory Redemption. Hill-Rom may also redeem the High Yield Notes, at its option, in whole, at any time prior to November 30, 2015, at a redemption price equal to 100% of the aggregate principal amount of the High Yield Notes, plus accrued and unpaid interest from and including the date of initial issuance, or the most recent date to which interest has been paid, whichever is later, to but not including the date of redemption, if, in Hill-Rom's judgment, the merger will not be consummated on or prior to November 30, 2015.

The High Yield Notes will also be redeemable at the option of Hill-Rom, in whole or in part, at any time on or after September 1, 2018 pursuant to a customary schedule of declining redemption prices. In addition, Hill-Rom may redeem some or all of the High Yield Notes prior to September 1, 2018 at a price equal to 100% of the principal amount thereof plus a "make-whole" premium. Prior to September 1, 2018, Hill-Rom may redeem up to 40% of the aggregate principal amount of the High

Yield Notes using the proceeds of certain equity offerings at a redemption price equal to 105.75% of the aggregate principal amount of the High Yield Notes.

Marketing Period

Under the merger agreement, following the effectiveness of the registration statement on Form S-4 of which this proxy statement/prospectus forms a part, Welch Allyn has agreed to allow Hill-Rom and its financing sources a period of 20 consecutive business days (throughout which the registration statement on Form S-4 of which this proxy statement/prospectus forms a part remains effective) to arrange its debt financing in an amount sufficient to complete the merger.

Hill-Rom common stock is listed for trading on the NYSE under the trading symbol "HRC." As of August 25, 2015, there were approximately 2,145 registered holders of Hill-Rom common stock. The following table sets forth, for the periods indicated, dividends declared and the high and low sales prices per share of Hill-Rom common stock as reported on the NYSE.

There is no established public trading market for Welch Allyn common stock. As of August 25, 2015, there were approximately 163 registered holders of Welch Allyn Class A common stock and approximately 132 registered holders of Welch Allyn Class B common stock. Welch Allyn did not declare or pay any cash dividends on its common stock in 2013 or 2014. In connection with the merger and prior to the effective time of the merger, Welch Allyn intends to distribute cash to the Welch Allyn shareholders and pay a cash dividend to the Welch Allyn shareholders from the available cash then on hand, subject to Welch Allyn's obligation under the merger agreement to retain at least $15 million in cash at the effective time of the merger. If the cash dividend to Welch Allyn shareholders had been made on July 31, 2015, the cash dividend would have been approximately $145 million, or approximately $1.35 per share, but there can be no assurance that the cash dividend to Welch Allyn shareholders will be in this amount. Welch Allyn also intends to distribute to its shareholders, prior to the effective time of the merger, Welch Allyn's entire interest in assets related to certain "split-dollar" life insurance policies, net of related liabilities. As of July 31, 2015, the gross fair market value of these assets was approximately $38 million. The assets are not related to Welch Allyn's business. Under the merger agreement, the calculation of the Phantom Dividend Amount will take into account any such distributions to the Welch Allyn shareholders, thereby increasing the Phantom Merger Consideration payable pursuant to the merger agreement, as described on page 68 of this proxy statement/prospectus under "The Merger Interests of Directors and Executive Officers of Welch Allyn in the Merger".

Welch Allyn shareholders are urged to obtain current market quotations for Hill-Rom common stock and to carefully review the other information contained in this proxy statement/prospectus or incorporated by reference into this proxy statement/prospectus, when considering whether to adopt the merger agreement and thereby approve the merger and the other transactions contemplated by the merger agreement. UNAUDITED PRO FORMA CONDENSED COMBINED FINANCIAL INFORMATION

On June 16, 2015, Hill-Rom Holdings, Inc. ("Hill-Rom") entered into a Merger Agreement (as amended by the Amendment to Agreement and Plan of Merger dated as of August 27, 2015, among Hill-Rom, Merger Sub and Welch Allyn, and as may be further amended from time to time, the "Merger Agreement"), by and among Hill-Rom, Empire Merger Sub Corp. ("Merger Sub") and Welch Allyn Holdings, Inc. ("Welch Allyn"), providing for the acquisition of Welch Allyn by Hill-Rom. Pursuant to the terms of the Merger Agreement, Merger Sub will be merged with and into Welch Allyn with Welch Allyn surviving the Merger as a wholly owned subsidiary of Hill-Rom (the "Merger").

Pursuant to the terms of the Merger Agreement, at the effective time of the Merger, each outstanding share of common stock Class A, no par value per share, of Welch Allyn and common stock Class B, $.01 par value per share, of Welch Allyn (collectively, the "Welch Allyn Common Stock"), as of the closing of the Merger, will be converted into the right to receive a portion of the aggregate merger consideration, consisting of cash consideration of $1,625,000,000 (the "Cash Consideration") and 8,133,722 shares of common stock, without par value, of Hill-Rom (the "Equity Consideration") subject to adjustments for net working capital, cash, indebtedness and selling expenses (collectively, the "Merger Consideration"). The Merger Agreement has been approved by the Board of Directors of Hill-Rom and the Board of Directors of Welch Allyn.

In connection with the Merger, Hill-Rom entered into an amended and restated commitment letter (the "Commitment Letter") with the Commitment Parties. The Commitment Letter provides that the Commitment Parties will commit to provide Hill-Rom (i)(A) a $1.0 billion senior secured term loan A facility (the "TLA Facility"), (B) a $725 million senior secured term loan B facility (the "TLB Facility") and (C) a $500 million senior secured revolving facility (the "Revolving Facility", and collectively with the TLA Facility and the TLB Facility, the "Senior Secured Facilities"), and (ii) up to a $500 million senior unsecured increasing rate bridge facility (the "Bridge Facility"). Subsequent to the date of the Commitment Letter, the parties agreed to increase commitments under the TLB Facility to $800 million. The Commitment Letter was not subsequently amended to reflect this increase. The Senior Secured Facilities will be secured by all assets (subject to certain agreed upon exceptions) of Hill-Rom's material domestic subsidiaries. The Commitment Parties have the right to syndicate the Senior Secured Facilities to a group of lenders. In addition, on August 18, 2015 Hill-Rom entered into a purchase agreement with Goldman, Sachs & Co., as representative of the several initial purchasers, related to the issuance and sale of its 5.75% senior notes due 2023. The offering of the High Yield Notes is expected to close on September 1, 2015, subject to customary closing conditions. The successful closing of the High Yield Notes offering will eliminate the need for the Bridge Facility. Hill-Rom currently intends to finance the merger and pay related fees and expenses associated therewith with: (i) the Senior Secured Facilities comprised of (A) the $1.0 billion TLA Facility, (B) the $800 million TLB Facility, and (C) the $500 million Revolving Facility; and (ii) a $425 million issue of High Yield Notes.

The following unaudited pro forma condensed combined financial statements, referred to as the pro forma financial statements, present the combination of the historical consolidated financial statements of Hill-Rom and Welch Allyn, adjusted to give effect to the Merger and the incurrence of debt financing to complete the Merger.

The unaudited pro forma condensed combined balance sheet, referred to as the pro forma balance sheet, combines the unaudited historical condensed consolidated balance sheet of Hill-Rom as of June 30, 2015 and the unaudited historical condensed consolidated balance sheet of Welch Allyn as of July 4, 2015, to give effect to Hill-Rom's acquisition of Welch Allyn and related financing transactions (collectively, the "Transactions"), as if they had occurred on June 30, 2015.

The unaudited pro forma condensed combined income statement for the fiscal year ended September 30, 2014 assumes that the Merger took place on October 1, 2013, the beginning of Hill-Rom's most recently completed fiscal year. Hill-Rom's audited consolidated statement of income for the fiscal year ended September 30, 2014 has been combined with Welch Allyn's audited consolidated statement of income for the fiscal year ended December 31, 2014. The unaudited pro forma condensed combined income statement for the nine months ended June 30, 2015 assumes that the Merger took place on October 1, 2013, the beginning of Hill-Rom's most recently completed fiscal year. Hill-Rom's unaudited consolidated statement of income for the nine months ended June 30, 2015 has been combined with the combination of Welch Allyn's unaudited consolidated statement of income for the three months ended December 31, 2014 and Welch Allyn's unaudited consolidated statement of income for the six months ended July 4, 2015. Given the different fiscal year ends of Hill-Rom and Welch Allyn, the Welch Allyn unaudited consolidated statement of income for the three months ended December 31, 2014 has been included in both the fiscal year ended September 30, 2014 and the nine months ended June 30, 2015 pro forma condensed combined income statements. Sales and net income for Welch Allyn for the three months ended December 31, 2014 were $192.1 million and $12.6 million, respectively. The unaudited pro forma condensed combined income statement for the fiscal year ended September 30, 2014 and the unaudited pro forma condensed combined income statement for the nine months ended June 30, 2015 are collectively referred to as the pro forma income statements.

The pro forma adjustments are preliminary and have been made solely for purposes of developing the pro forma financial information for illustrative purposes. The actual results reported in periods following the Transactions may differ significantly from that reflected in these pro forma financial statements for a number of reasons, including, but not limited to, differences between the assumptions used to prepare these pro forma financial statements and actual amounts, cost savings from operating efficiencies and impact of potential synergies, the impact of the incremental costs incurred in integrating Welch Allyn's operations, changes in the allocation of purchase price, and the actual interest rates applicable to the funds borrowed to finance the acquisition of Welch Allyn.

As a result, the pro forma information does not purport to be indicative of what the financial condition or results of operations would have been had the Transactions been completed on the applicable dates of this pro forma financial information. The pro forma financial statements are based upon the historical financial statements of Hill-Rom and Welch Allyn and do not purport to project the future financial condition and results of operations after giving effect to the transaction.

The pro forma adjustments and related assumptions are described in the accompanying notes presented on the following pages. The pro forma adjustments are based on assumptions relating to the consideration paid and the allocation of the purchase price thereof to the acquired assets and liabilities of Welch Allyn based on preliminary estimates of fair value. The final purchase price and the allocation thereof will differ from that reflected in the pro forma financial statements after final valuation procedures are performed and amounts are finalized.

The following unaudited pro forma condensed combined financial information is derived from the historical financial statements of Hill-Rom and Welch Allyn and has been prepared to illustrate the effects of the acquisition, including the financing of the acquisition of Welch Allyn by Hill-Rom. This pro forma financial information should be read in conjunction with the historical financial statements and the accompanying notes of Hill-Rom and Welch Allyn.

Notes to Unaudited Pro Forma Financial Statements

Note 1 Basis of presentation

The unaudited pro forma condensed combined financial statements were prepared using the acquisition method of accounting under U.S. GAAP and are based on the historical consolidated financial statements of Hill-Rom Holdings, Inc. for the fiscal year ended September 30, 2014 and the nine month periods ended June 30, 2015 and 2014; along with the historical consolidated financial statements of Welch Allyn Holdings, Inc. for the year ended December 31, 2014 and the three month period ended December 31, 2014, and the six month periods ended July 4, 2015 and June 28, 2014. Sales and net income for the Welch Allyn three month period ended December 31, 2014 included in all three pro forma periods were $192.1 million and $12.6 million, respectively.

The unaudited pro forma condensed combined income statements for Hill-Rom and Welch Allyn for the fiscal year ended September 30, 2014 and the nine months ended June 30, 2015 give effect to Hill-Rom's acquisition of Welch Allyn.

We prepared the unaudited pro forma condensed combined financial information using the acquisition method of accounting, which is based upon Accounting Standards Codification ("ASC") 805, Business Combinations, the Financial Accounting Standard Board's ("FASB") standard related to business combinations. The business combination standard incorporates the FASB standard related to fair value measurement concepts. We have adopted both FASB standards related to business combinations and fair value measurements as required. The FASB standard issued related to business combinations requires, among other things, that most assets acquired and liabilities assumed be recognized at their fair values as of the acquisition date. In addition, the standard establishes that the consideration transferred be measured at the closing date of the acquisition at the then-current market price. The transaction fees and expenses have been excluded from the unaudited pro forma condensed combined income statements as they are non-recurring. ASC 820, Fair Value Measurements and Disclosures, the FASB's standard related to fair value measurements, defines the term "fair value" and sets forth the valuation requirements for any asset or liability measured at fair value, expands related disclosure requirements and specifies a hierarchy of valuation techniques based on the nature of inputs used to develop the fair value measures. Fair value is defined in the standard as "the price that would be received to sell an asset or paid to transfer a liability in an orderly transaction between market participants at the measurement date." This is an exit price concept for the valuation of the asset or liability. In addition, market participants are assumed to be buyers and sellers in the principal (or the most advantageous) market for the asset or liability. Fair value measurements for an asset assume the highest and best use by these market participants. As a result of these standards, we may be required to record assets that we do not intend to use or sell (defensive assets) and/or to value assets at fair value measurements that do not reflect our intended use of those assets. Many of these fair value measurements can be highly subjective, and it is possible that other professionals, applying reasonable judgment to the same facts and circumstances, could develop and support a range of alternative estimated amounts.

The assumptions and related pro forma adjustments described below have been developed based on assumptions and adjustments, including assumptions relating to the consideration paid and the allocation thereof to the assets acquired and liabilities assumed from Welch Allyn based on preliminary estimates of fair value. The final purchase price allocation will differ from that reflected in the pro forma financial statements after final valuation procedures are performed and amounts are finalized.

The unaudited pro forma condensed combined financial statements are preliminary, are provided for illustrative purposes only and do not purport to represent what our actual consolidated results of operations or consolidated financial position would have been had the transactions occurred on the date assumed, nor are they indicative of our future consolidated results of operations or financial position. The actual results reported in periods following the transactions may differ significantly from those reflected in these pro forma financial statements for a number of reasons, including, but not limited to, differences between the assumptions used to prepare these pro forma financial statements and actual amounts, cost savings from operating efficiencies, timing and impact of potential synergies, the impact of the incremental costs incurred in integrating Welch Allyn's operations, changes in the allocation of purchase price, and the actual interest rates applicable to the funds borrowed to finance the acquisition of Welch Allyn. As a result, the pro forma information does not purport to be indicative of what the financial condition or results of operations would have been had the transactions been completed on the applicable dates of this pro forma financial information. The pro forma financial statements are based upon the historical consolidated financial statements of Hill-Rom and Welch Allyn and do not purport to project the future financial condition and results of operations after giving effect to the transaction.

Note 3 Purchase Price Allocation

The unaudited pro forma condensed combined balance sheet has been adjusted to reflect the allocation of the preliminary estimated purchase price to identifiable assets to be acquired and liabilities to be assumed, with the excess recorded as goodwill. The final purchase price allocation may be different than that reflected in the pro forma purchase price allocation presented herein, and this difference may be material. The purchase price allocation in these unaudited pro forma condensed combined financial statements is based upon an estimated purchase price of approximately $2,287.1 million. This amount was derived in accordance with the Merger Agreement based on (i) 8,133,722 shares of Hill-Rom common stock, valued at $425.0 million based on the volume weighted average price of Hill-Rom's common stock for the preceding 10 trading days as reported by Bloomberg at the close of trading on June 16, 2015 and (ii) $1,625.0 million of cash consideration, subject to adjustment in accordance with the terms of the Merger Agreement.

The total preliminary Merger consideration is calculated as follows ($ in millions):

Cash consideration	$ 1,625.0
Estimated merger consideration adjustments:
Estimated working capital adjustment	12.6
Cash on hand	228.5
Indebtedness	(4.0)
Adjusted cash consideration	1,862.1
Hill-Rom common stock to be issued	425.0
Total preliminary merger consideration	$ 2,287.1

The actual value of Hill-Rom common stock to be issued in the Merger will depend on the market price of shares of Hill-Rom common stock at the closing date of the Merger, and therefore the actual purchase price will fluctuate with the market price of Hill-Rom common stock until the Merger is consummated.

Hill-Rom's articles of incorporation provide that the board of directors may authorize the corporation to indemnify any person who is or was a director, officer or employee of Hill-Rom (an "Eligible Person") against all liability and reasonable expense incurred by such person on account of or arising out of that person's relationship to Hill-Rom, provided that such person is determined in the manner specified in the IBCL to have met the standards of conduct specified in the IBCL.

Hill-Rom's bylaws provide that Hill-Rom shall indemnify any Eligible Person if the Eligible Person is a party to or threatened to be made a party to any proceeding against all expenses, judgments, fines (including any excise tax or penalty assessed with respect to any employee benefit plan) and amounts paid in settlement actually and reasonably incurred by the Eligible Person in connection with such proceeding, but only (a) if the Eligible Person acted in good faith, and (b) (i) in the case of conduct in the Eligible Person's official capacity with Hill-Rom, if the Eligible Person acted in a manner which the Eligible Person reasonably believed to be in the best interests of Hill-Rom, or (ii) in the case of conduct other than in the Eligible Person's official capacity with Hill-Rom, if the Eligible Person acted in a manner which the Eligible Person reasonably believed was at least not opposed to the best interests of the corporation, and (c) in the case of a criminal proceeding, the Eligible Person had reasonable cause to believe that the Eligible Person's conduct was lawful or had no reasonable cause to believe that the Eligible Person's conduct was unlawful, and (d) if required by the IBCL, the corporation makes a determination that indemnification of the Eligible Person is permissible because the Eligible Person has met the standard of conduct as set forth in the IBCL. Hill-Rom must indemnify an Eligible Person who is wholly successful in defense of a proceeding in respect of expenses related to such proceeding. The provisions of the IBCL, the articles of incorporation and by-laws providing for indemnification of Eligible Person are not exclusive and the corporation may establish other arrangements for indemnity.

Welch Allyn

Welch Allyn's bylaws provide that, except as expressly prohibited by the NYBCL, Welch Allyn will indemnify any person made, or threatened to be made, a party to an action or proceeding, whether civil or criminal, by reason of the fact that he, his testator or intestate, is or was a director, officer and/or employee of Welch Allyn, or serves or served at the request of Welch Allyn as a director, officer, employee or fiduciary of any other corporation of any type or kind, domestic or foreign, or any partnership, joint venture, trust, employee benefit plan or other enterprise against judgments, fines, amounts paid in settlement and reasonable expenses incurred as a result of such action or proceeding, or any appeal thereof, except that no indemnification will be made to any person if his acts were committed in bad faith or were the result of dishonesty and were material to the cause of action on which such action or proceeding was based, or if he personally gained in fact a financial profit or other advantage to which he was not legally entitled, and except that no indemnification will be required with respect to any settlement of an action or threatened action without Welch Allyn's consent.

Welch Allyn's bylaws provide that, except as prohibited by the NYBCL, Welch Allyn, at its expense, may purchase and maintain insurance on behalf of any person who is or was a director, officer, employee or agent of Welch Allyn, or is or was serving at the request of Welch Allyn as a director, officer, employee or agent of any other entity, against any liability asserted against him and incurred by him in any such capacity, or arising out of his status as such.

Certain Business Combination Restrictions

Hill-Rom

Pursuant to the IBCL, a business combination with an interested shareholder within five years of that shareholder's share acquisition date is not permitted, subject to certain exceptions. A corporation may only engage in a business combination with an interested shareholder if it is (1) approved in advance of such shareholder's share acquisition date by the board of directors, (2) approved at least five years after that shareholder's share acquisition date by the affirmative vote of the holders of a majority of the outstanding voting shares not beneficially owned by the interested shareholder proposing the business combination or (3) meets certain equitable consideration requirements pursuant to the IBCL.

The Control Share Acquisitions Chapter of the IBCL contains provisions designed to protect minority shareholders in the event that a person makes a tender offer for or otherwise acquires shares giving the acquirer more than certain levels of ownership (20%, 33% and 50%) of the outstanding voting securities of an Indiana corporation having 100 or more shareholders. Under the Control Share Acquisitions Chapter, if an acquirer purchases such shares of a corporation that is subject to the Control Share Acquisitions Chapter, then the acquirer cannot vote such shares until each class or series of shares entitled to vote separately on the proposal approves the rights of the acquirer to vote the shares of the acquirer in excess of each level of ownership by a majority of all votes entitled to be cast by that group (excluding shares held by officers of the corporation, by employees of the corporation who are directors thereof and by the acquirer).

Welch Allyn

The NYBCL provides that a corporation may not engage in a business combination with an interested shareholder (which term includes shareholders who beneficially own at least 20% of the corporation's voting stock) for a five year period after the date that such person became an interested shareholder unless the transaction resulting in a person becoming an interested shareholder, or the business combination, was approved by the board of directors before that person became an interested shareholder. After the five-year period, a business combination between the interested shareholder and the corporation may occur if certain fair price requirements are met, or if the business combination is approved by a majority of the outstanding voting stock not beneficially owned by the interested shareholder.

However, the foregoing restriction does not apply to any domestic corporation that does not have a class of voting stock registered with the Securities and Exchange Commission pursuant to Section 12 of the Exchange Act, unless the corporation's certificate of incorporation provides otherwise. Welch Allyn's certificate of incorporation does not provide otherwise, so the foregoing restriction does not apply to Welch Allyn or its shareholders.

Welch Allyn expects to continue investing to expand sales and marketing resources in order to capitalize on opportunities in certain of its markets, including China, India, Latin America and the Middle East.

Welch Allyn's foreign operations are subject to certain financial and other risks, and international operations in general present complex tax and cash management issues. Patents and Trademarks

Patents and other proprietary rights are important to Welch Allyn's business. Welch Allyn also relies upon trade secrets, manufacturing know-how, continuing technological innovations and licensing opportunities to maintain and improve its competitive position.

and foreign countries where rights are available and where Welch Allyn believes it is commercially advantageous to do so. However, the standards for international protection of intellectual property vary widely. Welch Allyn enforces its intellectual property rights consistent with its strategic business objectives. Welch Allyn does not consider its business to be materially dependent upon any individual patent or license.

Government Regulation

Most aspects of Welch Allyn's business are subject to some degree of government regulation in the countries in which Welch Allyn's operations are conducted. It has always been the practice of Welch Allyn to comply with the regulatory requirements governing its products and operations and to conduct its affairs in an ethical manner. This practice is reflected in Welch Allyn's policies regarding anti-bribery, ethics and compliance matters, various other compliance policies and through the responsibility of the Audit Committee of Welch Allyn's board of directors to review Welch Allyn's systems of internal control and Welch Allyn's process for monitoring compliance with laws and regulations. For some products, and in some areas of the world such as the United States, Canada, Japan and Europe, government regulation is significant and, in general, there appears to be a trend toward more stringent regulation throughout the world, as well as global harmonization of various regulatory requirements. In addition, governmental bodies in the United States and throughout the world have expressed concern about the costs relating to healthcare and, in some cases, have focused attention on the pricing of medical devices. Government regulation regarding pricing of medical devices already exists in some countries and may be expanded in the United States and other countries in the future. Welch Allyn devotes significant time, effort and expense to addressing the extensive government and regulatory requirements applicable to its business. Governmental regulatory actions can result in the recall or seizure of products, suspension or revocation of the authority necessary for the production or sale of a product and other civil and criminal sanctions. Welch Allyn believes that it is no more or less adversely affected by existing government regulations than its competitors.

Medical Device Regulation

Welch Allyn's products are medical devices subject to extensive regulation by the FDA and other U.S. federal and state regulatory bodies and comparable authorities in other countries. To ensure that medical products distributed domestically and internationally are safe and effective for their intended use, the FDA and comparable authorities in other countries have imposed regulations that govern, among other things, the design, manufacture and testing of Welch Allyn products. Other countries and jurisdictions around the world impose similar standards on international manufacture and sales of Welch Allyn products.

Healthcare Fraud, Anti-Corruption, Privacy and Other Regulations

There are also various federal healthcare laws that apply when Welch Allyn's customers submit claims for items or services that are reimbursed under Medicare, Medicaid or other federally-funded healthcare programs, including among others: (1) the Federal Anti-Kickback Statute, which prohibits offers to pay or receive remuneration of any kind for the purpose of inducing or rewarding referrals of items or services reimbursable by a federal healthcare program; (2) the False Claims Act, which prohibits the submission of false or otherwise improper claims for payment to a federally-funded health care program; and (3) the Stark law, which prohibits physicians from referring Medicare or Medicaid patients to a provider that bills these programs for the provision of certain designated health services if the physician (or a member of the physician's immediate family) has a financial relationship with that provider. There are often similar state false claims, anti-kickback and anti-self referral and insurance laws that apply to state-funded Medicaid and other healthcare programs and private third-party payors.

Welch Allyn is also subject to various federal, state and foreign laws that protect the confidentiality of certain patient health information, including patient medical records, and restrict the use and disclosure of patient health information by healthcare providers, such as the Health Insurance Portability and Accountability Act of 1996 ("HIPAA"), and the HITECH Act, which modified certain provisions of the HIPAA privacy and security rules for Covered Entities and their "Business Associates."

Environmental Regulation

Welch Allyn is subject to various federal, state and local laws and regulations regulating the discharge of materials into the environment and otherwise relating to the protection of the environment. Welch Allyn does not believe that it will be required to spend any material amounts in order to comply with these laws and regulations or that compliance with such laws and regulations will materially affect its capital expenditures, results of operations, financial condition or cash flows.

Employees

As of December 31, 2014, Welch Allyn's global business operations employed approximately 2,500 people. No Welch Allyn employees are currently organized into labor unions.

Welch Allyn is involved in various proceedings, legal actions and claims arising in the normal course of business and with third parties, including proceedings related to product liability, commercial litigation, intellectual property and employee and labor matters. The outcomes of certain of these legal matters may not be known for an extended period of time. Each of these matters is subject to various uncertainties, and it is possible that certain of these matters may be resolved unfavorably to Welch Allyn. Based on the advice of Welch Allyn's domestic and foreign counsel in these matters, Welch Allyn believes that it is unlikely that the resolution of any of these matters and any liabilities will be material to Welch Allyn's financial position, liquidity, results of operations or cash flows.

Edgar Filing: Hill-Rom Holdings, Inc. - Form S-4/A

Welch Allyn's earnings are driven by its ability to continue to generate sales of its products and improve operating efficiency. Welch Allyn's ability to increase sales over time depends upon its success in developing, acquiring and marketing differentiated products that meet the needs of clinicians and their patients. Welch Allyn engages in internal and external R&D in an effort to introduce new products, to enhance effectiveness, ease of use, safety and reliability of its existing products and to expand the applications for which the uses of its products are appropriate. In 2014, Welch Allyn's R&D expense as a percentage of net sales was 7.3%. Welch Allyn also makes selective acquisitions of businesses, products and technologies, generally focusing on small-to-medium sized transactions to provide ongoing growth opportunities. In addition, Welch Allyn may, from time-to-time, consider acquisitions of larger, established companies. Welch Allyn may also periodically divest lines of business in which it is not able to reasonably attain or maintain a leadership position in the market or for other strategic reasons. Welch Allyn spent $24.3 million in 2014 for the acquisition of and investment in businesses, products and technologies. Moreover, excluding revenue from discontinued product lines, revenues increased approximately 3.0% per year on a constant currency basis over the three fiscal years ended December 31, 2014.

The Merger

On June 16, 2015, Welch Allyn entered into the merger agreement with Hill-Rom and Merger Sub. Under the merger agreement, Welch Allyn will be acquired for $1.625 billion in cash (which is subject to adjustment) and 8,133,722 shares of Hill-Rom common stock. Hill-Rom and Welch Allyn expect to complete the merger prior to September 30, 2015, subject to the receipt of regulatory approvals and the satisfaction or waiver of the other conditions to the merger contained in the merger agreement. However, it is possible that factors outside the control of Hill-Rom and Welch Allyn could require Hill-Rom and Welch Allyn to complete the merger at a later time or not complete it at all. Hill-Rom is expected to fund the cash consideration with a combination of new debt and cash on hand. The closing of the merger is not conditioned on the receipt of any debt financing by Hill-Rom. Hill-Rom, however, is not required to consummate the merger until the completion of the marketing period.

For a full description of the merger, see the section titled "The Merger" beginning on page 44 of this proxy statement/prospectus.

while reducing its workforce by approximately 10% through voluntary and involuntary terminations. Welch Allyn incurred $0.1 million of restructuring charges for the three months ended July 4, 2015 related to completion of the 2012 Restructuring, a decrease of $1.2 million, or 92.3%, compared to $1.3 million of restructuring charges incurred by Welch Allyn in the three months ended June 28, 2014. Welch Allyn incurred $0.4 million of restructuring charges for the six months ended July 4, 2015 related to the completion of the 2012 Restructuring, a decrease of $5.5 million, or 93.2% compared to $5.9 million of restructuring charges incurred by Welch Allyn in the six months ended June 28, 2014. Net sales in the United States for the three months ended July 4, 2015 increased $7.1 million or 6.6% compared to the three months ended June 28, 2014 primarily due to increased sales of Physical Assessment products (including $2.3 million of sales in the three months ended July 4, 2015 attributable to the Pediavision Acquisition, $2.0 million of sales attributable to the Scale-Tronix acquisition completed in May 2015), an increase in the number of orders of Connex Vital Signs Monitors under Thermometry products as well as Women's Health products which were favorably affected by U.S. distributors purchasing significantly less products from overseas and the impact of a distributor promotion compared to the three months ended June 28, 2014.

Net sales in Canada for the three months ended July 4, 2015 increased $1.2 million, or 16.2%, on a reported basis, and $2.2 million or 30.4% on a constant currency basis. The increase in net sales in Canada was primarily due to growth in sales of low acuity vitals products as there was an increase in orders for this product line.

Net sales in EMEA&I for the three months ended July 4, 2015 decreased $2.6 million, or 9.6%, on a reported basis and decreased $0.1 million, or 0.2%, on a constant currency basis compared to the three months ended June 28, 2014, primarily due to sales growth in France and other European countries, partially offset by lower sales in Thermometry, Physical Assessment and Women's Health in the Middle East due to lesser spending in medical products by the government in Saudi Arabia and as Welch Allyn implemented controls preventing sales to distributors in this region who were selling these products back to U.S. distributors.

Net sales in JAPAC for the three months ended July 4, 2015 decreased $1.5 million, or 9.3%, on a reported basis and $0.1 million, or 0.5%, on a constant currency basis compared to the three months ended June 28, 2014, primarily due to decreased sales of Physical Assessment and Women's Health products in China as Welch Allyn implemented controls preventing sales to distributors in this region who were selling these products back to U.S. distributors. This decrease was partially offset by sales growth in Australia.

Net sales in Latin America for the three months ended July 4, 2015 decreased $0.7 million, or 9.0%, on a reported basis and $0.4 million, or 5.3%, on a constant currency basis compared to the three months ended June 28, 2014, primarily due to several large orders in the three months ended June 28, 2014 that have been not repeated in 2015.

Welch Allyn's gross margin for the three months ended July 4, 2015 decreased $2.5 million, or 3.0%, compared to the three months ended June 28, 2014. Gross profit as a percentage of net sales for the three months ended July 4, 2015 was 47.1%, a decrease of 250 basis points compared to 49.6% for the three months ended June 28, 2014. The decrease in gross margin is primarily due to an increase of $5.6 million in Welch Allyn's Long-Term Incentive Plan expense, attributable to manufacturing and operations employees as well as the impact of unfavorable foreign exchange rates. This decrease was partially offset by increased net sales and lower restructuring cost of goods sold. Restructuring cost of goods sold as a percentage of net sales decreased by 70 basis points primarily because the consolidation of Welch Allyn's manufacturing facilities was substantially completed in 2014.

Welch Allyn's selling, general and administrative expenses for the three months ended July 4, 2015 increased $22.4 million, or 33.6%, compared to the three months ended June 28, 2014. The increase was primarily due to an increase in Welch Allyn's Long-Term Incentive Plan expense of $29.5 million, which was due to an increase in the deemed market value of Welch Allyn's phantom incentive grants and options, partially offset by a reduction of $9.5 million in DISC commissions. DISC commissions are based on profitability of qualifying sales. Given current profitability projections for the stub tax period, we expect zero DISC commission expense in 2015.

Welch Allyn incurred $16.0 million in R&D expenses for the three months ended July 4, 2015, an increase of 30.1% compared to $12.3 million for the three months ended June 28, 2014, primarily due to an increase of $5.2 million in Welch Allyn's Long-Term Incentive Plan expense attributable to R&D employees, partially offset by a decrease of $1.3 million in R&D project expenses primarily due to completion of the Connex Spot Monitor in March 2015.

Welch Allyn's other income for the three months ended July 4, 2015 increased $11.7 million, or 208.9%, compared to the three months ended June 28, 2014, primarily due to a $16.1 million gain on sale of securities in the three months ended July 4, 2015 compared to a $2.1 million gain on sale of securities in the three months ended June 28, 2014, partially offset by a $0.4 million, or 30.8%, reduction in the cash surrender value of life insurance policies owned by Welch Allyn. Additionally, other income for the three months ended June 28, 2014 included a $2.1 million foreign exchange gain on the recapitalization of Welch Allyn's Brazil subsidiary.

Welch Allyn's provision for income taxes for the three months ended July 4, 2015 increased $1.2 million, or 17.6%, compared to the three months ended June 28, 2014 primarily due to an increase in the effective tax rate to 95.4% for the three months ended July 4, 2015 compared to 31.5% for the three months ended June 28, 2014, this increase in the effective tax rate was primarily due to higher permanent add-backs related to the liquidation of the Welch Allyn's owned life insurance program and certain non-deductible transaction costs.

Net sales in the United States for the six months ended July 4, 2015 increased $15.4 million or 7.4% compared to the six months ended June 28, 2014 primarily due to increased sales of Physical Assessment products (including $4.3 million of sales in the six months ended July 4, 2015 attributable to the Pediavision Acquisition, and $2.0 million of sales attributable to the Scale-Tronix acquisition completed in May 2015), an increase in the number of Connex Vital Signs Monitor orders as well as Women's Health products which were favorably affected by U.S. distributors purchasing significantly less products from overseas and an increase in unit sales from a distributor promotion compared to the six months ended June 28, 2014.

The increase in gross margin is primarily due to an increase in net sales and a reduction in restructuring cost of sales, partially offset by an increase in the percentage of cost of goods sold. Cost of goods sold as a percentage of sales increased by 120 basis points primarily due to an increase of $7.7 million in Welch Allyn's Long-Term Incentive Plan expense attributable to manufacturing and operations employees as well as the impact of unfavorable foreign exchange rates, partially offset by the impact of the consolidation of manufacturing facilities and initiatives led by Welch Allyn's sourcing group to reduce the cost of components, including by negotiating with vendors and sourcing for lower cost components. Welch Allyn's selling, general and administrative expenses for the six months ended July 4, 2015 increased $33.8 million, or 25.4%, compared to the six months ended June 28, 2014. The increase was primarily due to an increase in Welch Allyn's Long-Term Incentive Plan expense of $40.8 million, which was due to an increase in the deemed market value of Welch Allyn's phantom incentive grants and options, partially offset by a reduction of $9.4 million in DISC commissions. DISC commissions are based on profitability of qualifying sales. Given current profitability projections for the stub tax period, we expect zero DISC commission expense in 2015.

Welch Allyn incurred $30.0 million in R&D expenses for the six months ended July 4, 2015, an increase of 22.5% compared to $24.4 million for the six months ended June 28, 2014, primarily due to an increase of $7.2 million in Welch Allyn's Long-Term Incentive Plan expense attributable to R&D employees, partially offset by a $1.6 million in R&D project expenses that was primarily due to completion of the Connex Spot Monitor in the March 2015.

Welch Allyn's other income for the six months ended July 4, 2015 increased $11.7 million, or 208.9%, compared to the six months ended June 28, 2014, primarily due to a $16.1 million gain on sale of securities in the six months ended July 4, 2015 compared to a $2.1 million gain on sale of securities in the six months ended June 28, 2014, as well as a $0.5 million, or 35.7%, increase in the cash surrender value of life insurance policies owned by Welch Allyn and a $1.0 million unrealized gain on an investment in a Chinese venture capital firm. These increases were partially offset by losses on equity investments of $1.1 million in the six months ended July 4, 2015 and the impact of foreign exchange gains of $2.1 million on the recapitalization of Welch Allyn's Brazil subsidiary in the six months ended June 28, 2014 and foreign exchange losses on the repatriation of excess cash in Welch Allyn's German subsidiary of $0.6 million in the six months ended July 4, 2015.

Welch Allyn's provision for income taxes for the six months ended July 4, 2015 decreased $0.2 million, or 2.0%, compared to the six months ended June 28, 2014 primarily due to a decrease in operating income for that period that offset an increase in the effective tax rate to 72.2% for the six months ended July 4, 2015 compared to 32.7% for the six months ended June 28, 2014. This increase in the effective tax rate was primarily due to higher permanent add-backs related to the liquidation of the Welch Allyn's owned life insurance program and certain non-deductible transaction costs.

Net sales in the United States for the fiscal year ended December 31, 2014 decreased $18.7 million, or 4.1%, on a reported basis compared to the fiscal year ended December 31, 2013 primarily due to a $15.0 million decrease in sales to Veterans Affairs hospitals, discontinuation of the Continuous Monitoring product line and a decrease in Thermometry, Physical Assessment and Women's Health disposable sales as U.S. distributors purchased such products from distributors overseas. The decrease was partially offset by $4.0 million of sales attributable to the Pediavision acquisition in 2014.

Net sales in Canada for the fiscal year ended December 31, 2014 increased $0.1 million, or 0.2%, on a reported basis and $2.6 million, or 7.4%, on a constant currency basis due to a large hospital order for Vital Signs products in 2014.

Net sales for the fiscal year ended December 31, 2014 in JAPAC decreased $0.9 million, or 1.6%, on a reported basis and increased $1.4 million, or 2.3%, on a constant currency basis compared to the fiscal year ended December 31, 2013, primarily due to an increase in sales in the Vital Signs product category in Australia. The increase on a constant currency basis was partially offset by a decline in Continuous Monitoring sales as this product line was discontinued.

Net sales for the fiscal year ended December 31, 2014 in EMEA&I increased $1.2 million, or 1.1%, on a reported basis and $1.1 million, or 1.0%, on a constant currency basis compared to the fiscal year ended December 31, 2013, primarily due to growth in the United Kingdom, India and the Middle East as Welch Allyn focused on channel development in these regions. The increase was partially offset by declines in France and Germany due to Welch Allyn's discontinuation of Continuous Monitoring products.

Net sales for the fiscal year ended December 31, 2014 in Latin America increased $1.3 million, or 3.7%, on a reported basis and $1.6 million, or 4.8%, on a constant currency basis compared to the fiscal year ended December 31, 2013, primarily due to several large orders in the Thermometry, Cardiopulmonary and Physical Assessment product lines, partially offset by a decrease in net sales due to the discontinuation of Welch Allyn's Continuous Monitoring product line and OEM distribution product lines.

Welch Allyn's gross margin for the fiscal year ended December 31, 2014 increased $2.8 million, or 0.8%, compared to the fiscal year ended December 31, 2013, primarily due to lower cost of goods and a reduction in restructuring cost of goods. The increase was partially offset by a decrease in net sales, as discussed above. Gross margin as a percentage of net sales for the fiscal year ended December 31, 2014 was 50.2%, an increase of 160 basis points compared to 48.6% for the fiscal year ended December 31, 2013. This increase was primarily due to a reduction in the cost of goods sold as a percentage of net sales resulting from the consolidation of manufacturing facilities and initiatives led by Welch Allyn's sourcing group to reduce the cost of components, including by negotiating with vendors and sourcing lower cost components. Restructuring cost of goods sold as a percentage of net sales decreased by 80 basis points, primarily due to a reduction in severance costs and lower third party consulting fees to help Welch Allyn increase the efficiency and effectiveness of its sourcing.

Welch Allyn's selling, general and administrative expenses for the fiscal year ended December 31, 2014 decreased $16.4 million, or 5.6%, compared to the fiscal year ended December 31, 2013. The decrease was primarily due to a $10.2 million decrease in selling, general and administrative expenses as a result of the 2012 Restructuring as well as initiatives to lower expenses attributable to travel, trade shows, training programs, telephone calls and other discretionary expenses, an $8.8 million decrease in bonus expenses attributable to lower achievements of 2014 bonus targets compared to 2013 bonus targets and a $2.2 million decrease in R&D expenses resulting from termination of an R&D services contract. These decreases were partially offset by a $2.4 million increase in Welch Allyn's Long-Term Incentive Plan expenses due to an increase in the deemed market value of phantom incentive grants and options and a $2.4 million increase in DISC commissions.

Welch Allyn incurred $7.1 million in restructuring charges during the fiscal year ended December 31, 2014, a decrease of $12.6 million, or 64.0%, compared to $19.7 million in the fiscal year

These restructuring costs included $5.9 million and $11.7 million in restructuring cost of goods sold during the fiscal years ended December 31, 2014 and 2013, respectively.

Welch Allyn incurred $49.8 million in R&D expenses for the fiscal year ended December 31, 2014, a decrease of 7.8% compared to $54.0 million for fiscal year ended December 31, 2013, primarily due to a $2.2 million decrease in R&D expenses resulting from the termination of an R&D services contract and a $2.1 million reduction in bonus expenses.

Welch Allyn recorded no trademark impairment charge in the fiscal year ended December 31, 2014, whereas Welch Allyn recorded a $2.5 million impairment on the Trimline trademark in the fiscal year ended December 31, 2013 as sales of the FlexiPort product line displaced sales of the Trimline product line due to hospitals implementing standardized use of the FlexiPort product line to monitor blood pressure.

Welch Allyn's investment income for the fiscal year ended December 31, 2014 increased $0.5 million, or 21.3%, to $2.7 million, compared to $2.2 million for the fiscal year ended December 31, 2013, primarily due to an increase of $0.3 million, or 20.7%, in gains on the sale of securities and an increase of $0.1 million, or 23.3%, of net interest income. Welch Allyn's other income for the fiscal year ended December 31, 2014 decreased $1.6 million, or 38.8%, compared to the fiscal year ended December 31, 2013, primarily due to a $3.8 million, or 67.2%, decrease in the cash surrender value of life insurance policies owned by Welch Allyn and a $0.8 million, or 68.0% increase, in unrealized foreign exchange loss, partially offset by a $2.1 million foreign exchange gain on recapitalization of Welch Allyn's Brazil legal entity and a $1.1 million unrealized gain on an equity investment.

Welch Allyn's provision for income taxes for the fiscal year ended December 31, 2014 increased $9.9 million, or 95.8%, compared to the fiscal year ended December 31, 2013, primarily due to higher operating income and an increase in the effective tax rate in 2014. The 2013 effective tax rate was favorably affected by 4.9% compared to the 2014 effective tax rate due to tax benefits consisting primarily of a one-time "catch-up" for the reinstatement of an R&D tax credit.

Net sales in the United States for the fiscal year ended December 31, 2013 increased $10.9 million, or 2.4% compared to the fiscal year ended December 31, 2012, primarily due to a $19.8 million increase in sales to Veterans Affairs hospitals and partially offset by a decline in Continuous Monitoring sales as Welch Allyn reduced focus on this product line in preparation to discontinue it in 2014.

These restructuring costs included $11.7 million and $3.9 million in restructuring cost of goods sold during the fiscal years ended December 31, 2013 and 2012, respectively.

Welch Allyn incurred $54.0 million in R&D expenses for the fiscal year ended December 31, 2013, a 6.2% decrease compared to $57.6 million for the fiscal year ended December 31, 2012, primarily due to a $3.1 million reduction in project expenses and $3.1 million in savings from the 2012 Restructuring. The decrease was partially offset by a $1.8 million increase in bonus expenses and a $1.8 million increase in Long-term Incentive Plan expense, Welch Allyn recorded a $2.5 million impairment on the Trimline trademark in the fiscal year ended December 31, 2013, as sales of the FlexiPort product line displaced sales of the Trimline product line, and a $5.0 million goodwill impairment expense in the fiscal year ended December 31, 2012 related to its European reporting unit.

The increase was partially offset by an increase in the unrealized foreign exchange loss of $0.8 million and a loss on an equity investment of $0.4 million. Welch Allyn's other income for the fiscal year ended December 31, 2012 included a gain on sale of business of $0.4 million.

Welch Allyn's provision for income taxes for the fiscal year ended December 31, 2013 decreased $1.9 million, or 15.2%, compared to the fiscal year ended December 31, 2012, primarily due to a reduction in operating income and a reduction in the effective tax rate as the 2013 tax rate was favorably affected by 5.8% due to tax benefits consisting primarily of a one-time "catch-up" for the reinstatement of a research and development tax credit.

Welch Allyn Management's Use of Non-GAAP Measures

Net sales "on a constant currency basis" is a non-GAAP measure. Welch Allyn analyzes net sales on a constant currency basis to better measure the comparability of results between periods. Because changes in foreign currency exchange rates have a non-operating impact on net sales, Welch Allyn believes that evaluating growth in net sales on a constant currency basis provides an additional and meaningful assessment of net sales to both management and Welch Allyn's investors. Constant currency growth rates are calculated by translating the prior year's local currency sales by the current period's exchange rate. Constant currency growth rates are not indicative of changes in corresponding cash flows. One limitation of these non-GAAP measures is that they do not reflect results on a standardized reporting basis. Non-GAAP measures are intended to supplement the applicable GAAP disclosures and should not be viewed as replacements of GAAP results.

Constant Currency Reconciliation

Because Welch Allyn sells its products in many different countries and in different local currencies, its net sales are affected by fluctuations in those currencies against the U.S. dollar during each period. Welch Allyn calculates the constant currency change by taking the current period local currency sales multiplied by the prior year currency rate for the corresponding period for a given country. The translated results are then used to determine period-over-period percentage increases or decreases that exclude the effect of changes in foreign currency exchange rates. A reconciliation setting forth the currency impact of Welch Allyn's net sales for the periods indicated are included above under " Results of Operations."

Liquidity and Capital Resources

The following is a summary of Welch Allyn's cash flows by activity for the six months ended July 4, 2015 and June 28, 2014 and the years ended December 31, 2014, 2013 and 2012:

Welch Allyn generally maintains its cash and cash equivalents in demand deposit and other bank accounts.

Welch Allyn assesses its liquidity in terms of its ability to generate cash to fund its operating, investing and financing activities on an ongoing basis. Significant factors affecting the management of liquidity are cash flows generated from operating activities and capital equipment, purchases and sales of investments, purchases and investments in businesses and dividends to shareholders. Cash provided from operations is the primary source of funds for growth of the business.

Welch Allyn currently believes that its existing cash balances and anticipated future cash flows will be adequate to fund its current and currently planned operations for the foreseeable future and until the completion of the merger.

Operating Activities

The decrease in net cash provided by operating activities was primarily due to a decline in working capital management in 2014 compared to 2013 relating primarily to the payout of the 2013 management bonus as well as payment of restructuring liabilities in 2014, along with higher inventories.

Other Liquidity Matters

Line of Credit Arrangements

On June 21, 2013, Welch Allyn entered into an amended and restated $150,000,000 five-year unsecured revolving credit facility (the "Revolving Credit Facility"). Interest rates on outstanding loans are based on LIBOR plus additional basis points determined by the ratio (the "Leverage Ratio") of consolidated outstanding indebtedness to consolidated earnings before interest, taxes, depreciation and amortization ("EBITDA"). The Revolving Credit Facility has financial covenants that (i) require the Leverage Ratio to be no more than 3.00 to 1.00 at all times and (ii) require that the ratio of consolidated EBITDA less capital expenditures and dividends to scheduled principal payments on indebtedness plus interest expense be no more than 2.50 to 1.00 at all times. Debt issuance costs related to the Revolving Credit Facility are carried by Welch Allyn in "other assets" and amortized to interest expense over the life of the facility. As of December 31, 2014, the amount available to borrow against the Revolving Credit Facility was $147,176,000. There were no amounts outstanding under the Revolving Credit Facility at December 31, 2014. As of December 31, 2014 and 2013, Welch Allyn had outstanding letters of credit totaling $2,824,000 and $3,074,000, respectively, principally related to self-insured health insurance, value added tax guarantees and supplier guarantees, which expire at various times throughout 2015. These letters reduce Welch Allyn's borrowing capacity. As of December 31, 2014 and 2013, Welch Allyn was in compliance with all bank covenants. Upon consummation of the merger, the Revolving Credit Facility will be terminated.

On November 7, 2014, Welch Allyn acquired certain assets of HealthInterlink, LLC for total consideration of $4.0 million in cash including $0.2 million of additional consideration contingent on achieving certain performance targets. On January 1, 2015, Welch Allyn acquired Hubble Telemedical, Inc. for total consideration of $5.2 million in cash including $3.1 million representing the estimated fair value of contingent consideration that Welch Allyn expects to pay to the former shareholders of Hubble Telemedical, Inc. upon the achievement of certain financial milestones. On May 4, 2015, Welch Allyn acquired substantially all the assets of Scale-Tronix, Inc. for an aggregate purchase price of $40.3 million. These acquisitions were funded with cash on hand.

In addition to the contractual obligations and commercial commitments disclosed above, Welch Allyn also has a variety of other agreements related to the procurement of materials and services and other commitments, though it is generally not committed under such agreements to accept or pay for requirements which are not needed.

In conjunction with Welch Allyn's acquisitions and other activities, it has entered into certain indemnifications of performance. Potential losses under the indemnifications may be limited to a portion of the original transaction price, or to other lesser specific dollar amounts for certain provisions. Indemnifications with respect to acquisition and other activities, if triggered, could have a materially adverse impact on Welch Allyn's financial condition and results of operations.

Welch Allyn is also subject to potential losses from adverse litigation results that are not accounted for by self-insurance or other reserves; however, such potential losses are not quantifiable at this time, and may never occur.

Changes in and Disagreements with Accountants on Accounting and Financial Disclosure

None.

Quantitative and Qualitative Disclosures About Market Risk

Welch Allyn operates on a global basis and therefore is subject to the exposures that arise from foreign currency exchange rate fluctuations, primarily related to the Canadian and Australian dollars and the British Pound sterling. The company manages these exposures using foreign currency forward contracts. For a discussion of the accounting treatment of these contracts, please see Note 1 to the financial statements of Welch Allyn for the fiscal year ended December 31, 2014.

Welch Allyn's foreign currency exposures may change over time as changes occur in the company's international operations, though no such changes are anticipated. The company's objective in managing its exposures to foreign currency fluctuations is to minimize earnings and cash flow volatility associated with assets, liabilities, net investments and probable commitments denominated in foreign currencies. Welch Allyn does not enter into financial instruments for speculative purposes. A sensitivity analysis of changes in the fair value of all foreign exchange derivative contracts at December 31, 2014 indicates that if the U.S. dollar uniformly strengthened by 10% against all currencies, the fair value of these contracts would increase by $1.0 million, and if the U.S. dollar uniformly weakened by 10% against all currencies, the fair value of these contracts would decrease by $0.7 million. Any gains and losses on the fair value of derivative contracts would be largely offset by gains and losses on the underlying transactions. These offsetting gains and losses are not reflected in the above analysis.

Welch Allyn's investment portfolio primarily includes cash equivalents for which the market values are not significantly affected by changes in interest rates, and the company is not otherwise exposed to material interest rate risk. In the event that Welch Allyn was exposed to significant interest rate risk, its management would likely take actions to mitigate such risk. However, due to the uncertainty of the actions that would be taken and their possible effects, additional analysis is not possible at this time.

Critical Accounting Policies

Welch Allyn's accounting policies, including those described below, require management to make significant estimates and assumptions using information available at the time the estimates are made. Such estimates and assumptions significantly affect various reported amounts of assets, liabilities, revenue and expenses. If future experience differs materially from these estimates and assumptions, results of operations and financial condition could be affected. Welch Allyn's most critical accounting policies are described below.

Revenue Recognition

Revenue is recognized when all the following criteria have been met: persuasive evidence of an arrangement exists, risk of loss and title pass to the customer, the price is fixed or determinable and collectability is reasonably assured. Welch Allyn generally ships to distributors under shipping terms that transfer title and risk of loss upon shipment and accordingly recognizes revenue upon shipment. In the United States, Welch Allyn sometimes ships directly to customers under free on board destination shipping terms and, therefore, does not recognize revenue until the product is delivered to the customer. Also, Welch Allyn ships products to customers under multiple deliverable arrangements. These arrangements generally qualify for separate units of accounting treatment and, therefore, revenue is recognized as each separate unit is delivered.

Revenue and Accounts Receivable Reserves

Revenue is presented in Welch Allyn's statements of consolidated income net of certain discounts and sales adjustments. Group purchasing organization rebates are offered to Welch Allyn's distributors. These rebates result from a three-party sourcing arrangement between Welch Allyn, a distributor and an end user at a contracted price and are recorded as a reduction in sales. Welch Allyn also participates in programs where it pays a distributor to focus on the sales of Welch Allyn's products or to reward the distributor for attaining sales targets. These payments are recorded as a reduction in sales. Rebates are estimated at the time of sale based on historical data and current contracts with group purchasing organizations.

Welch Allyn's allowance for doubtful accounts receivable reflects its best estimate of probable losses in its accounts receivable portfolio determined on the basis of historical experience, specific allowances for known troubled accounts and other currently available evidence.

If circumstances change, such as payment defaults, changes in business composition or processes, adverse changes in general economic conditions, instability or disruption of credit markets or an unexpected material adverse change in a major customer's or payor's ability to meet its obligations, estimates of the realizability of trade receivables could be reduced by a material amount.

Goodwill and Intangible Assets

Welch Allyn accounts for acquired businesses using the acquisition method of accounting. This method requires that the identifiable assets acquired and liabilities assumed be measured at their fair value, with goodwill being the excess value of consideration paid less the fair value of the net identifiable assets acquired. Judgments and estimates are required in the determination of fair values, including the setting of discount rates, growth rates and forecasted business results for the acquired business and portions of the acquired business, along with estimated useful lives. Changes in these judgments or estimates can have a material impact on the valuation of the respective assets and liabilities acquired and Welch Allyn's results of operations.

Welch Allyn performs an impairment assessment on goodwill and other indefinite-lived intangibles annually during the fourth fiscal quarter, or whenever events or changes in circumstances indicate that the carrying value of a reporting unit may not be recoverable. These events or conditions include, but are not limited to, a significant adverse change in the business environment, regulatory environment or legal factors and a current period operating or cash flow loss combined with a history of such losses or a projection of continuing losses.

The goodwill impairment assessment requires evaluating qualitative factors or performing a quantitative assessment to determine if a reporting unit's carrying value is likely to exceed its fair value. The qualitative goodwill impairment assessment requires evaluating factors to determine that a reporting unit's carrying value would not more likely than not exceed its fair value. As part of Welch Allyn's goodwill qualitative testing process for each reporting unit, various factors are evaluated that are specific to the reporting unit as well as industry and macroeconomic factors in order to determine whether it is reasonably likely to have a material impact on the fair value of Welch Allyn's reporting units. Factors assessed in making this determination included macroeconomic and market conditions, financial performance and changes in management. Management changes in strategic outlook or organizational structure represent internally driven strategic or organizational changes that could have a material impact on Welch Allyn's results of operations or product offerings. Industry, market changes and macroeconomic indicators represent Welch Allyn's view on changes outside of Welch Allyn that could have a material impact on results of operations, product offerings or future cash flow forecasts. In the event Welch Allyn were to determine that a reporting unit's carrying value would more likely than not exceed its fair value, quantitative testing would be performed comparing carrying values to estimated fair values. Changes in management intentions, market conditions, operating performance and other similar circumstances could affect the assumptions used in this qualitative impairment test. Changes in the assumptions could result in impairment charges that could be material to Welch Allyn's Consolidated Financial Statements in any given period.

Quantitative testing involves a two-step process. The first step, used to identify potential impairment, is a comparison of each reporting unit's estimated fair value to its carrying value, including goodwill. If the fair value of a reporting unit exceeds its carrying value, applicable goodwill is considered not to be impaired. If the carrying value exceeds fair value, there is an indication of impairment and the second step is performed to measure the amount of the impairment. The second step requires us to calculate an implied fair value of goodwill. The implied fair value of goodwill is determined in the same manner as the amount of goodwill recognized in a business combination, which is the excess of the fair value of the reporting unit, as determined in the first step over the aggregate fair values of the individual assets, liabilities and identifiable intangibles as if the reporting unit was being acquired in a business combination. If the goodwill assigned to a reporting unit exceeds the implied fair value of the goodwill, an impairment charge is recorded for the excess.

Measurement of the fair value of reporting units in the first step of a quantitative impairment process requires significant management judgment with respect to forecasted sales, gross margin and selling, general and administrative expenses, capital expenditures, the selection and use of an appropriate discount rate. There are inherent uncertainties related to each of the above listed assumptions and inputs and Welch Allyn's judgment in applying them. The use of different assumptions, estimates or judgments in either step of the process could trigger the need for an impairment charge or materially increase or decrease the amount of any such impairment charge. In 2012, Welch Allyn recorded goodwill impairment of $5.0 million related to its European reporting unit.

Estimation of the useful lives of indefinite- and definite-lived intangible assets is based upon the estimated cash flows of the respective intangible asset and requires significant management judgment. Events could occur that would materially affect Welch Allyn's estimates of the useful lives. Significant changes in these estimates and assumptions could change the amount of future amortization expense or could create future impairments of these intangible assets. In 2013, Welch Allyn recorded an impairment of $2.5 million in its Trimline trademark asset which was identified as an indefinite lived asset since acquiring it in 2010 with the acquisition of the Trimline product line. This impairment was due to customer conversion to Welch Allyn's proprietary Flexiport product line which resulted in a Trimline sales forecast that no longer supported the original capitalized value.

Retirement Benefit Plans

Welch Allyn provides a contributory retiree health care plan covering all eligible employees who retired prior to January 1, 1990, and all eligible employees who have or will retire at normal retirement age between January 1, 1990 and December 31, 2014, with at least five years of active service.

Welch Allyn has not prefunded any of its postretirement health care liability and, accordingly, Welch Allyn's accumulated postretirement benefit obligation and net cost recognized for other postemployment benefits reflect the effects of the recent Medicare Prescription Drug, Improvement, and Modernization Act of 2003. The provisions of this act provide for a federal subsidy for plans that provide prescription drug benefits and meet certain qualifications. The discount rate for Welch Allyn's post retirement obligation was 3.5% in 2014, 4.0% in 2013 and 3.0% in 2012. As of December 31, 2014, Welch Allyn has $16.4 million of post-retirement benefit obligation recorded on its consolidated balance sheet. A 1% increase in the trend rate would result in an increase in the liability by 7.5%, or $1.2 million. A 1% decrease in the trend rate would result in a decrease in the liability by 7.5%, or $1.2 million. The sensitivity of the liability to changes in the discount rate is similar in magnitude but opposite in direction to the trend rate.

Income Taxes

Welch Allyn computes income taxes using an asset and liability approach to reflect the net tax effects of temporary differences between the financial reporting carrying amounts of assets and liabilities and the corresponding income tax amounts. Welch Allyn has a variety of deferred tax assets in numerous tax jurisdictions. These deferred tax assets are subject to periodic assessment as to recoverability and if it is determined that it is more likely than not that the benefits will not be realized, valuation allowances are recognized. Welch Allyn has recorded valuation allowances against certain of Welch Allyn's deferred tax assets, primarily those related to net operating loss carryforwards in Brazil, China and Colombia and future tax benefits associated with state tax credits which Welch Allyn believes it is more likely than not that Welch Allyn would never realize these deferred tax assets.

Welch Allyn believes that its estimates for the valuation allowances recorded against deferred tax assets are appropriate based on current facts and circumstances. Welch Allyn had $15.3 million and $15.8 million of valuation allowances on deferred tax assets on a tax-effected basis as of December 31, 2014 and 2013, respectively.

Welch Allyn accounts for uncertain income tax positions using a threshold and measurement attribute for the financial statement recognition and measurement of a tax position taken or expected to be taken in a tax return. The difference between the tax benefit recognized in the financial statements for an uncertain income tax position and the tax benefit claimed in the tax return is referred to as an unrecognized tax benefit.

Welch Allyn and its subsidiaries are subject to United States federal income tax as well as income tax in multiple state and foreign jurisdictions. During 2014, the IRS initiated its audit for the 2013 calendar year. Welch Allyn continued its participation in the IRS Compliance Assurance Program (CAP) for the 2014 calendar year and has submitted the application to remain in CAP for the 2015 calendar year.

Guarantees

Welch Allyn routinely grants limited warranties on its products with respect to defects in material and workmanship. The terms of these warranties generally range one to five years. Welch Allyn recognizes a reserve with respect to these obligations at the time of product sale, with subsequent warranty claims recorded directly against the reserve. The amount of the warranty reserve is determined based on historical trend experience for the covered products. For more significant warranty-related matters which might require a broad-based correction, separate reserves are established when such events are identified and the cost of correction can be reasonably estimated.

Inventory

Welch Allyn reviews the net realizable value of inventory on an ongoing basis, considering factors such as excess, obsolescence and other items. Welch Allyn records an allowance for estimated losses when the facts and circumstances indicate that particular inventories will not be sold at prices in excess of current carrying costs. These estimates are based on historical experience and expected future trends. If future market conditions vary from those projected and Welch Allyn's estimates prove to be inaccurate, Welch Allyn may be required to write down inventory values and record an adjustment to cost of revenue. As of December 31, 2014, Welch Allyn had $57.6 million of inventory recorded on Welch Allyn's consolidated balance sheet, net of inventory reserves. A 1% write-down of Welch Allyn's inventory would change 2014 net income by approximately $0.4 million.

1. BASIS OF PRESENTATION

The accompanying unaudited condensed consolidated financial statements have been prepared in accordance with accounting principles generally accepted in the United States of America for interim financial information (Accounting Standards Codification ("ASC") 270, Interim Reporting). Accordingly, they do not include all of the information necessary for a full presentation of financial position, results of operations, and cash flows in conformity with accounting principles generally accepted in the United States of America ("GAAP"). Operating results for interim periods are not necessarily indicative of results that may be expected for the fiscal year as a whole. In the opinion of management, the condensed consolidated financial statements reflect all adjustments (consisting of normal recurring adjustments) considered necessary for a fair presentation of the results of Welch Allyn Holdings, Inc. and subsidiaries (the "Company"), for the periods presented. The preparation of financial statements in conformity with GAAP requires management to make estimates and assumptions that affect the reported amounts of assets, liabilities, sales, expenses, and related disclosures at the date of the financial statements and during the reporting period. Actual results could differ materially from these estimates. The December 31, 2014 condensed consolidated balance sheet data was derived from audited consolidated financial statements but does not include all disclosures required by GAAP. For further information, refer to the consolidated financial statements and notes included in the audited financial statements for the year ended December 31, 2014. The Company utilizes a fifty-two week fiscal year ending on December 31. The second quarter of 2015 and 2014 each contained 13 weeks and ended on July 4, and June 28, respectively.

4. INCOME TAXES

The effective tax rate was 95.4 and 72.5 percent for the three and six months ended July 4, 2015, respectively, compared to 31.4 and 32.5 percent for the comparable prior year periods.

The effective rates for both the three and six months ended July 4, 2015 are higher than the comparable periods due primarily to $4.0 million tax expense incurred from the liquidation of the corporate owned life insurance program and $2.7 million tax expense due to anticipated nondeductible transaction costs in both the three and six months ended July 4, 2015.

As of July 4, 2015, the balance of unrecognized tax benefits is approximately $2.7 million. It is reasonably possible that a reduction of up to $0.4 million of the balance of unrecognized tax benefits will occur within the next twelve months as a result of potential audit settlements.

5. TRANSACTIONS WITH RELATED COMPANIES

Selling expense in the accompanying unaudited condensed consolidated financial statements includes a commission of $0 and $9,350 as of July 4, 2015 and June 28, 2014, respectively, which is paid to a Domestic International Sales Corporation affiliated by common ownership.

The Company has advanced $35,598 and $34,365 at July 4, 2015 and December 31, 2014, respectively, to related parties, under a split dollar agreement, for the purpose of funding life insurance policies on key stockholders (Note 7). The cash value of these policies has been assigned to the Company as collateral for the trusts' obligations to repay the advance. In 2012, this split dollar agreement was converted from an economic regime to a loan regime which converted the advanced monies to an interest-bearing loan. Interest accrued totaled $1,852 and $1,445 at July 4, 2015 and December 31, 2014, respectively.

6. EMPLOYEE BENEFITS

Postretirement Benefits The Company provides a contributory retiree health care plan covering all eligible employees who retired prior to January 1, 1990, and all eligible employees who have retired at normal retirement age between January 1, 1990 and December 31, 2014, with at least five years of active service.

Benefit obligations and funding policies are at the discretion of the Company's management. Retiree contributions are adjusted annually and the plan contains other cost-sharing features such as deductibles and coinsurance, all of which vary based on the retiree's date of retirement. The accounting for the plan anticipates future cost-sharing changes to the written plan that are consistent with the Company's expressed intent to cap its contribution for all employees who retire after 1998 at the level in effect in 1998.

Long-Term Incentive Plans The second quarter share price used to value outstanding PSUs and PHASARs increased by 49% from the first quarter to a share price of $19.50, reflecting market value indications as determined by our third party valuation group using a probability-weighted approach. The increase in the share price in the second quarter was driven by higher deal certainty. Second quarter compensation expense associated with our long-term incentive plans was $39,107, which included $6,257 as a component of cost of goods sold and $32,850 as a component of selling, general, and administrative expenses on the condensed consolidated statements of income and comprehensive income.

9. COMMITMENTS AND CONTINGENCIES

The Company is involved in various pending and threatened actions arising from its normal business operations. Management believes that the Company has meritorious defenses or claims and it will vigorously protect itself in these actions. In the opinion of management, the outcome of these actions will not have a material effect on the Company's financial position and results of operations.

The Company offers warranties for its products. The specific terms and conditions of those warranties vary depending upon the product sold. For products sold in the United States, the Company provides a basic limited warranty, including parts and labor, for periods ranging generally from one to five years. The Company estimates the costs that may be incurred under its basic limited warranty and records a liability in the amount of such costs at the time product revenue is recognized. Factors that affect the Company's warranty liability include the number of installed units, historical and anticipated rates of warranty claims, and cost per claim.

10. ACQUISITIONS

On June 3, 2014, the Company acquired certain assets of PediaVision Holdings, LLC ("PediaVision"), a leading developer of vision technology and inventor of a new generation of user-friendly vision assessment technology that transcends age, developmental capacity and mobility. This acquisition offers the Company a unique opportunity to better serve its customers by offering them a state of the art diagnostic device for conducting eye examinations in a variety of settings. It also complements the Company's existing vision screening technology, specifically, the Welch Allyn SureSight® Vision Screener and Autorefractor.

The purchase price was $8,112, including a holdback of $1,500. Additional contingent consideration totaling $500 was recognized at the acquisition date to accrue for future payments to the previous owner. Results of this acquisition are included in our consolidated results of operations from the date of acquisition and are not material. The cost of the acquisition was allocated to the assets acquired and liabilities assumed from PediaVision based on their fair values as of the close of the acquisition, with the amount exceeding the fair value of the net assets acquired being recorded as goodwill. Goodwill will be deducted for tax purposes utilizing the straight-line method over a period of 15 years.

Current assets	$	235
Fixed assets		109
Intangible assets		8,244
Total asset acquired		8,588
Current liabilities		(476)
Net assets acquired	$	8,112

The fair values of the assets acquired were determined using the income approach. The income approach estimates the value for a subject asset based on the present value of cash flows projected to be generated by the asset. The projected cash flows were discounted using the Company weighted average cost of capital. The projected cash flows for each asset considered multiple factors from the perspective of a marketplace participant including revenue projections from existing customers, attrition trends, marginal tax rates and expected profit margins giving consideration to historical and expected margins. The income fair value measurement approach is based on significant unobservable inputs, including management estimates and assumptions. Minor adjustments were made to the allocation of purchase price to intangibles in 2015, however, the overall impact is not material to necessitate a recast of those statements. As a result of these adjustments goodwill decreased by approximately $919.

On January 1, 2015, the Company acquired Hubble Telemedical, Inc. Various factors contributed to the establishment of goodwill, including: operational synergies; the incremental value that the Scale-Tronix product line will bring to Welch Allyn's portfolio, and the expected revenue growth over time that is attributable to increased market penetration from future products and customers for Welch Allyn. Goodwill will be deducted for tax purposes utilizing the straight-line method over a period of 15 years.

Management's Responsibility for the Consolidated Financial Statements

Management is responsible for the preparation and fair presentation of these consolidated financial statements in accordance with accounting principles generally accepted in the United States of America; this includes the design, implementation, and maintenance of internal control relevant to the preparation and fair presentation of consolidated financial statements that are free from material misstatement, whether due to fraud or error.

Auditors' Responsibility

Our responsibility is to express an opinion on these consolidated financial statements based on our audits. We conducted our audits in accordance with auditing standards generally accepted in the United States of America. Those standards require that we plan and perform the audit to obtain reasonable assurance about whether the consolidated financial statements are free from material misstatement.

An audit involves performing procedures to obtain audit evidence about the amounts and disclosures in the consolidated financial statements. The procedures selected depend on the auditor's judgment, including the assessment of the risks of material misstatement of the consolidated financial statements, whether due to fraud or error. In making those risk assessments, the auditor considers internal control relevant to the Company's preparation and fair presentation of the consolidated financial statements in order to design audit procedures that are appropriate in the circumstances, but not for the purpose of expressing an opinion on the effectiveness of the Company's internal control. Accordingly, we express no such opinion. An audit also includes evaluating the appropriateness of accounting policies used and the reasonableness of significant accounting estimates made by management, as well as evaluating the overall presentation of the consolidated financial statements.

We believe that the audit evidence we have obtained is sufficient and appropriate to provide a basis for our audit opinion.

Opinion

In our opinion, the consolidated financial statements referred to above present fairly, in all material respects, the financial position of Welch Allyn Holdings, Inc. and subsidiaries as of December 31, 2014 and 2013, and the results of their operations and their cash flows for the three years in the period ended December 31, 2014 in accordance with accounting principles generally accepted in the United States of America.

Derivatives The Company accounts for derivative instruments in accordance with Financial Accounting Standards Board Accounting Standards Codification (ASC), Topic 815, Derivatives and Hedging.

The Company utilizes foreign currency forward contracts to reduce its exposure to foreign currency risk due to fluctuations in exchange rates associated with forecasted foreign currency denominated sales and intercompany inventory purchases. The maturities of these contracts do not exceed twelve months. Changes in the fair value of derivative instruments are recorded in earnings unless hedge accounting criteria are met. For derivative instruments designated as fair value hedges, the changes in fair value of both the derivative instrument and the hedged item are recorded in earnings. For derivative instruments designated as cash flow hedges, the effective portions of changes in the fair value of the derivative are recorded in other comprehensive income (OCI), and the ineffective portions are recognized in earnings.

As of December 31, 2014 and 2013, the fair values of the Company's foreign currency forward contracts were as follows:

Type of Derivative	Balance Sheet Location	Fair Value
		2014	2013
Cash flow hedge assets	Other current assets	$ 2,943	$ 1,223
Cash flow hedge liabilities	Accrued expenses		(776)

Realized gains (losses) on derivatives totaled $842, $721, and ($420) for fiscal years 2014, 2013, and 2012, and were included as a component of net sales and cost of goods sold in the accompanying consolidated statements of income and comprehensive income. Unrealized gains (losses) on cash flow hedges were recorded as a component of OCI.

As of December 31, 2014, the Company had the following outstanding foreign currency forward contracts that were entered into in order to hedge forecasted purchases and revenues (in thousands):

Foreign Currency	Currency Denomination
Canadian dollar	19,664
Australian dollar	12,533
British Pound sterling	9,754

Use of Estimates The preparation of consolidated financial statements in conformity with accounting principles generally accepted in the United States requires management to make estimates and assumptions that affect the amounts reported in the consolidated financial statements and accompanying notes. Actual results may vary from these estimates. The significant estimates relate to allowance for doubtful receivables, intangible assets, product warranty reserves, income taxes, accrued post retirement obligations, restructuring reserves, inventory valuation and reserves, and various accrued expenses.

Revenue Recognition The Company recognizes revenue when all of these criteria have been met: persuasive evidence of an arrangement exists; risk of loss and title pass to the customer; the price is fixed or determinable; and collectibility is reasonably assured. The Company generally ships to distributors under shipping terms that transfer title and risk of loss upon shipment and accordingly recognizes revenue upon shipment. In the United States, the Company sometimes ships direct to customers under FOB destination shipping terms and, therefore, does not recognize revenue until the product is delivered to the customer. Also, the Company ships products to customers under multiple deliverable arrangements. These arrangements generally qualify for separate units of accounting treatment and, therefore, revenue is recognized as each separate unit is delivered.

Sales Incentives Group purchasing organization rebates are offered to our distributors. These rebates result from a three-party sourcing arrangement between the Company, a distributor, and an end user at a contracted price and are recorded as a reduction in sales. The Company also participates in programs where it pays a distributor to focus on the sales of the Company's products or to reward them for attaining sales targets. These payments are recorded as a reduction in sales.

Concentration of Credit Risk The Company sells its products to a large number of geographically diverse end users and distributors, thereby limiting the credit risk.

Shipping and Handling Shipping and handling costs are included in cost of goods sold.

Consolidation The consolidated financial statements include the accounts of the Company and its wholly owned subsidiaries and are prepared in conformity with accounting principles generally accepted in the United States of America. All intercompany accounts and transactions have been eliminated in consolidation.

Cash and Cash Equivalents Cash and cash equivalents includes currency on-hand, demand, and other deposits with financial institutions. The Company classifies all money market funds as cash equivalents.

Allowance for Doubtful Accounts The allowance for doubtful accounts receivable reflects our best estimate of probable losses in our accounts receivable portfolio determined on the basis of historical experience, specific allowances for known troubled accounts, and other currently available evidence. The allowance for doubtful accounts was $1,762 and $2,080 as of December 31, 2014 and 2013, respectively. Trade receivable allowances also include estimated sales returns allowances and cash discount reserves of $689 and $725 as of December 31, 2014 and 2013, respectively.

Fair Value Measurements The carrying amounts of accounts payable and accounts receivable approximate their fair value due to the short-term nature of these financial instruments.

ASC Topic 820, Fair Value Measurements and Disclosures, establishes a valuation hierarchy for disclosure of the inputs to the valuation used to measure fair value. This hierarchy prioritizes the inputs into three broad levels as follows. Level 1 inputs are quoted prices (unadjusted) in active markets for identical assets or liabilities. Level 2 inputs are quoted prices for similar assets and liabilities in active markets or inputs that are observable for the asset or liability, either directly or indirectly through market corroboration, for substantially the full term of the financial instrument. Level 3 inputs are unobservable inputs based on the Company's assumptions used to measure assets and liabilities at fair value. Transfers between levels, if any, are recorded as of the end of the reporting period in which the transfer occurs.

The Company's financial assets and liabilities recorded at fair value on a recurring basis include cash equivalents (money market funds), long-term investments (Note 8), and derivatives (Note 1), and are categorized as follows as of December 31, 2014 and 2013:

2014	Level 1	Level 2	Level 3	Total
Investment securities	23			23
Long-term investments	60,960			60,960
Foreign currency derivative assets		2,943		2,943
Total instruments at fair value	$ 61,079	$ 2,943	$	$ 64,022

2013	Level 1	Level 2	Level 3	Total
Cash equivalents	$ 102	$	$	$ 102
Investment securities	24			24
Long-term investments	64,017			64,017
Foreign currency derivative assets		1,223		1,223
Foreign currency derivative liabilities		(776)		(776)
Total instruments at fair value	$ 64,143	$ 447	$	$ 64,590

The derivative assets and liabilities are classified as Level 2 within the valuation hierarchy and consist of foreign exchange forward contracts that are measured at fair value using observable market inputs such as forward rates, our own credit risk, and our counterparties' credit risks.

The Company's assets that are required to be reviewed for impairment when events and circumstances indicate that the carrying value may not be recoverable and the fair value is less than the carrying value include goodwill, intangible assets, and property, plant, and equipment. The fair value determination of the Trimline trademark and the advance payments to investee were calculated using Level 3 fair value assumptions. The Company recorded impairments of goodwill and trademark, as discussed later in the Intangible Assets section of footnote 1. We have recorded impairments of $319 and $734 in 2013 and 2012, respectively, related to purchased software that will no longer be of use to our business as a result of recent restructuring activities.

In 2014, the Company recorded an impairment of $1,400 of the advance payment to investee, as discussed later in Note 8.

Management determines the appropriate classification of debt securities at the time of purchase and reevaluates such designation as of each balance sheet date. Management has determined that the Company's debt and equity investment securities should be classified as trading and available-for-sale. Trading securities are carried at fair value, with the net unrealized holding gains and losses included in earnings. Available-for-sale securities are carried at fair value, with the net unrealized gains and losses reported in comprehensive income. The fair value of investment securities is based on the quoted market values at December 31, 2014 and 2013. Realized gains and losses and declines in value judged to be other than temporary on available-for-sale securities are included in other comprehensive (expense) income. The cost of securities sold is based on the specific identification method. Interest is included in interest income and dividends on securities classified as available-for-sale are included in other income.

The Company accounts for investments under the equity method or cost method of accounting based on criteria including ownership percentage and level of influence. Investments accounted for under the equity method are adjusted to reflect the Company's share of gains or losses, allocated based on ownership percentage. At least annually, investments are reviewed to assess whether there are any other than temporary impairments.

Inventories Inventories are stated at the lower of cost or market with cost determined under the last-in, first-out (LIFO) and the first-in, first-out (FIFO) methods. Inventories stated on the LIFO basis represented 74% and 72% of total inventories (before LIFO valuation allowances) at December 31, 2014 and 2013, respectively. Had the Company valued all its inventories on the FIFO method, the inventories at December 31, 2014 and 2013, would have been higher by $6,027 and $6,211, respectively. The Company maintains a reserve for excess and obsolete inventory.

Intangible Assets Intangible assets consist primarily of goodwill, trademarks, customer base, and patents. Customer base assets are being amortized by the straight-line method over 10 to 11 years. Patents are being amortized by the straight-line method over five to seven years. Trademarks are not being amortized based on the Company's intent to use them indefinitely.

The Company reviews finite lived assets for impairment when indicators for impairment are identified, in accordance with ASC Topic 350, Intangibles Goodwill and Other. The Company also reassesses the useful lives of all acquired intangible assets.

In accordance with the requirements of ASC 350, the Company evaluated the balance of goodwill recorded on the consolidated balance sheet as of September 30, 2014 and 2013, the annual measurement date for impairment. In 2014 and 2013, the Company used the step 0 test when evaluating goodwill for impairment, whereby a qualitative assessment was performed to determine that it was not-more-likely-than-not that the fair value of our reporting units was less than the carrying values of the respective reporting units. Factors assessed in making this determination included macroeconomic and market conditions, financial performance, and changes in management.

In 2012, changes in our reporting structure resulted in an increase in the number of reporting units. Also in 2012, the Company changed its annual evaluation date for determining whether or not goodwill is impaired from December 31 to September 30. The Company determined the fair value of each reporting unit and allocated its goodwill based on the relative fair value of the reporting units. The Company then compared the fair value of each reporting unit to the carrying value. Fair values were determined using a combination of discounted cash flow and market approach valuation methodologies. The Company recorded a goodwill impairment of $4,950 in 2012, relating to our European reporting unit.

In 2013, the Company recorded an impairment in our Trimline trademark asset which we have classified as an indefinite lived asset since acquiring it in 2010 with the acquisition of the Trimline product line. Some customers have been converting from our Trimline product line to our proprietary Flexiport product line and, therefore, the Trimline sales forecast no longer supported the original capitalized value of the trademark. This impairment has been reported as a component of operating income in the 2013 consolidated statement of income and comprehensive income. In 2014, the Company reviewed the Trimline trademark for impairment and an impairment was not required. The total carrying amount of intangible assets not subject to amortization as of December 31, 2014 and 2013 is $113,945 and $105,150, respectively.

The amortization expense for fiscal years 2014, 2013, and 2012 was $4,612, $4,815, and $4,685. The estimated weighted-average useful life of intangible assets that are being amortized is 5.8 years. Amortization expense is included in the cost of goods sold and selling, general and administrative section of the statement of income.

Property, Plant, and Equipment Property, plant, and equipment are recorded at cost. Upon disposal of facilities, the cost and related accumulated depreciation are eliminated from the respective accounts and resulting gains or losses are included in the consolidated statements of income and comprehensive income within other income. Expenditures for maintenance and repairs are charged to operations as incurred.

Property, plant, and equipment are reviewed for impairment whenever events or changes in circumstances indicate that the carrying amount of an asset may not be recoverable. Recoverability of long-lived assets is assessed by a comparison of the carrying amount of the asset to the estimated future undiscounted net cash flows expected to be generated by the asset or group of assets. If estimated future undiscounted net cash flows are less than the carrying amount of the asset or group of assets, the asset is considered impaired and an expense is recorded in an amount required to reduce the carrying amount of the asset to its then fair value. Fair value generally is determined from estimated discounted future net cash flows (for assets held-for-use) or net realizable value (for assets held-for-sale).

Depreciation The Company provides for depreciation of property, plant, and equipment over their estimated useful lives. Buildings and improvements are depreciated over lives of 20 to 40 years and machinery and equipment generally over lives of 3 to 12 years. Depreciation is computed on the straight-line method. The depreciation expense for fiscal years 2014, 2013, and 2012 was approximately $20,300, $19,676, and $18,932.

Translation of Foreign Currencies The consolidated financial statements of the Company's foreign subsidiaries, where the functional currency is not the US Dollar, are translated into U.S. dollar equivalents in accordance with ASC 830, Foreign Currency Matters. Assets and liabilities are translated at period-end exchange rates. Income and expense items are translated at the average exchange rate for the period. The net adjustments from translation are included in accumulated other comprehensive income. Translation adjustments are generally not adjusted for income taxes as they relate to permanent investments in the Company's foreign subsidiaries. Foreign currency transaction gains and losses are recognized in income based on the difference between foreign exchange rates on transaction date and other settlement dates, these amounts are accounted for in the other income line of the statement of income. The net aggregate transaction loss included in the consolidated statements of income and comprehensive income was $3,179, $2,613, and $915 for fiscal years 2014, 2013, and 2012.

Income Taxes The Company provides for income taxes in accordance with the liability method as set forth in ASC 740 Income Taxes. Under the liability method, deferred income taxes are recognized for the future tax consequences of differences between the tax and financial accounting bases of assets and liabilities at the end of each reporting period. Deferred income taxes are based on enacted tax laws and statutory tax rates applicable to the periods in which the differences are expected to affect taxable income.

Deferred income taxes are not provided on the unremitted earnings of subsidiaries outside the United States when it is expected that these earnings are permanently reinvested. Such earnings may become taxable upon repatriation of assets from a subsidiary or the sale or liquidation of a subsidiary. Deferred income taxes are provided when the Company no longer considers subsidiary earnings to be permanently reinvested, such as situations where the Company's subsidiaries plan to make future dividend distributions.

Excise Tax Beginning in 2013, under the Patient Protection and Affordable Care Act and the Health Care and Education Reconciliation Acts of 2010, among other initiatives, the legislation provides for a 2.3% excise tax on the sale of certain medical devices in the U.S. The Company is required to pay this excise tax on most of its U.S. product sales and $6,427 and $6,889 was recorded in Selling, General, and Administrative Expenses in the 2014 and 2013 consolidated statements of income and comprehensive income, respectively.

Research and Development Research and development expenditures are recorded in selling, general, and administrative expenses as incurred and amounted to $49,787, $54,005, and $59,938 for fiscal years 2014, 2013, and 2012.

Advertising Costs Advertising costs are expensed as incurred. The total amount charged to advertising expense totaled $1,493, $1,838, and $2,096 for fiscal years 2014, 2013, and 2012.

Accounting for Share-Based Compensation The Company values its liabilities incurred under share-based payment arrangements in accordance with ASC 718, Compensation Stock Compensation (Note 7).

At December 31, 2014 and 2013, there was $12,904 and $12,905, respectively, of future tax benefits associated with state tax credits, which have an indefinite carryforward period. 3. INCOME TAXES (Continued)

The Company and its subsidiaries are subject to United States federal income tax as well as income tax in multiple state and foreign jurisdictions. During 2014, the Internal Revenue Service ("IRS") initiated its audit for the 2013 calendar year. The Company continued its participation in the IRS Compliance Assurance Program (CAP) for the 2014 calendar year and has submitted the application to remain in CAP for the 2015 calendar year.

At December 31, 2014, undistributed earnings of consolidated foreign subsidiaries of $29,242 are considered to be indefinitely reinvested in international operations. Accordingly, no provision has been made for deferred taxes related to the future repatriation of such earnings, nor is it practicable to determine the amount of this liability.

At December 31, 2014 and 2013, there was $2,689 and $1,330, respectively, of unrecognized tax benefits that if recognized would affect the annual effective tax rate. The Company believes that there will be no significant change in the amount of unrecognized tax benefits in the next 12 months.

The Company recognized interest accrued related to unrecognized tax benefits in income tax expense. At December 31, 2014 and 2013, the Company accrued approximately $464 and $277 in interest and penalties, respectively, related to uncertain tax positions in the accrued income taxes balance on the consolidated balance sheets.

The American Taxpayer Relief Act of 2012 (the "Act") was signed into law by President Obama on January 2, 2013. Among other things, the Act extended through 2013 several expired or expiring temporary business tax provisions, commonly referred to as "extenders." Provisions that expired at the end of 2011 were retroactively extended to the beginning of 2012, including the research and experimentation (R&E) credit. Under ASC 740, Income Taxes, the effects of new legislation were recognized upon enactment, which in the U.S. federal jurisdiction is the date the president signs a tax bill into law. Although the R&E credit extension was effective retroactively for 2012, entities could only consider currently enacted tax law as of the 2012 balance sheet date in determining current and deferred taxes. The retroactive tax effects for 2012 and the tax effects for 2013 were $2,404 and were recognized by the Company in 2013. The tax effects for 2014 were $618 and were recognized by the Company in 2014.

In September of 2013, the U.S. Department of the Treasury and the Internal Revenue Service released final regulations regarding the deductibility and capitalization of expenditures related to tangible property. Compliance with these final regulations is required with companies' federal income tax returns for tax years beginning on or after January 1, 2014. We have assessed these rules and have determined that the impact on our consolidated results of operations, cash flows or financial position is not material.

4. TRANSACTIONS WITH RELATED COMPANIES

Selling expense in the accompanying consolidated financial statements includes a commission of $20,995, $18,600, and $16,919 for fiscal years 2014, 2013, and 2012, which is paid to a Domestic International Sales Corporation affiliated by common ownership.

4. TRANSACTIONS WITH RELATED COMPANIES (Continued)

The Company has advanced $34,365 and $32,697 at December 31, 2014 and 2013, respectively, to related-parties, under a split dollar agreement, for the purpose of funding life insurance policies on key stockholders (Note 8). The cash value of these policies has been assigned to the Company as collateral for the trusts' obligations to repay the advance. In 2012, this split dollar agreement was converted from an economic regime to a loan regime which converted the advanced monies to an interest-bearing loan. Interest accrued totaled $1,445 and $687 at 2014 and 2013, respectively.

5. BORROWINGS AND LEASE COMMITMENTS

Line-of-Credit Arrangements On June 21, 2013, the Company entered into an amended and restated $150,000 five-year unsecured revolving credit facility (the "Revolver"). Interest rates on outstanding loans are based on the London Interbank Offer Rate plus additional basis points determined by the ratio of consolidated outstanding indebtedness to consolidated earnings before interest, taxes, depreciation and amortization (EBITDA), defined as the "Leverage Ratio" in the credit agreement. These rates range from 87.5 basis points to 125 basis points. The maturity date of the Revolver is June 21, 2018.

The Revolver has financial covenants that:

Require that the ratio of consolidated outstanding indebtedness to consolidated EBITDA, (defined as the "Leverage Ratio" in the credit agreement) be no more than 3 to 1 at all times

Require that the ratio of consolidated EBITDA less capital expenditures less dividends to scheduled principal payments on indebtedness plus interest expense (defined as the "Fixed Charge Coverage Ratio" in the credit agreement) be more than 2.5 to 1 at all times

Debt issuance costs related to the Revolver are carried in other assets and amortized to interest expense over the life of the credit facility. This expense is included in the consolidated statements of income and comprehensive income within investment income and amounted to $290, $494 and $663 for fiscal years 2014, 2013, and 2012, respectively.

As of December 31, 2014, the amount available to borrow against the Revolver was $147,176. There were no amounts outstanding under the Revolver at December 31, 2014.

As of December 31, 2014 and 2013, the Company had outstanding letters of credit totaling $2,824 and $3,074, respectively, principally related to self-insured health insurance, value added tax guarantees and supplier guarantees, which expire at various times throughout 2015. These letters reduce the Company's borrowing capacity.

Operating Leases Future minimum annual payments on operating leases, principally for facilities, office equipment, and automobiles, which expire in one to five-year periods, are as follows for each of the five succeeding fiscal years:

2019		2,136

Net rental expense is included in selling, general, and administrative expenses in the consolidated statements of income and comprehensive income and amounted to $5,635, $6,501, and $7,129 for fiscal years 2014, 2013, and 2012.

6. STOCKHOLDERS' EQUITY

Stockholder Agreements The principal stockholders own 100% of the outstanding Common Stock Class A (voting) and the majority of the outstanding Common Stock Class B (non-voting). The stockholders' agreement contains first refusal rights, which require stock to be offered to other principal stockholders as well as the Company before it can be offered for sale otherwise. It also requires transferred non-voting stock be purchased at appraised value as determined by a recognized appraiser of closely held stock and securities.

The Company is not a party to the agreement, though the voting stockholders shall encourage the Company to redeem sufficient stock from the estate of any deceased principal stockholder, if necessary, to pay estate taxes. The stockholders' agreement allows the principal stockholders the ability to pledge (upon permission of the Company) shares of the Company's voting stock as collateral for loans with third-party bank lending institutions. The Company has agreed with the lender that, in the event of default by the borrower, the Company will purchase the borrower's note from the lender and take possession of the pledged voting stock collateral. Voting stock has been pledged by the principal stockholders against loan commitments totaling $9,000 at December 31, 2014 and 2013. There have been no events of default on these loans.

The Company has entered into agreements with most of its non-principal Class B stockholders in which the stockholders have the right to sell to the Company, and the Company has the right to buy, all of their Company stock in the event (among other contingencies) of death or in the case of employee stockholders' termination of employment for whatever reason. In the event of such a transaction, the fair market value of the stock is to be derived based upon appraised value. The aggregate value of such stock approximates $3,515 and $3,110 at December 31, 2014 and 2013, respectively.

Stock Redenomination In 2014, the Company completed an in-substance stock split of 300 Class A for each outstanding share of Class A and Class B, exclusive of shares held in the Company's treasury. In addition, the value per share of Class A and Class B was reduced from $1.25 per share to $0.01 per share for each issued share, with the difference being reflected in retained earnings.

Treasury Stock At December 31, 2014 and 2013, shares held in Treasury consist of 157,675 and 157,475 shares, respectively, of Common Stock Class B. During 2014 and 2013, the Company acquired 224,914 and 0 shares, respectively, of Common Stock Class A and 200 and 429 shares, respectively, of Common Stock Class B, at a cost of $2,141 and $1,089, respectively.

Postretirement Benefits The Company provides a contributory retiree health care plan covering all eligible employees who retired prior to January 1, 1990, and all eligible employees who have or will retire at normal retirement age between January 1, 1990 and December 31, 2014, with at least five years of active service.

Benefit obligations and funding policies are at the discretion of the Company's management. Retiree contributions are adjusted annually and the plan contains other cost-sharing features such as deductibles and coinsurance, all of which vary based on the retiree's date of retirement. The accounting for the plan anticipates future cost-sharing changes to the written plan that are consistent with the Company's expressed intent to cap its contribution for all employees who retire after 1998 at the level in effect in 1998.

A summary of the net periodic postretirement benefit other than pension costs for 2014, 2013, and 2012 is presented below:

Service cost benefits earned during the period	$ 5	$ 54	$ 49
Interest cost on projected benefit obligation	532	551	660
Amortization of net loss		1,007	687
Amortization of unrecognized prior service cost	146	146	146
Net periodic postretirement benefit cost	$ 683	$ 1,758	$ 1,542

A discount rate of 3.5% was used in 2014, 4.0% in 2013, and 3.0% in 2012 to determine the actuarial present value of the accrued postretirement benefit obligation. A discount rate of 4.0%, 3.0%, and 3.75% was used in 2014, 2013, and 2012, respectively, to determine the net benefit cost. For measurement purposes, the annual rate of increase in health care costs was assumed to be 6.2% in 2014, 5.8% in 2015, 5.5% in 2016, 14.6% in 2017 and 6.3% in 2018, decreasing eventually to 4.8%. Benefits paid, net of participant contributions of $208 in 2014 and $176 in 2013, were $925 in 2014 and $1,109 in 2013. The Company has not prefunded any of its postretirement health care liability and, accordingly, the Company's accumulated postretirement benefit obligation (APBO) and net cost recognized for other postemployment benefits reflect the effects of the recent Medicare Prescription Drug, Improvement, and Modernization Act of 2003. The provisions of this act provide for a federal subsidy for plans that provide prescription drug benefits and meet certain qualifications. The actuarially determined reduction in the APBO at December 31, 2014, is $1,958, with $61 of this reduction recognized in 2014. The subsidy effectively reduced amortization by $0 and reduced interest cost by $61.

Other Benefits The Company provides a non-contributory life insurance benefit to certain retirees who retired prior to December 31, 1989. Because the amount of the liability relative to this plan is insignificant, it has been combined with the health care plan for purposes of this disclosure.

The Company has a salary reduction 401(k) plan whereby eligible employees may defer up to 40% of their eligible compensation. The Company matches 50% of employee deferrals, up to 6% of eligible compensation. The Company also contributes a non-elective contribution whereby the Company contributes 5% of eligible compensation on behalf of eligible employees. Employer contributions aggregated $8,196, $8,479, and $10,233 in fiscal years 2014, 2013, and 2012.

Long-Term Incentive Plans The Company's Welch Allyn Holdings, Inc. Long-Term Incentive Plan (as amended and restated as of January 1, 2013) and Welch Allyn Holdings, Inc. Board of Directors Long-Term Incentive Plan (Amended and Restated as of January 1, 2012) (the "Plans"), which are Board approved, permit the grant of awards to its employees and non-employee directors. The Plans were established for the purpose of providing grants of Phantom Stock Appreciation Rights (PHASARs) and Phantom Stock Units (PSUs) to a select group of officers and other key employees and non-employee directors of the Company to better align the interests of its employees and non-employee directors with those of its shareholders. A PHASAR is a bookkeeping unit representing the right to receive a payment equal to the excess (if any) of (a) the market value of a phantom unit (a hypothetical share of the common stock of the Company) as of the most recent quarterly valuation immediately preceding the date on which the right is exercised or deemed exercised, over (b) the market value of a phantom unit as of its grant date. A PSU is a bookkeeping unit representing the right to receive payment equal to the market value of a phantom unit as of the quarter immediately preceding the date on which the right is exercised or deemed exercised. PHASAR and PSU awards are granted on January 1 of each year. The compensation expense is recognized ratably over the requisite service period. A PHASAR or PSU phantom unit is valued at its hypothetical market value as determined by the Board of Directors, with assistance from an independent valuation firm on the last day of each quarter. The Company uses the intrinsic value method to determine the fair value of PHASARs and PSUs, and accordingly compensation expense is adjusted each quarter for changes in the hypothetical fair value of the Company's stock until a payment is made to the employee.

In 2009, the Company initiated a Board approved Performance Phantom Stock Unit Plan (PPSU) which allows for awards of PPSUs to certain key employees. A PPSU is a bookkeeping unit representing the right to receive a payment equal to the fair value of a phantom stock unit as of December 31 immediately preceding the date on which the right is exercised or deemed exercised adjusted based on performance per a matrix which measures both EBITDA and EBITDA return on Shareholder's Equity. The vesting period is three years. The compensation expense is recognized ratably over the requisite service period based on the percent achievement to target. Expenses accrued under these plans were $950, $1,027, and $501 for fiscal years 2014, 2013, and 2012.

Beginning in 2013, the Company has stopped issuing new PPSU grants and instead replaced PPSUs with a three-year performance income cash incentive plan. The participants each receive a targeted cash award and performance is measured against the three year performance income target. There is a three year cliff vesting period and any outstanding awards at the time of a participants' retirement run to completion but are prorated through the retirement date.

10. COMMITMENTS AND CONTINGENCIES

The Company is involved in various pending and threatened actions arising from its normal business operations. Management believes that the Company has meritorious defenses or claims and it will vigorously protect itself in these actions. In the opinion of management, the outcome of these actions will not have a material effect on the Company's financial position and results of operations.

The Company offers warranties for its products. The specific terms and conditions of those warranties vary depending upon the product sold. For products sold in the United States, the Company provides a basic limited warranty, including parts and labor, for periods ranging generally from one to five years. The Company estimates the costs that may be incurred under its basic limited warranty and records a liability in the amount of such costs at the time product revenue is recognized. Factors that affect the Company's warranty liability include the number of installed units, historical and anticipated rates of warranty claims, and cost per claim.

Supplier Concentration Certain of the raw materials or purchased assemblies used by the Company in the manufacture of its products are available from a limited number of suppliers or, in some cases, from a single supplier. Shortages could occur in these essential materials due to an interruption of supply from any of these suppliers. Although the Company has no reason to believe that there will be an interruption in supply of any materials or purchased parts, and although the Company continually reviews its sources of supply, if the Company were unable to procure certain of such materials or purchased assemblies from a number of these limited suppliers, it would be required to reduce its manufacturing operations, which could have a material adverse effect upon its results of operations.

Regulation The Patient Protection and Affordable Care Act and the Health Care and Education Affordability Reconciliation Act (collectively "Health Care Reform") legislated broad-based changes to the U.S. health care system that significantly impact our business operations and financial results, including higher or lower revenue, as well as higher employee medical costs and taxes. Health Care Reform imposes significant new taxes on medical device manufacturers, which will result in a significant increase in the tax burden on our industry and which could have a material negative impact on our financial condition, results of operations and our cash flows. Other elements of Health Care Reform such as comparative effectiveness research, an independent payment advisory board, payment system reforms including shared savings pilots and other provisions could meaningfully change the way healthcare is developed and delivered, and may materially impact numerous aspects of our business, results of operations and financial condition. Many significant parts of Health Care Reform will be phased in over the next several years and require further guidance and clarification in the form of regulations.

11. RESTRUCTURING AND OTHER CHARGES

In September 2012, the Company announced plans to reshape its business and realign resources to meet the challenges and opportunities of the rapidly changing global healthcare environment. In doing so, the Company established three distinct New Product Development and Technology Centers in New York, Oregon, and Singapore. globally and necessary to prepare for future growth. The Company reduced an estimated 10 percent of its current workforce as part of the restructuring effort. This was accomplished with a combination of voluntary and involuntary separations. The total estimated cost of the entire restructuring plan is approximately $55 million, of which approximately $44 million (including $5 million of capital) has been incurred through December 31, 2014. The Company expects to incur and pay the remaining cost for the other portions of the restructuring over the next year. Costs include the following main categories of expense: severance and retention, costs related to the move and consolidation of product lines to New York and Mexico, personnel (including travel and temporary wages paid to backfill employees), and consulting or legal fees. In 2014, restructuring expense includes $1,212 in third party consulting fees spent to help the Company optimize the efficiency and effectiveness of several functions within the business. This amount relates directly to efficiencies in the sourcing area and has been included in restructuring cost of goods sold in the consolidated statement of income and comprehensive income. Severance packages were calculated based on years of service and included appropriate levels of medical coverage.

On June 3, 2014, the Company acquired certain assets of PediaVision Holdings, LLC ("PediaVision"), a leading developer of vision technology and inventor of a new generation of user-friendly vision assessment technology that transcends age, developmental capacity and mobility. This acquisition offers the Company a unique opportunity to better serve its customers by offering them a state of the art diagnostic device for conducting eye examinations in a variety of settings. It also complements the Company's existing vision screening technology, specifically, the Welch Allyn SureSight® Vision Screener and Autorefractor.

The purchase price was $8,112, including a holdback of $1,500. Additional contingent consideration totaling $500 was recognized at the acquisition date to accrue for future payments to the previous owner. Results of this acquisition are included in our consolidated results of operations from the date of acquisition. The cost of the acquisition was allocated to the assets acquired and liabilities assumed from PediaVision based on their fair values as of the close of the acquisition, with the amount exceeding the fair value of the net assets acquired being recorded as goodwill. Goodwill will be deducted for tax purposes utilizing the straight-line method over a period of 15 years.

Current assets	$	235
Fixed assets		109
Intangible assets		8,244
Total asset acquired		8,588
Current liabilities		(476)
Net assets acquired	$	8,112

As the values of certain assets acquired and liabilities assumed are preliminary in nature, they are subject to adjustment as additional information is obtained, including, but not limited to, the finalization of our intangible asset valuation. The valuations will be finalized in 2015. When the valuations are finalized, any changes to the preliminary valuation of assets acquired or liabilities assumed may result in material adjustments to the fair value of the intangible assets acquired, as well as goodwill.

The fair values of the assets acquired were determined using the income approach. The income approach estimates the value for a subject asset based on the present value of cash flows projected to be generated by the asset. The projected cash flows were discounted using the Company weighted average cost of capital. The projected cash flows for each asset considered multiple factors from the perspective of a marketplace participant including revenue projections from existing customers, attrition trends, marginal tax rates and expected profit margins giving consideration to historical and expected margins. The income fair value measurement approach is based on significant unobservable inputs, including management estimates and assumptions.

(a) Capital Stock of Sub. Each issued and outstanding share of common stock, par value $0.01 per share, of Sub shall be converted into and become one fully paid and nonassessable share of common stock, par value $0.01 per share, of the Surviving Corporation.

(b) Cancellation of Treasury Stock and Parent-Owned Stock. Each share of Company Common Stock that is owned by the Company, Parent or Sub shall no longer be outstanding and shall automatically be canceled and retired and shall cease to exist, and no consideration shall be delivered or deliverable in exchange therefor.

GAAP, applied in a manner consistent with the principles, policies and methodologies used by the Company in the preparation of the Financial Statements and in a manner consistent with the calculation of Estimated Net Working Capital are referred to in this Agreement as the "Balance Sheet Principles".

(b) Closing Statement. No later than 75 days after the Closing Date, Parent shall cause to be prepared in accordance with the Balance Sheet Principles and delivered to the Shareholder Representative a closing statement (the "Closing Statement") and a certificate based on such Closing Statement setting forth Parent's calculation of (i) the Cash and Cash Equivalents as of the Close of Business on the day immediately preceding the Closing Date minus the amount of any cash dividends or distributions to holders of Company Common Stock on the Closing Date prior to the Closing ("Closing Cash"), (ii) the amount of Indebtedness outstanding as of immediately prior to the Closing ("Closing Indebtedness"), (iii) the Other Adjustments as of immediately prior to the Closing ("Closing Other Adjustments") and (iv) the Net Working Capital as of the Close of Business on the day immediately preceding the Closing Date (the "Closing Net Working Capital").

Additional Agreements

(a) As promptly as reasonably practicable after the date of this Agreement (but in no event more than 20 Business Days after the date of this Agreement), Parent shall prepare, together with the Company, and cause to be filed with the SEC a registration statement on Form S-4 pursuant to which the offer and sale of shares of Parent Common Stock in the Merger will be registered pursuant to the Securities Act, which will include the proxy statement relating to the Company Shareholder Meeting (together with any amendments or supplements thereto, the "Form S-4"). Parent shall use its reasonable best efforts (i) to have the Form S-4 become effective under the Securities Act as promptly as reasonably practicable after such filing and (ii) to keep the Form S-4 effective as long as necessary to consummate the Transactions. The Company will cause the proxy statement contained in the Form S-4 to be disseminated to the holders of Company Common Stock as promptly as reasonably practicable after the Form S-4 has become effective under the Securities Act. Notwithstanding the foregoing, prior to filing the Form S-4, or any amendment or supplement thereto, each of the Company and Parent (i) shall provide the other and/or its counsel an opportunity to review and comment on such document (including the proposed final version of such document), (ii) shall consider in good faith all comments reasonably proposed by the other or its counsel and (iii) shall not file or mail such document or respond to the SEC prior to receiving the approval of the other, which approval shall not be unreasonably withheld, conditioned or delayed.

(b) The Company and Parent will provide for inclusion or incorporation by reference into the Form S-4 all reasonably required information relating to the Company, Parent or Merger Sub or their respective affiliates, and the Form S-4 shall include all information reasonably requested by such other party to be included therein. Parent shall promptly notify the Company and its counsel of any comments or other communications, whether written or oral, that Parent or its counsel may receive from time to time from the SEC or its staff with respect to the Form S-4, and shall provide the Company with copies of written correspondence between Parent and its representatives, on the one hand, and the SEC, on the other hand. Parent shall use its reasonable best efforts to respond as promptly as reasonably practicable to any such comments from the SEC or its staff with respect to the Form S-4, and will use its reasonable efforts to incorporate any reasonable comments of the Company or its counsel prior to such response. The Company shall use its reasonable best efforts to cooperate with Parent in responding to any such comments from the SEC or its staff with respect to the Form S-4. Parent shall advise the Company, promptly after it receives notice thereof, of the time of effectiveness of the Form S-4, the issuance of any stop order relating thereto or the suspension of the qualification of the Parent Common Stock issuable in connection with the Merger for offering or sale in any jurisdiction, and Parent shall use its reasonable best efforts to have any such stop order or suspension lifted, reversed or otherwise terminated. Parent shall also take any other action (other than qualifying to do business in any jurisdiction in which Parent is not now so qualified) required to be taken under the Securities Act, the Securities Exchange Act, any applicable foreign or state securities or "blue sky" Laws and the rules and regulations thereunder in connection with the issuance of Parent Common Stock in the Merger, and the Company shall furnish all information concerning the Company and the holders of its capital stock as may be reasonably requested in connection with any such actions.

(c) The information provided by Parent and the Company specifically for use in the Form S-4 shall not, with respect to the information provided by such person, on the date upon which the proxy statement and prospectus contained in the Form S-4 is distributed to the holders of Company Common Stock, contain any untrue statement of a material fact or omit to state any material fact required to be stated therein or necessary in order to make the statements therein, in light of the circumstances under which they were made, not misleading. Each of the Company and Parent agrees to promptly (i) correct any information provided by it specifically for use in the Form S-4 if and to the extent that such information shall have become false or misleading in any material respect and (ii) supplement the information provided by it specifically for use in the Form S-4 to include any information that shall become necessary in order to make the statements in the Form S-4, in light of the circumstances under which they were made, not misleading. Parent further agrees to cause the Form S-4 as so corrected or supplemented promptly to be filed with the SEC and each of the Company and Parent agrees to cause the Form S-4 to be disseminated to the holders of Company Common Stock (and will use its reasonable efforts to incorporate any reasonable comments of the other party and/or its counsel prior to such filing and dissemination), in each case as and to the extent required by applicable Laws.

SECTION 6.02. Company Shareholder Approval and Related Matters. (a) The Form S-4, including the proxy statement therein, will contain the Company Recommendation, and (ii) the Company shall use reasonable best efforts to solicit from its shareholders proxies in favor of the approval of this Agreement and to take all other actions necessary or advisable to obtain the Company Shareholder Approval. As soon as reasonably practicable following the effectiveness of the Form S-4, the Company shall duly call, give notice of, convene and hold a meeting of its shareholders for the purpose of seeking the Company Shareholder Approval. The Company shall use its reasonable best efforts to obtain the Company Shareholder Approval as soon as practicable after the effectiveness of the Form S-4. The Company shall take all other commercially reasonable actions, subject to the fiduciary obligations of the Company Board, to ensure that the Company Shareholder Approval is obtained in accordance with all applicable Laws and the Company Charter, Company Bylaws and the Shareholders Agreement, as applicable. The Company shall promptly notify Parent of its receipt of the Company Shareholder Approval.

(b) Promptly after receipt of the Company Shareholder Approval, the Company shall provide notice of such approval to those holders of Company Common Stock who have objected to the Merger and such other persons as required under applicable Law (the "Authorization Notice"). Such notice shall comply with Section 623 of the NYBCL and other applicable Law. Parent shall furnish to the Company such information as the Company may reasonably request for inclusion in the Authorization Notice.

(c) The information provided and to be provided by each of Parent and the Company specifically for use in the Authorization Notice shall not, with respect to the information supplied by such person, on the date upon which the Authorization Notice is distributed to the holders of Company Common Stock, contain any untrue statement of a material fact or omit to state any material fact required to be stated therein or necessary in order to make the statements therein, in light of the circumstances under which they were made, not misleading. Each of the Company and Parent agrees to promptly (i) correct any information provided by it specifically for use in the Authorization Notice to the extent that such information shall have become false or misleading in any material respect and (ii) supplement the information provided by it specifically for use in the Authorization Notice to include any information necessary in order to make the statements in the Authorization Notice, in light of the circumstances under which they were made, not misleading. Each of the Company and Parent agrees to cause the Authorization Notice as so corrected or supplemented promptly to be disseminated to the holders of Company Common Stock (and will use its commercially reasonable efforts to incorporate any reasonable comments of the other party and/or its counsel prior to such filing and dissemination), in each case to the extent required by applicable Law.

SECTION 6.03. Access to Information. The Company shall, and shall cause each Company Subsidiary to, afford to Parent and to Parent's officers, employees, accountants, counsel, financial advisors and other representatives, reasonable access during normal business hours during the period prior to the Effective Time to all their respective properties, books, contracts, commitments, personnel and records and, during such period, the Company shall, and shall cause each Company Subsidiary to, furnish promptly to Parent all information concerning its business, properties and personnel as Parent may reasonably request; provided, however, that the Company may withhold, and may cause the Company Subsidiaries to withhold (a) such portions of documents or information relating to pricing or other matters that are highly sensitive if the exchange of such documents (or portions thereof) or information, as determined by the Company's counsel, might reasonably result in antitrust difficulties for the Company or its affiliates or (b) any document or information, if access or disclosure thereto, as determined by the Company's counsel, might reasonably jeopardize the attorney-client privilege or attorney work-product protection of the Company or any of its affiliates. If any material is withheld by the Company pursuant to the proviso in the preceding sentence, the Company shall inform Parent as to the general nature of what is being withheld. All information provided by the Company pursuant to this Section 6.03 shall be subject to the confidentiality agreement dated March 20, 2015 between the Company and Parent (the "Confidentiality Agreement").

SECTION 6.04. Best Efforts; Notification. (a) Upon the terms and subject to the conditions set forth in this Agreement, each of Parent, Sub and the Company shall use its best efforts to take, or cause to be taken, all actions, and to do, or cause to be done, and to assist and cooperate with the other parties in doing, all things necessary, proper or advisable to consummate and make effective, in the most expeditious manner practicable, the Transactions, including (i) the obtaining of all necessary actions or nonactions, waivers, consents and approvals from Governmental Entities and the making of all necessary registrations and filings (including filings with Governmental Entities, if any) and the taking of all reasonable steps as may be necessary to obtain an approval or waiver from, or to avoid an action or proceeding by, any Governmental Entity, (ii) the obtaining of all necessary consents, approvals or waivers from third parties, (iii) the defending of any lawsuits or other legal proceedings, whether judicial or administrative, challenging this Agreement or the consummation of the Transactions, including seeking to have any stay or temporary restraining order entered by any court or other Governmental Entity vacated or reversed, and (iv) the execution and delivery of any additional instruments necessary to consummate the Transactions and to fully carry out the purposes of this Agreement. Notwithstanding anything in this Agreement to the contrary, the provisions of this Section 6.04 shall not be construed to require Parent or any its subsidiaries to offer, take, commit to or accept any action, efforts, restrictions or limitations of or on Parent or any of its subsidiaries if such Actions, individually or in the aggregate, would or would reasonably be expected to result (after giving effect to any reasonably expected proceeds of any divestiture or sale of assets) in a Combined Company Material Adverse Effect.

(b) The Company shall give prompt notice to Parent, and Parent or Sub shall give prompt notice to the Company, of (i) the breach or failure to be true and correct of any representation or warranty made by it contained in this Agreement or (ii) the failure by it to comply with or satisfy in any material respect any covenant, condition or agreement to be complied with or satisfied by it under this Agreement; provided, however, that no such notification shall affect the representations, warranties, covenants or agreements of the parties or the conditions to the obligations of the parties under this Agreement.

SECTION 6.05. Public Announcements. Prior to the Closing, neither Parent nor the Company shall, without the approval of the other (which approval shall not be unreasonably withheld, conditioned or delayed), make or cause to be made any press release or other public announcement regarding the Transactions; provided, however, that the foregoing shall not prohibit any party from making, issuing or releasing any announcements, statements, or acknowledgments that such party is required to make, issue or release by applicable Law or by any listing agreement with or listing rules of a securities exchange or trading market or inter-dealer quotation system (provided that such party has used reasonable efforts to give the other party prior notice thereof and an opportunity to review such disclosure). Parent and the Company will consult with each other concerning the means by which the Company and the Company Subsidiaries, employees, customers, and suppliers and others having dealings with the Company and the Company Subsidiaries will be informed of the Merger. The Company acknowledges, and has been so advised, that Parent will be required to file this Agreement with the SEC as a "material contract".

SECTION 6.06. Benefits. (a) For a period of two years after the Effective Time, Parent shall provide or cause its subsidiaries (including the Surviving Corporation) to provide at least (i) a base salary, base wages and annual cash bonus opportunity (but excluding any defined benefit pension, nonqualified retirement, equity, phantom equity and long-term incentive compensation benefits) to each employee of the Company or any of the Company Subsidiaries immediately prior to the Effective Time (each, a "Continuing Employee") that are at least equal to the base salaries, base wages and annual cash bonus opportunities in effect immediately prior to the Effective Time, (ii) severance benefits to each Continuing Employee that are at least equal to those severance benefits set forth on Section 6.06(a)(i) or 6.06(a)(ii) of the Company Disclosure Letter, as applicable, and (iii) employee benefit plans and arrangements (other than base salary, base wages, annual bonus opportunities, long-term incentive compensation, equity, phantom equity and severance benefits) to each Continuing Employee that are no less favorable than those provided to the Continuing Employees immediately prior to the Effective Time; provided, however, that nothing in this clause (iii) shall be construed to prevent Parent from modifying any such employee benefit plans or arrangements to the extent that changes to such plans or arrangements were being contemplated by the Company prior to the date of this Agreement, including, but not limited to, the elimination of the PPO medical coverage option. Notwithstanding the foregoing, for a period of two years following the Effective Time, Parent shall grant to 12 executives of the Company who are Continuing Employees, such individuals to be mutually agreed upon by Parent and the Company prior to the Closing Date (the "Award Executives"), equity, equity-based or phantom equity awards under Parent's Stock Incentive Plan that are substantially comparable in value to the aggregate equity, phantom equity and long-term incentive compensation grants that each such executive received under the Company Incentive Plans in the Company's fiscal year ended December 31, 2015, excluding any one-time retention incentives, solely in accordance with the terms and conditions of Parent's Stock Incentive Plan, as it may be amended from time to time, other than any such amendment that would have the effect of excluding from participation in Parent's Stock Incentive Plan any of the Award Executives.

(b) From and after the Effective Time, Parent shall, and shall cause its subsidiaries (including the Surviving Corporation) to, honor all obligations under the Benefit Plans and Benefit Agreements in accordance with their terms as in effect immediately prior to the Effective Time. For the avoidance of doubt and notwithstanding anything to the contrary in this Agreement or in any Benefit Plan or Benefit Agreement, for purposes of any Benefit Plan or Benefit Agreement containing a definition of "change in control" or "change of control", or other similar term, the Transactions shall be deemed to constitute a "change in control" or "change of control" or satisfy the requirements of such other similar term.

(c) For purposes of the applicable Executive Severance Plan, Section 6.06(c) of the Company Disclosure Letter lists those individuals agreed by Parent and the Company to be entitled to voluntarily terminate employment with Parent and its affiliates (including the Surviving Corporation) for "good reason" (as defined in the applicable Executive Severance Plan) at any time beginning six months following the Effective Time to the date that is two years following the Effective Time in accordance with the applicable Executive Severance Plan; provided that the inclusion or absence of any individual on Section 6.06(c) of the Company Disclosure Letter as of the date of this Agreement shall not be construed to establish or indicate that such individual shall not be entitled to terminate employment with Parent and its affiliates (including the Surviving Corporation) for "good reason" (as defined in the applicable Executive Severance Plan) at any time within two years following the Effective Time, provided that such individual does in fact have "good reason" (as defined in the applicable Executive Severance Plan) to terminate employment. In the event Parent or one of its affiliates (including the Surviving Corporation) amends, modifies or terminates an applicable Executive Severance Plan covering any of the individuals set forth on Section 6.06(a)(ii) of the Company Disclosure Letter without such individual's written consent and without adopting a replacement plan or agreement applicable to such individual that is not less favorable than the applicable Executive Severance Plan (as in effect on the date of this Agreement) would have been to such individual and maintaining such replacement plan or agreement for the duration of such individual's employment, provided such individual remains employed by Parent or any of its affiliates (including the Surviving Corporation) upon the effective date of such amendment, modification or termination, then such individual shall be relieved of, and Parent and its affiliates (including the Surviving Corporation) shall waive and refrain from enforcing, any non-compete restrictions to which such individual may be subject as of the Effective Time as part of any restrictive covenants agreement or similar agreement or undertaking in favor of the Company or any of its affiliates (including the Surviving Corporation).

(d) With respect to any "employee benefit plan", as defined in Section 3(3) of ERISA, maintained by Parent or any of its subsidiaries (including the Surviving Corporation) (including any vacation, paid time-off and severance plans), for purposes of determining eligibility to participate, level of benefits, vesting and benefit accruals (excluding equity, phantom equity, long-term incentive, early retirement subsidies and benefit accruals under any defined benefit pension plans and schemes), each Continuing Employee's service with the Company and the Company Subsidiaries (as well as service with any predecessor employer of the Company or any Company Subsidiary, to the extent service with such predecessor employer is recognized by the Company or such Company Subsidiary) shall be treated as service with Parent and its subsidiaries (including the Surviving Corporation); provided, however, that such service need not be recognized to the extent that such recognition would result in any duplication of benefits.

(e) Parent shall, and shall cause its subsidiaries (including the Surviving Corporation) to, use commercially reasonable efforts to waive, or cause to be waived, any preexisting condition limitations, exclusions, actively-at-work requirements and waiting periods under any welfare benefit plan maintained by Parent or any of its subsidiaries in which Continuing Employees (and their eligible dependents) will be eligible to participate from and after the Effective Time, except to the extent that such preexisting condition limitations, exclusions, actively-at-work requirements and waiting periods would not have been satisfied or waived under the comparable Benefit Plan immediately prior to the Effective Time. Parent shall, and shall cause its subsidiaries (including the Surviving Corporation) to, use commercially reasonable efforts to recognize, or cause to be recognized, the dollar amount of all co-payments, deductibles and similar expenses incurred by each Continuing Employee (and his or her eligible dependents) during the calendar year in which the Effective Time occurs for purposes of satisfying such year's deductible and co-payment limitations under the relevant welfare benefit plans in which such Continuing Employee (and dependents) will be eligible to participate from and after the Effective Time.

(f) With respect to the Company's fiscal year ended December 31 of the year in which the Effective Time occurs, Parent shall, or shall cause the Surviving Corporation to, provide each Continuing Employee a cash bonus payment that is not less than such Continuing Employee's cash target bonus amount for such fiscal year ended December 31, payable in the normal course, subject to such Continuing Employee's continued employment through the end of the Company's fiscal year ended December 31 in which the Effective Time occurs; provided, however, that if such Continuing Employee's employment is terminated by Parent or any of its subsidiaries (including the Surviving Corporation) other than for cause, death or disability or, if such Continuing Employee terminates employment with Parent and its affiliates (including the Surviving Corporation) for "good reason", as defined in the applicable Executive Severance Plan, in accordance with such Executive Severance Plan rights, in either case, on or prior to the end of such fiscal year ended December 31, such Continuing Employee shall be entitled to receive such bonus payment.

(g) With respect to any Continuing Employees based outside of the United States, Parent's obligations under this Section 6.06 shall be modified to the extent necessary to comply with applicable Laws of the foreign countries and political subdivisions thereof in which such Continuing Employees are based.

(b) Parent shall not agree to or permit any amendment, replacement, supplement or other modification of, or waive any of its material rights under, the Commitment Letter or any Definitive Agreement (including any fee letter), in each case, without the Company's prior written consent (which consent shall not be unreasonably withheld or delayed), except any such amendment, replacement, supplement or other modification to or waiver of any provision of the Commitment Letter or the Definitive Agreements, including any fee letter, that (i) does not reduce the aggregate amount of the Financing set forth in the Commitment Letter in effect as of the date of this Agreement, (ii) does not contain additional conditions or other contingencies to funding the Financing relative to those contained in the Commitment Letter in effect as of the date of this Agreement, (iii) does not modify in a manner adverse to Parent the conditions to the funding, enforceability, availability or termination of the Financing contained in the Commitment Letter in effect as of the date of this Agreement and (iv) would not reasonably be expected to prevent, materially delay or materially impede the consummation of the Financing or the Transactions; provided that, for the avoidance of doubt, Parent may amend, replace, supplement and modify the Commitment Letter to add lenders, lead arrangers, bookrunners, syndication agents or similar entities as contemplated by the Commitment Letter in effect as of the date of this Agreement who had not executed the Commitment Letter as of the date of this Agreement so long as any such addition would not reasonably be expected to prevent, materially delay or materially impede the consummation of the Financing or the Transactions; provided, further, that Parent shall notify the Company in writing of any such amendment, replacement, supplement or modification of, or waiver of any of its or any of its affiliates' rights under, the Commitment Letter or any Definitive Agreement reasonably promptly after the time such amendment, supplement, modification or waiver is agreed. In the event that Alternative Financing shall be obtained pursuant to this Section 6.11(c), Parent shall comply with its covenants in this Section 6.11(c) with respect to such Alternative Financing, and Parent shall deliver to the Company complete and correct copies of all amendments, supplements, other modifications or agreements pursuant to which any Alternative Financing shall be made available to Parent; provided that the existence and amount of fees, "market flex" provisions, pricing terms and pricing caps set forth in any fee letter, none of which would reasonably be expected to adversely affect the conditionality, enforceability, availability or termination of the Financing, or reduce the aggregate principal amount of the Financing, may be redacted in a customary manner. In the event that Parent obtains Alternative Financing in accordance with this Section 6.11(c), the term "Commitment Letter" shall mean the commitment letter or letters (as amended, replaced, supplemented or modified in accordance with this Section 6.11(c)) related to the Alternative Financing. debt securities, loan participations and other matters contemplated by the Commitment Letter, including by providing customary accountant's comfort letters (including "negative assurance") and consents from the Company's independent accountants; provided that nothing in this Agreement shall require such cooperation to the extent it would, in the Company's reasonable judgment, (A) interfere unreasonably with the business or operations of the Company, (B) cause any representation, warranty, covenant or other term in this Agreement to be breached or (C) cause any closing condition set forth in this Agreement to fail to be satisfied; provided, further, that notwithstanding anything in this Agreement to the contrary, until the Closing occurs, neither the Shareholder Representative nor the Company nor any of their respective affiliates shall (1) be required to pay any commitment or other fee, (2) have any liability or obligation under any loan agreement or any related document or any other agreement or document related to the Financing (or Alternative Financing) or (3) be required to incur any other liability in connection with the Financing contemplated by the Commitment Letter (or any Alternative Financing) or take any action that would be prohibited by any applicable Law or cause a default of, or breach under, or otherwise violate any Material Contract. Parent shall, promptly upon written request by the Company, reimburse the Company for all reasonable and documented out-of-pocket costs and expenses (including attorneys' fees) to the extent such costs and expenses are incurred by the Company or any of its affiliates in connection with such cooperation provided by the Company or its affiliates or their respective officers, employees and other representatives pursuant to the terms of this Section 6.11 or in connection with compliance with its obligations under this Section 6.11 and Parent shall indemnify and hold harmless the Company and its affiliates and their respective officers, employees and representatives from and against any and all liabilities, losses, damages, claims, costs or expenses suffered or incurred by any of them in connection with the arrangement of the Financing and any information utilized in connection therewith (other than arising from information provided by the Shareholder Representative or the Company), except in the event such liabilities or losses arose out of or result from the willful misconduct of the Company or any of its representatives. The Company hereby consents to the use of its logos in connection with the Financing; provided that such logos are used solely in a manner that is not intended or reasonably likely to harm or disparage the Company or the reputation or goodwill of the Company and its affiliates and their respective marks.

(f) For the avoidance of doubt and notwithstanding anything to the contrary in this Agreement, Parent and Sub acknowledge and agree that their respective obligations to consummate the Transactions on the terms and subject to the conditions set forth herein are not conditioned upon the availability or consummation of the Financing or receipt of the proceeds therefrom.

SECTION 6.12. Section 280G Vote. (a) Prior to the Closing Date, the Company shall use reasonable best efforts to obtain from each person who is, with respect to the Company, a "disqualified individual" (as defined in Section 280G(c) of the Code) a waiver of any payments or benefits that might otherwise reasonably result in the payment or provision of "parachute payments" (as defined in Section 280G(b)(2) of the Code), such that after giving effect to all waivers, neither the Company nor any Company Subsidiary has made or provided, or is required to make or provide, any such payments or benefits (the payments and benefits waived (which, for the avoidance of doubt, shall be, with respect to any individual, the amounts in excess of 299% of such individual's "base amount" (as defined in Section 280G(b)(3) of the Code)) shall be collectively referred to as the "Section 280G Waived Payments").

(c) The Company shall provide to Parent, no later than 10 days prior to obtaining the waivers, (i) drafts of any waivers, disclosure documents and other relevant documents relating to the waiver and vote prepared by the Company in connection with this Section 6.12 and (ii) reasonable documentation regarding the determination of the Section 280G Waived Payments. (i) a certificate signed on behalf of Parent to the effect that each of the conditions set forth in Sections 7.03(a) and (b) is satisfied; and

(ii) a copy of the Escrow Agreement, duly executed by Parent.

SECTION 7.04. Frustration of Closing Conditions. Neither Parent or Sub, on the one hand, nor the Company, on the other hand, may rely on the failure of any condition set forth in this Article VII to be satisfied if such failure was caused by such person's failure to act in good faith or to use its reasonable best efforts to cause the Closing to occur, as required by Section 6.04.

ARTICLE VIII

Termination, Amendment and Waiver

SECTION 8.01. Termination. This Agreement may be terminated at any time prior to the Effective Time, whether before or after receipt of the Company Shareholder Approval:

(a) by mutual written consent of Parent, Sub and the Company;

(b) by either Parent or the Company:

(i) if the Merger is not consummated on or before November 30, 2015 (the "Outside Date"), unless the failure to consummate the Merger is the result of a breach of this Agreement by the party seeking to terminate this Agreement; provided, however, that (A) Parent shall not have a right to terminate this Agreement pursuant to this clause (b)(i) if the Company has the right to terminate this Agreement pursuant to Section 8.01(e) or 8.01(f) and (B) the Company shall not have a right to terminate this Agreement pursuant to this clause (b)(i) if Parent has the right to terminate this Agreement pursuant to Section 8.01(d);

Table of Contents

(ii) if any Governmental Entity of competent jurisdiction issues an order, decree or ruling or takes any other action permanently enjoining, restraining or otherwise prohibiting the Merger and such order, decree, ruling or other action shall have become final and nonappealable; or

(iii) if any condition to the obligation of such party to consummate the Merger set forth in Section 7.01 (in the case of Parent or the Company), Section 7.02 (in the case of Parent) or Section 7.03 (in the case of the Company) becomes incapable of satisfaction prior to the Outside Date; provided, however, that (A) the terminating party is not then in breach of any representation, warranty or covenant contained in this Agreement in any material respect and (B) Parent shall not have a right to terminate this Agreement pursuant to this clause (b)(iii) if the Company has the right to terminate this Agreement pursuant to Section 8.01(f);

(c) by Parent, if Parent shall not have received prior to 11:59 p.m. (New York City time) on the first Business Day following the date of this Agreement an irrevocable appointment and grant of a proxy, in the form attached hereto as Exhibit B, duly executed and delivered by at least all but one of the Voting Trustees (as defined in the Voting Trust Agreement), resolutions of the Voting Trustees, in the form attached hereto as Exhibit C, duly executed and delivered by at least all but one of the Voting Trustees, and a Voting Agreement, in the form attached hereto as Exhibit D, duly executed and delivered by at least all but one of the Voting Trustees;

(d) by Parent, if the Company breaches or fails to perform in any material respect any of its representations, warranties or covenants contained in this Agreement, which breach or failure to perform (i) would give rise to the failure of a condition set forth in Section 7.02(a), 7.02(b) or 7.02(c), and (ii) cannot be or has not been cured within 30 days after the giving of written notice to the Company of such breach (provided that Parent is not then in material breach of any representation, warranty, covenant or agreement contained in this Agreement);

(e) by the Company, if Parent breaches or fails to perform in any material respect any of its representations, warranties or covenants contained in this Agreement, which breach or failure to perform (i) would give rise to the failure of a condition set forth in Section 7.03(a) or 7.03(b) and (ii) cannot be or has not been cured within 30 days after the giving of written notice to Parent of such breach (provided that the Company is not then in material breach of any representation, warranty, covenant or agreement in this Agreement); or

(f) by the Company, if (i) Parent shall have failed to consummate the Merger by the time set forth in Section 1.02, (ii) all the conditions set forth in Sections 7.01 and 7.02 would have been satisfied if the Closing were to have occurred at such time (other than those conditions that by their terms are to be satisfied by actions taken at the Closing) and (iii) the Company shall have given written notice to Parent that the Company stands ready, willing and able to consummate the Merger.

SECTION 8.02. Effect of Termination. (a) In the event of termination of this Agreement by either the Company or Parent as provided in Section 8.01, this Agreement shall forthwith become void and have no effect, without any liability or obligation on the part of any party, other than Section 3.18, Section 4.05, the last sentence of Section 6.03, Section 6.09, this Section 8.02 and Article X, which provisions shall survive such termination, and except to the extent that such termination results from a knowing and intentional breach by a party of any representation, warranty or covenant set forth in this Agreement.

(b) In the event of termination of this Agreement by Parent as provided in Section 8.01(c), then the Company shall reimburse Parent for the reasonable and documented out-of-pocket costs and expenses incurred by Parent or its affiliates in connection with this Agreement, including in respect of all reasonable and documented fees and expenses of accountants, counsel, investment banking firms or financial advisors (and their respective counsel and representatives), experts and consultants to Parent or any of its affiliates in connection with this Agreement and the Transactions.

SECTION 8.03. Amendment. This Agreement may be amended by the parties at any time before or after receipt of the Company Shareholder Approval; provided, however, that (i) after receipt of the Company Shareholder Approval, there shall be made no amendment that by Law requires further approval by the shareholders of the Company without the further approval of such shareholders, (ii) no amendment shall be made to this Agreement after the Effective Time, (iii) except as provided above, no amendment of this Agreement by the Company shall require the approval of the shareholders of the Company and (iv) any amendment of Section 10.06 or 10.10(b) or this Section 8.03 that in any way materially adversely affects the rights of the Financing Sources shall not be effective without the prior written consent of the Financing Sources. This Agreement may not be amended except by an instrument in writing signed on behalf of each of the parties.

SECTION 8.04. Extension; Waiver. At any time prior to the Effective Time, the parties may (i) extend the time for the performance of any of the obligations or other acts of the other parties, (ii) waive any inaccuracies in the representations and warranties contained in this Agreement or in any document delivered pursuant to this Agreement or (iii) subject to the proviso of Section 8.03, waive compliance with any of the agreements or conditions contained in this Agreement. Subject to the proviso in Section 8.03, no extension or waiver by the Company shall require the approval of the shareholders of the Company. Any agreement on the part of a party to any such extension or waiver shall be valid only if set forth in an instrument in writing signed on behalf of such party. The failure of any party to this Agreement to assert any of its rights under this Agreement or otherwise shall not constitute a waiver of such rights.

SECTION 8.05. Procedure for Termination, Amendment, Extension or Waiver. A termination of this Agreement pursuant to Section 8.01, an amendment of this Agreement pursuant to Section 8.03 or an extension or waiver pursuant to Section 8.04 shall, in order to be effective, require in the case of Parent, Sub or the Company, action by its Board of Directors or the duly authorized designee of its Board of Directors. Termination of this Agreement prior to the Effective Time shall not require the approval of the shareholders of the Company.

ARTICLE IX

Indemnification

SECTION 9.01. Parent's Indemnification. From and after the Closing, Parent, Sub, the Surviving Corporation and each of their respective affiliates, officers, directors, employees, shareholders, agents and representatives ("Parent Indemnitee") shall be indemnified and held harmless by the Escrow Fund from and against any and all Losses directly arising out of or based upon:

- (a) any misrepresentation in or breach of any representation or warranty of the Company set forth in this Agreement;
- (b) any breach or nonfulfillment prior to the Closing of any covenant, agreement or other obligation of the Company set forth in this Agreement;
- (c) consideration paid to holders of Dissenting Shares exceeding the Per Share Merger Consideration attributable to such shares, provided that the Losses attributable thereto shall be limited to the amount that such consideration exceeds the Per Share Merger Consideration attributable to such shares; and

- (d) all Indemnified Taxes.

Solely for purposes of determining the amount of Losses associated with any claim for indemnification under this Section 9.01(a) (and not, for the avoidance of doubt, for purposes of determining any misrepresentation in or breach of any representation or warranty), the representations and warranties set forth therein shall be deemed to be made as though there were no "material", "in all material respects", Company Material Adverse Effect or other materiality qualifier.

SECTION 9.02. Shareholder Indemnification. From and after the Closing, the Shareholder Representative, the holders of any shares of the Company Common Stock and their respective affiliates, officers, directors, employees, shareholders, agents and representatives (the "Shareholder Indemnitees") shall be indemnified and held harmless by Parent, Sub and the Surviving Corporation from and against, and Parent, Sub and the Surviving Corporation shall reimburse the Shareholder Indemnitees for, any and all Losses directly arising out of or based upon:

- (a) any misrepresentation in or breach of any representation or warranty of Parent or Sub set forth in this Agreement;
- (b) any breach or nonfulfillment of any covenant, agreement or other obligation of Parent or Sub set forth in this Agreement; and
- (c) any breach or nonfulfillment after the Closing of any covenant, agreement or other obligation of Company set forth in this Agreement.

SECTION 9.03. Defense of Third Party Claims.

(a) If any legal proceedings shall be instituted or any claim is asserted by any third party (a "Third Party Claim") in respect of which any party to this Agreement may have an obligation to indemnify another party to this Agreement, the party that is asserting such right to indemnity (the "Indemnified Party") shall give the party from whom indemnity is sought (the "Indemnifying Party") written notice thereof within 10 Business Days after receipt by such Indemnified Party of written notice of the Third Party Claim, but any failure to so notify the Indemnifying Party shall not relieve it from any liability that it may have to the Indemnified Party other than to the extent the Indemnifying Party is actually prejudiced thereby. Thereafter, the Indemnified Party shall deliver to the Indemnifying Party, within five Business Days' time after the Indemnified Party's receipt thereof, copies of all notices and documents (including court papers) received by the Indemnified Party relating to the Third Party Claim, but any failure to make such deliveries to the Indemnifying Party shall not relieve it from any liability that it may have to the Indemnified Party other than to the extent the Indemnifying Party is actually prejudiced thereby.

(b) If a Third Party Claim is made against an Indemnified Party, the Indemnifying Party shall be entitled to participate in the defense thereof and, if it so chooses, shall have the right, within 10 Business Days of receipt of notice from the Indemnified Party of the commencement of such Third Party Claim upon written notice to the Indemnified Party, to assume the defense thereof with counsel selected by the Indemnifying Party at its sole cost and expense; provided that such counsel is not reasonably objected to by the Indemnified Party. Notwithstanding the foregoing, the Indemnifying Party shall not have the right to assume the defense of a Third Party Claim if (i) the claim seeks an injunction or other equitable relief; (ii) the Indemnified Parties shall have been advised by counsel that there are one or more legal or equitable defenses available to them which are different from or in addition to those available to the Indemnifying Party, and, in the reasonable opinion of the Indemnified Parties, counsel for the Indemnifying Party could not adequately represent the interest of the Indemnified Parties because such interests could be in conflict with those of the Indemnified Parties; or (iii) such claim or Action involves criminal liability. Should the Indemnifying Party so elect to assume the defense of a Third Party Claim, the Indemnified Party shall be entitled to participate in such defense but the Indemnifying Party shall not be liable to the Indemnified Party for any legal expenses subsequently incurred by the Indemnified Party in connection with such participation or otherwise in connection with the defense of such claim; provided, however, that the Indemnifying Party shall be liable for such legal expenses if the Indemnified Party determines in good faith that the incurrence of the same is appropriate in light of defenses not available to the Indemnifying Party, conflicts of interest or other similar circumstances.

(c) If the Indemnifying Party chooses to defend or prosecute a Third Party Claim, all Indemnified Parties shall cooperate in the defense or prosecution thereof. Such cooperation shall include the retention and (upon the Indemnifying Party's request) the provision to the Indemnifying Party of records and information that are reasonably relevant to such Third Party Claim, and making employees available on a mutually convenient basis to provide additional information and explanation of any material provided hereunder.

(d) If the Indemnifying Party assumes the defense of a Third Party Claim, the Indemnifying Party shall not, without the prior written approval of the Indemnified Party (with such approval not to be unreasonably withheld, conditioned or delayed) consent to the settlement, compromise or discharge of a Third Party Claim (i) which provides for any relief other than the payment of monetary damages or (ii) which does not include as an unconditional term thereof the giving by all third party claimants to the Indemnified Party of a release from all liability in respect thereof.

(e) The Indemnified Party shall not admit any liability with respect to, or settle, compromise or discharge, such Third Party Claim without the Indemnifying Party's prior written consent (which consent shall not be unreasonably withheld, conditioned or delayed).

(f) If the Indemnifying Party does not assume control of the defense of such claim as provided in this Section 9.03, the Indemnified Party shall have the right to defend such Third Party Claim in such manner as it may deem appropriate at the cost and expense of the Indemnifying Party (other than during any period in which the Indemnified Party shall have failed to give notice of the Third Party Claim as provided above), and the Indemnifying Party will promptly reimburse the Indemnified Party therefor in accordance with this Section 9.03. The reimbursement of fees, costs and expenses required by this Section 9.03 shall be made by periodic payments during the course of the investigations or defense, as and when bills are received or expenses incurred.

SECTION 9.04. Other Claims. A claim for indemnification for any matter not involving a Third Party Claim shall be asserted by the Indemnified Party to the Indemnifying Party in writing with reasonable promptness, setting forth specifically the obligation with respect to which the claim is made, the facts giving rise to and the alleged basis for such claim and, if known or reasonably ascertainable, the amount of the liability asserted or which may be asserted by reason thereof, but any failure to so notify the Indemnifying Party shall not relieve the Indemnifying Party from any liability that it may have to the Indemnified Party other than to the extent the Indemnifying Party is actually prejudiced thereby. In the event the Indemnifying Party disputes its obligation to indemnify the Indemnified Party under this Article IX, the Indemnifying Party shall have 30 days after receipt of notice under this Section 9.04 to give written notice of such objection, and the grounds therefor, and the Indemnified Party shall thereafter have 20 days to respond in writing to the objection of the Indemnifying Party. If after such 20-day period there remains a dispute as to any obligation, the parties shall attempt in good faith for 20 days to agree upon the rights of the respective parties with respect to such indemnification obligation.

SECTION 9.05. Survival. (a) The representations and warranties of each party contained in this Agreement, other than the Tax Reps, and the covenants contained in this Agreement to the extent required to be performed prior to Closing shall survive the Closing for a period ending on the date that is 12 months after the Closing Date (the "Survival Expiration Date"), at which time such representations and warranties and covenants shall terminate and thereafter be of no force and effect.

The Tax Reps shall not survive the Closing. Any claim for indemnity under Section 9.01 or Section 9.02 must be asserted in writing prior to the Survival Expiration Date, except for any claim for indemnity arising under Section 6.06, which must be asserted in writing prior to the date that is two years and three months after the Closing Date and any claim for indemnity pursuant to Section 9.02 related to Section 11.05. The other covenants contained in this Agreement and the Escrow Agreement shall survive the Closing Date in accordance with their terms.

(b) Notwithstanding Section 9.05(a), a party's rights to indemnification under this Article IX, and the other provisions of this Article IX, shall not terminate with respect to any claim with respect to which the Indemnified Party has delivered a written notice to the Indemnifying Party prior to the Survival Expiration Date, alleging in good faith a breach of any representation, warranty or covenant or other right to indemnification and setting forth, in reasonable detail, the basis for indemnification, the facts upon which the claim for indemnification is based and an estimate in reasonable detail of the Losses incurred in connection therewith; provided, however, that the applicable representation, warranty, covenant, agreement or right to indemnification under this Article IX shall survive only until, and only for purposes of, the resolution of the matter covered by such notice.

SECTION 9.06. Indemnification Limitations. Notwithstanding anything to the contrary in this Agreement:

(a) Any Parent Indemnitee or Shareholder Indemnitee shall not be entitled to indemnification for Losses under Sections 9.01(a) (other than with respect to misrepresentations of any Fundamental Rep and fraudulent misrepresentations), 9.01(b) (to the extent arising out of a breach of Section 5.01) or 9.02(a) (other than with respect to misrepresentations of any Fundamental Rep and fraudulent misrepresentations) unless (i) such Losses from any single claim or aggregated claims arising out of the same facts, events or circumstances is an amount in excess of $250,000, and (ii) the aggregate amount of all Losses for such claims by such Parent Indemnitee or Shareholder Indemnitee, as applicable, under this Agreement exceeds $20,000,000 (the "Deductible"), and then Parent Indemnitee or Shareholder Indemnitee, as applicable, may only recover for the aggregate Losses amount of all Losses in excess of the Deductible. In no event shall the aggregate liability of the Company for all Losses under this Article IX exceed the Escrow Amount minus the amount, if any, paid to Parent out of the Escrow Fund pursuant to Section 2.02(d)(ii). Any and all payments of any indemnification obligations to any Parent Indemnitee under this Article IX shall be made solely and exclusively from the funds, if any, then constituting the Escrow Fund. Any Parent Indemnitee's sole recourse for indemnity in respect of any Loss under this Article IX shall be limited solely and exclusively to the funds, if any, then constituting the Escrow Fund. Notwithstanding anything to the contrary in this Agreement, in no event shall the aggregate liability of Parent for all Losses arising under Section 9.01(a) with respect to Sections 4.07, 4.08 and 4.09 exceed $75,000,000.

(b) The Indemnified Party shall mitigate all Losses in accordance with applicable Law for which such Indemnified Parties are entitled or may be entitled to indemnification under this Article IX. The amount of any Losses for which indemnification is provided for under this Article IX shall be (i) offset by any amounts actually recovered by the Indemnified Parties as a result of any indemnification by any third party and any insurance proceeds or other amounts received by the Indemnified Parties from third parties with respect to such Losses (net of the cost of recovery) and (ii) reduced to take account of any tax benefit actually realized by the Indemnified Party arising from the incurrence or payment of any such Loss in the Tax year in which the Loss was incurred (or in the succeeding Tax year), in each case on a "with and without" basis. If any such insurance proceeds and/or other amounts are actually received and/or authorized for deferred accounting by any Parent Indemnitee after receipt of any indemnification payment pursuant to this Article IX, Parent shall promptly repay to the Company such portion of such indemnification payment equal to the amounts so recovered or realized.

(c) Any payments made pursuant to Section 2.02, 9.01 or 9.02 shall be treated as an adjustment to the purchase price for all tax purposes, unless otherwise required by a final determination (which shall include the execution of a Form 870-AD or successor form).

(d) The amount of the Loss arising out of any item included as a liability in calculating Net Working Capital shall be calculated net of the amount so included. The amount of the Loss arising out of any reduction in value of any Current Asset acquired at the Closing shall be calculated net of the reported value of such Current Asset used in calculating Net Working Capital. Notwithstanding any other provision of this Agreement to the contrary, no Parent Indemnitee shall be entitled to indemnification under this Article IX for any Losses to the extent such Losses are reflected in the Final Indebtedness or in the Final Net Working Capital.

(e) Notwithstanding anything to the contrary in this Agreement, neither the Parent Indemnitee nor Shareholder Indemnitee shall be entitled to indemnification under this Article IX with respect to any losses, liabilities, damages or expenses that are in the nature of punitive, speculative, special or treble or other multiple damages required by statute, law, ordinance, rule, regulation or code, in each case of any kind or nature, regardless of the form of action through which any of the foregoing are sought (except to the extent such damages are payable to third parties).

(f) Notwithstanding anything to the contrary in this Agreement, no Parent Indemnitee shall be entitled to indemnification under this Article IX with respect to any breach or inaccuracy of any representation, warranty, covenant or agreement of the Company made as of the Closing Date as a result of a matter arising between the execution and delivery of this Agreement and the Closing, if: (i) the Company provides written notice to Parent prior to Closing, describing in detail such breach or inaccuracy, (ii) Company simultaneously and irrevocably informs Parent in writing that Parent is not required to consummate the Transactions and (iii) the Closing occurs.

(g) The representations and warranties of the Company shall not be affected or deemed waived by reason of any investigation made by or on behalf of Parent or Sub (including any of the representatives of Parent or Sub) or by reason of the fact that Parent or Sub or any of the representatives of Parent or Sub knew or should have known that any such representation or warranty is or might be inaccurate.

SECTION 9.07. Release of Escrow Fund. (a) As promptly as practicable and in any event no later than the third Business Day following the Survival Expiration Date, Parent shall provide to the Shareholder Representative (i) a written notice of its reasonable and good faith determination of the Projected Indemnity Amount, together with reasonable supporting calculations and documentation, and (ii) a written notice duly executed by Parent instructing the Escrow Agent to release an amount of cash from the Escrow Fund equal to the amount by which the amount of the Escrow Fund as of the Survival Expiration Date exceeds the Projected Indemnity Amount so determined by Parent (such notice, the "Expiration Date Release Notice"). The Shareholder Representative shall promptly execute the Expiration Date Release Notice following receipt and delivery of the same to the Escrow Agent, whereupon the Escrow Agent will release the relevant funds from the Escrow Fund. Promptly following resolution of all claims for indemnification from the Escrow Fund that were pending as of the Survival Expiration Date, the Shareholder Representative and Parent shall jointly instruct the Escrow Agent to release all cash then constituting the Escrow Fund. The term "Projected Indemnity Amount" means the maximum aggregate amount of Losses that, as of the Survival Expiration Date, would reasonably be expected to be indemnified by the Escrow Fund pursuant to this Article IX in respect of claims that have been timely asserted but not finally resolved by such date; provided, however, that in the case of any claim under Section 9.01(d), such claim is limited to an amount of Indemnified Tax that is

(i) shown as due on a Tax Return for a Pre-Closing Tax Period, (ii) with respect to an item for which a Governmental Entity has identified in writing an issue and has provided, in writing, sufficient information to determine the nature and, taking into account the relevant Tax Return and accompanying work papers, amount of the issue, or (iii) with respect to a Tax position for which a reserve has been established for financial reporting purposes. Anything to the contrary in the foregoing notwithstanding, the execution and delivery of an Expiration Date Release Notice by the Shareholder Representative shall not prevent or otherwise impair the Shareholder Representative from disputing the Projected Indemnity Amount or any liability in respect of claims included in the determination of the Projected Indemnity Amount.

(b) If all or any portion of the Escrow Fund is released as provided in Section 9.07(a), the Shareholder Representative and Parent shall, with respect to any such release, jointly instruct the Escrow Agent to use the remaining portion to make payments in the manner contemplated by clauses (A) and (B) of Section 2.02(d)(i).

SECTION 9.08. *Exclusive Remedy. (a) Except as otherwise specifically provided in Sections 2.02 and 10.09 and claims for fraud, each party to this Agreement acknowledges that its sole and exclusive remedy after the Closing with respect to any and all claims relating to or arising out of this Agreement and the Transactions, the Company or any Company Subsidiary or any of their respective assets and liabilities shall, in each case, be pursuant to the indemnification provisions set forth in this Article IX. In furtherance of the foregoing, except as otherwise specifically provided in Sections 2.02 and 10.09 and claims for fraud, each of Parent and the Shareholder Representative hereby waives, from and after the Closing, any and all rights, claims and causes of action it may have relating to or arising out of this Agreement, any document or certificate delivered in connection herewith, any applicable Law, common law or otherwise except pursuant to the indemnification provisions set forth in this Article IX. Nothing in this Section 9.08(a) shall limit any third-party beneficiary rights conferred to any individual under Section 2.05, 6.06 or 6.08.

(b) After the Closing, no party may bring any suit, action or proceeding seeking to rescind the Transactions or this Agreement, whether based on fraud, gross negligence, negligence, breach of contract, breach of statute or otherwise.

All Exhibits and schedules annexed hereto or referred to herein and the Company Disclosure Letter are hereby incorporated in and made a part of this Agreement as if set forth in full herein and are an integral part of this Agreement. The table of contents and headings contained in this Agreement are for reference purposes only and shall not affect in any way the meaning or interpretation of this Agreement. SECTION 10.04. Severability. If any term or other provision of this Agreement is invalid, illegal or incapable of being enforced by any rule or Law, or public policy, all other conditions and provisions of this Agreement shall nevertheless remain in full force and effect so long as the economic or legal substance of the Transactions is not affected in any manner materially adverse to any party. Upon such determination that any term or other provision is invalid, illegal or incapable of being enforced, the parties hereto shall negotiate in good faith to modify this Agreement so as to effect the original intent of the parties as closely as possible in an acceptable manner to the end that the Transactions are fulfilled to the extent possible.

SECTION 10.05. Counterparts. This Agreement may be executed in two or more counterparts, all of which shall be considered one and the same agreement and shall become effective when two or more counterparts have been signed by each of the parties and delivered to the other parties.

SECTION 10.09. Specific Performance. (a) The parties hereto agree that irreparable damage for which monetary damages, even if available, would not be an adequate remedy would occur in the event that the parties hereto do not perform their obligations under the provisions of this Agreement (including failing to take such actions as are required of them hereunder to consummate the Merger and the other transactions contemplated by this Agreement) in accordance with its specified terms or otherwise breach such provisions. Subject to the immediately following sentence, the parties acknowledge and agree that (i) the parties shall be entitled to an injunction or injunctions, specific performance or other equitable relief to prevent breaches of this Agreement and to enforce specifically the terms and provisions hereof in the courts described in Section 10.10 without proof of damages or otherwise, this being in addition to any other remedy to which they are entitled under this Agreement and (ii) the right of specific enforcement is an integral part of the transactions contemplated by this Agreement and without that right, neither the Company nor Parent would have entered into this Agreement.

(b) Each of the parties hereto agrees that it will not oppose the granting of an injunction, specific performance and other equitable relief on the basis that the other parties hereto have an adequate remedy at law or an award of specific performance is not an appropriate remedy for any reason at law or in equity. The parties hereto acknowledge and agree that any party seeking an injunction or injunctions to prevent breaches of this Agreement and to enforce specifically the terms and provisions of this Agreement in accordance with this Section 10.09 shall not be required to provide any bond or other security in connection with any such order or injunction, and the party opposing such injunction or injunctions hereby agrees that it shall not contest the amount or absence of any such bond or other security requested or offered by the party seeking such injunction or injunctions. If, prior to the Outside Date, any party brings any suit, action or proceeding, in each case in accordance with Section 10.10, to prevent breaches of this Agreement and to enforce specifically the terms and provisions hereof, the Outside Date shall automatically be extended by (i) the amount of time during which such suit, action or proceeding is pending, plus 20 Business Days or (ii) such other time period established by the court presiding over such suit, action or proceeding, as the case may be.

In addition, each of the parties hereto hereby irrevocably (A) submits to the jurisdiction of such courts (and, in the case of appeals, appropriate appellate courts therefrom) in any such action or proceeding and irrevocably waives the defense of an inconvenient forum to the maintenance of any such action or proceeding, (B) agrees that it will not attempt to deny or defeat such personal jurisdiction by motion or other request for leave from any such court, (C) agrees that it will not bring any action relating to this Agreement or the Transactions in any court other than such courts specified in clauses (i) and (ii) above and (D) waives any right to trial by jury with respect to any action related to or arising out of this Agreement or the Transactions. The consents to jurisdiction set forth in this paragraph shall not constitute general consents to service of process in the State of New York. The parties hereto agree that service of process by certified mail, return receipt requested, to the address for notices set out in Section 10.01 shall be sufficient to satisfy all legal requirements for service of process. The parties hereto agree that a final judgment in any such action or proceeding shall be conclusive and may be enforced in other jurisdictions by suit on the judgment or in any other manner provided by applicable Law.

(b) NOTWITHSTANDING ANYTHING HEREIN TO THE CONTRARY, EACH OF THE PARTIES HERETO EXPRESSLY AGREE (I) THAT IT WILL NOT BRING OR SUPPORT ANY ACTION, WHETHER IN LAW OR IN EQUITY, WHETHER IN CONTRACT OR IN TORT OR OTHERWISE, AGAINST THE AGENTS, ARRANGERS, LENDERS OR ENTITIES COMMITTING TO PROVIDE FINANCING IN CONNECTION WITH THIS AGREEMENT, THE TRANSACTION, THE COMMITMENT LETTER, AND THE PARTIES TO ANY JOINDER AGREEMENTS, INDENTURES OR CREDIT AGREEMENTS ENTERED PURSUANT THERETO OR RELATING THERETO, TOGETHER WITH THEIR RESPECTIVE AFFILIATES AND ANY SUCH AFFILIATES' RESPECTIVE OFFICERS, DIRECTORS, EMPLOYEES, AGENTS AND REPRESENTATIVES INVOLVED IN ANY SUCH FINANCING AND THEIR RESPECTIVE SUCCESSORS AND ASSIGNS (COLLECTIVELY, THE "FINANCING SOURCES") ARISING OUT OF, OR RELATING TO, THIS AGREEMENT, THE TRANSACTION OR THE COMMITMENT LETTER IN ANY FORUM OTHER THAN ANY STATE OR FEDERAL COURT LOCATED IN THE BOROUGH OF MANHATTAN, NEW YORK, (II) TO WAIVE AND HEREBY WAIVES (1) ANY RIGHT TO TRIAL BY JURY, (2) ANY OBJECTION WHICH THEY MAY NOW OR HEREAFTER HAVE TO THE LAYING OF VENUE OF ANY PROCEEDING IN ANY SUCH COURT REFERRED TO IN CLAUSE (II), (3) THE DEFENSE OF AN INCONVENIENT FORUM TO THE MAINTENANCE OF SUCH PROCEEDING IN ANY SUCH COURT REFERRED TO IN CLAUSE (II), AND (4) AGREE THAT A FINAL JUDGMENT IN ANY SUCH PROCEEDING SHALL BE CONCLUSIVE AND MAY BE ENFORCED IN OTHER JURISDICTIONS BY SUIT ON THE JUDGMENT OR ANY OTHER MANNER PROVIDED BY LAW, IN EACH CASE, IN RESPECT OF ANY SUCH ACTION AND (III) THAT ANY SUCH ACTION (OR INTERPRETATION OF THIS AGREEMENT) SHALL BE GOVERNED BY, AND CONSTRUED IN ACCORDANCE WITH, THE LAWS OF THE STATE OF NEW YORK, WITHOUT REGARD TO THE CONFLICTS OF LAW RULES OF SUCH STATE THAT WOULD RESULT IN THE APPLICATION OF

THE LAWS OF ANY OTHER STATE. NOTWITHSTANDING ANYTHING HEREIN TO THE CONTRARY, EACH OF THE PARTIES HERETO EXPRESSLY AGREES THAT NONE OF THE FINANCING SOURCES WILL HAVE ANY LIABILITY OR OBLIGATION TO THE COMPANY, ANY COMPANY AFFILIATE, ANY SELLER OR THE SHAREHOLDER REPRESENTATIVE RELATING TO OR ARISING OUT OF THIS AGREEMENT, THE TRANSACTION OR THE COMMITMENT LETTER, WHETHER AT LAW, OR EQUITY, IN CONTRACT, IN TORT OR OTHERWISE, AND NONE OF THE COMPANY, ANY COMPANY AFFILIATE, ANY SELLER OR THE SHAREHOLDER REPRESENTATIVE WILL HAVE ANY DIRECT RIGHTS OR CLAIMS AGAINST ANY OF THE FINANCING SOURCES UNDER THE COMMITMENT LETTER. In connection with any dispute that may arise between the Shareholder Group and Parent or the Surviving Corporation, the individual members of the Shareholder Group involved in such dispute (and not Parent or the Surviving Corporation) will have the right to decide whether or not to waive any attorney client privilege that may apply to any communications between the Company and Cravath, Swaine & Moore LLP that occurred before the Closing.

SECTION 11.01. Tax Returns. (a) The Company shall (A) prepare and timely file, (or cause the applicable Company Subsidiary to prepare and timely file) all Tax Returns of the Company and each Company Subsidiary due (after taking into account all appropriate extensions) on or prior to the Closing Date ("Company Prepared Returns") and (B) timely pay (or cause the applicable Company Subsidiary to timely pay) all Taxes that are shown as payable with respect to Company Prepared Returns. All Company Prepared Returns shall be prepared in accordance with existing procedures, practices, and accounting methods of the Company or the applicable Company Subsidiary and, to the extent applicable, the conventions provided for in accordance with Section 11.01(c). Parent shall not amend or cause the Company to amend any Company Prepared Return or other Tax Return for a Pre-Closing Tax Period unless (i) such amendment is required to claim a Seller Refund under Section 11.05, (ii) the Shareholder Representative consents in writing to such amendment, (iii) Parent waives any rights to indemnification under Section 9.01(d) in respect of any matters related to such amendment or (iv) such amendment as is required by Law.

(b) Parent shall cause the Company and each Company Subsidiary to prepare and timely file all Tax Returns of the Company and each Company Subsidiary due after the Closing Date (the "Parent Prepared Returns"). All Parent Prepared Returns relating to a taxable period that ends on or prior to the Closing Date, and all amendments of Company Prepared Returns required to claim carrybacks of tax attributes shown on such Parent Prepared Returns, shall be filed within seven months following the Closing Date. To the extent that a Parent Prepared Return relates solely to a Pre-Closing Tax Period, such Tax Return shall be prepared on a basis consistent with existing procedures and practices and accounting methods, and, to the extent applicable, the conventions provided in Section 11.01(c), unless, as reasonably determined by Parent, otherwise required by applicable Law. Each Parent Prepared Return that shows an Indemnified Tax shall be submitted to the Shareholder Representative for its review and comment at least 30 days prior to the date the Tax Return is required to be filed under this Section 11.01(b). Parent shall incorporate any reasonable comments made by the Shareholder Representative in the final Tax Return prior to filing. No failure or delay of Parent in providing Parent Prepared Returns for the Shareholder Representative to review shall reduce or otherwise affect the obligations or liabilities of the Shareholder Representative pursuant to this Agreement, except to the extent the Shareholder Representative was actually prejudiced by such failure or delay.

(c) The Shareholder Representative and Parent agree with respect to certain Tax matters as follows:

(i) To the extent permissible (or required) under applicable Laws, elect to have each Tax year of the Company and each Company Subsidiary to end as of the end of the Closing Date;

(ii) Unless otherwise required by a determination of a Governmental Entity that is final, neither Shareholder Representative nor Parent shall take any position (and Parent shall not allow the Company or any Company Subsidiary to take any position) during the course of any audit or other proceedings with respect to any Taxes or Tax Returns (whether or not a Tax Contest) that is inconsistent with any election, position, or other decision that is to be made in accordance with this Section 11.01(c).

SECTION 11.02. Apportionment of Taxes. For purposes of determining the amount of Taxes that relate to a Pre-Closing Tax Period the parties agree as follows:

(a) In the case of property Taxes and other similar Taxes imposed on a periodic basis, the amounts that are attributable to the portion of the Straddle Period ending on the Closing Date shall be determined by multiplying the Taxes for the entire Straddle Period by a fraction, the numerator of which is the number of calendar days in the portion of the period ending on the Closing Date and the denominator of which is the number of calendar days in the entire Straddle Period.

(b) In the case of all other Taxes (including income Taxes, employment Taxes, and sales and use Taxes) the amount attributable to the portion of the Straddle Period ending on the Closing Date shall be determined as if the Company or Company Subsidiary filed a separate Tax Return with respect to such Taxes for the portion of the Straddle Period ending on as of the end of the day on the Closing Date using a "closing of the books methodology" (including for any Flow-Through Entity in which the Company or any Company Subsidiary holds an interest). For purposes of this clause (ii), any item determined on an annual or periodic basis (including amortization and depreciation deductions and the effects of graduated rates) shall be allocated to the portion of the Straddle Period ending on the Closing Date based on the mechanics set forth in clause (i) for periodic Taxes.

(c) All Taxes in the form of interest or penalties that relate to Taxes for any Pre-Closing Tax Period (or portion of any Straddle Period ending on the Closing Date) shall be treated as occurring in a Pre-Closing Tax Period (or the portion of the Straddle Period ending on the Closing Date) whether such items are incurred, accrued, assessed or similarly charged on, before or after the Closing Date.

SECTION 11.03. Cooperation. Parent, the Company, and the Shareholder Representative shall (and shall cause their respective affiliates to) (i) assist in the preparation and timely filing of any Tax Return of the Company or any Company Subsidiary; (ii) assist in any audit or other proceeding with respect to Taxes or Tax Returns of the Company or any Company Subsidiary (whether or not a Tax Contest); (iii) make available any information, records, or other documents relating to any Taxes or Tax Returns of the Company or any Company Subsidiary; (iv) provide any information necessary or reasonably requested to allow Parent, the Company, or any Company Subsidiary to comply with any information reporting or withholding requirements contained in the Code or other applicable Laws;

(v) provide any information necessary or reasonably requested to permit Parent, the Company, and the Exchange Agent to comply with its information reporting and withholding obligations with respect to any payments made pursuant to this Agreement; and (vi) provide certificates or forms, and timely execute any Tax Return, that are necessary or appropriate to establish an exemption for (or reduction in) any Transfer Tax.

SECTION 11.04. Tax Contests. Parent shall control, or cause the Company or applicable Company Subsidiary to control, the conduct of any audit, IRS Compliance Assurance Process proceeding, or other proceeding relating to Taxes of the Company or any Company Subsidiary (a "Tax Contest"); provided, however, that the Shareholder Representative, at its sole cost and expense, shall have the right to control any such Tax Contest to the extent it relates to a Pre-Closing Tax Period (other than a Straddle Period). For the avoidance of doubt, to the extent there is a conflict between this Section 11.04 and any provisions of Section 9.03, this Section 11.04 shall control.

SECTION 11.05. Tax Refunds.

(a) (i) All refunds of Taxes of the Company or any Company Subsidiary for any Pre-Closing Tax Period, subject to Section 11.05(c) (other than refunds of Transfer Taxes, which shall be allocated in the same manner as Transfer Taxes are allocated under Section 6.07) and (ii) any Tax benefit resulting from the payment of (x) the Change in Control Payments, (y) any amounts payable pursuant to Section 2.05 in respect of PHASARs and PSU Awards, including the Phantom Equity Payments and (z) the balance as of the Closing Date in respect of the Company Deferred Compensation Plans (without duplication and in each case, whether in the form of cash received from the applicable Governmental Entity or a credit or offset against Taxes otherwise payable for any Post-Closing Tax period) shall be for the benefit of the holders of the Company Common Stock, PHASARs and PSU Awards (each such refund, credit or offset, a "Seller Refund").

(b) To the extent that Parent, the Company, or any Company Subsidiary becomes entitled to a Seller Refund, including as a result of the ability to carry back any net operating loss or other Tax attribute or Tax credit (which carryback shall not be waived), Parent shall take such actions as are necessary to obtain such Seller Refund, and pay to the Shareholder Representative for distribution to the holders of the Company Common Stock, PHASARs and PSU Awards in accordance with their Per Share Phantom Portion the amount of such Seller Refund (without interest other than interest received from the Governmental Entity), net of any Taxes and any out-of-pocket expenses that Parent, the Company, or any Company Subsidiary or any of their affiliates incur (or has or will incur) with respect to such Seller Refund (and related interest). The net amount due to the Shareholder Representative shall be payable 10 days after receipt of the Seller Refund from the applicable Governmental Entity (or, if the Seller Refund is in the form of credit, offset, or other reduction of Tax, 10 days after filing the Tax Return claiming such reduction).

Section 11.05(a)(i) shall not require that Parent make any payment with respect to (i) any refund of Tax that is the result of the carrying back of any net operating loss or other Tax attribute or Tax credit incurred in Post-Closing Tax Period; (ii) any refund of Tax resulting from the payments of Taxes made on or after Closing Date to the extent Parent, Company, or the applicable Company Subsidiary has not been indemnified for such Taxes; (iii) any refund for Tax that is reflected as a current asset (or offset to a current liability) on the Final Net Working Capital; or (iv) any refund for Tax that gives rise to a payment obligation by the Company or any Company Subsidiary to any person under applicable Law or pursuant to a provision of a Contract or other agreement entered (or assumed) by the Company (or any Company Subsidiary) on or prior to the Closing Date.

AMENDMENT TO AGREEMENT AND PLAN OF MERGER

This AMENDMENT TO AGREEMENT AND PLAN OF MERGER (this "Amendment"), dated as of August 27, 2015, is entered into by and among Welch Allyn Holdings, Inc., a New York corporation (the "Company"), Hill-Rom Holdings, Inc., an Indiana corporation ("Parent") and Empire Merger Sub Corp., a New York corporation ("Sub"). Each of the foregoing is a "Party" and together they are the "Parties".

WHEREAS, the Company, Parent and Sub entered into an Agreement and Plan of Merger dated as of June 16, 2015 (the "Merger Agreement"), pursuant to which Sub is to be merged with and into the Company on the terms and subject to the conditions therein; and

WHEREAS, the Parties desire to make certain amendments to the Merger Agreement regarding, among other things, the compensation of the Shareholder Representative and the establishment of a related escrow account;

Amendment.

- (a) The last two sentences of Section 6.10(b) of the Merger Agreement are hereby deleted and replaced with the following:

The Shareholder Representative shall be entitled to reasonable compensation for, and reimbursement of all fees, expenses and costs (including, without limitation, costs incurred in connection with obtaining liability insurance) incurred in connection with, the performance of such Shareholder Representative's duties hereunder (collectively, "Representative Charges"). The amount of such compensation shall be determined prior to the Effective Time by the Company Board and may be changed after the Effective Time only by written agreement of the holders of a majority of the shares of Company Common Stock as of immediately prior to the Effective Time and the Shareholder Representative. The Company shall, at least one Business Day prior to the Closing Date, deposit cash in an amount determined prior to the Effective Time by the Company Board into an escrow account (the "Representative Escrow Account") from which the Shareholder Representative shall be entitled to receive payments for Representative Charges. In addition, to the extent the amount deposited in the Representative Escrow Account is insufficient to satisfy any Representative Charges, the Shareholder Representative shall be entitled to have Representative Charges satisfied through offset against any funds to be released to holders of Company Common Stock (except for the holders, if any, of Dissenting Shares) and the holders of PHASARs or PSU Awards from the Escrow Fund as provided in the Escrow Agreement or from any amounts paid to the Shareholder Representative for distribution to such holders pursuant to this Amendment. As promptly as practicable after the date on which the Shareholder Representative shall have prepared a final invoice or statement relating to, and received payment for, all Representative Charges payable under this Amendment, the Shareholder Representative shall cause to be released from the Representative Escrow Account all the cash remaining therein and shall cause such released amount to be distributed to such holders in accordance with their Percentage Ownership. Notwithstanding anything to the contrary in this Amendment, the amount deposited in the Representative Escrow Account pursuant to this Section 6.10(b) shall not be included in the calculation of "Other Adjustments", "Cash and Cash Equivalents" or any derivative definition thereof, and shall be communicated in writing to Parent prior to the Effective Time.

- (b) Section 6.10(e) of the Merger Agreement is hereby deleted and replaced with the following:

Prior to the date of the shareholder meeting of the Company referenced in Section 3.04(b)(i), the Company Board shall designate a person to serve as the initial Shareholder Representative and an alternative Shareholder Representative if the initial Shareholder Representative becomes unwilling or unable to serve as the Shareholder Representative, and the Company shall deliver to Parent notice of such designations. Promptly following such designation, the initial Shareholder Representative shall become a party to this Agreement by executing and delivering a joinder to this Agreement in form and substance reasonably satisfactory to Parent and the Company. If the initial Shareholder Representative designated by the Company Board becomes unable or unwilling to serve as the Shareholder Representative, the alternative Shareholder Representative designated by the Company Board shall become the Shareholder Representative upon execution and delivery of a joinder to this Agreement in substantially the form of the joinder executed and delivered by the initial Shareholder Representative. If the alternative Shareholder Representative designated by the Company Board becomes unable or unwilling to serve as the Shareholder Representative, such other person or persons designated by the holders of a majority of the shares of Company Common Stock as of immediately prior to the Effective Time shall serve as the Shareholder Representative, and such person or persons shall become the Shareholder Representative upon execution and delivery of a joinder to this Agreement in substantially the form of the joinder executed and delivered by the preceding Shareholder Representative.

Interpretation.

(a) Capitalized terms used but not defined in this Amendment shall have the meanings assigned to them in the Merger Agreement.

(b) Except to the extent expressly set forth in this Amendment, the Merger Agreement is unmodified and shall continue in full force and effect in accordance with its terms.

(c) This Amendment may be executed in two or more counterparts, all of which shall be considered one and the same agreement and shall become effective when two or more counterparts have been signed by each of the parties and delivered to the other parties.

SECTIONS 623 AND 910 OF THE NEW YORK BUSINESS CORPORATION LAW

Section 623 Procedure to enforce shareholder's right to receive payment for shares.

(a) A shareholder intending to enforce his right under a section of this chapter to receive payment for his shares if the proposed corporate action referred to therein is taken shall file with the corporation, before the meeting of shareholders at which the action is submitted to a vote, or at such meeting but before the vote, written objection to the action. The objection shall include a notice of his election to dissent, his name and residence address, the number and classes of shares as to which he dissents and a demand for payment of the fair value of his shares if the action is taken. Such objection is not required from any shareholder to whom the corporation did not give notice of such meeting in accordance with this chapter or where the proposed action is authorized by written consent of shareholders without a meeting.

(b) Within ten days after the shareholders' authorization date, which term as used in this section means the date on which the shareholders' vote authorizing such action was taken, or the date on which such consent without a meeting was obtained from the requisite shareholders, the corporation shall give written notice of such authorization or consent by registered mail to each shareholder who filed written objection or from whom written objection was not required, excepting any shareholder who voted for or consented in writing to the proposed action and who thereby is deemed to have elected not to enforce his right to receive payment for his shares.

(c) Within twenty days after the giving of notice to him, any shareholder from whom written objection was not required and who elects to dissent shall file with the corporation a written notice of such election, stating his name and residence address, the number and classes of shares as to which he dissents and a demand for payment of the fair value of his shares. Any shareholder who elects to dissent from a merger under section 905 (Merger of subsidiary corporation) or paragraph (c) of section 907 (Merger or consolidation of domestic and foreign corporations) or from a share exchange under paragraph (g) of section 913 (Share exchanges) shall file a written notice of such election to dissent within twenty days after the giving to him of a copy of the plan of merger or exchange or an outline of the material features thereof under section 905 or 913.

(d) A shareholder may not dissent as to less than all of the shares, as to which he has a right to dissent, held by him of record, that he owns beneficially. A nominee or fiduciary may not dissent on behalf of any beneficial owner as to less than all of the shares of such owner, as to which such nominee or fiduciary has a right to dissent, held of record by such nominee or fiduciary.

(e) Upon consummation of the corporate action, the shareholder shall cease to have any of the rights of a shareholder except the right to be paid the fair value of his shares and any other rights under this section. A notice of election may be withdrawn by the shareholder at any time prior to his acceptance in writing of an offer made by the corporation, as provided in paragraph (g), but in no case later than sixty days from the date of consummation of the corporate action except that if the corporation fails to make a timely offer, as provided in paragraph (g), the time for withdrawing a notice of election shall be extended until sixty days from the date an offer is made. Upon expiration of such time, withdrawal of a notice of election shall require the written consent of the corporation. In order to be effective, withdrawal of a notice of election must be accompanied by the return to the corporation of any advance payment made to the shareholder as provided in paragraph (g). If a notice of election is withdrawn, or the corporate action is rescinded, or a court shall determine that the shareholder is not entitled to receive payment for his shares, or the shareholder shall otherwise lose his dissenters' rights, he shall not have the right to receive payment for his shares and he shall be reinstated to all his rights as a shareholder as of the consummation of the corporate action, including any intervening preemptive rights and the right to payment of any intervening dividend or other distribution or, if any such rights have expired or any such dividend or distribution other than in cash has been completed, in lieu thereof, at the election of the corporation, the fair value thereof in cash as determined by the board as of the time of such expiration or completion, but without prejudice otherwise to any corporate proceedings that may have been taken in the interim.

(f) At the time of filing the notice of election to dissent or within one month thereafter the shareholder of shares represented by certificates shall submit the certificates representing his shares to the corporation, or to its transfer agent, which shall forthwith note conspicuously thereon that a notice of election has been filed and shall return the certificates to the shareholder or other person who submitted them on his behalf. Any shareholder of shares represented by certificates who fails to submit his certificates for such notation as herein specified shall, at the option of the corporation exercised by written notice to him within forty-five days from the date of filing of such notice of election to dissent, lose his dissenter's rights unless a court, for good cause shown, shall otherwise direct. Upon transfer of a certificate bearing such notation, each new certificate issued therefor shall bear a similar notation together with the name of the original dissenting holder of the shares and a transferee shall acquire no rights in the corporation except those which the original dissenting shareholder had at the time of transfer.

(g) Within fifteen days after the expiration of the period within which shareholders may file their notices of election to dissent, or within fifteen days after the proposed corporate action is consummated, whichever is later (but in no case later than ninety days from the shareholders' authorization date), the corporation or, in the case of a merger or consolidation, the surviving or new corporation, shall make a written offer by registered mail to each shareholder who has filed such notice of election to pay for his shares at a specified price which the corporation considers to be their fair value. Such offer shall be accompanied by a statement setting forth the aggregate number of shares with respect to which notices of election to dissent have been received and the aggregate number of holders of such shares. If the corporate action has been consummated, such offer shall also be accompanied by (1) advance payment to each such shareholder who has submitted the certificates representing his shares to the corporation, as provided in paragraph (f), of an amount equal to eighty percent of the amount of such offer, or (2) as to each shareholder who has not yet submitted his certificates a statement that advance payment to him of an amount equal to eighty percent of the amount of such offer will be made by the corporation promptly upon submission of his certificates. If the corporate action has not been consummated at the time of the making of the offer, such advance payment or statement as to advance payment shall be sent to each shareholder entitled thereto forthwith upon consummation of the corporate action. Every advance payment or statement as to advance payment shall include advice to the shareholder to the effect that acceptance of such payment does not constitute a waiver of any dissenters' rights. If the corporate action has not been consummated upon the expiration of the ninety day period after the shareholders' authorization date, the offer may be conditioned upon the consummation of such action. Such offer shall be made at the same price per share to all dissenting shareholders of the same class, or if divided into series, of the same series and shall be accompanied by a balance sheet of the corporation whose shares the dissenting shareholder holds as of the latest available date, which shall not be earlier than twelve months before the making of such offer, and a profit and loss statement or statements for not less than a twelve month period ended on the date of such balance sheet or, if the corporation was not in existence throughout such twelve month period, for the portion thereof during which it was in existence. Notwithstanding the foregoing, the corporation shall not be required to furnish a balance sheet or profit and loss statement or statements to any shareholder to whom such balance sheet or profit and loss statement or statements were previously furnished, nor if in connection with obtaining the shareholders' authorization for or consent to the proposed corporate action the shareholders were furnished with a proxy or information statement, which included financial statements, pursuant to Regulation 14A or Regulation 14C of the United States Securities and Exchange Commission. If within thirty days after the making of such offer, the corporation making the offer and any shareholder agree upon the price to be paid for his shares, payment therefor shall be made within sixty days after the making of such offer or the consummation of the proposed corporate action, whichever is later, upon the surrender of the certificates for any such shares represented by certificates.

(h) The following procedure shall apply if the corporation fails to make such offer within such period of fifteen days, or if it makes the offer and any dissenting shareholder or shareholders fail to agree with it within the period of thirty days thereafter upon the price to be paid for their shares:

(1) The corporation shall, within twenty days after the expiration of whichever is applicable of the two periods last mentioned, institute a special proceeding in the supreme court in the judicial district in which the office of the corporation is located to determine the rights of dissenting shareholders and to fix the fair value of their shares. If, in the case of merger or consolidation, the surviving or new corporation is a foreign corporation without an office in this state, such proceeding shall be brought in the county where the office of the domestic corporation, whose shares are to be valued, was located.

(2) If the corporation fails to institute such proceeding within such period of twenty days, any dissenting shareholder may institute such proceeding for the same purpose not later than thirty days after the expiration of such twenty day period. If such proceeding is not instituted within such thirty day period, all dissenter's rights shall be lost unless the supreme court, for good cause shown, shall otherwise direct.

(3) All dissenting shareholders, excepting those who, as provided in paragraph (g), have agreed with the corporation upon the price to be paid for their shares, shall be made parties to such proceeding, which shall have the effect of an action quasi in rem against their shares. The corporation shall serve a copy of the petition in such proceeding upon each dissenting shareholder who is a resident of this state in the manner provided by law for the service of a summons, and upon each nonresident dissenting shareholder either by registered mail and publication, or in such other manner as is permitted by law. The jurisdiction of the court shall be plenary and exclusive.

(4) The court shall determine whether each dissenting shareholder, as to whom the corporation requests the court to make such determination, is entitled to receive payment for his shares. If the corporation does not request any such determination or if the court finds that any dissenting shareholder is so entitled, it shall proceed to fix the value of the shares, which, for the purposes of this section, shall be the fair value as of the close of business on the day prior to the shareholders' authorization date. In fixing the fair value of the shares, the court shall consider the nature of the transaction giving rise to the shareholder's right to receive payment for shares and its effects on the corporation and its shareholders, the concepts and methods then customary in the relevant securities and financial markets for determining fair value of shares of a corporation engaging in a similar transaction under comparable circumstances and all other relevant factors. The court shall determine the fair value of the shares without a jury and without referral to an appraiser or referee. Upon application by the corporation or by any shareholder who is a party to the proceeding, the court may, in its discretion, permit pretrial disclosure, including, but not limited to, disclosure of any expert's reports relating to the fair value of the shares whether or not intended for use at the trial in the proceeding and notwithstanding subdivision (d) of section 3101 of the civil practice law and rules.

(5) The final order in the proceeding shall be entered against the corporation in favor of each dissenting shareholder who is a party to the proceeding and is entitled thereto for the value of his shares so determined.

(6) The final order shall include an allowance for interest at such rate as the court finds to be equitable, from the date the corporate action was consummated to the date of payment. In determining the rate of interest, the court shall consider all relevant factors, including the rate of interest which the corporation would have had to pay to borrow money during the pendency of the proceeding. If the court finds that the refusal of any shareholder to accept the corporate offer of payment for his shares was arbitrary, vexatious or otherwise not in good faith, no interest shall be allowed to him.

(7) Each party to such proceeding shall bear its own costs and expenses, including the fees and expenses of its counsel and of any experts employed by it. Notwithstanding the foregoing, the court may, in its discretion, apportion and assess all or any part of the costs, expenses and fees incurred by the corporation against any or all of the dissenting shareholders who are parties to the proceeding, including any who have withdrawn their notices of election as provided in paragraph (e), if the court finds that their refusal to accept the corporate offer was arbitrary, vexatious or otherwise not in good faith. The court may, in its discretion, apportion and assess all or any part of the costs, expenses and fees incurred by any or all of the dissenting shareholders who are parties to the proceeding against the corporation if the court finds any of the following: (A) that the fair value of the shares as determined materially exceeds the amount which the corporation offered to pay; (B) that no offer or required advance payment was made by the corporation; (C) that the corporation failed to institute the special proceeding within the period specified therefor; or (D) that the action of the corporation in complying with its obligations as provided in this section was arbitrary, vexatious or otherwise not in good faith. In making any determination as provided in clause (A), the court may consider the dollar amount or the percentage, or both, by which the fair value of the shares as determined exceeds the corporate offer.

(8) Within sixty days after final determination of the proceeding, the corporation shall pay to each dissenting shareholder the amount found to be due him, upon surrender of the certificates for any such shares represented by certificates.

(i) Shares acquired by the corporation upon the payment of the agreed value therefor or of the amount due under the final order, as provided in this section, shall become treasury shares or be cancelled as provided in section 515 (Reacquired shares), except that, in the case of a merger or consolidation, they may be held and disposed of as the plan of merger or consolidation may otherwise provide.

(j) No payment shall be made to a dissenting shareholder under this section at a time when the corporation is insolvent or when such payment would make it insolvent. In such event, the dissenting shareholder shall, at his option:

(1) Withdraw his notice of election, which shall in such event be deemed withdrawn with the written consent of the corporation;

(2) Retain his status as a claimant against the corporation and, if it is liquidated, be subordinated to the rights of creditors of the corporation, but have rights superior to the non-dissenting shareholders, and if it is not liquidated, retain his right to be paid for his shares, which right the corporation shall be obliged to satisfy when the restrictions of this paragraph do not apply.

(3) The dissenting shareholder shall exercise such option under subparagraph (1) or (2) by written notice filed with the corporation within thirty days after the corporation has given him written notice that payment for his shares cannot be made because of the restrictions of this paragraph. If the dissenting shareholder fails to exercise such option as provided, the corporation shall exercise the option by written notice given to him within twenty days after the expiration of such period of thirty days.

(k) The enforcement by a shareholder of his right to receive payment for his shares in the manner provided herein shall exclude the enforcement by such shareholder of any other right to which he might otherwise be entitled by virtue of share ownership, except as provided in paragraph (e), and except that this section shall not exclude the right of such shareholder to bring or maintain an appropriate action to obtain relief on the ground that such corporate action will be or is unlawful or fraudulent as to him.

(l) Except as otherwise expressly provided in this section, any notice to be given by a corporation to a shareholder under this section shall be given in the manner provided in section 605 (Notice of meetings of shareholders).

(m) This section shall not apply to foreign corporations except as provided in subparagraph (e)(2) of section 907 (Merger or consolidation of domestic and foreign corporations).

Section 910 Right of shareholder to receive payment for shares upon merger or consolidation, or sale, lease, exchange or other disposition of assets, or share exchange.

(a) A shareholder of a domestic corporation shall, subject to and by complying with section 623 (Procedure to enforce shareholder's right to receive payment for shares), have the right to receive payment of the fair value of his shares and the other rights and benefits provided by such section, in the following cases:

(1) Any shareholder entitled to vote who does not assent to the taking of an action specified in clauses (A), (B) and (C).

(A) Any plan of merger or consolidation to which the corporation is a party; except that the right to receive payment of the fair value of his shares shall not be available:

(i) To a shareholder of the parent corporation in a merger authorized by section 905 (Merger of parent and subsidiary corporations), or paragraph (c) of section 907 (Merger or consolidation of domestic and foreign corporations); or

(ii) To a shareholder of the surviving corporation in a merger authorized by this article, other than a merger specified in subclause (i), unless such merger effects one or more of the changes specified in subparagraph (b)(6) of section 806 (Provisions as to certain proceedings) in the rights of the shares held by such shareholder; or

(iii) Notwithstanding subclause (ii) of this clause, to a shareholder for the shares of any class or series of stock, which shares or depository receipts in respect thereof, at the record date fixed to determine the shareholders entitled to receive notice of the meeting of shareholders to vote upon the plan of merger or consolidation, were listed on a national securities exchange or designated as a national market system security on an interdealer quotation system by the National Association of Securities Dealers, Inc.

(B) Any sale, lease, exchange or other disposition of all or substantially all of the assets of a corporation which requires shareholder approval under section 909 (Sale, lease, exchange or other disposition of assets) other than a transaction wholly for cash where the shareholders' approval thereof is conditioned upon the dissolution of the corporation and the distribution of substantially all of its net assets to the shareholders in accordance with their respective interests within one year after the date of such transaction.

(C) Any share exchange authorized by section 913 in which the corporation is participating as a subject corporation; except that the right to receive payment of the fair value of his shares shall not be available to a shareholder whose shares have not been acquired in the exchange or to a shareholder for the shares of any class or series of stock, which shares or depository receipt in respect thereof, at the record date fixed to determine the shareholders entitled to receive notice of the meeting of shareholders to vote upon the plan of exchange, were listed on a national securities exchange or designated as a national market

(2) Any shareholder of the subsidiary corporation in a merger authorized by section 905 or paragraph (c) of section 907, or in a share exchange authorized by paragraph (g) of section 913, who files with the corporation a written notice of election to dissent as provided in paragraph (c) of section 623.

(3) Any shareholder, not entitled to vote with respect to a plan of merger or consolidation to which the corporation is a party, whose shares will be cancelled or exchanged in the merger or consolidation for cash or other consideration other than shares of the surviving or consolidated corporation or another corporation.

The terms and conditions of the Proposed Transaction are set forth in more detail in the Agreement and Plan of Merger dated as of June 16, 2015, by and among the Company, Hill-Rom and Sub (the "Agreement"). The summary of the Proposed Transaction set forth above is qualified in its entirety by the terms of the Agreement. All capitalized terms used but undefined herein shall have the meanings ascribed to them in the Agreement.

We have been requested by the Board of Directors of the Company to render our opinion with respect to the fairness, from a financial point of view, to the Company's shareholders of the consideration to be offered to such shareholders in the Proposed Transaction. We have not been requested to opine as to, and our opinion does not in any manner address, the Company's underlying business decision to proceed with or effect the Proposed Transaction. In addition, we express no opinion on, and our opinion does not in any manner address, the fairness of the amount or the nature of any compensation to any officers, directors or employees of any parties to the Proposed Transaction, or any class of such persons, relative to the consideration to be offered to the shareholders of the Company in the Proposed Transaction.

In arriving at our opinion, we reviewed and analyzed: (1) the Agreement, and the specific terms of the Proposed Transaction; (2) financial and operating information with respect to the business, operations and prospects of the Company furnished to us by the Company, including financial projections of the Company prepared by management of the Company (the "Company Projections"); (3) publicly available information concerning Hill-Rom that we believe to be relevant to our analysis, including its Annual Report on Form 10-K for the fiscal year ended September 30, 2014 and Quarterly Reports on Form 10-Q for the fiscal quarters ended December 31, 2014 and March 31, 2015; (4) a trading history of Hill-Rom Common Stock from June 12, 2010 to June 12, 2015 and a comparison of that trading history with those of other companies that we deemed relevant; (5) a comparison of the historical financial results and present financial condition of the Company and Hill-Rom with each other and with those of other companies that we deemed relevant; (6) a comparison of the financial terms of the Proposed Transaction with the financial terms of certain other transactions that we deemed relevant; (7) the pro forma impact of the Proposed Transaction on the future financial performance of the combined company, including the estimated amounts and timing of the cost savings and operating synergies reviewed by the management of the Company in connection with the Proposed Transaction (the "Expected Synergies"); (8) published estimates of independent research analysts with respect to the future financial performance and price targets of Hill-Rom (the "Hill-Rom Projections"); and (9) such other things as we thought appropriate. In addition, we have had discussions with the management of the Company and Hill-Rom concerning their respective business, operations, assets, liabilities, financial condition and prospects and have undertaken such other studies, analyses and investigations as we deemed appropriate.

In arriving at our opinion, we have assumed and relied upon the accuracy and completeness of the financial and other information made available to us, or publicly accessed by us, without any independent verification of such information (and have not assumed responsibility or liability for any independent verification of such information) and have further relied upon the assurances of the management of the Company that they are not aware of any facts or circumstances that would make such information inaccurate or misleading. With respect to Company Projections, upon the advice of the Company, we have assumed that such projections have been reasonably prepared on a basis reflecting the best currently available estimates and judgments of the management of the Company as to the future financial performance of the Company and that the Company will perform substantially in accordance with such projections and, at the direction of the Company, we have relied on the Company Projections in performing our analysis and arriving at our opinion. Furthermore, upon the advice of the Company, we have assumed that the amounts and timing of the Expected Synergies will be realized in accordance with such estimates. With respect to the Hill-Rom Projections, upon the advice of the Company, we have assumed that such projections have been reasonably prepared on a basis reflecting the best currently available estimates as to the future financial performance of Hill-Rom and that Hill-Rom will perform substantially in accordance with such projections and, at the direction of the Company, we have relied on the Hill-Rom Projections in performing our analysis and arriving at our opinion. We assume no responsibility for updating or revising our opinion based on events or circumstances that may occur after the date of this letter. We express no opinion as to the prices at which shares of Hill-Rom Common Stock would trade following the announcement or consummation of the Proposed Transaction. Our opinion should not be viewed as providing any assurance that the market value of the Hill-Rom Common Stock to be held by the shareholders of the Company after the consummation of the Proposed Transaction will be in excess of the market value of common stock of the Company owned by such shareholders at any time prior to the announcement or consummation of the Proposed Transaction.

We have assumed the accuracy of the representations and warranties contained in the Agreement and all agreements related thereto and that the Adjustments will not result in any adjustments to the Consideration that are material to our analysis. We have also assumed, upon the advice of the Company, that all material governmental, regulatory and third party approvals, consents and releases for the Proposed Transaction will be obtained within the constraints contemplated by the Agreement and that the Proposed Transaction will be consummated in accordance with the terms of the Agreement without waiver, modification or amendment of any material term, condition or agreement thereof. We do not express any opinion as to any tax or other consequences that might result from the Proposed Transaction, nor does our opinion address any legal, tax, regulatory or accounting matters, as to which we understand that the Company has obtained such advice as it deemed necessary from qualified professionals.

Based upon and subject to the foregoing, we are of the opinion as of the date hereof that, from a financial point of view, the consideration to be offered to the shareholders of the Company in the Proposed Transaction is fair to such shareholders.

We have acted as financial advisor to the Company in connection with the Proposed Transaction and will receive a fee for our services, a portion of which is payable upon rendering this opinion and a substantial portion of which is contingent upon the consummation of the Proposed Transaction. In addition, the Company has agreed to reimburse a portion of our expenses and indemnify us for certain liabilities that may arise out of our engagement. In the ordinary course of our business, we and our affiliates may actively trade and effect transactions in the equity, debt and/or other securities (and any derivatives thereof) and financial instruments (including loans and other obligations) of Hill-Rom for our own account and for the accounts of our customers and, accordingly, may at any time hold long or short positions and investments in such securities and financial instruments.

This opinion, the issuance of which has been approved by our Fairness Opinion Committee, is for the use and benefit of the Board of Directors of the Company and is rendered to the Board of Directors in connection with its consideration of the Proposed Transaction. This opinion is not intended to be and does not constitute a recommendation to any shareholder of the Company as to how such shareholder should vote with respect to the Proposed Transaction.

PART II

INFORMATION NOT REQUIRED IN PROSPECTUS

Item 20. Indemnification of Directors and Officers

Hill-Rom's bylaws, pursuant to authority contained in the IBCL and the Indiana Insurance Law, respectively, provide for the indemnification of Hill-Rom's current and former officers, directors and employees (each, an "Eligible Person") against the following:

Expenses, judgments, fines (including any excise tax or penalty assessed with respect to any employee benefit plan) and amounts paid in settlement actually and reasonably incurred by the Eligible Person in connection with such proceeding, but only (a) if the Eligible Person acted in good faith and (b) (i) in the case of conduct in the Eligible Person's official capacity with Hill-Rom, if the Eligible Person acted in a manner which the Eligible Person reasonably believed to be in the best interests of the Corporation, or (ii) in the case of conduct other than in the Eligible Person's official capacity with Hill-Rom, if the Eligible Person acted in a manner which the Eligible Person reasonably believed was at least not opposed to the best interests of Hill-Rom, and (c) in the case of a criminal proceeding, the Eligible Person had reasonable cause to believe that the Eligible Person's conduct was lawful or had no reasonable cause to believe that the Eligible Person's conduct was unlawful, and (d) if required by the IBCL, Hill-Rom makes a determination that indemnification of the Eligible Person is permissible because the Eligible Person has met the standard of conduct as set forth in the IBCL.

To the extent the Eligible Person has been wholly successful, on the merits or otherwise, in the defense of any proceeding or in defense of any claim, issue or matter therein, including the dismissal of an action without prejudice, Hill-Rom will indemnify the Eligible Person against all expenses incurred in connection therewith.

Indiana Law requires that a corporation, unless limited by its articles of incorporation, indemnify its directors and officers against reasonable expenses incurred in the successful defense of any proceeding arising out of their serving as a director or officer of the corporation.

No indemnification or reimbursement will be made to an Eligible Person:

- (a) for which payment has actually been made to or on behalf of the Eligible Person under any insurance policy or other indemnity provision, except with respect to any excess beyond the amount paid under such insurance or other indemnity provision;
- (b) if a court having jurisdiction in the matter shall finally determine that an Eligible Person derived an improper personal benefit from any transaction;
- (c) if a court having jurisdiction in the matter shall finally determine that an Eligible Person is liable for disgorgement of profits resulting from the purchase and sale or sale and purchase by the Eligible Person of securities of the Corporation in violation of Section 16(b) of the Securities Exchange Act of 1934 and amendments thereto or similar provisions of any federal, state or local statutory law or common law;
- (d) if a court having jurisdiction in the matter shall finally determine that such indemnification is not lawful under any applicable statute or public policy (in this respect, if applicable, both the Corporation and the Eligible Person have been advised that the Securities and Exchange Commission takes the position that indemnification for liabilities arising under the federal securities laws is against public policy and is, therefore, unenforceable and that claims for indemnification should be submitted to appropriate courts for adjudication); or
- (e) in connection with any proceeding (or part thereof) initiated by the Eligible Person against the Corporation or its directors, officers or employees, unless (i) such indemnification is expressly required to be made by law, (ii) the proceeding was authorized by the Board of Directors of the Corporation, (iii) such indemnification is provided by the Corporation, in its sole discretion, pursuant to the powers vested in the Corporation under applicable law, or (iv) the proceeding is initiated pursuant to Section 7.08 hereof and the Eligible Person is successful in whole or in part in such proceeding.

If an Eligible Person is entitled to indemnification by Hill-Rom for a portion of the expenses, judgments, fines and amounts paid in settlement, Hill-Rom will indemnify the Eligible Person for the entitled portion of expenses and amounts paid.

Hill-Rom maintains a program of insurance under which Hill-Rom's directors and officers are insured, subject to specified exclusions and deductible and maximum amounts, against actual or alleged errors, misstatements, misleading statements, acts or omissions, or neglect or breach of duty while acting in their respective capacities for Hill-Rom.

The indemnification and advancement of expenses provided for in Hill-Rom's bylaws does not exclude or limit any other rights to indemnification and advancement of expenses that a person may be entitled to other agreements, shareholders' and board resolutions and Hill-Rom's articles of incorporation.

Item 21. Exhibits and Financial Statement Schedules

A list of the exhibits included as part of this registration statement is set forth in the Exhibit Index that immediately precedes such exhibits and is incorporated herein by reference.

Item 22. Undertakings

The undersigned registrant hereby undertakes:

- (a)
- (1) To file, during any period in which offers or sales are being made, a post-effective amendment to this registration statement:
    - (i) to include any prospectus required by Section 10(a)(3) of the Securities Act of 1933;
    - (ii) to reflect in the prospectus any facts or events arising after the effective date of the registration statement (or the most recent post-effective amendment thereof) which, individually or in the aggregate, represent a fundamental change in the information set forth in the registration statement. Notwithstanding the foregoing, any increase or decrease in volume of securities offered (if the total dollar value of securities offered would not exceed that which was registered) and any deviation from the low or high end of the estimated maximum offering range may be reflected in the form of prospectus filed with the Commission pursuant to Rule 424(b) if, in the aggregate, the changes in volume and price represent no more than 20% change in the maximum aggregate offering price set forth in the "Calculation of Registration Fee" table in the effective registration statement; and
    - (iii) to include any material information with respect to the plan of distribution not previously disclosed in the registration statement or any material change to such information in the registration statement.
  - (2) That, for the purpose of determining any liability under the Securities Act of 1933, each such post-effective amendment shall be deemed to be a new registration statement relating to the securities offered therein, and the offering of such securities at that time shall be deemed to be the initial bona fide offering thereof.

To remove from registration by means of a post-effective amendment any of the securities being registered which remain unsold at the termination of the offering.

(4)

That, for the purpose of determining liability under the Securities Act of 1933 to any purchaser, if the registrant is relying on Rule 430B:

each prospectus filed by the registrant pursuant to Rule 424(b)(3) shall be deemed to be part of the registration statement as of the date the filed prospectus was deemed part of and included in the registration statement; and each prospectus required to be filed pursuant to Rule 424(b)(2), (b)(5), or (b)(7) as part of a registration statement in reliance on Rule 430B relating to an offering made pursuant to Rule 415(a)(1)(i), (vii), or (x) for the purpose of providing the information required by section 10(a) of the Securities Act of 1933 shall be deemed to be part of and included in the registration statement as of the earlier of the date such form of prospectus is first used after effectiveness or the date of the first contract of sale of securities in the offering described in the prospectus. As provided in Rule 430B, for liability purposes of the issuer and any person that is at that date an underwriter, such date shall be deemed to be a new effective date of the registration statement relating to the securities in the registration statement to which that prospectus relates, and the offering of such securities at that time shall be deemed to be the initial bona fide offering thereof. Provided, however, that no statement made in a registration statement or prospectus that is part of the registration statement or made in a document incorporated or deemed incorporated by reference into the registration statement or prospectus that is part of the registration statement will, as to a purchaser with a time of contract of sale prior to such effective date, supersede or modify any statement that was made in the registration statement or prospectus that was part of the registration statement or made in any such document immediately prior to such effective date.

That, for the purpose of determining liability under the Securities Act of 1933, to any purchaser, if the registrant is subject to Rule 430C, each prospectus filed pursuant to Rule 424(b) as part of a registration statement relating to an offering, other than registration statements relying on Rule 430B or other than prospectuses filed in reliance on Rule 430A, shall be deemed to be part of and included in the registration statement as of the date it is first used after effectiveness. Provided, however, that no statement made in a registration statement or prospectus that is part of the registration statement or made in a document incorporated or deemed incorporated by reference into the registration statement or prospectus that is part of the registration statement will, as to a purchaser with a time of contract of sale prior to such first use, supersede or modify any statement that was made in the registration statement or prospectus that was part of the registration statement or made in any such document immediately prior to such date of first use.

That, for the purpose of determining liability of the registrant under the Securities Act to any purchaser in the initial distribution of the securities, in a primary offering of securities of the undersigned registrant pursuant to this registration statement, regardless of the underwriting method used to sell the securities to the purchaser, if the securities are offered or sold to such purchaser by means of any of the following communications, the undersigned registrant will be a seller to the purchaser and will be considered to offer or sell such securities to such purchaser:

- (i) any preliminary prospectus or prospectus of the undersigned registrant relating to the offering required to be filed pursuant to Rule 424;
- (ii) any free writing prospectus relating to the offering prepared by or on behalf of the undersigned registrant or used or referred to by the undersigned registrant;
- (iii) the portion of any other free writing prospectus relating to the offering containing material information about the undersigned registrant or its securities provided by or on behalf of the undersigned registrant; and
- (iv) any other communication that is an offer in the offering made by the undersigned registrant to the purchaser.

(b) That, for purposes of determining any liability under the Securities Act of 1933, each filing of the registrant's annual report pursuant to section 13(a) or section 15(d) of the Securities Exchange Act of 1934 (and, where applicable, each filing of an employee benefit plan's annual report pursuant to section 15(d) of the Securities Exchange Act of 1934) that is incorporated by reference in the registration statement shall be deemed to be a new registration statement relating to the securities offered therein, and the offering of such securities at that time shall be deemed to be the initial bona fide offering thereof.

(g) (1) That prior to any public reoffering of the securities registered hereunder through use of a prospectus which is a part of this registration statement, by any person or party who is deemed to be an underwriter within the meaning of Rule 145(c), the issuer undertakes that such reoffering prospectus will contain the information called for by the applicable registration form with respect to reofferings by persons who may be deemed underwriters, in addition to the information called for by the other Items of the applicable form; and

(2) that every prospectus (i) that is filed pursuant to paragraph (g)(1) immediately preceding, or (ii) that purports to meet the requirements of section 10(a)(3) of the Act and is used in connection with an offering of securities subject to Rule 415, will be filed as a part of an amendment to the registration statement and will not be used until such amendment is effective, and that, for purposes of determining any liability under the Securities Act of 1933, each such post-effective amendment shall be deemed to be a new registration statement relating to the securities offered therein, and the offering of such securities at that time shall be deemed to be the initial bona fide offering thereof.

(h) Insofar as indemnification for liabilities arising under the Securities Act of 1933 may be permitted to directors, officers and controlling persons of the registrant pursuant to the foregoing provisions, or otherwise, the registrant has been advised that in the opinion of the Securities and Exchange Commission such indemnification is against public policy as expressed in the Act and is, therefore, unenforceable. In the event that a claim for indemnification against such liabilities (other than the payment by the registrant of expenses incurred or paid by a director, officer or controlling person of the registrant in the successful defense of any action, suit or proceeding) is asserted by such director, officer or controlling person of the registrant in connection with the securities being registered, the registrant will, unless in the opinion of its counsel the matter has been settled by controlling precedent, submit to a court of appropriate jurisdiction the question whether such indemnification by it is against public policy as expressed in the Act and will be governed by the final adjudication of such issue.
