RE: Management Statement Regarding Compliance with Certain Provisions of the Investment Company Act of 1940

Ladies and Gentlemen:

We, as members of management of the funds listed in Appendix A, Riggs Funds (the "Funds"), are responsible for complying with the requirements of subsections (b) and (c) of Rule 17f-2, "Custody of Investments by Registered Management Investment Companies," of the Investment Company Act of 1940. We are also responsible for establishing and maintaining effective internal controls over compliance with those requirements. We have performed an evaluation of the Funds' compliance with the requirements of subsections (b) and (c) of Rule 17f-2 as of April 30, 2003, and from January 31, 2003 through April 30, 2003.

Based on this evaluation, we assert that the Funds were in compliance with the requirements of subsections (b) and (c) of Rule 17f-2 of the Investment Company Act of 1940 as of April 30, 2003, and from January 31, 2003 through April 30, 2003, with respect to securities reflected in the investment accounts.

Sincerely,

Riggs Bank, N.A.

/s/ Virginia Lewis
Vice President and Trust Operations Officer

Independent Auditors' Report

To the Board of Trustees
Riggs Funds

We have examined management's assertion, included in the accompanying Management Statement Regarding Compliance with Certain Provisions of the Investment Company Act of 1940, that Riggs Funds (the "Funds") as listed in Appendix A, complied with the requirements of subsections (b) and (c) of Rule 17f-2 under the Investment Company Act of 1940 (the Act) as of April 30, 2003. Management is responsible for the Funds' compliance with those requirements. Our responsibility is to express an opinion on management's assertion about the Funds' compliance based on our examination.

Our examination was conducted in accordance with attestation standards established by the American Institute of Certified Public Accountants and, accordingly, included examining, on a test basis, evidence about the Funds' compliance with those requirements and performing such other procedures as we considered necessary in the circumstances. Included among our procedures were the following tests performed as of April 30, 2003, and with respect to agreement of security purchases and sales, for the period from January 31, 2003, the date of the last examination, through April 30, 2003:

- (1) Count and inspection of documentation of all securities located in the vault, if any, of Riggs Bank, the Custodian;
- (2) Inspection of documentation of securities held in book entry form by the Bank of New York and examination of selected security position reconciliations;
- (3) Inspection of documentation of all securities purchased but not received, hypothecated, pledged, placed in escrow, or out for transfer with brokers, pledges and/or transfer agents;
- (4) Reconciliation of all such securities to the books and records of the Funds and the Custodian;
- (5) Inspection of documentation of all repurchase agreements and underlying collateral with brokers/banks records; and
- (6) Tests of selected security transactions since the date of our last report.

We believe that our examination provides a reasonable basis for our opinion. Our examination does not provide a legal determination on the Funds' compliance with the specified requirements.

In our opinion, management's assertion that the Riggs Funds complied with the requirements of subsections (b) and (c) of Rule 17f-2 of the Investment Company Act of 1940 as of April 30, 2003, with respect to securities reflected in the investment accounts of the Riggs Funds, are fairly stated, in all material respects.

This report is intended solely for the information and use of management, the Board of Trustees of the Riggs Funds as listed in Appendix A and the Securities and Exchange Commission, and is not intended to be and should not be used by anyone other than these specified parties.
