Item 5.02. Departure of Directors or Principal Officers; Election of Directors; Appointment of Principal Officers

On April 27, 2007, we entered into a Restated Employment Agreement with Ms. Clarke effective as of January 1, 2007. Ms. Clarke serves as the Company's Senior Vice President and Chief People Officer. As restated, the employment agreement is for a three-year term and thereafter for successive one-year terms unless terminated 90 days prior to the commencement of an extension term. Under this agreement, Ms. Clarke receives an annual base compensation of $250,000, which can be increased but not decreased. Ms. Clarke is eligible to participate in the Company's cash performance compensation plans providing for cash bonuses or other cash incentives. Ms. Clarke's target bonus for each fiscal year will be one hundred percent (100%) of her base salary. In addition, under the agreement, Ms. Clarke is entitled to certain fringe benefits at the Company's expense, including medical and dental plans.

If, during the term of her employment agreement, Ms. Clarke is terminated by the Company for any reason other than for Cause, or if she terminates her employment because of Good Reason, as defined in the agreement, she will be entitled to severance compensation in an aggregate amount equal to two times her base compensation in effect at the time of termination payable in equal installments over a 24-month period following termination; provided, however, that if termination is in anticipation of, or within one year following, a change of control of the Company, severance compensation will be an amount equal to three times her base compensation in effect at the time of termination plus an amount equal to three times her annual cash target bonus and will be payable in a lump sum on the date of termination. In addition, if Ms. Clarke's employment is terminated by the Company for any reason other than for Cause, or if Ms. Clarke terminates her employment because of a material breach by the Company or following a change of control of the Company, any equity-based incentives held by Ms. Clarke that have not vested prior to the termination date shall immediately vest and all vested equity-based incentives shall remain exercisable until the earlier of the first anniversary date of the termination or the stated expiration date of the equity-based incentive.

If Ms. Clarke terminates her employment for Good Reason, or the Company terminates her employment for any reason other than for Cause, Ms. Clarke will continue to receive the benefits that she was receiving at the Company's expense until the earlier of two years after the termination date or the date on which Ms. Clarke commences full-time employment with another employer that provides equivalent benefits; provided that, if termination occurs for any reason within one year of a change in control or in anticipation of a change of control, in lieu of such benefits the Company will pay an amount in cash equal to the aggregate reasonable expenses the Company would incur to pay such benefits. Also, if Ms. Clarke is subject to the tax imposed by Section 4999 of the Internal Revenue code, the Company has agreed to reimburse her for such tax on an after-tax basis.

The agreement contains a comprehensive non-compete provision that prohibits Ms. Clarke from engaging in any activities that are competitive with the Company during her employment, for any period in which she is receiving severance compensation from the Company, or if payment of severance compensation is accelerated due to a change of control, for a period of three years after the termination of her employment. However, if Ms. Clarke terminates her employment for any reason other than Good Reason or if her employment is terminated for Cause by the Company, the time period is reduced to 12 months.
