PART III NARRATIVE

State below in reasonable detail why Forms 10-K, 20-F, 11-K, 10-Q, 10-D, N-SAR, N-CSR, or the transition report or portion thereof, could not be filed within the prescribed time period.

While reviewing and finalizing our preliminary unaudited third quarter financial statements, Investtools Inc. (Investtools or we or our) discovered accounting errors regarding revenue recognition and classifications on our statement of cash flows that affect certain financial statements for the second quarter of 2007. Based on these errors, we have determined that we will be restating our financial statements for the second quarter of 2007. The errors also affected certain financial information contained in the press release for the third quarter 2007 and financial information to be included in our Form 10-Q for the third quarter of 2007. Because the analysis and preparation of the financial statements for the third quarter is not yet complete due to the recent discovery of these errors, we will not be in a position to timely file our Quarterly Report on Form 10-Q for the quarterly period ended September 30, 2007.

If answer is no, identify report(s).

Yes No

(3) Is it anticipated that any significant change in results of operations from the corresponding period for the last fiscal year will be reflected by the earnings statements to be included in the subject report or portion thereof?

Yes No

If so, attach an explanation of the anticipated change, both narratively and quantitatively, and, if appropriate, state the reasons why a reasonable estimate of the results cannot be made.

We currently estimate that for the three and nine month periods ended September 30, 2007, we will report net income within a range of between $17 million and $18 million, and $2.6 million and $3.6 million respectively. This compares to a net loss of $5.4 million and $27.1 million for the corresponding periods in 2006.

The restatement for the second quarter of 2007 is not yet complete, nor is the third quarter finalized. As a result, the estimated results for the given periods of 2007 are given as a range. We believe that the increase in net income for the three and nine months periods in 2007 from the corresponding prior periods in 2006 is primarily attributable to the consolidation of operations given the merger with thinkorswim Group, Inc. that is included in the operations of the company from February 15, 2007 through September 30, 2007 in addition to growth in the traditional business.

The foregoing estimates are subject to change pending the completion of the restatement of the second quarter of 2007 and the final adjustments to third quarter 2007.
