(b) Resignation of Named Executive Officer

On October 31, 2015, Eugene V. DeFelice voluntarily resigned as an employee, Executive Vice President, General Counsel, and Secretary of HMS Holdings Corp. (the Registrant) to pursue other professional opportunities, effective November 15, 2015. Mr. DeFelice advised the Registrant that his resignation was not due to any disagreement with the Registrant on any matters relating to the Registrant's operations, policies, or practices, and the Registrant and Mr. DeFelice have agreed to terms by which he will continue to provide ongoing specified transition and cooperation assistance to the Registrant as reasonably requested while the Registrant conducts a search for an appropriate successor.

(e) Compensatory Arrangement

In connection with his resignation, Mr. DeFelice has entered into a Separation, Waiver and General Release Agreement (Separation Agreement) with the Registrant. The Separation Agreement provides certain benefits to Mr. DeFelice in exchange for various commitments on his part including his agreement to provide post-employment transition and cooperation assistance as reasonably requested by the Registrant regarding currently pending litigation and other ongoing legal matters, extended non-compete and non-solicitation terms, a general release of claims, and additional non-disclosure obligations.

Subject to Mr. DeFelice's continued performance under the Separation Agreement, he will be entitled to receive up to two years of base salary continuation, up to two times his annual target bonus amount, the premium costs associated with 18 months of continued group medical insurance coverage, and continued vesting of currently outstanding equity awards under the terms of, and at the regular vesting schedule applicable under, the Registrant's equity incentive plans and Mr. DeFelice's prior equity incentive awards. The foregoing summary of the terms of Mr. DeFelice's resignation and severance benefits is qualified in its entirety by the text of the full Separation Agreement, which is filed as Exhibit 10.1 to this Current Report on Form 8-K.
