ABLEAUCTIONS ANNOUNCES 2ND QUARTER 2004 REVENUES TO EXCEED PREVIOUS FORECAST

FIFE, WASHINGTON June 14, 2004 Ableauctions.com Inc. (AMEX:AAC) (the Company) announced today that revenue for the second quarter of 2004 is expected to exceed $1.5 million, compared to revenue of $163,465 for the corresponding quarter in the previous year and revenue of $966,141 for the first quarter in 2004. The year-to-date revenue for fiscal year 2004 is expected to exceed $2.4 million, compared to $843,000 revenue figure for all of 2003.

The increase in revenue is attributed to the Company increasing the number of auction sessions it ran on eBay Live Auctions and the National Auctioneers Association, and the strong performance of the Company's liquidation services.

The Company continues to implement its expansion plan through aggressive marketing campaigns and seeking partnering relationships or acquisitions of technology-based companies that it believes could add breadth to its core competencies and enhance its business model. The Company anticipates announcing these before the end of the third quarter of 2004.

This press release contains forward-looking statements, particularly as related to, among other things, the business plans of the Company, statements relating to goals, plans and projections regarding the Company's financial position and the Company's business strategy. These forward-looking statements fall within the meaning of Section 27A of the Securities Act of 1933 and Section 21E of the Securities Act of 1934 and are subject to the safe harbor created by these sections. Such forward-looking statements are based on current expectations, involve known and unknown risks, a reliance on third parties for information, transactions or orders that may be cancelled and other factors that may cause our actual results, performance or achievements, or developments in our industry, to differ materially from the anticipated results, performance or achievements expressed or implied by such forward-looking statements. Factors that could cause actual results to differ materially from anticipated results include risks and uncertainties related to the performance of our on-line auction business, our ability to implement our inventory procurement strategy, general economic conditions, our ability to license our software to other auction houses, our ability to acquire profitable companies and integrate them into our business successfully and other factors that are detailed in our Annual Report on Form 10-KSB and on documents we file from time-to-time with the Securities and Exchange Commission. The Company disclaims any intention or obligation to update or revise any forward-looking statements, whether as a result of new information, future events or otherwise. Actual results may differ materially from the Company's expectations and estimates.
