EXPLANATORY NOTE

China Security & Surveillance Technology, Inc. (the “Company”) is filing this Amendment No. 1 on Form 10-K/A solely to correct for certain typographical errors contained in the Company’s Annual Report on Form 10-K for the fiscal year ended December 31, 2006, as filed with the U.S. Securities and Exchange Commission on March 21, 2007 (the “Original Filing”).

The first correction is located under “Recent Sales of Unregistered Securities” contained in Item 5 on page 20 of the Original Filing, wherein the Company stated that “[o]n April 4, 2006, we completed a private placement in which we sold 2,666,667 shares of our common stock at a price of $3.00 per share for aggregate gross proceeds of $800,000 to certain accredited investors.” The figure $800,000 has now been corrected to read $8,000,000.

The remaining corrections are all located under Item 8 in the table on page 35 of the Original Filing showing certain unaudited financial information for each of the eight quarters ended December 31, 2006. In the Original Filing the Company misstated both the basic and diluted income per share for the fiscal quarters ended March 31, 2006 and December 31, 2006. The basic income per share for the first and fourth fiscal quarters of 2006 have been corrected from $0.26 and $0.12, respectively, to $0.16 and $0.22, respectively. The diluted income per share for the first and fourth quarters of 2006 have been corrected from $0.26 and $0.10, respectively, to $0.16 and $0.20, respectively. Included in this Form 10-K/A is the complete text of Item 5, Item 8 and Item 15, with no changes other than as described above.

No other information in the Original Filing is amended hereby. This Form 10-K/A continues to describe conditions as of the date of the Original Filing, and accordingly, the Company has not updated the disclosures contained herein to reflect events that occurred at a later date.

As required by Rule 12b-15 promulgated under the Securities Exchange Act of 1934, as amended, the Company’s principal executive officer and principal financial officer are providing Rule 13a-14(a) certifications in connection with this Form 10-K/A (but otherwise identical to their prior certifications) and are also furnishing, but not filing, Rule 13a-14(b) certifications in connection with this Form 10-K/A (but otherwise identical to their prior certifications).

Dividend Policy

We have never declared or paid cash dividends. Any future decisions regarding dividends will be made by our board of directors. We currently intend to retain and use any future earnings for the development and expansion of our business and do not anticipate paying any cash dividends in the foreseeable future.

Recent Sales of Unregistered Securities

In March 2006, we issued 100,000 shares of common stock to Terence Yap as payment for his services which are being rendered through February 2009. The value attributed to these shares was $350,000 ($3.50 per share). These stock issuances were exempt from registration pursuant to Section 4(2) of the Securities Act.

On April 4, 2006, we completed a private placement in which we sold 2,666,667 shares of our common stock at a price of $3.00 per share for aggregate gross proceeds of $8,000,000 to certain accredited investors. We also issued warrants to purchase 416,667 shares of our common stock to certain entities as compensation for their services in connection with the private placement, 150,000 of which have an exercise price of $3.80 per share, while the remaining 266,667 are exercisable at a price of $3.00 per share. The issuance was made in reliance on the exemption provided by Section 4(2) of the Securities Act for the offer and sale of securities not involving a public offering and Regulation D promulgated thereunder.

On July 31, 2006, we issued 4,634,592 units to 26 accredited investors for an aggregate gross cash purchase price of $16,221,093 at a price of $3.50 per share. Each unit consists of one share of our common stock and a warrant to purchase one-fifth of one share of our common stock. We also issued warrants to purchase 324,421 shares of our common stock with an exercise price of $4.20 to two placement agents as compensation for their services in connection with the private placement. The issuance was made in reliance on the exemption provided by Section 4(2) of the Securities Act for the offer and sale of securities not involving a public offering and regulation D promulgated thereunder.

In October 2006, we issued 50,000 shares of our common stock to Hayden Communications, Inc. as payment for their investor relationship services rendered pursuant to a consulting agreement dated February 9, 2006. These stock issuances were exempt from registration pursuant to Section 4(2) of the Securities Act.

On November 27, 2006, we issued 1,538,462 shares of our common stock to 3 accredited investors for a consideration of $10 million at a price of $6.50 per share. The issuance was made in reliance on the exemption provided by Section 4(2) of the Securities Act for the offer and sale of securities not involving a public offering and Regulation D promulgated thereunder.

In instances described above where we issued securities in reliance upon Regulation D, we relied upon Rule 506 of Regulation D under the Securities Act. These stockholders who received the securities in such instances made representations that (a) the stockholder is acquiring the securities for his, her or its own account for investment and not for the account of any other person and not with a view to or for distribution, assignment or resale in connection with any distribution within the meaning of the Securities Act, (b) the stockholder agrees not to sell or otherwise transfer the purchased shares unless they are registered under the Securities Act and any applicable state securities laws, or an exemption or exemptions from such registration are available, (c) the stockholder has knowledge and experience in financial and business matters such that he, she or it is capable of evaluating the merits and risks of an investment in us, (d) the stockholder had access to all of our documents, records, and books pertaining to the investment and was provided the opportunity to ask questions and receive answers regarding the terms and conditions of the offering and to obtain any additional information which we possessed or were able to acquire without unreasonable effort and expense, and (e) the stockholder has no need for the liquidity in its investment in us and could afford the complete loss of such investment. Management made the determination that the investors in instances where we relied on Regulation D are Accredited Investors (as defined in Regulation D) based upon management's inquiry into their sophistication and net worth. In addition, there was no general solicitation or advertising for securities issued in reliance upon Regulation D.

In instances described above where we indicate that we relied upon Section 4(2) of the Securities Act in issuing securities, our reliance was based upon the following factors: (a) the issuance of the securities was an isolated private transaction by us which did not involve a public offering; (b) there were only a limited number of offerees; (c) there were no subsequent or contemporaneous public offerings of the securities by us; (d) the securities were not broken down into smaller denominations; and (e) the negotiations for the sale of the stock took place directly between the offeree and us.
