Dear Castelle Shareholder:

We are writing to you regarding the proposed sale of Castelle to Captaris, Inc., a Washington corporation (Captaris), in a cash transaction valued at approximately $10.8 million, net of an agreed upon closing cash balance for Castelle of $7.4 million, pursuant to an agreement and plan of merger, dated as of April 25, 2007, by and among Captaris, Merlot Acquisition Corporation, a California corporation and direct wholly-owned subsidiary of Captaris established for the purpose of the merger, and Castelle. Pursuant to the merger agreement, Merlot Acquisition Corporation will merge with and into Castelle and Castelle will become a direct wholly-owned subsidiary of Captaris. If the merger is completed, Castelle shareholders will have the right to receive $3.95 cash, without interest and less any applicable withholding taxes, for each share of Castelle common stock owned by them immediately prior to the effective time of the merger, subject to adjustment to the extent Castelle's cash balance at the effective time of the merger, after payment of transaction costs, is above or below the agreed upon balance of $7.4 million, and subject to additional downward adjustment to the extent Castelle's working capital (excluding cash) at the effective time of the merger is less than the agreed upon target of negative $75,000 (provided that the shortfall is at least $100,000).

In the enclosed proxy statement, you are being asked to consider and vote for the approval of the merger agreement, the merger and the other transactions contemplated by the merger agreement at a special meeting of our shareholders which will be held at the Silicon Valley office of our law firm, Fenwick & West LLP, located at 801 California Street, Mountain View, California 94041, on Tuesday, July 10, 2007 at 10:00 a.m., local time.

After careful consideration, our board of directors unanimously determined that the merger agreement, the merger and the other transactions contemplated by the merger agreement are fair to, and in the best interests of, Castelle and its shareholders. Our board of directors has unanimously approved the merger agreement, the merger and the other transactions contemplated by the merger agreement. Therefore, our board of directors unanimously recommends that you vote FOR the approval of the merger agreement, the merger and the other transactions contemplated by the merger agreement.

Our board of directors considered a number of factors in evaluating the merger, in consultation with its professional advisors, including legal and financial advisors. Included in the attached proxy statement is the full text of the written opinion of our financial advisor, Venturi & Company LLC, to the effect that, as of April 24, 2007, and based upon and subject to the considerations set forth in its opinion, the $3.95 per share in cash to be received by the holders of Castelle common stock pursuant to the merger agreement, subject to the adjustments described above, was fair, from a financial point of view, to such holders. In addition, our board of directors has determined that there is no reasonable concern that, as a result of the merger, Castelle would not be able to perform its obligations to its creditors. The enclosed proxy statement also provides detailed information about the merger agreement and the merger. We encourage you to read this information carefully.

You will also be asked to vote upon a proposal to adjourn the special meeting to another time, date or place, if necessary in the judgment of the proxy holders, for the purpose of soliciting additional proxies to vote in favor of the proposal to approve the merger agreement, the merger and the other transactions contemplated by the merger agreement. Our board of directors unanimously recommends that you vote FOR the proposal to adjourn the special meeting to another time, date or place, if necessary in the judgment of the proxy holders, for the purpose of soliciting additional proxies to vote in favor of the proposal to approve the merger agreement, the merger and the other transactions contemplated by the merger agreement.

Your vote is very important, regardless of the number of shares you own. The merger agreement, the merger and the other transactions contemplated by the merger agreement must be approved by the holders of a majority of our outstanding shares of common stock. The affirmative vote of a majority of the shares present in person or represented by proxy at the special meeting is required to approve the proposal to adjourn the special meeting to another time, date or place, if necessary in the judgment of the proxy holders, for the purpose of soliciting additional proxies to vote in favor of the proposal to approve the merger agreement, the merger and the other transactions contemplated by the merger agreement.

Our directors and executive officers collectively owning approximately 10% of our outstanding shares of common stock as of the record date have each entered into voting agreements with Captaris, in which our directors and executive officers agree to vote, and grant proxies to Captaris on their behalf to vote, all the shares of Castelle capital stock held by them for approval of the merger agreement, the merger and each of the other actions contemplated by the merger agreement and any action required in furtherance thereof.

To vote your shares, you may use the enclosed proxy card or attend the special meeting in person. On behalf of the board of directors, we urge you to sign, date and return the enclosed proxy card as soon as possible, even if you currently plan to attend the special meeting. It is important that your shares be represented and voted at the special meeting. If you attend the special meeting, you may vote in person as you wish, even though you have previously returned your proxy card.

Thank you for your support of our company and for submitting your vote. We look forward to seeing you at the special meeting if you choose to attend.

Sincerely,

/s/ Donald L. Rich

NOTICE OF SPECIAL MEETING OF SHAREHOLDERS

To be held on Tuesday, July 10, 2007

To the shareholders of Castelle:

Notice is hereby given that a special meeting of shareholders of Castelle, a California corporation (Castelle), will be held at the Silicon Valley office of our law firm, Fenwick & West LLP, located at 801 California Street, Mountain View, California 94041, on Tuesday, July 10, 2007 at 10:00 a.m., local time (the special meeting). The special meeting is being held for the following purposes:

- to consider and vote upon a proposal to approve the Agreement and Plan of Merger, dated as of April 25, 2007, by and among Captaris, Inc., a Washington corporation (Captaris), Merlot Acquisition Corporation, a California corporation and direct wholly-owned subsidiary of Captaris (Merlot Acquisition Sub), and Castelle (the merger agreement), the merger and the other transactions contemplated by the merger agreement;
- to consider and vote upon a proposal to adjourn the special meeting to another time, date or place, if necessary in the judgment of the proxy holders, for the purpose of soliciting additional proxies to vote in favor of the proposal to approve the merger agreement, the merger and the other transactions contemplated by the merger agreement; and
- to transact such other business as may properly come before the special meeting or any postponement or adjournment thereof.

The board of directors of Castelle has fixed the close of business on May 29, 2007 as the record date for the determination of shareholders entitled to notice of, and to vote at, the special meeting or any adjournment or postponement of it. Only holders of record of shares of Castelle common stock at the close of business on the record date are entitled to notice of, and to vote at, the special meeting or any adjournment or postponement of it. At the close of business on the record date, there were outstanding and entitled to vote 4,134,470 shares of Castelle common stock.

Your vote is important. The affirmative vote of the holders of a majority of the outstanding shares of Castelle common stock is required to approve the merger agreement, the merger and the other transactions contemplated by the merger agreement. The affirmative vote of a majority of the shares present in person or represented by proxy at the special meeting is required to approve the proposal to adjourn the special meeting to another time, date or place, if necessary in the judgment of the proxy holders, for the purpose of soliciting additional proxies to vote in favor of the proposal to approve the merger agreement, the merger and the other transactions contemplated by the merger agreement.

All shareholders are cordially invited to attend the special meeting in person. Even if you plan to attend the special meeting in person, we request that you complete, sign, date and return the enclosed proxy, and thus ensure that your shares will be represented at the special meeting if you are unable to attend. If you sign, date and return your proxy card without indicating how you wish to vote, your proxy will be voted FOR (i) the proposal to approve the merger agreement, the merger and the other transactions contemplated by the merger agreement, which we sometimes refer to as the merger proposal, and (ii) the proposal to adjourn the special meeting to another time, date or place, if necessary in the judgment of the proxy holders, for the purpose of soliciting additional proxies to vote in favor of the merger proposal. If you fail to return your proxy card and do not attend the special meeting in person, your shares will not be counted for purposes of determining whether a quorum is present at the special meeting. Such failure to return your proxy card and attend the special meeting in person will have the same effect as voting AGAINST the proposal to approve the merger agreement, the merger and the other transactions contemplated by the merger agreement, and will have no effect on the vote to approve adjournment of the special meeting to another time, date or place, if necessary in the judgment of the proxy holders, for the purpose of soliciting additional proxies to vote in favor of the proposal to approve the merger agreement, the merger and the other transactions contemplated by the merger agreement.

DIRECTORS

QUESTIONS AND ANSWERS ABOUT THE MERGER

The following questions and answers are intended to address some commonly asked questions regarding the merger. These questions and answers may not address all questions that may be important to you as a Castelle shareholder. Please refer to the more detailed information contained elsewhere in this proxy statement, the annexes to this proxy statement and the documents referred to in this proxy statement.

Except as otherwise specifically noted in this proxy statement, we, our, us and similar words in this proxy statement refer to Castelle. In addition, we refer to Castelle as Castelle or the company, to Captaris, Inc. as Captaris and to Merlot Acquisition Corporation as Merlot Acquisition Sub or merger sub.

Q: When and where is the special meeting?

A: The special meeting will be held on Tuesday, July 10, 2007 at 10:00 a.m., local time, at the Silicon Valley office of our law firm, Fenwick & West LLP, located at 801 California Street, Mountain View, California 94041.

Q: What am I being asked to vote on?

A: We sent you this proxy statement and the enclosed proxy card because our board of directors is soliciting your proxy to vote at our special meeting of shareholders. You are being asked to vote to approve a merger agreement that provides for the proposed acquisition of Castelle by Captaris and approve the merger and other transactions contemplated by the merger agreement. The proposed acquisition would be accomplished through a merger of Merlot Acquisition Sub, a California corporation and direct wholly-owned subsidiary of Captaris established for the purpose of the merger, with and into Castelle. You are also being asked to vote to approve a proposal to adjourn the special meeting to another time, date or place, if necessary in the judgment of the proxy holders, for the purpose of soliciting additional proxies to vote in favor of the merger proposal.

Q: What will Castelle's shareholders receive in the merger?

A: As a result of the merger, our shareholders will have the right to receive $3.95 in cash, without interest and less any applicable withholding taxes, for each share of Castelle common stock owned by them immediately prior to the effective time of the merger, subject to adjustment to the extent Castelle's cash balance at the effective time of the merger, after payment of transaction costs, is above or below the agreed upon balance of $7.4 million, and subject to additional downward adjustment to the extent Castelle's working capital (excluding cash) at the effective time of the merger is less than the agreed upon target of negative $75,000 (provided that the shortfall is at least $100,000).

Q: What will happen to my shares of Castelle common stock after the merger?

A: As a result of the merger, Castelle will become a wholly-owned subsidiary of Captaris and Castelle common stock will cease to be listed on The NASDAQ Capital Market, will not be publicly traded and will be deregistered under the Securities Exchange Act of 1934, as amended, which we refer to as the Exchange Act.

Q: What will happen to Castelle stock options in the merger?

A: Each Castelle stock option that is outstanding and unexercised immediately prior to the effective time of the merger will be converted into the right to receive an amount of cash equal to (i) the product of (A) the number of shares of our common stock as to which such stock option was vested and exercisable, multiplied by (B) the excess, if any, of the merger consideration to be received for each share of common stock of Castelle, as described above, over the per share exercise price of such stock option, less (ii) any applicable withholding taxes. Please see Proposal One Merger Proposal, The Merger Agreement Castelle Stock Options.

Q: What vote of Castelle shareholders is required to approve the proposals to be acted upon at the special meeting?

A: The affirmative vote of a majority of the shares of Castelle common stock outstanding at the close of business on the record date is required to approve the merger agreement, the merger and the other transactions contemplated by the merger agreement. The affirmative vote of a majority of the shares present in person or represented by proxy at the special meeting is required to approve the proposal to adjourn the special meeting to another time, date or place, if necessary in the judgment of the proxy holders, for the purpose of soliciting additional proxies to vote in favor of the merger proposal.

There are 4,134,470 shares of Castle common stock entitled to be voted at the special meeting on the record date. Our directors and executive officers collectively owning approximately 10% of our outstanding shares of common stock as of the record date have each entered into voting agreements with Captaris, in which our directors and executive officers agree to vote, and grant proxies to Captaris on their behalf to vote, all the shares of Castle capital stock held by them for approval of the merger agreement, the merger and each of the other actions contemplated by the merger agreement and any action required in furtherance thereof. Please see Proposal One Merger Proposal, Voting Agreements.

Q: What do I need to do now?

A: We urge you to read this proxy statement carefully, including its annexes, and to consider how the merger affects you. Then just mail your completed, dated and signed proxy card in the enclosed return envelope as soon as possible, so that your shares can be voted at the special meeting of our shareholders. If you sign and mail your proxy and do not indicate how you want to vote, your proxy will be voted FOR (i) the proposal to approve the merger agreement, the merger and the other transactions contemplated by the merger agreement, which we sometimes refer to as the merger proposal, and (ii) the proposal to adjourn the special meeting to another time, date or place, if necessary in the judgment of the proxy holders, for the purpose of soliciting additional proxies to vote in favor of the merger proposal. If you hold your shares in street name, follow the instructions from your broker on how to vote your shares. Please do not send in your share certificates with your proxy.

Q: Why is it important for me to vote?

A: Your vote is important. The failure to return your proxy card will mean that your shares will not be counted for purposes of determining whether a quorum is present at the special meeting and will have the same effect as voting AGAINST the proposal to approve the merger agreement, the merger and the other transactions contemplated by the merger agreement, and will have no effect on the vote to approve adjournment of the special meeting to another time, date or place, if necessary in the judgment of the proxy holders, for the purpose of soliciting additional proxies to vote in favor of the merger proposal. Shares of Castle common stock that are represented in person or by proxy at the special meeting and that are voted ABSTAIN will not be voted at the special meeting for the purpose of determining if any of the proposals put to vote are approved, but will be counted as part of the required quorum. If your shares of Castle common stock are held in street name by your broker, be sure to give your broker instructions on how you want to vote your shares because your broker will not be able to vote without instructions from you. See question below If my broker holds my shares in street name, will my broker vote my shares for me?

Q: How does Castle's board of directors recommend I vote?

A: At a meeting held on April 24, 2007, Castle's board of directors unanimously approved the merger agreement, the merger and the other transactions contemplated by the merger agreement, and determined that the merger agreement, the merger and the other transactions contemplated by the merger agreement are fair to, and in the best interests of, Castle and its shareholders. Our board of directors unanimously recommends that you vote FOR (i) the proposal to approve the merger agreement, the merger and the other transactions contemplated by the merger agreement, which we sometimes refer to as the merger proposal, and (ii) the proposal to adjourn the special meeting to another time, date or place, if necessary in the judgment of the proxy holders, for the purpose of soliciting additional proxies to vote in favor of the merger proposal. The board of directors was aware of the personal interests of certain directors and officers in the transactions as described in the section of this proxy statement entitled Proposal One Merger Proposal, The Merger Interests of Castle's Executive Officers and Directors in the Merger, and considered them when they made the recommendation.

Q: What factors did our board of directors consider in making its recommendation?

A: In making its recommendation, our board of directors took into account, among other things, the cash consideration to be received by holders of Castle common stock in the merger and the current and historical market prices of Castle common stock, the financial analyses and written opinion of our financial advisor, Venturi & Company LLC, our board of directors' assessment of a number of strategic financial and operational considerations and the terms of the merger agreement, including our ability to furnish information to, and conduct negotiations with, a third party should we receive a superior offer. Please see Proposal One Merger Proposal, The Merger Recommendation of Castle's Board of Directors and Reasons for the Merger and Proposal One Merger Proposal, The Merger Opinion of Castle's Financial Advisor.

Q: Who is entitled to vote at the special meeting?

A: Only shareholders of record as of the close of business on May 29, 2007 are entitled to receive notice of the special meeting and to vote the shares of Castle common stock that they held at that time at the special meeting, or at any adjournments or postponements of the special meeting.

Q: May I vote in person?

A: Yes. If your shares are held directly in your name and not in street name through a broker or bank, you may attend the special meeting and vote your shares in person, rather than signing and returning your proxy card.

If your shares are held in street name, you must get a proxy from your broker or bank in order to attend the special meeting and vote.

Q: May I change my vote after I have mailed my signed proxy card?

A: Yes. You may change your vote at any time before the shares of Castle common stock reflected on your proxy card are voted at the special meeting. If your shares are registered in your name, you can do this in one of three ways:

First, you can deliver to the Secretary of Castle a written notice bearing a date later than the proxy stating that you would like to revoke your proxy.

Second, you can complete, execute and deliver to the Secretary of Castle a new, later-dated proxy card for the same shares, provided the new proxy is received by 5:00 p.m., Pacific Time, on July 9, 2007.

Third, you can attend the meeting and vote in person. Your attendance alone will not revoke your proxy.

Any written notice of revocation or subsequent proxy should be delivered to the Secretary of Castle at or before the taking of the vote at the special meeting.

If you have instructed a broker to vote your shares, you must follow directions received from your broker to change those instructions. You cannot vote shares held in street name by returning a proxy card directly to Castle or by voting in person at the special meeting.

Q: If my broker holds my shares in street name, will my broker vote my shares for me?

A: Your broker will not be able to vote your shares without instructions from you. You should instruct your broker to vote your shares following the procedure provided by your broker. Without instructions, your shares will be considered present at the special meeting for purposes of determining a quorum, but will have the same effect as being voted AGAINST the approval of the merger agreement, the merger and the other transactions contemplated by the merger agreement, and will have no effect on the vote to approve adjournment of the special meeting to another time, date or place, if necessary in the judgment of the proxy holders, for the purpose of soliciting additional proxies to vote in favor of the merger proposal.

Q: What should I do if I receive more than one set of voting materials?

A: You may receive more than one set of voting materials, including multiple copies of this proxy statement and multiple proxy cards or voting instruction cards. For example, if you hold your shares in more than one brokerage account, you will receive a separate voting instruction card for each brokerage account in which you hold shares. If you are a shareholder of record and your shares are registered in more than one name, you will receive more than one proxy card. Please complete, sign, date and return each proxy card and voting instruction card that you receive.

Q: What happens if I sell my shares of Castelle common stock before the special meeting?

A: The record date for the special meeting is earlier than the date of the special meeting and the date that the merger is expected to be completed. If you transfer your shares of Castelle common stock after the record date but before the special meeting, you will retain your right to vote at the special meeting, but will have transferred the right to receive the merger consideration.

Q: Will the merger be taxable to me?

A: Generally, yes. The receipt of cash in exchange for shares of our common stock pursuant to the merger will be a taxable transaction to U.S. holders (as defined below in Proposal One Merger Proposal, The Merger Material United States Federal Income Tax Consequences of the Merger) for U.S. federal income tax purposes. Generally, for U.S. federal income tax purposes, a U.S. holder will recognize gain or loss equal to the difference between the amount of cash received by the holder in the merger and the holder's adjusted tax basis in the shares of Castelle common stock transferred to Captaris in consideration for cash in the merger. If the shares of Castelle common stock are held by a U.S. holder as capital assets, gain or loss recognized by the holder for U.S. federal income tax purposes will be capital gain or loss, which will be long-term capital gain or loss if the holder's holding period for the shares of Castelle common stock exceeds one year. Capital gains recognized by an individual upon a disposition of a share of Castelle common stock that has been held for more than one year generally will be subject to a maximum U.S. federal income tax rate of 15% or, in the case of a share that has been held for one year or less, will be subject to tax at ordinary U.S. federal income tax rates. A non-U.S. holder generally will not be subject to U.S. federal income tax on any gain realized on the receipt of cash merger consideration for shares of Castelle common stock in the merger, unless an exception applies to the non-U.S. holder. Because individual circumstances may differ, you should consult your own tax advisor to determine the particular tax effects to you. Please see Proposal One Merger Proposal, The Merger Material United States Federal Income Tax Consequences of the Merger.

Q: When do you expect the merger to be completed?

A: We are working toward completing the merger as quickly as possible, but we cannot predict the exact timing. We expect to complete the merger in the third quarter of 2007. In addition to obtaining shareholder approval, we must satisfy all other closing conditions set forth in the merger agreement. Please see Proposal One Merger Proposal, The Merger Agreement Conditions to the Merger.

Q: Am I entitled to dissenters' rights?

A: Yes. Castelle shareholders may be entitled, under certain circumstances, to dissenters' rights under California law. For a detailed discussion of dissenters' rights under California law, please see Proposal One Merger Proposal, The Merger Dissenters' Rights.

Q: Should I send in my Castelle share certificates now?

A: No. After the merger is completed, you will receive written instructions for exchanging your shares of Castelle common stock for the cash merger consideration described above.

Q: When will I receive the cash consideration for my shares of Castelle common stock?

A: After the merger is completed, you will receive written instructions, including a letter of transmittal, that explain how to exchange your shares for the cash consideration paid in the merger. When you properly complete and return the required documentation described in the written instructions, you will promptly receive from the paying agent a payment of the cash consideration for your shares.

Q: Who can help answer my questions?

A: If you would like additional copies, without charge, of this proxy statement or if you have questions about the merger, including the procedures for voting your shares, you should contact:

Please see The Companies Captaris Merger Subsidiary.

The Merger (Page 12)

Edgar Filing: CASTELLE \CA\ - Form DEFM14A

Under the merger agreement, merger sub will merge with and into Castelle. After the merger, Castelle will become a wholly-owned subsidiary of Captaris. Our shareholders will receive cash in the merger in exchange for shares of Castelle common stock.

Merger Consideration (Page 26)

If the merger is completed, you will have the right to receive $3.95 in cash, without interest and less any applicable withholding taxes, for each share of Castelle common stock owned by you immediately prior to the effective time of the merger, subject to adjustment to the extent Castelle's cash balance at the effective time of the merger, after payment of transaction costs, is above or below the agreed upon balance of $7.4 million, and subject to additional downward adjustment to the extent Castelle's working capital (excluding cash) at the effective time of the merger is less than the agreed upon target of negative $75,000 (provided that the shortfall is at least $100,000). Please note that there is no maximum or minimum price adjustment and there can be no assurance as to the final price per share.

After the merger is completed, you will have the right to receive the merger consideration, but you will no longer have any rights as a shareholder of Castelle and will have no rights as a shareholder of Captaris. Castelle shareholders will receive the merger consideration after exchanging their Castelle share certificates in accordance with the instructions contained in the letter of transmittal to be sent to our shareholders shortly after completion of the merger.

Please see Proposal One Merger Proposal, The Merger Merger Consideration.

Treatment of Options Outstanding under our Stock Plans (Page 30)

Each Castelle stock option that is outstanding and unexercised immediately prior to the effective time of the merger will be converted into the right to receive an amount of cash equal to (i) the product of (A) the number of shares of our common stock as to which such stock option was vested and exercisable, multiplied by (B) the excess, if any, of the merger consideration to be received for each share of common stock of Castelle, as described above, over the per share exercise price of such stock option, less (ii) any applicable withholding taxes.

Please see Proposal One Merger Proposal, The Merger Agreement Treatment of Castelle Stock Options and Proposal One Merger Proposal, The Merger Agreement Merger Consideration.

Market Price (Page 7)

Castelle common stock is listed on The NASDAQ Capital Market under the symbol CSTL. On April 25, 2007, the last full trading day prior to the public announcement of the merger, the closing price for shares of Castelle common stock was $3.40 per share. On May 31, 2007, the latest practicable trading day before the printing of this proxy statement, the closing price for shares of Castelle common stock was $3.83 per share. Please see Market Price and Dividend Data.

Material United States Federal Income Tax Consequences of the Merger (Page 24)

The exchange of shares of Castelle common stock for the cash merger consideration will be a taxable transaction to U.S. holders (as defined below in Proposal One Merger Proposal, The Merger Material United States Federal Income Tax Consequences of the Merger) for United States federal income tax purposes. Generally, for U.S. federal income tax purposes, a U.S. holder will recognize gain or loss equal to the difference between the amount of cash received by the U.S. holder in the merger and the U.S. holder's adjusted tax basis in the shares of Castelle common stock transferred to Captaris in consideration for cash in the merger. If the shares of Castelle common stock are held by a U.S. holder as capital assets, gain or loss recognized by the holder for U.S. federal income tax purposes will be capital gain or loss, which will be long-term capital gain or loss if the U.S. holder's holding period for the shares of Castelle common stock exceeds one year. Capital gains recognized by an individual upon a disposition of a share of Castelle common stock that has been held for more than one year generally will be subject to a maximum U.S. federal income tax rate of 15% or, in the case of a share that has been held for one year or less, will be subject to tax at ordinary U.S. federal income tax rates. A non-U.S. holder generally will not be subject to U.S. federal income tax on any gain realized on the receipt of cash merger consideration for shares of Castelle common stock in the merger, unless an exception applies to the non-U.S. holder. Please see Proposal One Merger Proposal, The Merger Material United States Federal Income Tax Consequences of the Merger for a more complete discussion of the U.S. federal income tax consequences of the merger to U.S. and non-U.S. holders.

Tax matters can be complicated, and the tax consequences of the merger to you will depend on the facts of your own situation. We strongly urge you to consult your own tax advisor to fully understand the tax consequences of the merger to you.

Dissenters' Rights (Page 23)

You may be entitled, under certain circumstances, to dissenters' rights under California law. Castelle shareholders who do not vote in favor of the approval of the merger agreement, the merger and the other transactions contemplated by the merger agreement and otherwise comply with the requirements of Chapter 13 of the California General Corporation Law will be entitled to dissenters' rights in connection with the merger, whereby such shareholders may receive the fair market value of their shares of Castelle common stock in cash. Failure to take any of the steps required under Chapter 13 of the California General Corporation Law on a timely basis may result in a loss of those dissenters' rights. For a detailed discussion of dissenters' rights under California law, please see Proposal One Merger Proposal, The Merger Dissenters' Rights.

Recommendation of Castelle's Board of Directors to Shareholders and Reasons for the Merger (Page 15)

Our board of directors unanimously recommends that you vote FOR (i) the proposal to approve the merger agreement, the merger and the other transactions contemplated by the merger agreement, which we sometimes refer to as the merger proposal, and (ii) the proposal to adjourn the special meeting to another time, date or place, if necessary in the judgment of the proxy holders, for the purpose of soliciting additional proxies to vote in favor of the merger proposal. After careful consideration, our board of directors unanimously determined that the merger agreement, the merger and the other transactions contemplated by the merger agreement are fair to, and in the best interests of, Castelle and its shareholders. Our board of directors has unanimously approved the merger agreement, the merger and the other transactions contemplated by the merger agreement.

In making this determination and recommendation, our board of directors considered a number of factors, including those described in the section of this proxy statement entitled Proposal One Merger Proposal, The Merger Recommendation of Castelle's Board of Directors and Reasons for the Merger.

Opinion of Our Financial Advisor (Page 17)

In connection with the proposed merger, our financial advisor, Venturi & Company LLC, delivered to our board of directors its written opinion, dated April 24, 2007, to the effect that, as of April 24, 2007 and based upon and subject to the considerations set forth in the Venturi & Company opinion, the cash consideration to be received by holders of shares of Castelle common stock pursuant to the merger agreement was fair, from a financial point of view, to such holders. The full text of the written opinion of Venturi & Company, dated April 24, 2007, which sets forth, among other things, assumptions made, procedures followed, matters considered and limitations on the scope of the review undertaken by Venturi & Company in connection with its opinion, is attached as Annex C to this proxy statement. You are urged to, and should, read the opinion in its entirety. Venturi & Company provided its opinion for the information of our board of directors in connection with its consideration of the transaction contemplated by the merger agreement. The Venturi & Company opinion addresses only the fairness, from a financial point of view, of the merger consideration to be received by the holders of shares of Castelle common stock as of the date of the Venturi & Company opinion, and does not constitute a recommendation to any shareholder as to how such shareholder should vote or act on any matter relating to the merger.

The Special Meeting of Castelle's Shareholders (Page 8)

Date, Time and Place. A special meeting of our shareholders will be held at the Silicon Valley office of our law firm, Fenwick & West LLP, located at 801 California Street, Mountain View, California 94041, on Tuesday, July 10, 2007 at 10:00 a.m., local time. The special meeting is being held for the following purposes:

- to consider and vote upon a proposal to approve the merger agreement, the merger and the other transactions contemplated by the merger agreement;
- to consider and vote upon a proposal to adjourn the special meeting to another time, date or place, if necessary in the judgment of the proxy holders, for the purpose of soliciting additional proxies to vote in favor of the merger proposal; and
- to transact such other business as may properly come before the special meeting or any postponement or adjournment thereof.

Record Date and Voting Power. You are entitled to vote at the special meeting if you owned any shares of Castelle common stock at the close of business on May 29, 2007, the record date for the special meeting. You will have one vote at the special meeting for each share of Castelle common stock you owned at the close of business on the record date. There are 4,134,470 shares of Castelle common stock entitled to be voted at the special meeting. As further indicated below, our directors and executive officers and their affiliates own approximately 10% of the shares entitled to vote at the special meeting and may have interests that are different from yours. Please see Proposal One Merger Proposal, The Merger Interests of Castle s Executive Officers and Directors in the Merger.

Quorum. A quorum of shareholders is necessary to hold a valid special meeting. A quorum is present at the special meeting if a majority of the shares of Castle common stock entitled to vote on the record date are present in person or represented by proxy. In the event that a quorum is not present at the special meeting, it is expected that the meeting will be adjourned or postponed to solicit additional proxies.

Procedures for Voting. You may vote by either of the following methods:

- by completing, signing, dating and returning the enclosed proxy card in the postage-paid envelope; or
- by appearing and voting in person at the special meeting.

If your shares are held in street name by your broker, bank or other nominee, you should instruct your broker to vote your shares by following the instructions provided by your broker. Your broker will not vote your shares without instructions from you. Remember, if you fail to instruct your broker to vote your shares, it will have the same effect as a vote AGAINST the merger proposal, and will have no effect on the vote to approve adjournment of the special meeting to another time, date or place, if necessary in the judgment of the proxy holders, for the purpose of soliciting additional proxies to vote in favor of the merger proposal.

Required Vote. The approval of the merger agreement, the merger and the other transactions contemplated by the merger agreement requires the affirmative vote of a majority of the shares of Castle common stock outstanding at the close of business on the record date. The affirmative vote of a majority of the shares present in person or represented by proxy at the special meeting is required to approve the proposal to adjourn the special meeting to another time, date or place, if necessary in the judgment of the proxy holders, for the purpose of soliciting additional proxies to vote in favor of the merger proposal.

Our directors and executive officers collectively owning approximately 10% of our outstanding shares of common stock as of the record date have each entered into voting agreements with Captaris, in which our directors and executive officers agree to vote, and grant proxies to Captaris on their behalf to vote, all the shares of Castle capital stock held by them for approval of the merger agreement, the merger and each of the other actions contemplated by the merger agreement and any action required in furtherance thereof.

Voting Agreements (Page 38)

As an inducement to Captaris to enter into the merger agreement, our directors and executive officers collectively owning approximately 10% of our outstanding shares of common stock as of the record date have each entered into voting agreements with Captaris, in which our directors and executive officers agree to vote, and grant proxies to Captaris on their behalf to vote, all the shares of Castle capital stock held by them for approval of the merger agreement, the merger and each of the other actions contemplated by the merger agreement and any action required in furtherance thereof. The form of voting agreement entered into by such directors and executive officers is included as Annex B to this proxy statement and is incorporated herein by reference. Such directors and executive officers have not received any additional consideration with respect to the voting agreements. Please see Proposal One Merger Proposal, The Voting Agreements.

When considering the recommendation of our board of directors, you should be aware that the members of our board of directors and executive officers have interests in the merger in addition to their interests as Castle shareholders generally. These interests may be different from, or in addition to, your interests as a Castle shareholder. These interests include the payment of bonuses to our Chief Executive Officer and to our Chief Financial Officer to the extent that the merger consideration exceeds $4.00 per share, employment arrangements between Captaris and our executive officers that will take effect upon the consummation of the merger and the maintenance of indemnification rights and insurance coverage of the current and former officers and directors of Castle and its subsidiaries. The members of our board of directors were aware of these additional interests, and considered them, when they approved the merger agreement, the merger and the other transactions contemplated by the merger agreement. Please see Proposal One Merger Proposal, The Merger Interests of Castle s Executive Officer and Directors in the Merger.

The Merger Agreement (Page 26)

Conditions to the Closing of the Merger. The obligations of both us and Captaris to complete the merger are subject to the satisfaction of certain conditions. Please see Proposal One Merger Proposal, The Merger Agreement Conditions to the Merger.

Termination of the Merger Agreement. Either we or Captaris can terminate the merger agreement under certain circumstances, which would prevent the merger from being consummated. Please see Proposal One Merger Proposal, The Merger Agreement Termination of the Merger Agreement.

Limitation on Soliciting, Discussing and Negotiating Other Acquisition Proposals. We have agreed that prior to the consummation of the merger we will not, and will ensure that our subsidiaries and our and our subsidiaries representatives do not, directly or indirectly:

- solicit, initiate, encourage, facilitate or induce any inquiry with respect to, or the making, submission or announcement of, any proposal relating to any alternative business combination transaction;
- participate in discussions or negotiation of, or furnish any nonpublic information with respect to, or take any other action to facilitate any inquiries or the making of, any proposal that constitutes or could reasonably be expected to lead to any alternative business combination transaction;
- subject to certain exceptions, engage in discussions with respect to any alternative business combination transaction;
- subject to certain exceptions, approve, endorse or recommend any alternative business combination transaction; or
- enter into any letter of intent or similar document or any contract, agreement or commitment contemplating or otherwise relating to any alternative business combination transaction.

In response to an acquisition proposal submitted to us following the date of the merger agreement that our board of directors believes in good faith is reasonably likely to result in a superior offer and that is not withdrawn, if neither we nor any of our or our subsidiaries representatives shall have breached the restrictions described in the immediately preceding paragraph and our board of directors concludes in good faith that the following action is required in order for our board of directors to comply with its fiduciary obligations to our shareholders, we may (1) furnish to such person nonpublic information with respect to us and our subsidiaries pursuant to a confidentiality agreement that contains terms that are at least as restrictive as the terms of the confidentiality agreement that we and Captaris have executed in connection with the merger, provided that we concurrently provide Captaris written notice of our intention to furnish such nonpublic information and furnish such nonpublic information to Captaris together with a list identifying all such nonpublic information furnished by us, and (2) engage in negotiations with the person (and its representatives) regarding the acquisition proposal, provided that we concurrently provide Captaris with written notice of our intention to enter into negotiations with such person.

Please see Proposal One Merger Proposal, The Merger Agreement Limitation on Soliciting, Discussing and Negotiating Other Acquisition Proposals.

Expenses and Termination Fees. The merger agreement provides that, subject to limited exceptions, all fees and expenses incurred in connection with the merger agreement and the merger will be paid by the party incurring such expenses.

Upon termination of the merger agreement under specified circumstances, we must reimburse Captaris for all fees and expenses actually incurred by Captaris in connection with the merger, up to a maximum of $250,000, and pay Captaris a termination fee of $700,000.

Please see Proposal One Merger Proposal, The Merger Agreement Expenses and Termination Fees.

CAUTION REGARDING FORWARD-LOOKING STATEMENTS

This proxy statement contains forward-looking statements, as defined in Section 27A of the Securities Act of 1933, as amended, and Section 21E of the Exchange Act that are based on our current expectations, assumptions, beliefs, estimates and projections about our company and our industry. Generally, these forward-looking statements can be identified by the use of forward-looking terminology such as anticipate, believe, estimate, expect, intend, project, should and similar expressions. Those risks and uncertainties among other things, the risk that the merger may not be consummated in a timely manner, if at all, the risk that the merger agreement may be terminated in circumstances which require our payment to Captaris of a termination fee, risks regarding a substantial decrease in the sales of our products, risks regarding employee retention and other risks detailed in our current filings with the SEC, including our most recent filings on Form 10-K and Form 10-Q. We caution you that reliance on any forward-looking statement involves risks and uncertainties, and that although we believe that the assumptions on which our forward-looking statements are based are reasonable, any of those assumptions could prove to be inaccurate, and, as a result, the forward-looking statements based on those assumptions could be incorrect. THE SPECIAL MEETING

The enclosed proxy is solicited on behalf of the board of directors of Castelle for use at the special meeting of shareholders or at any adjournment or postponement thereof.

Date, Time, Place

We will hold the special meeting at Castelle's corporate offices, located at the Silicon Valley office of our law firm, Fenwick & West LLP, located at 801 California Street, Mountain View, California 94041, on Tuesday, July 10, 2007 at 10:00 a.m., local time.

Purpose of the Special Meeting

At the special meeting, we will ask holders of shares of Castelle common stock to:

consider and vote upon a proposal to approve the merger agreement, the merger and the other transactions contemplated by the merger agreement, as more fully described in this proxy statement;
to consider and vote upon a proposal to adjourn the special meeting to another time, date or place, if necessary in the judgment of the proxy holders, for the purpose of soliciting additional proxies to vote in favor of the merger proposal; and
to transact such other business as may properly come before the special meeting or any postponement or adjournment thereof.

Record Date; Shares Entitled to Vote; Quorum

Only holders of record of shares of Castelle common stock at the close of business on May 29, 2007, the record date, are entitled to notice of and to vote at the special meeting. On the record date, 4,134,470 shares of Castelle common stock were issued and outstanding. Holders of record of shares of Castelle common stock on the record date are entitled to one vote per share at the special meeting on all matters to be considered at the special meeting.

A quorum of shareholders is necessary to hold a valid special meeting. A quorum is present at the special meeting if a majority of the shares of Castelle common stock entitled to vote on the record date are present in person or represented by proxy. In the event that a quorum is not present at the special meeting, it is expected that the meeting will be adjourned or postponed to solicit additional proxies. For purposes of determining the presence or absence of a quorum, votes withheld, abstentions and broker non-votes (where a broker or nominee cannot exercise discretionary authority and does not receive voting instructions from the beneficial owners to vote on a matter) will be counted as present, but will not be considered to have been voted in favor of any of the matters to be considered at the special meeting.

Votes Required

The approval of the merger agreement, the merger and the other transactions contemplated by the merger agreement requires the affirmative vote of the holders of at least a majority of the outstanding shares of Castelle common stock on the record date. Approval of the merger agreement by Castelle shareholders is a condition to the closing of the merger. The affirmative vote of a majority of the shares present in person or represented by proxy at the special meeting is required to approve the proposal to adjourn the special meeting to another time, date or place, if necessary in the judgment of the proxy holders, for the purpose of soliciting additional proxies to vote in favor of the merger proposal.

Voting by Castelle's Directors and Executive

As further indicated above, at the close of business on the record date, our directors, executive officers and their affiliates owned and were entitled to vote 418,060 shares of Castelle common stock, which represented approximately 10% of the shares of Castelle common stock outstanding on that date.

Our directors and executive officers collectively owning approximately 10% of our outstanding shares of common stock as of the record date have each entered into voting agreements with Captaris, in which our directors and executive officers agree to vote, and grant proxies to Captaris on their behalf to vote, all the shares of Castle capital stock held by them for approval of the merger agreement, the merger and each of the other actions contemplated by the merger agreement and any action required in furtherance thereof. Please see Proposal One Merger Proposal, The Voting Agreements.

Procedures for Voting; Proxies; Revocation

Shareholders can vote by either of the following methods:

- by completing, signing, dating and returning the enclosed proxy card in the postage-paid envelope; or
- by appearing and voting in person at the special meeting.

All shares represented by properly completed proxies received prior to 9:00 a.m., Pacific Time, on the date of the special meeting will be voted at the special meeting in the manner specified in the proxies. Properly completed proxies that do not contain voting instructions will be voted

FOR (i) the proposal to approve the merger agreement, the merger and the other transactions contemplated by the merger agreement, which we sometimes refer to as the merger proposal, and (ii) the proposal to adjourn the special meeting to another time, date or place, if necessary in the judgment of the proxy holders, for the purpose of soliciting additional proxies to vote in favor of the merger proposal.

Brokers or banks who hold shares of Castle common stock in street name may not give a proxy to vote those shares in the absence of specific instructions from their customers who beneficially own those shares. If no instructions are given to the broker or bank holding shares, or if instructions are given to the broker or bank indicating that the broker or bank does not have authority to vote on the proposal to approve the merger agreement, the merger and the other transactions contemplated by the merger agreement, then the shares will be counted as present for purposes of determining whether a quorum exists, but will have the same effect as votes AGAINST the merger agreement, the merger and the other transactions contemplated by the merger agreement, and will have no effect on the vote to approve adjournment of the special meeting to another time, date or place, if necessary in the judgment of the proxy holders, for the purpose of soliciting additional proxies to vote in favor of the merger proposal. Please note that if your shares are held of record by a broker, bank or other nominee and you wish to vote at the special meeting, you must bring to the meeting a letter from the broker, bank or other nominee confirming your beneficial ownership of the shares and that the broker, bank or other nominee is not voting the shares at the special meeting.

You may change your vote or revoke your proxy in one of three ways. First, you can deliver to the Secretary of Castle a written notice bearing a date later than the proxy stating that you would like to revoke your proxy. Second, you can complete, execute and deliver to the Secretary of Castle a new, later-dated proxy card for the same shares, provided the new proxy is received by 5:00 p.m., Pacific Time, on July 9, 2007. Third, you can attend the meeting and vote in person. Your attendance alone will not revoke your proxy. Any written notice of revocation or subsequent proxy should be delivered to the Secretary of Castle at or before the taking of the vote at the special meeting. If you have instructed a broker to vote your shares, you must follow directions received from your broker to change those instructions. You cannot vote shares held in street name by returning a proxy card directly to Castle or by voting in person at the special meeting.

We will treat abstentions and shares represented by proxies that reflect abstentions as shares that are present for the purpose of determining the presence of a quorum. For purposes of determining the outcome of the vote to approve the merger agreement, the merger and the other transactions contemplated by the merger agreement, we will treat abstaining shares as not voting with respect to that matter (even though abstaining shares are considered present for quorum purposes) and, as a result, abstaining shares will have the same effect as being voted AGAINST the merger proposal, and will have no effect on the vote to approve adjournment of the special meeting to another time, date or place, if necessary in the judgment of the proxy holders, for the purpose of soliciting additional proxies to vote in favor of the merger proposal.

Solicitation of Proxies

The expense of soliciting proxies in the enclosed form will be borne by Castle. We may reimburse brokers, banks and other custodians, nominees and fiduciaries representing beneficial owners of shares for their expenses in forwarding soliciting materials to such beneficial owners. Proxies may also be solicited by certain of our directors, officers and employees, personally or by telephone, facsimile or other means of communication. No additional compensation will be paid for such services.

Householding of Special Meeting Materials

Some banks, brokers and other nominee record holders may be participating in the practice of householding proxy statements and annual reports. This means that only one copy of our proxy statement may have been sent to multiple shareholders in each household. We will promptly deliver a separate copy of either document to any shareholder upon written or oral request to:

PROPOSAL ONE - MERGER PROPOSAL

APPROVAL OF THE MERGER AGREEMENT, THE MERGER AND THE OTHER TRANSACTIONS

CONTEMPLATED BY THE MERGER AGREEMENT

THE MERGER

The following discussion summarizes the material terms of the merger. Shareholders should read the merger agreement, which is attached as Annex A to this proxy statement.

Background to the Merger

The terms and conditions of the merger agreement were the result of arms-length discussions and negotiations between representatives of each company. A brief summary of the background of the negotiations and discussions between the two companies follows.

On October 3, 2006, Mr. David P. Anastasi, President, Chief Executive Officer and a member of the board of directors of Captaris, first contacted Mr. Scott C. McDonald, our President, Chief Executive Officer and a member of our board of directors, to suggest a meeting. After discussions with other members of our board of directors, Mr. McDonald accepted.

On November 16, 2006, our board of directors discussed the planned meeting at a regular meeting of our board of directors. At the meeting, our board of directors empowered Mr. McDonald to commence a dialog with Captaris and to investigate and present any potential opportunities that could be in the best interests of Castelle and our shareholders.

On November 16, 2006, Mr. McDonald and Mr. Anastasi met for dinner and commenced discussions on a potential strategic transaction between Castelle and Captaris.

On November 17, 2006, we entered into a mutual nondisclosure agreement with Captaris (the NDA) to enable sharing of confidential information between the parties necessary to investigate a potential transaction. Thereafter, Mr. McDonald, Mr. Eric Chen, our Senior Vice President, Engineering and Business Development, Mr. Paul Cheng, our Vice President, Finance and Administration, Chief Financial Officer and Secretary, Mr. Richard Fernandez, our Vice President, Operations, and various representatives of Castelle held numerous discussions with executives and representatives of Captaris, both remotely and at our headquarters, and with Pacific Crest Securities, Captaris' financial advisor.

On November 28, 2006, Mr. Anastasi and Mr. Shannon Soqui of Pacific Crest Securities provided Mr. McDonald with documentation and presentations describing Captaris' vision, plans and assessment of value and benefits which would accrue to the combined entity. Many follow-up discussions were held between the parties.

On December 12, 2006, Captaris provided us with its initial views on valuation for our shares of common stock. This valuation based, in part, on Castelle's cash balance as of September 30, 2006, was $3.24 - $3.64 per share. As a result of subsequent negotiations, the parties agreed that any excess cash from Castelle's operations between September 30, 2006 and the closing of the transaction, after payment of transaction costs, would be distributed to Castelle shareholders through a special cash dividend prior to the closing (the Cash Dividend).

On December 14, 2006, our key officers, board of directors and legal counsel reviewed the status of discussions and our board of directors considered approved entering into a form of No Shop agreement with Captaris, subject to customary and fiduciary qualifications (the No Shop), which agreement was required by Captaris as a condition of continued investigation and review of a potential transaction. Castelle and Captaris completed negotiations on the No Shop, and the agreement was executed by the parties on that date.

From December 21, 2006 through December 23, 2006, Mr. McDonald visited Captaris and met with Mr. Anastasi, Mr. Peter Papano, Captaris' Chief Financial Officer, and other executive officers of Captaris and Pacific Crest Securities for high-level due diligence meetings. Focused discussions were held and fact finding was conducted with Mr. McDonald and various other officers and representatives of Castelle during this time.

On January 2, 2007, we sent to Captaris our countervailing view on valuation of our shares of common stock ($4.08 - $4.33 per share, plus the Cash Dividend). Many follow-up discussions were held between the executive officers of both parties.

On January 10, 2007, our key officers updated our board of directors and reviewed the status of discussions and negotiations on a Letter of Intent (the LOI) between the parties, for the potential acquisition of Castelle by Captaris.

On January 11, 2007, we completed negotiations with Captaris on the LOI and entered into the LOI on that date. The LOI provided for a purchase price range of $3.85 to $4.00 per share, plus the Cash Dividend, which would consist of all of Castelle's cash as of the closing in excess of $7.4 million (after repayment of all transaction costs), subject to a working capital adjustment. If Castelle's cash as of the closing is less than $7.4 million, the LOI provided for a dollar-for-dollar reduction to the purchase price.

On January 17, 2007, Captaris provided us with a proposed timeline, responsibility list and an expanded due diligence list to continue the due diligence review process.

On January 18, 2007, key officers and representatives of both Castelle and Captaris held a telephone conference call to review the proposed timeline, responsibility and due diligence list.

After a series of face-to-face meetings, phone calls and correspondences between Castelle, our board of directors and legal counsel and Venturi & Company, LLC between January 17, 2007 and January 22, 2007, we selected Venturi & Company, LLC to perform a fairness analysis of the proposed transaction.

Between January 18, 2007 and April 25, 2007, Captaris conducted extensive due diligence review activities. During this time, many meetings were held and many supplemental document and information requests were issued by Captaris and responded to by us. Also during this time, many meetings between the officers and representatives of the two companies were held, both in person and by telephone, with each party traveling to the offices of the other on multiple occasions.

On January 23, 2007, Messrs. Chen and Fernandez met with Captaris at its corporate headquarters in Washington as part of ongoing due diligence activities.

Between November 16, 2006 and April 25, 2007, there were many discussions held between our officers and our board of directors, and members of our board of directors received regular and extensive briefings and information on the ongoing discussions, interactions and negotiations between Castelle and Captaris.

At a regular meeting of our board of directors held on March 1, 2007, Messrs. McDonald and Cheng and our outside legal counsel reviewed at length with our board of directors the ongoing due diligence, negotiations and discussions with Captaris. At the meeting, our board of directors formalized its previous approval of the NDA, the No Shop, the LOI, as amended, and the engagement letter entered into with Venturi & Company, LLC. Our board of directors also authorized Mr. McDonald to further amend the LOI to extend the period of exclusivity with Captaris through March 28, 2007.

On March 2, 2007, Mr. McDonald executed an amendment requested by Captaris to extend the period of exclusivity of the LOI through March 28, 2007.

On March 6, 2007, Messrs. McDonald and Anastasi met in the San Francisco Bay Area and discussed and negotiated elements of the proposed transaction.

On March 20, 2007, the first draft of the merger agreement was circulated by Captaris to us for review and comment.

Between March 20, 2007 and April 25, 2007, negotiations, schedule preparation, revision and comment continued on the terms and conditions of the merger agreement.

On March 29, 2007, our board of directors discussed the status of the negotiation of the potential transaction between the companies at a special meeting of our board of directors. At the meeting, our board of directors authorized Mr. McDonald to execute an amendment to the LOI to extend the exclusivity period at his discretion, for up to an additional 30 days past the previous date of March 28, 2007.

On March 30, 2007, at the request of Captaris, Mr. McDonald executed an amendment to the LOI to extend the period of exclusivity of the LOI through April 16, 2007.

Between December 12, 2006 and April 3, 2007, Mr. McDonald and Mr. Cheng held extensive discussions with Captaris executives and its investment bankers on pricing for the proposed transaction. As of April 3, 2007, we awaited a final proposed price offer from Captaris, which had been increased through many discussions and negotiations to a range between $3.90 and $4.00 per share, plus the Cash Dividend on the terms described in the LOI.

On April 5, 2007, our officers were informed that the board of directors of Captaris gave approval to move forward with a merger between the companies based upon a $3.95 per share, plus the Cash Dividend on the terms described in the LOI.

On April 6, 2007, our board of directors discussed the status of the potential transaction between the companies at a special meeting of our board of directors. At the meeting, our board of directors approved moving forward with the proposed transaction, subject to satisfactory completion of the merger agreement and shareholder approval, at a purchase price of $3.95 per share of our common stock, plus the Cash Dividend on the terms described in the LOI.

Between April 15, 2007 and April 24, 2007, discussions and negotiations were held between Mr. McDonald, Mr. Anastasi and Mr. Chris Stanton, Chief Legal Officer of Captaris, on the terms for an agreement between Mr. McDonald and Captaris, which agreement is described in the section of this proxy statement entitled Proposal One Merger Proposal, The Merger Interests of Castelle's Executive Officers and Directors in the Merger, for the provision of services by Mr. McDonald to Captaris after the closing of the transaction.

On April 17, 2007, Messrs. Cheng and Papano concluded negotiations on any Working Capital Adjustment, which would potentially take place based upon changes to our working capital from a target amount at the time of the closing of the transaction.

On April 17, 2007, Castelle was informed that the board of directors of Captaris gave final approval to acquire Castelle at a cash price of $3.95 per share, plus the Cash Dividend on the terms outlined in the LOI.

On April 21, 2007, the parties reached agreement on the negotiated break-up fee. The terms of the merger agreement were updated to include a negotiated break-up of $700,000 plus reimbursement of up to $250,000 of transaction related expenses, which would only be paid in certain circumstances.

On April 23, 2007, the parties reached agreement on (i) an approach for effective cashless exercise of vested options immediately prior to the closing; and (ii) a net working capital band expanding to $100,000 before any downward purchase price adjustment would be made.

On April 24, 2007, the parties agreed that, in lieu of the Cash Dividend, the final price per share would instead be adjusted to the extent Castelle's cash balance at closing, after payment of transaction costs, is above or below the agreed upon balance of $7.4 million, in addition to the working capital adjustment.

On April 24, 2007, our board of directors held a special board meeting and unanimously approved execution of the merger agreement in substantially the form presented to our board of directors, for a cash purchase price of $3.95 per share of common stock, subject to adjustment to the extent Castelle's cash balance at the effective time of the merger, after payment of transaction costs, is above or below the agreed upon balance of $7.4 million, and subject to additional downward adjustment to the extent Castelle's working capital (excluding cash) at the effective time of the merger is less than the agreed upon target of negative $75,000 (provided that the shortfall is at least $100,000).

On April 25, 2007, our board of directors held a special meeting and discussed certain changes to the merger agreement proposed by Captaris.

On April 25, 2007, each of our executive officers and each member of our board of directors signed a voting agreement whereby they agreed to vote their shares in favor of the transaction. Also on April 25, 2007, our executive officers entered into the agreements described in the section of this proxy statement entitled "Proposal One Merger Proposal, The Merger Interests of Castelle's Executive Officers and Directors in the Merger."

On the evening of April 25, 2007, Messrs. McDonald, Cheng and Anastasi met at our corporate headquarters in Morgan Hill, California. After ironing out several details and open items well into the evening, Messrs. McDonald and Anastasi executed the merger agreement.

On April 26, 2007, we and Captaris issued a joint press release announcing the execution of the merger agreement.

Recommendation of Castelle's Board of Directors and Reasons for the Merger

In the course of reaching its decision to approve the merger agreement, the merger and the other transactions contemplated by the merger agreement and to recommend that Castelle shareholders vote to approve the merger agreement, the merger and the other transactions contemplated by the merger agreement, our board of directors consulted with our management, financial advisor and legal counsel, reviewed a substantial amount of information and considered many factors, including, among others, the following:

Merger Consideration and Financial Analysis. Castelle's board of directors' view of the consideration to be paid by Captaris, including:

the $3.95 per share in cash, subject to adjustment to the extent Castelle's cash balance at the effective time of the merger, after payment of transaction costs, is above or below the agreed upon balance of $7.4 million, and subject to additional downward adjustment to the extent Castelle's working capital (excluding cash) at the effective time of the merger is less than the agreed upon target of negative $75,000 (provided that the shortfall is at least $100,000), which provides certainty and immediate value to our shareholders;

the premium to the current and historical closing trading prices of Castelle common stock represented by the per share cash merger consideration; and the financial analyses reviewed by Venturi & Company LLC at the meeting of our board of directors held on April 24, 2007, and the oral opinion of Venturi & Company rendered to our board of directors on April 24, 2007, subsequently confirmed in writing on April 24, 2007, to the effect that, as of that date and based upon and subject to the considerations set forth in its opinion, the $3.95 per share in cash to be received by the holders of Castelle common stock pursuant to the merger agreement, subject to the adjustments described above, was fair, from a financial point of view, to our shareholders; a copy of the full text of the written opinion of Venturi & Company is attached to this proxy statement as Annex C.

You are urged to, and should, read the opinion of Venturi & Company in its entirety for a description of, among other things, assumptions made, procedures followed, matters considered, and limitations on the scope of the review undertaken by Venturi & Company in rendering its opinion.

Strategic Assessment. Our board of directors' assessment of a number of strategic, financial and operational considerations, including:

the possible alternatives to the merger (including the possibilities of seeking to engage in a combination with a company other than Captaris or continuing to operate Castelle as an independent entity and the risks of those alternatives), the range of potential benefits to our shareholders of the possible alternatives and the timing and the likelihood of accomplishing the goals of such alternatives, and our board of directors' assessment that none of such alternatives were reasonably likely to present superior opportunities for Castelle or to create greater value for our shareholders than the merger;

the prospects for Castelle's growth and profitability as an independent company, and the risks to such growth and profitability;

our board of directors' knowledge of, and beliefs about, the competitive environment in which Castelle operates and trends in its market;

the anticipated benefits to our customers and the collective customers of the combined entity, including but not limited to (i) the overall benefits accruing to the Castelle from joining with Captaris, the overwhelming market leader in the network fax industry, (ii) the expected increased ability of our products to enjoy greater market recognition and penetration, (iii) the ability for the combined entity to extend its leadership position in the fax market, particularly for small and medium-sized enterprises, (iv) improved distribution, (v) an expanded portfolio of product offerings to be available, and (vi) increased flexibility, choice and improved cost effectiveness;

the anticipated benefits to Castelle from an overall lower cost in complying with Sarbanes-Oxley requirements within the combined entity versus the costs on a stand-alone basis; and the anticipated synergies and shared resources and skills available to the combined entity, including improved distinctive competence in the multi-function printer (MFP) market, the fax over internet protocol (FoIP) market, and the increased ability to expand into broader market opportunities.

Terms of the Merger Agreement and Voting Agreements. Our board of directors' consideration of the terms of the merger agreement and the voting agreements, by themselves and in comparison to the terms of agreements in other similar transactions, including:

the right of our board of directors under certain circumstances described below and in the merger agreement, in connection with the discharge of its fiduciary duties to Castelle's shareholders, to consider unsolicited acquisition proposals and to change its recommendation with respect to the merger;

the limited number and nature of the conditions to Captaris' obligations to complete the merger and the likelihood that the merger would be completed; and the terms of the voting agreements to be executed by our directors and executive officers collectively owning approximately 10% of our outstanding shares of common stock as of the record date have each entered into voting agreements with Captaris, in which our directors and executive officers agree to vote, and grant proxies to Captaris on their behalf to vote, all the shares of Castelle capital stock held by them for approval of the merger agreement, the merger and each of the other actions contemplated by the merger agreement and any action required in furtherance thereof.

In the course of its deliberations, our board of directors also considered a variety of risks and other potentially negative factors, including the following:

the fact that Castelle shareholders will not participate in any potential future growth of Castelle or Captaris;

the risk of diverting management focus and resources from other strategic opportunities and from operational matters while working to negotiate and close the merger with Captaris;

the possibility that Castelle could grow faster or be substantially more profitable than expected and that a third party would be willing to pay a higher price for Castelle in the future;

the risks and contingencies related to the announcement and pendency of the merger, including the impact of the merger on our employees, our customers, and our relationships with other third parties, which could impair our prospects as an independent company if the merger is not consummated;

the risk that the transaction might not be consummated due to the potential failure to satisfy one or more of the closing conditions;

the fact that under the terms of the merger agreement, we cannot solicit other acquisition proposals and must reimburse Captaris for all fees and expenses actually incurred by Captaris in connection with the merger, up to a maximum of $250,000, and pay Captaris a termination fee of $700,000 if the merger agreement is terminated under certain circumstances, which, in addition to being costly, might have the effect of discouraging other parties from proposing an alternative transaction that might be more advantageous to our shareholders than the merger;

the fact that the income realized by shareholders as a result of the merger generally will be taxable to our shareholders; and the fact that, pursuant to the merger agreement, we must generally conduct our business in the ordinary course and we are subject to a variety of other restrictions on the conduct of our business prior to closing of the merger or termination of the merger agreement, which may delay or prevent us from pursuing business opportunities that may arise or preclude actions that would be advisable if we were to remain an independent company.

Our board of directors carefully considered all of these factors as a whole in reaching its determination and recommendation. Our board of directors concluded that overall, the risks, uncertainties, restrictions and potentially negative factors associated with the merger were outweighed by the potential benefits of the merger and that considering the financial position of Castelle, no reasonable concern exists that Castelle, as the surviving corporation, will be unable to fulfill the obligations of Castelle to its creditors. In addition, our board of directors considered the interests that certain directors and executive officers of Castelle may have with respect to the merger, in addition to their interests as shareholders of Castelle generally, as described in the section of this proxy statement entitled "Proposal One Merger Proposal, The Merger Interests of Castelle's Executive Officers and Directors in the Merger."

The foregoing discussion of factors considered by our board of directors is not meant to be exhaustive but includes the material factors considered by our board of directors in declaring that the merger agreement, the merger and the other transactions contemplated by the merger agreement are fair to, and in the best interests of, Castelle and its shareholders, approving the merger agreement, the merger and the other transactions contemplated by the merger agreement, and recommending that Castelle's shareholders approve the merger agreement, the merger and the other transactions contemplated by the merger agreement. In view of the wide variety of factors considered by our board of directors in connection with the evaluation of the merger and the complexity of these matters, our board of directors did not find it practicable to, and did not, quantify or otherwise assign relative weights to the specific factors considered in reaching its determination. Rather, the directors made their determination based on the totality of the information presented to them, and the judgments of individual members of our board of directors may have been influenced to a greater or lesser degree by different factors.

Our board of directors unanimously recommends that you vote FOR the proposal to approve the merger agreement, the merger and the other transactions contemplated by the merger agreement.

Opinion of Castelle's Financial Advisor

Venturi & Company was asked by our board of directors to render an opinion to our board of directors as to the fairness, from a financial point of view, to our shareholders of the consideration to be received by the shareholders of Castelle in connection with the merger. On April 24, 2007, Venturi & Company delivered to our board of directors its oral opinion, subsequently confirmed in writing on that date, that, as of the date of its opinion, based upon and subject to the assumptions, limitations and qualifications contained in its opinion, and other matters Venturi & Company considers relevant, the consideration to be received by the shareholders of Castelle pursuant to the merger agreement is fair, from a financial point of view, to the shareholders of Castelle.

The full text of the written opinion of Venturi & Company is attached to this Proxy Statement as Annex C and incorporated into this Proxy Statement by reference. We urge you to read that opinion carefully and in its entirety for the assumptions made, procedures followed, other matters considered and limits of the review undertaken in arriving at that opinion.

Venturi & Company was retained to serve as an advisor to our board of directors and not as an advisor to or agent of any shareholder of Castelle. Venturi & Company's opinion was prepared for confidential use by our board of directors and is directed only to the fairness, from a financial point of view, as of the date of the opinion, of the consideration to be received by our shareholders in the merger and does not address our underlying business decision to enter into the merger agreement or any other terms of the merger or the merger agreement. Venturi & Company's opinion does not constitute a recommendation to any Castelle shareholder as to how such shareholder should vote at any shareholders' meeting held in connection with the merger.

The merger consideration was determined in negotiations between Castelle and Captaris, in which Venturi & Company did not advise our board of directors. Venturi & Company did not recommend the merger consideration. No restrictions or limitations were imposed by our board of directors on Venturi & Company with respect to the investigations made or the procedures followed by Venturi & Company in rendering its opinion.

In rendering its opinion, Venturi & Company, among other things:

- reviewed the Project Brunello Slides Strategy and Merger Rationale dated November 27, 2006, prepared by the financial advisor to Captaris;
- reviewed the presentation to Captaris by Castelle regarding Project Brunello dated December 21, 2006;
- analyzed public filings and certain publicly available information regarding our trading performance and metrics;
- reviewed certain transaction-related documents;
- held discussions with Castelle management and advisors regarding the transaction and reviewed certain documents pertaining to our operations and financial results;
- analyzed certain publicly available information regarding the trading, financial and operational performance of companies deemed to be comparable to Castelle;
- analyzed selected recent business combinations of companies in the fax server and enterprise document management industry whose operations, for the purposes of the analysis, may be deemed to be similar in whole or in part to certain operations of Castelle's; and
- reviewed the Computer-Based Fax Markets, 2005-2010 research report by Peter J. Davidson.

Venturi & Company also had conversations with certain officers and employees of Castelle to discuss the business and prospects of Castelle, as well as other matters Venturi & Company believed were relevant, and considered such other data and information that Venturi & Company judged necessary to render its opinion.

In rendering its opinion, Venturi & Company assumed the accuracy of and relied upon the accuracy and completeness of all of the financial and other information provided to it or otherwise reviewed by or discussed with Venturi & Company, or which was publicly available. Venturi & Company was not engaged to, and did not independently attempt to, verify any of that information. Venturi & Company also relied upon the management of Castelle as to the reasonableness and achievability of the financial and operating projections (and the assumptions and bases for those projections) provided to it, and assumed, with the consent of our board of directors, that those projections were reasonably prepared and reflect the best currently available estimates and judgments of Castelle. Venturi & Company was not engaged to assess the reasonableness or achievability of those projections or the assumptions on which they were based and expressed no view on those matters. Venturi & Company did not conduct a physical inspection or appraisal of any of the assets, properties or facilities of Castelle, nor was it furnished with any evaluation or appraisal. Venturi & Company also assumed that all governmental, regulatory or other consents and approvals necessary for the consummation of the merger would be obtained without a material adverse effect on Castelle or the merger.

Venturi & Company was not asked to, nor did it render, any opinion as to the material terms of the merger agreement or the form of the merger transaction. Venturi & Company, with the consent of our board of directors, assumed that the final executed form of the merger agreement would not differ in any material respect from the draft that Venturi & Company examined in rendering its opinion, and that the conditions to the merger as set forth in the merger agreement would be satisfied and that the merger would be completed on a timely basis in the manner contemplated by the merger agreement. Venturi & Company did not solicit, nor was it asked to solicit, third party interest in a transaction involving Castelle.

Venturi & Company's opinion is based on economic and market conditions and other circumstances existing on, and information made available, as of the date of its opinion and does not address any matters after such date. Although subsequent developments may affect its opinion, Venturi & Company does not have the obligation to update, revise or reaffirm its opinion.

The following is a brief summary of the analyses performed by Venturi & Company in connection with its opinion. This summary is not intended to be an exhaustive description of the analyses performed by Venturi & Company but includes all material factors considered by Venturi & Company in rendering its opinion. Venturi & Company drew no specific conclusions from any individual analysis, but subjectively factored its observations from all of these analyses into its qualitative assessment of the merger consideration.

Each analysis performed by Venturi & Company is a common methodology utilized in determining valuations. Although other valuation techniques may exist, Venturi & Company believes that the analyses described below, when taken as a whole, provide the most appropriate analyses for Venturi & Company to arrive at its opinion.

Castelle Stock Performance and Trading Analysis. Venturi & Company examined the daily historical volume and trading prices of Castelle common stock. Venturi & Company also compared the recent stock performance of Castelle with that of the NASDAQ Composite Index and two indices constructed by Venturi & Company, referred to as the Tier 1 Composite and the Tier 2 Composite. The Tier 1 and Tier 2 Composites were comprised of public companies with operations that Venturi & Company deemed similar, in whole or in part, to Castelle. For the Tier 1 Composite, Venturi & Company selected six comparable public companies engaged in the fax server and services business, or offering a broader range of document capture and electronic interchange services, with trailing twelve month (TTM) revenues ranging between $13 million and $500 million. The Tier 1 Composite consists of the following companies: Captaris, Inc.; Dicom Group plc; EasyLink Services Corp.; Esker S.A.; Omtool, Ltd.; and Premiere Global Services, Inc. For the Tier 2 Composite, Venturi & Company selected six comparable public companies categorized as enterprise document management companies with TTM revenues ranging between $89 million and $500 million. The Tier 2 Composite consists of the following companies: Captaris, Inc.; Docucorp International, Inc.; Interwoven, Inc.; Mobius Management Systems, Inc.; Open Text Corp.; and Vignette Corp.

Comparable Transactions. Venturi & Company analyzed publicly available financial information for the following selected merger and acquisition transactions, representing transactions since October 1, 2003. While none of the companies participating in the selected transactions are directly comparable to Castelle, the companies participating in the selected transactions are companies that, for purposes of this analysis, have operations that may be considered similar to certain operations of Castelle. The following table lists those transactions:

Acquiror	Target
Premiere Global Services, Inc.	Accucast, Inc.
Neotel International, Inc.	Admiral Secure Products, Inc.
Omtool Ltd.	BlueChip Technologies, Ltd.
Premiere Global Services, Inc.	Citizens Communications (Conferencing Business)

Premiere Global Services, Inc.	Enunciate Corp.

Premiere Global Services, Inc.	Mercatur Wireless
Premiere Global Services, Inc.	Netspoke, Inc.
EasyLink Services Corp.	Quickstream Software

In examining the selected transactions, Venturi & Company calculated the ratios of the total enterprise value (defined as the market value of the common equity plus book value of total debt and preferred stock, less cash) of the transaction (based on the acquisition price) to (i), to the extent available, the target company's revenue for the latest twelve month (LTM) period ended on the last day of the period covered by the target company's Form 10-K or Form 10-Q, as applicable, last filed prior to the announcement of the relevant transaction, and (ii), to the extent available, the target company's earnings before interest, taxes, depreciation and amortization (or EBITDA), for the LTM period ended on the last day of the period covered by the target company's Form 10-K or Form 10-Q, as applicable, last filed prior to the announcement of the relevant transaction. Due to the lack of publicly disclosed metrics for the comparable transactions listed above, this methodology was utilized primarily for reference.

Comparable Market Multiples. Venturi & Company reviewed and compared publicly available selected financial data and stock trading prices for eleven publicly traded companies chosen by Venturi & Company with operations that were deemed to be comparable, in whole or in part, to those of Castelle. These eleven companies were separated into two tier groups:

Tier 1 Composite

Captaris, Inc.
EasyLink Services Corp.
Omtool, Ltd.

Dicom Group plc
Esker S.A.
Premiere Global Services, Inc.

Tier 2 Composite

Captaris, Inc.
Interwoven, Inc.
Open Text Corp.

Docucorp International, Inc.
Mobius Management Systems, Inc.
Vignette Corp.

For each of these comparable companies, Venturi & Company calculated the applicable company's ratios of the total enterprise value as of the latest publicly reported period through April 23, 2007 to that company's respective revenue and EBITDA levels for the LTM period covered by its most recently filed Form 10-K or Form 10-Q, as applicable. The results are summarized below:

Comparable Market Multiples Range

Tier 1 Composite	Low		High
Enterprise Value/LTM Revenue	1.22 x	-	1.36 x
Enterprise Value/LTM EBITDA	12.80 x	-	18.94 x
Tier 2 Composite
Enterprise Value/LTM Revenue	1.88 x	-	2.09 x
Enterprise Value/LTM EBITDA	20.57 x	-	23.28 x

The implied metrics of the transaction value of the merger indicate a substantial premium for Castelle over the more comparable Tier 1 Composite companies on a multiple of LTM revenue and EBITDA, as well as a premium to the much larger and more profitable Tier 2 Composite companies on a multiple of LTM EBITDA basis:

Proposed Castelle Acquisition Price of $3.95 per Share	Premium/(Discount) Range to
--	------------------------------------

Edgar Filing: CASTELLE \CA\ - Form DEFM14A

Proposed Castle Acquisition Price of $3.95 per Share plus estimated Cash Adjustment		Premium/(Discount) Range to
		Tier 1 Composite Range		Tier 2 Composite Range
Implied Transaction Value/LTM Revenue:	1.78 x	30.98%	- 45.78%	(14.76%)	- (4.96%)
Implied Transaction Value/LTM EBITDA:	27.69 x	46.17%	- 116.37%	18.96%	- 34.63%

Given our size and relative underperformance in contrast to the Tier 1 Composite and Tier 2 Composite comparables, the implied revenue and EBITDA multiples of the transaction value represent a meaningful premium to the comparable publicly traded companies.

Control Premium Study. Using publicly available information, Venturi & Company analyzed premiums associated with control transactions of companies with operations deemed to be similar, in whole or in part, to Castelle. Data was taken for transactions that occurred since 2005 in the fabricated metal products, industrial machinery and computers; communications; and business services industries. The results are summarized below with the median and mean control premiums, based on normalized trading levels prior to the announcement date, for the selected transactions at 19.6% and 27.0%, respectively.

Industry	Implied Control Premiums
	Median	Mean
Business Services	16.8%	23.4%
Communications	21.4%	24.7%
Fabricated Metal Products, Industrial Machinery and Computers	20.6%	33.0%
	19.6%	27.0%

Venturi & Company noted that the merger consideration comprising $3.95 plus an estimated cash adjustment per share based on Company budgets and forecasts represents premiums of 18.67%, 23.47%, 25.84%, 27.66%, and 26.62%, respectively, to Castelle's same-day, 10-day, 20-day, 30-day, and 45-day trailing average share prices based on the April 23, 2007 closing price of Castelle common stock.

The control premiums associated with the proposed Castelle acquisition consideration for the trailing periods analyzed generally fall within, or at the high end, of the applicable control premium range for companies with operations that are deemed to be similar, in whole or in part, to those of Castelle.

Discounted Cash Flow Analysis. Venturi & Company did not perform a discounted cash flow analysis for Castelle due to the lack of financial forecasts for Castelle beyond the 2007 fiscal year estimates.

Conclusion. The summary set forth above describes the principal analyses performed by Venturi & Company in connection with its opinion delivered to our board of directors on April 24, 2007. The preparation of a fairness opinion involves various determinations as to the most appropriate and relevant methods of financial analysis and the application of these methods to the particular circumstances and, therefore, the analyses underlying the opinion are not readily susceptible to summary description. Each of the analyses conducted by Venturi & Company was carried out in order to provide a different perspective on the merger and add to the total range of information available. Venturi & Company did not form a conclusion as to whether any individual analysis, considered in isolation, supported or failed to support an opinion as to fairness from a financial point of view. Rather, in reaching its conclusion, Venturi & Company considered the results of the analyses in light of each other and ultimately reached its opinion based upon the results of all analyses taken as a whole. Except as indicated above, Venturi & Company did not place particular reliance or weight on any individual analysis, but instead concluded that its analyses, taken as a whole, support its determination. Accordingly, notwithstanding the separate factors summarized above, Venturi & Company believes that its analyses must be considered as a whole and that selecting portions of its analysis and the factors considered by it, without considering all analyses and factors, could create an incomplete or misleading view of the evaluation process underlying its opinion. In performing its analyses, Venturi & Company made numerous assumptions with respect to industry performance, business and economic conditions and other matters. The analyses performed by Venturi & Company are not necessarily indicative of actual value or future results, which may be significantly more or less favorable than suggested by the analyses.

Based upon its analyses, and subject to the assumptions made, matters considered, and qualifications and limitations of the review undertaken in connection with the opinion, Venturi & Company is of the opinion that, as of the date of the opinion, the merger consideration to be received by the public holders of our common stock as provided in the merger agreement is fair to such holders from a financial point of view.

Interests of Castelle's Executive Officers and Directors in the Merger

When considering the recommendation of our board of directors, you should be aware that the members of our board of directors and executive officers have interests in the merger in addition to their interests as Castelle shareholders. These interests may be different from, or in addition to, your interests as a Castelle shareholder. The members of our board of directors were aware of these additional interests, and considered them, when they approved the merger agreement, the merger and the other transactions contemplated by the merger agreement. The interests described below represent the aggregated interests of our board of directors and executive officers that arise as a result of the merger and incorporate (in the case of Michael Petrovich) or supersede (in the case of our other executive officers) any change of control benefits previously granted to the persons named in this section.

Ownership of Castelle Common Stock and Options. Our directors and executive officers hold shares of Castelle common stock and options as described below in Security Ownership of Certain Beneficial Owners and Management. Upon the effectiveness of the merger, each such share of Castelle common stock and option to purchase Castelle common stock held by our directors and executive officers will be converted into the right to receive the cash merger consideration described above.

Acquisition Bonus. Our directors approved the payment of bonuses to our Chief Executive Officer and to our Chief Financial Officer based on the amount of any positive adjustment to the merger consideration at the effective time of the merger. For a description of the possible merger consideration adjustment, please see Proposal One Merger Proposal, The Merger Merger Consideration. The bonuses will be paid before the effectiveness of the merger and therefore will reduce the positive adjustment to the merger consideration. No bonuses will be paid until and unless there is more than a $329,300 positive adjustment to the merger consideration before the payment of the bonuses, or total merger consideration after the payment of the bonuses of at least $4.00 per share. In the event that the Castelle cash balance at the effectiveness of the merger results in more than a $329,300 positive adjustment to the merger consideration before adjusting for the payment of the bonuses, our Chief Executive Officer will receive a bonus of $75,000. In addition, for the next $375,000 of Castelle cash, our Chief Executive Officer and Chief Financial Officer would receive as a bonus equal to 26.67% and 13.33% of such cash, respectively, with the remaining 60.00% of such cash being included in the positive adjustment. For any Castelle cash beyond that level, our Chief Executive Officer and Chief Financial Officer will receive as a bonus equal to 21.33% and 10.67% of such cash, respectively, with the remaining 68.00% of such cash being included in the positive adjustment. Our directors believe these bonuses will further motivate our Chief Executive Officer and our Chief Financial Officer to maximize the final merger consideration that is paid and further align their interests with Castelle's shareholders. The directors also believe that the bonuses appropriately recognizes the extraordinary efforts of these individuals throughout the transaction.

New Employment Arrangement with Castelle's Chief Executive Officer In connection with the merger, Captaris entered into an employment agreement with Scott C. McDonald, our President and Chief Executive Officer, pursuant to which, Captaris will employ Mr. McDonald after the completion of the merger as the President of Castelle, which will then be a wholly-owned subsidiary of Captaris, for a term of six months. Under the terms of this agreement, Mr. McDonald will receive a monthly base salary of $18,750, will be paid two quarterly bonuses of $37,500 each and will be eligible to participate in Captaris' employee benefit programs. Mr. McDonald will also be eligible for an additional lump sum bonus of up to $125,000 based on the achievement of certain company and individual objectives. In addition, upon the six-month expiration of the agreement, Mr. McDonald will receive a payment of $175,000. If, however, Mr. McDonald is terminated by Captaris without cause (as defined in the agreement) prior to the expiration of the agreement, he will instead receive a termination payment of $225,000.

New Employment Arrangement with Castelle's Vice President, Finance and Administration, Chief Financial Officer and Secretary In connection with the merger, Captaris entered into an employment agreement with Paul Cheng, our Vice President, Finance and Administration, Chief Financial Officer and Secretary, pursuant to which, Captaris will employ Mr. Cheng after the completion of the merger as the Vice President of Finance of Castelle until February 15, 2008. Under the terms of this agreement, Mr. Cheng will receive a monthly base salary of $11,666 and will be eligible to participate in Captaris' employee benefit programs. Mr. Cheng will also be eligible for two quarterly bonuses of up to $15,000 each as well as a lump sum bonus of up to $28,000 based on the achievement of certain company and individual objectives. In addition, upon the expiration of the agreement on February 15, 2008 or upon the earlier termination of Mr. Cheng by Captaris without cause (as defined in the agreement), Mr. Cheng will receive a payment of $70,000.

Existing Severance Arrangement with Castle's Vice President of North American Sales. Pursuant to an existing agreement between Castle and Michael Petrovich, our Vice President of North American Sales, we have agreed to pay Mr. Petrovich a severance payment of six months of his base salary if we terminate his employment without cause.

New Severance Agreements with Other Executive Officers. In connection with the merger, Captaris entered into severance agreements with each of Eric Chen, our Senior Vice President, Engineering and Business Development; Richard Fernandez, our Vice President, Operations; and Edward Heinze, our Senior Vice President of Sales, U.S. Under these agreements, Messrs. Chen, Fernandez and Heinze will be entitled to severance payments of $87,500, $65,000 and $45,000, respectively, upon their termination of employment by Captaris without cause (as defined in each individual's respective agreement) prior to December 31, 2007.

Indemnification of Directors and Officers and Insurance. The merger agreement provides that from and after the effective time of the merger, Captaris will, and will cause the surviving corporation in the merger to, fulfill and honor in all respects the obligations of Castle under any indemnification agreements with our directors and officers. In addition, the articles of incorporation and bylaws of the surviving corporation in the merger will, for a period of six years after the effective time of the merger, contain provisions with respect to exculpation and indemnification that are at least as favorable to our directors and officers as those contained in our current articles of incorporation and bylaws. The merger agreement further provides that we may purchase a tail insurance policy with terms and conditions that are comparable to those of our existing directors' and officers' insurance policy and that has an effective term of six years after the effective time of the merger. Captaris will reimburse us for up to $85,000 of the cost to purchase such tail policy, less the amount of any refund we receive with respect to our existing directors' and officers' insurance policy.

Voting Agreements. Our directors and executive officers have each entered into voting agreements with Captaris, in which our directors and executive officers agree to vote, and grant proxies to Captaris on their behalf to vote, all the shares of Castle capital stock held by them for approval of the merger agreement, the merger and each of the other actions contemplated by the merger agreement and any action required in furtherance thereof. Please see Proposal One Merger Proposal, Voting Agreements.

Dissenters' Rights

If the merger is completed, any holder of Castle common stock as of the record date may, by complying with the provisions of California law, require Castle to purchase such holder's shares at their fair market value. The fair market value will be determined as of April 25, 2007, the date immediately prior to the first announcement of the terms of the proposed merger, excluding any appreciation or depreciation as a consequence of the proposed merger. Castle shareholders who are considering asserting and exercising dissenters' rights should consult their legal advisors.

Appraisal under California law requires strict compliance with the procedures set forth in Chapter 13 of the California General Corporation Law. Failure to follow any of these procedures may result in a termination or waiver of dissenters' rights under California law. The applicable provisions of California law are summarized below. Castle shareholders who choose to exercise dissenters' rights under California law must fully comply with the requirements of Chapter 13 of the California General Corporation Law.

Under the California General Corporation Law, a Castle shareholder may be entitled to dissenters' rights with respect to his shares of Castle common stock if such shares:

 were outstanding on the record date; and were not voted in favor of the merger.

Within 10 days of approval of the merger by Castle shareholders, each shareholder who is entitled to dissenters' rights shall receive a notice of such approval and a statement of the price determined by Castle to represent the fair market value of Castle capital stock. The notice will also describe the rights to which such shareholders are entitled and shall be accompanied by a copy of Chapter 13 of the California General Corporation Law (attached as Annex D to this proxy statement). Within 30 days of the date of the mailing of such notice, Castle shareholders must assert their dissenters' rights by delivering a written demand to Castle or its transfer agent. The written demand must set forth the number and class of shares that such shareholder desires to be repurchased and include a statement as to what such shareholder claims to be the true fair market value of such shares. The statement of fair market value will constitute an offer by such shareholder to sell his shares at the price indicated therein.

If the shareholder and Castelle agree upon the fair market value and the shares held by such Castelle shareholder qualify as dissenting shares, the Castelle shareholder will be entitled to the agreed upon price plus the legal rate of interest on judgments from the date of such agreement. If the shareholder and Castelle are unable to agree upon the fair market value of the shares or whether the shares qualify as dissenting shares, the shareholder may file a complaint in California Superior Court seeking a determination by the court of the fair market value of the shares and/or whether the shares qualify as dissenting shares. The complaint must be filed within six months of the date on which the notice of the approval of the merger was mailed to Castelle shareholders.

After determining which shareholders are entitled to appraisal, the court will appraise the shares, determining their fair value exclusive of any element of value arising from the accomplishment or expectation of the merger, together with a fair rate of interest, if any, to be paid upon the amount determined to be the fair value. The court will then direct payment of the fair value of the shares, together with interest, if any, to the dissenting shareholders. Any cash dividends declared and paid by upon the dissenting shares after the date of approval of the merger by Castelle shareholders shall be credited against the total amount to be paid to the dissenting shareholders. The costs of proceedings may be determined by the court and shared by the parties as the court deems fit.

Accounting Treatment

The merger will be accounted for as a purchase transaction for financial accounting purposes.

Material United States Federal Income Tax Consequences of the Merger

The following is a summary of the material U.S. federal income tax consequences of the merger to shareholders of Castelle whose shares of Castelle common stock are transferred to Captaris in consideration for the right to receive cash in the merger. The following summary is based on the Internal Revenue Code of 1986, as amended, which we refer to as the Code, Treasury regulations promulgated thereunder, judicial decisions and administrative rulings, all of which are subject to change, possibly with retroactive effect. The summary below is limited to shareholders who hold shares of Castelle common stock as capital assets within the meaning of Section 1221 of the Code (generally, property held for investment). The summary does not address all of the U.S. federal income tax consequences that may be relevant to particular shareholders in light of their individual circumstances or to shareholders who are subject to special rules, including: expatriates, insurance companies, dealers or brokers in securities or currencies, tax-exempt organizations, financial institutions, mutual funds, pass-through entities and investors in such entities, shareholders who hold their shares of Castelle common stock as a hedge or as part of a hedging, straddle, conversion, synthetic security, integrated investment or other risk-reduction transaction or who are subject to alternative minimum tax, shareholders who acquired their shares of Castelle common stock upon the exercise of employee stock options or in other compensatory arrangements, or shareholders who exercise dissenters' rights. Further, this discussion does not address any U.S. federal estate and gift or alternative minimum tax consequences or any state, local or foreign tax consequences relating to the merger.

As used in this discussion, a U.S. holder is any beneficial owner of shares of Castelle common stock who is treated for U.S. federal income tax purposes as:

- an individual citizen or resident of the United States;

- a corporation (including an entity treated as a corporation for U.S. federal income tax purposes) created or organized in or under the laws of the United States, any state thereof or the District of Columbia;

- a trust that is (i) subject to the primary supervision of a U.S. court and the control of one of more U.S. persons or (ii) has a valid election in effect under applicable U.S. Treasury regulations to be treated as a U.S. person; or

- an estate the income of which is subject to U.S. federal income taxation regardless of source.

A non-U.S. holder is any beneficial owner of shares of Castelle common stock (other than an entity taxed as a partnership for federal income tax purposes) who is not a U.S. holder for U.S. federal income tax purposes.

U.S. Holders. The receipt of cash pursuant to the merger by U.S. holders will be a taxable transaction for U.S. federal income tax purposes. Generally, for U.S. federal income tax purposes, a U.S. holder will recognize gain or loss equal to the difference between the amount of cash received by the U.S. holder in the merger and the U.S. holder's adjusted tax basis in the shares of Castelle common stock transferred to Captaris in consideration for cash in the merger. If shares of Castelle common stock are held by a U.S. holder as capital assets, gain or loss recognized by such U.S. holder will be capital gain or loss, which will be long-term capital gain or loss if the U.S. holder's holding period for the shares of Castelle common stock exceeds one year. Capital gains recognized by an individual U.S. holder upon a disposition of a share of Castelle that has been held for more than one year generally will be subject to a maximum U.S. federal income tax rate of 15% or, in the case of a share that has been held for one year or less, will be subject to tax at ordinary U.S. federal income tax rates. In addition, there are limits on the deductibility of capital losses. The amount and character of gain or loss must be determined separately for each block of shares of Castelle common stock (i.e., shares acquired at the same cost in a single transaction) transferred to Captaris in consideration for cash in the merger.

Non-U.S. Holders. A non-U.S. holder generally will not be subject to U.S. federal income tax on any gain realized on the receipt of cash merger consideration for shares of Castelle common stock in the merger. This general rule, however, is subject to some exceptions. For example, the gain would be subject to U.S. federal income tax if:

- the gain is effectively connected with the conduct by the non-U.S. holder of a U.S. trade or business (and, if required by an applicable income tax treaty, the gain is attributable to a U.S. permanent establishment of the non-U.S. holder or, in the case of an individual, a fixed base in the U.S. maintained by such non-U.S. holder);
- the non-U.S. person is an individual who is present in the United States for 183 days or more in the taxable year of the sale, exchange, or other disposition, and certain other requirements are met; or
- we are or have been a United States real property holding corporation (USRPHC) for U.S. federal income tax purposes and the non-U.S. holder beneficially owned more than 5% of Castelle common stock at any time during the five years preceding the merger.

Unless a tax treaty provides otherwise, gain described in the first bullet point above will be subject to U.S. federal income tax on a net income basis in the same manner as if the non-U.S. holder were a resident of the United States. Non-U.S. holders that are foreign corporations also may be subject to a 30% branch profits tax (or applicable lower treaty rate). Gains described in the second bullet point above generally will be subject to U.S. federal income tax at a flat 30% rate (or applicable lower treaty rate), but may be offset by U.S. source capital losses. Non-U.S. holders are urged to consult any applicable tax treaties that may provide for different rules.

We believe we are not currently, have not been and do not anticipate becoming a USRPHC. Non-U.S. holders who have owned (actually or constructively) more than five percent (5%) of the shares of our common stock should consult their own tax advisors regarding the U.S. federal income tax consequences of the merger.

Backup Withholding. A shareholder (other than certain exempt shareholders, including, among others, all corporations and certain foreign individuals) whose shares of Castelle common stock are transferred to Captaris in consideration for the merger consideration may be subject to backup withholding at the backup withholding rate of 28% unless the shareholder provides the shareholder's taxpayer identification number, or TIN, and certifies under penalties of perjury that such TIN is correct (or properly certifies that it is awaiting a TIN) and certifies as to no loss of exemption from backup withholding and otherwise complies with the applicable requirements of the backup withholding rules. A shareholder that does not furnish a required TIN or that does not otherwise establish a basis for an exemption from backup withholding may be subject to a penalty imposed by the Internal Revenue Service, or the IRS. Each shareholder should complete and sign the Substitute Form W-9 included as part of the letter of transmittal that will be sent to shareholders promptly following closing of the merger so as to provide the information and certification necessary to avoid backup withholding. Shareholders for whom a Form W-9 is not appropriate should complete and return the appropriate Form W-8. Backup withholding is not an additional tax. Rather, the amount of the backup withholding can be credited against the U.S. federal income tax liability of the person subject to the backup withholding, provided that the required information is given to the IRS. If backup withholding results in an overpayment of tax, a refund generally can be obtained by the shareholder by filing a U.S. federal income tax return.

THE SUMMARY OF MATERIAL U.S. FEDERAL INCOME TAX CONSEQUENCES SET FORTH ABOVE IS FOR GENERAL INFORMATION ONLY AND IS BASED ON THE LAW IN EFFECT ON THE DATE HEREOF. SHAREHOLDERS ARE STRONGLY URGED TO CONSULT THEIR OWN TAX ADVISORS TO DETERMINE THE PARTICULAR TAX CONSEQUENCES OF THE MERGER TO THEM (INCLUDING THE APPLICATION AND EFFECT OF THE U.S. FEDERAL INCOME TAX LAWS, ANY STATE, LOCAL OR FOREIGN INCOME OR OTHER TAX LAWS AND ANY APPLICABLE TAX TREATY).

THE MERGER AGREEMENT

The following description describes the material terms of the merger agreement. This description of the merger agreement is qualified in its entirety by reference to the full text of the merger agreement which is attached as Annex A to this proxy statement and is incorporated herein by reference. The merger agreement has been included to provide you with information regarding its terms. We encourage you to read the entire merger agreement. The merger agreement is not intended to provide any other factual information about us. Such information can be found elsewhere in this proxy statement and in the other public filings each of us makes with the SEC, which are available without charge at www.sec.gov.

The Merger

The merger agreement provides that at the effective time of the merger, Merlot Acquisition Sub, a direct wholly-owned subsidiary of Captaris, will be merged with and into Castelle. Upon the consummation of the merger, Castelle will continue as the surviving corporation and will become a wholly-owned subsidiary of Captaris.

Merger Consideration

At the effective time of the merger, each of share of Castelle common stock outstanding immediately prior to the effective time of the merger, other than any shares held by us or our wholly-owned subsidiaries and any shares of Castelle common stock held by Captaris or Merlot Acquisition Sub or any wholly-owned subsidiary of Captaris, will be extinguished in consideration for the right to receive $3.95 in cash, without interest and less any applicable withholding taxes, for each share of Castelle common stock owned by them immediately prior to the effective time of the merger, subject to adjustment to the extent Castelle's cash balance at the effective time, after payment of transaction costs, of the merger is above or below the agreed upon balance of $7.4 million, and subject to additional downward adjustment to the extent Castelle's working capital (excluding cash) at the effective time of the merger is less than the agreed upon target of negative $75,000 (provided that the shortfall is at least $100,000). We refer to this amount as the merger consideration. The merger consideration is also subject to adjustment for stock splits, recapitalizations, reclassification or other similar changes occurring to the outstanding shares of Castelle common stock prior to the closing of the merger. Shares held by us, Captaris, Merlot Acquisition Sub or any of our or Captaris' wholly-owned subsidiaries will be canceled without consideration immediately prior to the effective time of the merger. The amount of the merger consideration was determined through arm's-length negotiations between Captaris and us. Please note that there is no maximum or minimum price adjustment and there can be no assurance as to the final price per share.

Effective Time of the Merger

The merger agreement requires the parties to consummate the merger after all of the conditions to the consummation of the merger contained in the merger agreement are satisfied or waived, including approval of the merger agreement, the merger and the other transactions contemplated by the merger agreement by Castelle shareholders. The merger will become effective upon the filing of the Articles of Merger with the Secretary of State of the State of California. We currently expect to complete the merger in the third quarter of 2007. However, because the consummation of the merger is subject to a number of conditions, we cannot predict the exact timing of the consummation of the merger.

Manner and Basis of Converting Shares; Lost, Stolen or Destroyed Certificates

At or prior to the effective time of the merger, Captaris will, or will cause Merlot Acquisition Sub to, deposit with the paying agent that it designates cash in an amount equal to the aggregate consideration payable in the merger. As soon as practicable following the effective time of the merger, the paying agent for the merger will mail to each registered holder of shares of Castelle common stock immediately before the effective time a letter of transmittal and instructions for surrendering the registered holder's Castelle share certificates. Upon surrender of a share certificate to the paying agent, together with a duly signed letter of transmittal, and such other customary documents as the paying agent or Captaris may reasonably require, holders of shares of Castelle common stock will be entitled to receive $3.95 in cash, without interest and less any applicable withholding taxes, for each share of Castelle common stock owned by them immediately prior to the effective time of the merger, subject to adjustment to the extent Castelle's cash balance at the effective time of the merger, after payment of transaction costs, is above or below the agreed upon balance of $7.4 million, and subject to additional downward adjustment to the extent Castelle's working capital (excluding cash) at the effective time of the merger is less than the agreed upon target of negative $75,000 (provided that the shortfall is at least $100,000). The Castelle share certificates so surrendered will be cancelled.

If any cash is to be paid to a person other than the person in whose name the share certificate is registered, it shall be a condition to payment that the share certificate so surrendered shall be properly endorsed or otherwise in proper form for transfer, and that the person requesting payment shall pay to the paying agent any transfer or other taxes required by reason of such payment or establish to the satisfaction of the paying agent that such tax has been paid or is not required.

As of the effective time, all holders of certificates representing shares of Castelle common stock that were outstanding immediately prior to the effective time will cease to have any rights as shareholders of Castelle other than the right to receive merger consideration in exchange for such holders' shares of Castelle common stock. No interest will be paid or accrue on any merger consideration payable upon the surrender of the share certificates representing shares of Castelle common stock. In addition, no transfer of shares of Castelle common stock after the effective time of the merger will be registered on the stock transfer books of Castelle.

If any Castelle share certificate has been lost, stolen or destroyed, Captaris will require the owner of such certificate to deliver an affidavit claiming such certificate has been lost, stolen or destroyed to the paying agent and, may in its reasonable discretion, require that the owner of such certificate post a bond in such amount as Captaris may reasonably direct as indemnity against any claim that may be made with respect to that certificate against Captaris, Castelle or the paying agent.

Share certificates should not be surrendered by Castelle shareholders before the effective time of the merger and should be sent only pursuant to instructions set forth in the letters of transmittal to be mailed to Castelle shareholders promptly following the effective time of the merger. In all cases, the merger consideration will be provided only in accordance with the procedures set forth in this proxy statement and such letters of transmittal.

Upon demand by Captaris, the paying agent will deliver to Captaris any funds undistributed to Castelle shareholders as of the date 180 days after the effective date of the merger. Any holders of Castelle share certificates who have not surrendered such certificates in compliance with the above-described procedures may thereafter look only to Captaris for payment of the merger consideration to which they are entitled.

The merger consideration paid to you upon exchange of your shares of Castelle common stock will be paid in full satisfaction of all rights relating to such shares.

Representations and Warranties

The merger agreement contains customary representations and warranties that Castelle and Captaris made to, and solely for the benefit of, each other. The representations and warranties expire at the effective time of the merger. The assertions embodied in those representations and warranties are qualified by information in a confidential disclosure letter that Castelle delivered to Captaris in connection with signing the merger agreement. Accordingly, you should not rely on the representations and warranties as characterizations of the actual state of facts, since they were only made as of the date of the merger agreement and are modified in important part by the disclosure letter. The disclosure letter contains information that has been included in Castelle's general prior public disclosures, as well as additional non-public information. Moreover, information concerning the subject matter of the representations and warranties may have changed since the date of the merger agreement, which subsequent information may or may not be fully reflected in Castelle's public disclosures.

Covenants; Conduct of Business Prior to the Merger

Affirmative Covenants of Castelle. We have agreed that until the effective time, we will:

except as required by any legal requirement or contract, (i) increase the amount of compensation or fringe benefits of, pay or grant any bonus, change of control, severance or termination pay to any employee or director, (b) adopt or amend any employee benefit plan or make any contribution, other than regularly scheduled contributions, to any employee benefit plan, (c) waive any stock repurchase rights, accelerate, amend or change the period of exercisability of our stock options, or reprice any of our stock options or authorize cash payments in exchange for any of our stock options, (d) enter into any employee agreement or indemnification agreement with any employee (other than offer letters and letter agreements entered into in the ordinary course of business consistent with past practice with employees who are terminable at will) or enter into, amend or extend any collectively bargained agreement, or (e) forgive any loans to any employees, officers or directors; condition of any other person (other than any wholly owned subsidiary of Castle) or enter into any arrangement having the economic effect of any of the foregoing; enter into, modify or amend in a manner adverse in any material respect to us, or terminate certain of our contracts or waive, release or assign any material rights or claims thereunder, in each case, in a manner adverse in any material respect to us and our subsidiaries taken as a whole, other than any entry into, modification, amendment or termination of any such contract in the ordinary course of business, consistent with past practice; or take, commit, or agree in writing or otherwise to take, any of the actions above, or any other action that would prevent us from performing, or cause us not to perform, our covenants or agreements under the merger agreement, or that would reasonably be expected to cause any of the conditions to Captaris' obligation to consummate the merger described in Proposal One Merger Proposal, The Merger Agreement Conditions to the Merger not to be satisfied.

In addition, we have agreed not to take any action of divestiture (as described below) that would reasonably be likely to adversely and materially impact Captaris and its subsidiaries taken as a whole, us and our subsidiaries taken as a whole, or the benefits Captaris expects to derive from the merger and the transactions contemplated by the merger agreement, without the prior written consent of Captaris. For purposes of the merger agreement, an action of divestiture means (i) any license, sale or other disposition or holding separate (through establishment of a trust or otherwise) of any shares of capital stock or of any business, assets or properties of Captaris, its subsidiaries or affiliates or of Castle and our subsidiaries, (ii) the imposition of any limitation on the ability of Captaris, its subsidiaries or affiliates or of Castle and our subsidiaries to conduct their respective businesses or own any capital stock or assets or to acquire, hold or exercise full rights of ownership of their respective businesses and, in the case of Captaris, the businesses of Castle and our subsidiaries, or (iii) the imposition of any impediment on Captaris, its subsidiaries or affiliates or of Castle and our subsidiaries under any statute, rule, regulation, executive order, decree, order or other legal restraint governing competition, monopolies or restrictive trade practices.

Affirmative Covenants of Castle and Captaris. Both Captaris and Castle have agreed that each party will:

give prompt notice to the other party of (i) any representation or warranty made by it contained in the merger agreement becoming untrue or inaccurate, or any failure of it to comply with or satisfy any covenant, condition or agreement to be complied with or satisfied by it under the merger agreement, in each case, such that the conditions of the other party's obligation to consummate the merger described in Proposal One Merger Proposal, The Merger Agreement Conditions to the Merger would not be satisfied or (ii) any actions, suits, claims, investigations or proceedings commenced by any person (including a governmental entity) that seek to prohibit or materially impair the consummation of the merger and the transactions contemplated in the merger agreement; consult with the other party before issuing, and provide to the other party the opportunity to review, comment upon and concur with, and use all reasonable efforts to agree on any press release or public statement with respect to the merger agreement and the transactions contemplated thereby, except as may be required by law or any listing agreement with The NASDAQ Stock Market or any other applicable national or regional securities exchange or market; and use all reasonable efforts to take, or cause to be taken, all actions necessary to consummate the merger and the other transactions contemplated by the merger agreement; however, Captaris will not have any obligation to agree to any action of divestiture.

Castle Stock Options

The merger agreement provides that, at the effective time of the merger, each Castle stock option that is outstanding and unexercised immediately prior to the effective time of the merger will be converted into the right to receive an amount of cash equal to (i) the product of (A) the number of shares of our common stock as to which such stock option was vested and exercisable, multiplied by (B) the excess, if any, of the merger consideration to be received for each share of common stock of Castelle, as described above, over the per share exercise price of such stock option, less (ii) any applicable withholding taxes.

Indemnification and Insurance

The merger agreement provides that from and after the effective time of the merger, Captaris will, and will cause the surviving corporation in the merger to, fulfill and honor in all respects the obligations of Castelle under any indemnification agreements with our directors and officers. In addition, the articles of incorporation and bylaws of the surviving corporation in the merger will, for a period of six years after the effective time of the merger, contain provisions with respect to exculpation and indemnification that are at least as favorable to our directors and officers as those contained in our current articles of incorporation and bylaws.

The merger agreement further provides that we may purchase a tail insurance policy with terms and conditions that are comparable to those of our existing directors and officers insurance policy and that has an effective term of six years after the effective time of the merger. Captaris will reimburse us for up to $85,000 (less the amount of any refund we receive with respect to our existing directors and officers insurance policy) of the cost to purchase such tail policy.

Holding Special Meeting of Shareholders; Obligations of Castelle's Board of Directors with Respect to Its Recommendations

Castelle has agreed to take all action necessary to call, give notice and hold the special meeting of shareholders as promptly as practicable after the date of the merger agreement, and to the extent practicable, no later than 45 days after the mailing of this proxy statement to Castelle shareholders.

Castelle has agreed that, except in certain limited circumstances described below, it would include a statement in this proxy statement to the effect that, its board of directors unanimously recommends that Castelle shareholders approve the merger agreement, the merger and the other transactions contemplated by the merger agreement at Castelle's special meeting of shareholders.

The merger agreement provides that Castelle's board of directors shall not withdraw or modify its recommendation that Castelle shareholders vote to approve the merger agreement, the merger and the other transactions contemplated by the merger agreement in a manner adverse to Captaris, except that at any time prior to the approval of the merger agreement by Castelle's shareholders, Castelle's board recommendation may be withdrawn or modified in a manner adverse to Captaris if:

- a superior offer (as described in Proposal One Merger Proposal, The Merger Agreement Exception to Prohibition on Discussing and Negotiating Acquisition Proposals) has been made and has not been withdrawn;
- the special meeting has not occurred;

- we have (i) delivered to Captaris a written notice at least three business days prior to publicly effecting such change of recommendation, (ii) provided Captaris a copy of all written materials delivered to the person or group making the superior offer and a summary of all material oral conversations between us and such party regarding the superior offer, and (iii) made available to Captaris all materials and information made available to the person or group making the superior offer;
- after delivering the change of recommendation notice described above, we provide Captaris with a reasonable opportunity to make such adjustments in the terms and conditions of the merger agreement during such three business day period, and negotiate in good faith with respect thereto during such three business day period, as would enable us to proceed with our recommendation to our shareholders in favor of approval and adoption of the merger agreement and the merger without making a change of recommendation;
- our board of directors has concluded in good faith, after receipt of advice of its outside legal counsel, that, in light of such superior offer and after considering any adjustments or negotiations with respect to the terms and conditions of the merger agreement, that a change of recommendation is necessary and required to comply with the fiduciary obligations of our board of directors to our shareholders under applicable law; and we have not breached any of the restrictions or covenants described above or in Proposal One Merger Proposal, The Merger Agreement Limitation on Soliciting, Discussing and Negotiating Other Acquisition Proposals.

Limitation on Soliciting, Discussing and Negotiating Other Acquisition Proposals

The merger agreement contains detailed provisions prohibiting Castelle from seeking an alternative transaction to the merger. Under these no solicitation and related provisions, subject to specific exceptions described below, Castelle has agreed that it will not, directly or indirectly (and that it will ensure that its subsidiaries and the directors, officers, other employees, agents, attorneys, accountants, advisors and representatives of Castelle and its subsidiaries do not, directly or indirectly):

- solicit, initiate, encourage, facilitate or induce any inquiry with respect to, or the making, submission or announcement of, any acquisition proposal;
- participate in discussions or negotiation of, or furnish any nonpublic information with respect to, or take any other action to facilitate any inquiries or the making of, any proposal that constitutes or could reasonably be expected to lead to any acquisition proposal;
- subject to certain exceptions, engage in discussions with respect to any acquisition proposal;
- subject to certain exceptions, approve, endorse or recommend any acquisition proposal; or
- enter into any letter of intent or similar document or any contract, agreement or commitment contemplating or otherwise relating to any acquisition proposal.

Under the merger agreement, an acquisition proposal is any offer or proposal relating to any transaction or series of transactions (other than the merger) involving:

- any purchase or acquisition by any person or group of more than a 10% interest in our or our subsidiaries total outstanding voting securities or any tender offer or exchange offer that if consummated would result in any person or group beneficially owning 10% or more of our or our subsidiaries total outstanding voting securities;
- any merger, consolidation, business combination or similar transaction involving us or any of our subsidiaries;
- any sale, lease (other than in the ordinary course of business), exchange, transfer, license (other than in the ordinary course of business), acquisition or disposition of more than 10% of our assets (including our subsidiaries, taken as a whole); or
- our liquidation or dissolution.

Under the merger agreement, Castelle agreed to cease all existing activities, discussions or negotiations with any third parties conducted prior to the date of the merger agreement with respect to any acquisition proposal.

Castelle has agreed to notify Captaris as promptly as possible after receipt of any acquisition proposal or any request for nonpublic information or inquiry that could reasonably be expect to lead to an acquisition proposal, including the identity of the person making the acquisition proposal, request or inquiry, a copy of all written materials provided by or on behalf of such person in connection with such acquisition proposal, request or inquiry, and a summary of all material oral conversations with such person in connection with such acquisition proposal, request or inquiry. Castelle must provide Captaris all such information as is reasonably necessary to keep Captaris currently informed in all material respects of the status and details of any such acquisition proposal, request or inquiry. Castelle has also agreed to provide Captaris with prior notice of any meeting of our board of directors at which our board of directors could reasonably be expected to consider any acquisition proposal.

Exception to Prohibition on Discussing and Negotiating Acquisition Proposals

The merger agreement provides that, if we receive from any person an unsolicited, bona fide acquisition proposal from a third party that our board of directors believes in good faith is reasonably likely to result in a superior offer and that is not withdrawn, if neither we nor any of our or our subsidiaries' representatives shall have breached the restrictions described in Proposal One Merger Proposal, The Merger Agreement Limitation on Soliciting, Discussing and Negotiating Other Acquisition Proposals and our board of directors concludes in good faith that the following action is required in order for our board of directors to comply with its fiduciary obligations to our shareholders, then we may:

furnish to such person nonpublic information with respect to us and our subsidiaries pursuant to a confidentiality agreement that contains terms that are at least as restrictive as the terms of the confidentiality agreement that we and Captaris have executed in connection with the merger, provided that we concurrently provide Captaris written notice of our intention to furnish such nonpublic information and furnish such nonpublic information to Captaris together with a list identifying all such nonpublic information furnished by us; and engage in negotiations with the person (and its representatives) regarding the acquisition proposal, provided that we concurrently provide Captaris with written notice of our intention to enter into negotiations with such person.

For purposes of the merger agreement, the term superior offer means an unsolicited, bona fide written acquisition proposal from a third party on terms that our board of directors has in good faith concluded (following the receipt of advice of our outside legal counsel and our financial adviser), taking into account, among other things, all legal, financial, regulatory and other aspects of the offer and the person making the offer, (i) to be more favorable, from a financial point of view, to our shareholders (in their capacities as shareholders) than the terms of the merger, (ii) is reasonably likely to be consummated and (iii) for which financing, to the extent required, is then fully committed or reasonably determined by our board of directors likely to be obtained.

Material Adverse Effect

Several of our representations and warranties and closing conditions contained in the merger agreement are qualified by reference to whether the item in question has had or could reasonably be expected to have a material adverse effect on us. The merger agreement provides that a material adverse effect means, when used in connection with us, any change, event, violation, inaccuracy, circumstance or effect (each, an effect) that, individually or when taken together with other effects that have occurred prior to the date of determination of the occurrence of the material adverse effect, that is or is reasonably likely to:

be materially adverse to our business, assets (including intangible assets), liabilities, capitalization, financial condition, or results of operations taken as a whole with our subsidiaries;

materially impede the authority of Castelle or Captaris, to consummate the transactions contemplated by the merger agreement and applicable legal requirements;

materially delay or prevent the consummation of the transactions contemplated by the merger agreement; or materially impair the ability of Captaris to operate our business immediately after the closing of the merger in the same manner as our business has been operated prior to the closing.

However, none of the following will be deemed to constitute a material adverse effect with respect to us:

any effect primarily resulting from changes affecting the United States or world economy generally which changes do not disproportionately affect us taken as a whole with our subsidiaries;

any effect primarily resulting from changes affecting the industry in which we and our subsidiaries operate generally which changes do not disproportionately affect us taken as a whole with our subsidiaries;

any effect primarily resulting from a change in our stock price or the trading volume in Castle common stock, excluding any underlying effect which may have caused such change in our stock price or trading volume;

any effect primarily resulting from acts of terrorism or war which changes do not disproportionately affect us taken as a whole with our subsidiaries;

any effect primarily resulting from suspension of customer orders resulting from the announcement of the merger agreement and the transactions contemplated by the merger agreement;

any effect primarily resulting from a failure to meet securities analysts' published revenue or earnings predictions for us for any period ending (or for which revenues or earnings are released) on or after the date of the merger agreement, excluding our revenues or earnings themselves or any effect which may have affected our revenues or earnings;

any effect primarily resulting from changes in generally accepted accounting principles first publicly disclosed after the date of the merger agreement; or any effect primarily resulting from any divestiture that would not reasonably be likely to adversely and materially impact us and our subsidiaries taken as a whole, or the benefits Captaris expects to derive from the merger and the transactions contemplated by the merger agreement.

Castelle's shareholders shall have approved the merger agreement;

no governmental entity of competent jurisdiction shall have enacted, issued, promulgated, enforced or entered any statute, rule, regulation, executive order, decree, injunction or other order (whether temporary, preliminary or permanent) that has the effect of making the merger illegal or otherwise prohibiting or preventing consummation of the merger;

Termination of the Merger Agreement

The merger agreement provides that, at any time prior to the consummation of the merger, either before or after the requisite approval of the shareholders of Castelle has been obtained, Captaris and Castelle can terminate the merger agreement if Captaris and Castelle agree by mutual written consent to terminate the merger agreement.

The merger agreement also provides that, at any time prior to the consummation of the merger, either before or after the requisite approval of the shareholders of Castelle has been obtained, either Captaris or Castelle can terminate the merger agreement if:

the merger has not been consummated by August 31, 2007; provided, however, that the right to terminate the merger agreement under this provision will not be available to any party whose action or failure to act was a principal cause of or resulted in the failure of the merger to occur on or before such date and such action or failure to act constitutes a breach of the merger agreement;

a governmental entity has issued a final and nonappealable order, decree or ruling or taken any other action (including the failure to have taken an action), in any case having the effect of permanently restraining, enjoining or otherwise prohibiting the merger; or the required approval of the merger agreement and the merger by our shareholders has not been obtained at the special meeting; provided, however, that the right to terminate the merger agreement under this provision will not be available to us where the failure to obtain such shareholder approval was caused by our action or failure to act and such action or failure to act constitutes a breach by us of the merger agreement;

The merger agreement provides that Captaris may terminate the merger agreement if:

at any time prior to the adoption and approval of the merger agreement and the merger by the required vote of our shareholders, a triggering event (as described below) or a breach by us of any of the covenants and restrictions described in Proposal One Merger Proposal, The Merger Agreement Limitation on Soliciting, Discussing and Negotiating Other Acquisition Proposals and breached the restrictions described in Proposal One Merger Proposal, The Merger Agreement Exception to Prohibition on Discussing and Negotiating Acquisition Proposals has occurred;

we breach any representation, warranty, covenant or agreement set forth in the merger agreement, or if any of our representation or warranty has become untrue, in either case such that the conditions to the obligations of Captaris and Merlot Acquisition Sub to consummate the merger relating to our representations and warranties and agreements and covenants under the merger agreement as described in Proposal One Merger Proposal, The Merger Agreement Conditions to the Merger would not be satisfied as of the time of such breach or as of the time such representation or warranty has become untrue, provided, that if such inaccuracy in our representations and warranties or breach is curable by us prior to August 31, 2007 through the exercise of reasonable efforts, then Captaris may not terminate the merger agreement under this provision prior to 20 days following the receipt of written notice from Captaris to us of such breach, provided that we continue to exercise all reasonable efforts to cure such breach through such 20-day period; or there has occurred a material adverse effect on Castelle that (i) could not reasonably be expected to be cured by us prior to August 31, 2007 or (ii) is continuing as of the earlier of (a) the date on which the conditions set forth in Proposal One Merger Proposal, The Merger Agreement Conditions to the Merger have been satisfied or waived (other than those that by their terms are to be satisfied or waived at the closing of the merger) and (b) August 31, 2007.

For the purposes of the merger agreement, a triggering event, with respect to Castelle, shall be deemed to have occurred if: (i) our board of directors or any committee thereof for any reason has withdrawn or has amended or modified in a manner adverse to Captaris its unanimous recommendation in favor of the adoption and approval of the merger agreement or the approval of the merger, (ii) our board of directors has failed to include in this proxy statement the unanimous recommendation of our board of directors in favor of the adoption and approval of the merger agreement and the approval of the merger, (iii) our board of directors fails to reaffirm (publicly, if so requested) its recommendation in favor of the adoption and approval of the merger agreement and the approval of the merger within five business days after Captaris requests in writing that such recommendation be reaffirmed, (iv) our board of directors or any committee thereof has approved or recommended any acquisition proposal, (v) we have entered into any letter of intent or similar document or any agreement, contract or commitment accepting any acquisition proposal, or (vi) a tender or exchange offer relating to our securities has been commenced by a person unaffiliated with Captaris and we have not sent to our security holders pursuant to Rule 14e-2 promulgated under the Exchange Act, within 10 business days after such tender or exchange offer is first published, sent or given, a statement disclosing that our board of directors recommends rejection of such tender or exchange offer.

The merger agreement provides that we may terminate the merger agreement if Captaris breaches any representation, warranty, covenant or agreement set forth in the merger agreement, or if any representation or warranty of Captaris has become untrue, in either case such that the conditions to the our obligations to consummate the merger relating to Captaris' and Merlot Acquisition Sub's representations and warranties and agreements and covenants under the merger agreement as described in Proposal One Merger Proposal, The Merger Agreement Conditions to the Merger would not be satisfied as of the time of such breach or as of the time such representation or warranty has become untrue, provided that if such inaccuracy in Captaris' representations or warranties or breach by Captaris is curable by Captaris prior to August 31, 2007 through the exercise of reasonable efforts, then we may not terminate the merger agreement under this provision prior to 20 days following the receipt of written notice from us to Captaris of such breach, provided that Captaris continues to exercise all reasonable efforts to cure such breach through such 20 day period. However, we may not terminate the merger agreement pursuant to the preceding provision if we have materially breached the merger agreement or if such breach by Captaris is cured within such 20 day period.

Expenses and Termination Fees

The merger agreement provides that, subject to limited exceptions, all fees and expenses incurred in connection with the merger agreement and the merger will be paid by the party incurring such expenses.

In the event that the merger agreement is terminated (i) by either us or Captaris because the merger has not been consummated by August 31, 2007, (ii) by either us or Captaris because Castle's shareholders did not approve the merger agreement, the merger and the other transactions contemplated by the merger agreement, (iii) by Captaris upon the occurrence of any of the triggering events as described in Proposal One Merger Proposal, The Merger Agreement Termination of the Merger Agreement or our breach of any of the covenants and restrictions described in Proposal One Merger Proposal, The Merger Agreement Limitation on Soliciting, Discussing and Negotiating Other Acquisition Proposals and breached the restrictions described in Proposal One Merger Proposal, The Merger Agreement Exception to Prohibition on Discussing and Negotiating Acquisition Proposals or (iv) by either us or Captaris in the event (a) of a change in the recommendation of our board of directors with respect to the approval of the merger agreement and the merger and (b) a court of competent jurisdiction determines in a final judgment that, under such circumstance, submission by our board of directors of the merger and the merger agreement to our shareholders at the special meeting would violate California law and constitute a breach of the fiduciary duties of our board of directors, then we must reimburse Captaris for all fees and expenses actually incurred by Captaris in connection with the merger, up to a maximum of $250,000, and pay Captaris a termination fee of $700,000, provided, however, that in the event of a termination pursuant to clause (i) or (ii) above, payment of the $700,000 termination fee shall be made only if (a) there has been disclosure publicly or to any member of our board of directors or any of our officers of an acquisition proposal and (b) within 12 months following the termination of the merger agreement an acquisition of Castle is consummated or we enter into an agreement providing for, or a letter of intent, memorandum of understanding, term sheet or similar arrangement contemplating, an acquisition of Castle.

Extension, Waiver and Amendment of the Merger Agreement

Castle and Captaris may amend the merger agreement at any time prior to the closing of the merger. However, after shareholder approval of the merger and the merger agreement has been obtained, no amendment can be made that by law or the rules of The NASDAQ Stock Market requires further approval by Castle's shareholders without the further approval of such shareholders.

Either Castle or Captaris may extend the time for performance of any of the obligations or other acts of the other parties under the merger agreement, waive any inaccuracies in the other party's representations and warranties and waive compliance with any of the agreements or conditions for the benefit of such party contained in the merger agreement.

THE VOTING AGREEMENTS

The following description summarizes the material provisions of the voting agreements and is qualified by reference to the complete text of the form of voting agreement, which is attached as Annex B to this proxy statement and is incorporated herein by reference. This summary may not contain all of the information about the voting agreements that is important to you. We encourage you to read the form of voting agreement carefully and in its entirety.

As an inducement to Captaris to enter into the merger agreement, on April 25, 2007, our directors and executive officers collectively owning approximately 10% of our outstanding shares of common stock as of the record date have each entered into voting agreements with Captaris, in which our directors and executive officers agree to vote, and grant proxies to Captaris on their behalf to vote, all the shares of Castelle capital stock held by them as follows:

in favor of approval of the merger agreement, the merger and each of the other actions contemplated by the merger agreement and any action required in furtherance thereof; against approval of any proposal made in opposition to, or in competition with, consummation of the merger or any other transactions contemplated by the merger agreement; and against (i) any merger, consolidation, business combination, sale of assets, reorganization or recapitalization of Castelle or any of our subsidiaries with any party, (ii) any sale, lease or transfer of any significant part of the assets of Castelle or any of our subsidiaries, (iii) any reorganization, recapitalization, dissolution, liquidation or winding up of Castelle or any of our subsidiaries, (iv) any material change in the capitalization of Castelle or any of our subsidiaries, or the corporate structure of Castelle or any of our subsidiaries, or (v) any other action that is intended, or could reasonably be expected to, impede, interfere with, delay, postpone, discourage or adversely affect the merger or any other transactions contemplated by the merger agreement.

The shareholders who entered into the voting agreements include Donald L. Rich, Peter R. Tierney, Robert H. Hambrecht, Robert O. Smith, Scott C. McDonald, Eric C. Chen, Paul W. Cheng, Edward Heinze, Michael Petrovich and Richard Fernandez. Each of our directors and executive officers has also granted Captaris an irrevocable proxy to vote the shares of Castelle common stock owned by him, including additional shares of Castelle common stock subsequently acquired, as described above.

In addition, subject to certain limited exceptions, each of our directors or executive officers has agreed not to sell, transfer, pledge or otherwise dispose of securities of Castelle beneficially owned by him prior to the effective date of the merger. None of our directors or executive officers has received any additional consideration with respect to the voting agreements.

RECOMMENDATION OF CASTELLES S BOARD OF DIRECTORS

Our board of directors unanimously recommends that you vote FOR the proposal to approve the merger agreement, merger and the other transactions contemplated by the merger agreement.

PROPOSAL TWO - ADJOURNMENT OF SPECIAL MEETING TO SOLICIT ADDITIONAL PROXIES

APPROVAL OF ADJOURNMENT OF THE SPECIAL MEETING TO ANOTHER TIME, DATE OR PLACE, IF NECESSARY IN THE JUDGMENT OF THE PROXY HOLDERS, FOR THE PURPOSE OF SOLICITING ADDITIONAL PROXIES TO VOTE IN FAVOR OF THE MERGER PROPOSAL

We are soliciting proxies to grant authority to the proxy holders to adjourn the special meeting, if necessary in their judgment, for the purpose of soliciting additional proxies to vote in favor of the merger proposal. Any adjournment of the special meeting may be made without notice, other than by the announcement made at the special meeting, if the votes cast in favor of the adjournment proposal by the holders of shares of Castle common stock entitled to vote on the proposal exceed the votes cast against the proposal at the special meeting. If the meeting is adjourned to another time, date or place, notice is not required to be provided to the shareholders of the adjourned meeting and a new record date is not required if the date, time and place of the new meeting are announced at the meeting at which the adjournment is taken and the adjournment is for no more than 120 days after the date of the original meeting. If we adjourn the special meeting to a later date, we will conduct the same business at the later meeting and, unless the law requires us to set a new record date, only the shareholders who were eligible to vote at the original meeting will be permitted to vote at the adjourned meeting.

RECOMMENDATION OF CASTELLES S BOARD OF DIRECTORS

Our board of directors unanimously recommends that you vote FOR the proposal to adjourn the special meeting to another time, date or place, if necessary in the judgment of the proxy holders, for the purpose of soliciting additional proxies to vote in favor of the merger proposal.

OTHER MATTERS

We know of no other matters to be submitted at the special meeting other than as described in this proxy statement. If any other matters properly come before the special meeting, it is the intention of the persons named in the enclosed proxy card to vote the shares they represent as our board of directors may recommend.

SHAREHOLDER PROPOSALS

If the merger is completed, there will be no public shareholders of Castelle and no public participation in any future meetings of the shareholders of Castelle. However, if the merger is not completed, we will hold a 2007 annual meeting of shareholders. In that event, because we anticipate that our 2007 annual meeting of shareholders will be held more than 30 days after the anniversary of our 2006 annual meeting of shareholders, the deadline for submitting a shareholder proposal for inclusion in our proxy statement and form of proxy for our 2007 annual meeting of shareholders, pursuant to Rule 14a-8 of the SEC, shareholder proposals for our 2007 annual meeting of shareholders must be received in writing at our principal executive offices a reasonable time before we begin to print and mail our proxy materials relating to such meeting to be considered for inclusion in such proxy materials.

In addition, our bylaws require that advance written notice be received by us not less than 120 days prior to an annual meeting of shareholders of any shareholder proposal to be brought before such annual meeting of shareholders or any nomination by a shareholder of a person for election as a director at such annual meeting of shareholders. Your notice must also contain specific information set forth in our bylaws. Please note that these requirements are separate from the SEC's requirements to have your proposal included in our proxy materials. Any proposal we receive after the deadline described above will be considered untimely and will be presented at our 2007 annual meeting of shareholders. Unless a shareholder who wishes to bring a matter before the shareholders at our 2007 annual meeting of shareholders notifies us of such matter prior to the deadline described above, management will have discretionary authority to vote all shares for which it has proxies in opposition to such matter.

All proposals and nominations should be sent to the Corporate Secretary at our principal executive offices located at 855 Jarvis Drive, Suite 100, Morgan Hill, CA 95037 by the time of the deadline described above.

SECURITY OWNERSHIP OF CERTAIN BENEFICIAL OWNERS

The following table presents information about the beneficial ownership of our common stock as of April 30, 2007 by:

- each person or entity known by us to be the beneficial owner of more than 5% of our common stock;
- each of our directors;
- each of our named executive officers; and
- all of our directors and executive officers as a group.

The percentage of beneficial ownership for the table is based on 4,092,470 shares of our common stock outstanding as of April 30, 2007. The table is based upon information supplied by officers, directors and principal shareholders and Schedules 13D and 13G filed with the SEC. Unless otherwise indicated in the footnotes to this table and subject to community property laws where applicable, we believe that each shareholder named in the table has sole voting and investment power with respect to the shares indicated as beneficially owned. Unless otherwise indicated, each entity or person listed below maintains a mailing address of c/o Castelle, 855 Jarvis Drive, Suite 100, Morgan Hill, CA 95037.

Beneficial ownership is determined under the rules of the SEC and does not necessarily indicate beneficial ownership for any other purpose. Under these rules, beneficial ownership includes those shares of common stock over which the shareholder has sole or shared voting or investment power. It also includes shares of common stock that the shareholder has the right to acquire within 60 days after April 30, 2007, through the exercise of any option or warrant. However, the percentage ownership of the common stock is based on the assumption, as required by the rules of the SEC, that only the person or entity whose ownership is being reported has converted options or warrants into shares of our common stock.

NOW, THEREFORE, in consideration of the covenants, promises and representations set forth herein, and for other good and valuable consideration, the receipt and sufficiency of which are hereby acknowledged, the parties agree as follows:

ARTICLE 1

THE MERGER

1.1 The Merger

At the Effective Time and subject to and upon the terms and conditions of this Agreement and the applicable provisions of California Law, Merger Sub shall be merged with and into the Company (the Merger), the separate corporate existence of Merger Sub shall cease and the Company shall continue as the surviving corporation and as a wholly owned subsidiary of Parent. The surviving corporation after the Merger is hereinafter sometimes referred to as the Surviving Corporation.

1.2 Effective Time; Closing

Subject to the provisions of this Agreement, the parties hereto shall cause the Merger to be consummated by filing the articles of merger with the Secretary of State of the State of California in accordance with the relevant provisions of California Law (the Articles of Merger) (the time of such filing with the Secretary of State of the State of California (or such later time as may be agreed in writing by the Company and Parent and specified in the Articles of Merger) being the Effective Time) as soon as practicable on or after the Closing Date. The closing of the Merger (the Closing) shall take place at the offices of Perkins Coie LLP, 1201 Third Avenue, Suite 4800, Seattle, WA, at a time and date to be specified by the parties, which shall be no later than the second Business Day after the satisfaction or waiver of the conditions set forth in Article VII (other than those in Section 7.1(b), Section 7.2 and Section 7.3 that by their terms are to be satisfied or waived at the Closing), or at such other time, date and location as the parties hereto agree in writing. The date on which the Closing occurs is referred to herein as the Closing Date.

1.3 Effect of the Merger

At the Effective Time, the effect of the Merger shall be as provided in this Agreement and the applicable provisions of California Law. Without limiting the generality of the foregoing, and subject thereto, at the Effective Time all the property, rights, privileges, powers and franchises of the Company and Merger Sub shall vest in the Surviving Corporation, and all debts, liabilities and duties of the Company and Merger Sub shall become the debts, liabilities and duties of the Surviving Corporation.

1.4 Articles of Incorporation and Bylaws

Unless otherwise determined by Parent prior to the Effective Time, at the Effective Time, the articles of incorporation of the Company shall be amended and restated in its entirety to be identical to the articles of incorporation of Merger Sub, as in effect immediately prior to the Effective Time, until thereafter amended in accordance with California Law and as provided in such articles of incorporation; provided, however, that at the Effective Time, Article I of the articles of incorporation of the Surviving Corporation shall be amended and restated in its entirety to read as follows: The name of the corporation is Castelle and the articles of incorporation shall be amended so as to comply with Section 6.10(a). Unless otherwise determined by Parent prior to the Effective Time, at the Effective Time, the bylaws of the Company shall be amended and restated in their entirety to be identical to the bylaws of Merger Sub, as in effect immediately prior to the Effective Time, until thereafter amended in accordance with California Law and as provided in such bylaws; provided, however, that at the Effective Time, the bylaws shall be amended so as to comply with Section 6.10(a).

1.5 Directors and Officers

Unless otherwise determined by Parent prior to the Effective Time, the initial directors of the Surviving Corporation shall be the directors of Merger Sub immediately prior to the Effective Time, until their respective successors are duly elected or appointed and qualified. In addition, unless otherwise determined by Parent prior to the Effective Time, Parent, the Company and the Surviving Corporation shall cause the directors and officers of Merger Sub immediately prior to the Effective Time to be the directors and officers, respectively, of each of the Company's Subsidiaries immediately after the Effective Time, each to hold office as a director or officer of each such Subsidiary in accordance with the provisions of the laws of the respective jurisdiction of organization and the respective bylaws or equivalent organizational documents of each such Subsidiary.

ARTICLE 2

CONVERSION OF SECURITIES

2.1 Effect on Capital Stock

Subject to the terms and conditions of this Agreement (including Sections 2.5, and 2.6), at the Effective Time, by virtue of the Merger and without any action on the part of Parent, Merger Sub, the Company or the holders of any shares of capital stock of the Company, each share of the Common Stock, no par value, of the Company (Company Common Stock) issued and outstanding immediately prior to the Effective Time, other than any shares of Company Common Stock to be canceled pursuant to Section 2.3, will be canceled and extinguished and automatically converted, upon surrender of the certificate representing such share of Company Common Stock in the manner provided in Section 2.7 (or in the case of a lost, stolen or destroyed certificate, upon delivery of an affidavit (and bond, if required) in the manner provided in Section 2.7(d)), into the right to receive from Parent an amount in cash (without interest) equal to $3.95 less the Working Capital/Cash Adjustment plus the Cash Surplus (the Merger Consideration).

2.2 Company Options

(a) Any Company Option held by any Person that is unexpired, unexercised and outstanding immediately prior to the Effective Time, shall, on the terms and subject to the conditions set forth in this Agreement, terminate in its entirety at the Effective Time, and the holder of each such terminated Company Option shall be entitled to receive therefor an amount of cash (rounded down to the nearest whole cent) equal to (i) the product of (A) the number of shares of Company Common Stock as to which such Company Option was vested and exercisable immediately prior to the Effective Time, multiplied by (B) the excess, if any, of the Merger Consideration over the per share exercise price of such Company Option immediately prior to the Effective Time, less (ii) any applicable withholdings in accordance with Section 2.7(c).

(b) If and to the extent necessary or required by the terms of any Company Stock Option Plan or Company Option, the Company shall, prior to the Effective Time, (i) obtain any consents from holders of Company Options and (ii) amend the terms of its equity incentive plans or arrangements, to give effect to the provisions of Section 2.2(a).

(c) The Company shall provide Parent a reasonable opportunity to review, and comment on, any materials to be submitted to the holders of Company Options in connection with the transactions contemplated by this Agreement. The Company shall promptly notify Parent if any holder of a Company Option under the 1988 Equity Incentive Plan terminates his or her employment or service relationship with the Company (whether voluntarily or involuntarily).

2.3 Cancellation of Treasury and Parent Owned Stock

Each share of Company Common Stock held by the Company or Parent or any direct or indirect wholly owned Subsidiary of the Company or of Parent immediately prior to the Effective Time shall be canceled and extinguished without any conversion thereof.

2.4 Capital Stock of Merger Sub

Each share of common stock, no par value per share, of Merger Sub (the Merger Sub Common Stock) issued and outstanding immediately prior to the Effective Time shall be converted into one validly issued, fully paid and nonassessable share of common stock, no par value per share, of the Surviving Corporation. Each certificate evidencing ownership of shares of Merger Sub Common Stock shall evidence ownership of such shares of capital stock of the Surviving Corporation.

2.5 Adjustments to Merger Consideration

The Merger Consideration shall be adjusted to reflect fully the appropriate effect of any stock split, reverse stock split, stock dividend (including any dividend or distribution of securities convertible into Company Common Stock), reorganization, recapitalization, reclassification or other like change with respect to Company Common Stock having a record date on or after the date hereof and prior to the Effective Time.

2.6 Dissenting Shares

(a) Notwithstanding any other provisions of this Agreement to the contrary other than Section 2.6(b), any shares of Company Common Stock held by a holder who has demanded and perfected dissenters' rights for such shares in accordance with the provisions of California Law and who, as of the Effective Time, has not effectively withdrawn or lost such dissenters' rights (collectively, the Dissenting Shares), shall not be converted into or represent a right to receive the applicable consideration for Company Common Stock set forth in Section 2.1, but instead shall be converted into the right to receive only such consideration as may be determined to be due with respect to such Dissenting Shares under California Law. From and after the Effective Time, a holder of Dissenting Shares shall not be entitled to exercise any of the voting rights or other rights of a shareholder of the Surviving Corporation nor of a shareholder of Parent.

(b) Notwithstanding the provisions of Section 2.6(a), if any holder of shares of Company Common Stock who demands dissenters' rights of such shares under California Law shall effectively withdraw or lose (through failure to perfect or otherwise) the right to dissent, then, as of the later of the Effective Time and the occurrence of such event, such holder's shares shall no longer be Dissenting Shares and shall automatically be converted into and represent only the right to receive the consideration for Company Common Stock, as applicable, set forth in Section 2.1, without interest thereon, upon surrender of the certificate representing such shares.

(c) The Company shall give Parent (i) prompt notice of any written demands for dissenters' rights of any shares of Company Common Stock, withdrawals of such demands and any other instruments served pursuant to California Law and received by the Company which relate to any such demand for dissenters' rights and (ii) the opportunity to participate in all negotiations and proceedings which take place prior to the Effective Time with respect to demands for dissenters' rights under California Law. The Company shall not, except with the prior written consent of Parent, make any payment with respect to any such demands or offer to settle or settle any such demands. Any communication to be made by the Company to any holder of Company Common Stock with respect to such demands shall be submitted to Parent in advance and shall not be presented to any holder of Company Common Stock prior to the Company receiving Parent's consent.

2.7 Surrender of Certificates

(a) Paying Agent. Following the date of this Agreement and in any event not less than three Business Days prior to the mailing of the Proxy Statement to the shareholders of the Company, Parent or Merger Sub shall designate a bank or trust company reasonably acceptable to the Company to act as Paying Agent in connection with the Merger (the Paying Agent). At or prior to the Effective Time, Parent will provide to, or cause the Surviving Corporation to provide to, and shall deposit in trust with, the Paying Agent, the aggregate consideration to which shareholders of the Company become entitled under this Article II. Until used for that purpose, the funds shall be invested by the Paying Agent in direct obligations of the U.S. Treasury; provided that no such investment or loss thereon shall affect the amounts payable to Company shareholders pursuant to this Article II. Any interest and other income resulting from such investment shall become a part of the funds, and any amounts in excess of the amounts payable to Company shareholders pursuant to this Article II shall promptly be paid to Parent.

(b) Surrender Procedures. Promptly after the Effective Time, the Surviving Corporation shall cause the Paying Agent to mail to each person who was a record holder of Company Common Stock immediately prior to the Effective Time, whose shares were converted pursuant to this Article II into the right to receive Merger Consideration, (i) a form of letter of transmittal for use in effecting the surrender of stock certificates which immediately prior to the Effective Time represented Company Common Stock (each, a Certificate) in order to receive payment of the Merger Consideration (which shall specify that delivery shall be effected, and risk of loss and title to the Certificate shall pass, only upon actual delivery of the Certificates to the Paying Agent, and shall otherwise be in customary form) and (ii) instructions for use in effecting the surrender of the Certificates in exchange for payment of the Merger Consideration. When the Paying Agent receives a Certificate, together with a properly completed and executed letter of transmittal and any other required documents, the Paying Agent shall pay to the holder of the shares represented by the Certificate, or as otherwise directed in the letter of transmittal, the Merger Consideration with regard to each share represented by such Certificate, less any required Tax withholdings in accordance with Section 2.7(c) below, and the Certificate shall be cancelled. No interest shall be paid or accrued on the Merger Consideration payable upon the surrender of Certificates. If any portion of the Merger Consideration is to be paid to a Person other than the Person in whose name the surrendered Certificate is registered, it shall be a condition to such payment that (i) either such Certificate shall be properly endorsed or shall otherwise be in proper form for transfer and (ii) the Person requesting such payment shall pay to the Paying Agent any transfer or other Taxes required as a result of such payment to a Person other than the registered holder of such Certificate or establish to the satisfaction of the Paying Agent that such Taxes have been paid or are not payable. After the Effective Time, a Certificate shall represent, for all corporate purposes, only the right to receive the Merger Consideration in respect of the shares represented by such Certificate, without any interest thereon.

(c) Required Withholding. Each of Parent, the Paying Agent and the Surviving Corporation shall be entitled to deduct and withhold from any consideration payable or otherwise deliverable pursuant to this Agreement such amounts that are required to be deducted or withheld therefrom under the Internal Revenue Code of 1986, as amended (the Code), or under any provision of state, local or foreign Tax law or under any other applicable Legal Requirement. To the extent such amounts are so deducted or withheld, the amount of such consideration shall be treated for all purposes under this Agreement as having been paid to the Person to whom such consideration would otherwise have been paid.

(d) Lost, Stolen or Destroyed Certificates. In the event any Certificates shall have been lost, stolen or destroyed, the Paying Agent shall issue in exchange for such lost, stolen or destroyed Certificates, upon the making of a customary affidavit of that fact by the holder thereof, such cash constituting the Merger Consideration; provided, however, that Parent may, in its discretion and as a condition precedent to the issuance thereof, require the owner of such lost, stolen or destroyed Certificates to deliver a bond in such sum as it may reasonably direct as indemnity against any claim that may be made against Parent, the Company or the Paying Agent with respect to the Certificates alleged to have been lost, stolen or destroyed.

(e) Delivery of Funds to Parent. At any time which is more than 180 days after the Effective Time, Parent shall be entitled to require the Paying Agent to deliver to it any funds which had been deposited with the Paying Agent and have not been disbursed in accordance with this Article II (including, without limitation, interest and other income received by the Paying Agent in respect of the funds made available to it), and after the funds have been delivered to Parent, Persons entitled to payment in accordance with this Article II shall be entitled to look solely to Parent (subject to abandoned property, escheat or other similar laws) for payment of the Merger Consideration upon surrender of the Certificates held by them, without any interest thereon. Any Merger Consideration remaining unclaimed as of a date which is immediately prior to such time as such amounts would otherwise escheat to or become property of any government entity shall, to the extent permitted by applicable law, become the property of Parent free and clear of any claims or interest of any Person previously entitled thereto. Neither the Surviving Corporation, Parent nor the Paying Agent will be liable to any Person entitled to payment under this Article II for any consideration which is delivered to a public official pursuant to any abandoned property, escheat or similar law.

(f) No Further Ownership Rights in Company Common Stock. All Merger Consideration paid upon the surrender for exchange of shares of Company Common Stock in accordance with the terms hereof shall be deemed to have been paid in full satisfaction of all rights pertaining to such shares of Company Common Stock, and there shall be no further registration of transfers on the records of the Surviving Corporation of shares of Company Common Stock which were outstanding immediately prior to the Effective Time. If, after the Effective Time, Certificates are presented to the Surviving Corporation for any reason, they shall be canceled and exchanged as provided in this Article II.

(g) Further Action. At and after the Effective Time, the officers and directors of Parent and the Surviving Corporation will be authorized to execute and deliver, in the name and on behalf of the Company and Merger Sub, any deeds, bills of sale, assignments or assurances and to take and do, in the name and on behalf of Company and Merger Sub, any other actions and things to vest, perfect or confirm of record or otherwise in the Surviving Corporation any and all right, title and interest in, to and under any of the rights, properties or assets acquired or to be acquired by the Surviving Corporation as a result of, or in connection with, the Merger.

REPRESENTATIONS AND WARRANTIES OF THE COMPANY

The Company represents and warrants to Parent and Merger Sub, subject to the exceptions specifically disclosed in writing in the disclosure letter (referencing the appropriate section, subsection, paragraph and subparagraph numbers) supplied by Company to Parent dated as of the date hereof and certified by a duly authorized executive officer of Company (the Company Disclosure Letter), as follows:

3.1 Organization; Standing and Power; Charter Documents; Subsidiaries

(a) Organization; Standing and Power. The Company and each of its Subsidiaries is a corporation or other organization duly organized, validly existing and in good standing under the laws of the jurisdiction of its incorporation or organization and has the requisite power and authority to own, lease and operate its properties and to carry on its business as currently conducted and as currently contemplated to be conducted in the 12 months following the date of this Agreement, except where the failure to be so organized, validly existing and in good standing would not reasonably be expected to have a Material Adverse Effect on the Company and its Subsidiaries taken as a whole.

(b) Charter Documents. Except as filed as an exhibit to the Company's Annual report on Form 10-K for the year ended December 31, 2006 and available at www.sec.gov, the Company has delivered to Parent (i) a true and correct copy of the articles of incorporation and bylaws of the Company, each as amended and/or restated to date (collectively, the Company Charter Documents) and (ii) the certificate of incorporation and bylaws, or like organizational documents (collectively, Subsidiary Charter Documents), of each of its Subsidiaries, and each such instrument is in full force and effect. The Company is not in violation of any of the provisions of the Company Charter Documents and each Subsidiary is not in violation of its respective Subsidiary Charter Documents.

(c) Subsidiaries. Section 3.1(c) of the Company Disclosure Letter sets forth each Subsidiary of the Company. The Company is the owner of all of the outstanding shares of capital stock of, or other equity or voting interests in, each such Subsidiary and all such shares have been duly authorized, validly issued and are fully paid and nonassessable, free and clear of all pledges, claims, liens, charges, encumbrances, options and security interests of any kind or nature whatsoever (collectively, Liens), including any restriction on the right to vote, sell or otherwise dispose of such capital stock or other ownership interests, except for restrictions imposed by applicable securities laws. Other than the Subsidiaries of the Company, neither the Company nor any of its Subsidiaries owns any capital stock of, or other equity or voting interests of any nature in, or any interest convertible, exchangeable or exercisable for, capital stock of, or other equity or voting interests of any nature in, any other Person, except for passive investments of less than 1% in the equity interests of public companies as part of the Company's cash management program.

3.2 Capital Structure

No such Employee Benefit Plan is a top-heavy plan, as defined in Section 416 of the Code.

(f) Contributions, Premiums and other Payments. All contributions, premiums and other payments due or required to be paid to (or with respect to) each Employee Benefit Plan have been timely paid, or, if not yet due, have been accrued as a liability on the Company

(m) Employee Classification/Leased Employees. Neither the Company nor any of its Subsidiaries has received services from (i) any individual whom the Company or such Subsidiary treated as an independent contractor, but who should have been treated as a common-law employee, or (ii) any individual who is treated as a leased employee of the Company or any of its Subsidiaries under Section 414(n) of the Code, and who must be taken into account for purposes of determining whether any Employee Benefit Plan meets the requirements of Section 414(n)(3) of the Code which apply to such Employee Benefit Plan

(n) Employment Matters. The Company and each of its Subsidiaries is in compliance in all material respects with all applicable Legal Requirements respecting employment, employment practices, terms, conditions and classifications of employment, employee safety and health and wages and hours, and in each case, with respect to Employees (i) is not liable for any arrears of wages, severance pay or any Taxes or any penalty for failure to comply with any of the foregoing, and (ii) is not liable for any payment to any trust or other fund governed by or maintained by or on behalf of any Governmental Entity, with respect to unemployment compensation benefits, social security or other benefits or obligations for Employees (other than routine payments to be made in the normal course of business and consistent with past practice). Neither the Company nor any of its Subsidiaries is presently, nor has it been in the past, a party to, or bound by, any collective bargaining agreement or union contract with respect to Employees and no collective bargaining agreement is being negotiated by the Company or any of its Subsidiaries. Within the past year, neither the Company nor any of its Subsidiaries has incurred any liability or obligation under WARN or any similar state or local law that remains unsatisfied, and no terminations prior to the Closing Date shall result in unsatisfied liability or obligation under WARN or any similar state or local law.

(b) The Company will notify Parent promptly upon the receipt of any comments from the SEC or its staff in connection with the filing of, or amendments or supplements to, the Proxy Statement. approve, endorse or recommend any Acquisition Proposal (except to the extent specifically permitted pursuant to Section 6.3(d)), or (v) enter into any letter of intent or similar document or any contract, agreement or commitment contemplating or otherwise relating to any Acquisition Proposal or transaction contemplated thereby. (c) Superior Offers. Notwithstanding anything to the contrary contained in Section 6.3(a), in the event that the Company receives an unsolicited, bona fide written Acquisition Proposal from a third party that the Company's Board of Directors has in good faith concluded (following the receipt of the advice of its outside legal counsel and its financial advisor) is, or is reasonably likely to result in, a Superior Offer, the Company may then take the following actions (but only if and to the extent that the Board of Directors of the Company, by vote of a majority of the independent members of the Company's Board of Directors, concludes in good faith, following the receipt of advice of the Company's outside legal counsel, that such action is necessary and required to comply with its fiduciary obligations to the shareholders of the Company under applicable law):

(i) Furnish nonpublic information to the third party making such Acquisition Proposal, provided that (a) (1) concurrently with furnishing any such nonpublic information to such party, the Company gives Parent written notice of its intention to furnish such nonpublic information and (2) the Company receives from the third party an executed confidentiality agreement containing customary limitations on the use and disclosure of all nonpublic written and oral information furnished to such third party on the Company's behalf, the terms of which are at least as restrictive as the terms contained in the Confidentiality Agreement and (b) contemporaneously with furnishing any such nonpublic information to such third party, the Company furnishes such nonpublic information to Parent (to the extent such nonpublic information has not been previously so furnished) together with a list identifying all nonpublic information furnished to such third party; and

(ii) Engage in negotiations with the third party with respect to the Acquisition Proposal, provided that concurrently with entering into negotiations with such third party, the Company gives Parent written notice of the Company's intention to enter into negotiations with such third party.

(d) Change of Recommendation. In response to the receipt of a Superior Offer, the Board of Directors of the Company may withhold, withdraw, amend or modify its unanimous recommendation in favor of the Merger, and, in the case of a Superior Offer that is a tender or exchange offer made directly to the shareholders of the Company, may recommend that the shareholders of the Company accept the tender or exchange offer (any of the foregoing actions, whether by the Board of Directors of the Company or a committee thereof, a Change of Recommendation), if all of the following conditions in clauses (i) through (vi) are met:

- (i) A Superior Offer with respect to the Company has been made and has not been withdrawn;
 - (ii) The Shareholders Meeting has not occurred;
 - (iii) The Company shall have (a) delivered to Parent written notice (a Change of Recommendation Notice) at least three (3) Business Days prior to publicly effecting such Change of Recommendation which shall state expressly (1) that the Company has received a Superior Offer, (2) the material terms and conditions of the Superior Offer and the identity of the Person or group making the Superior Offer, and (3) that the Company intends to effect a Change of Recommendation and the manner in which it intends to do so, (b) provided to Parent a copy of all written materials delivered to the Person or group making the Superior Offer in connection with such Superior Offer and a summary of all material oral conversations between the Company and such party regarding the Superior Offer, and (c) made available to Parent all materials and information made available to the Person or group making the Superior Offer in connection with such Superior Offer;
 - (iv) After delivering the Change of Recommendation Notice, the Company shall provide Parent with a reasonable opportunity to make such adjustments in the terms and conditions of this Agreement during such three (3) Business Day period, and negotiate in good faith with respect thereto during such three (3) Business Day period, as would enable the Company to proceed with its recommendation to shareholders in favor of approval and adoption of this Agreement and approval of the Merger without making a Change of Recommendation;
 - (v) The Board of Directors of the Company (by a vote of a majority of the independent members of the Board of Directors of the Company) has concluded in good faith, after receipt of advice of its outside legal counsel, that, in light of such Superior Offer and after considering any adjustments or negotiations pursuant to the preceding clause (iv), that a Change of Recommendation is necessary and required to comply with its fiduciary obligations to the shareholders of the Company under applicable law; and
 - (vi) The Company shall not have breached any of the provisions set forth in Section 6.2 or this Section 6.3.
- (e) Compliance with Tender Offer Rules. Nothing contained in this Agreement shall prohibit the Company or its Board of Directors from taking and disclosing to the shareholders of the Company a position contemplated by Rules 14d-9 and 14e-2(a) promulgated under the Exchange Act; provided that the content of any such disclosure thereunder shall be governed by the terms of this Agreement. Without limiting the foregoing proviso, the Company shall not effect a Change of Recommendation unless specifically permitted pursuant to the terms of Section 6.3(d).
- (f) Specific Performance. The parties hereto agree that irreparable damage would occur in the event that the provisions of this Section 6.3 were not performed in accordance with their specific terms or were otherwise breached. It is accordingly agreed by the parties hereto that Parent shall be entitled to an immediate injunction or injunctions, without the necessity of proving the inadequacy of money damages as a remedy and without the necessity of posting any bond or other security, to prevent breaches of the provisions of this Section 6.3 and to enforce specifically the terms and provisions hereof, this being in addition to any other remedy to which Parent may be entitled at law or in equity. Without limiting the foregoing, it is understood that any violation of the restrictions set forth above by any officer, director, agent, representative or affiliate of the Company shall be deemed to be a breach of this Agreement by the Company.

6.4 Confidentiality; Access to Information; No Modification of Representations, Warranties or Covenants

The Company agrees to provide to Parent and its accountants, counsel and other representatives copies of internal financial statements (including Returns and supporting documentation) promptly upon request.

(c) No Modification of Representations and Warranties or Covenants. No information or knowledge obtained in any investigation or notification pursuant to this Section 6.4, Section 6.6 or Section 6.7 or otherwise shall affect or be deemed to modify any representation or warranty contained herein, the covenants or agreements of the parties hereto or the conditions to the obligations of the parties hereto under this Agreement.

6.5 Public Disclosure

Without limiting any other provision of this Agreement, Parent and the Company will consult with each other before issuing, and provide each other the opportunity to review, comment upon and concur with, and use all reasonable efforts to agree on any press release or public statement with respect to this Agreement and the transactions contemplated hereby, including the Merger, and any Acquisition Proposal and will not issue any such press release or make any such public statement prior to such consultation and (to the extent practicable) agreement, except as may be required by law or any listing agreement with Nasdaq or any other applicable national or regional securities exchange or market. 10.3 Interpretation

When a reference is made in this Agreement to Exhibits, such reference shall be to an Exhibit to this Agreement unless otherwise indicated. When a reference is made in this Agreement to Sections, such reference shall be to a section of this Agreement unless otherwise indicated. For purposes of this Agreement, the words include, includes and including, when used herein, shall be deemed in each case to be followed by the words without limitation. The table of contents and headings contained in this Agreement are for reference purposes only and shall not affect in any way the meaning or interpretation of this Agreement.

When reference is made herein to the business of an entity, such reference shall be deemed to include the business of such entity and its Subsidiaries, taken as a whole.

10.4 Counterparts

This Agreement may be executed in two or more counterparts, all of which shall be considered one and the same agreement and shall become effective when one or more counterparts have been signed by each of the parties and delivered to the other party, it being understood that all parties need not sign the same counterpart.

10.5 Entire Agreement; Third-Party Beneficiaries

This Agreement and the documents and instruments and other agreements among the parties hereto as contemplated by or referred to herein, including the Company Disclosure Letter, the Voting Agreements, the other Exhibits hereto and the Confidentiality Agreement (i) constitute the entire agreement among the parties with respect to the subject matter hereof and supersede all prior agreements and understandings, both written and oral, among the parties with respect to the subject matter hereof, and (ii) are not intended to confer upon any other Person any rights or remedies hereunder, except as specifically provided, following the Effective Time, in Section 6.10.

10.6 Severability

In the event that any provision of this Agreement or the application thereof, becomes or is declared by a court of competent jurisdiction to be illegal, void or unenforceable, the remainder of this Agreement will continue in full force and effect and the application of such provision to other Persons or circumstances will be interpreted so as reasonably to effect the intent of the parties hereto. The parties further agree to replace such void or unenforceable provision of this Agreement with a valid and enforceable provision that will achieve, to the greatest extent possible, the economic, business and other purposes of such void or unenforceable provision.

10.7 Other Remedies

Except as otherwise provided herein, any and all remedies herein expressly conferred upon a party will be deemed cumulative with and not exclusive of any other remedy conferred hereby, or by law or equity upon such party, and the exercise by a party of any one remedy will not preclude the exercise of any other remedy. The parties hereto agree that irreparable damage would occur in the event that any of the provisions of this Agreement were not performed in accordance with their specific terms or were otherwise breached.

10.8 Governing Law

This Agreement shall be governed by and construed in accordance with the laws of the State of Washington, regardless of the laws that might otherwise govern under applicable principles of conflicts of law thereof, provided that the Merger of Merger Sub with and into the Company shall be effected in accordance with applicable provisions of California Law. Each of the parties hereto irrevocably consents to the exclusive jurisdiction and venue of the federal and state courts located in King County, Washington, in connection with any matter based upon or arising out of this Agreement or the matters contemplated herein, agrees that process may be served upon them in any manner authorized by the laws of the State of Washington for such persons and waives and covenants not to assert or plead any objection which they might otherwise have to such jurisdiction, venue and such process.

10.9 Rules of Construction

The parties hereto agree that they have been represented by counsel during the negotiation and execution of this Agreement and, therefore, waive the application of any law, regulation, holding or rule of construction providing that ambiguities in an agreement or other document will be construed against the party drafting such agreement or document.

10.10 Assignment

No party may assign either this Agreement or any of its rights, interests, or obligations hereunder without the prior written approval of the other parties, except that Parent may assign its rights and delegate its obligations hereunder to its affiliates as long as Parent remains ultimately liable for all of Parent's obligations hereunder. Any purported assignment in violation of this Section 10.10 shall be void. Subject to the preceding sentence, this Agreement shall be binding upon and shall inure to the benefit of the parties hereto and their respective successors and permitted assigns.

10.11 Compliance with California Corporate Law

Notwithstanding the provisions of Section 6.3(e) hereto, in the event (i) of a Change of Recommendation and (ii) a court of competent jurisdiction determines in a final judgment that, under such circumstance, submission by the Board of Directors of the Company of the Merger and this Agreement to the shareholders of the Company at the Shareholders' Meeting would violate California Law and constitute a breach of the fiduciary duties of the Board of Directors of the Company, then the Board of Directors of the Company shall not be obligated to submit the Merger and this Agreement to the shareholders of the Company pursuant to Section 6.2(a) and, subject to Section 8.3(b), each of the Company and Parent shall have the right to terminate this Agreement

RECITALS

Edgar Filing: CASTELLE \CA\ - Form DEFM14A

A. Parent, Merlot Acquisition Corporation, a California corporation and wholly-owned subsidiary of Parent (Merger Sub), and the Company have entered into an Agreement and Plan of Merger of even date herewith (the Merger Agreement), which provides for, among other things, the merger of Merger Sub with and into the Company (the Merger) pursuant to which all outstanding shares of capital stock of the Company will be converted into the right to receive the consideration set forth in the Merger Agreement.

B. The Shareholder is the beneficial owner (as defined in Rule 13d-3 under the Securities Exchange Act of 1934, as amended (the Exchange Act)) of such number of shares of the outstanding capital stock of the Company.

NOW, THEREFORE, intending to be legally bound, the parties hereto agree as follows:

1. Certain Definitions. All capitalized terms that are used but not defined herein shall have the respective meanings ascribed to them in the Merger Agreement. For all purposes of and under this Agreement, the following terms shall have the following respective meanings:

(a) Expiration Date shall mean the earlier to occur of (i) such date and time as the Merger Agreement shall have been terminated pursuant to Article VIII thereof, (ii) such date and time as the Merger shall become effective in accordance with the terms and provisions of the Merger Agreement, or (iii) one year from the date hereof.

(b) Person shall mean any individual, corporation, limited liability company, general or limited partnership, trust, unincorporated association or other entity of any kind or nature, or any governmental authority.

(d) Transfer A Person shall be deemed to have effected a Transfer of a Share if such person directly or indirectly (i) sells, pledges, encumbers, assigns, grants an option with respect to, transfers, tenders or disposes of such Share or any interest in such Share, or (ii) enters into an agreement or commitment providing for the sale of, pledge of, encumbrance of, assignment of, grant of an option with respect to, transfer, tender of or disposition of such Share or any interest therein.

2. Transfer of Shares.

(a) Transfer Restrictions. The Shareholder shall not cause or permit any Transfer of any of the Shares to be effected or enter into any agreement relating thereto, except as follows: (i) using already-owned Shares either to pay the exercise price upon exercise of a stock option or to satisfy the option holder's tax withholding obligation upon exercise of a stock option, in each case, as permitted by any Company Stock Option Plan, or (ii) transferring the shares to affiliates, immediate family members or charitable organizations, provided that the recipient agrees to be bound by this Agreement and the Proxy.

(b) Transfer of Voting Rights. The Shareholder shall not deposit (or permit the deposit of) any Shares in a voting trust or grant any proxy or enter into any voting agreement or similar agreement in contravention of the obligations of the Shareholder under this Agreement with respect to any of the Shares.

3. Agreement to Vote Shares.

(a) At every meeting of the shareholders of the Company called, and at every adjournment or postponement thereof, and on every action or approval by written consent of the shareholders of Company, the Shareholder (in the Shareholder's capacity as such), to the extent not voted by the Person(s) appointed under the Proxy (as defined below), shall, or shall cause the holder of record on any applicable record date to, vote the Shares:

- (i) in favor of the adoption of the Merger Agreement, and in favor of each of the other actions contemplated by the Merger Agreement and any action required in furtherance thereof; interfere with, delay, postpone, discourage or adversely affect the Merger or any other transactions contemplated by the Merger Agreement.

(b) In the event that a meeting of the shareholders of the Company is held, the Shareholder shall, or shall cause the holder of record on any applicable record date to, appear at such meeting or otherwise cause the Shares to be counted as present thereat for purposes of establishing a quorum.

(c) The Shareholder shall not enter into any agreement or understanding with any Person to vote or give instructions in any manner inconsistent with the terms of this Section 3.

(d) Notwithstanding the foregoing, the Shareholder shall not be liable for any failure to take, or to cause any person to take, any of the actions that the Shareholder is required to take under (a) and (b) above, if any such action may be taken by the person(s) appointed by the Proxy.

4. Agreement Not to Exercise Dissenters' Rights. The Shareholder shall not exercise any rights to demand appraisal of any Shares (including any dissenters' rights under Chapter 13 of California Law) that may arise with respect to the Merger.

5. Directors and Officers. Notwithstanding any provision of this Agreement to the contrary, nothing in this Agreement shall (or require the Shareholder to attempt to) limit or restrict a Shareholder who is a director or officer of the Company from acting in such capacity or voting, in his capacity as a director of the Company, in the Shareholder's sole discretion on any matter (it being understood that this Agreement shall apply to the Shareholder solely in the Shareholder's capacity as a shareholder of the Company). In this regard, the Shareholder shall not be deemed to make any agreement or understanding in this Agreement in Shareholder's capacity as a director or officer of the Company.

6. Irrevocable Proxy. Concurrently with the execution of this Agreement, the Shareholder shall deliver to Parent a proxy in the form attached hereto as Exhibit A (the Proxy), which shall be irrevocable to the fullest extent permissible by law, with respect to the Shares.

7. Representations and Warranties of the Shareholder.

(a) Power; Binding Agreement. The Shareholder has full power and authority to execute and deliver this Agreement and the Proxy, to perform the Shareholder's obligations hereunder and to consummate the transactions contemplated hereby. This Agreement has been duly executed and delivered by the Shareholder, and, assuming this Agreement constitutes a valid and binding obligation of Parent, constitutes a valid and binding obligation of the Shareholder, enforceable against the Shareholder in accordance with its terms.

(b) No Conflicts. None of the execution and delivery by the Shareholder of this Agreement, the performance by the Shareholder of its obligations hereunder or the consummation by the Shareholder of the transactions contemplated hereby will (i) result in a violation or breach of any agreement to which the Shareholder is a party or by which the Shareholder may be bound, including any voting agreement or voting trust, or (ii) violate any order, writ, injunction, decree, judgment, order, statute, rule, or regulation applicable to the Shareholder.

(c) Ownership of Shares. The Shareholder (i) is the beneficial owner of the shares of Company Common Stock indicated on the signature page of this Agreement, all of which are free and clear of any liens, adverse claims, charges, security interests, pledges or options, proxies, voting trusts or agreements, understandings or agreements, or any other rights or encumbrances whatsoever (Encumbrances) (except any Encumbrances arising under securities laws or arising hereunder), (ii) is the owner of options that are exercisable for the number of shares of Company Common Stock indicated on the signature page of this Agreement, all of which options and shares of Company Common Stock issuable upon the exercise of such options are, or in the case of Company Common Stock received upon exercise of an option after the date hereof will be, free and clear of any Encumbrances (except any Encumbrances arising under securities laws or arising hereunder), and (iii) except as set forth on the signature page to this Agreement, does not own, beneficially or otherwise, any securities of the Company other than the shares of Company Common Stock or options to purchase shares of Company Common Stock, and shares of Company Common Stock issuable upon the exercise of such options, indicated on the signature page of this Agreement.

(e) No Finder's Fees. No broker, investment banker, financial advisor or other person is entitled to any broker's, finder's, financial adviser's or other similar fee or commission in connection with this Agreement based upon arrangements made by or on behalf of the Shareholder.

(f) Reliance by Parent. The Shareholder understands and acknowledges that Parent is entering into the Merger Agreement in reliance upon the Shareholder's execution and delivery of this Agreement.

(g) No Legal Actions. Shareholder agrees that Shareholder will not in Shareholder's capacity as a shareholder of the Company bring, commence, institute, maintain, prosecute or voluntarily aid any action, claim, suit or cause of action, in law or in equity, in any court or before any governmental entity, which (i) challenges the validity of or seeks to enjoin the operation of any provision of this Agreement or (ii) alleges that the execution and delivery of this Agreement by Shareholder, either alone or together with the other Company voting agreements and proxies to be delivered in connection with the execution of the Merger Agreement, or the approval of the Merger Agreement by the board of directors of the Company, breaches any fiduciary duty of the board of directors of the Company or any member thereof.

8. Certain Restrictions. The Shareholder shall not, directly or indirectly, take any action that would make any representation or warranty of the Shareholder contained herein untrue or incorrect.

9. Disclosure. The Shareholder shall permit Parent to publish and disclose in all documents and schedules filed with the Securities and Exchange Commission, and any press release or other disclosure document that Parent determines to be necessary or desirable in connection with the Merger and any transactions related to the Merger, the Shareholder's identity and ownership of Shares and the nature of the Shareholder's commitments, arrangements and understandings under this Agreement.

10. No Ownership Interest. Nothing contained in this Agreement shall be deemed to vest in Parent any direct or indirect ownership or incidence of ownership of or with respect to any Shares. Except as provided in this Agreement, all rights, ownership and economic benefits relating to the Shares shall remain vested in and belong to Shareholder.

11. Further Assurances. Subject to the terms and conditions of this Agreement, the Shareholder shall use commercially reasonable efforts to take, or cause to be taken, all actions, and to do, or cause to be done, all things necessary to fulfill such Shareholder's obligations under this Agreement.

12. Stop Transfer Instructions. At all times commencing with the execution and delivery of this Agreement and continuing until the Expiration Date, the Company shall not register the Transfer (by book-entry or otherwise) of any certificate or uncertificated interest representing any of the Shares unless such Transfer is made pursuant to and in compliance with the terms and conditions of this Agreement.

13. Termination. This Agreement and the Proxy shall terminate and shall have no further force or effect as of the Expiration Date. Notwithstanding the foregoing, nothing set forth in this Section 13 or elsewhere in this Agreement shall relieve either party hereto from liability, or otherwise limit the liability of either party hereto, for any intentional breach of this Agreement.

14. Miscellaneous.

(a) Validity. The invalidity or unenforceability of any provision of this Agreement shall not affect the validity or enforceability of the other provisions of this Agreement, which will remain in full force and effect. In the event any Governmental Entity of competent jurisdiction holds any provision of this Agreement to be null, void or unenforceable, the parties hereto shall negotiate in good faith and execute and deliver an amendment to this Agreement in order, as nearly as possible, to effectuate, to the extent permitted by law, the intent of the parties hereto with respect to such provision.

(b) Binding Effect and Assignment. This Agreement and all of the provisions hereof shall be binding upon and inure to the benefit of the parties hereto and their respective successors and permitted assigns, but neither this Agreement nor any of the rights, interests or obligations of the parties hereto may be assigned by either of the parties without prior written consent of the other.

(c) Amendments; Waiver. This Agreement may be amended by the parties hereto, and the terms and conditions hereof may be waived, only by an instrument in writing signed on behalf of each of the parties hereto, or, in the case of a waiver, by an instrument signed on behalf of the party waiving compliance.

(d) Specific Performance; Injunctive Relief. The parties hereto acknowledge that Parent shall be irreparably harmed and that there shall be no adequate remedy at law for a violation of any of the covenants or agreements of the Shareholder set forth herein. Therefore, it is agreed that, in addition to any other remedies that may be available to Parent upon any such violation, Parent shall have the right to enforce such covenants and agreements by specific performance, injunctive relief or by any other means available to Parent at law or in equity.

The Agreement and Plan of Merger as of April 24, 2007 (the "Agreement"), by and among the Company, Captaris Acquisition Corporation and Captaris, sets forth the principal terms of the Transaction. Except as defined herein, each capitalized term has the meaning set forth in the Agreement. The Agreement provides, among other things, that the stockholders of the Company will receive $3.95 in cash for each share of common stock, less the Working Capital/Cash Adjustment, plus the Cash Surplus.

In connection with our opinion, we have:

- (a) considered the Agreement;
- (b) considered certain financial and other information relating to the Company that was publicly available or furnished to us by the Company, including financial frecasts for 2007;
- (c) met with members of the Company's management to discuss the business, operations, historical financial results and future prospects of the Company;
- (d) considered certain financial and securities data of the Company and compared that data with similar data for other publicly-held companies in businesses similar to those of the Company;
- (e) considered the financial terms of certain recent acquisitions of companies in businesses similar to those of the Company;
- (f) considered the Company's 2007 projections, but did not perform a discounted cash flow analysis due to the lack of forecasts beyond 2007; and
- (g) considered such other information, financial studies, analyses and investigations and financial, economic and market criteria as we deemed relevant and appropriate for purposes of this opinion.

The opinion expressed below is subject to the following qualifications and limitations:

- (i) In arriving at our opinion, we have relied upon and assumed, without independent verification, the accuracy and completeness of all financial and other information that was publicly available or furnished to us by the Company. With respect to the financial forecasts used by us, we have assumed that they have been reasonably prepared on bases reflecting the best currently available estimates and judgments of the Company's management as to the future financial performance of the Company.

Fairness Opinion Letter to Castelle Board of Directors

As of April 24, 2007

- (ii) Our opinion does not address, and should not be construed to address, either the underlying business decision to effect the Transaction or whether the consideration to be received in the Transaction represents the highest price obtainable. We express no view as to the federal, state or local tax consequences of the Transaction.
- (iii) We have not made an independent evaluation or appraisal of the assets of the Company nor have we been furnished with any such appraisals. We have not been requested to, and did not, solicit third party indications of interest in acquiring all or any part of the Company and no opinion is expressed whether an alternative transaction might produce proceeds to the stockholders of the Company in excess of the Merger Consideration to be received in the Transaction.
- (iv) Our opinion does not constitute a view regarding the solvency of the Company or Acquiror prior to or subsequent to the Transaction. Venturi & Company has performed no procedures to determine the solvency of the Company or Acquiror. As such, this opinion does not constitute a solvency opinion, and should not be relied upon for such purposes.
- (v) Our opinion is based on business, economic, market and other conditions as they exist as of the date hereof or as of the date of the information provided to us.
- (vi) This opinion is effective as of the date hereof. We have no obligation to update the opinion unless requested by you in writing to do so and expressly disclaim any responsibility to do so in the absence of any such request.

Based upon and subject to the foregoing, it is our opinion that as of the date hereof, the cash consideration to be received by the stockholders of the Company pursuant to the Transaction is fair to such stockholders, other than Acquiror, from a financial point of view.

We will receive a fee as compensation for our services in rendering this opinion. In addition, the Company has agreed to indemnify us for certain liabilities that may arise out of the rendering of this opinion. We have previously provided financial advisory services to the Company, but did not act as the Company's financial advisor with respect to this Transaction, other than as relates to the provision of this opinion.

This opinion is furnished solely for the benefit of the Company and may not be relied upon by any other person without our express, prior written consent. This opinion is delivered subject to the conditions, scope of engagement, limitations and understandings set forth in this opinion and our engagement letter, and subject to the understanding that the obligations of Venturi & Company in the Transaction are solely corporate obligations, and no officer, director, employee, agent, shareholder or controlling person of Venturi & Company shall be subjected to any personal liability whatsoever to any person, nor will any such claim be asserted by or on behalf of you or your affiliates.

Annex D

Chapter 13 of the California Law

CHAPTER 13. DISSENTERS' RIGHTS

§ 1300. Right to Require Purchase Dissenting Shares and Dissenting Shareholder Defined.

(a) If the approval of the outstanding shares (Section 152) of a corporation is required for a reorganization under subdivisions (a) and (b) or subdivision (e) or (f) of Section 1201, each shareholder of the corporation entitled to vote on the transaction and each shareholder of a subsidiary corporation in a short-form merger may, by complying with this chapter, require the corporation in which the shareholder holds shares to purchase for cash at their fair market value the shares owned by the shareholder which are dissenting shares as defined in subdivision (b). The fair market value shall be determined as of the day before the first announcement of the terms of the proposed reorganization or short-form merger, excluding any appreciation or depreciation in consequence of the proposed action, but adjusted for any stock split, reverse stock split, or share dividend which becomes effective thereafter.

(b) As used in this chapter, dissenting shares means shares which come within all of the following descriptions:

(1) Which were not immediately prior to the reorganization or short-form merger either (A) listed on any national securities exchange certified by the Commissioner of Corporations under subdivision (o) of Section 25100 or (B) listed on the National Market System of the Nasdaq Stock Market, and the notice of meeting of shareholders to act upon the reorganization summarizes this section and Sections 1301, 1302, 1303 and 1304; provided, however, that this provision does not apply to any shares with respect to which there exists any restriction on transfer imposed by the corporation or by any law or regulation; and provided, further, that this provision does not apply to any class of shares described in subparagraph (A) or (B) if demands for payment are filed with respect to 5 percent or more of the outstanding shares of that class.

(2) Which were outstanding on the date for the determination of shareholders entitled to vote on the reorganization and (A) were not voted in favor of the reorganization or, (B) if described in subparagraph (A) or (B) of paragraph (1) (without regard to the provisos in that paragraph), were voted against the reorganization, or which were held of record on the effective date of a short-form merger; provided, however, that subparagraph (A) rather than subparagraph (B) of this paragraph applies in any case where the approval required by Section 1201 is sought by written consent rather than at a meeting.

(3) Which the dissenting shareholder has demanded that the corporation purchase at their fair market value, in accordance with Section 1301.

(4) Which the dissenting shareholder has submitted for endorsement, in accordance with Section 1302.

(c) As used in this chapter, dissenting shareholder means the record holder of dissenting shares and includes a transferee of record.

§ 1301. Demand for Purchase.

(a) If, in the case of a reorganization, any shareholders of a corporation have a right under Section 1300, subject to compliance with paragraphs (3) and (4) of subdivision (b) thereof, to require the corporation to purchase their shares for cash, such corporation shall mail to each such shareholder a notice of the approval of the reorganization by its outstanding shares (Section 152) within 10 days after the date of such approval, accompanied by a copy of Sections 1300, 1302, 1303, 1304 and this section, a statement of the price determined by the corporation to represent the fair market value of the dissenting shares, and a brief description of the procedure to be followed if the shareholder desires to exercise the shareholder's right under such sections. The statement of price constitutes an offer by the corporation to purchase at the price stated any dissenting shares as defined in subdivision (b) of Section 1300, unless they lose their status as dissenting shares under Section 1309.

(b) Any shareholder who has a right to require the corporation to purchase the shareholder's shares for cash under Section 1300, subject to compliance with paragraphs (3) and (4) of subdivision (b) thereof, and who desires the corporation to purchase such shares shall make written demand upon the corporation for the purchase of such shares and payment to the shareholder in cash of their fair market value. The demand is not effective for any purpose unless it is received by the corporation or any transfer agent thereof (1) in the case of shares described in clause (i) or (ii) of paragraph (1) of subdivision (b) of Section 1300 (without regard to the provisos in that paragraph), not later than the date of the shareholders' meeting to vote upon the reorganization, or (2) in any other case within 30 days after the date on which the notice of the approval by the outstanding shares pursuant to subdivision (a) or the notice pursuant to subdivision (i) of Section 1110 was mailed to the shareholder.

(c) The demand shall state the number and class of the shares held of record by the shareholder which the shareholder demands that the corporation purchase and shall contain a statement of what such shareholder claims to be the fair market value of those shares as of the day before the announcement of the proposed reorganization or short-form merger. The statement of fair market value constitutes an offer by the shareholder to sell the shares at such price.

§ 1302. Endorsement of Shares.

Within 30 days after the date on which notice of the approval by the outstanding shares or the notice pursuant to subdivision (i) of Section 1110 was mailed to the shareholder, the shareholder shall submit to the corporation at its principal office or at the office of any transfer agent thereof, (a) if the shares are certificated securities, the shareholder's certificates representing any shares which the shareholder demands that the corporation purchase, to be stamped or endorsed with a statement that the shares are dissenting shares or to be exchanged for certificates of appropriate denomination so stamped or endorsed or (b) if the shares are uncertificated securities, written notice of the number of shares which the shareholder demands that the corporation purchase. Upon subsequent transfers of the dissenting shares on the books of the corporation, the new certificates, initial transaction statement, and other written statements issued therefor shall bear a like statement, together with the name of the original dissenting holder of the shares.

§ 1303. Agreed Price Time for Payment.

(a) If the corporation and the shareholder agree that the shares are dissenting shares and agree upon the price of the shares, the dissenting shareholder is entitled to the agreed price with interest thereon at the legal rate on judgments from the date of the agreement. Any agreements fixing the fair market value of any dissenting shares as between the corporation and the holders thereof shall be filed with the secretary of the corporation.

(b) Subject to the provisions of Section 1306, payment of the fair market value of dissenting shares shall be made within 30 days after the amount thereof has been agreed or within 30 days after any statutory or contractual conditions to the reorganization are satisfied, whichever is later, and in the case of certificated securities, subject to surrender of the certificates therefor, unless provided otherwise by agreement.

§ 1304. Dissenters Action to Enforce Payment.

(a) If the corporation denies that the shares are dissenting shares, or the corporation and the shareholder fail to agree upon the fair market value of the shares, then the shareholder demanding purchase of such shares as dissenting shares or any interested corporation, within six months after the date on which notice of the approval by the outstanding shares (Section 152) or notice pursuant to subdivision (i) of Section 1110 was mailed to the shareholder, but not thereafter, may file a complaint in the superior court of the proper county praying the court to determine whether the shares are dissenting shares or the fair market value of the dissenting shares or both or may intervene in any action pending on such a complaint.

(b) Two or more dissenting shareholders may join as plaintiffs or be joined as defendants in any such action and two or more such actions may be consolidated.

(c) On the trial of the action, the court shall determine the issues. If the status of the shares as dissenting shares is in issue, the court shall first determine that issue. If the fair market value of the dissenting shares is in issue, the court shall determine, or shall appoint one or more impartial appraisers to determine, the fair market value of the shares.
