No. 1 Regulatory News Service Announcement, dated 12th December, 2008
re: Lloyds TSB Group Plc - Announcement

114/08 12 December 2008

LLOYDS TSB COMMENTS ON THE FINANCIAL IMPLICATIONS OF RECENT CHANGES TO ITS PERSONAL LOAN PAYMENT PROTECTION INSURANCE, THE FINANCIAL SERVICES COMPENSATION SCHEME REQUIREMENTS AND TODAY'S TRADING UPDATE FROM HBOS

Lloyds TSB has today announced that it will be launching a monthly premium, payment protection insurance (PPI) product for personal loan customers in January 2009 to replace its existing single premium policy. The transition to this new product is expected to reduce Lloyds TSB's income by around £300 million over the next twelve months, largely as a result of a change in the timing of income recognition. The financial impact of this timing of income recognition in future years remains uncertain but the Group currently expects ongoing monthly product revenues to materially offset the reduction in annual income generation over a three year period.

In addition, the recent arrangements put in place to protect the depositors of Bradford & Bingley and other failed deposit-taking institutions involving the Financial Services Compensation Scheme ('FSCS') will result in a significant increase in the levies made by the FSCS on the industry. Lloyds TSB anticipates making a provision of approximately £120 million in its 2008 accounts in respect of its current obligation for the estimated interest cost on the FSCS borrowings. Going forward further provisions in respect of these costs are likely to be necessary until the borrowings are repaid. The ultimate cost to the industry, which will also include the cost of any compensation payments made by the FSCS and if necessary the cost of meeting any shortfall after recoveries on the borrowings entered into by the FSCS, remains uncertain although it may be significant.

The Group has also written off the total value of its investment in Bradford & Bingley, acquired as part of the sub-underwriting of the Bradford & Bingley rights issue earlier in the year, amounting to approximately £30 million.

HBOS Trading Update

HBOS has today issued a trading update in anticipation of the launch of its proposed placing and open offer and in advance of the HBOS meetings being held today at the NEC Birmingham, to approve its placing and open offer and acquisition of HBOS plc by Lloyds TSB.

The trading update from HBOS is broadly consistent with the impairment analysis conducted by Lloyds TSB as part of its review process in October 2008. Whilst the fair value adjustments can only be finalised after the completion of the acquisition and in accordance with market conditions at that time, the additional impairment losses being incurred by HBOS are not currently expected to have a significant impact upon the size of the net negative capital adjustments the Group is likely to make upon acquisition.

Under the provisions of Rule 8.3 of the City Code, if any person is, or becomes, "interested" (directly or indirectly) in one per cent. or more of any class of "relevant securities" of Lloyds TSB or HBOS, all "dealings" in any "relevant securities" of that company (including by means of an option in respect of, or a derivative referenced to, any such "relevant securities") must be publicly disclosed by no later than 3.30 p.m. on the London business day following the date of the relevant transaction. This requirement will continue until the Effective Date, or on which the "offer period" for the purposes of the City Code otherwise ends. "Interests in securities" arise, in summary, when a person has long economic exposure, whether conditional or absolute, to changes in the price of securities. In particular, a person will be treated as having an "interest" by virtue of the ownership or control of securities, or by virtue of any option in respect of, or derivative referenced to, securities.

Terms in quotation marks are defined in the Code, which can also be found on the Panel's website. If you are in any doubt as to whether or not you are required to disclose a "dealing" under Rule 8, you should consult the Panel.
