The Proposal

The special meeting of our stockholders will be held at • a.m. Eastern time, on •, 2006 at •. At the special meeting, you will be asked, by proxy or in person, to approve the merger, the merger agreement and the other transactions contemplated by the merger agreement.

The persons named in the accompanying proxy will also have discretionary authority to vote upon other business, if any, that properly comes before the special meeting and any adjournments or postponements of the special meeting, including any adjournments or postponements for the purpose of soliciting additional proxies to approve the merger, the merger agreement and the other transactions contemplated by the merger agreement.

Record Date, Notice and Quorum

All holders of record of our common stock and our Series E preferred stock as of the close of business on the record date, which was •, 2006, are entitled to receive notice of and attend the special meeting or any postponements or adjournments of the special meeting. However, only holders of our common stock at the close of business on the record date are entitled to vote at the special meeting or any postponements or adjournments of the special meeting.

You will have one vote for each share of our common stock that you owned as of the record date. On the record date, there were • shares of our common stock outstanding and entitled to vote at the special meeting.

The holders of a majority of the shares of our common stock that were outstanding on the record date, represented in person or by proxy, will constitute a quorum for purposes of the special meeting.

Required Vote

Completion of the merger requires approval of the merger, the merger agreement and the other transactions contemplated by the merger agreement by the affirmative vote of the holders of at least two-thirds of the outstanding shares of our common stock entitled to vote at the special meeting. Because the required vote is based on the number of shares of our common stock outstanding rather than on the number of votes cast, failure to vote your shares of our common stock (including as a result of broker non-votes) and abstentions will have the same effect as voting against approval of the merger, the merger agreement and the other transactions contemplated by the merger agreement. The vote of our Series E preferred stockholders is not required to approve the merger or the merger agreement and is not being solicited.

As of the record date, our executive officers and directors owned an aggregate of approximately • shares of our common stock, entitling them to exercise approximately •% of the voting power of our common stock entitled to vote at the special meeting. Our executive officers and directors have informed us that they intend to vote the shares of our common stock that they own in favor of approval of the merger, the merger agreement and the other transactions contemplated by the merger agreement.

Proxies; Revocation

Any of our common stockholders of record entitled to vote may vote by returning the enclosed proxy, submitting your proxy or voting instructions by telephone or Internet, or by appearing and voting at the special meeting in person. If the shares of our common stock that you own are held in street name by your broker, you should instruct your broker on how to vote your shares using the instructions provided by your broker.

Table of Contents

Any proxy may be revoked at any time prior to its exercise by your delivery of a properly executed, later-dated proxy card, by your submitting your proxy or voting instructions by telephone or Internet at a later date than your previously submitted proxy, by your filing a written revocation of your proxy with our Corporate Secretary or by your voting in person at the special meeting.

The Mergers and Related Transactions (page 24)

Pursuant to the merger agreement, on the closing date, (1) CRH LP Merger Partnership will be merged with and into CRH LP with CRH LP continuing as the surviving limited partnership, and (2) CAR LP Merger Partnership will be merged with and into CAR LP with CAR LP continuing as the surviving limited partnership. Each partnership merger will be effective under all applicable laws upon the filing of the certificate of merger in respect of such partnership merger with the Secretary of State of the State of Delaware or at such later time which the parties shall have agreed upon and designated in such filings in accordance with the Delaware Revised Uniform Limited Partnership Act. The effective times of the CRH LP partnership merger and the CAR LP partnership merger will occur substantially concurrently, and, unless the context otherwise requires, the earlier of the two effective times is referred to as the effective time of the partnership mergers.

Immediately after the effective time of the later of the partnership mergers, we will be merged with and into MergerCo with MergerCo continuing as the surviving corporation. We sometimes use the term surviving corporation in this proxy statement to refer to MergerCo as the surviving corporation following the merger. In the merger, each share of our common stock issued and outstanding immediately prior to the effective time of the merger (other than shares held by us or our subsidiaries or MergerCo, which will be automatically canceled and retired and cease to exist with no payment being made with respect thereto) will be converted into the right to receive $44.75 in cash, without interest and less any applicable withholding taxes. We refer to this consideration to be received by our common stockholders in the merger as the common stock merger consideration. In addition, in connection with the merger, each share of our Series E preferred stock issued and outstanding immediately prior to the effective time of the merger, other than shares of our Series E preferred stock held by our subsidiaries or MergerCo, will be converted automatically into the right to receive one share of Series E preferred stock of the surviving corporation on substantially the same terms as our Series E preferred stock.

The merger of CarrAmerica and MergerCo will become effective under all applicable laws at such time as the articles of merger are accepted for record by the State Department of Assessments and Taxation of Maryland, or such later time that the parties to the merger agreement may specify in such documents (which will not exceed 30 days after the articles of merger are accepted for record), but in any event, after the later to occur of the CRH LP partnership merger or the CAR LP partnership merger. We sometimes use the term merger effective time in this proxy statement to describe the time the merger becomes effective under all applicable laws. As promptly as practicable following the merger effective time, the surviving corporation will be liquidated into Nantucket Parent. In the liquidation, the shares of the surviving corporation's Series E preferred stock will be canceled and holders of the surviving corporation's Series E preferred stock will receive a cash distribution from the surviving corporation in accordance with the terms of the articles supplementary classifying the surviving corporation's Series E preferred stock, which will be $25.00 per share plus any accrued and unpaid dividends.

Recommendation of Our Board of Directors (page 36)

determined that it was advisable and in our and our common stockholders' best interests for us to enter into the merger agreement and consummate the merger and the other transactions contemplated by the merger agreement;

determined separately, on behalf of CarrAmerica, in its capacity as the sole general partner of our operating partnership, that it was advisable and in the best interest of our operating partnership for our operating partnership to enter into the merger agreement and to consummate the transactions contemplated by the merger agreement;

determined separately, on behalf of CarrAmerica, in its capacity as the general partner of our operating partnership, as the sole general partner of CRH LP, that it was advisable and in the best interests of CRH LP and its limited partners for CRH LP to enter into the merger agreement and to consummate the CRH LP partnership merger;

determined separately, on behalf of CarrAmerica, in its capacity as the general partner of our operating partnership, as the sole member of the CAR LP general partner, as the sole general partner of CAR LP, that it was advisable and in the best interests of CAR LP and its limited partners for CAR LP to enter into the merger agreement and to consummate the CAR LP partnership merger;

approved the merger, the merger agreement and the other transactions contemplated by the merger agreement and directed that they be submitted to our common stockholders for approval at a special meeting of stockholders; and recommended that you vote FOR the approval of the merger, the merger agreement and the other transactions contemplated by the merger agreement.

Opinion of Our Financial Advisor (page 36)

On March 5, 2006, Goldman, Sachs & Co., or Goldman Sachs, delivered its oral opinion, which was subsequently confirmed in writing, to our board of directors that, as of March 5, 2006 and based upon and subject to the factors and assumptions set forth therein, the $44.75 per share of our common stock, in cash, to be received by our common stockholders pursuant to the merger agreement was fair from a financial point of view to such holders.

The full text of the written opinion of Goldman Sachs, dated March 5, 2006, which sets forth assumptions made, procedures followed, matters considered and limitations on the review undertaken in connection with the opinion, is attached as Exhibit B to this proxy statement. Goldman Sachs provided its opinion for the information and assistance of our board of directors in connection with its consideration of the merger. Goldman Sachs' opinion is not a recommendation as to how any holder of our common stock should vote with respect to the merger. Pursuant to our engagement with Goldman Sachs, we have agreed to pay Goldman Sachs a transaction fee equal to 0.40% of the aggregate merger consideration (as determined pursuant to the letter agreement, dated January 13, 2006, between us and Goldman Sachs), all of which is payable upon consummation of the transactions contemplated by the merger agreement.

We and our operating partnership have agreed to use our commercially reasonable efforts to commence offers to purchase and related consent solicitations relating to all of the aggregate principal amount of the following notes that our operating partnership has outstanding, on the terms and subject to the conditions set forth in the related tender offer documentation that will be distributed to the holders of such notes:

7.375% senior notes due 2007;

5.261% senior notes due 2007;

5.25% senior notes due 2007;

6.875% senior notes due 2008;

3.625% senior notes due 2009;

5.500% senior notes due 2010;

5.125% senior notes due 2011; and

7.125% senior notes due 2012.

Table of Contents

We refer to these outstanding notes collectively as the senior notes. In connection with the offers to purchase the senior notes, our operating partnership will seek the consents of the holders of the senior notes to amend the indentures governing the senior notes to eliminate substantially all of the restrictive covenants contained in such senior notes and the indentures, eliminate certain events of default, modify covenants regarding mergers, and modify or eliminate certain other provisions contained in the indentures and the senior notes. Assuming the requisite consents are received from the holders of the senior notes to amend the indentures and the senior notes, the amendments will become operative concurrently with the merger effective time, so long as all validly tendered notes are accepted for purchase pursuant to the offers to purchase upon the completion of the mergers, whereupon the amendments will apply to all such senior notes remaining outstanding following completion of the applicable offers to purchase. The proposed terms of the amended senior notes and indentures will be described in the tender offer documents. Assuming that all of the conditions to the tender offers and consent solicitations are satisfied or waived, concurrently with the merger effective time, senior notes validly tendered in the tender offers will be accepted for payment. In the event the requisite consents have not been validly delivered (without having been properly withdrawn) with respect to any series of senior notes, we and our operating partnership may issue an irrevocable notice of optional redemption for all of the then outstanding senior notes of such series in accordance with the terms of the applicable indenture governing such series, which would provide for the satisfaction and discharge of such senior notes and such indenture.

Financing (page 41)

In connection with the mergers, Nantucket Parent will cause approximately $2.9 billion to be paid to our stockholders, the limited partners of CAR LP and CRH LP (assuming none of the limited partners of CAR LP or CRH LP elects to receive class A preferred units in CAR LP or CRH LP, as applicable, in lieu of cash consideration) and holders of stock options, restricted stock, restricted stock units, stock value units and accrued and unvested cash dividend equivalent payments accumulated under, and payable in connection with, vesting of restricted stock units and deferred stock units, which we refer to as dividend equivalent payments. Nantucket Parent will also cause approximately $201 million to be paid to the holders of our Series E preferred stock in connection with the liquidation of the surviving corporation into Nantucket Parent after the merger. In addition, our operating partnership will commence tender offers to purchase all of its outstanding senior notes. As of March 31, 2006, our operating partnership had $1.525 billion of senior notes outstanding. Our revolving credit facility will also be repaid and our mortgage loan agreements, secured debt and letters of credit will be repaid or remain outstanding. As of March 31, 2006, we had an aggregate of approximately $431 million of outstanding indebtedness under our revolving credit facility, mortgage loan agreements, secured debt and letters of credit.

It is expected that in connection with the mergers, affiliates of The Blackstone Group will contribute up to approximately $900 million of equity to Nantucket Parent (plus additional equity contributions as necessary to the extent the limited partners of CAR LP or CRH LP receive cash consideration rather than electing to receive class A preferred units in CAR LP or CRH LP, as applicable, in the partnership mergers). In addition, in connection with the execution and delivery of the merger agreement, Nantucket Parent obtained a debt commitment letter from Deutsche Bank Securities Inc.'s affiliate German American Capital Corporation, Bank of America, N.A. and Citigroup Global Markets, Inc., providing for debt financing in an aggregate principal amount of up to the lesser of (a) $4,245,461,000 and (b) 80% of the total consideration payable by Nantucket Parent for the completion of the mergers and other costs, such as transaction costs relating to the mergers.

The merger agreement does not contain a financing condition or a market MAC condition to the closing of the merger. Nantucket Parent has agreed to use its reasonable best efforts to arrange the debt financing on the terms and conditions described in the debt commitment letter.

Treatment of Series E Preferred Stock (page 54)

The merger agreement provides that, upon completion of the merger, each share of our Series E preferred stock issued and outstanding immediately prior to the merger effective time (other than shares of our Series E preferred stock held by our subsidiaries or MergerCo, which will be automatically canceled and retired and cease to exist) will be automatically converted into, and will be canceled in exchange for, the right to receive one share of 7.50% Series E cumulative redeemable preferred stock, par value $0.01 per share, of the surviving corporation. Pursuant to the terms of the merger agreement, as promptly as practicable after the merger effective time, the surviving corporation will be liquidated into Nantucket Parent. In the liquidation, the shares of the surviving corporation's Series E preferred stock will be canceled and holders of the surviving corporation's Series E preferred stock will receive a cash distribution from the surviving corporation in accordance with the terms of the articles supplementary classifying the surviving corporation's Series E preferred stock, which will be $25.00 per share plus any accrued and unpaid dividends. While holders of our Series E preferred stock are entitled to receive notice of and attend the special meeting or any postponements or adjournments of the special meeting, they are not entitled to vote upon the merger, the merger agreement or any of the other transactions contemplated by the merger agreement at the special meeting.

Treatment of Stock Options, Restricted Stock, Restricted Stock Units, Deferred Stock Units, Stock Value Units and Dividend Equivalent Payments (page 54)

The merger agreement provides that immediately prior to the merger effective time, all of our outstanding stock options, restricted stock awards, restricted stock unit awards, deferred stock unit awards, stock value units, and dividend equivalent payments, whether or not exercisable or vested, as the case may be, will become fully vested and exercisable or payable, as the case may be, and, in the case of the restricted stock awards, restricted stock unit awards, deferred stock unit awards and stock value units, free of any forfeiture restrictions. Immediately prior to the merger effective time, all outstanding shares of restricted stock, restricted stock units and deferred stock units will be considered outstanding shares of our common stock for the purposes of the merger agreement, including the right to receive the common stock merger consideration.

In connection with the merger:

all unexercised stock options held immediately prior to the merger will be canceled in exchange for payment to the holder of each such stock option of an amount in cash, less applicable withholding taxes, equal to the product of:

the aggregate number of shares of our common stock underlying such stock option immediately prior to the merger effective time, multiplied by;

the excess, if any, of $44.75 over the exercise price per share of our common stock subject to such stock option;

the holder of each restricted stock award will receive an amount in cash, less applicable withholding taxes, equal to the product of:

the aggregate number of shares of our common stock underlying such restricted stock award immediately prior to the merger effective time, multiplied by;

the holder of each restricted stock unit award and deferred stock unit award will receive an amount in cash, less applicable withholding taxes, equal to the product of:

the aggregate number of shares of our common stock underlying such restricted stock unit or deferred stock unit award, as applicable, multiplied by;

$44.75;

each unvested stock value unit will become fully vested and be settled in cash, less applicable withholding taxes; and any dividend equivalent payments will become fully vested and be settled in cash, less applicable withholding taxes.

Treatment of CRH LP Units and CAR LP Units (page 56)

In connection with the partnership mergers, each unit of limited partner interest in CRH LP and CAR LP issued and outstanding immediately prior to the effectiveness of the CRH LP partnership merger or the CAR LP partnership merger, as the case may be (other than units we or any of our subsidiaries own), will be converted into the right to receive $44.75 in cash, without interest and less applicable withholding taxes. We refer to the units of limited partner interest in CRH LP and CAR LP as CRH LP units and CAR LP units, respectively. Alternatively, in lieu of this cash consideration, each limited partner of CRH LP and CAR LP that is an accredited investor as defined under the U.S. securities laws will be offered the opportunity, subject to certain conditions, to elect to convert all, but not less than all, of the CRH LP units or CAR LP units that such partner owns into class A preferred units in the surviving CRH LP partnership or the surviving CAR LP partnership, as the case may be, on a one-for-one basis. Separate materials will be sent to the limited partners of CRH LP and CAR LP regarding this election. This proxy statement does not constitute any solicitation of consents in respect of the partnership mergers, and does not constitute an offer to exchange or convert the CRH LP units or CAR LP units that you may own for or into class A preferred units in the surviving CRH LP partnership or the surviving CAR LP partnership.

Interests of Our Directors, Executive Officers, and Certain Other Persons in the Mergers (page 43)

Our directors and executive officers and certain other persons may have interests in the merger that are different from, or in addition to, yours, including the following:

our directors and executive officers will have their unvested stock options fully vested and exercisable, and all stock options held by our directors and executive officers and not exercised will be canceled, as of the merger effective time in exchange for the right to receive a cash payment in respect of each share of our common stock underlying their stock options equal to the excess, if any, of $44.75 per share over the exercise price per share of their stock options, less applicable withholding taxes;

shares of restricted stock, restricted stock units and deferred stock units owned by our directors and executive officers will become fully vested and free of any of forfeiture restrictions immediately prior to the merger effective time and will be considered outstanding shares of our common stock for the purposes of the merger agreement, including the right to receive the common stock merger consideration, less applicable withholding taxes;

stock value units that our executive officers own will, to the extent not already vested, become fully vested and free of any forfeiture restrictions immediately prior to the merger effective time, and all stock value units will be settled in cash, less applicable withholding taxes;

any unvested dividend equivalent payments (payable in connection with the vesting of restricted stock units and deferred stock units) will automatically become fully vested and be settled in cash, less applicable withholding taxes;

Thomas A. Carr, our Chief Executive Officer and the Chairman of our board of directors, as a holder of CRH LP units, will receive a cash payment of $44.75 per CRH LP unit or, alternatively, if he satisfies certain requirements applicable to all holders of CRH LP units, Mr. Thomas A. Carr will be offered the opportunity to elect to convert all, but not less than all, CRH LP units that he owns into class A preferred units in the surviving CRH LP partnership on a one-for-one basis;

each of Mr. Thomas A. Carr, Philip L. Hawkins, our President and Chief Operating Officer, Stephen E. Riffie, our Chief Financial Officer, Karen B. Dorgan, our Chief Investment Officer, and Linda A. Madrid, our General Counsel and Corporate Secretary, will be entitled to severance benefits, comprised of (a) a lump sum payment of a pro rata portion of their annual bonus through the date of termination, (b) a lump sum payment equal to two years annual salary and bonus, (c) a lump sum payment equal to two years of our contributions to, and awards under, all incentive savings and retirement plans, practices, policies and programs (including the value of any equity-based incentive), and (d) two years of continued health benefits and certain other fringe benefits, under his or her respective change in control employment agreement if his or her employment is terminated without cause by us or he or she resigns for good reason (each as defined in their employment agreement) within two years after completion of the merger;

under our new change in control severance pay plan, any employee (excluding those with more favorable change in control agreements, such as our executive officers) whose employment is terminated without cause by us or as the result of the employee's resignation for good reason (each as defined in the plan) may be eligible for severance in the form of a lump sum payment equal to (1) a prorated target annual bonus payment for the year of termination, and (2) the sum of (a) one month's salary and (b) one-twelfth of their target annual bonus for the year of termination, plus certain other benefits, in each case for each full year of employment with us, or any of our prior affiliated entities, up to a maximum of 24 months and with minimum benefits ranging from four months to 12 months depending upon pay level and position. The severance benefit calculated as described above is reduced by one month for each month that termination of employment occurs after the first anniversary of the closing of the merger. Eligibility is conditioned on the employee meeting certain other requirements set forth in the policy, including that the employee sign and return a waiver and release of claims; and our board of directors resolved to terminate, upon the consummation of the merger, a non-competition agreement that we previously had entered into with Oliver T. Carr, Jr., our founder and former Chief Executive Officer and Chairman of the board of directors and the father of Mr. Thomas A. Carr, that restricts the ability of Mr. Oliver T. Carr, Jr. to directly or indirectly engage in certain real estate activities.

All of our directors were fully aware of the foregoing interests of our directors and executive officers in the merger and considered them prior to approving the merger and the merger agreement.

The merger agreement contains restrictions on our ability to solicit or engage in discussions or negotiations with a third party regarding specified transactions involving the company or our subsidiaries. Notwithstanding these restrictions, under certain circumstances and subject to certain conditions, our board of directors may respond to an unsolicited written acquisition proposal or terminate the merger agreement and enter into an acquisition agreement with respect to a superior proposal.

Conditions to the Mergers (page 68)

Completion of the mergers depends upon the satisfaction or waiver of a number of conditions, including, among others:

approval of the merger and the other transactions contemplated by the merger agreement by the requisite stockholder vote;

no action by any governmental authority that would prohibit the consummation of the mergers;

our, our operating partnership's and the DownREIT partnerships' representations and warranties being true and correct, except where the failure of such representations and warranties to be true and correct in all respects without regard to any materiality or material adverse effect qualifications (other than the representation relating to any material adverse effect to us) does not and would not reasonably be expected to have, individually or in the aggregate, a material adverse effect;

the performance, in all material respects, by us, our operating partnership and the DownREIT partnerships of our, our operating partnership's and the DownREIT partnerships' obligations under the merger agreement and compliance, in all material respects, with the agreements and covenants to be performed or complied with under the merger agreement;

since March 5, 2006, there shall not have been an event, occurrence, effect or circumstance that has resulted or would reasonably be expected to result in, a material adverse effect on us;

the receipt of a tax opinion of our counsel, Hogan & Hartson L.L.P., opining that we have been organized and have operated in conformity with the requirements for qualification as a REIT under the Internal Revenue Code of 1986, as amended, which we refer to as the Code, commencing with our taxable year ended December 31, 1996;

receipt from the administrative agent under our revolving credit facility of a payoff letter acknowledging that, subject to repayment of the aggregate principal amount outstanding under the credit facility, together with all accrued and unpaid interest and any other fees or expenses payable, the credit facility will be terminated, any and all related liens held by the administrative agent, or any other collateral agent under the revolving credit facility, will be released, and we and our subsidiaries will be released from any and all liabilities under the credit facility and any related guarantees (other than any obligations under any indemnification or similar provision that survive such termination); and

(a) receipt of the requisite consents with respect to each series of our senior notes, and the execution of supplemental indentures to the indentures governing these senior notes, which will be effective promptly following the receipt of the required consents with the amendments described in the tender offer documents and provided for therein to become operative upon the acceptance of the senior notes for payment pursuant to the offers to purchase and concurrently with the closing of the mergers or (b) in the event the requisite consents are not obtained with respect to any series of senior notes, we and our operating partnership will have issued an irrevocable notice of optional redemption for all of the then outstanding senior notes of such series in accordance with the terms of the applicable indenture governing such series and which shall provide for the satisfaction and discharge of such senior notes and such indenture; provided that, Nantucket Parent, MergerCo and the Merger Partnerships shall have irrevocably deposited with the applicable trustee under each such indenture sufficient funds to effect such satisfaction and discharge.

The merger agreement may be terminated and the mergers may be abandoned at any time prior to the effective time of the partnership mergers, as follows:

by mutual written consent of the parties;

by either Nantucket Parent or us if:

the partnership mergers have not occurred on or before September 5, 2006, provided that this right will not be available to a party whose failure to fulfill any obligation under the merger agreement materially contributed to the failure of the partnership mergers to occur on or before such date;

any governmental authority shall have taken any action which has the effect of making consummation of any of the mergers illegal or otherwise preventing or prohibiting the consummation of any of the mergers; or the requisite vote of our common stockholders to approve the merger and the other transactions contemplated by the merger agreement is not obtained;

by Nantucket Parent if:

we, our operating partnership or the DownREIT partnerships are in breach of the representations and warranties or covenants or agreements under the merger agreement and such breach results in the applicable closing condition regarding representations and warranties or covenants and agreements being incapable of being satisfied by September 5, 2006, provided none of Nantucket Parent, MergerCo and the Merger Partnerships are in material breach of their obligations under the merger agreement;

our board of directors withdraws, modifies or amends its recommendation that stockholders vote to approve the merger agreement and the merger in any manner adverse to Nantucket Parent, MergerCo or the Merger Partnerships;

our board of directors recommends or approves an acquisition proposal or fails to recommend against certain alternative takeover proposals;

our board of directors exempts any person other than Nantucket Parent or its affiliates from the provisions in Article V of our charter; or

by us if:

Nantucket Parent, MergerCo or the Merger Partnerships are in breach of the representations and warranties or covenants or agreements under the merger agreement and such breach results in the applicable closing condition regarding representations and warranties or covenants and agreements being incapable of being satisfied by September 5, 2006, provided neither we, our operating partnership nor either of the DownREIT partnerships are in material breach of our, our operating partnership's and the DownREIT partnerships' obligations under the merger agreement; or our board of directors approves and authorizes us to enter into a definitive agreement to implement a superior proposal in accordance with the terms of the merger agreement so long as:

the requisite stockholder vote has not been obtained;

we are not in or have not been in breach of our obligations under the merger agreement with regard to prohibitions on soliciting acquisition proposals in any material respects;

our board of directors has determined in good faith, after consulting with its financial advisor, that such definitive agreement constitutes a superior proposal and has determined in good faith, after consulting with its outside legal counsel, that the failure to take such actions would be inconsistent with directors' duties to our stockholders under applicable laws;

we have notified Nantucket Parent in writing that we intend to enter into such agreement;

during the three business days following the receipt by Nantucket Parent of our notice, we have offered to negotiate with, and if accepted, have negotiated in good faith with, Nantucket Parent to make adjustments to the terms and conditions of the merger agreement to enable us to proceed with the mergers;

our board of directors has determined in good faith, after the end of such three business day period, after considering the results of such negotiations and any revised proposals made by Nantucket Parent, that the superior proposal giving rise to such notice continues to be a superior proposal; and

we pay to Nantucket Parent the termination fee and reasonable transaction expenses in accordance with the merger agreement simultaneously with the termination of the merger agreement.

Termination Fee and Expenses (page 72)

Under certain circumstances, in connection with the termination of the merger agreement, we will be required to pay to Nantucket Parent a termination fee of $85 million and to reimburse Nantucket Parent's, MergerCo's and the Merger Partnerships' reasonable transaction expenses up to a limit of $7.5 million. The merger agreement also provides that if either party terminates the merger agreement because of the other party's material breach of the merger agreement which would result in the failure of a condition being satisfied by September 5, 2006, the breaching party must reimburse the non-breaching party for its reasonable transaction expenses up to a limit of $7.5 million.

Regulatory Matters (page 47)

We are unaware of any material federal, state or foreign regulatory requirements or approvals that are required for the execution of the merger agreement or the completion of either the merger or the partnership mergers.

No Dissenters Rights (page 79)

We are organized as a corporation under Maryland law. Under Maryland corporate law, because shares of our common stock were listed on the New York Stock Exchange on the record date for determining stockholders entitled to vote at the special meeting, our common stockholders who object to the merger do not have any appraisal rights or dissenters' rights in connection with the merger. Under Maryland corporate law, because the holders of our Series E preferred stock are not entitled to vote on the merger or the merger agreement, they do not have any appraisal rights or dissenters' rights in connection with the merger.

Litigation Relating to the Merger (page 47)

On March 9, 2006, a purported stockholder class action lawsuit related to the merger agreement was filed in the Superior Court of the District of Columbia, Doris Staer v. CarrAmerica Realty Corporation, et al. (Case No. 06-0001918), naming us and each of our directors as defendants. On March 10, 2006, another purported stockholder class action lawsuit was filed in the Circuit Court for Baltimore City, William Reichart v. CarrAmerica Realty Corporation, et al. (Case No. 24-C-06-002569), naming us and each of our directors as defendants. Both lawsuits allege, among other things, that our directors violated their fiduciary duties to our stockholders in approving the merger.

Both lawsuits seek class action status and injunctive relief against completion of the merger and the related transactions. Additionally, among other things, the District of Columbia lawsuit seeks disgorgement of any benefits improperly received and the Maryland lawsuit asks for unspecified monetary damages. We believe that these lawsuits are without merit and intend to vigorously defend the actions.

Material United States Federal Income Tax Consequences (page 48)

The receipt of the merger consideration for each share of our stock pursuant to the merger will be a taxable transaction for United States federal income tax purposes. Generally for United States federal income tax purposes, you will recognize gain or loss as a result of the merger measured by the difference, if any, between the merger consideration per share and your adjusted tax basis in that share. In addition, under certain circumstances, we may be required to withhold a portion of your merger consideration under applicable tax laws. Tax matters can be complicated, and the tax consequences of the merger to you will depend on your particular tax situation. We encourage you to consult your tax advisor regarding the tax consequences of the merger to you.

Delisting and Deregistration of Our Common Stock and Series E Preferred Stock (page 52)

If the merger is completed, shares of our common stock and Series E preferred stock will no longer be listed on the New York Stock Exchange and will be deregistered under the Securities Exchange Act of 1934, as amended, or the Exchange Act.

Market Price and Dividend Data (page 74)

QUESTIONS AND ANSWERS ABOUT THE SPECIAL MEETING AND THE MERGERS

The following questions and answers address briefly some questions you may have regarding the special meeting and the proposed mergers. These questions and answers may not address all questions that may be important to you as a stockholder. Please refer to the more detailed information contained elsewhere in this proxy statement, as well as the additional documents to which it refers or which it incorporates by reference, including the merger agreement, a copy of which is attached to this proxy statement as Exhibit A.

Q: What are the proposed transactions?

A: The proposed transaction is the acquisition of the company and its subsidiaries, including our operating partnership and the DownREIT partnerships, by affiliates of The Blackstone Group pursuant to the merger agreement. Once the merger and the merger agreement have been approved by our stockholders and the other closing conditions under the merger agreement have been satisfied or waived, CRH LP Merger Partnership will be merged with and into CRH LP with CRH LP continuing as the surviving limited partnership and CAR LP Merger Partnership will be merged with and into CAR LP with CAR LP continuing as the surviving limited partnership. Immediately after the partnership mergers, CarrAmerica will merge with and into MergerCo with MergerCo continuing as the surviving corporation. For additional information about the partnership mergers and the merger, please review the merger agreement attached to this proxy statement as Exhibit A and incorporated by reference into this proxy statement. We encourage you to read the merger agreement carefully and in its entirety, as it is the principal document governing the merger.

Q: As a common stockholder, what will I receive in the merger?

A: For each outstanding share of our common stock that you own immediately prior to the merger effective time, you will receive the common stock merger consideration, which is an amount equal to $44.75 in cash, without interest and less any applicable withholding taxes.

Q: Will I receive any regular quarterly dividends with respect to the shares of common stock that I own?

A: Yes. Under the merger agreement, we are permitted to declare and pay to you prior to the merger effective time a regular quarterly dividend of up to $0.50 per share of our common stock for the quarterly period ended March 31, 2006. We expect to pay this dividend on or about ●, 2006. However, under the terms of the merger agreement, we may not declare or pay any other dividends to you without the prior written consent of Nantucket Parent.

Q: When do you expect the mergers to be completed?

A: We are working toward completing the mergers as quickly as possible, and we anticipate that the mergers will be completed in the second quarter of 2006. In order to complete the mergers, we must obtain the requisite stockholder approval of the merger and satisfy the other closing conditions under the merger agreement.

Q: If the merger is completed, when can I expect to receive the common stock merger consideration for my shares of common stock?

A: Promptly after the completion of the merger, you will receive a letter of transmittal describing how you may exchange your shares of common stock for the common stock merger consideration. You should not send your share certificates to us or anyone else until you receive these instructions.

Q: When and where is the special meeting?

A: The special meeting of stockholders will take place on •, •, 2006 at • a.m. Eastern time, at •.

Q: Who can vote and attend the special meeting?

A: All of our common stockholders and Series E preferred stockholders of record as of the close of business on •, 2006, the record date for the special meeting, are entitled to receive notice of and attend the special meeting or any adjournments or postponements of the special meeting. However, only common stockholders are entitled to vote at the special meeting or any adjournments or postponements of the special meeting. Each share of our common stock entitles you to one vote on each matter properly brought before the special meeting. The vote of our Series E preferred stockholders is not required to approve the merger or the merger agreement and is not being solicited.

Q: What vote of common stockholders is required to approve the merger and the merger agreement?

A: Approval of the merger and the merger agreement requires the affirmative vote of the holders of at least two-thirds of the outstanding shares of our common stock that are entitled to vote at the special meeting. Because the required vote is based on the number of shares of our common stock outstanding rather than on the number of votes cast, failure to vote your shares (including as a result of broker non-votes) and abstentions will have the same effect as voting against approval of the merger, the merger agreement and the other transactions contemplated by the merger agreement.

Q: How does the common stock merger consideration compare to the market price of the common stock?

A: The cash consideration of $44.75 for each share of our common stock represents an approximate 8.9% premium to the closing price of our common stock on March 3, 2006, the last trading day before the public announcement of us entering into the merger agreement, an approximate 18.4% premium to the closing price of our common stock on February 16, 2006, the date prior to published reports regarding a potential acquisition of us, an approximate 17.3% premium to the average closing price of our common stock for the 30 trading day period ended March 3, 2006, an approximate 25.3% premium to the average closing price of our common stock for the 90 trading day period ended March 3, 2006, an approximate 24.2% premium to the average closing price of our common stock for the 180 trading day period ended March 3, 2006, and an approximate 27.0% premium over the average closing price of our common stock for the one-year period ended March 3, 2006.

Q: How does our board of directors recommend that I vote?

A: Our board of directors unanimously recommends that our common stockholders vote to approve the merger, the merger agreement and the related transactions.

Q: Do any of the company's executive officers and directors or any other person have any interest in the merger that is different than mine?

A: Our directors and executive officers may have interests in the merger that are different from, or in addition to, yours, including the consideration that they would receive with respect to their stock options, restricted stock awards, restricted stock units, deferred stock units, stock value units and dividend equivalent payments in connection with the merger. Additionally, Mr. Thomas A. Carr, our Chief Executive Officer and Chairman of our board of directors, and Mr. Robert O. Carr, President of one of our wholly-owned subsidiaries and Mr. Thomas A. Carr's brother, will receive consideration with respect to CRH LP units that he beneficially owns in connection with the CRH LP partnership merger. Further, our executive officers are entitled to certain severance payments and benefits following the closing of the merger in certain circumstances. Please see "The Mergers" Interests of Our Directors, Executive Officers and Certain Other Persons in the Mergers on page 43 for additional information about possible interests that our directors and executive officers may have in the merger that are different than yours.

Q: How do I cast my vote?

A: If you are a common stockholder of record on the record date, you may vote in person at the special meeting or submit a proxy for the special meeting. You can submit your proxy by completing, signing, dating and returning the enclosed proxy card in the accompanying pre-addressed, postage paid envelope, or, if you prefer, by following the instructions on your proxy card for telephonic or Internet proxy authorization.

Q: How do I cast my vote if my shares of common stock are held of record in street name ?

A: If you hold your shares of common stock in street name through a broker or other nominee, your broker or nominee will not vote your shares unless you provide instructions on how to vote. You must obtain a proxy form from the broker, bank or other nominee that is the record holder of your shares and provide the record holder of your shares with instructions on how to vote your shares, in accordance with the voting directions provided by your broker, bank or nominee. The inability of your record holder to vote your shares, often referred to as a broker non-vote, will have the same effect as a vote against the approval of the merger, the merger agreement and the other transactions contemplated under the merger agreement. If your shares are held in street name, please refer to the voting instruction card used by your broker, bank or other nominee, or contact them directly, to see if you may submit voting instructions using the Internet or telephone.

Q: What will happen if I abstain from voting or fail to vote?

A: If you abstain from voting, fail to cast your vote in person or by proxy or if you hold your shares in street name and fail to give voting instructions to the record holder of your shares, it will have the same effect as a vote against the merger, the merger agreement and the other transactions contemplated under the merger agreement.

Q: How will proxy holders vote my shares?

A: If you properly submit a proxy prior to the special meeting, your shares of common stock will be voted as you direct. If you submit a proxy but no direction is otherwise made, your shares of common stock will be voted FOR the approval of the merger, the merger agreement and the other transactions contemplated by the merger agreement.

Q: What happens if I sell my shares before the special meeting?

A: If you held your shares of common stock on the record date but transfer them prior to the merger effective time, you will retain your right to vote at the special meeting, but not the right to receive the common stock merger consideration for the common shares. The right to receive such consideration will pass to the person who owns the shares you previously owned when the merger becomes effective.

Q: Can I change my vote after I have mailed my proxy card?

A: Yes. If you own shares of our common stock as a record holder, you may revoke a previously granted proxy at any time before it is exercised by filing with our Corporate Secretary a notice of revocation or a duly executed proxy bearing a later date or by attending the meeting and voting in person. Attendance at the meeting will not, in itself, constitute revocation of a previously granted proxy. If you have instructed a broker to vote your shares, the above-described options for changing your vote do not apply and instead you must follow the instructions received from your broker to change your vote.

Q: Is the merger expected to be taxable to me?

A: Yes. The receipt of the merger consideration for each share of our stock pursuant to the merger will be a taxable transaction for United States federal income tax purposes. Generally, for United States federal income tax purposes, you will recognize gain or loss as a result of the merger measured by the difference, if any, between the merger consideration per share and your adjusted tax basis in that share. In addition, under certain circumstances, we may be required to withhold a portion of your merger consideration under applicable tax laws. You should read The Mergers Material United States Federal Income Tax Consequences on page 48 for a more complete discussion of the United States federal income tax consequences of the merger. Tax matters can be complicated, and the tax consequences of the merger to you will depend on your particular tax situation. We encourage you to consult your tax advisor regarding the tax consequences of the merger to you.

Q: Should I send in my common or Series E preferred stock certificates now?

A: No. Shortly after the merger is completed, you will receive a letter of transmittal with instructions informing you how to send your stock certificates to the paying agent in order to receive the common stock merger consideration or Series E preferred stock merger consideration. You should use the letter of transmittal to exchange stock certificates for the common stock merger consideration or Series E preferred stock merger consideration, as the case may be, to which you are entitled as a result of the merger. DO NOT SEND ANY STOCK CERTIFICATES WITH YOUR PROXY.

Q: What rights do I have if I oppose the merger?

A: If you are a common stockholder of record, you can vote against the merger and the merger agreement by indicating a vote against the proposal on your proxy card and signing and mailing your proxy card or by voting against the merger and the merger agreement in person at the special meeting. If you hold your shares in street name, you can vote against the merger and the merger agreement in accordance with the voting instructions provided to you by the record holder of your shares. You are not, however, entitled to dissenters' or appraisal rights under Maryland law because shares of our common stock are listed on the New York Stock Exchange. Please see "No Dissenters' Rights of Appraisal" on page 79.

Q: What will happen to shares of common stock that I currently own after completion of the merger?

A: Following the completion of the merger, your shares will be canceled and will represent only the right to receive your portion of the common stock merger consideration. Trading in shares of our common stock on the New York Stock Exchange will cease. Price quotations for our common stock will no longer be available and we will cease filing periodic reports with the SEC.

Q: Have any stockholders already agreed to approve the merger?

THE SPECIAL MEETING

Date, Time and Purpose of the Special Meeting

This proxy statement is being furnished to our stockholders in connection with the solicitation of proxies from our common stockholders by our board of directors for use at a special meeting to be held on •, 2006, at • a.m. Eastern time. The special meeting will take place at •. The purpose of the special meeting is for you to consider and vote upon a proposal to approve the merger of CarrAmerica with and into MergerCo, with MergerCo surviving the merger, the merger agreement and the other transactions contemplated by the merger agreement, and to transact any other business that may properly come before the special meeting or any adjournments or postponements of the special meeting. Our common stockholders must approve the merger, the merger agreement and the other transactions contemplated by the merger agreement for the merger to occur. A copy of the merger agreement is attached as Exhibit A to this proxy statement, which we encourage you to read carefully in its entirety.

Record Date, Notice and Quorum

All holders of record of our common stock and our Series E preferred stock as of the close of business on the record date, which was •, 2006, are entitled to receive notice of and attend the special meeting or any postponements or adjournments of the special meeting. However, only holders of our common stock at the close of business on the record date are entitled to vote at the special meeting or any postponements or adjournments of the special meeting. On the record date, there were • shares of our common stock outstanding.

The holders of a majority of the shares of our common stock that were outstanding as of the close of business on the record date, represented in person or by proxy, will constitute a quorum for purposes of the special meeting. A quorum is necessary to hold the special meeting. Any shares of our common stock held by any of our subsidiaries are not considered to be outstanding for purposes of determining a quorum. Abstentions and properly executed broker non-votes will be counted as shares present for the purposes of determining the presence of a quorum. Broker non-votes result when the beneficial owners of shares of our common stock do not provide specific voting instructions to their brokers. Under the rules of the New York Stock Exchange, brokers are precluded from exercising their voting discretion with respect to the approval of non-routine matters, such as the merger or the merger agreement.

Required Vote

Completion of the merger requires the approval of the merger, the merger agreement and the other transactions contemplated by the merger agreement by the affirmative vote of the holders of at least two-thirds of the outstanding shares of our common stock entitled to vote at the special meeting. Each share of our common stock that was outstanding on the record date entitles the holder to one vote at the special meeting. Because the required vote is based on the number of shares of our common stock outstanding rather than on the number of votes cast, failure to vote shares of our common stock that you own (including as a result of broker non-votes) and abstentions will have the same effect as voting against approval of the merger, the merger agreement and the other transactions contemplated by the merger agreement. Accordingly, in order for your shares of CarrAmerica common stock to be included in the vote, if you are a stockholder of record, you must either have your shares of CarrAmerica common stock voted by returning the enclosed proxy card or by submitting your proxy or voting instructions by telephone or Internet or voting in person at the special meeting. The vote of our Series E preferred stockholders is not required to approve the merger or the merger agreement and is not being solicited.

Record holders may cause their shares of common stock to be voted using one of the following methods:

mark, sign, date and return the enclosed proxy card by mail; or submit your proxy or voting instructions by telephone or by Internet by following the instructions included with your proxy card; or appear and vote in person by ballot at the special meeting.

Regardless of whether you plan to attend the special meeting, we request that you complete and return a proxy for your shares of CarrAmerica common stock as described above as promptly as possible. If you own shares of our common stock through a bank, brokerage firm or nominee (i.e., in street name), you must provide voting instructions in accordance with the instructions on the voting instruction card that your bank, brokerage firm or nominee provides to you. You should instruct your bank, brokerage firm or nominee as to how to vote your shares of CarrAmerica common stock, following the directions contained in such voting instruction card. If you have not received such voting instructions or require further information regarding such voting instructions, contact your broker who can give you directions on how to vote your shares of CarrAmerica common stock.

As of the record date, our executive officers and directors owned an aggregate of approximately • shares of our common stock, entitling them to exercise approximately •% of the voting power of our common stock entitled to vote at the special meeting. Our executive officers and directors have informed us that they intend to vote their shares of our common stock in favor of approval of the merger, the merger agreement and the other transactions contemplated by the merger agreement.

Proxies and Revocation

If you submit a proxy, your shares of CarrAmerica common stock will be voted at the special meeting as you indicate on your proxy. If no instructions are indicated on your signed proxy card, your shares of CarrAmerica common stock will be voted FOR the approval of the merger, the merger agreement and the other transactions contemplated by the merger agreement.

You may revoke your proxy at any time, but only before the proxy is voted at the special meeting, in any of three ways:

by delivering, prior to the date of the special meeting, a written revocation of your proxy dated after the date of the proxy that is being revoked to our Corporate Secretary at 1850 K Street, N.W., Suite 500, Washington, D.C. 20006; or by delivering to our Corporate Secretary a later-dated, duly executed proxy or by submitting your proxy or voting instructions by telephone or by Internet at a date after the date of the previously submitted proxy relating to the same shares; or by attending the special meeting and voting in person by ballot.

Attendance at the special meeting will not, in itself, constitute revocation of a previously granted proxy. If you own shares of our common stock in street name, you may revoke or change a previously granted proxy by following the instructions provided by the bank, brokerage firm, nominee or other party that is the registered owner of the shares of our common stock.

We do not expect that any matter other than the approval of the merger, the merger agreement and the other transactions contemplated by the merger agreement will be brought before the special meeting. If, however, such a matter is properly presented at the special meeting or any adjournments or postponements of the special meeting, the persons appointed as proxies will have discretionary authority to vote the shares represented by duly executed proxies in accordance with their discretion and judgment.

We will pay the costs of soliciting proxies for the special meeting. Our officers, directors and employees may solicit proxies by telephone and facsimile, by mail, on the Internet or in person. They will not be paid any additional amounts for soliciting proxies. We will also request that individuals and entities holding shares of our common stock in their names, or in the names of their nominees, that are beneficially owned by others, send proxy materials to and obtain proxies from those beneficial owners, and, upon request, will reimburse those holders for their reasonable expenses in performing those services. We have retained Innisfree M&A Incorporated to assist us in the solicitation of proxies, and will pay fees of approximately $25,000, plus reimbursement of out-of-pocket expenses, to Innisfree M&A Incorporated for their services. In addition, our arrangement with Innisfree M&A Incorporated includes provisions obligating us to indemnify it for certain liabilities that could arise in connection with its solicitation of proxies on our behalf.

Adjournments and Postponements

Although it is not currently expected, the special meeting may be adjourned or postponed for the purpose of soliciting additional proxies if we have not received sufficient proxies to constitute a quorum or sufficient votes for approval of the merger, the merger agreement and the other transactions contemplated by the merger agreement at the special meeting of stockholders. Any adjournments or postponements may be made without notice, other than by an announcement at the special meeting, by approval of the holders of a majority in voting power of shares of our common stock present in person or represented by proxy at the special meeting, whether or not a quorum exists. Any signed proxies received by us will be voted in favor of an adjournment in these circumstances. Any adjournment or postponement of the special meeting for the purpose of soliciting additional proxies will allow stockholders who have already sent in their proxies to revoke them at any time prior to their use.

THE MERGERS

General Description of the Mergers

Under the terms of the merger agreement, affiliates of The Blackstone Group will acquire us and our subsidiaries, including our operating partnership and the DownREIT partnerships, through their ownership of Nantucket Parent, the merger of us with and into MergerCo, and the merger of the Merger Partnerships with and into the DownREIT partnerships. Under the merger agreement, (a) CRH LP Merger Partnership will merge with and into CRH LP with CRH LP continuing as the surviving limited partnership, and (b) CAR LP Merger Partnership will merge with and into CAR LP with CAR LP continuing as the surviving limited partnership. Immediately after the partnership mergers, we will merge with and into MergerCo with MergerCo continuing as the surviving corporation.

We and certain of our subsidiaries, as the general partners of each of CRH LP and CAR LP, have already taken all actions necessary to approve the partnership mergers and no further approvals of any of the partners of either of CRH LP or CAR LP are required to complete the partnership mergers. This proxy statement does not constitute any solicitation of consents in respect of the partnership mergers, and does not constitute an offer to exchange or convert CRH LP units or CAR LP units that you may own for or into class A preferred units in the surviving CRH LP partnership or the surviving CAR LP partnership.

Background of the Merger

From time to time since the end of 2001 (when Security Capital Group Incorporated, formerly the owner of over 40% of our common stock sold all of its shares of our common stock), our senior management team and representatives of Goldman, Sachs & Co., or Goldman Sachs, our financial advisor, were approached on several occasions about the possibility of pursuing potential mergers, asset sales or other business combination and strategic transactions regarding CarrAmerica. These discussions generally consisted of informal discussions about CarrAmerica and its business based upon publicly available information and, except as described below, did not result in the submission of an indicative price for or an offer to acquire CarrAmerica.

At many of our regularly scheduled board meetings between the end of 2001 and the announcement of the signing of the merger agreement, our strategic plan was reviewed and discussed by our board of directors. The plan generally included seeking to maximize stockholder value by focusing on acquisitions and dispositions in our core markets in order to take advantage of our expertise in and knowledge of those markets, a disciplined investment strategy and, more recently, the development of office properties. After several years of difficulty in the office sector resulting from increasing vacancies and declining rental rates, we believe that due to an improving job market and the continued implementation of our strategic plan, vacancy rates in our portfolio peaked in 2003 and by the end of 2005 market rental rates had stabilized in all of our markets and had improved in many of our core markets, including Washington, D.C. and Southern California. However, notwithstanding the recent improvements in the rental markets, rents in certain markets had not recovered to their prior levels and we continue to be negatively impacted by rent roll downs in markets where lease renewals or extensions are generally at lower rents than expiring leases. We also believe that our development plan, which has resulted in the recent acquisitions of key land sites in certain of our markets, is an appropriate path to long term growth. Development has been attractive to us in part because extremely high prices for acquisitions have made it difficult for us to re-deploy capital through the acquisition of existing office properties in some of our core markets, including Washington, D.C. and Southern California. While our efforts to implement our strategic plan had resulted in steady progress, continuing rent roll downs, the high price of acquisitions, the rising interest rate environment, our current inability to cover our dividend from cash flows from operations and uncertainties and risks associated with development remained issues to be overcome in order to fully achieve our strategic plan.

In July 2004, representatives of The Blackstone Group had discussions with representatives of Goldman Sachs regarding a potential strategic transaction with us. On July 15, 2004, representatives of Goldman Sachs met with representatives of Blackstone and discussed our business based upon publicly available information. Representatives of Blackstone indicated that they would continue to evaluate CarrAmerica but no further discussions were held with Blackstone at that time.

Also in July 2004, a publicly-traded real estate company, which we refer to as Company A, contacted representatives of Goldman Sachs and expressed an interest in pursuing a potential acquisition of CarrAmerica. Company A stated that it needed access to confidential information prior to making any offer to buy CarrAmerica. On September 15, 2004, we entered into a confidentiality agreement with Company A and members of our senior management team and representatives of Goldman Sachs and Hogan & Hartson L.L.P., our outside legal counsel, began to provide Company A and its financial and legal advisors with due diligence information requested by Company A.

On September 21, 2004, members of our senior management team and representatives of Goldman Sachs met with representatives of Company A and its financial advisor. At the meeting, our senior management team made presentations regarding our business, markets and properties and answered questions that Company A asked about our properties and future performance expectations. Between September 21 and October 13, Company A and its financial and legal advisors conducted further due diligence and members of our senior management team and representatives of Goldman Sachs continued to engage with Company A and its financial advisor in connection with their due diligence process. Thomas A. Carr, our Chairman and Chief Executive Officer, periodically updated members of our board of directors regarding the progress of discussions with Company A. On October 13, 2004, the chief executive officer of Company A called Mr. Carr and indicated that Company A was interested in pursuing a potential acquisition of CarrAmerica for cash at a price that represented a nominal premium to the market price of our common stock, subject to conducting further due diligence. The closing price of our common stock was $32.86 per share on October 12, 2004, the last trading day prior to our receipt of the indication of interest. We considered the indication of interest and determined, after discussions with representatives of Goldman Sachs, that the proposal was insufficient in terms of price, lacked specificity related to other terms, and was too uncertain given the remaining due diligence requirements, and that pursuing further discussions could cause significant disruption to the conduct of our business and the continued execution of our strategic plan. On October 14, 2004, we informed Company A of the insufficiency of its proposal and terminated discussions with Company A. Mr. Carr subsequently updated our board of directors regarding the conclusion of our discussions with Company A.

In February of 2005, representatives of a publicly-traded REIT, which we refer to as Company B, indicated to representatives of Goldman Sachs that they were interested in exploring a potential strategic transaction with or acquisition of CarrAmerica. On February 10 and 11, 2005, representatives of Company B met with members of our senior management team and representatives of Goldman Sachs and had preliminary discussions regarding their interest in pursuing a possible transaction. On February 17, 2005, we entered into a confidentiality agreement with Company B and members of our senior management team and representatives of Goldman Sachs began providing Company B with due diligence information.

Between February 17 and April 8, 2005, Company B conducted due diligence and had due diligence meetings and discussions with our senior management team and representatives of Goldman Sachs. Mr. Carr discussed the status of discussions with Company B from time to time with members of our board of directors. On April 8, 2005, Company B delivered a preliminary indication of interest to Mr. Carr which proposed a merger between CarrAmerica and Company B. The letter proposed consideration in a range between $34.39 and $35.61 per share of our common stock, such consideration consisting of a mix of (i) cash, (ii) 5% convertible redeemable preferred stock of Company B, convertible at a significant premium to Company B's then-current stock price and with a five year prohibition on redemption by Company B, and (iii) common stock/operating partnership units of Company B. No other details regarding the proposed transaction were provided. The closing price of our common stock was $32.31 per share on April 7, 2005, the last trading day prior to our receipt of the letter. After evaluation of the proposal and discussions with representatives of Goldman Sachs, we determined that, due to a variety of reasons, including the insufficiency of the price, the mix of consideration and the continuing successful implementation of our strategic plan, the proposal should be rejected. We formally terminated discussions with Company B at that time.

On November 23, 2005, representatives of Blackstone contacted representatives of Goldman Sachs to request certain publicly available information about CarrAmerica, which material was provided on November 28, 2005.

From time to time thereafter, Blackstone indicated to representatives of Goldman Sachs that Blackstone viewed CarrAmerica as a potentially attractive investment and might be interested in exploring discussions should CarrAmerica be inclined to do so.

In December 2005, the chief executive officer of Company A again contacted representatives of Goldman Sachs to express interest in pursuing a potential acquisition of CarrAmerica, and on December 8, 2005, the chief executive officer of Company A met with representatives of Goldman Sachs to reiterate that interest.

On December 16, 2005, Mr. Carr had lunch with the chief executive of a private real estate investment fund, which we refer to as Company C. At that lunch, the chief executive of Company C told Mr. Carr that Company C wanted to acquire CarrAmerica. In order to minimize any potential disruption to CarrAmerica's operations, Mr. Carr told the chief executive of Company C that Company C should complete its investigation of CarrAmerica's publicly available information and then make a compelling proposal regarding a potential acquisition prior to the two companies exploring matters further.

On December 20, 2005, a representative of a private real estate investment fund, which we refer to as Company D, called Mr. Carr and indicated that Company D was interested in pursuing a potential acquisition of CarrAmerica. Later that day, Company D delivered a letter to Mr. Carr confirming that interest, presenting information about Company D and requesting certain confidential information about CarrAmerica in order to begin exploring a potential transaction. After discussions with representatives of Goldman Sachs, Mr. Carr indicated to a representative of Company D that CarrAmerica would consider its request and respond to it shortly. During the week of December 26, 2005, a representative of Company D indicated that Company D was no longer interested in pursuing a potential acquisition of CarrAmerica due to matters internal to Company D.

On December 27, 2005, Mr. Carr met with the chief executive of Company C. At that meeting, the chief executive of Company C said that Company C had completed its review of publicly available information regarding CarrAmerica and that, based upon that review, Company C was prepared to offer to acquire CarrAmerica for cash consideration of between $43 and $44 per share of common stock of CarrAmerica and per DownREIT partnership unit, without a financing contingency. The closing price of our common stock was $35.54 per share on December 23, 2005, the last trading day prior to the date of this meeting. In addition, the chief executive of Company C indicated that Company C could provide a structure that would allow limited partners in the DownREIT partnerships to exchange their current partnership interests into a continuing interest in an entity surviving the mergers and provide them with some ongoing tax protection. The chief executive of Company C added that Company C would be prepared to conduct and complete confirmatory due diligence and execute a definitive agreement within two weeks, but indicated that if CarrAmerica engaged in an auction there could be no assurance that Company C would participate. Mr. Carr indicated that he would respond after discussing the proposal with CarrAmerica's board of directors, senior management and financial and legal advisors.

Between December 27, 2005 and January 12, 2006, Mr. Carr discussed Company C's proposal with members of our board of directors and senior management and representatives of Goldman Sachs and Hogan & Hartson. We determined that an initial meeting with representatives of Company C was appropriate in order to assess Company C's level of interest. In addition, Mr. Carr requested that our senior management team and representatives of Goldman Sachs prepare a preliminary financial analysis of CarrAmerica, a review of the current environment for office REITs and a market overview of office and other REITs, a preliminary evaluation of Company C's proposal, and a review of comparable recent transactions for presentation to our board of directors. In addition, Mr. Carr asked our senior management team to prepare a presentation regarding our strategic plan.

On January 5, 2006, representatives of Company C and its financial advisor met with members of our senior management team, including Mr. Carr and Mr. Philip L. Hawkins, our President and Chief Operating Officer and a member of our board of directors, representatives of Goldman Sachs and representatives of Hogan & Hartson. The representatives of Company C orally reiterated their preliminary offer of between $43 and $44 per share of our common stock and per DownREIT partnership unit, subject to conducting confirmatory due diligence.

Company C described the due diligence of publicly available information it had performed to date, the nature of its requested confirmatory due diligence of our confidential information and the general nature of its potential equity and debt financing. Company C noted that it had not yet determined the treatment of our Series E preferred stock. Company C also indicated that its offer was conditioned upon our agreeing to negotiate a potential transaction exclusively with Company C for a period of at least two weeks. At the conclusion of the meeting, Mr. Carr indicated that he would discuss the offer, including the requested exclusivity, with our board of directors.

On January 12, 2006, we held a special meeting of our board of directors. Also participating in the meeting were members of our senior management team and representatives of Goldman Sachs and Hogan & Hartson. Mr. Carr provided the members of the board with an update on the discussions to date with Company C. Representatives of Hogan & Hartson then discussed with the members of the board their fiduciary duties. The board of directors was reminded of the interests that Mr. Carr and Mr. Hawkins would have in a change in control of CarrAmerica, including the terms and potential value to be received by them under their change in control agreements, the vesting of their equity awards and, in the case of Mr. Carr, his direct and indirect interests in CRH LP, as more fully described under Interests of our Directors, Executive Officers and Certain Other Persons in the Mergers on page 43.

Following this discussion, Mr. Carr and other members of our senior management team reviewed with the board our current financial condition and strategic plan. Goldman Sachs then made a presentation to the board with respect to its preliminary financial analysis of CarrAmerica, the current market environment for REITs generally, and a preliminary evaluation of the financial terms of Company C's proposal. A discussion followed among the members of the board, our senior management team and representatives of Goldman Sachs and Hogan & Hartson regarding our strategic plan and the proposed offer from Company C, including the exclusivity condition. It was the view of our senior management and the board that, despite the success and continued belief in our strategic plan, a sale of CarrAmerica in the range discussed with Company C could represent an attractive alternative to proceeding with our strategic plan. Our board determined to authorize CarrAmerica and its management to pursue a potential transaction with Company C, to grant Company C two weeks of exclusivity and to formally engage Goldman Sachs as CarrAmerica's financial advisor in connection with a potential transaction.

On January 13, 2006, we entered into a confidentiality agreement with Company C, which agreement included providing exclusivity to Company C through January 26, 2006. Between January 13, 2006 and January 25, 2006, members of our senior management team and representatives of Goldman Sachs and Hogan & Hartson provided Company C and its financial and legal advisors with due diligence information about us and conducted meetings with representatives of Company C and its financial and legal advisors to discuss this information and to discuss possible structural alternatives for a potential transaction. During this time, we also conducted due diligence on Company C's potential equity and debt financing of a proposed acquisition of us.

On January 19, 2006, our board of directors held a special meeting to discuss the status of discussions with Company C. Also present at the meeting were members of our senior management team and representatives of Goldman Sachs and Hogan & Hartson. Mr. Carr informed the board that discussions and due diligence regarding a potential transaction with Company C were ongoing. Representatives of Hogan & Hartson then updated the members of the board regarding the expected structure of the proposed transaction that had been proposed by Company C, including a merger of CarrAmerica into a subsidiary of Company C in exchange for cash for each share of our common stock. Under the proposal, our Series E preferred stock would remain an outstanding preferred security of the surviving private company after the merger with substantially the same terms. The board discussed its concerns with a transaction in which holders of the Series E preferred stock would ultimately continue to own a relatively less liquid security in an entity expected to be much more highly leveraged than CarrAmerica. After a further discussion of the process with Company C and other potential strategic alternatives, the board instructed management to continue negotiating with Company C.

On January 19, 2006, Hogan & Hartson distributed to Company C and its financial and legal advisors a draft merger agreement. On January 22, 2006, Company C's legal advisors delivered comments on the draft merger agreement to Hogan & Hartson. The comments did not include a price proposal or a detailed structural proposal, although they reflected that our Series E preferred stock would remain an outstanding preferred security of the surviving private company after the merger with substantially the same terms. Also on January 22, 2006, Company C's legal advisors delivered a term sheet setting forth the terms of the proposed consideration to be paid to the limited partners of the DownREIT partnerships, which consisted of the right to receive cash per unit equal to the amount of the merger consideration to be payable per share of our common stock, or, for electing unit holders who meet certain qualifications, preferred units of partnership interest in the applicable surviving partnership in lieu of cash, as part of their merger consideration. Such electing limited partners in CRH LP would also be provided with limited tax protection for up to five years, but limited partners in CAR LP would not be provided with tax protection.

Between January 19, 2006 and January 25, 2006, members of our senior management team negotiated with representatives of Company C regarding the proposed merger consideration. In addition, during this time, representatives of Hogan & Hartson and Company C's legal advisors held negotiations to discuss issues related to the draft merger agreement and limited partner term sheet. Among the issues discussed were representations and warranties of the parties to the merger agreement, operating covenants, conditions to closing, our ability to entertain other offers after execution of the merger agreement, the amount and conditions under which a termination fee and expense reimbursement would be payable, the consideration for shares of our Series E preferred stock and the terms of the consideration payable to and the tax protection terms relating to the limited partners in the DownREIT partnership.

On January 25, 2006, the day before the end of Company C's exclusivity period, the chief executive of Company C called Mr. Carr and indicated that, while Company C's previous preliminary offer was between $43 and $44 per share, Company C would not be prepared to offer $43 or more per share as a result of costs that Company C did not contemplate before making its preliminary offer. He added that Company C was not then prepared to propose a specific reduced price. Mr. Carr indicated that he would discuss the matter with our board of directors.

On January 26, 2006, at a regularly scheduled meeting, our board of directors discussed, among other matters, the status of negotiations with Company C. After discussion of the status of the negotiations, the board instructed senior management to seek a definitive offer from Company C but to inform Company C that an offer below $43 per share was insufficient. Later on January 26, Mr. Carr called the chief executive of Company C and conveyed the board's view regarding the price. Mr. Carr also stated that the exclusivity period would not be extended, though Company C could complete its diligence.

On February 2, 2006, Mr. Carr met again with the chief executive of Company C. At that meeting, Company C indicated it was prepared to purchase CarrAmerica for $41 per share of common stock in cash, subject to the terms and conditions previously discussed. Mr. Carr responded that $41 per share was not a sufficient price and that other terms of Company C's offer, including the treatment of the Series E preferred stock and the limited partners of the DownREIT partnerships, were not acceptable to our board of directors. On February 3, 2006, the chief executive of Company C called Mr. Carr and increased Company C's offer to $41.25 per share of common stock, subject to the same terms and conditions previously discussed. Mr. Carr reaffirmed our position that the offer was insufficient.

On February 6, 2006, Mr. Carr again met with the chief executive of Company C. At that meeting, the chief executive of Company C increased Company C's offer to $41.75 per share, again subject to the same terms and conditions previously discussed, which Company C confirmed in writing later that day. On February 7 and February 8, 2006, Mr. Carr had several conversations with representatives of Company C to discuss the price of Company C's offer and the treatment of the Series E preferred stock and the limited partners of the DownREIT partnerships. On February 8, 2006, Company C submitted a written offer to acquire CarrAmerica for $42 per share of common stock, provided that CarrAmerica would not be permitted to pay any further dividends to its common stockholders after the execution of the merger agreement. The remaining terms and conditions of the offer remained unchanged. On February 9 and the morning of February 10, 2006, Mr. Carr and representatives of Goldman Sachs had discussions with representatives of Company C and its financial advisor in an attempt to increase the offer and/or to permit regular quarterly dividends to be paid after the execution of the merger agreement. Company C did not then change its proposal.

On February 9, 2006, Mr. Carr received a written preliminary proposal to acquire CarrAmerica from the chief executive of Company A. The proposal outlined an interest in acquiring CarrAmerica for in excess of $41 per share of common stock in cash, subject to further due diligence. The letter did not contain any other details regarding the structure or other terms of the proposed transaction. The closing price of our common stock was $37.02 per share on February 8, 2006, the last trading day prior to our receipt of the letter .

On February 10, 2006, our board of directors held a special meeting to discuss Company C's offer, the preliminary proposal received from Company A and other possible alternatives. At the meeting, Mr. Carr described the status of negotiations with Company C and the preliminary proposal from Company A. Representatives from Goldman Sachs then discussed with the board its updated preliminary financial analysis of CarrAmerica, its preliminary evaluation of the financial terms of Company C's offer, the identities of other potential parties that could be interested in pursuing a strategic transaction with CarrAmerica, and the process of approaching potential purchasers that could be undertaken by us. After a discussion among the members of the board, members of senior management and representatives of Goldman Sachs and Hogan & Hartson, our board of directors resolved to reject Company C's offer and to terminate discussions with Company C. The board of directors also authorized contacts with Blackstone, Company A, Company B and the real estate investment division of a large global financing company, which we refer to as Company E, to determine their interest in pursuing a potential transaction with CarrAmerica. These parties were selected because the board believed they would have a high likelihood of interest in pursuing a transaction with us and would have the financial resources to acquire a company the size of CarrAmerica. Each party would be given approximately two to three weeks to conduct due diligence (subject to entering into confidentiality agreements) and submit offers to acquire CarrAmerica. After the meeting, discussions with Company C regarding a potential transaction were terminated.

Later on February 10, our advisors contacted representatives of Blackstone, Company A, Company B and Company E. The potential bidders were informed that they would be provided with at least two weeks in which to conduct their due diligence and submit offers regarding a potential acquisition of CarrAmerica. We entered into confidentiality agreements with Blackstone and Company A on February 10, 2006, and representatives of Goldman Sachs and Hogan & Hartson began providing Blackstone and Company A with due diligence information about us. There was no further contact with Company B after February 10 and Company B did not express any further interest in pursuing a possible acquisition. On February 14, 2006, we entered into a confidentiality agreement with Company E and provided Company E with due diligence information.

Between February 10, 2006 and March 1, 2006, the due date for the bids, members of our senior management team and representatives of Goldman Sachs and Hogan & Hartson held various meetings and telephone calls with representatives of the potential bidders and their respective various advisors to discuss a potential transaction, including due diligence matters. Mr. Carr periodically advised members of the board of the progress of the process during this time.

On February 15, 2006, the chief executive of Company C called Mr. Carr. We resumed discussions regarding a potential transaction with Company C and indicated that they could participate in the process on the same terms as the other potential bidders.

On February 16, 2006, representatives of a pension fund advisor, which we refer to as Company F, contacted representatives of Goldman Sachs and indicated an interest in pursuing a potential acquisition of CarrAmerica. We entered into a confidentiality agreement with Company F on February 17, 2006 and provided Company F with due diligence information. There was no further significant contact with Company F after February 17 and Company F did not express any further interest in pursuing a possible acquisition of us.

On February 17, 2006, an industry publication speculated about a potential business combination transaction involving us. Our common stock price rose approximately 5% that day and closed at $39.70 per share on higher than normal trading volume.

Also on February 17, Hogan & Hartson delivered a draft merger agreement to Blackstone, Company A, Company C, Company E and Company F.

On February 23, 2006, Company E delivered a letter to representatives of Goldman Sachs indicating that Company E continued to be interested in evaluating whether to make an offer to acquire us, but that Company E would need an additional two to three weeks to complete its due diligence and requested additional due diligence information and the ability to discuss its potential acquisition with potential partners or asset buyers.

On February 24, 2006, Goldman Sachs delivered a bid-procedures letter to Blackstone, Company A, Company C and Company E, indicating that best and final bids would be due on March 1, 2006.

On February 25, 2006, representatives of Simpson Thacher & Bartlett LLP, legal counsel to Blackstone, delivered to representatives of Goldman Sachs and Hogan & Hartson comments on the draft merger agreement which did not include a price offer. In addition, representatives of Simpson Thacher delivered a term sheet setting forth the terms of the proposed consideration to be paid to the limited partners of the DownREIT partnerships, which consisted of cash per unit equal to the amount of the merger consideration to be payable per share of our common stock, or qualified partners could elect to receive, in lieu of cash, preferred units of partnership interest in the applicable surviving partnership with a liquidation preference equal to the cash merger consideration and tax protection provisions for seven years. On February 28, 2006, representatives of Hogan & Hartson discussed the comments to the draft merger agreement with representatives of Simpson Thacher, including the representations and warranties of the parties, operating covenants, conditions to closing, our ability to entertain other offers following execution of the merger agreement, termination rights of the parties and the amount and conditions under which a termination fee and expense reimbursement would be payable, and the terms of the limited partner consideration.

On March 1, 2006, we received nonbinding offer letters from Blackstone, Company A and Company C to acquire us together with comments from each bidder on the draft merger agreement. Company E did not submit a bid.

Blackstone's offer indicated that it was willing to acquire all of our outstanding common stock for $44.00 per share in cash, plus payment of the pro rata portion of our regular quarterly dividend of $0.50 per share from the last ex-dividend date of our common stock through the closing of the merger. The offer also permitted us to pay our regular quarterly dividends in accordance with our past practices through the closing of the merger (which, based upon our board's expectations regarding timing of our dividends and the closing of the potential transaction, would have included the dividend for the first quarter but would have been unlikely to include the dividend for the second quarter). Limited partners in the DownREIT partnerships would receive the same cash consideration for each of their units, and qualified partners could elect to receive, in lieu of cash, preferred partnership units on terms similar to the term sheet previously provided. Blackstone's proposal also contemplated that the holders of our Series E preferred stock would receive preferred stock in the surviving private corporation with terms substantially identical to their current terms, and the surviving corporation would then promptly be liquidated into Nantucket Parent with the holders receiving cash in an amount equal to the $25.00 liquidation value plus accrued but unpaid dividends. The offer was not subject to a financing contingency. It also contemplated tender offers for our senior notes (but the success of these offers would not be a closing condition), a termination fee of $85 million and expense reimbursement of up to $7.5 million. Blackstone also provided a copy of its equity and debt commitment letters. Blackstone also indicated that Blackstone Real Estate Partners V L.P. would agree to guarantee the payment obligations of Nantucket Parent and MergerCo under the merger agreement up to a maximum amount of $500 million.

Company A's offer indicated that it was willing to acquire all of our outstanding common stock for $42.00 per share in cash. The offer permitted us to pay our regular quarterly dividends in accordance with our past practices through the closing of the merger (which, based upon our board's expectations regarding timing of our dividends and the closing of the potential transaction, would have included the dividend for the first quarter but would have been unlikely to include the dividend for the second quarter). The offer also contemplated the acquisition of all of our outstanding Series E preferred stock for cash in the amount of the $25.00 per share liquidation value plus any accrued but unpaid dividends. Company A also indicated that it would be willing to consider substituting stock of Company A as a portion of the merger consideration. Limited partners in the DownREIT partnerships would receive the same cash consideration for each of their partnership units as the per share consideration for our common stock, and qualified partners could elect to receive equity interests in the surviving partnerships in the form of either a preferred partnership interest with a liquidation value of $42.00 per unit or another form of equity interest with the same value. Specific terms of the equity interests were not provided. Company A also indicated that it was willing to provide tax protection to limited partners of CRH LP but not CAR LP. The offer did not contain a financing contingency and contemplated a termination fee of $100 million and expense reimbursement of up to $20 million.

Company C's offer indicated that it was willing to acquire all of our outstanding common stock for $42.75 per share in cash and permitted us to pay our regular $0.50 per share quarterly dividend for the first quarter of 2006 but no additional dividends thereafter. The offer contemplated that our Series E preferred stock would remain an outstanding preferred security of the surviving private company following the merger with terms substantially identical to its current terms, subject to a 1.0% increase in the dividend rate if the surviving company had a loan to value ratio greater than 70% on the second anniversary of the closing of the proposed transaction. Limited partners in the DownREIT partnerships would receive the same cash consideration for each of their units, and qualified partners could elect to receive up to 20% of their consideration in the form of preferred partnership units with terms similar to the term sheet Company C previously provided, with five years of limited tax protection to partners of CRH LP but not CAR LP. The offer did not contain a financing contingency and contemplated a termination fee of approximately 3% of the equity value of CarrAmerica in the proposed transaction plus an unspecified amount for expense reimbursement. The offer also indicated that a potential transaction would be conditioned upon the receipt of the consent of the lender of one of our mortgage loans. Company C also indicated that it and its equity partners would agree to guarantee the payment obligations under the merger agreement up to a maximum amount of $550 million.

After discussions regarding the offers among Mr. Carr and representatives of Goldman Sachs and Hogan & Hartson, on March 2, 2006, representatives of Goldman Sachs contacted representatives of Company A and Company C and indicated that their offers were insufficient in terms of price and other terms. Later on March 2, representatives of Company A contacted representatives of Goldman Sachs and increased Company A's offer to $42.50 per share and indicated that it was its best offer. Representatives of Company C indicated that they would respond with an improved offer prior to our special board meeting on March 3. Also on March 2, representatives of Goldman Sachs had various discussions with Jonathan D. Gray, Senior Managing Director of Blackstone. In the evening of March 2, Blackstone increased its offer to $44.50 per share. The offer was otherwise on the same terms previously indicated, including the payment of the pro rata portion of our regular quarterly dividend of $0.50 per share from the last ex-dividend date of our common stock through the closing of the merger.

On the morning of March 3, 2006, representatives of Company C contacted representatives of Goldman Sachs and indicated that Company C would make a best and final offer of $44.60 per share, subject to our ability to pay only our regular $0.50 per share quarterly dividend for the first quarter of 2006. In order to provide our board the ability to compare the bids of Blackstone and Company C on an equivalent basis, representatives of Goldman Sachs later contacted Mr. Gray and asked him what Blackstone's offer would be if we were permitted to pay only our regular $0.50 per share quarterly dividend for the first quarter of 2006 and did not receive as additional consideration the pro rata portion of our regular quarterly dividend of $0.50 per share from the last ex-dividend date of our common stock through the closing of the merger. Mr. Gray indicated that under those terms Blackstone's best and final offer was $44.75 per share.

Also on March 3, the Executive Compensation Committee of our board of directors, consisting solely of independent members of our board of directors, met to consider the adoption of the Change in Control Severance Pay Plan under which certain employees of CarrAmerica and its subsidiaries would be entitled to certain payments under certain circumstances if they were terminated or if they were constructively terminated during a period of time following the consummation of a merger.

The Executive Compensation Committee also discussed proposed amendments to the change in control employment agreements with our executive officers, including Messrs. Carr and Hawkins, and certain of our other officers. The potential economic impact of the Change in Control Severance Pay Plan and the amendments to the change in control agreements was provided to all potential bidders prior to February 24, 2006. The amendments were intended to clarify the intent of the agreements that, during the term of the agreements: (i) the company would be required to maintain not only cash-based incentive opportunities, but also equity-based incentive opportunities, that are not less favorable, in the aggregate, than those provided to the executives before the merger; and (ii) if an executive's employment is terminated without cause by us or for good reason by the executive (each such term as defined in the agreements), the executive will receive, among other things, a payment in respect of not only the value of any cash-based incentive awards that the executive would have received if the executive had remained employed for two years after such termination, but also the value of any equity-based incentive awards the executive would have received during such period.

After extended discussion regarding the Change in Control Severance Pay Plan and the amendments, the Committee adopted and approved the Change in Control Severance Pay Plan and recommended that the board of directors adopt and approve the Plan. Given that a special meeting of the full board was to commence, the Committee deferred further discussion regarding the amendments to the change in control agreements until after the conclusion of the board meeting. Ms. Dennis and Mr. Torray did not participate in this subsequently reconvened meeting of the Committee due to scheduling conflicts. At various times during the March 3 meetings of the Committee, Mr. Carr was asked to join to answer questions from the members of the Committee. The Committee, after further discussion, determined that the amendments were appropriate to clarify the original intent of the change in control agreements, but decided not to take formal action until all Committee members could be present.

On March 3, our board of directors held a special meeting to consider the offers received. Members of our senior management team and representatives of Goldman Sachs and Hogan & Hartson were also in attendance. Mr. Carr updated the board regarding the offers received and subsequent discussions with the bidders. Representatives of Goldman Sachs reviewed with the board the financial aspects of the three bids, including a comparison of the bids, and provided information about the three bidders. Representatives of Hogan & Hartson then reviewed with the directors their fiduciary duties and the terms of the merger agreement comments received from the three bidders. The board also discussed the uncertainties facing CarrAmerica in the execution of its strategic plan, including matters related to the rent roll downs in Northern California, our inability to currently cover our dividend from cash flows from operations and the uncertainties relating to realizing value on our development pipeline. After extensive discussion among our board, senior management and our advisors, the board unanimously agreed to proceed with Blackstone's offer and authorized management to negotiate with Blackstone on substantially the terms described to the board. Later that day, Goldman Sachs informed each of Company A and Company C that their bids had not been accepted and that CarrAmerica would be pursuing a transaction with another party.

Over the course of March 3, 4 and 5, representatives of our management, Blackstone, Hogan & Hartson and Simpson Thacher negotiated the terms of the merger agreement, the terms of the preferred units to be made available to qualified partners of the DownREIT partnerships, the terms of Blackstone's equity and debt financing and the terms of Blackstone Real Estate Partners V L.P.'s guarantee.

On March 5, 2006, our board was provided with a copy of the merger agreement that had been negotiated with Blackstone, a detailed summary of the merger agreement and the terms of the preferred units to be made available to qualified partners of the DownREIT partnerships and materials prepared by Goldman Sachs and by Stifel, Nicolaus & Company, Incorporated, which had been retained to advise the members of the board with respect to matters related to the DownREIT partnerships.

On the evening of March 5, 2006, the Executive Compensation Committee of our board of directors met to consider the adoption of the amendments to the change in control agreements. Representatives of Hogan & Hartson also participated in the meeting. Ms. Joan Carter, Chairman of the Committee, discussed the substance of the amendments with the Committee, including the benefit of the amendments to members of our senior management, including Messrs. Carr and Hawkins, and the nature of the clarifications set forth in the amendments. Representatives of Hogan & Hartson then reviewed with the members of the Committee their fiduciary duties. After further discussion, the Committee unanimously adopted and approved the amendments and recommended that the board of directors also adopt and approve the amendments. After the conclusion of the meeting of the Committee, the independent members of our board of directors met without Messrs. Carr and Hawkins. Representatives of Hogan & Hartson also participated in the meeting. The independent members of the board of directors discussed the Change in Control Severance Pay Plan and the amendments to the change in control agreements, including the benefit of the amendments to members of our senior management, including Messrs. Carr and Hawkins, and representatives of Hogan & Hartson reviewed with the members of the board their fiduciary duties. After further discussion, the board of directors, without Messrs. Carr and Hawkins present as they had recused themselves from consideration of the matters, adopted and approved the Plan and the amendments.

Our board of directors then convened a special meeting to consider the proposed merger agreement with Blackstone. Members of our senior management team and representatives of Goldman Sachs, Hogan & Hartson and Stifel, Nicolaus also participated in the meeting. During the meeting, Mr. Carr updated the board on the negotiations with Blackstone that had taken place over the course of the last three days since the last board meeting. Representatives of Hogan & Hartson then reviewed the board's fiduciary duties. Hogan & Hartson summarized in detail the principal terms of the merger agreement and ancillary documents, including the representations and warranties, operating covenants, other covenants regarding, among other things, the debt tender offers and the proxy statement, the provisions regarding non-solicitation of competing acquisition proposals, closing conditions and the absence of a financing contingency, termination provisions, termination fees and expense reimbursement provisions, the guarantee by Blackstone Real Estate Partners V L.P. and the structure and financing of the proposed transaction. Representatives of Hogan & Hartson also reviewed with the board the terms of the transaction relating to the DownREIT partnerships, including the proposed treatment of the limited partnership interests in the DownREIT partnerships, our operating partnership's senior notes and our Series E preferred stock.

Representatives of Goldman Sachs then reviewed, among other things, the history of negotiations with Blackstone and other potential bidders and the financial terms of the proposed transaction and presented certain financial analysis regarding the proposed transaction. Representatives of Stifel, Nicolaus then reviewed with the board matters relating to the DownREIT partnerships and the consideration proposed to be received by the holders of limited partnership interests in the partnership mergers. Considerable discussion concerning the transaction then ensued, and Goldman Sachs then rendered its oral opinion, which was subsequently confirmed in writing, to our board of directors that, as of March 5, 2006 and based upon and subject to the factors and assumptions set forth therein, the $44.75 per share of our common stock, in cash, to be received by our common stockholders pursuant to the merger agreement was fair from a financial point of view to such stockholders. Further discussion of the proposed transaction followed and after its deliberations our board of directors, among other things, unanimously approved the merger, the merger agreement and the other transactions contemplated by the merger agreement and resolved to recommend that our common stockholders vote for the approval of the merger, the merger agreement and the other transactions contemplated by the merger agreement. Certain of the factors considered by our board of directors are described in greater detail under the heading Reasons for the Merger.

Later that evening, CarrAmerica and Blackstone executed the merger agreement. Before trading on the NYSE opened on March 6, 2006, the parties issued a joint press release announcing the execution of the merger agreement.

Reasons for the Merger

In reaching its decision to approve the merger, the merger agreement and the other transactions contemplated by the merger agreement and to recommend approval of the merger, the merger agreement and other transactions contemplated by the merger agreement to our common stockholders, our board of directors consulted with our senior management team, as well as our outside legal and financial advisors, and considered a number of factors, including the following material factors which our board of directors viewed as supporting its decision to approve the merger, the merger agreement and the other transactions contemplated by the merger agreement and to recommend approval of the merger, the merger agreement and the other transactions contemplated by the merger agreement to our common stockholders:

the current and historical market prices of shares of our common stock, and the fact that the cash merger consideration of $44.75 per share of our common stock represented an approximate 8.9% premium over the closing price of our common stock on March 3, 2006, the last trading day prior to the public announcement of the merger agreement, an approximate 18.4% premium to the closing price of our common stock on February 16, 2006, the last trading day prior to published reports regarding a potential business combination transaction involving us, an approximate 17.3% premium to the average closing price of our common stock for the 30 day period ended immediately prior to the announcement of the merger, an approximate 25.3% premium to the average closing price of our common stock for the 90 day period ended immediately prior to the announcement of the merger, an approximate 24.2% premium to the average closing price of our common stock for the 180 day period ended immediately prior to the announcement of the merger, and an approximate 27.0% premium to the average closing price of our common stock for the one year period ended immediately prior to the announcement of the merger;

although we had been successful in the past in implementing our strategic plan, the merger provides a better alternative to our stockholders than pursuing our strategic plan on an ongoing basis as a result of the risks and uncertainties associated with the successful implementation of our strategic plan, including the negative impact on our cash flows from ongoing rent roll downs, the high cost of acquisitions, our current inability to cover our dividend from cash flows from operations and the risks and uncertainties in implementing our development plans;

the high multiples of funds from operations at which shares of REITs have been trading and the risk that those multiples might not be sustained, which could result in a decline in the trading price of our common stock regardless of our performance; favorable conditions for sale transactions in the real estate markets generally and the office sector specifically, including prices for real estate assets being extremely high while capitalization rates are extremely low, the relatively low interest rate environment and the number of large portfolio acquisitions and public real estate mergers in recent years;

the high probability that the mergers would be completed based on, among other things, Blackstone's proven ability to complete large acquisition transactions on the agreed terms, Blackstone's extensive experience in the real estate industry, the lack of a financing condition, and Blackstone Real Estate Partners V L.P.'s $500 million guarantee of the acquisition entities' obligations under the merger agreement; the fact that the merger represented the transaction that provided the highest price to our stockholders we had been offered after pursuing other potential transactions (see Background of the Merger on page 24);

the terms and conditions of the merger agreement, which were reviewed by our board of directors with our financial and legal advisors and the fact that such terms were the product of arm's-length negotiations between the parties;

the financial analysis of Goldman Sachs, and its oral opinion, which was subsequently confirmed in writing, to our board of directors that as of March 5, 2006, and based upon and subject to the factors and assumptions set forth therein, the $44.75 per share of our common stock, in cash, to be received by our common stockholders pursuant to the merger agreement was fair from a financial point of view to such stockholders (see Opinion of Our Financial Advisor on page 36);

our ability, under the merger agreement, under certain circumstances, to consider and respond to an unsolicited written acquisition proposal, and if, after consultation with our financial advisors, the board of directors determines in good faith that such acquisition proposal is a superior proposal and determines in good faith, after consultation with legal counsel, that failure to take such action would be inconsistent with the board's duties to our stockholders under applicable law, and Blackstone chooses not to negotiate improvements to the merger agreement to make it superior, our ability to terminate the merger agreement upon the payment of a termination fee of $85 million plus reimbursement of Nantucket Parent's expenses up to $7.5 million;

the fact that the all cash merger consideration will provide our stockholders with immediate fair value, in cash, for their investment in our stock; and the merger is subject to the approval of our common stockholders.

Our board of directors also considered the following potentially negative factors in its deliberations concerning the merger agreement and the merger:

the merger would preclude our stockholders from having the opportunity to participate in the future performance of our assets, future earnings growth, future appreciation of the value of our common stock or future dividends that could be expected if our strategic plan were successfully implemented;

the significant costs involved in connection with entering into and completing the merger and the substantial time and effort of management required to consummate the merger and related disruptions to the operation of our business;

the restrictions on the conduct of our business prior to the completion of the merger, which could delay or prevent us from undertaking business opportunities that may arise pending completion of the merger;

the pending merger or failure to complete the merger may cause substantial harm to relationships with our employees and may divert management and employee attention away from the day to day operation of our business;

our inability to solicit competing acquisition proposals and the possibility that the $85 million termination fee and up to $7.5 million expense reimbursement payable by us upon the termination of the merger agreement could discourage other potential bidders from making a competing bid to acquire us;

the fact that an all cash merger would be taxable to our stockholders for U.S. federal income tax purposes;

our inability to take action to cause specific performance or require Blackstone to complete the mergers, and our exclusive remedy for such failure to complete the mergers being to seek damages up to the amount of Blackstone Real Estate Partners V L.P.'s $500 million guarantee; and some of our directors and executive officers may have interests in the mergers that are different from, or in addition to, CarrAmerica stockholders (see "Interests of Our Directors, Executive Officers and Certain Other Persons in the Mergers" on page 43).

The foregoing discussion of the factors considered by our board of directors is not intended to be exhaustive, but rather includes the material factors considered by our board of directors. In reaching its decision to approve the merger, the merger agreement and the other transactions contemplated by the merger agreement, our board of directors did not quantify or assign any relative weights to the factors considered and individual directors may have given different weights to different factors. In the event the merger is not completed for any reason, we expect to continue to pursue our strategic plan with the intention of delivering further improvement in our financial results and enhanced stockholder value.

Recommendation of Our Board of Directors

After careful consideration, our board of directors, by unanimous vote, has approved the merger, the merger agreement and the other transactions contemplated by the merger agreement and has declared the merger, the merger agreement and the other transactions contemplated by the merger agreement advisable and in the best interests of CarrAmerica and our stockholders. Our board of directors recommends that you vote FOR the approval of the merger, the merger agreement and the other transactions contemplated by the merger agreement.

Opinion of Our Financial Advisor

On March 5, 2006, Goldman Sachs rendered its oral opinion, which was subsequently confirmed in writing, to our board of directors that, as of March 5, 2006 and based upon and subject to the factors and assumptions set forth therein, the $44.75 per share of our common stock, in cash, to be received by our common stockholders pursuant to the merger agreement was fair from a financial point of view to such holders.

The full text of the written opinion of Goldman Sachs, dated March 5, 2006, which sets forth assumptions made, procedures followed, matters considered and limitations on the review undertaken in connection with the opinion, is attached as Exhibit B to this proxy statement. Goldman Sachs provided its opinion for the information and assistance of CarrAmerica's board of directors in connection with its consideration of the merger. The Goldman Sachs opinion is not a recommendation as to how any common stockholder should vote with respect to the merger.

In connection with rendering the opinion described above and performing its related financial analyses, Goldman Sachs reviewed, among other things:

the merger agreement;

Goldman Sachs reviewed the reported price and trading activity for CarrAmerica common stock, compared certain financial and stock market information for CarrAmerica with similar information for certain other companies the securities of which are publicly traded, reviewed the financial terms of certain recent business combinations in the office real estate industry specifically and in other real estate industries generally and performed such other studies and analyses, and considered such other factors, as it considered appropriate.

Goldman Sachs relied upon the accuracy and completeness of all of the financial, accounting, legal, tax and other information discussed with or reviewed by it and assumed such accuracy and completeness for purposes of rendering the opinion described above. In that regard, Goldman Sachs assumed, with the consent of the board of directors of CarrAmerica, that the internal financial forecasts prepared by the management of CarrAmerica had been reasonably prepared on a basis reflecting the best currently available estimates and judgments of CarrAmerica. In addition, Goldman Sachs did not make an independent evaluation or appraisal of the assets and liabilities (including any contingent, derivative or off-balance-sheet assets and liabilities) of CarrAmerica or any of its subsidiaries, nor was any such evaluation or appraisal of the assets or liabilities of CarrAmerica or any of its subsidiaries furnished to Goldman Sachs. Goldman Sachs' opinion does not address the underlying business decision of CarrAmerica to engage in the transaction. Goldman Sachs' opinion is necessarily based on economic, monetary, market and other conditions as in effect on, and the information made available to Goldman Sachs as of, March 5, 2006.

The following is a summary of the material financial analyses delivered by Goldman Sachs to the board of directors of CarrAmerica in connection with rendering the opinion described above. The following summary, however, does not purport to be a complete description of the financial analyses performed by Goldman Sachs, nor does the order of analyses described represent relative importance or weight given to those analyses by Goldman Sachs. Some of the summaries of the financial analyses include information presented in tabular format. The tables must be read together with the full text of each summary and are alone not a complete description of Goldman Sachs' financial analyses. Except as otherwise noted, the following quantitative information, to the extent that it is based on market data, is based on market data as it existed on or before March 5, 2006 and is not necessarily indicative of current market conditions.

The preparation of a fairness opinion is a complex process and is not necessarily suited to partial analysis or summary description. Selecting portions of the analyses or of the summary set forth above, without considering the analyses as a whole, could create an incomplete view of the processes underlying Goldman Sachs' opinion. In arriving at its fairness determination, Goldman Sachs considered the results of all of its analyses and did not attribute any particular weight to any factor or analysis considered by it. Rather, Goldman Sachs made its determination as to fairness on the basis of its experience and professional judgment after considering the results of all of its analyses. No company or transaction used in the above analyses as a comparison is directly comparable to CarrAmerica or the contemplated transaction.

Goldman Sachs prepared these analyses for purposes of Goldman Sachs providing its opinion to CarrAmerica's board of directors as to the fairness from a financial point of view of the $44.75 per share of CarrAmerica common stock, in cash, to be received by the holders of CarrAmerica common stock pursuant to the merger agreement. These analyses do not purport to be appraisals nor do they necessarily reflect the prices at which businesses or securities actually may be sold. Analyses based upon forecasts of future results are not necessarily indicative of actual future results, which may be significantly more or less favorable than suggested by these analyses. Because these analyses are inherently subject to uncertainty, being based upon numerous factors or events beyond the control of the parties or their respective advisors, none of CarrAmerica, Nantucket Parent, Goldman Sachs or any other person assumes responsibility if future results are materially different from those forecast.

The common stock merger consideration was determined through arms length negotiations between CarrAmerica and Nantucket Parent and its affiliates and was approved by CarrAmerica's board of directors. Goldman Sachs provided advice to CarrAmerica during these negotiations. Goldman Sachs did not, however, recommend any specific amount of consideration to CarrAmerica or its board of directors or that any specific amount of consideration constituted the only appropriate consideration for the merger. Goldman Sachs was not requested by the board of directors of CarrAmerica to address, nor does the opinion delivered by Goldman Sachs address, the consideration to be received by any holder of CRH LP units or CAR LP units.

As described above, Goldman Sachs' opinion to CarrAmerica's board of directors was one of many factors taken into consideration by CarrAmerica's board of directors in making its determination to approve the merger agreement. The foregoing summary does not purport to be a complete description of the analyses performed by Goldman Sachs in connection with the fairness opinion and is qualified in its entirety by reference to the written opinion of Goldman Sachs attached as Exhibit B to this proxy statement.

Goldman Sachs and its affiliates, as part of their investment banking business, are continually engaged in performing financial analyses with respect to businesses and their securities in connection with mergers and acquisitions, negotiated underwritings, competitive biddings, secondary distributions of listed and unlisted securities, private placements and other transactions as well as for estate, corporate and other purposes. Goldman Sachs has acted as financial advisor to CarrAmerica in connection with, and has participated in certain of the negotiations leading to, the transactions contemplated by the merger agreement. In addition, Goldman Sachs has provided certain investment banking services to CarrAmerica from time to time, including having acted as joint-bookrunning underwriter of a public offering of 8,050,000 shares of CarrAmerica's 7.50% Series E preferred stock in September 2003, co-managing underwriter of a public offering of CarrAmerica's 3.625% Notes due 2009 (in the aggregate principal amount of $225 million) in March 2004, co-managing underwriter of a public offering of CarrAmerica's 5.125% Notes due 2011 (in the aggregate principal amount of $200 million) in August 2004, lead-bookrunning underwriter of a public offering of 2,649,000 common shares of CarrAmerica in August 2005, principal agent for a mortgage financing of a joint venture in which CarrAmerica owned an interest (in the aggregate principal amount of $100 million) in October 2005, and co-managing underwriter of a public offering of CarrAmerica's 5.5% Notes due 2010 (in the aggregate principal amount of $250 million) in December 2005. Goldman Sachs also may provide investment banking services to CarrAmerica and affiliates of Nantucket Parent in the future. In connection with the above-described investment banking services Goldman Sachs has received, and may receive in the future, compensation.

Goldman Sachs is a full service securities firm engaged, either directly or through its affiliates, in securities trading, investment management, financial planning and benefits counseling, risk management, hedging, financing and brokerage activities for both companies and individuals. In the ordinary course of these activities, Goldman Sachs and its affiliates may provide such service to CarrAmerica and its affiliates, and Nantucket Parent and its affiliates, and Nantucket Parent's and its affiliates' respective portfolio companies, may actively trade the debt and equity securities (or related derivative securities) of CarrAmerica for their own account and for the accounts of their customers and may at any time hold long and short positions of such securities. Affiliates of Goldman Sachs have co-invested and may in the future co-invest with affiliates of Nantucket Parent and such affiliates of Goldman Sachs have invested and may in the future invest in limited partnership units of affiliates of Nantucket Parent.

The board of directors of CarrAmerica selected Goldman Sachs as its financial advisor because it is an internationally recognized investment banking firm that has substantial experience in transactions similar to the transactions contemplated by the merger agreement. Pursuant to a letter agreement, dated January 13, 2006, CarrAmerica engaged Goldman Sachs to act as its financial advisor in connection with the transactions contemplated by the merger agreement. Pursuant to the terms of this engagement letter, CarrAmerica has agreed to pay Goldman Sachs a transaction fee equal to 0.40% of the aggregate merger consideration (to be determined as of the closing of the merger pursuant to the letter agreement, which, based upon our outstanding indebtedness as of December 31, 2005, would be approximately $21 million), all of which is payable upon consummation of the transactions contemplated by the merger agreement. In addition, CarrAmerica has agreed to reimburse Goldman Sachs for its reasonable expenses, including attorneys' fees and disbursements, and to indemnify Goldman Sachs and related persons against various liabilities, including certain liabilities under the federal securities laws. We also expect Goldman Sachs to serve as a dealer-manager for the debt tender offers in connection with the mergers, for which we expect to pay Goldman Sachs a customary fee.

Financing

In connection with the mergers, Nantucket Parent will cause approximately $2.9 billion to be paid to our stockholders, the limited partners of CAR LP and CRH LP (assuming none of the limited partners of CAR or CRH elect to receive class A preferred units in CAR LP or CRH LP, as applicable, in lieu of cash consideration) and holders of stock options, restricted stock, restricted stock units, stock value units and dividend equivalent payments. Nantucket Parent will also cause approximately $201 million to be paid to the holders of our Series E preferred stock in connection with the liquidation of the surviving corporation into Nantucket Parent after the merger. In addition, our operating partnership will commence tender offers to purchase all of its outstanding senior notes. As of March 31, 2006, our operating partnership had $1.525 billion of senior notes outstanding. Our revolving credit facility will also be repaid and our mortgage loan agreements, secured debt and letters of credit will be repaid or remain outstanding. As of March 31, 2006, we had an aggregate of approximately $431 million of outstanding indebtedness under our revolving credit facility, mortgage loan agreements, secured debt and letters of credit.

It is expected that in connection with the mergers, affiliates of The Blackstone Group will contribute up to approximately $900 million of equity to Nantucket Parent (plus additional equity contributions as necessary to the extent the limited partners of CAR LP or CRH LP receive cash consideration rather than electing to receive class A preferred units in CAR LP or CRH LP, as applicable, in the partnership mergers). In addition, in connection with the execution and delivery of the merger agreement, Nantucket Parent obtained a debt commitment letter from Deutsche Bank Securities Inc.'s affiliate German American Capital Corporation, Bank of America, N.A. and Citigroup Global Markets, Inc., providing for debt financing in an aggregate principal amount of up to the lesser of (a) $4,245,461,000 and (b) 80% of the total consideration payable by Nantucket Parent for the completion of the mergers and other costs, such as transaction costs relating to the mergers. In addition to the payment of the merger consideration, the funds to be borrowed pursuant to the debt commitment letter will be used for purposes such as reserves, the tenders for, or refinancing of, our existing debt, and for other costs and expenses related to the mergers. The funds to be borrowed under the debt commitment letter are to be secured by, among other things, a first priority mortgage lien on certain office complexes which are wholly-owned or ground leased by us, a security interest in our equity interests in certain joint ventures which own office complexes directly or indirectly and escrows, reserves, the cash management account, a first priority pledge of and security interest in any mezzanine borrower's interests and such other pledges and security required by the lenders to secure and perfect their interest in the collateral.

The debt commitment letter terminates on September 5, 2006 and is conditioned on the mergers being completed and other customary conditions. The lenders have the right to terminate the debt commitment letter under certain circumstances, including if Nantucket Parent is entitled to terminate the merger agreement due to a breach of certain representations and warranties or any other section in the merger agreement relating to a material adverse effect.

The merger agreement does not contain a financing condition or a market MAC condition. Under the terms of the merger agreement, Nantucket Parent has agreed to use its reasonable best efforts to arrange its debt financing on the terms and conditions described in the debt commitment letter. In the event that any portion of Nantucket Parent's debt financing becomes unavailable on the terms and conditions contemplated in the debt commitment letter, Nantucket Parent is obligated to use its reasonable best efforts to arrange to obtain that portion from alternative sources on comparable or more favorable terms. Nantucket Parent is obligated to keep us informed of the status of its efforts to arrange debt financing and to give us prompt notice of any material breach by any party of the debt commitment letter or of any termination of the debt commitment letter. Before it permits any material amendment or modification to be made to, or any waiver of any material provision or remedy under, the debt commitment letter which would or would be reasonably expected to materially and adversely affect or delay in any material respect Nantucket Parent's ability to consummate the mergers, Nantucket Parent must first obtain our written consent (which shall not be unreasonably withheld or delayed). With certain exceptions, we have agreed to provide, and to cause our subsidiaries and our and their representatives to provide, all reasonable cooperation in connection with the arrangement of the debt financing as may be reasonably requested by Nantucket Parent.

Guarantee and Remedies

In connection with the merger agreement, Blackstone Real Estate Partners V L.P. has agreed unconditionally to guarantee the due and punctual observance, performance and discharge of all of the payment obligations, and the timely performance when required of all indemnification and other similar obligations of Nantucket Parent, MergerCo, CRH LP Merger Partnership and CAR LP Merger Partnership under the merger agreement, up to a maximum amount of $500 million. The guarantee will terminate on the earlier of the merger effective time or March 5, 2008.

We cannot seek specific performance to require Nantucket Parent, MergerCo, CRH LP Merger Partnership and CAR LP Merger Partnership to complete the mergers, and our exclusive remedy for the failure of Nantucket Parent, MergerCo, CRH LP Merger Partnership and CAR LP Merger Partnership to complete the mergers is to seek damages up to the amount of the $500 million guarantee.

protections to defer potential taxable gain they might otherwise recognize if they were to receive the cash payment in respect of CRH LP and CAR LP units. For a more complete discussion of the treatment of CRH LP units and CAR LP units, the terms of the class A preferred units and the terms of the tax protection provisions to be offered to holders of CRH LP units and CAR LP units, please see The Merger Agreement Treatment of CRH LP Units and CAR LP Units on page 56.

As of March 31, 2006, Mr. Thomas A. Carr beneficially owned 13,235 CRH LP units and Mr. Robert O. Carr beneficially owned 6,836 CRH LP units. Other than Mr. Thomas A. Carr, none of our executive officers and directors beneficially owned any CRH LP units or CAR LP units as of March 31, 2006. As of March 31, 2006, The Oliver Carr Company, or TOCC, owned 514,707 CRH LP units. Substantially all of the outstanding shares of common stock of TOCC is owned by two trusts of which Messrs. Thomas A. Carr and Robert O. Carr may be beneficiaries. In addition, Mr. Robert O. Carr is a director of TOCC.

If Messrs. Thomas A. Carr and Robert O. Carr do not elect to convert the CRH LP units that they beneficially own into class A preferred units in the surviving CRH LP partnership, they will receive aggregate consideration of approximately $592,266 and $305,911, respectively, with respect to such units in connection with the CRH LP partnership merger. Instead, if both Messrs. Thomas A. Carr and Robert O. Carr elect to convert all of the CRH LP units that they beneficially own into class A preferred units in the surviving CRH LP partnership, they will receive 13,235 class A preferred units and 6,836 class A preferred units, respectively, in the surviving CRH LP partnership in connection with the CRH LP partnership merger.

Change in Control Employment Agreements

The merger will represent a change in control under our stock incentive plan as well as the change in control employment agreements that we have entered into with certain of our executive officers. Various change of control payments could be triggered as a result of the merger.

Under the change in control employment agreements that we have entered into with each of Thomas A. Carr, Philip L. Hawkins, Stephen E. Riffée, Karen B. Dorigan and Linda A. Madrid, if a change in control (which would include the merger) occurs and within two years from the date of such change in control, the employment of the executive officer is terminated without cause by us, or in the event that the executive officer terminates his or her employment for good reason (each as defined in the applicable change in control employment agreements):

we or our successor must pay such executive officer a lump sum prorated share of his or her annual bonus for the year of employment termination;

we or our successor must pay such executive officer a lump sum amount equal to two times his or her base annual salary and bonus compensation (which is defined as the greater of the highest annual bonus earned in the prior three years or the current year's target annual bonus);

all of such executive officer's restricted stock, stock options and other equity awards will vest immediately;

we or our successor must pay such executive officer a lump sum amount equal to our contributions to, and awards under, all incentive, savings and retirement plans, practices, policies and programs (including the value of any equity-based incentive), which would have been made on behalf of the executive officer's employment continued for two years after the date of termination, assuming for this purpose that all benefits are fully vested; and such executive officer will be eligible for certain continued benefits (including, without limitation, medical, prescription, dental, vision, disability, life, accidental death and travel accident insurance benefits) during the ensuing two-year period.

These payments also would be made if the executive officer's employment was terminated without cause by us prior to a change in control, but in anticipation thereof at the request of the potential buyer, and the change in control is ultimately consummated.

The change-in-control employment agreements also require us to make the executive officers whole for any excess parachute payment excise taxes that they might incur as a result of the receipt of certain payments and benefits (including the severance payments and benefits described above) in connection with the closing of the transaction. We also have entered into change in control agreements with certain of our other employees which will entitle them to certain payments and benefits as a result of the merger.

The following table sets forth an estimate of the potential cash severance payments that could be payable as described above in the event the executive officer becomes entitled to such severance amount pursuant to their change-in-control employment agreements (described above) following the merger (assuming for illustrative purposes that the executive officer's employment is terminated on May 31, 2006 and utilizing current base salaries and the bonus compensation amounts provided for in the agreements). The table does not include an amount referable to the value of the continued health and welfare benefits to be received by the executive officer, or the value of the tax make-whole payment (described above), if applicable.

	Amount of Potential Cash Severance Payment
Executive Officers
Thomas A. Carr	$ 5,346,107
Philip L. Hawkins	4,149,420
Stephen E. Riffée	2,481,388
Karen B. Dorigan	1,761,216
Linda A. Madrid	1,559,882

Our Change in Control Severance Pay Plan

Under our recently adopted Change in Control Severance Pay Plan, all employees (excluding those employees with more favorable change in control agreements) whose employment is terminated without cause by us or as a result of the employee's resignation for good reason (each term is defined in the plan) within 24 months after the signing of the merger agreement may be eligible for severance in the form of a lump sum payment equal to (1) a prorated target annual bonus payment for the year of employment termination, and (2) the sum of (a) one month's salary and (b) one-twelfth of their target annual bonus for the year of termination, for each full year of employment with us, or any of our prior affiliated entities, up to a maximum of 24 months and with minimum benefits ranging from four months to 12 months depending upon pay level and position, provided that they execute a release of all claims against us. The severance benefit calculated as described above is reduced by one month for each month that termination of employment occurs after the first anniversary of the closing of the merger. Employees are entitled to severance if such employees are terminated without cause by us or terminate their employment for good reason within 24 months after the signing of the merger agreement. Medical, dental and prescription drug benefits are provided for the number of months in respect of which the cash severance payment is based (the severance period) or, if longer, for the legally required continuation period, with the surviving corporation continuing to make its employer contributions towards medical and prescription drug coverage for the severance period. Outplacement services also will be provided. Under the plan, the estimated potential cash severance payment that could be payable to Mr. Robert O. Carr in the event he becomes entitled to receive such amount pursuant to the terms of the plan is $964,833.

Non-Competition Agreement

In February 1993 in connection with our initial public offering, we entered into a non-competition agreement with TOCC and Oliver T. Carr, Jr., our founder and former Chief Executive Officer and Chairman of the board of directors and the father of Mr. Thomas A. Carr and Mr. Robert O. Carr. The agreement has a perpetual term and restricts, subject to certain exceptions, Mr. Oliver T. Carr, Jr. and any entity in which he owns 50% or more interest, including TOCC, from acquiring, directly or indirectly, developed or undeveloped commercial real estate properties in the continental United States, or engaging in property management, leasing brokerage and other related services. Our board of directors resolved to terminate the agreement subject to, and upon the consummation of, the merger.

Indemnification of Our Directors and Officers

The merger agreement provides that for a period of at least six years after the merger effective time, the charter and bylaws or other organizational documents of the surviving corporation and its subsidiaries will contain indemnification provisions that are no less favorable than the indemnification provisions in our existing charter and bylaws or the applicable organizational documents of our subsidiaries, and that those provisions will not be modified during that period in any manner that would affect adversely the rights of any person who at or prior to the merger effective time were our or our subsidiaries' directors, officers, trustees, employees, agents, or fiduciaries, except as required by law and then only to the minimum extent required by law.

Nantucket Parent and the surviving corporation have agreed to indemnify, to the fullest extent permitted by applicable laws, persons who were at the date of the merger agreement or during the period between the signing of the merger agreement and the merger effective time our and our subsidiaries' directors and officers with respect to any legal action arising out of or relating to their duties or services as our or our subsidiaries' directors or officers occurring at or prior to the merger effective time and, subject to certain conditions, shall pay related reasonable legal fees, costs and expenses incurred by them.

The merger agreement requires that, with respect to claims arising from facts or events that occurred on or prior to the merger effective time, Nantucket Parent or the surviving corporation maintain in effect, for a period of at least six years after the merger effective time, our and our subsidiaries' current directors' and officers' liability and employed lawyer liability insurance policies; provided, however, that the surviving corporation may instead substitute policies (including run-off or tail insurance policies) of at least the same amounts and containing other terms and conditions which are, in the aggregate, not materially less advantageous to the insured persons. This requirement is subject to a maximum cost per year of coverage of 300% of the annual premiums we paid for such insurance prior to the date we signed the merger agreement. If the cost per year of insurance coverage exceeds such maximum amount, the surviving corporation must obtain as much comparable insurance as possible for an annual premium equal to 300% of the annual premiums we paid prior to the date we signed the merger agreement.

The obligations described above regarding directors' and officers' indemnification, and directors' and officers' and employed lawyer liability insurance must be assumed by any successor entity to the surviving corporation as a result of any consolidation, merger, liquidation, dissolution or transfer of all or substantially all of its properties and assets.

Regulatory Matters

We are unaware of any material federal, state or foreign regulatory requirements or approvals that are required for the execution of the merger agreement or the completion of either the merger or the partnership mergers.

Litigation Relating to the Merger

On March 9, 2006, a purported stockholder class action lawsuit related to the merger agreement was filed in the Superior Court of the District of Columbia, Doris Staer v. CarrAmerica Realty Corporation, et al. (Case No. 06-0001918), naming us and each of our directors as defendants. On March 10, 2006, another purported stockholder class action lawsuit was filed in the Circuit Court for Baltimore City, William Reichart v. CarrAmerica Realty Corporation, et al. (Case No. 24-C-06-002569), naming us and each of our directors as defendants. Both lawsuits allege, among other things, that our directors violated their fiduciary duties to our stockholders in approving the mergers.

Both lawsuits seek class action status and injunctive relief against completion of the merger and the related transactions. Additionally, among other things, the District of Columbia lawsuit seeks disgorgement of any benefits improperly received and the Maryland lawsuit asks for unspecified monetary damages. We believe that these lawsuits are without merit and intend to vigorously defend the actions.

Material United States Federal Income Tax Consequences

The following is a summary of the material United States federal income tax consequences of the merger to holders of our common stock whose shares are surrendered in the merger in exchange for the right to receive the common stock merger consideration. This summary is based on current law, is for general information only and is not tax advice. This summary is based on the Code, applicable Treasury Regulations, and administrative and judicial interpretations thereof, each as in effect as of the date hereof, all of which are subject to change or different interpretations, possibly with retroactive effect. We have not requested, and do not plan to request, any rulings from the Internal Revenue Service (the "IRS") concerning our tax treatment or the tax treatment of the merger, and the statements in this proxy are not binding on the IRS or any court. We can provide no assurance that the tax consequences contained in this discussion will not be challenged by the IRS, or if challenged, will be sustained by a court.

This summary assumes that our common stock is held as a capital asset within the meaning of Section 1221 of the Code and does not address all aspects of taxation that may be relevant to particular holders in light of their personal investment or tax circumstances or to persons that are subject to special tax rules and does not address the tax consequences of the merger to holders of stock options, restricted stock units, restricted stock awards, deferred stock unit awards or stock value units. In addition, this summary does not address the tax treatment of special classes of holders of our common stock, including, for example:

banks and other financial institutions;

insurance companies;

tax-exempt entities;

mutual funds;

subchapter S corporations;

dealers in securities or currencies;

traders in securities that elect to use a mark-to-market method of accounting for their securities holdings;

persons whose functional currency is not the United States dollar;

persons holding shares of our common stock as part of a hedging or conversion transaction or as part of a straddle or a constructive sale;

U.S. expatriates; persons subject to the alternative minimum tax;

Edgar Filing: CARRAMERICA REALTY CORP - Form PREM14A

holders who acquired our common stock through the exercise of employee stock options or warrants or otherwise as compensation;

holders that are properly classified as a partnership or otherwise as a pass-through entity under the Code;

holders that hold 5% or more of our common stock; and non-U.S. holders, as defined below, except to the extent discussed below.

This summary also does not discuss any state, local, foreign or other tax considerations.

If any entity that is treated as a partnership for United States federal tax purposes holds shares of our common stock, the tax treatment of its partners or members generally will depend upon the status of the partner or member and the activities of the entity. If you are a partner of a partnership or a member of a limited liability company or other entity classified as a partnership for United States federal tax purposes and that entity is holding our common stock, you should consult your tax advisor.

For purposes of this section, a U.S. holder means a beneficial owner of shares of our common stock that is for United States federal income tax purposes one of the following:

a citizen or resident of the United States;

a corporation, or other entity treated as a corporation for United States federal income tax purposes created or organized in or under the laws of the United States or any state thereof, or the District of Columbia;

a trust (A) the administration of which is subject to the primary supervision of a United States court and which has one or more United States persons who have the authority to control all substantial decisions of the trust, or (B) that was in existence on August 20, 1996, was treated as a United States person on the previous day, and elected to continue to be so treated; or an estate the income of which is subject to United States federal income taxation regardless of its source.

As used in this section, a non-U.S. holder means a beneficial owner of shares of our common stock that is an individual, corporation, estate or trust that is not a U.S. holder as described in the bullets above.

Consequences to Us of the Merger

For United States federal income tax purposes, we will treat the merger as if we had sold all of our assets to MergerCo in exchange for the merger consideration and then made a liquidating distribution of the merger consideration to our stockholders in exchange for shares of our stock.

Consequences of the Merger to U.S. Holders of Our Common Stock

General. The receipt of cash by U.S. holders in exchange for their shares of our common stock pursuant to the merger will be a taxable transaction for United States federal income tax purposes (and also may be a taxable transaction under applicable state, local and foreign income and other tax laws). In general, a U.S. holder of our common stock will recognize gain or loss for United States federal income tax purposes equal to the difference between:

the amount of cash received in exchange for our common stock; and the U.S. holder's adjusted tax basis in our common stock.

Gain or loss will be calculated separately for each block of shares, with a block consisting of shares acquired at the same cost in a single transaction. Assuming that the shares constitute capital assets in the hands of the U.S. holder, this gain or loss will be capital gain or loss and will be long-term capital gain or loss if at the time of the merger the shares have been held for more than one year. An individual U.S. holder will be subject to tax on net capital gain at a maximum federal income tax rate of 15%. Capital gains of corporate U.S. holders generally are taxable at the regular tax rates applicable to corporations. The deductibility of a capital loss recognized in the exchange is subject to limitations under the Code. In addition, the IRS has the authority to prescribe, but has not yet prescribed, regulations that would apply a tax rate of 25% to a portion of capital gain realized by a noncorporate shareholder on the sale of REIT shares that would correspond to the REIT's unrecaptured Section 1250 gain.

Special Rule for U.S. Holders Who Have Held Shares Less than Six Months. A U.S. holder who has held our common stock for less than six months at merger effective time, taking into account the holding period rules of Section 246(c)(3) and (4) of the Code, and who recognizes a loss on the exchange of our common stock in the merger, will be treated as recognizing a long-term capital loss to the extent of any capital gain dividends received from us, or such holder's share of any designated retained capital gains, with respect to such shares of common stock.

Consequences of the Merger to Non-U.S. Holders of Our Common Stock

Generally, a non-U.S. holder's gain or loss from the merger will be determined in the same manner as that of a U.S. holder. The United States federal income tax consequences of the merger to a non-U.S. holder will depend on various factors, including whether the receipt of the common stock merger consideration is taxed under the provisions of Foreign Investment in Real Property Tax Act of 1980, or FIRPTA, governing sales of REIT shares or whether the receipt of the common stock merger consideration is taxed under the provisions of FIRPTA governing distributions from REITs. The provisions governing distributions from REITs could apply because, for United States federal income tax purposes, the merger will be treated as a sale of our assets followed by a liquidating distribution from us to our stockholders of the proceeds from the asset sale. Current law is unclear as to which provisions should apply, and both sets of provisions are discussed below. In general, the provisions governing the taxation of distributions by REITs are less favorable to non-U.S. holders, and non-U.S. holders should consult their tax advisors regarding the possible application of those provisions.

Taxable Sale of Shares. Subject to the discussion of backup withholding and of distribution of gain from the disposition of U.S. real property interests below, if the merger is treated as a taxable sale of shares of our common stock, a non-U.S. holder should not be subject to United States federal income taxation on any gain or loss from the merger unless: (i) the gain is effectively connected with the non-U.S. holder's conduct of a trade or business in the United States, or, if an applicable income tax treaty applies, the gain is attributable to a permanent establishment maintained by the non-U.S. holder in the United States; (ii) the non-U.S. holder is an individual present in the United States for 183 days or more in the taxable year of the merger and certain other requirements are met; or (iii) such shares of common stock constitute a U.S. real property interest under FIRPTA.

A non-U.S. holder whose gain is effectively connected with the conduct of a trade or business in the United States will be subject to United States federal income tax on such gain on a net basis in the same manner as a U.S. holder. In addition, a non-U.S. holder that is a corporation may be subject to the 30% branch profits tax on such effectively connected gain.

A non-U.S. holder who is an individual present in the United States for 183 days or more in the taxable year of the merger and who meets certain other requirements will be subject to a flat 30% tax on the gain derived from the merger, which may be offset by United States source capital losses. In addition, the non-U.S. holder may be subject to applicable alternative minimum taxes.

If a non-U.S. holder's shares of our common stock constitute a U.S. real property interest under FIRPTA, such holder will be subject to United States federal income tax on the gain recognized in the merger on a net basis in the same manner as a U.S. holder. A non-U.S. holder's shares of our common stock generally will not constitute a U.S. real property interest if (i) we are a domestically controlled qualified investment entity at the merger effective time, or (ii) the non-U.S. holder holds 5% or less of the total fair market value of our common stock at all times during the shorter of (a) the five-year period ending with the effective date of the merger and (b) the non-U.S. holder's holding period for the shares. A qualified investment entity includes a REIT. Assuming we qualify as a REIT, we will be a domestically controlled qualified investment entity at the merger effective time if non-U.S. holders held directly or indirectly less than 50% in value of our stock at all times during the five-year period ending with the merger effective time. No assurances can be given that the actual ownership of our stock has been or will be sufficient for us to qualify as a domestically controlled qualified investment entity at the merger effective time.

In addition, shares of our common stock will not constitute a U.S. real property interest if (i) as of the effective date of the merger, we did not hold any U.S. real property interests, and (ii) all of the U.S. real property interests held by us during the five-year period ending with the effective date of the merger were disposed of in transactions in which the full amount of the gain (if any) was recognized. The application of this rule in a transaction such as the merger is not entirely clear. You should consult your tax advisor regarding the possible FIRPTA tax consequences to you of the merger.

Distribution of Gain from the Disposition of U.S. Real Property Interests. The tax treatment described above assumes that the receipt of the common stock merger consideration will be treated as a sale or exchange of shares of our common stock for purposes of FIRPTA. It is possible, however, that the IRS may assert that the common stock merger consideration received by a non-U.S. holder is subject to tax under Section 897(h)(1) of the Code as a distribution from us that is attributable to gain from the deemed sale of our U.S. real estate assets in the merger and not as a sale of shares of our common stock. If the IRS were successful in making this assertion, then such distribution would be taxed under FIRPTA, unless a special exception applies (the 5% Exception, discussed below). If the distribution were taxed under FIRPTA, the gain recognized by a non-U.S. holder generally would be subject to United States federal income tax on a net basis to the extent attributable to gain from the sale of our real estate assets, and a corporate non-U.S. holder could be subject to the branch profits tax on such FIRPTA gain. On the other hand, the 5% Exception would apply to a non-U.S. holder of our shares if the non-U.S. holder does not own more than 5% of our common stock at any time during the one-year period ending on the date of the distribution. If the 5% Exception were to apply to a non-U.S. Holder, the FIRPTA tax would not apply, but there is some risk that the common stock merger consideration could be treated as an ordinary dividend distribution from us, in which case the common stock merger consideration you receive would be subject to United States federal income tax at a 30% rate.

Income Tax Treaties. If a non-U.S. holder is eligible for treaty benefits under an income tax treaty with the United States, the non-U.S. holder may be able to reduce or eliminate certain of the United States federal income tax consequences discussed above, such as the branch profits tax. Non-U.S. holders should consult their tax advisor regarding possible relief under an applicable income tax treaty.

U.S. Withholding Tax Under FIRPTA. As described above, it is unclear whether the receipt of the common stock merger consideration will be treated as a sale or exchange of shares of our common stock or as a distribution from us that is attributable to gain from the deemed sale of our U.S. real estate assets in the merger. Accordingly, we intend to withhold U.S. federal income tax at a rate of 35% from the portion of the common stock merger consideration that is, or is treated as, attributable to gain from the sale of U.S. real property interests and paid to a non-U.S. holder unless such holder qualifies for the 5% Exception.

A non-U.S. holder may be entitled to a refund or credit against the holder's United States tax liability, if any, with respect to any amount withheld pursuant to FIRPTA, provided that the required information is furnished to the IRS on a timely basis. Non-U.S. holders should consult their tax advisor regarding withholding tax considerations.

Consequences to Holders of Series E Preferred Stock

The merger will be treated as a taxable transaction to holders of our Series E preferred stock. The federal income tax consequences to holders of our Series E preferred stock generally will be the same as the consequences to holders of our common stock described above, except that the capital gain or loss recognized by a holder of our Series E preferred stock will be measured by the difference between the holder's adjusted tax basis in the preferred stock exchanged and the fair market value of the Series E preferred stock of the surviving corporation received by such holder, which should equal the amount of cash that such holder will receive upon the liquidation of the surviving corporation into Nantucket Parent following the merger. Each holder's basis in the Series E preferred stock of the surviving corporation will equal the fair market value of that stock and, thus, such holder should not recognize additional gain or loss upon the liquidation of the surviving corporation into Nantucket Parent.

Information Reporting and Backup Withholding

Backup withholding, presently at a rate of 28%, and information reporting may apply to the cash received pursuant to the exchange of our common stock in the merger. Backup withholding will not apply, however, to a holder who in the case of a U.S. holder, furnishes a correct taxpayer identification number and certifies that it is not subject to backup withholding on the substitute IRS Form W-9 or successor form, in the case of a non-U.S. holder, furnishes an applicable IRS Form W-8 or successor form, or is otherwise exempt from backup withholding and complies with other applicable rules and certification requirements.

Table of Contents

Backup withholding is not an additional tax and any amount withheld under these rules may be credited against the holder's United States federal income tax liability and may entitle the holder to a refund if required information is timely furnished to the IRS.

THE FOREGOING DOES NOT PURPORT TO BE A COMPLETE ANALYSIS OF THE POTENTIAL TAX CONSIDERATIONS RELATING TO THE MERGER AND IS NOT TAX ADVICE. THEREFORE, HOLDERS OF OUR COMMON STOCK ARE STRONGLY URGED TO CONSULT THEIR TAX ADVISORS AS TO THE SPECIFIC TAX CONSEQUENCES TO THEM OF THE MERGER, INCLUDING THE APPLICABILITY AND EFFECT OF UNITED STATES FEDERAL, STATE, LOCAL, FOREIGN AND OTHER TAX LAWS IN THEIR PARTICULAR CIRCUMSTANCES.

Delisting and Deregistration of Our Common Stock and Series E Preferred Stock

If the merger is completed, our common stock and Series E preferred stock will no longer be traded on the New York Stock Exchange and will be deregistered under the Exchange Act.

canceled and retired and cease to exist with no payment being made with respect thereto) will be converted into, and canceled in exchange for, the right to receive $44.75 in cash, without interest and less any applicable withholding taxes.

Series E Preferred Stock

At the merger effective time, each share of our Series E preferred stock issued and outstanding immediately prior to the merger effective time (other than shares of our Series E preferred stock held by our subsidiaries or MergerCo, which will be automatically canceled and retired and cease to exist) will be automatically converted into, and will be canceled in exchange for, the right to receive one share of 7.50% Series E cumulative redeemable preferred stock, par value $0.01 per share, of the surviving corporation. Pursuant to the terms of the merger agreement, as promptly as practicable after the merger effective time, the surviving corporation will be liquidated into Nantucket Parent. In the liquidation, the shares of the surviving corporation's Series E preferred stock will be canceled and holders of the surviving corporation's Series E preferred stock will receive a cash distribution from the surviving corporation in accordance with the terms of the articles supplementary classifying the surviving corporation's Series E preferred stock, which will be $25.00 per share plus any accrued and unpaid dividends. While holders of our Series E preferred stock are entitled to receive notice of and attend the special meeting or any postponements or adjournments of the special meeting, they are not entitled to vote upon the merger, the merger agreement or any of the other transactions contemplated by the merger agreement at the special meeting.

Stock Options, Restricted Stock, Restricted Stock Units, Deferred Stock Units, Stock Value Units and Dividend Equivalent Payments

Immediately prior to the merger effective time, all of our outstanding stock options, restricted stock awards, restricted stock unit and deferred stock unit awards, stock value units, and dividend equivalent payments, whether or not exercisable or vested, as the case may be, will become fully vested and exercisable or payable, as the case may be, and, in the case of the restricted stock awards, restricted stock unit awards, deferred stock unit awards and stock value units, free of forfeiture restrictions. Immediately prior to the merger effective time, all outstanding shares of restricted stock, restricted stock units and deferred stock units will be considered outstanding shares of our common stock for the purposes of the merger agreement, including the right to receive the common stock merger consideration.

Each stock option to purchase shares of our common stock that remains outstanding immediately prior to the merger effective time, whether vested or unvested, will be canceled and converted into the right to receive immediately prior to the merger effective time a single lump sum cash payment, less applicable withholding taxes, equal to the product of:

the aggregate number of shares of our common stock underlying such stock option immediately prior to the merger effective time, multiplied by;

the excess, if any, of $44.75 over the exercise price per share of our common stock subject to such stock option.

If the exercise price of any stock option is equal to or greater than $44.75 per share, such option will be canceled without any cash payment being made in respect thereof. As of the date of this proxy statement, none of our outstanding stock options had an exercise price equal to, or greater than, $44.75 per share.

In addition, under the terms of the merger agreement, immediately prior to the merger effective time, each restricted stock award that remains unvested will become fully vested and will be considered outstanding shares of common stock, entitling the holder of such stock option award to the right to receive, at the merger effective time, a cash payment, less applicable withholding taxes, equal to the product of:

the aggregate number of shares of our common stock underlying such restricted stock award immediately prior to the merger effective time, multiplied by;

Table of Contents

Additionally, under the terms of the merger agreement, immediately prior to the merger effective time, each restricted stock unit award and deferred stock unit award automatically will become fully vested and will be considered outstanding shares of common stock, entitling the holder of such restricted stock unit award or deferred stock unit award to the right to receive, at the merger effective time, a cash payment, less applicable withholding taxes, equal to the product of:

the aggregate number of shares of our common stock underlying such restricted stock unit award or deferred stock unit award, as applicable, multiplied by;

Further, under the terms of the merger agreement, immediately prior to the merger effective time, each stock value units, to the extent not vested, will become fully vested and be settled in cash, and any dividend equivalent payment will become fully vested and be settled in cash, in either case, less applicable withholding taxes.

The amount of cash payable with respect to stock options, restricted stock awards, restricted stock unit awards, deferred stock unit awards, stock value units and dividend equivalent payments will be reduced by the amount of any applicable taxes required to be withheld. All stock options, restricted stock, restricted stock unit awards, deferred stock unit awards and stock value units will be canceled and all of our stock option plans and employee stock purchase plans will terminate at the merger effective time.

Treatment of CRH LP Units and CAR LP Units

In connection with the partnership mergers, each CRH LP unit and CAR LP unit issued and outstanding immediately prior to the effectiveness of the CRH LP partnership merger or the CAR LP partnership merger, as the case may be (other than units we or any of our subsidiaries own), will be converted into the right to receive $44.75 in cash, without interest and less applicable withholding taxes. Alternatively, in lieu of this cash consideration, each limited partner of CRH LP and CAR LP that is an accredited investor as defined under the U.S. securities laws will be offered the opportunity to elect to convert all, but not less than all, of the CRH LP units or CAR LP units that such partner owns into class A preferred units in the surviving CRH LP partnership or the surviving CAR LP partnership, as the case may be, on a one-for-one basis. As described above under the section captioned The Mergers Interests of our Directors, Executive Officers and Certain Other Persons in the Mergers CRH LP Units and CAR LP Units, each of Mr. Thomas A. Carr, our Chief Executive Officer and the Chairman of our board of directors, and Robert O. Carr, President of one of our wholly-owned subsidiaries and Mr. Thomas A. Carr's brother, beneficially owns CRH LP units and will be offered the opportunity to participate in this election.

In general, class A preferred units in the surviving CRH LP partnership or the surviving CAR LP partnership will have the following terms:

each class A preferred unit will have a stated liquidation preference of $44.75, and will be entitled to distributions of legally available assets by the applicable surviving partnership, when, as and if made by the partnership, in preference to all holders of other classes of partnership interests in the partnership, equal to 6% per annum on the stated liquidation preference;

the class A preferred units will be redeemable for cash equal to the liquidation preference plus any accrued and unpaid distributions:

at the holder's option commencing on the third anniversary of the applicable partnership merger (or, if earlier, upon the applicable surviving partnership becoming a subsidiary of any public real estate investment trust) or upon the earlier death of such holder (for 120 days following such death), and at the surviving partnership's option commencing on the seventh anniversary of the applicable partnership merger;

holders of class A preferred units will have no voting or other consent rights in the applicable surviving partnership, other than the right to consent to material and adverse amendments to certain provisions of the partnership agreement relating to preference, distribution, tax protection and redemption provisions applicable to the preferred units.

In addition, holders of class A preferred units in the surviving CRH LP partnership or the surviving CAR LP partnership, as the case may be, will be entitled to the benefit of certain tax protection provisions, including the following:

the applicable surviving partnership will indemnify each holder of class A preferred units in such partnership for the taxes resulting from gain recognized by such holder as a result of the sale or disposition by such partnership of any of the properties that will be held by such partnership following the closing of the applicable partnership merger prior to the seventh anniversary of the closing of such partnership merger, based on certain assumed tax rates, including a gross up for taxes required to be paid as a result of receipt of this indemnification payment;

until the seventh anniversary of the applicable partnership merger, the applicable surviving partnership will permit debt guarantees by each holder of class A preferred units in such partnership up to an amount per holder equal to 110% of his or her estimated share of partnership debt as of December 31, 2005. If such partnership breaches this obligation, it will indemnify each adversely affected holder for any taxes resulting from the gain recognized by such holder, on a grossed up basis; and at any time after the sixth anniversary of the applicable partnership merger, any holder or group of holders of class A preferred units in such partnership with an aggregate liquidation preference of at least $5 million may request that the applicable surviving partnership redeem all, but not less than all, of such holders' class A preferred units in such partnership for an in-kind distribution of one or more properties identified by such holders and acquired by such partnership from third party sellers.

Limited partners of CRH LP and CAR LP will only be entitled to elect to convert their CRH LP units and/or CAR LP units into class A preferred units in the surviving CRH LP partnership or the surviving CAR LP partnership, as the case may be, if they (a) are accredited investors as defined under the U.S. securities laws, (b) agree to be bound by a new limited partnership agreement of the applicable surviving partnership, and (c) make a valid and timely election to receive the class A preferred units pursuant to election materials that will be separately sent to limited partners of CRH LP and CAR LP. This proxy statement does not constitute any solicitation of consents in respect of the partnership mergers, and does not constitute an offer to exchange or convert the CRH LP units or CAR LP units that you may own for or into class A preferred units in the surviving CRH LP partnership or the surviving CAR LP partnership.

No Further Ownership Rights

At the merger effective time, the effective time of the CRH LP partnership merger and the effective time of the CAR LP partnership merger, as applicable, holders of our common stock, Series E preferred stock, CRH LP units (that are converted into the right to receive cash consideration in the CRH LP partnership merger) and CAR LP units (that are converted into the right to receive cash consideration in the CAR LP partnership merger) will cease to be, and have no rights as, our stockholders or limited partners of either of the DownREIT partnerships other than the right to receive the applicable merger consideration. The merger consideration paid to the holders of our common stock, Series E preferred stock, CRH LP units and CAR LP units in accordance with the exchange and payment procedures contained in the merger agreement will be deemed to have been paid in full satisfaction of all rights and privileges pertaining to our common stock, our Series E preferred stock, CRH LP units and CAR LP units exchanged (and, if applicable, represented by certificates exchanged).

Exchange and Payment Procedures

On or before the effective time of the partnership mergers, Nantucket Parent will deposit the merger consideration for the benefit of the holders of our common stock, stock options, restricted stock awards, restricted stock unit awards, deferred stock unit awards, stock value units, Series E preferred stock, CRH LP units and CAR LP units, respectively, with a paying agent reasonably satisfactory to us. Promptly after the merger effective time (but in any event within five business days), Nantucket Parent will cause the paying agent to mail a letter of transmittal and, if applicable, instructions for surrendering certificates for our common stock, Series E preferred stock, CRH LP units and CAR LP units to each holder thereof. The letter of transmittal and instructions will tell you how to surrender your common stock certificates, Series E preferred stock certificates and any interest in CRH LP units and CAR LP units, as applicable, in exchange for the applicable merger consideration.

You should not return your stock certificates with the enclosed proxy card, and you should not forward your stock certificates to the paying agent without a letter of transmittal.

You will not be entitled to receive the merger consideration until you surrender your stock certificate or certificates to the paying agent, together with a duly completed and executed letter of transmittal and any other documents as the paying agent may reasonably require. The merger consideration may be paid to a person other than the person in whose name the corresponding certificate is registered if the certificate is properly endorsed or is otherwise in the proper form for transfer. In addition, the person requesting payment must either pay any applicable stock transfer taxes or establish to the satisfaction of Nantucket Parent that such stock transfer taxes have been paid or are not applicable.

No interest will be paid or will accrue on the cash payable upon surrender of the certificates. Each of the paying agent, the surviving corporation and Nantucket Parent will be entitled to deduct and withhold any applicable taxes from the merger consideration.

At the merger effective time, the effective time of the CRH LP partnership merger and the effective time of the CAR LP partnership merger, our share transfer books and the transfer books of CRH LP and CAR LP, respectively, will be closed, and there will be no further registration of transfers of our shares of common stock, Series E preferred stock or restricted stock or limited partner interests in CRH LP and CAR LP, as applicable.

None of the paying agent, Nantucket Parent, MergerCo, the Merger Partnerships, CarrAmerica, our operating partnership or the DownREIT partnerships or any of their respective employees, officers, directors, stockholders, partners, agents or affiliates will be liable to any person for any cash merger consideration delivered to a public official pursuant to any applicable abandoned property, escheat or similar law. Any portion of the merger consideration deposited with the paying agent that remains undistributed to the holders of shares of our common stock, Series E preferred stock, stock options, restricted stock awards, restricted stock unit awards, deferred stock unit awards or stock value units, or holders of CRH LP units or CAR LP units for 12 months after the merger effective time will be delivered to the surviving corporation. Holders of shares of our common stock, Series E preferred stock, stock options, restricted stock awards, restricted stock unit awards, deferred stock unit awards or stock value units, or holders of CRH LP units or CAR LP units prior to the applicable merger who have not complied with the exchange and payment procedures contained in the merger agreement within twelve months after the merger effective time may only look to the surviving corporation for the payment of the merger consideration.

If you have lost a certificate, or if it has been stolen or destroyed, then before you are entitled to receive the merger consideration, you will be required to deliver an affidavit stating that fact and, if required by Nantucket Parent or paying agent, to post a bond in the form and amount reasonably required by Nantucket Parent or the paying agent as indemnity against any claim that may be made against Nantucket Parent and the paying agent on account of the alleged loss, theft or destruction of such certificate.

Debt Tender Offers and Consent Solicitation

We and our operating partnership are required to use our respective commercially reasonable efforts to commence offers to purchase, and related consent solicitations with respect to, all of the outstanding aggregate principal amount of our operating partnership's senior notes on the terms and subject to the conditions set forth in the related tender offer documentation that will be distributed to the holders of such senior notes. As of ●, 2006, we and our operating partnership had the following series of senior notes outstanding:

7.375% senior notes due 2007;

5.261% senior notes due 2007;

5.25% senior notes due 2007;

6.875% senior notes due 2008;

3.625% senior notes due 2009;

5.500% senior notes due 2010;

5.125% senior notes due 2011; and

7.125% senior notes due 2012.

In connection with the offers to purchase the senior notes, our operating partnership will seek the consents of the holders of the senior notes to amend the indentures governing the senior notes to eliminate substantially all of the restrictive covenants contained in such senior notes and the related indentures, eliminate certain events of default, modify covenants regarding mergers, and modify or eliminate certain other provisions contained in the indentures and the senior notes. Assuming the requisite consents are received from the holders of the senior notes to amend the indentures and the senior notes, the amendments will become operative concurrently with the merger effective time, so long as all validly tendered notes are accepted for purchase pursuant to the offers to purchase upon the completion of the mergers, whereupon the amendments will apply to all such senior notes remaining outstanding following completion of the applicable offers to purchase. The proposed terms of the amended senior notes and indentures will be described in the tender offer documents. Assuming that all of the conditions to the tender offers and consent solicitations are satisfied or waived, concurrently with the merger effective time, senior notes validly tendered in the tender offers will be accepted for payment. In the event the requisite consents have not been validly delivered (without having been properly withdrawn) with respect to any series of senior notes, we and our operating partnership may issue an irrevocable notice of optional redemption for all of the then outstanding senior notes of such series in accordance with the terms of the applicable indenture governing such series, which would provide for the satisfaction and discharge of such senior notes and such indenture.

A 'material adverse effect' will not have occurred, however, as a result of effects, events, developments or changes arising out of or resulting from:

changes in conditions in the U.S. or global economy or capital or financial markets generally, including changes in interest or exchange rates;

changes in general legal, tax, regulatory, political or business conditions that, in each case, generally affect the geographic regions or industries in which we, our subsidiaries and our joint ventures conduct business (unless and only to the extent such effect, event, development or change affects us and our subsidiaries in a disproportionate manner as compared to other persons or participants in the industries in which we, our subsidiaries and our joint ventures conduct business and that operate in the geographic regions affected by such effect, event, development or change);

The exceptions set forth in the fourth and seventh bullets above do not apply to the references to material adverse effect in certain representations and warranties. Under the merger agreement, the mere fact that there has been a decrease in the market price of our common stock will not itself constitute a material adverse effect. However, any effect, event, development or change underlying such price decrease will be considered in determining whether there has been a material adverse effect.

The merger agreement also contains customary representations and warranties made by Nantucket Parent, MergerCo and the Merger Partnerships that are subject, in some cases, to specified exceptions and qualifications. The representations and warranties relate to, among other things:

issue, sale or other disposition by us or any of our subsidiaries of shares of our capital stock or other securities representing 20% or more of the voting power of our voting securities or 20% or more of the equity interests or general partner interests in our operating partnership, either DownREIT partnership, or the CAR LP general partner;

tender offer or exchange offer in which any person or group acquires beneficial ownership, or the right to acquire beneficial ownership, of 20% or more of the voting power of our common stock or outstanding equity interests or general partner interests in our operating partnership, either DownREIT partnership, or the CAR LP general partner;

other transaction which is similar in form, substance or purpose to any of the foregoing transactions.

Prior to the approval of the merger by our stockholders, following the receipt of an unsolicited written acquisition proposal, our board of directors may contact such person and its advisors solely for the purpose of clarifying the proposal and any material terms thereof and the conditions to consummation, to determine whether such acquisition proposal is reasonably likely to result in a superior proposal and, if our board of directors determines in good faith, after consultation with its legal and financial advisors, that such acquisition proposal is reasonably likely to result in a superior proposal and determines in good faith, after consultation with legal counsel, that failure to take such action would be inconsistent with its duties to our stockholders under applicable law, our board of directors may:

furnish non-public information with respect to us and our subsidiaries to such person who made such proposal, provided that we have caused such person to enter into a confidentiality agreement with us containing terms that are at least as favorable to us as those contained in the confidentiality agreement we signed with an affiliate of Nantucket Parent and we concurrently disclose the same non-public information to Nantucket Parent if not previously disclosed; participate in negotiations regarding such proposal;

following receipt of a written acquisition proposal that constitutes a superior proposal, recommend to our stockholders that they approve such superior proposal and, in connection therewith, withdraw or modify in a manner adverse to Nantucket Parent, or fail to make, our board of directors recommendation that our stockholders approve the merger agreement and the merger; or other than in connection with an acquisition proposal, withdraw or modify in a manner adverse to Nantucket Parent, or fail to make, our board of directors' recommendation that our stockholders approve the merger agreement and the merger. For purposes of the merger agreement, 'superior proposal' means a written acquisition proposal:

that relates to more than 50% of the voting power of our capital stock or all or substantially all of our and our subsidiaries' assets, taken as a whole;

which our board of directors determines in its good faith judgment, after consultation with its financial advisor and after taking into account all the terms and conditions of the acquisition proposal, to be more favorable from a financial point of view to our stockholders than the merger (including any alterations to the merger agreement agreed to in writing by Nantucket Parent in response to such an acquisition proposal);

whose material conditions to consummation are reasonably capable of being satisfied in the judgment of the board of directors; and for which financing, to the extent required, is then committed or, in the judgment of our board of directors, is reasonably likely to be available.

We and our operating partnership have agreed to promptly notify Nantucket Parent (but no less than 24 hours after initial receipt) of our receipt of any acquisition proposal or indication by any person considering making an acquisition proposal, or requests for information relating to us or our subsidiaries or any inquiry or request for discussions or negotiations regarding any acquisition proposal. In our notice to Nantucket Parent, we have agreed to provide a copy of such acquisition proposal, indication, inquiry or request and any related communication, and any relevant details, including the identity of parties making the proposal. We and our operating partnership have also agreed to keep Nantucket Parent reasonably informed on a prompt basis of the status of and any material developments regarding any such acquisition proposal, indication, inquiry or request. Under the merger agreement, we may not, and may not permit any of our subsidiaries to, terminate, waive, amend or modify any provision of any existing standstill or confidentiality agreement to which we or our subsidiaries are a party and we have agreed to, and to cause each of our subsidiaries to, enforce the provisions of any such agreements. We also agreed to, and to cause each of our subsidiaries to, terminate or cause to be terminated any existing discussions, negotiations, or communications with any parties regarding any acquisition proposal.

We also agreed not to take any action to exempt any person from the ownership restrictions in Article V of our charter or otherwise cause such restrictions not to apply.

Employee Benefits

For a period of one year following the closing date, Nantucket Parent has agreed that it will cause the surviving corporation to provide all employees employed by us or our subsidiaries as of the merger effective time and who continue to be employed by the surviving corporation or its successors or assigns or any of their subsidiaries ('active employees') with base salary and cash incentive compensation (excluding any cash bonuses or dividend equivalent payments related to equity or equity-based awards) in an amount at least equal to the same level that was provided to each active employee, or to which such active employee was entitled, prior to the merger effective time and benefits (other than equity-based benefits) that are no less favorable in the aggregate as than those provided under our benefit plans in effect immediately prior to the merger effective time.

Nantucket Parent has agreed to honor, and to cause the surviving corporation to honor, all severance, change of control and similar plans and agreements in accordance with their terms as in effect immediately prior to the merger effective time.

In addition, Nantucket Parent has agreed to:

provide each of our active employees with credit for service with us and our subsidiaries with respect to any employee benefit plans established by Nantucket Parent or its subsidiaries under which our active employees may be eligible to participate after the merger effective time (new plans), to the same extent as such active employee was entitled to credit for such service under the respective CarrAmerica benefit plans, provided that such crediting of service shall not operate to duplicate any benefits and shall not be counted for the purpose of crediting benefit accrual under any defined benefit plan; and for purposes of each new plan providing health benefits to any active employee, cause such active employee to receive credit for all amounts paid by such active employee for purposes of satisfying all deductible, co-payments and out-of-pocket maximums as though such amounts had been paid in accordance with the terms and conditions of the parallel plan, program or arrangement of Nantucket Parent or the surviving corporation.

Pre-Closing Transactions

In addition, Nantucket Parent may request that, immediately prior to the closing, we (1) convert any of our subsidiaries organized as a corporation or limited partnership into a limited liability company, (2) sell the stock, partnership interests or limited liability interests owned by us in any subsidiary at a price designated by Nantucket Parent, or (3) sell any of our or our subsidiaries' assets at a price designated by Nantucket Parent. These rights of Nantucket Parent are limited, however, in that (a) Nantucket Parent may not require us to take any action that contravenes the organizational documents or a material contract of any applicable subsidiary, (b) any such actions or transactions would be contingent upon our receipt of a written notice from Nantucket Parent confirming that all conditions to the obligations of Nantucket Parent, MergerCo and the Merger Partnerships under the merger agreement have been satisfied or waived and that Nantucket Parent, MergerCo and the Merger Partnerships are prepared to proceed immediately with the closing and any other evidence reasonably requested by us that the closing will occur, (c) these actions (or the inability to complete them) will not affect or modify the obligations of Nantucket Parent, MergerCo and the Merger Partnerships under the merger agreement, and (d) we and our subsidiaries will not be required to take any action that could adversely affect our classification as a REIT within the meaning of the Code or that could result in any United States federal, state or local income tax being imposed on the limited partners of the DownREIT partnerships.

Agreement to Take Further Action

Subject to the terms and conditions of the merger agreement and in accordance with applicable laws, each party to the merger agreement has agreed to use its reasonable efforts to take, or to cause to be taken, all appropriate actions and to do, or to cause to be done, all things necessary, proper or advisable under applicable laws to consummate the mergers and the transactions contemplated by the merger agreement, including using its reasonable efforts to obtain all permits, consents, approvals, authorizations, qualifications and orders of governmental authorities with us and our subsidiaries as are necessary for the consummation of the transactions contemplated by the merger agreement and to fulfill the conditions to the mergers and the other transactions contemplated by the merger agreement.

Each party to the merger agreement has agreed to cooperate and use its reasonable best efforts to defend through litigation on the merits any legal action, including administrative or judicial action, asserted by any party in order to avoid the entry of, or to have vacated, lifted, reversed, terminated or overturned any decree, judgment, injunction or other order that in whole or in part restricts, delays, prevents or prohibits consummation of the mergers, including by vigorously pursuing all available avenues of administrative and judicial appeal.

Furthermore, the parties have agreed to use their respective commercially reasonable efforts to obtain any third-party consents:

necessary, proper or advisable to consummate the transactions contemplated by the merger agreement; disclosed in the disclosure schedules to the merger agreement; or required to prevent a material adverse effect from occurring prior to the merger effective time.

In addition, we, our operating partnership and the DownREIT partnerships have agreed that, in the event that any of us, our operating partnership or the DownREIT partnerships fail to obtain any of the third-party consents mentioned above, each of us will use our commercially reasonable efforts and take all such actions reasonably requested by Nantucket Parent to minimize any adverse effect on us, our operating partnership, the DownREIT partnerships, Nantucket Parent, MergerCo or the Merger Partnerships or their businesses as a result of the failure to obtain such consent.

Neither we nor our subsidiaries will be permitted to pay or commit to pay any consideration, make any commitment or incur any liability or other obligation in connection with obtaining any approval or consent from any non-governmental third party unless Nantucket Parent has provided its prior written consent, which Nantucket Parent cannot unreasonably withhold. In addition, none of Nantucket Parent, MergerCo, the Merger Partnerships or their respective affiliates will be required to pay any consideration, make any commitment or incur any liability or other obligation in connection with obtaining any approval or consent from any non-governmental third party.

Conditions to the Mergers

The obligations of the parties to complete the mergers are subject to the following mutual conditions:

approval of the merger and the other transactions contemplated by the merger agreement by the requisite stockholder vote;

any waiting period applicable to the consummation of the mergers under the Hart-Scott-Rodino Antitrust Improvements Act of 1976, as amended, must have expired or terminated, and any approvals required under it must have been obtained; and no governmental authority shall have enacted, issued, promulgated, enforced or entered any injunction, order, decree or ruling that would make the consummation of the mergers illegal or otherwise prohibit the consummation of the mergers.

The obligations of Nantucket Parent, MergerCo and the Merger Partnerships to complete the mergers are subject to the following additional conditions:

our, our operating partnership's and the DownREIT partnerships' representations and warranties that (a) are not made as of a specific date shall be true and correct as of the date of the merger agreement and as of the closing, as though made on and as of the closing, and (b) are made as of a specific date shall be true and correct as of such date, except where the failure of our, our operating partnership's and the DownREIT partnerships' representations and warranties to be true and correct in all respects without regard to any materiality or material adverse effect qualifications (other than the representation relating to any material adverse effect) does not and would not reasonably be expected to have, individually or in the aggregate, a material adverse effect, provided that certain representations and warranties pertaining to our capitalization must be true and correct in all material respects as of the closing;

the performance, in all material respects, by us, our operating partnership and the DownREIT partnerships of our, our operating partnership's and the DownREIT partnerships' obligations under the merger agreement and compliance, in all material respects, with the agreements and covenants to be performed or complied with under the merger agreement;

the receipt by Nantucket Parent of a certificate signed by one of our officers with respect to the truth and correctness of our, our operating partnership's and the DownREIT partnerships' representations and warranties, the performance of our, our operating partnership's and the DownREIT partnerships' obligations under the merger agreement and compliance, in all material respects, with the agreements and covenants to be performed or complied with under the merger agreement;

(a) receipt of the requisite consents with respect to each series of our senior notes, and the execution of supplemental indentures to the indentures governing these senior notes, which will be effective promptly following the receipt of the required consents with the amendments described in the tender offer documents and provided for therein to become operative upon the acceptance of the senior notes for payment pursuant to the offers to purchase and concurrently with the closing of the mergers or (b) in the event the requisite consents are not obtained with respect to any series of senior notes, we and our operating partnership will have issued an irrevocable notice of optional redemption for all of the then outstanding senior notes of such series in accordance with the terms of the applicable indenture governing such series and which shall provide for the satisfaction and discharge of such senior notes and such indenture; provided that, Nantucket Parent, MergerCo and the Merger Partnerships shall have irrevocably deposited with the applicable trustee under each such indenture sufficient funds to effect such satisfaction and discharge.

The obligations of us, our operating partnership and the DownREIT partnerships to complete the mergers are subject to the following additional conditions:

the representations and warranties of Nantucket Parent, MergerCo and the Merger Partnerships, that (a) are not made as of a specific date shall be true and correct as of the date of the merger agreement and as of the closing, as though made on and as of the closing, and (b) are made as of a specific date shall be true and correct as of such date, except where the failure of their representations and warranties to be true and correct in all respects without regard to any materiality or Nantucket Parent material adverse effect qualifications does not have and would not reasonably be expected to have, individually or in the aggregate, a Nantucket Parent material adverse effect;

the performance, in all material respects, by Nantucket Parent, MergerCo and the Merger Partnerships of their obligations under the merger agreement and compliance, in all material respects, with the agreements and covenants to be performed or complied with under the merger agreement; and the receipt by us of an officer's certificate with respect to the truth and correctness of the representations and warranties of Nantucket Parent, MergerCo and the Merger Partnerships and the performance of their obligations under the merger agreement and compliance, in all material respects, with the agreements and covenants to be performed or complied with under the merger agreement.

For the purposes of the merger agreement, Nantucket Parent material adverse effect means any effect, event, development or change that, individually or in the aggregate with all other effects, events, developments or changes, is materially adverse to Nantucket Parent's and its subsidiaries' assets, business, results of operations or financial condition taken as a whole.

A Nantucket Parent material adverse effect will not have occurred, however, as a result of effects, events, developments or changes arising out of or resulting from:

changes in conditions in the U.S. or global economy or capital or financial markets generally, including changes in interest or exchange rates;

changes in general legal, tax, regulatory, political or business conditions that, in each case, generally affect the geographic regions or industries in which Nantucket Parent and its subsidiaries conduct their business (unless and only to the extent such effect, event, development or change affects Nantucket Parent and its subsidiaries in a disproportionate manner as compared to other persons or participants in the industries in which Nantucket Parent and its subsidiaries conduct their business and that operate in the geographic regions affected by such effect, event, development or change);

changes in GAAP;

earthquakes, hurricanes or other natural disasters (unless and only to the extent such effect, event, development or change affects Nantucket Parent and its subsidiaries in a disproportionate manner as compared to other persons or participants in the industries in which Nantucket Parent and its subsidiaries conduct their business and that operate in the geographic regions affected by such effect, event, development or change); or any action taken by Nantucket Parent and its subsidiaries at the request or with the consent of us, our operating partnership or either of the DownREIT partnerships.

Termination

The merger agreement may be terminated and the mergers may be abandoned at any time prior to the effective time of the partnership mergers, as follows:

by either Nantucket Parent or us if:

the partnership mergers have not occurred on or before September 5, 2006, provided that this right will not be available to a party whose failure to fulfill any obligation under the merger agreement materially contributed to the failure of the partnership mergers to occur on or before September 5, 2006;

any governmental authority shall have enacted, issued, promulgated, enforced or entered any injunction, order, decree or ruling or taken any other action which has the effect of making consummation of any of the mergers illegal or otherwise prevents or prohibits the consummation of any of the mergers and is final and non-appealable; or

by Nantucket Parent if:

each of Nantucket Parent, MergerCo and the Merger Partnerships are not in material breach of their obligations under the merger agreement, and (a) any of our, our operating partnership's or the DownREIT partnerships' representations and warranties are or become untrue or incorrect such that the closing condition pertaining to our, our operating partnership's or the DownREIT partnerships' representations and warranties would be incapable of being satisfied by September 5, 2006, or (b) there has been a breach of any of our, our operating partnership's or the DownREIT partnerships' covenants and agreements under the merger agreement such that the closing condition pertaining to our, our operating partnership's or the DownREIT partnerships' performance and compliance with covenants or agreements would be incapable of being satisfied by September 5, 2006;

our board of directors withdraws, modifies or amends its recommendation that stockholders vote to approve the merger agreement and the merger in any manner adverse to Nantucket Parent, MergerCo or the Merger Partnerships;

our board of directors approves, endorses or recommends an acquisition proposal; we enter into a contract or agreement relating to an acquisition proposal (other than a confidentiality agreement permitted by the merger agreement); a tender offer or exchange offer for any of our outstanding stock that constitutes an acquisition proposal is commenced before the requisite stockholder vote is obtained and our board of directors fails to recommend against acceptance of such tender offer or exchange offer within ten business days after it is commenced; or we or our board of directors publicly announces the intention to do any of the foregoing;

our board of directors exempts any person other than Nantucket Parent or its affiliates from the provisions in Article V of our charter; or

by us if:

neither we, our operating partnership nor either of the DownREIT partnerships are in material breach of our or their respective obligations under the merger agreement, and (a) any of Nantucket Parent's, MergerCo's or either of the Merger Partnerships' representations and warranties are or become untrue or incorrect such that the closing condition pertaining to their representations and warranties would be incapable of being satisfied by September 5, 2006, or (b) there has been a breach of any of Nantucket Parent's, MergerCo's or either of the Merger Partnerships' covenants and agreements under the merger agreement such that the closing condition pertaining to their performance and compliance with covenants and agreements would be incapable of being satisfied by September 5, 2006; or

our board of directors approves and authorizes us to enter into a definitive agreement to implement a superior proposal in accordance with the terms of the merger agreement, so long as:

the requisite stockholder vote has not been obtained;

we are not in or have not been in breach of our obligations under the merger agreement with regard to prohibitions on soliciting acquisition proposals in any material respect;

our board of directors has determined in good faith, after consulting with its financial advisor, that such definitive agreement constitutes a superior proposal and has determined in good faith, after consulting with its outside legal counsel, that the failure to take such actions would be inconsistent with directors' duties to our stockholders under applicable laws;

we have notified Nantucket Parent in writing that we intend to enter into such agreement (attaching the most current version of such definitive agreement);

during the three business days following the receipt by Nantucket Parent of our notice, we have offered to negotiate with, and if accepted, have negotiated in good faith with, Nantucket Parent

to make adjustments to the terms and conditions of the merger agreement to enable us to proceed with the mergers and other transactions contemplated by the merger agreement;

our board of directors has determined in good faith, after the end of such three business day period, after considering the results of such negotiations and any revised proposals made by Nantucket Parent, that the superior proposal giving rise to such notice continues to be a superior proposal; and

we pay to Nantucket Parent the termination fee and reasonable transaction expenses in accordance with the merger agreement simultaneously with the termination of the merger agreement.

Termination Fee and Expenses

We have agreed to pay to Nantucket Parent a termination fee of $85 million and to reimburse Nantucket Parent's, MergerCo's and the Merger Partnerships' reasonable transaction expenses up to a limit of $7.5 million if:

we terminate the merger agreement because our board approves and authorizes us to enter into an agreement to implement a superior proposal in accordance with the terms of the merger agreement;

Nantucket Parent has terminated the merger agreement because our board has withdrawn, modified or amended its recommendation that stockholders vote to approve the merger agreement and the merger in any manner adverse to Nantucket Parent, MergerCo or the Merger Partnerships;

Nantucket Parent has terminated the merger agreement because our board has approved, endorsed or recommended, or we have entered into a contract or agreement relating to, an acquisition proposal, or a tender offer or exchange offer for any of our outstanding stock has been commenced prior to the requisite stockholder vote being obtained and our board has failed to recommend against such offer within ten business days of its commencement, or we or our board has publicly announced its intention to do any of the foregoing;

Nantucket Parent has terminated the merger agreement because our board has exempted any person other than Nantucket Parent or its affiliates from the ownership restrictions in Article V of our charter; or an acquisition proposal has been made to us, our operating partnership, or the DownREIT partnerships, or otherwise publicly announced, prior to the termination date and the merger agreement has been terminated (i) by either Nantucket Parent or us because the mergers have not been consummated on or before September 5, 2006 and such acquisition proposal has not been withdrawn prior to the termination date or because the requisite stockholder vote to approve the merger upon a vote being taken has not been obtained at a duly convened meeting or (ii) by Nantucket Parent because we, our operating partnership, or the DownREIT partnerships have breached our obligations in the merger agreement regarding non-solicitation and convening and holding a meeting of our common stockholders, and in any case, within twelve months following the termination we enter into a contract with respect to or consummate any acquisition proposal; for purposes of determining whether a payment is required, references to 20% in the definition of "acquisition proposal" above are deemed to be references to 50% with respect to the acquisition proposal.

We have agreed that in the event that we fail to pay the termination fee or any termination expenses when due, or Nantucket Parent fails to pay any termination expenses when due, we or Nantucket Parent, as the case may be, will reimburse the other party for all reasonable costs and expenses actually incurred or accrued by such party in connection with the collection under and enforcement of relevant provisions of the merger agreement.

The merger agreement also provides that if either party terminates the merger agreement because of the other party's material breach of the merger agreement which would result in the failure of a condition being satisfied by September 5, 2006, the breaching party must reimburse the non-breaching party for its reasonable transaction expenses up to a limit of $7.5 million.

Amendment and Waiver

The merger agreement may be amended by mutual agreement of the parties in writing, whether before or after our stockholders have approved the merger agreement, provided that after any such stockholder approval, no amendment shall be made which, by law or the rules of the New York Stock Exchange, requires further stockholder approval without first obtaining such stockholder approval. The merger agreement also provides that, at any time prior to the effective time of the partnership mergers we or Nantucket Parent may extend the time for the performance of any obligations of the other parties, waive any inaccuracies in the representations and warranties of the other parties or waive compliance with any of the agreements or conditions to its obligations contained in the merger agreement.

NO DISSENTERS RIGHTS OF APPRAISAL

Under Maryland corporate law, because shares of our common stock were listed on the New York Stock Exchange on the record date for determining stockholders entitled to vote at the special meeting, our common stockholders who object to the merger do not have any appraisal rights or dissenters rights in connection with the merger. Under Maryland corporate law, because the holders of our Series E preferred stock are not entitled to vote on the merger, they do not have any appraisal rights or dissenters rights in connection with the merger.

MULTIPLE STOCKHOLDERS SHARING ONE ADDRESS

We are sending only one proxy statement to stockholders that share a single address unless we received contrary instructions from any stockholder at that address. This practice, known as householding, is designed to reduce our printing and postage costs. However, if any stockholder residing at such an address wishes to receive a separate annual report or proxy statement in the future, they may telephone Stephen M. Walsh at (202) 729-1700 or write to CarrAmerica Realty Corporation at 1850 K Street, N.W., Washington, D.C. 20006, Attention: Stephen M. Walsh, Senior Vice-President, Capital Markets. If you are receiving multiple copies of our annual report and proxy statement, you can request householding by contacting us in the same manner and if you did not receive an individual copy of this proxy statement, you can obtain a copy by contacting us in the same manner.

SUBMISSION OF STOCKHOLDER PROPOSALS

We intend to hold an annual meeting in 2006 only if the mergers are not completed. If we hold such an annual meeting, it will be more than 60 days after the anniversary date of the 2005 annual meeting. In order to be eligible for inclusion in our proxy materials for our 2006 annual meeting, if such meeting is held, written notice of any stockholder proposal must be received by us a reasonable time before we begin to print and mail our proxy materials for such annual meeting. In addition, nominations by stockholders of candidates for director and proposals by stockholders other than pursuant to the Rule 14a-8 under the Exchange Act process must be submitted in accordance with our current bylaws. Our bylaws currently provide that in order for a stockholder to nominate a candidate for election as a director at an annual meeting of stockholders or propose business for consideration at an annual meeting that is delayed by more than 60 days from the first anniversary of the previous year's annual meeting, written notice (including certain specified information) must be delivered to our Corporate Secretary, at our principal executive offices, no sooner than the 90th day prior to the annual meeting and not later than either (1) the 60th day prior to the annual meeting or (2) the tenth day following the day on which public announcement of the date of the meeting is first made, whichever is later. Our Corporate Secretary will provide a copy of our bylaws upon written request and without charge.

OTHER MATTERS

We are not aware of any business or matter other than as indicated above, which may be properly presented at the special meeting. If, however, any other matter properly comes before the special meeting, the persons named as proxies in the accompanying proxy will, in their discretion, vote thereon in accordance with their best judgment.

- (a) Each share of common stock, par value $0.01 per share, of MergerCo issued and outstanding immediately prior to the Company Merger Effective Time shall remain as one issued and outstanding share of common stock of the Surviving Corporation.
- (b) Each Company Common Share that is owned by any Subsidiary or by MergerCo immediately prior to the Company Merger Effective Time shall automatically be canceled and retired and shall cease to exist, and no payment shall be made with respect thereto.
- (c) Each Company Common Share issued and outstanding immediately prior to the Company Merger Effective Time (other than shares to be canceled in accordance with Section 3.01(b)) shall automatically be converted into, and canceled in exchange for, the right to receive an amount in cash to be paid by Parent equal to $44.75, without interest (the Company Common Share Merger Consideration).
- (d) Each Company Series E Preferred Share issued and outstanding immediately prior to the Company Merger Effective Time (other than the Company Series E Shares owned by any Subsidiary or by MergerCo, which shall be automatically cancelled and retired and cease to exist) shall automatically be converted into, and shall be cancelled in exchange for, the right to receive one share of 7.50% Series E Cumulative Redeemable Preferred Stock, par value $.01 per share (the MergerCo Preferred Shares), of the Surviving Corporation, (the Series E Preferred Share Merger Consideration). (e) Immediately prior to the Company Merger Effective Time, each outstanding qualified or nonqualified option to purchase Company Common Shares (Company Share Options) under any employee or director share option or compensation plan or arrangement of the Company (Company Option Plans), shall become fully vested and exercisable (whether or not then vested or subject to any performance condition that has not been satisfied, and regardless of the exercise price thereof). At the Company Merger Effective Time, each Company Share Option not theretofore exercised shall be canceled in exchange for the right to receive a single lump sum cash payment, equal to the product of (i) the number of Company Common Shares subject to such Company Share Option immediately prior to the Company Merger Effective Time, whether or not vested or exercisable, and (ii) the excess, if any, of the Company Common Share Merger Consideration over the exercise price per share of such Company Share Option (the Option Merger Consideration) less any applicable Taxes required to be withheld in accordance with Section 3.04 with respect to such payment. If the exercise price per share of any such Company Share Option is equal to or greater than the Company Common Share Merger Consideration, such Company Share Option shall be canceled without any cash payment being made in respect thereof.

(f) The Buyer Parties acknowledge that all restricted share awards (Company Restricted Shares) granted pursuant to the 1997 Employee Stock Option and Incentive Plan (the Incentive Plan) or otherwise that remain unvested automatically shall become fully vested and free of any forfeiture restrictions immediately prior to the Company Merger Effective Time, and each Company Restricted Share shall be considered an outstanding Company Common Share for all purposes of this Agreement, including the right to receive the Company Common Share Merger Consideration.

(g) The Buyer Parties acknowledge that all restricted share unit and deferred share unit awards (Company Restricted Share Units) granted pursuant to the Incentive Plan or otherwise (including any Company Restricted Share Units previously and additionally credited after the grant date on account of dividend equivalents) automatically shall become fully vested and free of any forfeiture restrictions immediately prior to the Company Merger Effective Time, and each Company Restricted Unit shall be considered an outstanding Company Common Share for all purposes of this Agreement, including the right to receive the Company Common Share Merger Consideration. Payment of the Company Common Share Merger Consideration in respect of any deferred Company Restricted Share Unit shall be performed in accordance with Section 7.05(d).

(h) The Buyer Parties acknowledge that the cash bonus payable pursuant to stock value units awarded in connection with certain awards of Company Restricted Shares and Company Restricted Share Units as set forth in Section 4.03(d) the Disclosure Schedule (the SVUs) automatically shall, to the extent not previously vested, become fully vested and free of any forfeiture restrictions immediately prior to the Company Merger Effective Time. The Buyer Parties also acknowledge that any cash dividend equivalent payments as set forth in Section 4.03(e) of the Disclosure Schedule accumulated under and payable in connection with vesting of restricted and deferred share unit awards also automatically shall become fully vested. Parent shall cause the Paying Agent to make, and the Paying Agent shall make, the SVU cash bonus and the accumulated dividend equivalent payments becoming vested under this paragraph out of the Exchange Fund (the aggregate amount of such stock value unit cash bonus and accumulated dividend equivalent payments shall be referred to as the SVU Settlement Amount) less any applicable Taxes required to be withheld in accordance with Section 3.04 with respect to such payment.

SECTION 3.02 Effect on Partnership Units.

(a) At the CRH Merger Effective Time, by virtue of the CRH Partnership Merger and without any action on the part of the holder of any partnership interest of CRH or CRH Merger Partnership, each unit of limited partner interest in CRH issued and outstanding immediately prior to the CRH Merger Effective Time (CRH LP Unit) (other than any CRH LP Units held by the Company or any of its Subsidiaries, which CRH LP Units shall remain outstanding and unchanged as units of limited partner interest in the CRH Surviving Partnership), subject to the terms and conditions set forth herein, shall be converted, without any action on the part of the holder, into the right to receive cash in an amount equal to the Company Common Share Merger Consideration, without interest (the CRH Cash Merger Consideration); provided, however, that in lieu of the CRH Cash Merger

Consideration, if but only if (i) the holder of such CRH LP Unit has effectively made and not revoked a valid election pursuant to Section 3.02(f) to receive a CRH Class A Preferred Unit in respect thereof, and (ii) the issuance of such CRH Class A Preferred Units would be exempt from registration under the Securities Act and applicable state securities laws, then each of such holder's CRH LP Units shall be converted into one fully paid CRH Class A Preferred Unit, without interest (such CRH Class A Preferred Unit and/or CRH Cash Merger Consideration, the CRH Merger Consideration).

(b) At the CAR Merger Effective Time, by virtue of the CAR Partnership Merger and without any action on the part of the holder of any partnership interest of CAR or CAR Merger Partnership, each unit of limited partner interest in CAR issued and outstanding immediately prior to the CAR Merger Effective Time (CAR LP Unit) (other than any CAR LP Units held by the Company or any of its Subsidiaries, which CAR LP Units shall remain outstanding and unchanged as units of limited partner interest in the CAR Surviving Partnership), subject to the terms and conditions set forth herein, shall be converted, without any action on the part of the holder, into the right to receive cash in an amount equal to the Company Common Share Merger Consideration, without interest (the CAR Cash Merger Consideration); provided, however, that in lieu of the CAR Cash Merger Consideration, if but only if (i) the holder of such CAR LP Unit has effectively made and not revoked a valid election pursuant to Section 3.02(g) to receive a CAR Class A Preferred Unit in respect thereof, and (ii) the issuance of such CAR Class A Preferred Units would be exempt from registration under the Securities Act and applicable state securities laws, then each of such holder's CAR LP Units shall be converted into one fully paid CAR Class A Preferred Unit, without interest (such CAR Class A Preferred Unit and/or CAR Cash Merger Consideration, the CAR Merger Consideration and together with the Company Common Share Merger Consideration, the Option Merger Consideration, the SVU Settlement Amount, the Series E Preferred Share Merger Consideration and the CRH Merger Consideration, the Merger Consideration).

(c) At the CRH Merger Effective Time, the general partner interests of CRH shall remain outstanding and unchanged as general partner interests in the CRH Surviving Partnership, entitling the holder thereof to such rights, duties and obligations as are more fully set forth in the Amended CRH Partnership Agreement.

(d) At the CAR Merger Effective Time, the general partner interests of CAR shall remain outstanding and unchanged as general partner interests in the CAR Surviving Partnership, entitling the holder thereof to such rights, duties and obligations as are more fully set forth in the Amended CAR Partnership Agreement.

(e) At the CRH Merger Effective Time, without any action of any Person, each partnership interest in CRH Merger Partnership shall automatically be cancelled and cease to exist, the holders thereof shall cease to have any rights with respect thereto, and no payment shall be made with respect thereto. At the CAR Merger Effective Time, without any action of any Person, each partnership interest in CAR Merger Partnership shall automatically be cancelled and cease to exist, the holders thereof shall cease to have any rights with respect thereto, and no payment shall be made with respect thereto.

(f) Subject to Section 3.02(f)(iv) and in accordance with Section 3.02(a), each eligible holder of CRH LP Units shall be entitled, with respect to all, but not less than all, of such holder's CRH LP Units, to make an unconditional election, on or prior to the Election Date, to receive in the CRH Partnership Merger in lieu of the CRH Cash Merger Consideration to which such holder is otherwise entitled, CRH Class A Preferred Units (a CRH Unit Election) as follows:

(i) CRH Merger Partnership shall prepare and deliver to CRH, as promptly as practicable following the date of this Agreement, and CRH shall mail to the holders of CRH LP Units, a form of election, which form shall be subject to the reasonable approval of the general partner of CRH (the CRH Form of Election). The CRH Form of Election may be used by each holder of CRH LP Units to designate such holder's election to exchange all, but not less than all, of the CRH LP Units held by such holder into CRH Class A Preferred Units. Any such holder's election to receive CRH Class A Preferred Units shall be deemed to have been properly made only if Parent shall have received at its principal executive office, not later than 5:00 p.m., New York City time on that date that is five Business Days before the scheduled date of the Company Stockholders Meeting (the Election Date), a CRH Form of Election specifying that such holder elects to receive the CRH Class A Preferred Units and otherwise properly completed and signed. The CRH Form of Election shall state therein the date that constitutes the Election Date.

(ii) A CRH Form of Election may be revoked by any holder of a CRH LP Unit only by written notice received by Parent prior to 5:00 p.m., New York City time, on the Election Date. In addition, all CRH Forms of Election shall automatically be revoked if the CRH Partnership Merger has been abandoned.

(iii) The reasonable determination of Parent shall be binding as to whether or not elections to receive CRH Class A Preferred Units have been properly made or revoked. If Parent determines that any election to receive CRH Class A Preferred Units was not properly made, the CRH LP Units with respect to which such election was not properly made shall be converted into CRH Cash Merger Consideration in accordance with Section 3.02(a). Parent may, with the agreement of the general partner of CRH, make such rules as are consistent with this Section 3.02(f) for the implementation of elections provided for herein as shall be necessary or desirable to fully effect such elections.

(iv) Each holder of CRH LP Units, as a condition to making a CRH Unit Election with respect to such holder's CRH LP Units, shall (i) represent to Parent that such holder is an Accredited Investor (as such term is defined under Rule 501 promulgated under the Securities Act) and (ii) agree to be bound by the terms of the limited partnership agreement of the CRH Surviving Partnership as it will be in effect immediately following the CRH Merger Effective Time (which agreement shall incorporate the terms of the CRH Class A Preferred Units set forth in Annex A attached as Exhibit B hereto and the matters set forth in Section 3.02 of the Disclosure Schedule and any other terms determined by Parent that are not inconsistent with the terms of the CRH Class A Preferred Units and such matters).

(v) The Company Parties agree to reasonably cooperate with Parent in preparing any disclosure statement or other disclosure information to accompany the CRH Form of Election, including information applicable to an offering of securities exempt from registration under the Securities Act pursuant to Rule 506 thereunder.

(g) Subject to Section 3.02(g)(iv) and in accordance with Section 3.02(b), each eligible holder of CAR LP Unit shall be entitled, with respect to all, but not less than all, of such holder's CAR LP Units, to make an unconditional election, on or prior to the Election Date, to receive in the CAR Partnership Merger, in lieu of the CAR Cash Merger Consideration to which such holder is otherwise entitled, CAR Class A Preferred Units (a CAR Unit Election) as follows:

(i) CAR Merger Partnership shall prepare and deliver to CAR, as promptly as practicable following the date of this Agreement, and CAR shall mail to the holders of CAR LP Units a form of election, which form shall be subject to the reasonable approval of the general partner of CAR (the CAR Form of Election). The CAR Form of Election may be used by each holder of CAR LP Units to designate such holder's election to exchange all, but not less than all, of the CAR LP Units held by such holder into CAR Class A Preferred Units. Any such holder's election to receive CAR Class A Preferred Units shall be deemed to have been properly made only if Parent shall have received at its principal executive office, not later than 5:00 p.m., New York City time on the Election Date, a CAR Form of Election specifying whether such holder elects to receive CAR Class A Preferred Units and otherwise properly completed and signed. The CAR Form of Election shall state therein the date that constitutes the Election Date.

(ii) A CAR Form of Election may be revoked by any holder of a CAR LP Unit only by written notice received by Parent prior to 5:00 p.m., New York City time, on the Election Date. In addition, all CAR Forms of Election shall automatically be revoked if the CAR Partnership Merger has been abandoned.

Section 3.02(b). Parent may, with the agreement of the general partner of CAR, make such rules as are consistent with this Section 3.02(g) for the implementation of elections provided for herein as shall be necessary or desirable to fully effect such elections.

(iv) Each holder of CAR LP Units, as a condition to making a CAR Unit Election with respect to such holder's CAR LP Units, shall (i) represent to Parent that such holder is an Accredited Investor (as such term is defined under Rule 501 promulgated under the Securities Act) and (ii) agree to be bound by the terms of the limited partnership agreement of the CAR Surviving Partnership as it will be in effect immediately following the CAR Merger Effective Time (which agreement shall incorporate the terms of the CAR Class A Preferred Units set forth in Annex A attached as Exhibit A hereto and the matters set forth in Section 3.02 of the Disclosure Schedule and any other terms determined by Parent that are not inconsistent with the terms of the CAR Class A Preferred Units and such matters).

(v) The Company Parties agree to reasonably cooperate with Parent in preparing any disclosure statement or other disclosure information to accompany the CAR Form of Election, including information applicable to an offering of securities exempt from registration under the Securities Act pursuant to Rule 506 thereunder.

(a) Paying Agent. Prior to the Partnership Mergers Effective Time, Parent shall appoint a bank or trust company reasonably satisfactory to the Company to act as Exchange and Paying Agent (the Paying Agent) for the payment or exchange, as applicable, in accordance with this Article III of the Merger Consideration (collectively, such cash and securities being referred to as the Exchange Fund). On or before the Partnership Mergers Effective Time, Parent shall deposit with the Paying Agent the Merger Consideration, for the benefit of the holders of Company Common Shares, the Company Series E Preferred Shares, Company Share Options, SVUs, CRH LP Units and CAR LP Units, as applicable. The Parent shall cause the Paying Agent to make, and the Paying Agent shall make, payments of the Merger Consideration out of the Exchange Fund in accordance with this Agreement. The Exchange Fund shall not be used for any other purpose. Any and all interest earned on cash deposited in the Exchange Fund shall be paid to the Surviving Corporation.

(b) Share Transfer Books. At the Company Merger Effective Time, the CRH Merger Effective Time or the CAR Merger Effective Time, as applicable, the share transfer books of the Company and the DownREIT Partnerships shall be closed and thereafter there shall be no further registration of transfers of the Company Common Shares, Company Restricted Shares, Company Series E Preferred Shares, CRH LP Units or CAR LP Units, as applicable. From and after the Company Merger Effective Time, the CRH Merger Effective Time or the CAR Merger Effective Time, as applicable, persons who held Company Common Shares, Company Restricted Shares, Company Series E Preferred Shares, CRH LP Units or CAR LP Units immediately prior to the Company Merger Effective Time, the CRH Merger Effective Time or the CAR Merger Effective Time, as applicable, shall cease to have rights with respect to such shares or units, except as otherwise provided for herein. On or after the Company Merger Effective Time, any Certificates presented to the Paying Agent, the Surviving Corporation or the transfer agent for any reason shall be exchanged for the applicable Merger Consideration with respect to the Company Common Shares or Company Series E Preferred Shares formerly represented thereby.

(c) Exchange Procedures for Certificates and Uncertificated Units. Promptly after the Company Merger Effective Time (but in any event within five (5) Business Days), Parent shall cause the Paying Agent to mail to each person who immediately prior to the Company Merger Effective Time, the CRH Merger Effective Time or the CAR Merger Effective Time, as applicable, held Company Common Shares, Company Series E Preferred Shares, CRH LP Units or CAR LP Units that were exchanged for the right to receive the applicable Merger Consideration (each, a Former Equityholder), pursuant to Section 3.01: (i) a letter of transmittal (which shall specify that, if applicable, delivery of Certificates shall be effected, and risk of loss and title to the Certificates shall pass to the Paying Agent, only upon delivery of the Certificates to the Paying Agent, and which letter shall be in such form and have such other provisions as Parent may reasonably specify) and (ii) if applicable, instructions for use in effecting the surrender of the Former Equityholder's Certificates in exchange for the applicable Merger Consideration to which the holder thereof is entitled. Upon (i) if applicable, surrender by a Former Equityholder of a Certificate for cancellation to the Paying Agent or to such other agent or agents reasonably satisfactory to the Company as may be appointed by Parent, and (ii) delivery by such Former Equityholder of such letter of transmittal (together with such Certificate, if applicable), duly executed and completed in accordance with the instructions thereto, and such other documents as may reasonably be required by the Paying Agent, such Former Equityholder shall receive in exchange therefor the applicable Merger Consideration payable in respect of the Company Common Shares, Company Series E Preferred Shares, CRH LP Units or CAR LP Units, pursuant to the provisions of this Article III, and the Certificate (if any) so surrendered shall forthwith be canceled. In the event of a transfer of ownership of Company Common Shares, Company Series E Preferred Shares, CRH LP Units or CAR LP Units that is not registered in the transfer records of the Company or the applicable DownREIT Partnership, if applicable, payment may be made to a person other than the person in whose name the Certificate so surrendered is registered, if such Certificate shall be properly endorsed or otherwise be in proper form for transfer and the person requesting such payment shall pay any transfer or other Taxes required by reason of the payment to a person other than the registered holder of such Certificate or establish to the satisfaction of Parent that such Tax has been paid or is not applicable. Until surrendered as contemplated by this Section 3.03, each Certificate shall be deemed at any time after the Company Merger Effective Time, CRH Merger Effective Time or CAR Merger Effective Time, as applicable, to represent only the right to receive, upon such surrender, the applicable Merger Consideration as contemplated by this Section 3.03. No interest shall be paid or accrue on any Merger Consideration.

(d) No Further Ownership Rights in Company Common Shares, Company Series E Preferred Shares, CRH LP Units, CAR LP Units or Company Share Options. At the Company Merger Effective Time, CRH Merger Effective Time or CAR Merger Effective Time, as applicable, holders of Company Common Shares, Company Series E Preferred Shares, CRH LP Units (that are converted into the right to receive cash in the CRH Partnership Merger pursuant to Section 3.02(a)) or CAR LP Units (that are converted into the right to receive cash in the CAR Partnership Merger pursuant to Section 3.02(b)) shall cease to be, and shall have no rights as, stockholders of the Company or limited partners of the applicable DownREIT Partnership other than the right to receive the applicable Merger Consideration provided under this Article III. The applicable Merger Consideration paid in accordance with the terms of this Article III shall be deemed to have been paid in full satisfaction of all rights and privileges pertaining to the Company Common Shares, Company Series E Preferred Shares, CRH LP Units and CAR LP Units exchanged therefor and, if applicable, represented by Certificates exchanged therefor. The Option Merger Consideration paid with respect to Company Share Options in accordance with the terms of this Article III shall be deemed to have been paid in full satisfaction of all rights and privileges pertaining to the canceled Company Share Options, and on and after the Company Merger Effective Time the holder of a Company Share Option shall have no further rights with respect to any Company Share Option, other than the right to receive the Option Merger Consideration as provided in Section 3.01(e).

(e) Termination of Exchange Fund. Any portion of the Exchange Fund which remains undistributed to the holders of Company Common Shares, Company Series E Preferred Shares, CRH LP Units, CAR LP Units, Company Share Options or SVUs for twelve (12) months after the Company Merger Effective Time shall be delivered to the Surviving Corporation, and any holders of Company Common Shares, Company Series E Preferred Shares, CRH LP Units, CAR LP Units, Company Share Options or SVUs prior to the applicable Merger who have not theretofore complied with this Article III shall thereafter look only to the Surviving Corporation for payment of the applicable Merger Consideration.

(f) No Liability. None of the Buyer Parties, Company Parties or the Paying Agent, or any employee, officer, director, shareholder, partner, agent or Affiliate thereof, shall be liable to any person in respect of any Merger Consideration, if the Exchange Fund has been delivered to a public official pursuant to any applicable abandoned property, escheat or similar Law.

(g) Investment of Exchange Fund. The Paying Agent shall invest the cash included in the Exchange Fund, as directed by Parent, on a daily basis. Any net profit resulting from, or interest or income produced by, such investments shall be placed in the Exchange Fund. To the extent that there are losses with respect to such investments, or the Exchange Fund diminishes for other reasons below the level required to make prompt payments of the Merger Consideration as contemplated hereby, Parent shall promptly replace or restore the portion of the Exchange Fund lost through investments or other events so as to ensure that the Exchange Fund is, at all times, maintained at a level sufficient to make all such payments in full.

(h) Lost Certificates. If any Certificate shall have been lost, stolen or destroyed, upon the making of an affidavit of that fact by the person claiming such Certificate to be lost, stolen or destroyed and, if required by Parent or the Paying Agent, the posting by such person of a bond in such amount as Parent or the Paying Agent reasonably may direct, the Paying Agent will issue in exchange for such lost, stolen or destroyed Certificate the applicable Merger Consideration payable in respect thereof pursuant to this Agreement.

SECTION 3.04 Withholding Rights. The Surviving Corporation, Parent or the Paying Agent, as applicable, shall be entitled to deduct and withhold from the consideration otherwise payable pursuant to this Agreement to any holder of Company Common Shares, Company Share Options, Company Series E Preferred Shares, CRH LP Units, CAR LP Units or SVUs such amounts as it is required to deduct and withhold with respect to the making of such payment under the Code, and the rules and regulations promulgated thereunder, or any provision of state, local or foreign Tax law. To the extent that amounts are so withheld by the Surviving Corporation, Parent or the Paying Agent, as applicable, such withheld amounts (i) shall be remitted by the Surviving Corporation or the Paying Agent, as the case may be, to the applicable Governmental Authority, and (ii) shall be treated for all purposes of this Agreement as having been paid to the holder of Company Common Shares, Company Share Options, Company Series E Preferred Shares, CRH LP Units, CAR LP Units, or SVUs in respect of which such deduction and withholding was made by the Surviving Corporation, Parent or the Paying Agent, as applicable.

SECTION 3.05 Dissenters' Rights. No dissenters' or appraisal rights shall be available with respect to the Mergers or the other transactions contemplated hereby.

SECTION 3.06 Termination of DRIP. The Company shall take all actions necessary to terminate its Dividend Reinvestment and Share Purchase Plan (the "DRIP"), effective as soon as possible after the date of this Agreement, and ensure that no purchase or other rights under the DRIP enable the holder of such rights to acquire any interest in the Surviving Corporation or any other Company Party or Buyer Party as a result of such purchase or the exercise of such rights at or after such date.

SECTION 3.07 Debt Offers.

(a) The Company and the Operating Partnership shall use their respective commercially reasonable efforts to commence as promptly as practicable following the date of receipt of the Offer Documents from Parent pursuant to subparagraph (ii) below and instructions from Parent to commence the Debt Offers, offers to purchase, and related consent solicitations with respect to, all of the outstanding aggregate principal amount of the Senior Notes on the terms and conditions set forth in Section 3.07(a) of the Disclosure Schedule (or as may otherwise be agreed between the Company and Parent) and such other customary terms and conditions as are reasonably acceptable to Parent and the Company (including the related consent solicitations, collectively, the "Debt Offers"); provided that (i) this Agreement shall have not been terminated in accordance with Section 9.01, (ii) the Company shall have received from Parent the completed Offer Documents which shall be in form and substance reasonably satisfactory to the Company, and (iii) at the time of such commencement, the Buyer Parties shall have otherwise performed or complied with all of their agreements and covenants required by this Agreement to be performed on or prior to the time that the Debt Offers are to be commenced. The Company and the Operating Partnership shall waive any of the conditions to the Debt Offers (other than that the Mergers shall have been consummated and that there shall be no order prohibiting consummation of the Debt Offers) as may be reasonably requested by Parent and shall not, without the written consent of Parent, waive any condition to the Debt Offers or make any changes to the Debt Offers other than as agreed between Parent and the Company. Neither the Company nor the Operating Partnership need make any change to the terms and conditions of the Debt Offers without their prior written consent, which shall not be unreasonably withheld, provided that such consent shall not be required for an increase in any consideration payable in the Debt Offers or for any change that is not material.

(b) The Company and the Operating Partnership agree that, promptly following the consent expiration date, assuming the requisite consents are received, each of the Company, the Operating Partnership and their Subsidiaries as is necessary shall execute supplemental indentures to the indentures governing the Senior Notes, which supplemental indentures shall implement the amendments set forth in the Offer Documents and shall become operative concurrently with the Company Merger Effective Time, subject to the terms and conditions of this Agreement (including the conditions to the Debt Offers). Concurrent with the Company Merger Effective Time, Parent shall cause the Company or the Operating Partnership to accept for payment and after the Company Merger Effective Time, Parent shall cause the Surviving Corporation or the Operating Partnership to promptly pay for the Senior Notes that have been properly tendered and not properly withdrawn pursuant to the Debt Offers and in accordance with the Debt Offers.

(c) Promptly after the date of this Agreement, Parent, at its own expense, shall prepare all necessary and appropriate documentation in connection with the Debt Offers, including the offers to purchase, related letters of transmittal and other related documents (collectively, the Offer Documents). Parent, the Company and the Operating Partnership shall, and shall cause their respective subsidiaries to, reasonably cooperate with each other in the preparation of the Offer Documents. The Offer Documents (including all amendments or supplements thereto) and all mailings to the holders of the Senior Notes in connection with the Debt Offers shall be subject to the prior review of, and comment by, the Company and Parent and shall be reasonably acceptable in form and substance to each of them. If at any time prior to the completion of the Debt Offers any information in the Offer Documents should be discovered by the Company and the Subsidiaries, on the one hand, or Parent, on the other, which should be set forth in an amendment or supplement to the Offer Documents, so that the Offer Documents shall not contain any untrue statement of a material fact or omit to state any material fact required to be stated therein or necessary in order to make the statements therein, in light of circumstances under which they are made, not misleading, the party that discovers such information shall promptly notify the other party, and an appropriate amendment or supplement describing such information shall be disseminated by or on behalf of the Company and the Operating Partnership to the holders of the applicable Senior Notes. Notwithstanding anything to the contrary in this Section 3.07, the Company and the Operating Partnership shall comply with the requirements of Rule 14e-1 under the Exchange Act and any other applicable Law to the extent such Laws are applicable in connection with the Debt Offers. To the extent that the provisions of any applicable Law conflict with this Section 3.07, the Company and the Operating Partnership shall comply with the applicable Law and shall not be deemed to have breached their obligations hereunder by such compliance.

(d) In connection with the Debt Offers, Parent may select one or more dealer managers (of which one such dealer manager shall be the Company Financial Advisor and which others will be reasonably acceptable to the Company), information agents, depositaries and other agents to provide assistance in connection therewith and the Company and the Operating Partnership shall, and shall cause the Subsidiaries to, enter into customary agreements (including indemnities) with such parties so selected and on terms and conditions acceptable to Parent. Parent shall pay the fees and expenses of any dealer manager, information agent, depositary or other agent retained in connection with the Debt Offers, and Parent further agrees to reimburse the Company and the Operating Partnership and the Subsidiaries for all of their reasonable out-of-pocket costs (including reasonable fees and expenses of their Representatives) in connection with the Debt Offers promptly following incurrence and delivery of reasonable documentation of such costs. Each of the Company and Parent shall furnish all information concerning itself and its affiliates that is required to be included in the Proxy Statement or, to the extent applicable, the Other Filings, or that is customarily included in proxy statements prepared in connection with transactions of the type contemplated by this Agreement. Each of the Company and Parent shall use its reasonable efforts, after consultation with the other, to respond as promptly as practicable to any comments of the SEC with respect to the Proxy Statement or the Other Filings, and the Company shall use its reasonable efforts to cause the definitive Proxy Statement to be cleared by the SEC and mailed to the Company's stockholders as promptly as reasonably practicable following clearance from the SEC. The Company shall promptly notify Parent upon the receipt of any comments from the SEC or its staff or any request from the SEC or its staff for amendments or supplements to the Proxy Statement or the Other Filings and shall promptly provide Parent with copies of all correspondence between the Company and its Representatives, on the one hand, and the SEC and its staff, on the other hand, relating to the Proxy Statement or the Other Filings. If at any time prior to the Company Stockholders Meeting, any information relating to the Company Parties or the Buyer Parties or any of their respective affiliates, officers or directors, should be discovered by the Company or Parent which should be set forth in an amendment or supplement to the Proxy Statement or the Other Filings, so that the Proxy Statement or the Other Filings shall not contain any untrue statement of a material fact or omit to state any material fact required to be stated therein or necessary in order to make the statements therein, in light of the circumstances under which they are made, not misleading, the party which discovers such information shall promptly notify the other parties, and an appropriate amendment or supplement describing such information shall be filed with the SEC and, to the extent required by applicable Law, disseminated to the stockholders of the Company. Notwithstanding anything to the contrary stated above, prior to filing or mailing the Proxy Statement or filing the Other Filings (or any amendment or supplement thereto) or responding to any comments of the SEC with respect thereto, the Company shall provide Parent a reasonable opportunity to review and comment on such document or response and will include in such documents or responses all comments reasonably proposed by Parent, and to the extent practicable, the Company will provide Parent with the opportunity to participate in any substantive calls between the Company, or any of its Representatives, and the SEC concerning the Proxy Statement.

SECTION 7.02 Company Stockholders Meeting. The Company shall, in accordance with applicable Law and the Company Charter and Company Bylaws, duly call, give notice of, convene and hold a meeting of its stockholders (including any adjournments or postponements thereof, the Company Stockholders Meeting) as promptly as practicable after the date that the Proxy Statement is cleared by the SEC, for the purpose of obtaining the Company Stockholder Approval. Except to the extent that the Company Board shall have withdrawn, qualified or modified its approval or recommendation of this Agreement or the Company Merger in compliance with Section 7.04(c), the Company Board shall recommend to holders of the Company Common Shares that they approve this Agreement and the Company Merger and shall include such recommendations in the Proxy Statement (the Company Recommendation). Unless this Agreement shall have been terminated in accordance with Section 9.01, the Company shall hold the Company Stockholders Meeting regardless of whether the Company Board has withdrawn, qualified or modified its approval or recommendation of this Agreement or the Company Merger. Subject to Section 7.04(c), the Company will use reasonable best efforts to solicit or cause to be solicited from its stockholders proxies in favor of the approval of this Agreement and the Company Merger and will take all other action necessary or advisable to secure the vote or consent of its stockholders required by the rules of the NYSE or applicable Law to obtain such approvals.

SECTION 7.03 Access to Information; Confidentiality.

(a) Subject to applicable Law, from the date hereof until the Company Merger Effective Time, the Company shall, and shall cause the Subsidiaries and the Representatives of the Company and the Subsidiaries to, afford Parent and its Representatives, following notice from Parent to the Company in accordance with this Section 7.03, reasonable access during normal business hours to the officers, employees, agents, properties, offices, plants and other facilities, books and records of the Company and each Subsidiary, and all other financial, operating and other data and information as Parent may reasonably request. Notwithstanding the foregoing, neither Parent nor any of its Representatives shall (i) contact or have any discussions with any of the Company's employees, agents, or representatives, unless in each case Parent obtains the prior written consent of the Company, which shall not be unreasonably withheld, (ii) contact or have any discussions with any of the landlords/sublandlords, tenants/subtenants, or licensees or franchisees of the Company or its Subsidiaries, unless in each case Parent obtains the prior written consent of the Company, which shall not be unreasonably withheld, provided, that clauses (i) and (ii) shall not be applicable to contacts or discussions not related to the transactions contemplated by this Agreement and shall not be applicable to contacts and discussions with the Company's executive officers or its financial advisors, or (iii) damage any property or any portion thereof. Without limiting the provisions of this Section 7.03(a) and subject to any rights of tenants under Company Leases, Parent and its Representatives shall have the right to conduct appraisal and environmental and engineering inspections of each of the Company Properties; provided, however, that neither the Buyer Parties nor their Representatives shall have the right to take and analyze any samples of any environmental media (including soil, groundwater, surface water, air or sediment) or any building material or to perform any invasive testing procedure on any building. Parent shall schedule and coordinate all inspections with the Company and shall give the Company at least three (3) Business Days prior written notice thereof, setting forth the inspection or materials that Parent or its representatives intend to conduct. The Company shall be entitled to have representatives present at all times during any such inspection. Notwithstanding the foregoing, neither the Company nor any of the Subsidiaries shall be required to provide access to or to disclose information where such access or disclosure would jeopardize the attorney-client privilege of the Company or the Subsidiaries or contravene any Law or binding agreement entered into prior to the date of this Agreement (provided that the Company and the Subsidiaries shall use commercially reasonable efforts to obtain consent from the applicable Third Party or enter into a customary joint defense agreement to enable the disclosure of such information). No investigation conducted under this Section 7.03, however, shall affect or be deemed to modify any representation or warranty made in this Agreement.

(b) Prior to the Company Merger Effective Time, all information obtained by Parent pursuant to this Section 7.03 shall be kept confidential in accordance with the confidentiality agreement dated February 10, 2006 between Blackstone Real Estate Acquisitions V L.L.C., the Operating Partnership and the Company (the Confidentiality Agreement).

SECTION 7.04 No Solicitation of Transactions.

(a) Subject to Section 7.04(c), none of the Company, the Operating Partnership, or any other Subsidiary shall, nor shall it authorize or permit, directly or indirectly, any Representative of the Company, the Operating Partnership or any other Subsidiary to, directly or indirectly, (i) initiate, solicit, knowingly encourage or knowingly facilitate (including by way of furnishing nonpublic information or assistance) any inquiries or the making of any proposal or other action that constitutes, or may reasonably be expected to lead to, any Acquisition Proposal, (ii) enter into discussions or negotiate with any Person in furtherance of such inquiries or to obtain an Acquisition Proposal or release any Person from any standstill agreement or similar obligation to the Company or any Subsidiary other than the automatic termination of standstill obligations pursuant to the terms of agreements as in effect as of the date hereof, by virtue of the execution and announcement of this Agreement or otherwise, (iii) withdraw, modify or amend the Company Recommendation in any manner adverse to any Buyer Party, (iv) approve, endorse or recommend any Acquisition Proposal, or (v) enter into any agreement in principle, arrangement, understanding, contract or agreement relating to an Acquisition Proposal. The Company shall take, and shall cause the Subsidiaries to take, all actions reasonably necessary to cause their respective Representatives to immediately cease any discussions, negotiations or communications with any party or parties with respect to any Acquisition Proposal; provided, however, that nothing in this Section 7.04 shall preclude the Company, the Operating Partnership or their respective Representatives from contacting any such party or parties solely for the purpose of complying with the provisions of the last sentence of this Section 7.04(a). The Company and the Subsidiaries shall be responsible for any failure on the part of their respective Representatives to comply with this Section 7.04(a). The Company and the Operating Partnership shall promptly request each Person that has heretofore executed a confidentiality agreement in connection with its consideration of an Acquisition Proposal, if any, to return or destroy all confidential information heretofore furnished to such person by or on behalf of the Company or any Subsidiary.

(b) The Company and the Operating Partnership shall promptly notify Parent (but in no event less than twenty-four hours following the Company's or any Subsidiary's initial receipt) of an Acquisition Proposal or indication by any Person considering making an Acquisition Proposal, any request for information relating to the Company or any Subsidiaries (other than requests for information in the ordinary course of business and unrelated to an Acquisition Proposal) or any inquiry or request for discussions or negotiations regarding any Acquisition Proposal which any of the Company or any Subsidiary or any of their Representatives may receive after the date hereof. Such notification shall include relevant details relating to any of the foregoing, including the identity of the parties and a copy of such Acquisition Proposal, indication, inquiry or request and any related communications to or by the Company, any Subsidiary or their Representatives (or, if not in writing, a written description thereof). The Company and the Operating Partnership shall keep Parent reasonably informed on a prompt basis as to the status of and any material developments regarding any such proposal, indication, inquiry or request. None of the Company or any Subsidiary shall, after the date of this Agreement, enter into any confidentiality agreement that would prohibit them from providing such information to Parent. The Company shall not, and shall not permit any Subsidiary to, terminate, waive, amend or modify any provision of any existing standstill or confidentiality agreement to which the Company or any Subsidiary is a party and the Company shall, and shall cause each Subsidiary to, enforce the provisions of any such agreement.

(c) Subject to the Company Parties' compliance with the provisions of this Section 7.04, and only prior to the Company Stockholder Approval, following the receipt by the Company or any Subsidiary of a written Acquisition Proposal, the Company Board may (directly or through Representatives) (I) contact such Person and its advisors solely for the purpose of clarifying the proposal and any material terms thereof and the conditions to consummation, so as to determine whether the proposal for an Acquisition Proposal is reasonably likely to result in a Superior Proposal and (II) if the Company Board determines in good faith following consultation with its legal and financial advisors that such Acquisition Proposal is reasonably likely to result in a Superior Proposal, the Company Board thereafter may (i) furnish non-public information with respect to the Company and the Subsidiaries to the Person who made such proposal (provided that the Company (A) has previously or concurrently furnished such information to Parent and (B) shall furnish such information pursuant to a confidentiality agreement which is at least as favorable to the Company as the Confidentiality Agreement), (ii) participate in negotiations regarding such proposal, (iii) following receipt of a written Acquisition Proposal that constitutes a Superior Proposal, recommend that the Company's stockholders approve such Superior Proposal and, in connection therewith, withdraw or modify in a manner adverse to Parent, or fail to make, the Company Recommendation, or (iv) other than in connection with an Acquisition Proposal, withdraw or modify in a manner adverse to Parent, or fail to make, the Company Recommendation (any event described in this clause (iv) or clause (iii) above, a Change in Recommendation) but in each case referred to in clauses (i) through (iv) only if, after complying with this Section 7.04(c), the Company Board determines in good faith, after consultation with its outside legal counsel, that failure to take such action would be inconsistent with its duties to the Company's stockholders under applicable Law. Nothing in this Section 7.04 or elsewhere in this Agreement shall prevent the Company Board from taking and disclosing to the Company stockholders a position contemplated by Rule 14d-9 or Rule 14e-2(a) promulgated under the Exchange Act with respect to an Acquisition Proposal or from making any required disclosure to the Company's stockholders under applicable Law, including Rule 14d-9 promulgated under the Exchange Act or Item 1012(a) of Regulation M-A; provided, however, that neither the Company nor the Company Board shall be permitted to recommend that the Company stockholders tender any securities in connection with any tender or exchange offer (or otherwise approve, endorse or recommend any Acquisition Proposal) or withdraw or modify the Company Recommendation, unless in each case the requirements of the prior sentence of this Section 7.04(c) have been satisfied.

(d) The Company shall not take any action to exempt any Person from the restrictions contained in Article V of the Company Charter or otherwise cause any of such restrictions not to apply unless such actions are taken in connection with a termination of this Agreement in accordance with Section 9.01(h).

SECTION 7.05 Employee Benefits Matters.

(a) The Company has provided Parent with all of the severance, change-in-control and similar obligations that are payable by their terms upon consummation of the Mergers at the Company Merger Effective Time or on the Closing Date, which are set forth in Section 7.05 of the Disclosure Schedule. From and after the Company Merger Effective Time, Parent shall or shall cause the Surviving Corporation to honor in accordance with their terms all severance, change-of-control and similar obligations of the Company and the Subsidiaries, and Parent shall pay on the Closing Date to any applicable officer or employee of the Company or any Subsidiary any amounts with respect to such agreements. From and after the Company Merger Effective Time, Parent shall or shall cause the Surviving Corporation to honor in accordance with their terms any other employment related contracts, agreements arrangements and commitments of the Company and the Subsidiaries in effect immediately prior to the Company Merger Effective Time that are applicable to any current or former employees or directors of the Company or any Subsidiary or any of their predecessors.

(b) For a period of not less than twelve months after the Closing Date, with respect to each employee of the Company or any Subsidiary (collectively, the Company Employees) who remains an employee of the Surviving Corporation or its successors or assigns or any of their subsidiaries (collectively, the Continuing Employees), Parent shall or shall cause the Surviving Corporation to provide the Continuing Employees with (i) (A) base salary and (B) cash incentive compensation (excluding any cash bonuses or dividend equivalent payments related to equity or equity-based awards) and in each case in an amount at least equal to the same level that was provided to each such Continuing Employee or to which such Continuing Employee was entitled immediately prior to the Company Merger Effective Time, and (ii) employee benefits (excluding any equity-based benefits), that are no less favorable in the aggregate than those provided to such Continuing Employees immediately prior to the Company Merger Effective Time. Each Continuing Employee will be credited with his or her years of service with the Company and its Subsidiaries (and any predecessor entities thereof) before the Closing Date under any new parallel employee benefit plan of Parent or its Subsidiaries in which the Continuing Employee become entitled to participate to the same extent as such employee was entitled, before the Closing Date, to credit for such service under the respective Plan (except to the extent such credit would result in the duplication of benefits and except with respect to benefit accrual under a defined benefit plan). In addition, with respect to any such health benefit plan in which the Continuing Employee become entitled to participate during the calendar year that includes the Closing Date, each Continuing Employee shall be given credit for amounts paid by the employee under the respective Plan for purposes of applying deductibles, co-payments and out-of-pocket maximums as though such amounts had been paid in accordance with the terms and conditions of the parallel plan, program or arrangement of Parent or the Surviving Corporation.

(c) Prior to the Company Merger Effective Time, the Company Board, or an appropriate committee of non-employee directors thereof, shall adopt a resolution consistent with the interpretive guidance of the SEC so that the disposition by any officer or director of the Company who is a covered person of the Company for purposes of Section 16 of the Exchange Act and the rules and regulations thereunder (Section 16) of Company Common Shares or options to acquire Company Common Shares pursuant to this Agreement and the Company Merger shall be an exempt transaction for purposes of Section 16.

(d) Prior to the Company Merger Effective Time, the Board of Directors of the Company shall take such actions as are necessary to terminate the Company's Director Deferred Compensation Plan, Executive Deferred Compensation Plan, deferred restricted share unit arrangements and all other share or investment-based non-qualified deferred compensation account-based arrangements (collectively, the Non-Qualified Account Plans), in a manner that is compliant with Section 409A of the Code. Such action shall be contingent upon, and effective as of, the Company Merger Effective Time. Payment of the Non-Qualified Account Plans shall be in cash to the participants in the Non-Qualified Account Plans in a single lump-sum payment by the Surviving Corporation immediately following the Company Merger Effective Time; provided, however, that payment shall be delayed to the date six months following a participant's separation from service in the event, and to the extent, prior to the Company Merger Effective Time the Board of Directors of the Company determines that such delay is necessary to comply with the requirements of Section 409A of the Code.

(a) Without limiting any additional rights that any director, officer, trustee, employee, agent, or fiduciary may have under any employment or indemnification agreement or under the Company Charter, the Company Bylaws, the Operating Partnership Agreement or this Agreement or, if applicable, similar organizational documents or agreements of any of the Subsidiaries, from and after the Company Merger Effective Time, Parent and the Surviving Corporation shall: (i) indemnify and hold harmless each person who is at the date hereof or during the period from the date hereof through the Company Merger Effective Time serving as a director or officer of the Company or the Subsidiaries (collectively, the Indemnified Parties) to the fullest extent authorized or permitted by applicable law, as now or hereafter in effect, in connection with any Claim and any judgments, fines, penalties and amounts paid in settlement (including all interest, assessments and other charges paid or payable in connection with or in respect of such judgments, fines, penalties or amounts paid in settlement) resulting therefrom; and (ii) promptly pay on behalf of each of the Indemnified Parties, to the fullest extent authorized or permitted by applicable law, as now or hereafter in effect, any Expenses incurred in defending, serving as a witness with respect to or otherwise participating in any Claim in advance of the final disposition of such Claim, including payment on behalf of or advancement to the Indemnified Party of any Expenses incurred by such Indemnified Party in connection with enforcing any rights with respect to such indemnification and/or advancement, in each case without the requirement of any bond or other security, but subject to Parent's or the Surviving Corporation's, as applicable, receipt of an undertaking by or on behalf of such Indemnified Party, if required by applicable Law, to repay such Expenses if it is ultimately determined under applicable Laws that such Indemnified Party is not entitled to be indemnified); provided, however, that neither Parent nor the Surviving Corporation shall be liable for any settlement effected without Parent's or the Surviving Corporation's written consent (which consent shall not be unreasonably withheld or delayed) and shall not be obligated to pay the fees and expenses of more than one counsel (selected by a plurality of the applicable Indemnified Parties) for all Indemnified Parties in any jurisdiction with respect to any single Claim except to the extent that two or more of such Indemnified Parties shall have conflicting interests in the outcome of such action. The indemnification and advancement obligations of Parent and the Surviving Corporation pursuant to this Section 7.06(a) shall extend to acts or omissions occurring at or before the Company Merger Effective Time and any Claim relating thereto (including with respect to any acts or omissions occurring in connection with the approval of this Agreement and the consummation of the transactions contemplated hereby, including the consideration and approval thereof and the process undertaken in connection therewith and any Claim relating thereto). All rights to indemnification and advancement conferred hereunder shall continue as to a person who has ceased to be a director or officer of the Company or the Subsidiaries after the date hereof and shall inure to the benefit of such person's heirs, executors and personal and legal representatives. For purposes of this Section 7.06(a): (x) the term Claim means any threatened, asserted, pending or completed Action, whether instituted by any party hereto, any Governmental Authority or any other party, that any Indemnified Party in good faith believes might lead to the institution of any such Action, whether civil, criminal, administrative, investigative or other, including any arbitration or other alternative dispute resolution mechanism, arising out of or pertaining to matters that relate to such Indemnified Party's duties or service as a director or officer of the Company or any of the Subsidiaries, at or prior to the Company Merger Effective Time at the request of the Company or any of the Subsidiaries; and (y) term Expenses means reasonable attorneys' fees and all other reasonable costs, expenses and obligations (including, without limitation, experts' fees, travel expenses, court costs, retainers, transcript fees, duplicating, printing and binding costs, as well as telecommunications, postage and courier charges) paid or incurred in connection with investigating, defending, being a witness in or participating in (including on appeal), or preparing to investigate, defend, be a witness in or participate in, any Claim for which indemnification is authorized pursuant to this Section 7.06(a), including any Action relating to a claim for indemnification or advancement brought by an Indemnified Party. Neither Parent nor the Surviving Corporation shall settle, compromise or consent to the entry of any judgment in any Claim in respect of which indemnification has been or could be sought by such Indemnified Party hereunder unless (i) such settlement, compromise or judgment includes an unconditional release of such Indemnified Party from all liability arising out of such Claim, (ii) such Indemnified Party otherwise consents thereto, or (iii) Parent or the Surviving Corporation acknowledges that such Claim is subject to this Section 7.06.

(b) For a period of six years from the Company Merger Effective Time, the charter and bylaws or other organizational documents of the Surviving Corporation and the Subsidiaries shall contain provisions no less favorable with respect to indemnification than are set forth in the Company Charter, Company Bylaws or the applicable organizational documents of the Subsidiaries, which provisions shall not be amended, repealed or otherwise modified for a period of six years from the Company Merger Effective Time in any manner that would affect adversely the rights thereunder of individuals who, at or prior to the Company Merger Effective Time, were directors, officers, trustees, employees, agents, or fiduciaries (including fiduciaries under or with respect to any employee benefit plan (within the meaning of Section 3(3) of ERISA)) of the Company or any of its Subsidiaries, unless such modification shall be required by Law and then only to the minimum extent required by Law.

(c) Parent or the Surviving Corporation shall maintain for a period of at least six (6) years the current policies of directors and officers liability insurance and employed lawyer liability insurance maintained by the Company and the Subsidiaries with respect to claims arising from facts or events that occurred on or before the Company Merger Effective Time, including, without limitation, in respect of the transactions contemplated by this Agreement; provided, that (i) that the Surviving Corporation may substitute therefor policies (including run-off or tail policies) of at least the same amounts and containing other terms and conditions which are, in the aggregate, not materially less advantageous to the insured persons, provided that such substitution shall not result in gaps or lapses of coverage with respect to matters occurring before the Company Merger Effective Time; (ii) in no event shall the Surviving Corporation be required to expend pursuant to this Section 7.06(c) more than an amount per year of coverage equal to three hundred percent (300%) of the current annual premiums paid by the Company for such insurance. The Company represents that such annual premium amount is set forth in Section 7.06(c) of the Disclosure Schedule. In the event that, but for the proviso to the immediately preceding sentence, the Surviving Corporation would be required to expend more than three hundred percent (300%) of the current annual premiums paid by the Company, the Surviving Corporation shall obtain the maximum amount of such insurance obtainable by payment of annual premiums equal to three hundred percent (300%) of the current annual premiums paid by the Company. Parent shall, and shall cause the Surviving Corporation or its successors or assigns to, maintain such policies in full force and effect, and continue to honor all obligations thereunder.

(d) If the Surviving Corporation or any of its respective successors or assigns (i) consolidates with or merges with or into any other person and shall not be the continuing or surviving corporation, partnership or other entity of such consolidation or merger or (ii) liquidates, dissolves or winds-up, or transfers or conveys all or substantially all of its properties and assets to any person, then, and in each such case, proper provision shall be made so that the successors and assigns of the Surviving Corporation assumes the obligations set forth in this Section 7.06.

(b) The parties hereto agree to cooperate and assist one another in connection with all actions to be taken pursuant to this Section 7.07, including the preparation and making of the filings referred to therein and, if requested, amending or furnishing additional information thereunder, including, subject to applicable Law and the Confidentiality Agreement, providing copies of all related documents to the non-filing party and their advisors prior to filing, and, to the extent practicable, none of the parties will file any such document or have any communication with any Governmental Authority without prior consultation with the other party. Each party shall keep the other apprised of the content and status of any communications with, and communications from, any Governmental Authority with respect to the transactions contemplated by this Agreement. To the extent practicable and permitted by a Governmental Authority, each party hereto shall permit representatives of the other party to participate in meetings and calls with such Governmental Authority. None of the parties shall consent to any voluntary extension of any statutory deadline or waiting period or to any voluntary delay of the consummation of the transactions contemplated by this Agreement at the behest of any Governmental Authority without the consent of the other party, which consent shall not be unreasonably withheld or delayed.

(c) Each of the parties hereto agrees to cooperate and use its reasonable best efforts to defend through litigation on the merits any Action, including administrative or judicial Action, asserted by any party in order to avoid the entry of, or to have vacated, lifted, reversed, terminated or overturned any decree, judgment, injunction or other order (whether temporary, preliminary or permanent) that in whole or in part restricts, delays, prevents or prohibits consummation of the Mergers, including, without limitation, by vigorously pursuing all available avenues of administrative and judicial appeal.

(d) Each of the Buyer Parties, on the one hand, and the Company Parties, on the other hand, shall use their respective commercially reasonable efforts to obtain any third party consents (i) necessary, proper or advisable to consummate the transactions contemplated by this Agreement, (ii) disclosed in the Disclosure Schedule or (iii) required to prevent a Company Material Adverse Effect from occurring prior to the Company Merger Effective Time. In the event that any Company Party shall fail to obtain any third party consent described above, the Company Parties shall use their commercially reasonable efforts, and shall take such actions as are reasonably requested by Parent, to minimize any adverse effect upon the Company Parties and the Buyer Parties and their respective businesses resulting, or which could reasonably be expected to result, after the Company Merger Effective Time, from the failure to obtain such consent. Notwithstanding anything to the contrary in this Agreement, in connection with obtaining any approval or consent from any Person (other than a Governmental Authority) with respect to any transaction contemplated by this Agreement, (i) unless required by the applicable agreement, without the prior written consent of Parent which shall not be unreasonably withheld, none of the Company or any of the Subsidiaries shall pay or commit to pay to such Person whose approval or consent is being solicited any cash or other consideration, make any commitment or incur any liability or other obligation due to such Person and (ii) none of the Buyer Parties or their respective affiliates shall be required to pay or commit to pay to such Person whose approval or consent is being solicited any cash or other consideration, make any commitment or incur any liability or other obligation.

SECTION 7.08 Transfer Taxes. Parent and the Company shall cooperate in the preparation, execution and filing of all returns, questionnaires, applications or other documents regarding any real property transfer or gains, sales, use, transfer, value added, stock transfer or stamp taxes, any transfer, recording, registration and other fees and any similar taxes that become payable in connection with the transactions contemplated by this Agreement (together with any related interests, penalties or additions to Tax, Transfer Taxes), and shall cooperate in attempting to minimize the amount of Transfer Taxes. From and after the Company Merger Effective Time, the Surviving Corporation shall pay or cause to be paid, without deduction or withholding from any consideration or amounts payable to holders of the Company Common Shares, Company Share Options, Company Restricted Shares, Company Restricted Share Units and/or SVUs, all Transfer Taxes.

SECTION 7.09 Public Announcements. The parties hereto agree that no public release or announcement concerning the transactions contemplated by this Agreement (including the Mergers) shall be issued by a party without the prior consent of the other parties (which consent shall not be unreasonably withheld), except as such release or announcement may be required by Law or the rules or regulations of any securities exchange, in which case the party required to make the release or announcement shall use its reasonable best efforts to allow the other parties reasonable time to comment on such release or announcement in advance of such issuance. The parties have agreed upon the form of a joint press release announcing the Mergers and the execution of this Agreement.

SECTION 7.10 Cooperation with Financing.

(a) Parent shall use its reasonable best efforts to arrange the Debt Financing on the terms and conditions described in the Debt Commitment Letter, including using reasonable best efforts to (i) negotiate definitive agreements with respect thereto on terms and conditions contained therein and (ii) to satisfy all conditions applicable to the Buyer Parties in such definitive agreements that are within their control. In the event any portion of the Debt Financing becomes unavailable on the terms and conditions contemplated in the Debt Commitment Letter, Parent shall use its reasonable best efforts to arrange to obtain any such portion from alternative sources on comparable or more favorable terms to Parent (as determined in the reasonable judgment of Parent) as promptly as practicable following the occurrence of such event. Parent shall give the Company prompt notice of any material breach by any party of the Debt Commitment Letter or any termination of the Debt Commitment Letter. Parent shall keep the Company informed on a reasonably current basis in reasonable detail of the status of its efforts to arrange the Debt Financing and shall not permit any material amendment or modification to be made to, or any waiver of any material provision or remedy under, the Debt Commitment Letter without first consulting with the Company or, if such amendment would or would be reasonably expected to materially and adversely affect or delay in any material respect Parent's ability to consummate the transactions contemplated by this Agreement, without first obtaining the Company's prior written consent (not to be unreasonably withheld or delayed). For the avoidance of doubt, if the Debt Financing (or any alternative financing) has not been obtained, the Buyer Parties shall continue to be obligated to consummate the Mergers on the terms contemplated by this Agreement and subject only to the satisfaction or waiver of the conditions set forth in Sections 8.01 and 8.02 of this Agreement and to Parent's rights under Section 9.01, regardless of whether the Buyer Parties have complied with all of their other obligations under this Agreement (including their obligations under this Section 7.10).

(b) The Company agrees to provide, and shall cause the Subsidiaries and its and their Representatives to provide, all reasonable cooperation in connection with the arrangement of the Debt Financing as may be reasonably requested by Parent (provided that such requested cooperation does not unreasonably interfere with the ongoing operations of the Company and its Subsidiaries), including (i) participation in meetings, drafting sessions and due diligence sessions, (ii) furnishing Parent and its financing sources with financial and other pertinent information regarding the Company and the Subsidiaries as may be reasonably requested by Parent, (iii) assisting Parent and its financing sources in the preparation of (A) an offering document for any debt raised to complete the Mergers and (B) materials for rating agency presentations, (iv) reasonably cooperating with the marketing efforts of Parent and its financing sources for any debt raised by Parent to complete the Mergers, (v) forming new direct or indirect Subsidiaries, (vi) providing and executing documents as may be reasonably requested by Parent and (vii) without limiting the obligations of the Company and the Subsidiaries under Sections 3.07 and 3.08, cooperating in connection with the repayment or defeasance of any Indebtedness of the Company or any of the Subsidiaries as of the Partnership Mergers Effective Time, including delivering such payoff, defeasance or similar notices under any existing mortgage or mezzanine loans of the Company or any Subsidiary as requested by Parent; provided that none of the Company or any Subsidiary shall be required to pay any commitment or other similar fee or make any other payment other than reasonable out-of-pocket costs or incur any other liability in connection with the Debt Financing or any of the foregoing prior to the Partnership Mergers Effective Time. Parent shall, promptly upon request by the Company, reimburse the Company for all reasonable out-of-pocket costs incurred by the Company, its Subsidiaries and their Representatives in connection with such cooperation. The Buyer Parties shall, on a joint and several basis, indemnify and hold harmless the Company, the Subsidiaries and their respective Representatives from and against any and all liabilities, losses, damages, claims, costs, expenses, interest, awards, judgments and penalties suffered or incurred by them in connection with the arrangement of the Debt Financing and any information utilized in connection therewith.

(other than historical information relating to the Company or the Subsidiaries). Notwithstanding anything to the contrary, the condition set forth in Section 8.02(b), as it applies to the Company's obligations under this Section 7.10(b), shall be deemed satisfied unless the Debt Financing (or any alternative financing) has not been obtained primarily as a result of the Company's or the Subsidiaries' willful and material breach of its obligations under this Section 7.10(b).

(c) All non-public or otherwise confidential information regarding the Company obtained by Parent or its Representatives pursuant to paragraph (b) above shall be kept confidential in accordance with the Confidentiality Agreement.

TERMINATION, AMENDMENT AND WAIVER

SECTION 9.01 Termination. This Agreement may be terminated and the Mergers may be abandoned at any time prior to the Partnership Mergers Effective Time by action taken or authorized by the Board of Directors or members of the terminating party or parties, notwithstanding any requisite approval of the Company Merger by the stockholders of the Company, and whether before or after the stockholders of the Company have approved the Company Merger at the Company Stockholders Meeting, as follows (the date of any such termination, the Termination Date):

(a) by mutual written consent of Parent and the Company;

(b) by either Parent or the Company if the Partnership Mergers Effective Time shall not have occurred on or before the six-month anniversary of the date of this Agreement (the End Date); provided, however, that the right to terminate this Agreement under this Section 9.01(b) shall not be available to a party whose failure to fulfill any obligation under this Agreement materially contributed to the failure of the Partnership Mergers Effective Time to occur on or before such date;

(c) by either Parent or the Company if any Governmental Authority shall have enacted, issued, promulgated, enforced or entered any injunction, order, decree or ruling or taken any other action (including the failure to have taken an action) which, in either such case, has become final and non-appealable and has the effect of making consummation of any Merger illegal or otherwise preventing or prohibiting consummation of any Merger (Governmental Order); provided, however, that the terms of this Section 9.01(c) shall not be available to any party unless such party shall have used its reasonable best efforts to oppose any such Governmental Order or to have such Governmental Order vacated or made inapplicable to such Merger;

(d) by Parent if each of it, MergerCo and the Merger Partnerships is not in material breach of its obligations under this Agreement, and if (i) any of the representations and warranties of the Company Parties herein are or become untrue or incorrect such that the condition set forth in Section 8.02(a) would be incapable of being satisfied by the End Date, or (ii) there has been a breach on the part of any of the Company Parties of any of its covenants or agreements herein such that the condition set forth in Section 8.02(b) would be incapable of being satisfied by the End Date;

(e) by the Company if each of the Company Parties is not in material breach of its obligations under this Agreement, and if (i) any of the representations and warranties of Parent, MergerCo or the Merger Partnerships herein are or become untrue or inaccurate such that the condition set forth in Section 8.03(a) would be incapable of being satisfied by the End Date; or (ii) there has been a breach on the part of Parent, MergerCo or the Merger Partnerships or any of their respective covenants or agreements herein such that the conditions set forth in Section 8.03(b) would be incapable of being satisfied by the End Date.

(f) by the Company or Parent if the Company Stockholder Approval is not obtained at the Company Stockholders Meeting upon a vote taken thereon;

(g) by Parent:

(A) if the Company Board withdraws, modifies or amends the Company Recommendation in any manner adverse to the Buyer Parties;

(B) if (i) the Company Board approves, endorses or recommends an Acquisition Proposal, (ii) the Company enters into a contract or agreement relating to an Acquisition Proposal (other than a confidentiality agreement entered into in compliance with Section 7.04(c)), (iii) a tender offer or exchange offer for any outstanding shares of capital stock of the Company that constitutes an Acquisition Proposal (other than by any of the Buyer Parties) is commenced prior to obtaining the Company Stockholder Approval and the Company Board fails to recommend against acceptance of such tender offer or exchange offer by its stockholders (including, for these purposes, by taking no position with respect to the acceptance of such tender offer or exchange offer by its stockholders, which shall constitute a failure to recommend against acceptance of such tender offer or exchange offer) within ten Business Days after commencement, or (iv) the Company or the Company Board publicly announces its intention to do any of the foregoing; or

(C) if the Company Board exempts any Person other than the Parent or any of its Affiliates from the provisions of Article V of the Company Charter; or

(h) by the Company if the Company Board approves, and authorizes the Company to enter into, a definitive agreement providing for the implementation of a Superior Proposal, but only so long as:

(A) the Company Stockholder Approval has not yet been obtained;

(B) the Company is not then and has not been in breach of any of its obligations under Section 7.04 in any material respect;

(C) the Company Board has determined in good faith, after consultation with its financial advisor, that such agreement constitutes a Superior Proposal and has determined in good faith, after consultation with its outside legal counsel, that failure to take such actions would be inconsistent with its duties to the stockholders of the Company under applicable Laws;

(D) the Company has notified Parent in writing that it intends to enter into such agreement, attaching the most current version of such agreement (including any amendments, supplements or modifications) to such notice;

(E) during the three Business Day period following Parent's receipt of such notice, (i) the Company shall have offered to negotiate with (and, if accepted, negotiated in good faith with), and shall have caused its respective financial and legal advisors to offer to negotiate with (and, if accepted, negotiate in good faith with), Parent in making adjustments to the terms and conditions of this Agreement as would enable the Company to proceed with the Mergers and the other transactions contemplated by this Agreement, and (ii) the Company Board shall have determined in good faith, after the end of such three Business Day period, after considering the results of such negotiations and the revised proposals made by Parent, if any, that the Superior Proposal giving rise to such notice continues to be a Superior Proposal; and

(F) the Company pays to Parent the Company Termination Fee and Parent Expenses in accordance with Section 9.03(b)(ii) simultaneously with such termination (any purported termination pursuant to this Section 9.01(h) shall be void and of no force or effect unless the Company shall have made such payment).

SECTION 9.02 Effect of Termination. In the event of the termination of this Agreement pursuant to Section 9.01, this Agreement shall forthwith become void, and there shall be no liability under this Agreement on the part of any party hereto (or any Representatives thereof) except that the indemnification and reimbursement obligations of the Buyer Parties contained in Sections 2.08, 3.07 and 7.10(b), the Guarantee referred to in Section 5.07(c) and the provisions of Section 7.03(b), Section 7.10(c), this Section 9.02, Section 9.03 and Article X shall survive any such termination; provided, however, that nothing herein shall relieve any party hereto from liability for any breach of any of its representations, warranties, covenants or agreements set forth in this Agreement prior to such termination.

SECTION 9.03 Fees and Expenses.

(a) Except as otherwise set forth in this Section 9.03, all expenses (including fees and expenses payable to Representatives and hedging counterparties) incurred by any party to this Agreement or its Affiliates on its behalf in connection with this Agreement or the transactions contemplated by this Agreement (Expenses) shall be paid by the party incurring such expenses, whether or not the Mergers are consummated.

(b) The Company agrees that if this Agreement shall be terminated:

(i) by Parent or the Company pursuant to Section 9.01(b) or Section 9.01(f) or by Parent pursuant to Section 9.01(d) (however, only in the event of a termination pursuant to Section 9.01(d) that relates to a breach by the Company Parties of their obligations under Section 7.02 or Section 7.04) and (A) an Acquisition Proposal shall have been made to the Company Parties or publicly announced prior to such Termination Date (and with respect to termination pursuant to Section 9.01(b), such Acquisition Proposal was not withdrawn prior to the Termination Date), and (B) concurrently with such termination or within twelve (12) months following the Termination Date, the Company enters into a Contract with respect to an Acquisition Proposal, or an Acquisition Proposal is consummated (in each case whether or not such Acquisition Proposal was the same Acquisition Proposal referred to in the foregoing clause (A)), then the Company shall pay to Parent, if and when such Contract is entered into or consummation of such Acquisition Proposal occurs, as applicable, the Company Termination Fee and the reasonable Expenses of the Buyer Parties not to exceed $7,500,000 (Parent Expenses) (and for purposes of this Section 9.03(b)(i), 50% shall be substituted for 20% in the definition of Acquisition Proposal); or

(ii) by Parent pursuant to Section 9.01(g), or the Company pursuant to Section 9.01(h), then the Company shall pay to Parent the Company Termination Fee and Parent Expenses on the Termination Date, and with respect to a termination pursuant to Section 9.01(h), such payment shall be made before or concurrently with such termination and shall be a condition to the effectiveness of such termination.

(c) Except as set forth in Section 9.03(b)(ii) for termination by the Company pursuant to Section 9.01(h), the Company Termination Fee and Parent Expenses shall be paid by the Company as directed by Parent in writing in immediately available funds within three (3) Business Days after the date of the event giving rise to the obligation to make such payment.

(d) For purposes of this Agreement, Company Termination Fee means an amount equal to $85 million.

(e) Subject to Section 10.06, if this Agreement is terminated by the Company pursuant to Section 9.01(e), Parent shall pay to the Company within three (3) Business Days after the date of termination, the reasonable Expenses of the Company Parties not to exceed $7,500,000 (the Company Expenses). If this Agreement is terminated by Parent pursuant to Section 9.01(d), the Company shall pay to Parent, within three (3) Business Days after the date of termination, the Parent Expenses. Subject to Section 10.06, the payment of Company Expenses or Parent Expenses set forth in this Section 9.03 is not an exclusive remedy, but is in addition to any other rights or remedies available to the parties hereto (whether at law or in equity), and in no respect is intended by the parties hereto to constitute liquidated damages, or be viewed as an indicator of the damages payable, or in any other respect limit or restrict damages available in case of any breach of this Agreement.

(f) Each of the parties hereto acknowledges that the agreements contained in this Section 9.03 are an integral part of the transactions contemplated by this Agreement. In the event that the Company shall fail to pay the Company Termination Fee or Parent Expenses when due or Parent shall fail to pay the Company Expenses when due, the Company or Parent, as the case may be, shall reimburse the other party for all reasonable costs and expenses actually incurred or accrued by such other party (including reasonable fees and expenses of counsel) in connection with the collection under and enforcement of this Section 9.03.

SECTION 9.04 Escrow.

(a) To the extent that the Company Parties recover money damages pursuant to and subject to Section 10.06 and the Guarantee (the Damages Amount), Parent shall instruct the escrow agent to pay to the Operating Partnership from the Damages Amount deposited into escrow in accordance with the next sentence, an amount equal to the lesser of (i) the Damages Amount and (ii) the sum of (1) the maximum amount that can be paid to the Operating Partnership without causing the Company to fail to meet the requirements of Sections 856(c)(2) and 856(c)(3) of the Code determined as if the payment of such amount did not constitute income described in Sections 856(c)(2)(A)-(H) or 856(c)(3)(A)-(I) of the Code (Qualifying Income), as determined by the Company's independent certified public accountants, plus (2) in the event the Company receives either (A) a letter from the Company's counsel indicating that the Company has received a ruling from the IRS described in Section 9.04(b) or (B) an opinion from the Company's outside counsel as described in Section 9.04(b), an amount equal to the Damages Amount less the amount payable under clause (1) above. To secure Parent's obligation to pay these amounts, Parent shall deposit into escrow an amount in cash equal to the Damages Amount with an escrow agent selected by Parent and on such terms (subject to Section 9.04(b)) as shall be mutually agreed upon by the Operating Partnership, Parent and the escrow agent. Subject to the terms of Section 10.06 and the Guarantee, the payment or deposit into escrow of the Damages Amount pursuant to this Section 9.04 shall be made at the time Parent is obligated to pay the Operating Partnership such amount pursuant to Section 10.06 and the Guarantee by wire transfer or bank check.

(b) The escrow agreement shall provide that the Damages Amount in escrow or any portion thereof shall not be released to the Operating Partnership unless the escrow agent receives any one or combination of the following: (i) a letter from the Company's independent certified public accountants indicating the maximum amount that can be paid by the escrow agent to the Operating Partnership without causing the Company to fail to meet the requirements of Sections 856(c)(2) and (3) of the Code determined as if the payment of such amount did not constitute Qualifying Income or a subsequent letter from the Company's accountants revising that amount, in which case the escrow agent shall release such amount to the Company, or (ii) a letter from the Company's counsel indicating that the Company received a ruling from the IRS holding that the Damages Amount would either constitute Qualifying Income or would be excluded from gross income within the meaning of Sections 856(c)(2) and (3) of the Code (or alternatively, the Company's outside counsel has rendered a legal opinion to the effect that the receipt by the Operating Partnership of the Damages Amount would constitute Qualifying Income, would be excluded from gross income within the meaning of Sections 856(c)(2) and (3) of the Code or would not otherwise disqualify Company as a REIT), in which case the escrow agent shall release the remainder of the Damages Amount to the Operating Partnership. Parent agrees to amend this Section 9.04 at the reasonable request of the Company in order to (x) maximize the portion of the Damages Amount that may be distributed to the Operating Partnership hereunder without causing the Company to fail to meet the requirements of Sections 856(c)(2) and (3) of the Code, (y) improve the Company's chances of securing a favorable ruling described in this Section 9.04(b) or (z) assist Parent in obtaining a favorable legal opinion from its outside counsel as described in this Section 9.04(b). The escrow agreement shall also provide that any portion of the Damages Amount held in escrow for five years shall be released by the escrow agent to Parent. Any costs and expenses of the escrow agent shall be borne solely by the Company.

SECTION 9.05 Waiver.

At any time prior to the Partnership Mergers Effective Time, the Company, on the one hand, and Parent, on the other hand, may (a) extend the time for the performance of any obligation or other act of the other party, (b) waive any inaccuracy in the representations and warranties of the other party contained herein or in any document delivered pursuant hereto and (c) waive compliance with any agreement of the other party or any condition to its own obligations contained herein. Any such extension or waiver shall be valid if set forth in an instrument in writing signed by the Company (on behalf of the Company Parties) or Parent (on behalf of the Buyer Parties), as applicable. The failure of any party to assert any of its rights under this Agreement or otherwise shall not constitute a waiver of those rights.

SECTION 10.03 Severability. If any term or other provision of this Agreement is invalid, illegal or incapable of being enforced by any rule of law or public policy or the application of this Agreement to any person or circumstance is invalid or incapable of being enforced by any rule of law or public policy, all other conditions and provisions of this Agreement shall nevertheless remain in full force and effect so long as the economic or legal substance of the transactions contemplated by this Agreement is not affected in any manner materially adverse to any party. To such end, the provisions of this Agreement are agreed to be severable. Upon such determination that any term or other provision is invalid, illegal or incapable of being enforced, the parties hereto shall negotiate in good faith to modify this Agreement so as to effect the original intent of the parties as closely as possible in a mutually acceptable manner in order that the transactions contemplated by this Agreement be consummated as originally contemplated to the fullest extent possible.

SECTION 10.04 Amendment.

This Agreement may be amended by the parties hereto by action taken by their respective board of directors (or similar governing body or entity) at any time prior to the Partnership Mergers Effective Time; provided, however, that, after approval of the Company Merger by the stockholders of the Company, no amendment may be made without further stockholder approval which, by Law or in accordance with the rules of the NYSE, requires further approval by such stockholders. This Agreement may not be amended except by an instrument in writing signed by the parties hereto.

SECTION 10.05 Entire Agreement; Assignment.

This Agreement, together with the Confidentiality Agreement and the Disclosure Schedule, constitute the entire agreement among the parties with respect to the subject matter hereof and supersede all prior agreements and undertakings, both written and oral, among the parties, or any of them, with respect to the subject matter hereof. This Agreement shall not be assigned (whether pursuant to a merger, by operation of law or otherwise), except any of the Buyer Parties may assign this Agreement to any direct or indirect wholly-owned subsidiary of Parent, provided, however, that no such assignment shall relieve the assigning party of its obligations hereunder if the assignee does not perform its obligations.

SECTION 10.06 Remedies. Except as otherwise provided in Section 10.07 or elsewhere in this Agreement, any and all remedies expressly conferred upon a party to this Agreement shall be cumulative with, and not exclusive of, any other remedy contained in this Agreement, at law or in equity and the exercise by a party to this Agreement of any one remedy shall not preclude the exercise by it of any other remedy. Without limiting the right to receive any payment it may be entitled to receive under Sections 2.08 and 7.10(b), each of the Company Parties agrees that to the extent it has incurred losses or damages (including any amounts paid by Parent pursuant to Section 9.03(e)) in connection with this Agreement the maximum aggregate liability of the Buyer Parties and Guarantor for such losses or damages shall be limited to an amount equal to the amount of the Guarantee, and in no event shall the Company Parties seek to recover any money damages in excess of such amount from the Buyer Parties or Guarantor or their respective Representatives and affiliates in connection therewith.

SECTION 10.07 Specific Performance. The parties hereto agree that irreparable damage would occur in the event any provision of this Agreement were not performed by any Company Party in accordance with the terms hereof and that, prior to the termination of this Agreement pursuant to Section 9.01, the Buyer Parties shall be entitled to an injunction or injunctions to prevent breaches of this Agreement by the Company Parties and to enforce specifically the terms and provisions of this Agreement in any court of the United States or any state having jurisdiction, this being in addition to any other remedy to which they are entitled at law or in equity. The parties acknowledge that none of the Company Parties shall be entitled to an injunction or injunctions to prevent breaches of this Agreement or to enforce specifically the terms and provisions of this Agreement and that the Company Parties' sole and exclusive remedy with respect to any such breach shall be the remedy set forth in Section 10.06 and the Guarantee; provided, however, the Company Parties shall be entitled to seek specific performance to prevent any breach by the Buyer Parties of Sections 7.03(b) and 7.10(c).

SECTION 10.08 Parties in Interest. This Agreement shall be binding upon and inure solely to the benefit of each party hereto, and nothing in this Agreement, express or implied, is intended to or shall confer upon any other person any right, benefit or remedy of any nature whatsoever under or by reason of this Agreement, other than the provisions of Section 7.06 (which are intended to be for the benefit of the persons covered thereby or the persons entitled to payment thereunder and may be enforced by such persons).

SECTION 10.09 Governing Law; Forum. The Company Merger shall be governed by, and construed in accordance with, the laws of the State of Maryland applicable to contracts executed in and to be performed in that State without regard to its rules of conflict of laws. Except as provided in the immediately preceding sentence, this Agreement and all disputes, claims or controversies arising out of or relating to this Agreement, or the negotiation, validity or performance of this Agreement, or the transactions contemplated hereby shall be governed by and construed in accordance with the laws of the State of Delaware without regard to its rules of conflict of laws.

Each of the parties hereto hereby irrevocably and unconditionally consents to submit to the sole and exclusive jurisdiction of the Court of Chancery of the State of Delaware (the Delaware Courts) for any litigation arising out of or relating to this Agreement, or the negotiation, validity or performance of this Agreement, or the transactions contemplated hereby (and agrees not to commence any litigation relating thereto except in such courts), waives any objection to the laying of venue of any such litigation in the Delaware Courts and agrees not to plead or claim in any Delaware Court that such litigation brought therein has been brought in any inconvenient forum. Each of the parties hereto agrees, (a) to the extent such party is not otherwise subject to service of process in the State of Delaware, to appoint and maintain an agent in the State of Delaware as such party's agent for acceptance of legal process, and (b) that service of process may also be made on such party by prepaid certified mail to the address for notice in Section 10.02 with a proof of mailing receipt validated by the United States Postal Service constituting evidence of valid service. Service made pursuant to (a) or (b) above shall have the same legal force and effect as if served upon such party personally within the State of Delaware.

SECTION 10.10 Headings. The descriptive headings contained in this Agreement are included for convenience of reference only and shall not affect in any way the meaning or interpretation of this Agreement.

SECTION 10.11 Counterparts. We have relied upon the accuracy and completeness of all of the financial, accounting, legal, tax and other information discussed with or reviewed by us and have assumed such accuracy and completeness for purposes of rendering this opinion. In that regard, we have assumed with your consent that the internal financial forecasts prepared by the management of the Company have been reasonably prepared on a basis reflecting the best currently available estimates and judgments of the Company.
