PROXY STATEMENT

ANNUAL MEETING AND PROXY SOLICITATION INFORMATION

This proxy statement is first being sent to stockholders on or about August 7, 2007, in connection with the solicitation of proxies by the Board of Directors of Q.E.P. Co., Inc., to be voted at the Annual Meeting of Stockholders to be held on August 24, 2007, and at any adjournment thereof (the Meeting). The close of business on June 25, 2007 has been fixed as the record date for the determination of stockholders entitled to notice of and to vote at the Meeting. At the close of business on the record date, the Company had outstanding 3,440,401 shares of $0.001 par value Common Stock (Common Stock), all of which are entitled to one vote per share at the Meeting.

You may vote (i) in person by attending the meeting, (ii) by mail by completing and returning a proxy, (iii) via telephone or (iv) electronically by using the Internet. To vote your proxy by mail, mark your vote on the enclosed proxy card, then follow the instructions on the card. To vote your proxy by telephone or by using the Internet, see the instructions on the proxy card and have the proxy card available when you place your telephone call or access the Internet web site.

Shares represented by duly executed proxies in the accompanying form received by the Company prior to the Meeting will be voted at the Meeting. If stockholders specify in the proxy a choice with respect to any matter to be acted upon, the shares represented by such proxies will be voted as specified. If a proxy card is signed and returned without specifying a vote or an abstention on any proposal, it will be voted according to the recommendation of the Board of Directors on that proposal. The Board of Directors recommends a vote FOR the election of directors, FOR the ratification of the appointment of Grant Thornton as the Company's independent registered public accounting firm and FOR the approval of the adjournment or postponement of the annual meeting, if necessary, in order to solicit additional proxies in favor if there are not sufficient favorable votes at the time of the meeting to approve Proposals 1 and 2. The Board of Directors knows of no other matters that may be brought before the Meeting. However, if any other matters are properly presented for action, it is the intention of the named proxies to vote on them according to their best judgment.

Stockholders who hold their shares through an intermediary must provide instructions on voting as requested by their bank or broker. A stockholder who signs and returns a proxy may revoke it at any time before it is voted by taking one of the following five actions: (i) voting in person at the Meeting; (ii) giving written notice of the revocation to the Secretary of the Company; (iii) executing and delivering a proxy with a later date, provided that no revocation will be effective until written notice of the revocation is received by the Company at or prior to the Meeting; (iv) by using the telephone voting procedures; or (v) by changing your vote on the Internet website.

A majority of the outstanding shares of Common Stock, represented in person or by proxy, constitutes a quorum for the transaction of business at the Meeting. The affirmative vote of at least a majority of the votes of the shares of Common Stock present in person or represented by proxy at the Meeting is required to approve all matters to be voted upon at the Meeting, except for the election of directors, which shall be determined by plurality vote. Votes cast by proxy or in person at the Meeting will be tabulated by one or more inspectors of election, appointed at the Meeting, who will also determine whether a quorum is present for the transaction of business. Abstentions and broker non-votes will be counted as shares present in the determination of whether shares of the Company's Common Stock represented at the Meeting constitute a quorum. With respect to all matters to be voted upon at the meeting, abstentions will be treated as votes AGAINST and broker non-votes will not be counted for the purpose of determining whether a proposal has been approved.

The expense of preparing, printing, and mailing proxy materials to stockholders of the Company will be borne by the Company. In addition to the use of mail, employees of the Company may solicit proxies personally and by telephone. The Company's employees will receive no compensation for soliciting proxies other than their regular salaries. The Company will also reimburse brokerage houses and other nominees for their expenses in forwarding proxy material to beneficial owners of the Company's stock.

The executive office of the Company is located at 1001 Broken Sound Parkway, Suite A, Boca Raton, Florida 33487 and the telephone number is (561) 994-5550.

PROPOSAL 1 ELECTION OF DIRECTORS

The five nominees for election as directors are Lewis Gould, Leonard Gould, Emil Vogel, David W. Kreilein, and Robert G. Walters. Each nominee, other than Mr. Walters, is currently a member of the Board. Mr. Walters was recommended to the Nominating Committee by Mr. Kreilein, a non-management director. Information concerning each of the nominees is set forth below. The persons named in the enclosed proxy card have advised that, unless otherwise directed on the proxy card, they intend to vote FOR the election of the nominees, and that should any nominee become unable or unwilling to accept nomination or election for any reason, votes will be cast for a substitute nominee designated by the Board of Directors, but in no event will the proxy be voted for more than five nominees for director. The Board of Directors has no reason to believe the nominees named will be unable or unwilling to serve if elected.

EXECUTIVE COMPENSATION

COMPENSATION DISCUSSION AND ANALYSIS

General Overview

The Company's compensation program is designed to attract, motivate and retain highly-qualified executives who will assist the Company in meeting its short and long-term objectives. In order to achieve this, we seek to create a link between the executives' compensation and our annual and long-term financial performance; to align the executives' interests with those of our stockholders through performance-based incentive compensation that present an opportunity for financial reward to the executives; and to provide executives with total compensation opportunities at levels that are competitive for comparable positions at comparable companies.

How We Determine and Assess our Executive Compensation

The Company's Board of Directors is responsible for approving the compensation of (i) the Company's principal executive officer; (ii) all individuals serving as the Company's principal financial officer during the last completed year; (iii) the Company's three most highly compensated executive officers other than the principal executive officer and principal financial officer who were serving as executive officers at the end of the last completed fiscal year (the Named Executive Officers), and (iv) certain other executive officers. The Compensation Committee of our Board of Directors (the Compensation Committee) has been delegated authority to discharge these responsibilities. Information about the Committee and its composition, responsibilities and operations can be found in this proxy statement, under the caption Compensation Committee.

The Company endeavors to determine and assess executive compensation by taking into consideration market data based on the compensation levels, programs and practices of certain other companies for comparable positions, and company and individual performance in specified areas, such as financial and operational.

Elements of our Compensation Program

Our executive compensation program has the following elements: base salary, annual incentive awards, and long-term incentive opportunities, which comprise an executive's total direct compensation in a given fiscal year. The program is complemented with other executive benefits, including 401(k) matching contributions and, in some cases, severance benefits.

Base Salary

Base salary for the Company's executive officers is determined based on their skills, experience and contributions of the position to the Company's success overall. Base salary is the fixed component of the executives' total direct compensation. The Committee reviews the base salaries of our executive officers annually and whenever an executive is promoted. Mr. Lewis Gould, after taking into account the performance areas noted above, makes salary recommendations to the Committee with respect to executive officers other than himself.

Annual Incentives

Annual incentive awards provide a link between executive compensation and the Company's annual performance. Unlike base salary, which is fixed, the Company's executives' annual bonus is at risk based on how well the Company and its executives perform.

The Committee has approved an executive bonus plan that targets an executive receiving 40% of base salary, 70% in the case of Lewis Gould, when outstanding performance is achieved as measured by certain key performance indicators. The bonus plan is based on an assessment of the overall Company and divisional performance as compared to earnings per share (EPS), earning before, interest, taxes, depreciation and amortization (EBITDA) and inventory turn targets established by the Committee and the Board of Directors. For the fiscal 2007 performance year, the Company did not meet the minimum performance goals established by the Board of Directors. Therefore, with the exception of Stuart Fleischer who was guaranteed a bonus of $45,000, pursuant to the terms of his employment agreement, no Named Executive Officer received a performance bonus for fiscal 2007.

The Company's incentive plan does not provide for a minimum or threshold amount of incentive compensation. The maximum incentive award is based on the full achievement of the Company's financial and operational plans, and also represents the targeted incentive award. The achievement of the maximum award requires superior performance by the Company's executives, both individually and collectively. However, by achieving various combinations of the bonus plan targets through good performance, the executives could be awarded some amount of bonus that is less than the targeted incentive compensation.

Long-Term Incentives

In addition to the Company's bonus plan, the Committee made certain awards of stock appreciation rights (SARS) during fiscal 2007 to certain employees, including executive and non-executive positions. The SARS program is designed to reward and assist the Company with the retention of its executives, including the Named Executive Officers. These awards, which have a three year term and cliff vest after three years, encourage the Company's executives and other employees to work toward achieving the Company's long-term strategic objectives aimed at increasing stockholder value.

Perquisites and Other Executive Benefits

Certain of the Company's executives receive other perquisites and executive benefits as a part of their total compensation. The Company offers executive officers defined contribution matching benefits, health benefits and life and disability insurance coverage benefits. Individually and in total, the Company believes that the other benefits it provides to its Named Executive Officers are appropriate and reasonable.

Severance Pay Arrangements

The Company's employees, including our Named Executive Officers, other than Mr. Lewis Gould, James Brower and Stuart Fleischer, are employees at-will and do not have employment contracts with us. The at-will employment status of the Company's employees provides flexibility to remove employees when appropriate under the circumstances. However, in order to retain and attract highly-qualified executives who may otherwise desire the protection of a long-term employment contract, certain executives have severance arrangements, which provide a specified number of weeks of severance pay, subject to the reason for termination of employment.

Accounting and Other Considerations

Accounting Considerations

With the adoption of FAS 123R, the Company does not expect accounting treatment of differing forms of equity awards to vary significantly and, therefore, accounting treatment is not expected to have a material effect on the selection of forms of compensation.

Equity Grant Practices

The Company has not timed and will not time the grant of equity awards to coincide with, precede or follow the release of material non-public information.

Proposed Changes for 2007

The Company continues to monitor the regulatory developments under Internal Revenue Code Section 409A, which was enacted as part of the American Jobs Creation Act of 2004. Section 409A imposes substantial limitations and conditions on nonqualified deferred compensation plans, including certain types of equity compensation and separation pay arrangements. We intend to amend our compensation arrangements, if necessary, in order to ensure their full compliance with Section 409A before the current transition period expires on December 31, 2007.

401(k) Plan

Effective March 1, 1995, the Company merged, amended and restated its prior defined contribution profit sharing plan and its prior 401(k) plan into a revised plan (the 401(k) Plan) to provide retirement income to employees of the Company. The prior plans were, and the 401(k) Plan is intended to remain, qualified under Section 401(a) of the Internal Revenue Code of 1986, as amended. The 401(k) Plan covers all employees who are at least age 21 and have completed three months of service. It is funded each year by the following contributions: (i) voluntary pre-tax (salary reduction) contributions from employees up to a maximum dollar limit set by law, (ii) discretionary matching contributions by the Company equal to a percentage of the amount of the employee s salary reduction contribution, which percentage is to be determined each calendar year by the Company (and may be zero), and (iii) a profit sharing contribution, the amount of which, if any, is determined by the Company in its sole discretion. Upon leaving the Company, each participant is 100% vested with respect to the participant s contributions and is vested based on years of service with respect to the Company s matching contributions. Contributions are invested as directed by the participant in investment funds available under the 401(k) Plan. Full retirement benefits are payable to each participant in a single cash payment upon the participant s retirement, termination of employment, death or disability.

On December 27, 2004, the Company adopted the QEP Executive Deferred Compensation Plan (the Deferred Plan) effective December 15, 2004. The purpose of the Deferred Plan is to provide participants with an opportunity to defer receipt of a portion of their salary, bonus, and other specified cash compensation. Participation in the Deferred Plan is limited to employees who are part of a select group of management or highly compensated employees of the Company. The Company also entered into a Trust under the QEP Executive Deferred Compensation Plan (the Trust) with Reliance Trust Company as the trustee. The Trust will be a rabbi trust and will be used to set aside the amounts of deferred compensation allocated to the participants in the Plan and the earnings from the investment of such amounts.

For the fiscal year ended February 28, 2007, the Board of Directors determined that Emil Vogel, David W. Kreilein, Robert W. Muir, Jr. and Laura M. Holm are independent directors as defined by Nasdaq listing requirements. In connection with the Annual Meeting of Stockholders, the Board of Directors determined that Robert G. Walters, a nominee to the Board of Directors, is independent as defined by Nasdaq listing requirements. The Board of Directors has standing audit, compensation, nominating and governance committees.

Audit Committee

Kreilein, Chairman of the Audit Committee, is an audit committee financial expert as defined in the rules and regulations of the Securities Exchange Commission (SEC). The Audit Committee does have a written charter and a copy of such charter is available to stockholders on the Company's website, www.qep.com. Pursuant to the revised Audit Committee charter adopted in October 2002, as amended in May 2004, the duties of the Audit Committee are, among others, to select, retain, and evaluate the Company's independent registered public accounting firm, to review and approve in advance all related party transactions, to meet with the Company's independent registered public accounting firm to review the scope of audit procedures employed by the Company's independent registered public accounting firm, to review and approve the audit reports rendered by the Company's independent registered public accounting firm, to review and discuss all factors and relationships affecting the independence of the independent registered public accounting firm and to approve the audit fee and all permissible non-audit services performed by the independent registered public accounting firm. During fiscal 2007, the Audit Committee met four times, and the Chairman of the Audit Committee held several meetings with management and the Company's independent registered public accounting firm.

Management is responsible for the Company's financial reporting process and for the preparation of consolidated financial statements in accordance with accounting principles generally accepted in the United States of America, and the independent registered public accounting firm is responsible for auditing those financial statements. The Audit Committee is responsible for monitoring and reviewing these processes, not to conduct auditing or accounting reviews and procedures. Members of the Audit Committee are not required to be accountants or auditors by profession. The Committee's considerations and discussions with management and the independent registered public accounting firm do not assure that the Company's financial statements are presented in accordance with accounting principles generally accepted in the United States of America or that the audit of the Company's financial statements has been carried out in accordance with auditing standards generally accepted in the United States of America.

Audit Committee Report

In fulfilling its oversight responsibilities during fiscal 2007, the Audit Committee reviewed the financial statements included in the Company's quarterly filings with the SEC on Form 10-Q and the audited financial statements included in the Company's Annual Report on Form 10-K with management, including a discussion of the quality and acceptability of the accounting principles, the reasonableness of significant judgments and the clarity of the footnote disclosures contained in, or used in the compilation of, the financial statements of the Company.

The Audit Committee has discussed with the Company's independent registered public accounting firm the overall scope and plans for the audit and the quality of the financial reporting practices of the Company. The Audit Committee also reviewed with the independent registered public accounting firm, who is responsible for expressing an opinion on the conformity of the Company's audited financial statements with accounting principles generally accepted in the United States of America, their judgments as to the quality and acceptability of the Company's accounting principles and such other matters required to be discussed under general auditing standards, including Statement on Auditing Standards No. 61. Additionally, the Audit Committee has discussed with the independent registered public accounting firm the auditors' independence from management and has received the written disclosures and the letter from the independent registered public accounting firm as required by the Independence Standards Board, Standard No. 1.

In reliance on the reviews and discussions referred to above and when considering whether the level of non-audit services provided by Grant Thornton LLP is consistent with the maintenance of its independence, the Audit Committee recommended to the Board of Directors that the audited financial statements of the Company be included in the Company's Annual Report on Form 10-K for the fiscal year ended February 28, 2007 for filing with the SEC. The Board of Directors of the Company has approved such recommendation.

The Board of Directors adopted a Code of Ethics for senior financial officers of the Company in fiscal 2004. It applies to the Company's Chief Executive Officer, Chief Financial Officer, Controller, and to each of the finance directors of the Company's subsidiaries. The Code of Ethics is designed to deter wrongdoing and to promote honest and ethical conduct, full and accurate disclosure in periodic reports, and compliance with laws and regulations by the Company's senior officers who have financial responsibilities. A copy of the Code of Ethics was filed with the Company's Annual Report on Form 10-K for the fiscal year ending February 29, 2004, filed with the SEC on May 27, 2004.
