Item 5.02 Departure of Directors or Certain Officers; Election of Directors; Appointment of Certain Officers; Compensatory Arrangements of Certain Officers

(e) On September 4, 2007, the Registrant and Richard L. Keister (Executive) entered into an amendment (the Amendment) to that certain Separation Agreement between the Registrant and Executive dated as of February 26, 2007 filed as an exhibit to Form 8-K with the Securities and Exchange Commission on March 2, 2007 (the Separation Agreement). The Separation Agreement provides that if another executive officer of the Registrant becomes eligible for change in control benefits during the term of the Separation Agreement that are greater than those provided to Executive under the Separation Agreement, the Registrant must provide such greater benefits to Executive. Registrant previously entered into a change in control agreement with Jeffrey T. Gray, which, in certain limited respects, provided certain greater change in control benefits than those provided to Executive. Consequently, the Separation Agreement has been amended pursuant to the Amendment to reflect such greater change in control benefits. Under the Separation Agreement, as amended by the Amendment, in the event of a termination of Executive s employment by the Registrant other than for cause or by Executive for good reason, Executive receives (i) severance payments consisting of his base salary through the date of termination and a lump-sum cash amount equal to two (2) times his annual base salary in effect prior to the termination or, if higher, immediately prior to the event or circumstances constituting good reason, (ii) payment in full for any bonus earned, but not paid, in the prior year and a lump-sum cash amount equal to the pro-rated portion at the target award level of any unpaid incentive compensation, awarded prior to the date of termination, (iii) a lump-sum cash amount equal to two (2) times greater of (A) his target bonus percentage times his current annual base salary and (B) his average annual bonus with respect to the three (3) fiscal years ending immediately prior to the fiscal year of termination or, if higher, immediately prior to the fiscal year in which occurs the event or circumstance constituting good reason, (iv) continuation of all company and executive benefits, including health and welfare benefits, at the Registrant s sole expense for 24 months following the termination, (v) continuation of all benefits owed under Federal law for 24 months following termination, and (vi) payment for any accrued, but unused or unpaid vacation, unreimbursed expenses or other items earned and owed through termination, and any vacation that would have been accrued at the end of 24 months following termination.

Item 9.01 Financial Statements and Exhibits.

(d) Exhibits

10.1 Amendment to Separation Agreement dated September 4, 2007.
