FORWARD-LOOKING STATEMENTS

This prospectus and the documents incorporated by reference in this prospectus contain forward-looking statements. Statements that are not historical facts, including statements about our beliefs and expectations, are forward-looking statements within the meaning of Section 27A of the Securities Act of 1933, as amended (the Securities Act), and Section 21E of the Securities Exchange Act of 1934, as amended (the Exchange Act). In particular, these may include statements relating to our future financial performance, business strategy, projected plans and objectives. These forward-looking statements are based on our management's estimates and assumptions and take into account only the information available at the time the forward-looking statements are made.

Risks and uncertainties exist that may cause results to differ materially from those set forth in these forward-looking statements. Factors that could cause the anticipated results to differ from those described in the forward-looking statements include:

limitations on access to public records and other data;

compromises in the security of our data transmissions, including the transmission of confidential information or systems interruptions;

difficult conditions in the mortgage and consumer credit industry, the state of the securitization market, increased unemployment and the economy generally;

changes in applicable government regulations, including with respect to the use of public records and consumer data;

consolidation among our significant customers and competitors;

RISK FACTORS

Investing in our common stock involves risks, including the risks described below that are specific to the shares of our common stock and those that could affect us and our business. You should not purchase our common stock unless you understand these investment risks. Please be aware that other risks may prove to be important in the future. New risks may emerge at any time and we cannot predict such risks or estimate the extent to which they may affect our financial performance. Before purchasing any shares of our common stock, you should consider carefully the risks and other information in this prospectus supplement and the accompanying prospectus and carefully read the risks described in the documents incorporated by reference in this prospectus supplement and the accompanying prospectus, including those set forth under the caption "Risk Factors" in the periodic reports we file with the SEC.

Risks Relating to the Offering

The price of our common stock may fluctuate significantly, and this may make it difficult for you to resell common stock owned by you at times or at prices you find attractive.

The trading price of shares of our common stock may fluctuate widely as a result of a number of factors, many of which are outside our control. In addition, the stock market is subject to fluctuations in the stock prices and trading volumes that affect the market prices of the stock of many companies. These broad market fluctuations have adversely affected and may continue to adversely affect the market price of shares of our common stock. Among the factors that could affect our stock price are:

actual or anticipated quarterly fluctuations in our operating results and financial condition;

changes in revenue or earnings estimates or publication of research reports and recommendations by financial analysts or actions taken by rating agencies with respect to shares of our common stock or those of other companies in our industry;

failure to meet analysts' revenue or earnings estimates;

speculation in the press or investment community generally or relating to our reputation or that of our industry;

strategic actions by us or our competitors, such as acquisitions or restructurings;

actions by institutional stockholders;

fluctuations in the stock price and operating results of our competitors;

future sales of our equity or equity-related securities;

changes in the frequency or amount of dividends or stock repurchases;

proposed or adopted regulatory changes or developments;

Edgar Filing: CORELOGIC, INC. - Form 424B7

anticipated or pending investigations, proceedings, or litigation that involve or affect us;

domestic and international economic factors unrelated to our performance; or general market conditions and, in particular, developments related to market conditions for our industry.

A significant decline in our stock price could result in substantial losses for individual stockholders and could lead to costly and disruptive securities litigation.

There may be future sales or other dilution of our equity, which may adversely affect the market price of our common stock.

We are not restricted from issuing additional shares of our common stock. The issuance of any additional shares of our common or preferred stock could be substantially dilutive to holders of shares of our common stock. Holders of our shares of our common stock have no preemptive rights that entitle holders to purchase their pro rata share of any offering of shares of any class or series and, therefore, such sales or offerings could result in increased dilution to our stockholders. The market price of shares of our common stock could decline as a result of sales of shares of our common stock made after this offering or the perception that such sales could occur.

You may not receive dividends on the common stock.

Holders of shares of our common stock are only entitled to receive such dividends as our board of directors may declare out of funds legally available for such payments. Although we have historically declared cash dividends on shares of our common stock, we are not required to do so and do not expect to declare a common stock dividend in the future. This could adversely affect the market price of shares of our common stock.

We are a holding company and depend on our subsidiaries for dividends, distributions and other payments.

We are a holding company whose primary assets are the securities of its operating subsidiaries. Our ability to pay dividends is dependent on the ability of our subsidiaries to pay dividends or repay funds to us. If our operating subsidiaries are not able to pay dividends or repay funds to us, we may not be able to declare and pay dividends to you.

The common stock is equity and is subordinate to our existing and future indebtedness and our preferred stock.

The shares of our common stock are equity interests in CoreLogic and do not constitute indebtedness. As such, the shares of our common stock will rank junior to all indebtedness and other non-equity claims on CoreLogic with respect to assets available to satisfy claims on CoreLogic, including in a liquidation of CoreLogic. Additionally, holders of shares of our common stock are subject to the prior dividend and liquidation rights of any holders of our shares of our preferred stock then outstanding.

USE OF PROCEEDS

All of the shares of our common stock being offered pursuant to this prospectus supplement are being sold by the selling stockholders or their pledgees, donees, transferees or other successors-in-interest. Accordingly, we will not receive any proceeds from the sale of the resale shares. See Selling Stockholders.

Table of ContentsSELLING STOCKHOLDERS

On May 26, 2010, we issued to the selling stockholders, First American Financial Corporation (which we refer to as FAFC) and its wholly-owned subsidiary, First American Title Insurance Company (which we refer to as FATICO), an aggregate of 12,933,265 shares of our common stock, all of which are registered for resale pursuant to this prospectus supplement. We will not receive any of the proceeds from the sale of the resale shares offered by this prospectus supplement. We do not know when or in what amount the selling stockholders may offer the resale shares for sale. FAFC has agreed that it will, and will cause FATICO to, dispose of the resale shares before June 1, 2015; however, the selling stockholders may also elect not to sell any or all of the resale shares in this offering. Because the selling stockholders may offer all or some of the resale shares pursuant to this offering, and because we currently have no agreements, arrangements or understandings with respect to the timing of the sale of any of the resale shares that we cannot estimate the number of shares of our common stock that will be held by the selling stockholders after completion of the offering of the resale shares. However, for purposes of the table below, we have assumed that, after completion of the offering of the resale shares, none of the resale shares will be held by the selling stockholders. Except as otherwise indicated, the number of shares of our common stock beneficially owned is determined under rules promulgated by the SEC, and the information may not represent beneficial ownership for any other purpose.

The following table reflects the number of shares of our common stock beneficially owned by the selling stockholders as of June 4, 2010, and the number of resale shares that the selling stockholders may offer from time to time pursuant to this prospectus supplement.

	Number of Shares of Common Stock Beneficially Owned Prior to this Offering	Number of Shares of Common Stock That May be Sold	Shares of Common Stock Beneficially Owned After Completion of this Offering	Percentage of Class Outstanding After Completion of this Offering
Selling Stockholders
First American Financial Corporation	5,173,306	5,173,306	0	0
First American Title Insurance Company	7,759,959	7,759,959	0	0

Each of the selling stockholders has represented to us that the shares of our common stock listed opposite such selling stockholder's name under the heading "Number of Shares of Common Stock That May be Sold" were acquired for investment for its own account, not as nominee or agent, for investment purposes only, and not with a view to the resale or distribution of any part thereof except pursuant to an effective registration statement or an exemption from registration. In recognition of the fact that the selling stockholders may wish to be legally permitted to sell the shares of our common stock in the future, we agreed to file with the SEC under the Securities Act this prospectus supplement with respect to the resale of the shares of our common stock from time to time, and have agreed to prepare and file such prospectus supplements as may be necessary until the earliest of (i) the date when all of the shares of our common stock offered by the selling stockholders hereby have been sold pursuant to a registration statement under the Securities Act, (ii) the date when all of the shares of our common stock offered by the selling stockholders have been sold to the public pursuant to Rule 144 (or any successor provision) under the Securities Act or (iii) the date when all of the shares of our common stock offered by the selling stockholders hereby may be resold to the public without volume or method of sale restrictions pursuant to Rule 144(d) (or any successor provision) under the Securities Act.

the Securities Act, and any commissions received by them and profit on any resale of the shares of our common stock as principal may be deemed to be underwriting discounts and commissions under the Securities Act. The selling stockholders have acknowledged that they understand their obligations to comply with the provisions of the Exchange Act and the rules thereunder relating to stock manipulation, particularly Regulation M.

In effecting sales, brokers or dealers engaged by the selling stockholders may arrange for other brokers or dealers to participate. Such brokers or dealers may receive commissions or discounts from the selling stockholders in amounts to be negotiated by the selling stockholders. The selling stockholders may enter into hedging transactions with broker-dealers and the broker-dealers may engage in short sales of the shares of our common stock in the course of hedging the positions they assume with the selling stockholders (including in connection with the distribution of the shares of our common stock by such broker-dealers). The selling stockholders may also engage in short sales of the shares of our common stock and may enter into option or other transactions with broker-dealers that involve the delivery of the shares of our common stock to the broker-dealers, who may then resell or otherwise transfer such shares of our common stock.

Broker-dealers engaged by the selling stockholders may arrange for other brokers-dealers to participate in sales. Such broker-dealers and any other participating broker-dealers may, in connection with such sales, be deemed to be underwriters within the meaning of the Securities Act. If the selling stockholders effect such transactions through underwriters, broker-dealers or agents, such underwriters, broker-dealers or agents may receive commissions in the form of discounts, concessions or commissions from the selling stockholders or commissions from purchasers of the shares of our common stock for whom they may act as agent or to whom they may sell as principal, or both (which discounts, concessions or commissions as to particular underwriters, broker-dealers or agents may be less than or in excess of those customary in the types of transactions involved). Any discounts or commissions received by any such broker-dealers may be deemed to be underwriting discounts and commissions under the Securities Act.

Each selling stockholder may from time to time pledge or grant a security interest in some or all of the shares of our common stock that it owns and, if it defaults in the performance of secured obligations, the pledgees or secured parties may offer and sell the shares of our common stock from time to time under this prospectus supplement, or under an amendment to this prospectus supplement under Rule 424(b) or other applicable regulation promulgated under the Securities Act, amending, if necessary, the list of selling stockholders to include the pledgees, donees, transferees or other successors-in-interest as selling stockholders under this prospectus supplement.

The selling stockholders also may transfer the shares of our common stock in other circumstances, in which case the pledgees, donees, transferees or other successors-in-interest will be the selling beneficial owners for purposes of this prospectus supplement. In addition, the selling stockholders may also sell shares of our common stock in accordance with Rule 144 under the Securities Act, if Rule 144 is then available.

There can be no assurance that the selling stockholders will sell any or all of the shares of our common stock registered pursuant to the registration statement of which this prospectus supplement and the accompanying prospectus form a part. Once sold under this prospectus supplement, the shares of our common stock will be freely tradeable in the hands of persons other than our affiliates.

We will pay all of the expenses incident to the filing of this registration statement, estimated to be $250,000. These expenses include legal and accounting fees in connection with the preparation of the registration statement of which this prospectus supplement is a part, legal and other fees in connection with the qualification of the sale of the shares of our common stock under the laws of certain states (if any), registration and filing fees and other expenses. OUR COMPANY

This registration statement is being filed by CoreLogic, Inc., a Delaware corporation, as successor to The First American Corporation, a California corporation. In May 2010, the shareholders of The First American Corporation approved our reincorporation from California to Delaware pursuant to an agreement and plan of merger. In accordance with the agreement and plan of merger, The First American Corporation merged with and into CoreLogic, with CoreLogic continuing as the surviving corporation. All of the previously outstanding common shares of The First American Corporation were cancelled and each holder of such cancelled common shares received one share of the common stock, par value $0.00001 per share, of CoreLogic. CoreLogic's shares of common stock have been approved for listing on The New York Stock Exchange under the symbol CLGX.

We are a Delaware corporation with executive offices located at 4 First American Way, Santa Ana, California 92707. Our telephone number is (714) 250-6400.

USE OF PROCEEDS

Unless otherwise specified in an applicable prospectus supplement accompanying this prospectus, the net proceeds from the sale of shares of our common stock to which this prospectus relates will be used for general corporate purposes. General corporate purposes may include repayment of indebtedness, acquisitions, additions to working capital, repurchases of shares of our common stock, capital expenditures and investments in our subsidiaries. We will not receive any of the proceeds from the sale of shares of our common stock by the selling stockholders.

DESCRIPTION OF CAPITAL STOCK

The following is a description of the material provisions of our capital stock, as well as other material terms of our current certificate of incorporation and bylaws, copies of which have been filed as exhibits to the registration statement of which this prospectus forms a part.

Authorized Capitalization

As of the date of this prospectus, our authorized capital consists of 180,000,000 shares of our common stock, of which 116,939,278 are outstanding, and 500,000 shares of our preferred stock, of which none were outstanding, each class of shares having a $0.00001 par value. Each share of our common stock has the same relative rights and is identical in all respects with every other share of our common stock.

Common and Preferred Stock

Voting rights. Each stockholder is entitled to one vote for each share of our common stock. Stockholders are entitled to vote on all matters requiring stockholder approval under Delaware law and our amended and restated certificate of incorporation and bylaws, including the election of members of the board of directors. At each annual meeting of our stockholders, the entire board of directors is put up for election by the stockholders. The Delaware General Corporation Law (DGCL) provides that stockholders are denied the right to cumulate votes in the election of directors unless our amended and restated certificate of incorporation provides otherwise. Our amended and restated certificate of incorporation does not expressly address cumulative voting.

Dividend Rights. We pay dividends out of statutory surplus or from net profits if, as and when declared by our board of directors. If we issue shares of our preferred stock, the holders of the shares of our preferred stock may have a priority over the holders of the shares of our common stock with respect to dividends.

Liquidation Rights. If we are liquidated or dissolved, stockholders of common stock are entitled to receive all of our assets that remain after our debts and liabilities are paid. If we issue shares of our preferred stock, the holders of shares of our preferred stock may have a priority over the holders of shares of our common stock in the event of our liquidation or dissolution. As of the date of this prospectus, we have not issued any shares of our preferred stock.

Preemptive rights; redemption; nonassessability. Shares of our common stock have no preemptive rights. This means that our stockholders do not have a right to buy their proportional shares of any additional shares of our common stock we issue. There are no provisions for redemption, conversion rights, sinking funds, or liability for further calls or assessments on shares of our common stock. This means that we cannot ask you for more money for your shares of our common stock, we cannot force you to sell your shares of our common stock back to us (absent a separate agreement to do so) and your shares of our common stock cannot be exchanged for a different security. It also means that we do not set aside any money to buy your shares of our common stock from you.

Amendments to amended and restated certificate of incorporation or bylaws. Our board of directors has the power to adopt, amend or repeal our bylaws, except for the provision requiring directors to be elected by a majority of the votes cast at the annual meeting. The stockholders also may amend our bylaws, but the affirmative vote of the holders of at least a majority in voting power of the issued and outstanding stock entitled to vote generally in the election of directors, voting together as a single class, shall be required for the stockholders to amend or repeal, or adopt any provision inconsistent with, any provision of the bylaws.

Limitations on Liability and Indemnification of Officers and Directors. The DGCL authorizes corporations to limit or eliminate the personal liability of directors to corporations and their stockholders for monetary damages for breaches of directors' fiduciary duties. Our amended and restated certificate of incorporation includes a provision that eliminates the personal liability of directors for monetary damages for breaches of fiduciary duty as a director.

Our bylaws provide for the indemnification by us of any person serving as a director, officer, employee or other agent to the fullest extent permissible under the DGCL. In addition, we have purchased a directors' and officers' insurance policy covering our officers and directors for liabilities that they may incur as a result of any action, or failure to act, in their capacity as officers and directors. We believe that these indemnification provisions and insurance are useful to attract and retain qualified directors and officers.

Table of Contents

Authorized but Unissued Stock. Our authorized but unissued shares of our common stock and our preferred stock will be available for future issuance without the approval of holders of common stock. We may use these additional shares of our common stock and our preferred stock for a variety of corporate purposes, including future offerings to raise additional capital, corporate acquisitions and employee benefit plans.

Anti-takeover provisions could adversely affect our stockholders.

Our amended and restated certificate of incorporation authorizes the issuance of blank check shares of our preferred stock with such designations, rights and preferences as may be determined from time to time by our board of directors. Accordingly, our board is empowered, without further stockholder action, to issue shares or series of our preferred stock with dividend, liquidation, conversion, voting or other rights that could adversely affect the voting power or other rights, including the ability to receive dividends, of our common stockholders. The issuance of such shares of our preferred stock could be utilized, under certain circumstances, as a method of discouraging, delaying or preventing a change in control.

Transfer Agent and Registrar

Wells Fargo Shareowner Services, a division of Wells Fargo Bank, N.A., serves as our stock transfer agent and registrar for shares of our common stock.

Listing

Shares of our common stock have been approved for listing on the New York Stock Exchange under the symbol CLGX.

We do not know when or in what amounts the selling stockholders may offer shares of our common stock for sale under this prospectus and any prospectus supplement. We will not receive any proceeds from any sale of shares of our common stock by a selling stockholder under this prospectus and any prospectus supplement. We may pay all expenses incurred with respect to the registration of the shares of our common stock owned by the selling stockholders, other than underwriting fees, discounts or commissions, which will be borne by the selling stockholders.
