The Company announced that during the fourth quarter of 2013, the Company sold its non-branded entertainment media distribution operations, discontinued its direct response television marketing operations and launched a restructuring and repositioning strategy to focus on its branded yoga, fitness, and wellbeing business and Gaiam TV. As a result of the foregoing, the Company needs to reassess the value of its deferred tax assets, which could result in a GAAP noncash value allowance between zero and $23 million (total GAAP value of deferred tax assets at the end of the year). The Company has not yet completed its tax planning and audit for the quarter and year ended December 31, 2013 at the time of this press release, so the results reported below are preliminary and subject to assessing GAAP tax valuation allowance. The Company's Form 10-K will be filed by March 31, 2014.
