Letter to Employees

Dear Colleagues:

This morning we announced that we entered into an agreement for Knauf to acquire USG Corporation for $44.00 per share.

USG and Knauf are both highly successful and complementary companies. The combination will create a leading global building products company and allow us to better serve our customers with a more comprehensive portfolio of products, while creating opportunities for our team to be part of a larger, more global organization.

As you know, over the past eighteen months, we implemented a strategy to grow our business. When a proposal was made to purchase the Company, our Board carefully weighed all of our strategic options and determined that this transaction maximizes value and is in the best interests of all of our shareholders. It provides shareholders with significant and certain cash value, and supports what we have heard from shareholders over several months in our conversations with them.

Knauf is a multinational, family-owned producer of building materials based in Germany. They generated $8 billion of revenue in 2017, operating more than 220 factories with 27,000 people worldwide. Knauf is a long-term shareholder of USG, and we have partnered with them on several initiatives over the years.

Throughout the negotiation process, Knauf's leadership team has indicated they highly value our strong team and that they plan to make significant long-term investments in USG's operations and people, which will benefit all of USG's stakeholders, including, employees, customers and suppliers.

USG will continue to be managed locally in the U.S., and Knauf intends to maintain USG's existing corporate headquarters in Chicago and its facilities in North America.

Signing the agreement is the first step toward completing the sale. The next steps will be for USG and Knauf to obtain shareholder and regulatory approvals. It is difficult to predict with certainty when the sale will close, but we expect it to close in early 2019, subject to the receipt of shareholder and regulatory approvals.

For now, it is business as usual. We must continue to work safely, run our business and serve our customers. Knauf and USG will remain two independent companies until closing. I need everyone to remain focused on our key priorities:

Putting customers first and completing the Order to Cash Project

Driving top line growth through our strategic and business unit initiatives

Implementing Advanced Manufacturing programs

Improving profitability by focusing on enhancing operating margins

Increasing employee engagement to make USG a great place to work for everyone

These priorities are as important to the Company's success today as they were when we issued them at the start of the year.

You can find the press release we issued today here [LINK]. We are committed to keeping you informed as we have more to share. In the coming weeks, the Knauf team will communicate with many employees so they can share their vision for the combined company.

As a reminder, please refer all media inquiries to Kathleen Prause at kprause@usg.com and all investor inquiries to Bill Madsen at investorrelations@usg.com.

I am very proud of the efforts of all USG employees who have made our Company so successful and ultimately so valuable. Thank you all for your hard work and dedication to USG.

Regards,

Jenny
