UMPQUA BANK SIGNS ONE OF PORTLAND'S LARGEST OFFICE SPACE LEASES

Corporate Headquarters to Move to Equity Office's Benjamin Franklin Plaza

PORTLAND (December 9, 2004) - Umpqua Bank, a subsidiary of Umpqua Holdings Corporation (NASDAQ: UMPQ), has signed a 52,924-square-foot expansion lease at Equity Office's Benjamin Franklin Plaza. The lease, to be taken over the next five years, will make Umpqua the building's largest tenant. Mark Friel of Norris Beggs & Simpson represented Umpqua in the transaction, and Eric Castle, leasing representative, represented Equity Office.

"As one of the largest community banks in the west, Umpqua's roots are in Oregon and we're proud to be headquartered here," said Ray Davis, chief executive officer of Umpqua Holdings Corporation. "Moving to this location will further solidify our corporate presence. We're pleased to be a part of Portland's business community and we see this expansion as an opportunity to further invest in the city."

"This is one of the largest deals to date for the Portland office market," said Patrick

Callahan, senior vice president of Equity Office's Seattle Region. "Equally important, this is a great opportunity for us to retain and expand one of Portland's most visible regional banks, while securing long-term occupancy in one Portland's key downtown buildings. We are pleased to retain the bank as a customer in Portland and hope to continue serving its growing business needs throughout our West Coast portfolio."

Umpqua Bank currently leases 11,891 square feet, including a 5,303-square-foot bank branch on the lobby level and 6,588 square feet of office space on the 9th Floor. Umpqua Bank also recently signed a new lease at Equity Office's Plaza East building in Bellevue, Wash. The company will take occupancy of a 6,224-square-foot space for the bank's first permanent branch location in Bellevue in the first quarter of 2005.
