On August 18, 2011, the Board of Directors of BioLargo, Inc. (the “Company”) increased the number of positions on its board of directors from five to seven, which is the maximum authorized by the Company’s Bylaws. Concurrently, the Board elected Kent C. Roberts II as its sixth board member. The seventh board position remains vacant at this time. Mr. Roberts will receive as compensation for his service as a board member $10,000 each calendar quarter served, as is customary with the Company’s independent directors. In addition, Mr. Roberts may receive other equity-based compensation from time to time. Mr. Roberts has not yet been appointed to any committees of the board of directors, and there are no arrangements or understandings between Mr. Roberts and any other person pursuant to which he was elected as a director.

Mr. Roberts spent 14 years as a partner and Director of Marketing at the investment management firm First Quadrant LP prior to his retirement in 2011. First Quadrant is respected globally as an innovative leader and investor in global macro and asset allocation strategies. The firm has been the recipient of four prestigious Graham and Dodd Awards for excellence in investment research during its twenty-year history and continues its long held focus on high level research. During his tenure at First Quadrant, Mr. Roberts served a term as a member of the firm’s governing board responsible for oversight of business operations, compensation, strategy, and public relations. Prior to his involvement with First Quadrant, Mr. Roberts served in a similar capacity as Marketing Director for Provident Capital Management in Philadelphia (1995 to 1997), and co-founded Akamai International, a boutique investment management firm offering institutional investors international equity strategies. He has presented at numerous industry conferences around the world and invited to participate on Institutional Investor’s Advisory Board. From 1987 through 1992, Mr. Roberts worked in the capital markets department for Bankers Trust Company and other regional banks advising multinational corporations on currency risk management strategies. Prior to entering the financial services industry Mr. Roberts worked in oil and gas exploration and consulted on the environmental impact resulting from the development of the Central Arizona Project (the canal that brought water from the Colorado River to both Phoenix and Tucson AZ). Mr. Roberts received an MBA in Finance from the University of Notre Dame in 1986, and a BS in Agriculture and Watershed Hydrology from the University of Arizona in 1982. Mr. Roberts holds a series 3 securities license.

In March 2009, Mr. Roberts, through a corporation in which he is the sole shareholder, invested $200,000 into the Company’s “Fall 2008” private securities offering. In exchange for his investment, Mr. Roberts received a promissory note convertible at $0.50 per share, which bears 10% annual interest and matures on October 15, 2011. Mr. Roberts has been issued an aggregate 86,225 shares of common stock as payment of interest during the term of the note. In addition, in connection with his investment, Mr. Roberts received a warrant to purchase 400,000 shares of common stock at $0.75, which expired unexercised on October 15, 2009, and a second warrant to purchase 400,000 shares of common stock at $1.50 per share, which is due to expire on October 15, 2011.
