EXPLANATORY NOTE

On December 21, 2018, Asta Funding, Inc. (the “Company,” “we,” “us,” or “our”) filed its Annual Report on Form 10-K for the fiscal year ended September 30, 2018 (the “Original 10-K”). This Amendment No. 1 (the “Amendment”) amends Part III, Items 10 through 14 of the Original 10-K to include information previously omitted from the Original 10-K in reliance on General Instruction G(3) to Form 10-K. General Instruction G(3) to Form 10-K provides that registrants may incorporate by reference certain information from a definitive proxy statement which involves the election of directors if such definitive proxy statement is filed with the Securities and Exchange Commission (the “SEC”) within 120 days after the end of the fiscal year. The Company does not anticipate that its definitive proxy statement involving the election of directors will be filed before January 28, 2019 (i.e., within 120 days after the end of the Company's 2018 fiscal year). Accordingly, Part III of the Original 10-K is hereby amended and restated as set forth below. The information included herein as required by Part III, Items 10 through 14 of Form 10-K is more limited than what is required to be included in the definitive proxy statement to be filed in connection with our annual meeting of shareholders.

In addition, as required by Rule 12b-15 under the Securities Exchange Act of 1934, as amended (the “Exchange Act”), new certifications by our principal executive officers and principal financial officer are filed as exhibits to this Amendment under Item 15 of Part IV hereof.

Except as stated herein, this Amendment does not reflect events occurring after the filing of the Original 10-K with the SEC on December 21, 2018, and no attempt has been made in this Amendment to modify or update other disclosures as presented in the Original 10-K.

Name	Age	Position
Gary Stern	66	Chairman, President and Chief Executive Officer
Timothy Bishop	68	Director, Audit Committee Member, Nominating and Corporate Governance Committee Chair and Compensation Committee Member
Michael Monteleone	61	Director, Audit Committee Chair
Louis A. Piccolo	67	Director
David Slackman	71	Director, Audit Committee Member, Compensation Committee Chair and Nominating and Corporate Governance Committee Member

The Business Experience and Qualifications of Each Director

We believe that our Board of Directors should be composed of individuals with sophistication and experience in many substantive areas that impact our business. We believe that experience, qualifications, or skills in the following areas are most important: experience in the distressed consumer credit industry; regulatory; accounting and finance; capital markets; strategic planning; human resources and development practices; and board practices of other corporations. We believe that all of the current members of our Board of Directors possess the professional and personal qualifications necessary for board service, and have highlighted particularly noteworthy attributes for each such member in the individual biographies below. The principal occupation and business experience, for at least the past five years, of each current director is as follows:

Gary Stern has been a director and the President and Chief Executive Officer of the Company since our inception in July 1994. Mr. Stern assumed the role of Chairman in January 2009. Mr. Stern had been Vice President, Secretary, Treasurer and a director of Asta Group, a holding company and current affiliate of the Company, since 1980, and has held other positions with Asta Group prior thereto. In such capacities, he has obtained substantial experience in distressed consumer credit analysis and receivables collections. As a result of these and other professional experiences, Mr. Stern possesses particular knowledge and experience in financial management and collections, which strengthens the Board of Directors' collective qualifications, skills and experience.

Timothy Bishop has been a director of the Company since July 2018. Mr. Bishop served Southampton College for 29 years, leaving the position of Provost in 2002 to make his first-ever run for office, when he was elected to represent New York's 1st Congressional District in one of the closest elections in the nation. He was re-elected to the House of Representatives five times. Congressman Bishop graduated from Southampton High School and holds a BA in History from Holy Cross College in Worcester, Massachusetts and a Masters Degree in Public Administration from Long Island University. During his time in Congress, Mr. Bishop served on the House Budget Committee for four years, and served as either the Vice-Chair or Co-Chair of the Democratic Budget group for all twelve years he was in Congress. Mr. Bishop previously served as a director of SFX Entertainment, Inc., a publicly traded media and entertainment company, during the period for which he served. Additionally, Mr. Bishop served as the budget officer for Southampton College for approximately 22 years. As a result of these and other professional experiences, Mr. Bishop possesses particular knowledge and experience in budget preparation, control and analysis, which strengthens the Board of Directors' collective qualifications, skills and experience.

Michael Monteleone has been a director of the Company since January 2019. Mr. Monteleone is a retired audit partner formerly with KPMG LLP, a global network of professional firms providing audit, tax and advisory services, where he served as an SEC Reviewing Partner from January 2010 to December 2018. Mr. Monteleone possesses particular knowledge and experience in audit and accounting matters, which strengthens the Board of Directors' collective qualifications, skills and experience.

Louis A. Piccolo has been a director of the Company since June 2004. Mr. Piccolo has served as President of A.L. Piccolo & Co., Inc., a business consulting firm specializing in management and financial consulting, since 1988. Mr. Piccolo was an Executive Vice President and Chief Financial Officer of Alfred Dunhill of London, Inc. from 1983 to 1988, and held the same positions at Debenham's PLC, from 1981 to 1983. From 1977 to 1981, Mr. Piccolo was a senior accountant at KPMG Peat Marwick. As a result of these and other professional experiences, Mr. Piccolo possesses particular knowledge and experience in accounting and management, which strengthens the Board of Directors' collective qualifications, skills and experience.

Table of Contents

David Slackman has been a director of the Company since May 2002. Mr. Slackman has served as Managing Director at HT Capital Advisors LLC from August 2008 to present. Mr. Slackman served as President, Manhattan Market (New York) of Commerce Bank from January 2001 through June 2008. Mr. Slackman was an Executive Vice President of Atlantic Bank of New York from 1994 to 2001 and a Senior Vice President of the Dime Savings Bank from 1986 to 1994. Since 2012, Mr. Slackman has served as Chairman of the New York City Advisory Board of Sterling National Bank. In 2015, Mr. Slackman was appointed President and Chief Executive Officer of the New York League of Independent Bankers until September 2016, a non-profit trade association for commercial banks in the New York metropolitan area. In October 2018, Mr. Slackman resigned his position at Sterling Bank to accept a consulting position with Republic Bank (FRBK), of Philadelphia, in connection with its expansion into New York City. As a result of these and other professional experiences, Mr. Slackman possesses particular knowledge and experience in financial services and management, which strengthens the Board of Directors' collective qualifications, skills and experience.

No director serves or has served in the prior five years as a director of another company with a class of securities registered pursuant to Section 12 or Section 15(d) of the Exchange Act or a company registered as an investment company under the Investment Company Act of 1940, aside from Mr. Bishop's service as a director of SFX Entertainment, Inc. indicated above.

Section 16(a) Beneficial Ownership Reporting Compliance

Section 16(a) of the Securities Exchange Act of 1934 requires our directors and executive officers, and persons who own more than ten percent of a registered class of our equity securities, to file with the SEC initial reports of ownership and reports of changes in ownership of common stock and other equity securities of Asta Funding, Inc. Officers, directors and greater than ten percent stockholders are required by SEC regulation to furnish us with copies of all Section 16(a) forms they file.

To our knowledge, based solely on a review of the copies of such reports furnished to us and written representations that no other reports were required, during the fiscal year ended September 30, 2018 all Section 16(a) filing requirements applicable to our officers, directors and greater than ten percent beneficial owners were filed in a timely manner.

Code of Business Conduct and Ethics

We have adopted a written code of ethics that applies to our directors, officers and employees, including our principal executive officer, principal financial officer, principal accounting officer or controller, or persons performing similar functions. Our Code of Ethics is available without charge upon written request directed to Asta Funding, Inc., Attn: Bruce R. Foster, 210 Sylvan Avenue, Englewood Cliffs, New Jersey 07632. Additionally, our code of ethics is available on our website at www.astafunding.com. Any amendment to, or waiver of, a provision of our code of ethics that applies to our directors or executive officers will be disclosed on our website.

Changes in Governance and Nominating Committee Procedures

There have been no material changes to the procedures by which stockholders may recommend individuals for consideration by the Governance and Nominating Committee as potential nominees for director since such procedures were last described in our proxy statement, filed with the SEC on October 29, 2018.

Audit Committee

We have a separately-designated standing audit committee established in accordance with the Exchange Act. Our Audit Committee generally assists our board of directors in its oversight of our accounting, financial reporting and internal control functions. The Audit Committee currently consists of Mr. Monteleone, who serves as Chairman, Mr. Bishop and Mr. Slackman. As required by Nasdaq rules, the members of the Audit Committee each qualify as “independent” under special standards established for members of audit committees. To qualify as “independent” to serve on the Audit Committee, the Nasdaq rules and the applicable rules of the SEC require that a director does not accept any consulting, advisory, or other compensatory fee from us, other than for service as a director, or be an affiliated person of us. Our board of directors has concluded that the current composition of the Audit Committee meets the requirements for independence under the rules and regulations of Nasdaq and of the SEC. In accordance with SEC rules, the Audit Committee also includes at least one member who is determined by the board of directors to meet the qualifications of an “audit committee financial expert.” Mr. Monteleone and Mr. Slackman are the directors who have been determined by the board of directors to be the audit committee financial experts.

Director Independence

Nasdaq’s listing standards require that our board of directors consist of a majority of independent directors, subject to certain cure periods, as determined under the applicable Nasdaq listing standards. Our board of directors, consistent with the determination of its Nominating and Corporate Governance Committee, has determined that each of Mr. Monteleone, Mr. Bishop and Mr. Slackman qualify as independent directors. In addition, as further required by Nasdaq rules, the board of directors, consistent with the determination of its Nominating and Corporate Governance Committee, has made a subjective determination as to each independent director that no relationships exist which, in the opinion of the board of directors, would interfere with the exercise of independent judgment in carrying out the responsibilities of a director. In making these determinations, our directors reviewed and discussed information provided by our directors and us with regard to each director’s business and personal activities as they may relate to us and our management.

Item 11. Executive Compensation

Executive Compensation Table

We are currently considered a smaller reporting company for purposes of the SEC’s executive compensation disclosure rules. In accordance with such rules, we are required to provide a Summary Compensation Table (reporting two fiscal years of compensation) and an Outstanding Equity Awards at Fiscal Year-End Table, as well as limited narrative disclosures. Further, current reporting obligations extend only to our “Named Executive Officers” with respect to the 2018 year, which included Mr. Gary Stern, our President and Chief Executive Officer, and our two most highly compensated executive officers other than Mr. Gary Stern, Messrs. Foster and Berman, who were serving as of September 30, 2018. Additionally, while we are not required to disclose compensation for any other executive officers, we are choosing to voluntarily report compensation paid to Ricky Stern because he is considered an integral part of our executive management team as the manager of GAR Disability Advocacy, LLC, one of our wholly owned subsidiaries.

Narrative Following Summary Compensation Table

Total compensation paid to our Named Executive Officers is generally divided among three principal components. Base salary is generally fixed and does not vary based on our financial and other performance. Other components, such as cash bonuses and stock options or other equity or equity-based awards, are variable and dependent upon our market performance. Historically, judgments about these elements have been made subjectively. In the case of stock options, the value is dependent upon our future stock price and, accordingly, such awards are intended to reward the Named Executive Officers for favorable Company-wide performance. Our Compensation Committee reviews total compensation to see if it falls in line with peer companies and may also look at overall market data. For fiscal year 2018, the Compensation Committee determined that our compensation program was generally competitive with the members of our peer group. Our goal to promote pay for performance emphasizes the variable elements of overall compensation over fixed base salaries. In this regard, it is our policy to emphasize long-term equity awards over short-term cash bonuses, as the long-term awards are intended to align with goals such as total shareholder return. Each of the three elements of executive compensation has been determined by evaluating our analysis of our financial performance, overall economic conditions and certain individual achievements, such as successful completion of assigned tasks.

Table of Contents

With respect to the 2018 year, we held base salaries consistent with 2017 levels. We did not grant stock options or other equity-based compensation awards to our Named Executive Officers during the 2018 year, although each of our Named Executive Officers held outstanding stock option awards as detailed below. Our executive bonuses are dependent on meeting corporate objectives. Our annual performance-based bonus opportunities for all of our Named Executive Officers are dependent upon our achievement of annual corporate objectives established each year and, in the case of our Named Executive Officers other than our Chief Executive Officer, the individual officer’s contributions towards such corporate objectives. Our Board of Directors may choose to award additional bonuses based on significant corporate achievements that occur during the year. We maintain a reasonable limit on the maximum performance bonus that may be paid.

Severance and Change-in-Control Benefits. Currently, we have an employment agreement with our Chief Financial Officer, Bruce R. Foster. None of our other Named Executive Officers are providing services under an employment agreement, and would not receive severance benefits pursuant to any formal plan or program. Under his agreement, Mr. Foster will receive a base salary of $275,000, subject to annual increase, and be eligible to receive cash and non-cash bonuses at the discretion of the Board of Directors or a duly constituted committee of the Board. He will also be entitled to participate in any other benefit plans established by the Company for executive employees. Mr. Foster’s agreement has an 18 month non-compete and non-solicitation provision. The agreement has a one (1) year term, and the term will be extended by one year on each anniversary date of the agreement unless either party, at least 90 days prior to an anniversary dates, provides the other party with notice of its intention not to extend the term of the agreement. Under the agreement, Mr. Foster can be terminated with or without “cause,” as defined in the agreement. In the event he is terminated without “cause,” he will receive severance equal to three (3) months of his then current base salary. In the event of a change in control of the Company, Mr. Foster will receive a lump sum payment equal to two times his then current base salary.
