CAVEAT PERTAINING TO FORWARD LOOKING STATEMENTS

The Private Securities Litigate Reform Act of 1995 provides a "safe harbor" for forward-looking statements. Certain of the statements contained herein, which are not historical facts, are forward-looking statements with respect to events, the occurrence of which involve risks and uncertainties. These forward-looking statements may be impacted, either positively or negatively, by various factors. Information concerning potential factors that could affect the Registrant is detailed from time to time in the Registrant's reports filed with the Commission. This report contains "forward looking statements" relating to the Registrant's current expectations and beliefs. These include statements concerning operations, performance, financial condition and anticipated growth. For this purpose, any statements contained in this Annual Report and Form 10-KSB that are not statements of historical fact are forward-looking statements. Without limiting the generality of the foregoing, words such as "may", "will", "expect", "believe", "anticipate", "intend", "could", "estimate", or "continue", or the negative or other variation thereof or comparable terminology are intended to identify forward-looking statements. These statements by their nature involve substantial risks and uncertainties which are beyond the Registrant's control. Should one or more of these risks or uncertainties materialize or should the Registrant's underlying assumptions prove incorrect, actual outcomes and results could differ materially from those indicated in the forward looking statements.

CONTEXT

The information in this report is qualified in its entirety by reference to the entire report; consequently, this report must be read in its entirety. This is especially important in light of material subsequent events disclosed. Information may not be considered or quoted out of context or without referencing other information contained in this report necessary to make the information considered, not misleading.
