President's Letter

Edgar Filing: PIONEER HIGH INCOME TRUST - Form N-CSR

Dear Shareowner,

During the first three quarters of 2011, the U.S. economy struggled to gain solid footing. The economy went through a soft patch in the first half, and the second half, so far, has been highlighted by the U.S. government's battle over the debt ceiling and Standard & Poor's downgrade of the U.S. Treasury's credit rating from the top rating of "AAA" for the first time in history. After rallying nicely in the first half, U.S. equity markets reacted sharply this summer to the political stalemate and the downgrade. There has been continued pressure on equities due to concerns about the growing European sovereign-debt crisis and its potential impact on the global economy.

Despite legitimate reasons for concern, we believe there are also reasons for optimism that the U.S. economy will continue to exhibit low to flat growth and not head into a severe recession. Corporations continue to post solid earnings and, for the most part, are maintaining their positive earnings outlooks. They also have strong balance sheets with improved net leverage and high cash levels. Auto production has rebounded following the Japanese supply chain interruptions caused by the earthquake and tsunami last spring. Retail sales growth year-over-year has remained strong despite low consumer confidence. And despite high unemployment in the U.S., private sector employment has grown consistently since February 2010. There are certainly risks to our outlook, including possible contagion from the European sovereign-debt and banking crisis, the fiscal drag from federal and state budget cuts in the U.S., as well as potential "negative feedback loops" from capital market volatility. But broadly speaking, we think this subpar economic recovery is consistent with recoveries from other "balance sheet"-caused recessions.

The difficult recovery process has been accompanied by wide market swings. While this is a challenging environment, our investment professionals continue to focus on finding good opportunities to invest in both equity and bond markets using the same disciplined approach Pioneer has used since 1928. Our approach is to identify undervalued individual securities with the greatest potential for success, carefully weighing risk against reward. Our teams of investment professionals continually monitor and analyze the relative valuations of different sectors and securities globally to help build portfolios that we believe can help you achieve your investment goals.

Pioneer High Income Trust | Semiannual Report | 9/30/11 3

Portfolio Management Discussion | 9/30/11

Mounting investor aversion to risk led to deteriorating performance by corporate high-yield bonds and other perceived risky investments during the six-month period ended September 30, 2011. As the period progressed, investors increasingly sought ways to reduce credit risk amid growing unease about the health of the economy. In the following interview, Andrew Feltus discusses the factors that influenced the performance of Pioneer High Income Trust over the six-month period. Mr. Feltus, senior vice president and portfolio manager at Pioneer, and a member of Pioneer's fixed-income team, is responsible for the daily management of the Trust.

Q How did Pioneer High Income Trust perform during the six months ended September 30, 2011?

A Pioneer High Income Trust produced a total return of -9.92% at net asset value and 3.17% at market price during the six months ended September 30, 2011, with shares of the Trust selling at a 32.2% premium to net asset value at the end of the period. During the same six-month period, the Trust's benchmark, the Bank of America Merrill Lynch High Yield Master II Index (the BofA ML Index), returned -5.39%. Unlike the Trust, the BofA ML Index is not leveraged. Over the same six-month period ended September 30, 2011, the average return (at market price) of the 39 closed end funds in Lipper's High Current Yield Closed End Funds (Leveraged) category was -6.70%. On September 30, 2011, the 30-day SEC yield on the Trust's shares was 11.02%.

Q What factors influenced the performance of the Trust during the six months ended September 30, 2011?

A A general deterioration in investor confidence led to negative performance by high-yield bonds generally, and in the performance of the Trust at net asset value over the six month ended September 30, 2011. The Trust's use of leverage in the falling market was the major factor leading to its underperformance relative to the BofA ML Index. The Trust's emphasis on lower-rated high-yield bonds also had a negative effect against performance, relative to the BofA ML Index, as securities with higher credit ratings generally held up better than lower-rated bonds during the period. The Trust's return at market price was a somewhat different story. Over the six months, the Trust generated a positive total return at market price, helped by consistent dividends and a share price that fluctuated less than the high-yield market.

Q How would you describe the investment environment during the six months ended September 30, 2011, and its effect on the Trust?

A The six-month period was marked by growing concerns that the economy was weakening. As a consequence, investments that carried credit risk fell sharply in price, especially in the third quarter (July-September 2011). High-yield bonds, which had performed positively during the first half of 2011, were particularly affected when investors grew more worried about the health of the economy and about the ability of policy makers, both home and abroad, to deal with problems such as the European sovereign-debt crisis and a raising of the U.S. debt ceiling. While these concerns finally gripped the market in the third quarter, hints of economic deterioration actually had begun to be revealed in April 2011, when weakness appeared in the market for mortgage-backed securities. As the spring progressed, sovereign-debt problems in Greece and several other European countries once again began to capture the attention of investors, raising new concerns about the potential contagious effects that European debt problems might have on the global economy. In particular, investors grew more worried that the widening sovereign-debt problems could expose weakness in the financial health of major European banks, many of which appeared to be under-capitalized. As the six-month period ended on September 30, 2011, a resolution to the debt problems in Europe appeared to be far from settled.

Edgar Filing: PIONEER HIGH INCOME TRUST - Form N-CSR

4 Pioneer High Income Trust | Semiannual Report | 9/30/11

Investor confidence was shaken further during the summer months by a series of developments in the United States, where new reports indicated a deceleration of economic growth trends. While retail sales seemed to hold up, industrial production appeared to slow, at least partly due to the effects of the March 2011 earthquake and tsunami in Japan. Unemployment remained high, and the growth of the economy, as measured by gross national product, slowed to a 1.3% annual pace for the second quarter of 2011 (April-June). At the same time, political stalemate in Washington, D.C., highlighted by the debate over the national debt ceiling, further undermined investor confidence that U.S. policy makers could reach consensus. In August, almost immediately after the debt ceiling debate was concluded, the Standard & Poor's (S&P) credit rating agency downgraded its rating for U.S. Treasury securities from the top level of AAA for the first time since the rating was first awarded to the U.S. by one of S&P's predecessor firms in 1917. In response to all the negative news, the demand for high-yield bonds and for other credit-sensitive securities weakened as anxious investors sought out higher-rated debt. As corporate bond prices fell, the yield spreads between high-yield bonds and Treasuries widened substantially, reflecting the market's demand for higher yields in exchange for taking on credit risk.

Q How was the Trust's portfolio of investments positioned during the six months ended September 30, 2011, and how did the positioning affect the Trust's performance?

A We maintained a consistent investment strategy for the Trust throughout the six months, emphasizing high-yield corporate securities. At September 30, 2011, for example, 69.1% of the Trust's total investment portfolio was invested in U.S. high-yield corporate debt. We believed that the price declines in high-yield bonds were inconsistent with the underlying fundamentals of the companies and securities in which we invested the Trust, and that the fears of a double-dip recession were overstated. For example, the yield spreads of high-yield bonds compared with Treasury securities widened over the six months, to levels consistent with a nearly 10% annual default rate for the debt. (Spreads in this case are defined as the differences in yield between Treasuries and higher-yielding securities.) However, the trailing 12-month default rate for high-yield bonds was just 2%. Even factoring in future increases in the default rate, we thought that the high-yield bond prices represented good values, especially as corporate earnings growth continued to be solid. The emphasis on lower-quality holdings tended to hold back the Trust's results when high-yield bonds declined in price, especially over the final three months of the period as lower-quality securities underperformed the BofA ML Index, despite their higher yields.

A number of investments contributed positively to the Trust's results over the six-month period, despite the overall market trend. One of the highlights came from our decision early in 2011 to take advantage of good investment opportunities in municipal bonds. We found that municipal bonds, in general, were trading at better prices than comparable maturity and quality taxable bonds, and so we established positions in that market for the Trust, maintaining an average weighting of 4.3% of the Trust's total investment portfolio at the end of the period. The decision supported the Trust's performance as municipals recovered over the six-month period. The Trust's investments in bank loans, which also are not part of the BofA ML benchmark index, also held up relatively well. Bank loans accounted for 5.2% of the Trust's total investment portfolio as of September 30, 2011.

Among individual investments, the Trust's performance was helped by the bonds of three companies whose debts were expected to be refinanced when they were acquired. They included bonds of: PAETEC, a broadband services provider; Aker Drilling, an offshore oil drilling firm; and Vangent, which provides information technology services to government agencies. In addition, Vanguard Health Systems, which operates several hospitals, had a successful initial public stock offering and retired its existing subordinated debt.

While those corporate events helped the Trust's performance, the takeover of Graham Packaging by Reynolds Group proved a negative for the Trust over the period. We had invested the Trust in the debt of both companies, but Graham's debt was not retired at the time of the acquisition and Reynolds increased its indebtedness during the deal, resulting in declines in the prices for the securities of both companies. Another of the Trust's investments that did not help performance was the debt of Sevan Marine, which manufactures offshore drilling platforms for the energy industry. The company restructured its debt when it ran into cash-flow problems.

6 Pioneer High Income Trust | Semiannual Report | 9/30/11

Q Could you describe how leverage is used in managing the Trust?

A The Trust employs leverage provided by auction market-preferred shares to invest the Trust in additional higher-yielding securities that typically pay higher dividends than the dividend rates payable on the preferred shares, thereby increasing the Trust's yield. The use of leverage can increase the Trust's potential to pay higher yields to its shareowners than would generally be paid by an unleveraged portfolio. During periods of low market interest rates and modest borrowing costs, the use of leverage can have a significant positive effect on the Trust's yield. However, just as the use of leverage provides the potential to enhance yield, it also can increase investment risk. During periods when high-yield bond prices tend to change, the use of leverage can magnify the effect of changing prices on the Trust's total return, which is the combination of yield and price change. When bond prices rise, the use of leverage can further enhance the Trust's total return; when bond prices decline, the use of leverage can magnify the price loss to the Trust.

Q Did the level of leverage in the Trust change over the six months?

A At the end of the six-month period (September 30, 2011), 30.3% of the Trust's total managed assets were financed by leverage. While the figure was higher than the 27.3% of the Trust's managed assets leveraged at the beginning of the six-month period on April 1, 2011, the increase was due to declines in the values of the bonds held by the Trust. The absolute amount of leverage used by the Trust was unchanged over the six months ended September 30, 2011.

Q What is your investment outlook?

A We expect the economy to maintain its growth trajectory, at a slow-but-steady pace. The risks of a "double-dip" recession are, in our opinion, overblown. Corporate profits should continue to be healthy, especially in the industrials sector, which we tend to emphasize in managing the Trust. While we think it is possible that the default rate for high-yield bonds may rise, we don't expect that the rate will approach the levels consistent with the price of high-yield bonds in the current market. As a result, we believe those securities are undervalued and represent good opportunities. We think the main threats to the market stem from a lack of confidence in the ability of governments to deal with their financial problems, rather than any renewed fundamental weakness in the private sector.

Please refer to the Schedule of Investments on pages 12-37 for a full listing of Trust securities.

Pioneer High Income Trust | Semiannual Report | 9/30/11 7

Investments in high-yield or lower-rated securities are subject to greater-than-average risk. The Trust may invest in securities of issuers that are in default or that are in bankruptcy.

Investing in foreign and/or emerging markets securities involves risks relating to interest rates, currency exchange rates, economic, and political conditions.

When interest rates rise, the prices of fixed-income securities in the Trust will generally fall. Conversely, when interest rates fall the prices of fixed-income securities in the Trust will generally rise. Investments in the Trust are subject to possible loss due to the financial failure of the issuers of the underlying securities and their inability to meet their debt obligations.

The Trust may invest up to 50% of its total assets in illiquid securities. Illiquid securities may be difficult to dispose of at a fair price at the times when the Trust believes it is desirable to do so, and their market price is generally more volatile than that of more liquid securities. Illiquid securities are also more difficult to value and investment of the Trust's assets in illiquid securities may restrict the Trust's ability to take advantage of market opportunities.

The Trust currently uses leverage through the issuance of preferred shares. Leverage creates significant risks, including the risk that the Trust's income or capital appreciation will not be sufficient to cover the cost of leverage, which may adversely affect the return for the holders of common shares. Since February of 2008, regularly scheduled auctions for the Trust's preferred shares have failed and preferred shareowners have not been able to sell their shares at auction. The Board of Trustees of the Trust has considered, and continues to consider, this issue.

The Trust is required to maintain certain regulatory and rating agency asset coverage requirements in connection with its outstanding preferred shares. In order to maintain required asset coverage levels, the Trust may be required to alter the composition of its investment portfolio or take other actions, such as redeeming preferred shares with the proceeds from portfolio transactions, at what might be inopportune times in the market. Such actions could reduce the net earnings or returns to holders of the Trust's common shares over time.

Risks of investing in the Trust are discussed in greater detail in the Trust's original offering documents relating to its common shares and shareowner reports issued from time to time.

These risks may increase share price volatility.

Past performance is no guarantee of future results, and there is no guarantee that market forecasts discussed will be realized.

Any information in this shareowner report regarding market or economic trends or the factors influencing the Trust's historical or future performance are statements of opinion as of the date of this report. These statements should not be relied upon for any other purposes.

Performance data shown represents past performance. Past performance is no guarantee of future results. Investment return and market price will fluctuate, and your shares may trade below NAV, due to such factors as interest rate changes and the perceived credit quality of borrowers.

Total investment return does not reflect broker sales charges or commissions. All performance is for common shares of the Trust.

Closed-end funds, unlike open-end funds, are not continuously offered. There is a one-time public offering and, once issued, shares of closed-end funds are sold in the open market through a stock exchange and frequently trade at prices lower than their NAV. NAV per common share is total assets less total liabilities, which includes preferred shares, divided by the number of common shares outstanding.

When NAV is lower than market price, dividends are assumed to be reinvested at the greater of NAV or 95% of the market price. When NAV is higher, dividends are assumed to be reinvested at prices obtained under the Trust's dividend reinvestment plan.

The performance table and graph do not reflect the deduction of fees and taxes that a shareowner would pay on Trust distributions or the sale of Trust shares.

Index comparison begins April 30, 2002. The Bank of America Merrill Lynch High Yield Master II Index is a commonly accepted measure of the performance of high yield securities. Index returns are calculated monthly, assume reinvestment of dividends and, unlike Trust returns, do not reflect any fees, expenses or sales charges. The Index is not leveraged. It is not possible to invest directly in the Index.

Notes to Financial Statements | 9/30/11 (Consolidated) (unaudited)

1. Organization and Significant Accounting Policies

Pioneer High Income Trust (the Trust) was organized as a Delaware statutory trust on January 30, 2002. Prior to commencing operations on April 26, 2002, the Trust had no operations other than matters relating to its organization and registration as a diversified, closed-end management investment company under the Investment Company Act of 1940, as amended. The investment objective of the Trust is to seek a high level of current income and the Trust may, as a secondary objective, also seek capital appreciation to the extent that it is consistent with its investment objective.

Information regarding the Trust's principal risks is contained in the Trust's original offering prospectus, with additional information included in the Trust's shareowner reports issued from time to time. Please refer to those documents when considering the Trust's principal risks. At times, the Trust's investments may represent industries or industry sectors that are interrelated or have common risks, making the Trust more susceptible to any economic, political, or regulatory developments or other risks affecting those industries and sectors.

Under normal market conditions, the Trust invests at least 80% of its assets in below investment grade (high-yield) debt securities, loans and preferred stocks. Because the Trust's investments are concentrated in high-yield securities, the Trust is subject to risks of such securities. Below investment grade securities are commonly referred to as "junk bonds" and are considered speculative with respect to the issuer's capacity to pay interest and repay principal.

The Trust's investments in certain foreign markets or countries with limited developing markets may subject the Trust to a greater degree of risk than in a developed market. These risks include disruptive political or economic conditions and the possible imposition of adverse governmental laws or currency exchange restrictions.

The Trust's financial statements have been prepared in conformity with U.S. generally accepted accounting principles that require the management of the Trust to, among other things, make estimates and assumptions that affect the reported amounts of assets and liabilities, the disclosure of contingent assets and liabilities at the date of the financial statements, and the reported amounts of income, expenses and gain or loss on investments during the reporting year. Actual results could differ from those estimates.

Pioneer High Income Trust | Semiannual Report | 9/30/11 43

The following is a summary of significant accounting policies followed by the Trust in the preparation of its financial statements, which are consistent with those policies generally accepted in the investment company industry:

A. Security Valuation

Security transactions are recorded as of trade date. Investments in loan interests are valued in accordance with guidelines established by the Board of Trustees at the mean between the last available bid and asked prices from one or more brokers or dealers as obtained from Loan Pricing Corporation. Loan interests for which no reliable price quotes are available will be valued by Loan Pricing Corporation through the use of pricing matrices to determine valuations. Fixed income securities with remaining maturity of more than sixty days are valued at prices supplied by independent pricing services, which consider such factors as market prices, market events, quotations from one or more brokers, Treasury spreads, yields, maturities and ratings. Valuations may be supplemented by dealers and other sources, as required. Equity securities that have traded on an exchange are valued at the last sale price on the principal exchange where they are traded. Equity securities or loan interests for which independent pricing services are unable to supply prices or for which market prices and/or quotations are not readily available or are considered to be unreliable are valued using fair value methods pursuant to procedures adopted by the Board of Trustees.

The Trust may use fair value methods if it is determined that a significant event has occurred after the close of the exchange or market on which the security trades and prior to the determination of the Trust's net asset value. Thus, the valuation of the Trust's securities may differ from exchange prices.

At September 30, 2011, four securities were valued using fair value methods (in addition to securities valued using prices supplied by independent pricing services) representing 0.5% of net assets applicable to common shareowners. Inputs used when applying fair value methods to value a security may include credit ratings, the financial condition of the company, current market conditions and comparable securities. Short-term fixed income securities with remaining maturities of sixty days or less generally are valued at amortized cost. Money market mutual funds are valued at net asset value.

Discounts and premiums on debt securities are accreted or amortized, respectively, daily, into interest income on an effective yield to maturity basis with a corresponding increase or decrease in the cost basis of the security. Premiums and discounts related to certain mortgage-backed securities are amortized or accreted in proportion to the monthly paydowns. Interest income, including interest on income bearing cash accounts, is recorded on an accrual basis, net of unrecoverable foreign taxes withheld at the applicable country rates.

Edgar Filing: PIONEER HIGH INCOME TRUST - Form N-CSR

44 Pioneer High Income Trust | Semiannual Report | 9/30/11

Dividend income is recorded on the ex-dividend date, except that certain dividends from foreign securities where the ex-dividend date may have passed are recorded as soon as the Trust becomes aware of the ex-dividend data in the exercise of reasonable diligence.

Gains and losses on sales of investments are calculated on the identified cost method for both financial reporting and federal income tax purposes.

B. Foreign Currency Translation

The books and records of the Trust are maintained in U.S. dollars. Amounts denominated in foreign currencies are translated into U.S. dollars using current exchange rates.

Net realized gains and losses on foreign currency transactions, if any, represent, among other things, the net realized gains and losses on foreign currency contracts, disposition of foreign currencies and the difference between the amount of income accrued and the U.S. dollars actually received. Further, the effects of changes in foreign currency exchange rates on investments are not segregated in the Statement of Operations from the effects of changes in market prices of those securities but are included with the net realized and unrealized gain or loss on investments.

C. Forward Foreign Currency Contracts

The Trust may enter into forward foreign currency contracts (contracts) for the purchase or sale of a specific foreign currency at a fixed price on a future date. All contracts are marked to market daily at the applicable exchange rates, and any resulting unrealized gains or losses are recorded in the Trust's financial statements. The Trust records realized gains and losses at the time a portfolio hedge is offset by entry into a closing transaction or extinguished by delivery of the currency. Risks may arise upon entering into these contracts from the potential inability of counterparties to meet the terms of the contracts and from unanticipated movements in the value of foreign currencies relative to the U.S. dollar (see Note 6).

D. Federal Income Taxes

It is the Trust's policy to comply with the requirements of the Internal Revenue Code applicable to regulated investment companies and to distribute all of its taxable income and net realized capital gains, if any, to its shareowners. Therefore, no federal income tax provision is required. Tax years for the prior three fiscal years remain subject to examination by tax authorities.

The amounts and characterizations of distributions to shareowners for financial reporting purposes are determined in accordance with federal income tax rules. Therefore, the sources of the Trust's distributions may be shown in the accompanying financial statements as from or in excess of net investment income or net realized gain (loss) on investment and foreign currency transactions, or from paid-in capital, depending on the type of book/tax differences that may exist.

Under the recently enacted Regulated Investment Company Modernization Act of 2010, the Fund will be permitted to carry forward capital losses incurred in taxable years beginning after December 22, 2010 for an unlimited period. However, any losses incurred during those future years will be required to be utilized prior to the losses incurred in pre-enactment tax years. As a result of this ordering rule, pre-enactment capital loss carryforwards may be more likely to expire unused. Additionally, post enactment capital losses that are carried forward will retain their character as either short-term or long-term capital losses rather than being considered all short-term as under previous law.

The tax character of current year distributions paid to common and preferred shareowners during the year ended March 31, 2011 was as follows:

Distribution paid from:
Ordinary Income	$46,424,486
Total taxable distribution	$46,424,486

The following shows the components of distributable earnings (losses) on a federal income tax basis at March 31, 2011:

	2011
Distributable earnings:
Undistributed ordinary income	$ 13,616,469
Capital loss carryforward	(58,140,584)
Post-October loss deferred	(953,338)
Dividends payable	(8,386)
Unrealized appreciation	48,961,093
Total	$ 3,475,254

The difference between book-basis and tax-basis unrealized appreciation is primarily attributable to the tax deferral of losses on straddles and wash sales, the realization for tax purposes of unrealized gains on certain foreign currency contracts, the difference between book and tax amortization methods for premiums and discounts on fixed income securities, the accrual of income on securities in default, and other book/tax temporary differences.

E. Repurchase Agreements

With respect to repurchase agreements entered into by the Trust, the value of the underlying securities (collateral), including accrued interest, is required to be equal to or in excess of the repurchase price. The collateral for all repurchase agreements is held in safekeeping in the customer-only account of the Trust's custodian or a subcustodian of the Trust. The Trust's investment adviser, Pioneer Investment Management, Inc. (PIM), is responsible for determining that the value of the collateral remains at least equal to the repurchase price.

46 Pioneer High Income Trust | Semiannual Report | 9/30/11

F. Securities Lending

The Trust lends securities in its portfolio to certain broker-dealers or other institutional investors. When entering into a securities loan transaction, the Trust typically receives cash collateral from the borrower equal to at least the value of the securities loaned, which is invested in temporary investments. Credit Suisse AG, New York Branch, as the Trust's securities lending agent, manages the Trust's securities lending collateral. The income earned on the investment of collateral is shared with the borrower and the lending agent in payment of any rebate due to the borrower with respect to the securities loan, and in compensation for the lending agent's services to the Trust. The Trust also continues to receive payments in lieu of dividends or interest on the securities loaned. Gain or loss on the value of the loaned securities that may occur during the term of the loan will be for the account of the Trust. The amount of the collateral is required to be adjusted daily to reflect any price fluctuation in the value of the loaned securities. If the required market value of the collateral is less than the value of the loaned securities, the borrower is required to deliver additional collateral for the account of the Trust prior to the close of business on that day. The Trust has the right, under the lending agreement, to terminate the loan and recover the securities from the borrower with prior notice. The Trust is required to return the cash collateral to the borrower and could suffer a loss if the value of the collateral, as invested, has declined.

G. Automatic Dividend Reinvestment Plan

All common shareowners whose shares are registered in their own names automatically participate in the Automatic Dividend Reinvestment Plan (the Plan), under which participants receive all dividends and capital gain distributions (collectively, dividends) in full and fractional common shares of the Trust in lieu of cash. Shareowners may elect not to participate in the Plan. Shareowners not participating in the Plan receive all dividends and capital gain distributions in cash. Participation in the Plan is completely voluntary and may be terminated or resumed at any time without penalty by notifying American Stock Transfer & Trust Company, the agent for shareowners in administering the Plan (the Plan Agent), in writing prior to any dividend record date; otherwise such termination or resumption will be effective with respect to any subsequently declared dividend or other distribution.

Edgar Filing: PIONEER HIGH INCOME TRUST - Form N-CSR

If a shareowner's shares are held in the name of a brokerage firm, bank or other nominee, the shareowner can ask the firm or nominee to participate in the Plan on the shareowner's behalf. If the firm or nominee does not offer the Plan, dividends will be paid in cash to the shareowner of record. A firm or nominee may reinvest a shareowner's cash dividends in common shares of the Trust on terms that differ from the terms of the Plan.

Pioneer High Income Trust | Semiannual Report | 9/30/11 47

Whenever the Trust declares a dividend on common shares payable in cash, participants in the Plan will receive the equivalent in common shares acquired by the Plan Agent either (i) through receipt of additional unissued but authorized common shares from the Trust or (ii) by purchase of outstanding common shares on the New York Stock Exchange or elsewhere. If, on the payment date for any dividend, the net asset value per common share is equal to or less than the market price per share plus estimated brokerage trading fees (market premium), the Plan Agent will invest the dividend amount in newly issued common shares. The number of newly issued common shares to be credited to each account will be determined by dividing the dollar amount of the dividend by the net asset value per common share on the date the shares are issued, provided that the maximum discount from the then current market price per share on the date of issuance does not exceed 5%. If, on the payment date for any dividend, the net asset value per common share is greater than the market value (market discount), the Plan Agent will invest the dividend amount in common shares acquired in open-market purchases. There are no brokerage charges with respect to newly issued common shares. However, each participant will pay a pro rata share of brokerage trading fees incurred with respect to the Plan Agent's open-market purchases. Participating in the Plan does not relieve shareowners from any federal, state or local taxes which may be due on dividends paid in any taxable year. Shareowners holding Plan shares in a brokerage account may not be able to transfer the shares to another broker and continue to participate in the Plan.

2. Management Agreement

PIM, a wholly owned indirect subsidiary of UniCredit S.p.A. (UniCredit), manages the Trust's portfolio. Management fees payable under the Trust's Advisory Agreement with PIM are calculated daily at the annual rate of 0.60% of the Trust's average daily managed assets. "Managed assets" means (a) the total assets of the Trust, including any form of investment leverage, minus (b) all accrued liabilities incurred in the normal course of operations, which shall not include any liabilities or obligations attributable to investment leverage obtained through (i) indebtedness of any type (including, without limitation, borrowing through a credit facility of the issuance of debt securities), (ii) the issuance of preferred stock or other similar preference securities, and/or (iii) any other means. For the six months ended September 30, 2011, the net management fee was 0.51% of the Trust's average daily managed assets, which was equivalent to 0.69% of the Trust's average daily net assets attributable to the common shareowners.

48 Pioneer High Income Trust | Semiannual Report | 9/30/11

In addition, under PIM's management and administration agreements, certain other services and costs are paid by PIM and reimbursed by the Trust. At September 30, 2011, $301,163 was payable to PIM related to management costs, administrative costs and certain other reimbursements and is included in "Due to affiliates" on the Statement of Assets and Liabilities.

Effective September 1, 2010, PIM has retained State Street Bank and Trust Company (State Street) to provide certain administrative and accounting services to the Trust on its behalf. For such services, PIM pays State Street a monthly fee at an annual rate of 0.07% of the Trust's average daily managed assets up to $500 million and 0.03% for average daily managed assets in excess of $500 million, subject to a minimum monthly fee of $10,000. Previously, PIM had retained Princeton Administrators, LLC (Princeton) to provide such services. The Trust pays Deutsche Bank an annual fee, as is agreed to from time to time by the Trust and Deutsche Bank, for providing such services.

Borrower	Unfunded Loan Commitment

8. Trust Shares

There are an unlimited number of common shares of beneficial interest authorized.

Transactions in common shares of beneficial interest for the six months ended September 30, 2011 and the year ended March 31, 2011 were as follows:

	9/30/11	3/31/11
Shares outstanding at beginning of period	27,999,225	27,737,499
Reinvestment of distributions	129,393	261,726
Shares outstanding at end of period	28,128,618	27,999,225

The Trust may classify or reclassify any unissued common shares of beneficial interest into one or more series of preferred shares of beneficial interest. As of September 30, 2011, there were 6,040 AMPS as follows: Series M7-2,020, Series W28,-2,020 and Series TH7-2,000.

Dividends on Series M7 and Series TH7 are cumulative at a rate which is to be reset every seven days based on the results of an auction. Dividends on Series W28 are also cumulative at a rate to be reset every 28 days based on the results of an auction. An auction fails if there are more AMPS offered for sale than there are buyers. When an auction fails, the dividend rate for the period will be the maximum rate on the auction dates described in the prospectus for the AMPS. Preferred shareowners are not able to sell their AMPS at an auction if the auction fails. Since February 2008, the Trust's auctions related to the AMPS have failed. The maximum rate for each 7-day Series is 150% of the 7 day commercial paper rate. The maximum rate for the 28-day series is 150% of the 30 day commercial paper rate. Dividend rates on AMPS ranged from 0.045% to 0.240% during the six months ended September 30, 2011.

The Trust may not declare dividends or make other distributions on its common shares or purchase any such shares if, at the time of the declaration, distribution or purchase, the Trust does not comply with the asset coverage ratios described in the prospectus for the AMPS.

The AMPS are redeemable at the option of the Trust, in whole or in part, on any dividend payment date at $25,000 per share plus any accumulated or unpaid dividends, whether or not declared. The AMPS are also subject to mandatory redemption at $25,000 per share plus any accumulated or unpaid dividends, whether or not declared, if certain requirements relating to the composition of the assets and liabilities of the Trust as set forth in the Statement of Preferences are not satisfied.

The holders of AMPS have voting rights equal to the holders of the Trust's common shares (one vote per share) and will vote together with holders of the common shares as a single class. Holders of AMPS are also entitled to elect two of the Trust's Trustees. In addition, the Investment Company Act of 1940, as amended, requires that along with approval by shareowners that might otherwise be required, the approval of the holders of a majority of any outstanding preferred shares, voting separately as a class, would be required to (a) adopt any plan of reorganization that would adversely affect the preferred shares and (b) take any action requiring a vote of security holders, including, among other things, changes in the Trust's subclassification as a closed-end management investment company or changes in its fundamental investment restrictions.

PIONEER FUNDS

APPROVAL OF AUDIT, AUDIT-RELATED, TAX AND OTHER SERVICES PROVIDED BY THE INDEPENDENT AUDITOR

SECTION I - POLICY PURPOSE AND APPLICABILITY

The Pioneer Funds recognize the importance of maintaining the independence of their outside auditors. Maintaining independence is a shared responsibility involving Pioneer Investment Management, Inc ("PIM"), the audit committee and the independent auditors.

The Funds recognize that a Fund's independent auditors: 1) possess knowledge of the Funds, 2) are able to incorporate certain services into the scope of the audit, thereby avoiding redundant work, cost and disruption of Fund personnel and processes, and 3) have expertise that has value to the Funds. As a result, there are situations where it is desirable to use the Fund's independent auditors for services in addition to the annual audit and where the potential for conflicts of interests are minimal. Consequently, this policy, which is intended to comply with Rule 210.2-01(C) (7), sets forth guidelines and procedures to be followed by the Funds when retaining the independent audit firm to perform audit, audit-related tax and other services under those circumstances, while also maintaining independence.

Approval of a service in accordance with this policy for a Fund shall also constitute approval for any other Fund whose pre-approval is required pursuant to Rule 210.2-01(c) (7) (ii).

In addition to the procedures set forth in this policy, any non-audit services that may be provided consistently with Rule 210.2-01 may be approved by the Audit Committee itself and any pre-approval that may be waived in accordance with Rule 210.2-01(c) (7) (i) (C) is hereby waived.

Selection of a Fund's independent auditors and their compensation shall be determined by the Audit Committee and shall not be subject to this policy.
