Item 5.02 Departure of Directors or Certain Officers; Election of Directors; Appointment of Certain Officers; Compensatory Arrangements of Certain Officers.

On August 11, 2014, Progress Software Corporation (the “Company”) announced that Andrew Zupsic, Senior Vice President, Global Field Operations, will leave the Company on September 1, 2014 in connection with a reorganization of the Company’s operations. Effective September 1, 2014, the Company will operate as three distinct business units: OpenEdge, Application Development and Deployment, and Data Connectivity and Integration, each with dedicated sales, product management and product marketing functions. As a result of this reorganization, the position of global head of field operations will cease to exist.

In connection with the termination of Mr. Zupsic’s employment, the Company will provide Mr. Zupsic with severance and other benefits applicable to executive officers of the Company under the Company’s severance plan. Per the terms of the Company’s severance plan, upon the execution by Mr. Zupsic of a standard release of claims, he will be entitled to receive the following severance and other benefits: (a) the payment of cash severance equal to twelve (12) months of his total target cash compensation, which will be paid over twelve (12) months, (b) the continuation, for a period of twelve (12) months, of benefits that are substantially equivalent to the benefits (medical, dental, vision and life insurance) that were in effect immediately prior to termination, and (c) twelve (12) months of acceleration of restricted stock units.

The release of claims will also include non-competition, non-disparagement and related covenants. The non-competition covenant will be in effect for one year following the termination of employment.

On August 11, 2014, the Company issued a press release announcing that Mr. Zupsic’s employment will terminate in connection with the reorganization. A copy of this press release is attached as Exhibit 99.1 to this 8-K.
