Explanatory Note

On October 12, 2012, Eastman Kodak Company (the “Company”) furnished a Current Report on Form 8-K to report its readiness to begin discussions with certain key creditor groups on a plan of reorganization, and to disclose certain forward-looking information showing its cash flow forecast and financial projections for the Company’s Commercial Imaging businesses (the “Original Form 8-K”). The Company is filing this Amendment No. 1 to amend the disclosure item number of the disclosure provided under Item 8.01 of the Original Form 8-K, to Item 7.01, as the financial information referenced therein is information covered by Regulation FD.

This Amendment No. 1 also supplements the disclosure provided in the Original Form 8-K, as detailed below.

Item 7.01 Regulation FD Disclosure

As announced on October 12, 2012, the Company is now ready to begin discussions on a plan of reorganization with certain key creditor groups.

An important next step in that process involves discussions over the next 30 days on issues such as case financing that may provide the basis for exit financing, extending the exclusivity period under Chapter 11, and the structure of the Company’s plan of reorganization. Specifically, the Company will engage in negotiations with representatives and holders of the Company’s second lien debt, the unsecured creditors committee, and representatives of the Company’s UK subsidiary’s pension fund to resolve claims and other issues to support a consensual plan of reorganization.

Some of these key constituencies are subject to confidentiality agreements and receive material non-public information as part of their interaction with the Company and its advisors, while others are not subject to such confidentiality agreements in order that they may continue trading in the Company’s bonds (the “Unrestricted Creditors”). In order to enable further discussions and negotiations with Unrestricted Creditors, the Company publicly disclosed on October 12 certain forward-looking information showing the Company’s cash forecast and financial projections for Kodak’s Commercial Imaging business, the foundation of the Company’s emergence plan. The Company is now supplementing that information with (a) comparable actual performance data for U.S. cash flow for July 2012 and August 2012 and (b) pro forma projections for the second half of 2012. This information is included in the schedules attached as Exhibit 99.1, which are also being made available on the Company’s investor website:
