In addition, Loeb sent the following letter to the Issuer and its Board of Directors on May 10, 2005. The letter suggests a proposed transaction whereby Loeb would acquire the Issuer. Loeb reserves the right, consistent with applicable law, to acquire additional securities of the Issuer (whether through open market purchases, block trades, private acquisitions, tender or exchange offers or otherwise). Loeb intends to review its investment in the Issuer on a continuing basis and engage in further discussions with management and the Board of Directors of the Issuer concerning the business, operations and future plans of the Issuer. Depending on various factors, including, without limitation, the Issuer's financial position and investment strategy, the price levels of the Common Stock, conditions in the securities markets and general economic and industry conditions, Loeb may in the future take additional actions with respect to its investment in the Issuer as it deems appropriate including, without limitation, seeking Board representation, making additional or amended proposals to the Issuer concerning the capitalization and operations of the Issuer, purchasing additional Common Stock, selling some or all of its Common Stock, engaging in short selling of or any hedging or similar transaction with respect to the Common Stock or changing its intention partially or entirely with respect to any and all matters referred to in Item 4.

Craig N. Johnson
Chairman of the Board

John E. Zawacki
President and Chief Executive Officer

Blair Corporation
220 Hickory Street
Wharton, PA 16366-0001

Attn: Board of Directors and Executive Officers

We are pleased to see that the management and Board of Directors of Blair Corporation have elected to monetize the company's consumer credit portfolio. However, we are disappointed by the way in which the stock market continues to value the company, even in light of the apparent likelihood of approximately $140,000,000.00 in proceeds from such sale being distributed to shareholders. As an alternative to the distribution of a portion of the proceeds from the sale of the consumer credit portfolio, we propose the following transaction. Loeb Partners Corporation, or an affiliate thereof, subject to due diligence and other customary conditions, proposes to acquire Blair Corporation for $36.00 per share, for an aggregate consideration of approximately $297 million based upon 8,247,426 shares outstanding. Should further value surface during due diligence, Loeb may be willing to increase the per share value of the transaction.

Edgar Filing: LOEB PARTNERS CORP - Form SC 13D/A

As you are aware, we are a family of investment funds located in New York, New York and, together with our affiliates, the owner of approximately 6.7% of the outstanding common stock of Blair. We are confident in our ability to finance the proposed transaction. It is our intention to utilize cash on hand or a financing arrangement. We are prepared to commence due diligence immediately and believe that we can complete the process in a very short period of time.

We believe this proposed transaction would provide liquidity and a premium to current shareholders. We request that the Board of Directors consider our proposal and respond on or before May 18, 2005. Please be advised that we have no desire to pursue this proposed transaction other than on a friendly basis with the support of the Board of the company. We and our advisors are prepared to promptly meet with you to explain the details of our proposal and commence the due diligence and transaction agreement negotiation process.
