ITEM 2. ACQUISITION OR DISPOSITION OF ASSETS

On August 8, 2003 we completed our acquisition of LuxN, Inc., pursuant to an Agreement and Plan of Merger, dated as of June 25, 2003, between Sorrento and LuxN, a copy of which is attached as Exhibit 2.1 hereto. On August 11, 2003, we issued a press release announcing the completion of the acquisition, a copy of which is attached hereto as Exhibit 99.1. At the effective time of the merger, our wholly-owned subsidiary, Lambda Acquisition Corp., was merged with and into LuxN, with LuxN being the surviving corporation in the merger.

Pursuant to the Agreement and Plan of Merger, each share of LuxN common stock outstanding at the effective time of the merger was cancelled. As consideration for the transaction, holders of LuxN's Series A-1 Preferred Stock with an aggregate pro-rata portion of $14.8 million of LuxN's net cash held elected to receive cash at closing, and holders of LuxN's Series A-1 Preferred Stock with an aggregate pro-rata portion of $3.8 million of LuxN's net cash held elected to receive our common stock at closing. We issued 1,374,194 shares of our common stock to the holders of LuxN's Series A-1 Preferred Stock at the closing, and will issue an additional 505,153 shares upon receipt of our shareholders' approval. In addition, we issued warrants to purchase 400,000 of our shares of common stock at an exercise price of $3.05 per share to the holders of LuxN's Series A-1 Preferred Stock. The warrants will be held in escrow for a period of six months to satisfy any successful indemnification claims. We did not assume or exchange any outstanding options or warrants to purchase shares of LuxN stock.

Edgar Filing: SORRENTO NETWORKS CORP - Form 8-K/A

Pursuant to the terms of the Agreement and Plan of Merger, we will file a Registration Statement on Form S-3 to enable the resale by the selling shareholders of the shares of our common stock that were issued as consideration for the merger.

The consideration paid to holders of LuxN's shareholders was determined through arms-length negotiations between our board of directors and officers and those of LuxN.

The foregoing description of the Agreement and Plan of Merger is qualified in its entirety by reference to the Agreement, a copy of which was previously filed with the SEC, and incorporated herein by reference.

INDEPENDENT AUDITOR'S REPORT

The Board of Director and Stockholders
LuxN, Inc.:

We have audited the accompanying balance sheets of LuxN, Inc. as of June 30, 2003 and 2002, and the related statements of operations, stockholders' equity and cash flow for the years then ended. These statements are the responsibility of the Company's management. Our responsibility is to express an opinion on these financial statements based on our audits. The financial statements of LuxN, Inc. for the year ended June 30, 2001 were audited by other auditors, whose report dated September 5, 2001, expressed an unqualified opinion on those statements.

We conducted our audits in accordance with auditing standards generally accepted in the United States. Those standards require that we plan and perform the audit to obtain reasonable assurance about whether the financial statements are free of material misstatement. An audit includes examining, on a test basis, evidence supporting the amounts and disclosures in the financial statements. An audit also includes assessing the accounting principles used and significant estimates made by management, as well as evaluating the overall financial statement presentation. We believe that our audits provide a reasonable basis for our opinion.

In our opinion, the financial statements referred to above present fairly, in all material respects, the financial position of LuxN, Inc. as of June 30, 2003 and 2002, and the results of its operations and its cash flows for the years then ended in conformity with accounting principles generally accepted in the United States.

The accompanying financial statements have been prepared on a going concern basis, which contemplates the realization of assets and the settlement of liabilities in the normal course of business. As discussed in Note 1 to the financial statements, the Company has incurred significant losses since its inception and is dependent on obtaining additional financing in order to fund its operations. These matters raise substantial doubt about the ability of the Company to continue as a going concern. Management's plan in regard to these matters is also described in Note 1. The accompanying financial statements do not include any adjustments that might result from the outcome of this uncertainty.

As discussed in Note 1 to the financial statements on August 8, 2003, LuxN, Inc. was acquired by Sorrento Networks Corporation, pursuant to an Agreement and Plan of Merger, dated as of June 25, 2003.

LuxN, Inc

NOTES TO AUDITED FINANCIAL STATEMENTS

FOR THE YEARS ENDED June 30, 2003, 2002 and 2001

1. Organization and Significant Accounting Policies

Description of Business

LuxN, Inc. (the "Company") was incorporated in California on June 18, 1998, and reincorporated in Delaware on April 20, 2000. The Company develops, manufactures, and markets optical transport and switching solutions for metropolitan service providers and enterprise customers.

From inception to June 30, 2000, the Company's principle efforts have been focused on, raising capital, developing and designing its products and applications, performing market studies, establishing marketing channels and the Company's image, and recruiting key personnel. The Company was in the development stage through June 30, 2000. During 2001, the Company began its planned principal operations and recorded its first revenues. Although the Company is no longer considered a development-stage company, the Company is still subject to risks, including, but not limited to, dependence on key individuals, competition from substitute products and larger companies, the successful development and marketing of its products and the ability to obtain adequate financing to support its long-term development.

The accompanying financial statements have been prepared on a going concern basis, which contemplates the realization of assets and the settlement of liabilities in the normal course of business. The Company has incurred significant losses since its inception and is dependent on obtaining additional financing in order to fund its operations. These matters raise substantial doubt about the ability of the Company to continue as a going concern. Beginning in April 2002, the bankruptcy and near-insolvency of several of the Company's customers, due to the continued slow down in the telecommunication market, caused management to begin to take corrective action to significantly decrease cash burn and determine the best course of action to maintain and enhance the value of the Company. In this regards, management implemented, in October 2002, an acquisition strategy pursuant to which it has been seeking to identify an appropriate entity with which to merge. During fiscal 2003, the Company raised $34.5 million from the issuance of Series A-1 convertible preferred stock. Management expects to incur additional losses through fiscal 2004, and it recognizes the need to utilize some or all of its available financing resources as of June 30, 2003 to fund its cash requirements in fiscal 2004. The financial statements do not include any adjustments that might be necessary should the Company be unable to continue as a going concern.

Edgar Filing: SORRENTO NETWORKS CORP - Form 8-K/A

Current Developments

On August 8, 2003, LuxN, Inc was acquired by Sorrento Networks Corporation ("Sorrento"), pursuant to an Agreement and Plan of Merger ("the Agreement"), dated as of June 25, 2003.

At the effective time of the merger, Lambada Acquisition Corp, a wholly-owned subsidiary of Sorrento, was merged with and into LuxN, Inc., with LuxN, Inc. being the surviving corporation in the merger.

Pursuant to the Agreement, each share of the Company's common stock outstanding at the effective time of the merger was cancelled. As consideration for the transaction, holders of the Company's Series A-1 convertible preferred stock with an aggregate pro rata portion of $14.75 million of the Company's net cash held elected to receive cash at closing, and holders of the Company's Series A-1 convertible preferred stock with an aggregate pro rata portion of 3.8 million of the Company's net cash held elected to receive common stock of Sorrento at closing. Sorrento issued 1,374,194 shares of its common stock to the holders of the Company's Series A-1 convertible preferred stock at the closing, and will issue an additional 505,153 shares upon receipt of its shareholders' approval. In addition, Sorrento issued warrants to purchase 400,000 of its shares of common stock at an exercise price of $3.05 per share to the holders of the Company's Series A-1 convertible preferred stock. The warrants will be held in escrow for a period of 6 months to satisfy any successful indemnification claims. Sorrento did not assume or exchange any outstanding options or warrants to purchase shares of the Company's stock.

Use of Estimates

The preparation of financial statements in conformity with accounting principles generally accepted in the United States requires management to make estimates and assumptions that affect the reported amounts of assets and liabilities, the disclosure of contingent assets and liabilities at the date of the financial statements, and the reported amounts of revenues and expenses during the reporting period. Actual results could differ from those estimates.

Concentrations of Credit Risks

Financial instruments that potentially subject the Company to concentrations of risk are cash and cash equivalents, short-term investments and accounts receivable. The Company reduces risk on financial instruments by maintaining its cash and cash equivalents with two major U.S. financial institutions and by limiting its short-term investments to certificates of deposit and U.S. government agency securities.

Exposure to credit risk on accounts receivable is controlled through credit approvals, credit limits, and continuous monitoring procedures. As of June 30, 2003 and 2002, two customers accounted for 76% and 61%, respectively of net accounts receivable. As of June 30, 2001, three customers accounted for 56% of net accounts receivable. In each year ended June 30, 2003 and 2002, two customers individually represented greater than 10% of net revenue, respectively. For the year ended June 30, 2001, no customer individually represented greater than 10% of net revenue.

Edgar Filing: SORRENTO NETWORKS CORP - Form 8-K/A

Cash and Cash Equivalents

The Company considers all highly liquid investments purchased with an original maturity of three months or less from the date of purchase to be cash equivalents. Cash equivalents are carried at cost, which approximates fair value. The Company's cash and cash equivalents are composed of cash deposited in bank checking and money market accounts.

Short-term Investments

Short-term investments consist of debt securities, and of certificates of deposit with a bank, with maturity dates not extending beyond two years from the balance sheet date, and are stated at amounts that approximate fair market value. The Company accounts for the short-term investments in accordance with Statement of Financial Accounting Standards (SFAS) No.115, Accounting for Certain Investments in Debt and Equity Securities. Management determines the appropriate classification of debt securities at the time of purchase and reevaluates such designation as of each balance sheet date. The Company classifies its short-term investments as available-for-sale. Available-for-sale investments are recorded at fair value with unrealized gains and losses reported in the statement of stockholders' equity. The amortized cost of debt securities is adjusted for amortization of premiums and accretion of discounts to maturity. Such amortization is included in interest income. Interest income is recognized when earned.

Fair Value of Financial Instruments

The carrying amounts of certain of the Company's financial instruments, including cash and cash equivalents, short-term investments, accounts receivable, accounts payable and certain amounts included in accrued expenses, approximate fair value because of their short maturities.

F-8

Revenue Recognition

The Company recognizes product revenue at the time of shipment provided that persuasive evidence of a final agreement exists, there are no uncertainties regarding customer acceptance, the fee is fixed and determinable and collectability is reasonably assured. If uncertainties regarding customer acceptance exist, revenue is deferred and recognized when the uncertainties are resolved. Revenue from service contracts is deferred and recognized ratably over the period of the related agreements.

The Company sells its products principally in the United States. For the years ended June 30, 2003, 2002, and 2001, sales outside the United States were 13%, 11% and 18%, respectively, of total revenue.

Inventories

Inventories are stated at the lower of cost or market. Cost includes materials, labor and overhead on a first-in, first-out basis.

Property and Equipment

Property and equipment are stated at cost, less accumulated depreciation. Property and equipment are depreciated using the straight-line method based on estimated useful lives, generally three years. Leasehold improvements and assets recorded under capital lease arrangements are amortized using the straight-line method over the lesser of the estimated useful lives of the assets or the remaining lease terms.

Edgar Filing: SORRENTO NETWORKS CORP - Form 8-K/A

Valuation of Long-Lived Assets

The Company reviews long-lived assets to be held and used for impairment whenever events or circumstances indicate that the carrying amount of such assets may not be recoverable. Such events or changes in circumstances include, but are not limited to, a significant industry downturn, a significant decline in the market value of the Company, or significant reductions in projected future cash flows of the operating segment.

Determination of recoverability is based on the sum of the undiscounted cash flows expected to result from the use of the assets and their eventual disposition. If the carrying value is not recoverable, an impairment loss is measured as the amount by which the carrying amount of the assets exceeds the fair value. Long-lived assets classified as held for sale are measured at the lower of carrying amount or fair value less cost to sell.

Other Non-current Assets

Other non-current assets are primarily composed of deposits on leased properties, and certificates of deposit (See Note 2 and 6).

Warranty Reserves

The Company provides a limited warranty of 12 months for its products. Estimated expenses for warranty obligations are recorded at the time revenue is recognized.

Research and Development

Research and development costs are composed of salaries, travel, materials, supplies and contract services and are expensed as incurred.

Stock-Based Compensation

The Company accounts for employee stock options in accordance with Accounting Principles Board Opinion No.25, Accounting for Stock Issued to Employees ("APB Opinion No. 25"), as interpreted by Financial Accounting Standards Board ("FASB") Interpretation No.44 ("FIN 44"), Accounting for Certain Transactions Involving Stock Compensation, and has adopted the "disclosure only" alternative described in Statement of Financial Accounting Standards No. 123, Accounting for Stock-Based Compensation ("SFAS 123").

Stock-Based Compensation (continued)

The Company accounts for stock issued to non-employees in accordance with the provisions of SFAS 123 and Emerging Issues Task Force Issue No. 96-18, Accounting for Equity Instruments That Are Issued to Other Than Employees for Acquiring, or in Conjunction with Selling Goods or Services ("EITF 96-18").

Edgar Filing: SORRENTO NETWORKS CORP - Form 8-K/A

The Company has adopted the disclosure provisions of SFAS No. 123, Accounting for Stock-Based Compensation ("SFAS 123"). In accordance with the provisions of SFAS 123, the Company applies APB Opinion No. 25, and related interpretations in accounting for its stock option plan under which no compensation expense has been recognized in the accompanying statement of operations. Had compensation expense for the Plan been determined consistent with SFAS 123, the Company's net loss would have been increase by the pro forma amounts indicated below:

	2003	Year Ended June 30, 2002
Net Loss, as reported	$(16,737,000)	$(46,847,500)
Add: Stock-based employee compensation expense included in reported net income, net of related tax effects	-	14,000
Deduct: Total stock-based employee compensation expense determined under fair value based method for all awards, net of related effects	(399,800)	(881,500)
Net loss, pro forma	$(17,136,800)	$(47,715,000)

The weighted average fair values of options granted in fiscal years 2003, 2002 and 2001 were $0.0002, $0.18 and $0.70, respectively. The fair value of each option grant is estimated on the date of grant using the Black-Scholes option-pricing model with the following assumptions used for grants:

	2003	Years Ended June 30, 2002
Expected dividend yield	0%	0%
Risk-free interest rate	3.19%	3.94% - 4.68%
Expected life	3 years	5 years
Volatility	0%	0%

Income Taxes

The Company accounts for income taxes under Statement of Financial Accounting Standards No. 109, Accounting for Income Taxes ("SFAS 109"). Under SFAS 109, deferred tax assets and liabilities are determined based on the differences between the financial reporting and tax bases of assets and liabilities and are measured using the enacted tax rates that will be in effect when the differences are expected to reverse.

Edgar Filing: SORRENTO NETWORKS CORP - Form 8-K/A

Comprehensive Income (Loss)

The Company's accumulated other comprehensive income consists of the accumulated net gains or losses on available-for-sale investments. For the year ended June 30, 2003, comprehensive loss was $32,900 less than the net loss because of unrealized gains on available-for-sale short-term investments. Comprehensive loss exceeded the net loss by $96,700 for the year ended June 30, 2002, because realized gains on the sale of available-for-sale securities that are included in the determination of the net loss must be deducted from other comprehensive loss to the extent any unrealized gains had been included in the determination of other comprehensive loss for a prior period. For the year ended June 30, 2001, comprehensive loss was $96,200 less than the net loss because of unrealized gains on available-for-sale short-term investments.

Advertising Expense

The cost of advertising is expensed as incurred. Advertising costs were $5,300, $190,800, and $1,047,300 in fiscal years 2003, 2002, and 2001, respectively.

Shipping and Handling Costs

The Company records costs related to shipping and handling in cost of sales for all periods presented.

Reincorporation

In April 2000, the Company's Board of Directors approved the reincorporation of the Company in Delaware. Upon reincorporation, the Company issued new shares with a par value of $0.0001 per share to all convertible preferred and common stockholders. All convertible preferred and common share amounts in the accompanying financial statements have been adjusted retroactively to give effect to this change.

Recent Accounting Pronouncements

In August 2001, the FASB issued Statement of Financial Accounting Standard No. 144, Accounting for the Impairment or Disposal of Long-Lived Assets ("SFAS 144"). SFAS 144 supersedes SFAS 121, Accounting for the Impairment of Long-Lived Assets and for Long-Lived Assets to be Disposed Of, and certain provisions of APB Opinion No. 30, Reporting the results of Operations - Reporting the Effects of Disposal of a Segment of a Business, and Extraordinary, Unusual and Infrequently Occurring Events and Transactions. SFAS 144 retains the fundamental provisions of SFAS 121 related to (i) the recognition and measurement of the impairment of long-lived assets to be held and used, and (ii) the measurement of long-lived assets to be disposed by sale. It provides more guidance on estimating cash flows when performing recoverability tests, requires long-lived assets to be disposed of other than by sale to be classified as held and used until disposal, and establishes more restrictive criteria to classify long-lived assets as held for sale. In addition, SFAS 144 supersedes the accounting and reporting provisions for APB Opinion No. 30 for the disposal of a segment of a business. However, it retains the basic provisions of APB Opinion No. 30 to report discontinued operations separately from continuing operations and extends the reporting of a discontinued operation to a component of an entity. The Company's adoption of SFAS 144 during its 2003 fiscal year did not have a material impact on the Company's financial position or results of operations.

Edgar Filing: SORRENTO NETWORKS CORP - Form 8-K/A

In July 2002, the FASB issued SFAS No. 146, Accounting for Costs Associated with Exit or Disposal Activities ("SFAS 146"). SFAS 146 addresses financial accounting and reporting for costs associated with exit or disposal activities and nullifies EITF Issue No. 94-3, Liability Recognition for certain Employee Termination Benefits and Other Costs to Exit and Activity (including Certain Costs Incurred in a Restructuring). SFAS 146 requires that a liability for a cost associated with an exit or disposal activity be recognized when the liability is incurred rather than when the exit or disposal plan is approved. In addition, SFAS 146 establishes that fair value is the objective for initial measurement of the liability. SFAS 146 is effective for exit or disposal activities initiated after June 30, 2003, but early adoption is permitted. The Company is currently evaluating the adoption date and the impact the adoption will have on its financial position and results of operations.

In December 2002, the FASB issues SFAS No. 148, Accounting for Stock-Based Compensation - Transition and Disclosure ("SFAS 148"), effective for fiscal year ending after December 15, 2002. SFAS 148 amends SFAS 123, to provide alternative methods of transition to the voluntary fair value method of accounting for stock-based employee compensation. SFAS 148 also amends the disclosure provisions of SFAS 123 to require that disclosure of the pro forma effect of using the fair value method of accounting for stock-based employee compensation be displayed in tabular format within a Company's summary of significant accounting policies. The disclosure provisions of SFAS 148 are effective for fiscal years ending after December 5, 2002 and have been incorporated into these financial statements and accompanying footnotes.

In May 2003, the FASB issued SFAS No. 150, Accounting for Certain Financial Instruments with Characteristics of both Liabilities and Equity ("SFAS 150"). This statement affects the classification, measurement and disclosure requirements of the following three types of freestanding financial instruments: 1) mandatorily redeemable shares, which the issuing company is obligated to buy back with cash or other assets; 2) instruments that do or may require the issuer to buy back some of its shares in exchange for cash or other assets, which includes put options and forward purchase contracts; and 3) obligation that can be settled with shares, the monetary value of which is fixed, tied solely or predominantly to a variable such as a market index, or varies inversely with the value of the issuers' shares. In general, SFAS 150 is effective for all financial statements entered into or modified after May 31, 2003, and otherwise is effective at the beginning of the first interim period beginning after June 15, 2003. The adoption of SFAS 150 is not expected to have an impact on the Company's financial position or disclosures.

2. Short-Term Investments

As of June 2003 and 2002, the Company had approximately $18 million and $2 million, respectively, in short-term investments.

The Company's short-term investments are classified as available-for-sales, as the Company intends to sell them as needed for operations. As of June 30, 2003 and 2002, the carrying value of the short-term investments held approximates fair value.

Edgar Filing: SORRENTO NETWORKS CORP - Form 8-K/A

As of June 30, 2003, approximately $17 million was placed in U.S. government obligations, maturing between July 2003 and February 2005, with no more than $3 million concentrated to any individual debt security. The interest on these debt securities ranged from 4.5% to 7.125%.

In addition, as of June 30, 2003 and 2002, the Company had placed approximately $2 million and $3 million, respectively, in certificates of deposit with a bank. As of June 30, 2003 and 2002, $0.7 million are included in other non-current assets as these certificates of deposit were placed as security for capital lease obligations. As of June 30, 2002, the remaining balances of the certificates of deposits secured the Company's line of credit.

3. Inventories

A summary of inventories as of June 30, 2003 and 2002, follows:

	2003	2002
Raw material	$2,096,900	$5,292,400
Work in process	117,300	799,600

	$2,489,900	$6,254,700

F-12

During 2003 and 2002, the Company recorded write-downs of excess and obsolete inventories of approximately $2.7 million and $1.9 million, respectively. These additional charges to cost of sales were primarily due to the significant decrease in forecasted sales.

4. Property and Equipment

As a result of the Company's assessment of the market conditions and the related effect on its business plan, the Company concluded in fiscal 2002 that indicators of impairment of its long-lived assets were present. Accordingly, as of June 30, 2002, the Company performed an impairment test of the carrying of value of its long-lived assets, consisting primarily of property and equipment in accordance with SFAS 121 Accounting for the Impairment of Long-Lived Assets and for Long-Lived Assets to be Disposed Of. Based on an undiscounted cash flow analysis, the cash flows expected to be generated by the Company's long-lived assets during their estimated remaining useful lives were not sufficient to recover the net book value of the assets. The Company estimated, using a valuation report prepared by an independent appraiser, the estimated fair value of its engineering manufacturing and test equipment. The Company also estimated the fair value of its office furniture and fixtures, software and leasehold improvements by obtaining quotations from third-party sources for comparable assets. Consequently, the Company recorded an impairment charge of $5.6 million to write the carrying value of its long-lived assets held for use down to their fair values of approximately $1.2 million as of June 30,

2002.

In addition to the above, the Company recognized a loss of approximately $1.5 million on the disposal of long-lived assets during its 2002 fiscal year.

A summary of property and equipment as of June 30, 2003 and 2002, follows:

	2003	2002
Computers and equipment	$ 1,046,300	$1,046,300

Less: Accumulated Depreciation and Amortization	(1,028,200)	-
	$ 167,100	$1,195,300

Included in net property and equipment at June 30, 2003 and 2002, were $0 and $200 thousand, respectively, of inventory used for customer evaluation purposes.

The facility was secured by the assets purchased using the borrowings. The interest rate ranged from 6.73% to 6.97%. In connection with the issuance of the debt, the company issued to Angel Ventures LP a fully vested and immediately exercisable warrant for 60,000 shares of common stock at an exercise price per share of $0.93. immediately exercisable warrant for 50,000 shares of common stock at an exercise price per share of $0.10 (see Note 11). During the year ended June 30, 2003, the Company repaid the outstanding balance on this loan of approximately $1 million plus interest of $73,600.

Borrowings are to be repaid in 36 monthly payments of principal and interest from the date borrowed. The interest rate is 14.23%. In connection with the issuance of the debt, the Company issued to this lender fully vested and immediately exercisable warrants for an aggregate of 10,000 shares of common stock at an exercise price per share of $4.00 (see Note 11).

Principal payments under the equipment loans are as follows for the years ended June 30:

Years ended June 30,	Equipment Loans
2004	$629,500
Thereafter	-
Total principal payments	$629,500

In August 2003, the Company paid, $601,700 in full settlement of remaining equipment loans.

9. Income Taxes

Temporary differences and carry-forward which gave rise to significant portion of deferred tax assets and liabilities as of June 30, 2003 and 2002 are as follows:

Edgar Filing: SORRENTO NETWORKS CORP - Form 8-K/A

	2003	2002
	-----	-----
Net operating loss carry-forwards	$ 45,381,300	$ 38,129,100
Depreciation and amortization	9,692,800	11,566,400
Inventory reserve	6,110,200	5,051,500
Credit carry-forwards	4,152,600	3,521,900
Reserves not currently deductible	694,700	780,300
Cumulative book to tax differences	-	-
	-----	-----
Net deferred tax asset	66,031,600	59,049,200
Valuation allowance	(66,031,600)	(59,049,200)
	-----	-----
Report deferred tax asset	$ -	$ -

Realization of the deferred tax assets is dependent upon future taxable income, if any, the amount and timing of which are uncertain. Based on the available objective evidence, management believes it is more likely than not that the net deferred tax asset will not be fully realizable. Accordingly, the Company has provided a full valuation allowance against its net deferred tax asset of June 30, 2003 and 2002.

As of June 30, 2003, the Company had approximately $118 million of federal and $90 million of state net operating loss carry-forwards available to reduce future taxable income which will begin to expire in 2018 for federal and 2010 for state tax purposes, respectively. 10. Commitments and Contingencies

The Company leases its facilities under non-cancelable operating lease agreements. During the year ended June 30, 2003, certain of these agreements expired and were not extended by the Company. The remaining operating lease agreements expire on December 31, 2003. Rent expense under the agreements was approximately $1.3 million and $6.9 million for the years ended June 30, 2003 and 2002, respectively. Minimum future lease payments under the agreements are approximately $209,600 for fiscal year 2004.

The Company is involved in various legal proceedings arising in the ordinary course of its business. Although occasional adverse decisions or settlements may occur, management believes that the final disposition of such matters will not have a material adverse effect on the Company's financial position, results of operations or cash flows.

Generally, the stock options are exercisable upon vesting at 24% on the first

(b) Unaudited Pro forma Financial Information

On August 8, 2003 we completed our acquisition of LuxN, Inc., pursuant to an Agreement and Plan of Merger, dated as of June 25, 2003, between Sorrento and LuxN, a copy of which is attached as Exhibit 2.1 hereto. On August 11, 2003, we issued a press release announcing the completion of the acquisition, a copy of which is attached hereto as Exhibit 99.1. At the effective time of the merger, our wholly-owned subsidiary, Lambda Acquisition Corp., was merged with and into LuxN, with LuxN being the surviving corporation in the merger.

Pursuant to the Agreement and Plan of Merger, each share of LuxN common stock outstanding at the effective time of the merger was cancelled. As consideration for the transaction, holders of LuxN's Series A-1 Preferred Stock with an aggregate pro-rata portion of $14.8 million of LuxN's net cash held elected to receive cash at closing, and holders of LuxN's Series A-1 Preferred Stock with an aggregate pro-rata portion of $3.8 million of LuxN's net cash held elected to receive our common stock at closing. We issued 1,374,194 shares of our common stock to the holders of LuxN's Series A-1 Preferred Stock at the closing, and will issue an additional 505,153 shares upon receipt of our shareholders' approval. In addition, we issued warrants to purchase 400,000 of our shares of common stock at an exercise price of $3.05 per share to the holders of LuxN's Series A-1 Preferred Stock. The warrants will be held in escrow for a period of six months to satisfy any successful indemnification claims. We did not assume or exchange any outstanding options or warrants to purchase shares of LuxN stock.

Pursuant to the terms of the Agreement and Plan of Merger, we have filed a Registration Statement on Form S-3 to enable the resale by the selling shareholders of the shares of our common stock that were issued as consideration for the merger. The registration statement went effective October 7, 2003.

The consideration paid to holders of LuxN's shareholdings was determined through arms-length negotiations between our board of directors and officers and those of LuxN.

The foregoing description of the Agreement and Plan of Merger is qualified in its entirety by reference to the Agreement, a copy of which was previously filed with the SEC.

The following unaudited pro forma summary presents the consolidated results of operations as if the merger with LuxN, Inc. had occurred on February 1, 2002. The Consolidated Pro Forma Balance Sheet as of July 31, 2003 includes the balance sheet of Sorrento Networks at that date and the balance sheet of LuxN, Inc. as of June 30, 2003. For the six month period ending July 31, 2003, the information contained in the Consolidated Pro Forma Statements of Operations include six months of information for Sorrento Networks and five months of information for LuxN, Inc. This difference in accounting periods is due to the fiscal year end of LuxN, Inc. of June 30th, and the quarter end of Sorrento Networks of July 31st. The adjustments shown on the Consolidated Balance Sheets for the twelve months ended July 31, 2003, are preliminary and are subject to change as the Company finalizes the accounting for the acquisition. There were no adjustments to the Statements of Operations for the twelve months ended January 31, 2003 or the six months ended July 31, 2003.

These pro forma results have been prepared for comparative purposes only and do not purport to be indicative of what would have occurred had the merger been made on February 1, 2002, nor are they indicative of future results. As a result, the unaudited pro forma net results and pro forma per share amounts do not purport to represent what Sorrento Networks Corporation results of operations would have been if the merger with LuxN, Inc. had occurred on February 1, 2002, and is not intended to project Sorrento Networks Corporation's results of operations for any future period.

For purchase accounting purposes, the purchase consideration for the acquisition of LuxN amounted to approximately $18 million consisting of cash paid and common stock issued. The cash paid was approximately 14.8 million and was paid to LuxN's Series A-1 Preferred Stockholders who elected to receive cash in lieu of common stock. The common stock was issued to LuxN shareholders who elected to exchange their shares of LuxN stock for Sorrento Networks common stock. The issuance was 1,374,194 shares at a per share price of $2.35 for an approximate value of $3.2 million. These shares were issued August 8, 2003.

The pro forma presentation excludes the value of the 400,000 warrants issued in connection with the purchase that are held in escrow until the expiration of an indemnification period as per the Agreement and Plan of Merger. When and if the warrants are released from escrow, the value of the warrants will be recorded as additional purchase price consideration. The $878,280 value of the 400,000 warrants issued to LuxN shareholders who elected to exchange their shares of LuxN stock for Sorrento Networks common stock was determined using the Black Scholes option pricing model based on the following inputs: Option price of $3.05, estimated life of 5 years, volatility of 168% and no dividends.

The pro forma presentation excludes the value of the future issuance of 505,153 shares of Sorrento Networks common stock to the LuxN shareholders who elected to exchange their shares of LuxN stock for our common stock. The shares will be issued upon shareholder approval and in return $1.0 million of LuxN cash held in escrow will be released. The approximate value of these shares is $1.1 million as of the acquisition date based upon a per share price of $2.35 and will be added to the purchase price when shareholder approval has been granted and the shares are issued. The $1.0 million in cash held in escrow has not been included in the accompanying pro forma financial statements.

The pro forma financial information presented includes preliminary purchase accounting adjustments that reflect a value of approximately $1,871 million assigned to intangible assets such as trademarks and patents. The Company is in the process of determining the value of any acquired intangible assets. The Company expects to complete the valuation of acquired intangible assets in the near future and will make any necessary adjustments to the purchase price as needed.

The company has recorded negative goodwill as part of its preliminary purchase accounting. The company expects to reallocate the negative goodwill upon the valuation of intangible assets and resolution of contingent consideration.
