CVRD Concludes 2004 Iron Ore Price Negotiation with China

Rio de Janeiro, January 15, 2004 Companhia Vale do Rio Doce (CVRD), the world's largest iron ore producer, and Baosteel, China's largest steelmaker, have settled today iron ore prices for 2004.

The new price for the Southern System Fines (SSF), FOB Tubarão, Brazil, of US 32.27 cents per Metric Ton Fe unit, corresponds to a 18.64% increase over the 2003 price and the new price for the Carajás Fines (SFCJ), FOB Ponta da Madeira, Brazil, of US 32.76 cents per Metric Ton Fe unit, corresponds to a 18.27% increase over the 2003 price.

Such settlement was achieved between CVRD and Baosteel after several rounds of negotiation that started in December 2003.

This press release may contain statements that express management's expectations about future events or results rather than historical facts. These forward-looking statements involve risks and uncertainties that could cause actual results to differ materially from those projected in forward-looking statements, and CVRD cannot give assurance that such statements will prove correct. These risks and uncertainties include factors: relating to the Brazilian economy and securities markets, which exhibit volatility and can be adversely affected by developments in other countries; relating to the iron ore business and its dependence on the global steel industry, which is cyclical in nature; and relating to the highly competitive industries in which CVRD operates. For additional information on factors that could cause CVRD's actual results to differ from expectations reflected in forward-looking statements, please see CVRD's reports filed with the Brazilian Comissão de Valores Mobiliários and the U.S. Securities and Exchange Commission.
