Item 1.01 Entry into a Material Definitive Agreement.

Merger Agreement

On September 20, 2009, Dell Inc., a Delaware corporation (Dell), entered into an Agreement and Plan of Merger (the Merger Agreement) by and among Dell, DII - Holdings Inc., a Delaware corporation and an indirect wholly owned subsidiary of Dell (Purchaser), and Perot Systems Corporation, a Delaware corporation (Perot Systems), pursuant to which Dell will acquire Perot Systems, a worldwide provider of information technology services and business solutions to a broad range of customers.

Pursuant to the Merger Agreement, subject to the terms and conditions thereof, Purchaser will commence a tender offer (the Offer) to purchase all of the outstanding shares of Class A common stock, par value $0.01 per share, of Perot Systems (the Shares) at a purchase price of $30.00 per share in cash, without interest thereon (the Offer Price). Upon successful completion of the Offer, and subject to the terms and conditions of the Merger Agreement, Purchaser will be merged with and into Perot Systems (the Merger) and Perot Systems will survive the Merger as an indirect wholly owned subsidiary of Dell.

Purchaser has agreed to commence the Offer by no later than October 2, 2009, and the Offer shall remain open for at least 20 business days. Consummation of the Offer and the Merger is subject to the satisfaction or waiver of a number of customary closing conditions set forth in the Merger Agreement, including, among others, that (i) there is validly tendered (and not withdrawn) at least 66 ²/₃% of the Shares determined on a fully-diluted basis, (ii) certain regulatory clearances have been obtained by the parties, including the expiration of the waiting period under the Hart-Scott-Rodino Antitrust Improvements Act of 1976, as amended, and clearances under antitrust laws of other countries, (iii) a material adverse effect to Perot Systems shall not have occurred and (iv) the other conditions set forth in the Merger Agreement have been satisfied or waived.

At the effective time of the Merger (the Effective Time), each outstanding Share, other than Shares owned by Dell or its subsidiaries immediately prior to the Effective Time, will automatically be converted into the right to receive the Offer Price on the terms and subject to the conditions set forth in the Merger Agreement. The Merger Agreement provides that options to purchase Shares and stock appreciation rights settleable in Shares (collectively, Company Stock Option Awards) granted under any of Perot Systems' equity based compensation plans (the Stock Plans) shall vest in full immediately after Purchaser acquires 80% of the outstanding common stock of Perot Systems (the Conversion Time), and immediately after will be cancelled and converted into the right to receive an amount (subject to any applicable withholding tax) in cash equal to the product of (x) the excess, if any, of the Offer Price over the exercise or base price, as applicable, per share of each such Company Stock Option Award, multiplied by (y) the total number of Shares subject to such Company Stock Option Award. The Merger Agreement further provides that each restricted stock unit award and restricted stock award (a Restricted Stock Award) that is outstanding under any Stock Plan, whether or not then vested or earned, shall be, immediately after the Conversion Time, cancelled and converted into the right to receive an amount (subject to any applicable withholding tax) in cash equal to the product of (x) the Offer Price multiplied by (y) the total number of Shares subject to such Restricted Stock Award. Certain executive officers of Perot Systems may elect to convert a percentage of the consideration otherwise payable in the Merger with respect to their Company Stock Option Awards or Restricted Stock Awards into restricted stock unit awards of Dell.

Pursuant to the Merger Agreement, Perot Systems granted Dell and Purchaser, subject to certain conditions and limitations, an irrevocable option to purchase, following completion of the Offer and at the Offer Price, a number of Shares that, when added to the number of Shares owned by Dell or Purchaser at the time of exercise of the option, constitutes one share more than 90% of the fully-diluted Shares (the "Top-Up Option"). The Top-Up Option is intended to expedite the timing of the completion of the Merger by effecting the Merger pursuant to Delaware's short form merger statute. Following the Offer and, if necessary, the exercise of the Top-Up Option, if Purchaser does not own at least 90% of the outstanding Shares, a vote of the stockholders of Perot Systems is required to consummate the Merger. In such case, the approval of the Merger at a meeting of the stockholders of Perot Systems would be assured because of Purchaser's ownership of at least $66\frac{2}{3}\%$ of the Shares following completion of the Offer.

The Merger Agreement further provides that, upon payment for the Shares pursuant to the Offer, Dell shall be entitled to designate a number of directors to the Board of Directors of Perot Systems (the "Board") in proportion with the percentage of the Shares it owns following the Offer. Between such time and the Effective Time, the Board will have at least three directors who are directors of Perot Systems on the date of the Merger Agreement and who are neither officers of Perot Systems nor designees or affiliates of Dell.

Dell, Purchaser and Perot Systems have made customary representations and warranties in the Merger Agreement and agreed to certain customary covenants, including covenants regarding operation of the business of Perot Systems and its subsidiaries prior to the closing and covenants prohibiting Perot Systems from soliciting, or providing information or entering into discussions concerning, or proposals relating to alternative business combination transactions, except in limited circumstances relating to unsolicited proposals that are, or could reasonably be expected to result in, a proposal superior to the transactions contemplated by the Merger Agreement. In the case of such a proposal, Perot Systems may not terminate the Merger Agreement if Dell makes a proposal to adjust the terms and conditions of the Merger Agreement to be at least as favorable as such proposal.

Dell has also agreed to guaranty the full performance and payment by Purchaser of each of the covenants, obligations and undertakings required to be performed by Purchaser under the Merger Agreement, the Offer, the Merger and the transactions contemplated thereby.

The foregoing description of the Merger Agreement is only a summary, does not purport to be complete and is qualified in its entirety by reference to the Merger Agreement, a copy of which is filed as Exhibit 2.1 to this Form 8-K and incorporated herein by reference.

Additional Agreements

As inducement to Dell to enter into the Merger Agreement, certain officers, directors and principal stockholders of Perot Systems (as listed below in the description to Exhibit 2.2 and Exhibit 2.3 of Item 9.01) (the "Tendering Stockholders") have agreed to tender their Shares in connection with the Offer and to vote in favor of the Merger pursuant to Tender and Voting Agreements, dated September 20, 2009, entered into with Dell, Purchaser and Perot Systems (the "Tender Agreements"). In addition, such Tendering Stockholders have agreed, subject to certain exceptions, to refrain from disposing of their Shares and soliciting alternative acquisition proposals to the Merger.

The foregoing description of the Tender Agreements is only a summary, does not purport to be complete and is qualified in its entirety by reference to the Tender Agreements, forms of which are filed as Exhibit 2.2 and Exhibit 2.3 to this Form 8-K and incorporated herein by reference.

Additionally, in connection with the execution of the Merger Agreement, H. Ross Perot and Ross Perot, Jr. have signed noncompetition and nonsolicitation agreements with Dell and Perot Systems that limit their ability to compete with Perot Systems or solicit its employees or customers for a period ending December 31, 2014. If the Merger Agreement is terminated prior to the closing of the Offer, such agreements will not become effective and will have no force or effect.

Cautionary Note Regarding the Merger Agreement

The Merger Agreement has been included to provide investors with information regarding its terms. It is not intended to provide any other factual information about Perot Systems, Dell or Purchaser. In particular, the representations and warranties contained in the Merger Agreement were made only for the purposes of the Merger Agreement as of the specific dates therein, and were solely for the benefit of the parties to the Merger Agreement.

These confidential disclosure schedules contain information that modifies, qualifies and creates exceptions to the representations and warranties set forth in the Merger Agreement. Moreover, certain representations and warranties in the Merger Agreement may be subject to a standard of materiality provided for in the Merger Agreement and have been used for the purpose of allocating risk among Perot Systems, Dell and Purchaser, rather than establishing matters of fact. Information concerning the subject matter of the representations and warranties may also change after the date of the Merger Agreement, which subsequent information may not be fully disclosed in the parties' public disclosures. Accordingly, the representations and warranties in the Merger Agreement may not constitute the actual state of facts about Perot Systems, Dell or Purchaser. Investors are not third party beneficiaries under the Merger Agreement and should not rely on the representations, warranties and covenants or any descriptions thereof as characterizations of the actual state of facts or conditions of Perot Systems, Dell or Purchaser, or any of their respective subsidiaries or affiliates.
