Disclaimer Regarding Forward-Looking Statements

This quarterly report includes forward-looking statements (within the meaning of Section 27A of the U.S. Securities Act of 1933 and Section 21E of the U.S. Securities Exchange Act of 1934) concerning Canon Inc. (the Company) and its subsidiaries (collectively Canon). To the extent that statements in this quarterly report do not relate to historical or current facts, they constitute forward-looking statements. These forward-looking statements are based on the current assumptions and beliefs of Canon in light of the information currently available to them, and involve known and unknown risks, uncertainties and other factors. Such risks, uncertainties and other factors may cause Canon's actual results, performance, achievements or financial position to be materially different from any future results, performance, achievements or financial position expressed or implied by these forward-looking statements. Canon undertakes no obligation to publicly update any forward-looking statements after the date of this quarterly report. Investors are advised to consult any further disclosures by Canon in its subsequent filings with the U.S. Securities and Exchange Commission pursuant to the Securities Exchange Act of 1934 and its other filings.

The risks, uncertainties and other factors referred to above include, but are not limited to, foreign exchange rate fluctuations; the uncertainty of Canon's ability to implement its plans to localize production and other measures to reduce the impact of foreign exchange rate fluctuations; uncertainty of economic conditions in Canon's major markets; uncertainty about continued demand for Canon's high-value-added products; uncertainty about the recovery of computer and related markets; uncertainty about the recovery in demand for Canon's semiconductor production equipment; Canon's ability to continue to develop and market products that incorporate new technology on a timely basis, are competitively priced and achieve market acceptance; the possibility of losses resulting from foreign currency transactions designed to reduce financial risks from changes in foreign exchange rates; and inventory risk due to shifts in market demand.

(3) Crucial Business Contracts Engaged in the Third Quarter of 2009

No material contracts were entered into during the three months ended September 30, 2009.

(4) Operating Results

Looking back at the global economy in the third quarter of 2009, the economic stimulus measures implemented by different countries have started to yield results with indications that we are emerging from the worst of the recession. In developed economies such as the United States, Europe and Japan, while stimulus efforts have led to signs of a turnaround, such as rising consumer spending and a recovery in exports, they have not proven enough to remove the sense of uncertainty about the future amid such factors as the continued severity of employment conditions. As for Asia, the economies of China and India maintained solid growth owing to expanded consumer spending against the backdrop of the economy-boosting measures.

As for the markets in which Canon operates amid these conditions, within the office imaging products market, demand for network digital multifunction devices (MFDs) decreased in each region, leading to sluggish sales for monochrome and color models. In the computer peripherals market, while demand remained weak for laser beam printers, resulting in a drop below the year-ago level, the rate of decline has been gradually narrowing. With regard to inkjet printers, although demand continued to be slack for both single-function and multifunction models, which led to a reduction in market size compared with the same period for the previous year, conditions have begun to gradually improve. As for the cameras segment, while demand for digital single-lens reflex (SLR) cameras displayed solid growth, demand for compact digital cameras remained sluggish amid continued price declines. In the optical equipment segment, demand for steppers, utilized in the production of semiconductors, further decreased while demand for aligners, used to produce liquid crystal display (LCD) panels, showed signs of a recovery. The average value of the yen during the third-quarter was ¥93.46 to the U.S. dollar, a year-on-year appreciation of about ¥14, and ¥133.60 to the euro, a year-on-year appreciation of approximately ¥28.

Although the markets for such products as cameras and inkjet printers, targeting individual consumers, are clearly bottoming out, net sales for the third quarter totaled ¥774.3 billion, a year-on-year decline of 21.5%, largely due to the effects of reduced sales volumes of office equipment and other products, a trend that continued from the previous quarter, along with the substantial rise in the value of the yen. Net sales for the nine months ended September 30, 2009 decreased by 27.2% to ¥2,255.1 billion. Despite the launch of new products and ongoing cost-cutting efforts aimed at an improved gross profit ratio, the significant impact of such factors as the appreciation of the yen and reductions in sales volumes led to a 3.1 point decline in the ratio to 45.1% for the quarter and 44.1% for the nine-month period. Consequently, gross profit decreased by 26.5% to ¥349.3 billion for the quarter, and by 34.5% to ¥993.6 billion for the three-quarter period. While operating expenses decreased by 16.4% owing to a Group-wide effort to thoroughly curb expenses, operating profit dropped 53.6% to ¥60.0 billion for the third quarter and 72.9% to ¥124.9 billion for the combined nine-month period. The rate of decline for the third-quarter operating profit has been significantly reduced compared with the first quarter and second quarter of the year. Other income (deductions) recorded a positive turnaround of ¥7.8 billion, mainly reflecting an improvement in currency exchange losses. As a result, income before income taxes totaled ¥63.5 billion for the quarter, a decline of 49.2%, and ¥121.4 billion for the nine months ended September 30, 2009, a decline of 73.8%. Net income attributable to Canon Inc. also recorded a decrease of 55.8% to ¥36.7 billion for the quarter, and fell 76.4% to ¥70.1 billion for the first nine months of the year.

Basic net income attributable to Canon Inc. stockholders per share for the quarter was ¥29.76, a year-on-year decline of ¥36.15, while the indicator for the nine months ended September 30, 2009 decreased by ¥179.25 to ¥56.77.

Canon's third-quarter results by product segment are summarized as follows:

Looking at Canon's third-quarter performance by business sector, within the business machines segment, demand for office equipment remained low overall amid the deterioration of economic conditions. With respect to office imaging products, while digital commercial printers achieved healthy sales in emerging markets, flagging sales for network digital MFDs in all regions along with the strong yen resulted in a year-on-year decline in sales of 28.0% for the quarter and 30.0% for the nine-month period. In the field of computer peripherals, although the optimization of laser-beam-printer trade inventories is in sight, decreased third-quarter sales compared with the corresponding period for the previous year along with the impact of appreciation of the yen, resulted in a 26.8% decline from the year-ago period, and a 35.1% decrease for the nine months combined. As for inkjet printers, amid the stagnant global market, sales volume displayed solid growth in the Americas and in Asia, which contributed to a year-on-year increase in sales volume for the segment. However, due to the impact of the yen's appreciation and other factors, year-on-year sales for the quarter declined 10.1%, and 17.7% for the first three quarters of the year. Consequently, sales for the computer peripherals segment overall dropped by 22.7% year on year, and by 30.7% for the nine-month period. As for business information products, reduced sales of personal computers in the Japanese domestic market and other factors led to a sales decline of 23.1% for the quarter, and of 21.0% for the first nine months of the year. Collectively, sales of business machines overall totaled ¥488.8 billion, down 24.9% for the quarter, and down 30.1% to ¥1,426.4 billion for the nine months ended September 30, 2009. Operating profit totaled ¥73.0 billion in the third quarter, falling 45.5% mainly due to the significant decrease in gross profit stemming from the reduction in sales for the quarter, and ¥187.2 billion for the nine-month period, a decline of 57.2%.

Within the cameras segment, the high-resolution, competitively priced EOS Digital Rebel T1i (EOS 500D) and advanced-amateur model EOS 5D Mark II digital SLR cameras continued to enjoy robust sales during the quarter, contributing to growth in sales volume. As for compact digital cameras, although two new ELPH (IXUS)-series models and four new PowerShot-series models were well received by the market, sales volume overall contracted amid stagnant market conditions. Consequently, along with the impact of the appreciation of the yen, sales for the cameras segment overall declined by 8.3% to ¥229.0 billion for the quarter, and by 17.8% to ¥640.6 billion for the nine-month period. Additionally, despite the decrease in sales, third-quarter operating profit for the sector increased by 5.5% to ¥47.6 billion, owing to the increased sales ratio of high-value-added products and the positive effects of cuts in operating expenses. Operating profit for the nine months combined declined by 40.3% to ¥94.2 billion.

In the optical and other products segment, sales of steppers remained sluggish due to the worsening of market conditions for memory chips, and sales of aligners dropped, recording a decline in unit sales reflecting the impact of restrained capital investment by LCD panel manufacturers. As a result, sales for the segment totaled ¥56.5 billion in the third quarter, a decrease of 33.7%, and ¥188.1 billion for the nine-month period, a decrease of 32.9%. Operating profit dropped to negative ¥19.6 billion for the quarter and ¥37.4 billion for the nine months due to the significant drop in sales and other factors.

Third-quarter results in the domestic and overseas regions are summarized as follows:

Japan

Sales in Japan for the quarter decreased by 18.8% from the year-ago period to ¥183.6 billion as sales of color network MFDs and steppers remained sluggish along with other factors, while for the first nine months of the year, sales declined by 17.6% to ¥599.8 billion. Operating profit generated in the region fell 54.6% year on year to ¥82.7 billion for the quarter, and totaled ¥188.6 billion for the combined nine-month period, dropping 65.5%.

As sales of products such as laser beam printers and network MFDs declined overall, coupled with the significant impact of the foreign currency exchange and other factors, sales in the regions outside Japan decreased in the third quarter and also for the first nine months of the year, compared with the corresponding periods of the previous year.

Americas

Third-quarter sales declined by 25.4% from the year-ago period to ¥211.6 billion, largely due to reduced sales of monochrome network MFDs and laser beam printers, along with the appreciation of the yen. Sales for the three-quarter period totaled ¥602.8 billion, falling 30.3% year on year. Operating profit in the region achieved a turnaround to ¥4.6 billion compared with an operating loss of ¥1.9 billion in the corresponding period of the previous year, whereas the indicator decreased by 39.2% to ¥6.4 billion for the nine months ended September 30, 2009.

Europe

Sales for the quarter decreased by 25.1% from the same period of the previous year to ¥236.8 billion, primarily due to flagging sales of laser beam printers and color network MFDs, combined with the appreciation of the yen. Sales for the nine-month period declined by 33.7% to ¥684.4 billion. Operating profit in the region, however, climbed 565.3% year on year to ¥7.3 billion for the quarter, and increased by 13.6% to ¥20.8 billion for the first nine months of the year.

Asia and others

Sales decreased by 11.2% to ¥142.3 billion for the third quarter mainly reflecting reduced sales of laser beam printers and steppers, while sales for the first nine months declined by 22.5% to ¥368.1 billion. However, operating profit in the region rose by 2.4% to ¥13.8 billion for the quarter, while operating profit for the nine months ended September 30, 2009 dropped 31.9% to ¥27.3 billion.

Cash Flows

In the third quarter of 2009, despite the decrease in consolidated net income, Canon generated cash flow from operating activities of ¥185.8 billion, an increase of ¥86.0 billion compared with the previous year, mainly due to the progress made in reducing inventories. As capital investment was focused on items relevant to introducing new products and achieving cost reductions, cash flow from investing activities totaled ¥67.9 billion, a year-on-year decrease of ¥28.2 billion. Accordingly, free cash flow totaled ¥117.9 billion, an increase of ¥114.2 billion from the year-ago period.

Cash flow from financing activities recorded an outlay of ¥70.0 billion, mainly arising from the dividend payout of ¥67.9 billion. Consequently, cash and cash equivalents increased by ¥30.1 billion to ¥633.7 billion from the end of the previous year.

Management Issues to be Addressed

No material changes or issues with respect to business operations and finance have occurred during the three months ended September 30, 2009.

Research and Development Expenditures

Canon's research and development expenditures for the three months ended September 30, 2009 totaled ¥73.7 billion.

Stock Acquisition Rights

The descriptions of the stock option plans as of September 30, 2009 are below.

The Stock Option Plan Approved on March 28, 2008

1. Number of share options

The number of share options that the Board of Directors are authorized to issue is 5,740.

2. Number of shares acquired upon exercise of a share option

The number of shares acquired upon exercise of one share option (the Allotted Number of Shares) is 100 common shares, and the total number of shares to be delivered due to the exercise of share options is 574,000 common shares.

3. Cash payment for share options (yen)

The cash payment required for the share options will be ¥5,502 per share.

- (i) If the Company effects a share split or a share consolidation after the date of the allotment of the share options, the Exercise Price will be adjusted by the following calculation formula, with any fractional amount of less than one yen to be rounded up to one yen:

Exercise Price after Adjustment

$$\begin{aligned}
 &= \text{Exercise Price before adjustment} \times \frac{1}{\text{Ratio of Share Splitting or Share Consolidation}} \\
 & \hspace{15em} 8
 \end{aligned}$$

- (ii) If, after the date of allotment of share options, the Company issues common shares at a price lower than the then market price thereof or disposes common shares owned by it, the Exercise Price will be adjusted by the following calculation formula, with any fractional amount of less than one yen to be rounded up to one yen; however, the Exercise Price will not be adjusted in the case of the exercise of share options:

$$\frac{\text{Number of Issued and Outstanding Shares} + \text{Number of Newly Issued Shares} \times \text{Payment amount per Share}}{\text{Market Price}}$$

Number of Issued and Outstanding Shares + Number of Newly Issued Shares

The Number of Issued and Outstanding Shares is the number of shares already issued by the Company after subtraction of the number of shares owned by the Company. In the case of the Company's disposal of shares owned by it, the Number of Newly Issued Shares will be replaced with the Number of Own Shares to Be Disposed.

- (iii) In the case of a merger, a company split or capital reduction after the date of allotment of share options, or in any other analogous case requiring the adjustment of the Exercise Price, the Exercise Price shall be appropriately adjusted within a reasonable range.

3. Cash payment for share options (yen)

The cash payment required for the share options will be ¥3,287 per share.

- (i) If the Company effects a share split or a share consolidation after the date of the allotment of the share options, the Exercise Price will be adjusted by the following calculation formula, with any fractional amount of less than one yen to be rounded up to one yen:

Ratio of Share Splitting or Share Consolidation

- (ii) If, after the date of allotment of share options, the Company issues common shares at a price lower than the then market price thereof or disposes common shares owned by it, the Exercise Price will be adjusted by the following calculation formula, with any fractional amount of less than one yen to be rounded up to one yen; however, the Exercise Price will not be adjusted in the case of the exercise of share options:

Exercise Price after Adjustment = Exercise Price before Adjustment ×

Number of Issued and Outstanding Shares + $\frac{\text{Number of Newly Issued Shares} \times \text{Payment amount per Share}}{\text{Market Price}}$

Number of Issued and Outstanding Shares + Number of Newly Issued Shares

The Number of Issued and Outstanding Shares is the number of shares already issued by the Company after subtraction of the number of shares owned by the Company. In the case of the Company's disposal of shares owned by it, the Number of Newly Issued Shares will be replaced with the Number of Own Shares to Be Disposed.

- (iii) In the case of a merger, a company split or capital reduction after the date of allotment of share options, or in any other analogous case requiring the adjustment of the Exercise Price, the Exercise Price shall be appropriately adjusted within a reasonable range.

CANON INC. AND SUBSIDIARIES
Notes to Consolidated Financial Statements

(1) Basis of Presentation and Significant Accounting Policies

(a) Basis of Presentation

The Company issued convertible debentures in the United States in May 1969 and established a program in which its American Depositary Receipts (ADRs) were traded in the U.S. over-the-counter market. Since then, under the U.S. Securities Act of 1933 and the U.S. Securities Exchange Act of 1934, the Company has prepared its annual consolidated financial statements in accordance with U.S. generally accepted accounting principles and filed them with the U.S. Securities and Exchange Commission on Form 20-F. The Company's ADRs were listed on the NYSE in September 2000 after being quoted on NASDAQ from February 1972 to September 2000.

Canon's consolidated financial statements are prepared in accordance with the recognition and measurement criteria of accounting principles generally accepted in the United States. Certain disclosures have been omitted. Additionally, in the accompanying consolidated financial statements, the segment information is disclosed in conformity with financial accounting standards of Japan, not with U.S. generally accepted accounting principles.

The number of consolidated subsidiaries and affiliated companies that were accounted for on the equity basis as of September 30, 2009 is summarized as follows:

Consolidated subsidiaries	240
Affiliated companies	15
Total	255

(b) Principles of Consolidation

The consolidated financial statements include the accounts of the Company, its majority owned subsidiaries and those variable interest entities where the Company or its consolidated subsidiaries are the primary beneficiaries. All significant intercompany balances and transactions have been eliminated.

(c) Recently Issued Accounting Guidance

In June 2009, the Financial Accounting Standards Board (FASB) issued new accounting guidance that was codified in Accounting Standards Codification (ASC) 105, Generally Accepted Accounting Principles (the provisions of which were previously included in Statement of Financial Accounting Standards (SFAS) No.168, FASB Accounting Standards Codification and the Hierarchy of Generally Accepted Accounting Principles), which defines that the FASB ASC will become the single source of authoritative U.S. generally accepted accounting principles. Additionally, rules and interpretive releases of the Securities and Exchange Commission (SEC) under authority of the U.S. federal securities laws are also sources of authoritative GAAP for SEC registrants. The ASC did not change current U.S GAAP, but was intended to simplify user access to all authoritative U.S. GAAP by providing all the authoritative literature related to a particular topic in one place. This Codification is effective for fiscal years and interim periods ending after September 15, 2009 and was adopted by Canon beginning from the quarter ended September 30, 2009. This adoption did not have a material impact on Canon's consolidated results of operations and financial condition. However, throughout the notes to the consolidated financial statements, references that were previously made to various former authoritative U.S. GAAP pronouncements have been changed to refer to the appropriate section of the ASC.

In February 2008, the FASB issued new accounting guidance that was codified in ASC820, Fair Value Measurements and Disclosures (the provisions of which were previously included in Staff Position (FSP) No. FAS 157-2, Effective Date of FASB Statement No.157) which delayed the effective date of previously issued guidance included in ASC820 (the provisions of which were previously included in SFAS 157, Fair Value Measurements) for one year for certain nonfinancial assets and liabilities. Canon adopted this guidance in the first quarter beginning January 1, 2009 for all nonfinancial assets and liabilities that are recognized or disclosed at fair value in the financial statements. This adoption did not have a material impact on Canon's consolidated results of operations and financial condition. See Note 12 for the disclosures required by this guidance.

In December 2007, the FASB issued new accounting guidance that was codified in ASC805, Business Combinations (the provisions of which were previously included in SFAS No.141 (revised 2007), Business Combinations). This guidance establishes principles and requirements for how an acquirer recognizes and measures in its financial statements the identifiable assets acquired, the liabilities assumed, any noncontrolling interest in the acquiree and the goodwill acquired in a business combination. This guidance also establishes disclosure requirements to enable the evaluation of the nature and financial effects of the business combination. This guidance is effective for fiscal years beginning on or after December 15, 2008 and was adopted by Canon for any business combinations with an acquisition date on or after January 1, 2009. This adoption did not have a material impact on Canon's consolidated results of operations and financial condition as of or for the period ended September 30, 2009.

In December 2007, the FASB issued new accounting guidance that was codified in ASC810, Consolidations (the provisions of which were previously included in SFAS No.160, Noncontrolling Interests in Consolidated Financial Statements, an amendment of ARB No.51). This guidance establishes accounting and reporting guidance for ownership interests in subsidiaries held by parties other than the parent, the amount of consolidated net income attributable to the parent and to the noncontrolling interest, changes in a parent's ownership interest, and the valuation of retained noncontrolling equity investments when a subsidiary is deconsolidated. This guidance also establishes disclosure requirements that clearly identify and distinguish between the interests of the parent and the interests of the noncontrolling owners. This guidance is effective for fiscal years beginning on or after December 15, 2008 on a prospective basis, except for certain presentation and disclosure requirements, which must be applied retrospectively for all periods presented, and was adopted by Canon in the first quarter beginning January 1, 2009. Upon the adoption of this guidance, noncontrolling interests, which were previously referred to as minority interests and classified between total liabilities and stockholders' equity on the consolidated balance sheets, are now included as a separate component of total equity. In addition, consolidated net income on the consolidated statements of income now includes the net income (loss) attributable to noncontrolling interests. These financial statement presentation requirements have been adopted retrospectively and prior year amounts in the consolidated financial statements have been reclassified or adjusted to conform to this guidance. This adoption did not have a material impact on Canon's consolidated results of operations and financial condition.

In March 2008, the FASB issued new accounting guidance that was codified in ASC815, Derivatives and Hedging (the provisions of which were previously included in SFAS No.161, Disclosures about Derivative Instruments and Hedging Activities, an amendment of FASB Statement No.133). This guidance amends and expands the disclosures previously required under ASC815. This guidance requires entities to provide greater transparency about how and why an entity uses derivative instruments, how derivative instruments and related hedged items are accounted for, and how derivative instruments and related hedged items affect an entity's financial position, result of operations and cash flows. This guidance does not change the existing guidance relative to recognition and measurement of derivative instruments and hedging activities. This guidance is effective for financial statements issued for fiscal years and interim periods beginning after November 15, 2008 and was adopted by Canon in the first quarter beginning January 1, 2009. The adoption of this guidance did not have an impact on Canon's consolidated results of operations and financial condition. See Note 9 for the disclosures required by this guidance.

In April 2009, the FASB issued new accounting guidance that was codified in ASC825, Financial Instruments (the provisions of which were previously included in FSP No. FAS 107-1 and APB 28-1, Interim Disclosures about Fair Value of Financial Instruments), which requires disclosure about fair value of financial instruments for interim periods. This guidance is effective for interim periods ending after June 15, 2009 and was adopted by Canon prospectively, beginning in the second quarter ended June 30, 2009. This adoption did not have a material impact on Canon's consolidated results of operations and financial condition. See Note 11 for the disclosures required by this guidance.

In April 2009, the FASB issued new accounting guidance that was codified in ASC320, Investments-Debt and Equity Securities (the provisions of which were previously included in FSP No. FAS 115-2 and FAS 124-2, Recognition and Presentation of Other-Than-Temporary Impairments). This guidance amends the other-than-temporary impairment guidance for debt securities to make the guidance more operational and to improve the presentation, coupled with the requirement to additionally disclose other-than-temporary impairments on debt and equity securities in the financial statements. This guidance is effective for interim periods ending after June 15, 2009 and was adopted by Canon prospectively, beginning in the second quarter ended June 30, 2009. This adoption did not have a material impact on Canon's consolidated results of operations and financial condition. See Note 2 for the disclosures required by this guidance.

In April 2009, the FASB issued new accounting guidance that was codified in ASC820, Fair Value Measurements and Disclosures (the provisions of which were previously included in FSP No. FAS 157-4, Determining Fair Value When the Volume and Level of Activity for the Asset or Liability Have Significantly Decreased and Identifying Transactions That Are Not Orderly), which provides guidance for fair value measurements under circumstances where the volume and level of activity for the asset or liability have significantly decreased and identifying circumstances that indicate if a transaction is not orderly, along with the requirement of expanded disclosure. This guidance is effective for interim periods ending after June 15, 2009 and was adopted by Canon prospectively, beginning in the second quarter ended June 30, 2009. This adoption did not have a material impact on Canon's consolidated results of operations and financial condition. See Note 12 for the disclosures required by this guidance.

In May 2009, the FASB issued new accounting guidance that was codified in ASC855, Subsequent Events (the provisions of which were previously included in SFAS No.165, Subsequent Events). This guidance addresses the accounting treatments and disclosures that an entity shall make about events or transactions that occurred after the balance sheet date but before the financial statements are issued or are available to be issued. This guidance is effective for fiscal years and interim periods ending after June 15, 2009 and was adopted by Canon prospectively, beginning in the second quarter ended June 30, 2009. This adoption did not have a material impact on Canon's consolidated results of operations and financial condition. See Note 14 for the disclosures required by this guidance.

In December 2008, the FASB issued new accounting guidance that was codified in ASC715, Compensation-Retirement Benefits (the provisions of which were previously included in FSP No. FAS 132(R)-1, Employers' Disclosures about Postretirement Benefit Plan Assets). This guidance requires additional disclosures about plan assets including investment allocation, fair value of major categories of plan assets, development of fair value measurements, and concentrations of risk. This guidance is effective for fiscal years ending after December 15, 2009 and is required to be adopted by Canon in the year ending December 31, 2009. Canon is currently evaluating the requirements of these additional disclosures, but does not expect the adoption of this guidance to have an impact on Canon's consolidated results of operations and financial condition.

Maturities of available-for-sale debt securities and fund trusts included in short-term investments and investments in the accompanying consolidated balance sheets were as follows at September 30, 2009:

	Available-for-sale securities
	Millions of yen
	Cost	Fair value
Due within one year	222	222
Due after one year through five years	3,265	3,547
Due after five years through ten years	679	633
	4,166	4,402

Realized gains and losses are determined using the average cost method and are reflected in earnings. The gross realized losses, including write-downs for impairments that were other than temporary, were ¥2,378 million and ¥494 million, for the nine and three months ended September 30, 2009, respectively. The gross realized gains were not significant for the nine and three months ended September 30, 2009.

At September 30, 2009, substantially all of the available-for-sale securities with unrealized losses had been in a continuous unrealized loss position for less than 12 months.

Time deposits with original maturities of more than three months are ¥24,736 million and ¥7,430 million at September 30, 2009 and December 31, 2008, respectively, and are included in short-term investments in the accompanying consolidated balance sheets.

The aggregate cost of non-marketable equity securities accounted for under the cost method totaled ¥28,578 million and ¥10,684 million at September 30, 2009 and December 31, 2008, respectively. Investments with an aggregate cost of ¥28,100 million were not evaluated for impairment as of September 30, 2009, because (a) Canon did not estimate the fair value of those investments as it was not practicable to estimate the fair value of the investments and (b) Canon did not identify any events or changes in circumstances that might have had significant adverse effects on the fair value of those investments.

Reclassifications from accumulated other comprehensive loss for gains and losses realized in net income was ¥1,867 million and ¥373 million, for the nine and three months ended September 30, 2009, respectively.

(9) Derivatives and Hedging Activities

Risk management policy

Canon operates internationally, exposing it to the risk of changes in foreign currency exchange rates. Canon assesses foreign currency exchange rate risk by continually monitoring changes in the exposures and by evaluating hedging opportunities. Derivative financial instruments are comprised principally of foreign exchange contracts utilized by the Company and certain of its subsidiaries to reduce the risk. Canon does not hold or issue derivative financial instruments for trading purposes. Canon is also exposed to credit-related losses in the event of non-performance by counterparties to derivative financial instruments, but it is not expected that any counterparties will fail to meet their obligations, because most of the counterparties are internationally recognized financial institutions and contracts are diversified across a number of major financial institutions.

Foreign currency exchange rate risk management

Canon's international operations expose Canon to the risk of changes in foreign currency exchange rates. Canon uses foreign exchange contracts to manage foreign currency exchange exposures principally from the exchange of U.S. dollars and euros into Japanese yen. These contracts are primarily used to hedge the foreign currency exposure of forecasted intercompany sales and intercompany trade receivables, which are denominated in foreign currencies. In accordance with Canon's risk management policy, a specific portion of the foreign currency exposure resulting from forecasted intercompany sales are hedged using foreign exchange contracts, which principally mature within three months.

Cash flow hedge

Changes in the fair value of derivative financial instruments that have been designated and qualify as cash flow hedges, including foreign exchange contracts associated with forecasted intercompany sales, are reported in accumulated other comprehensive income (loss). These amounts are subsequently reclassified into earnings through other income (deductions) in the same period that the hedged items affect earnings. Substantially all amounts recorded in accumulated other comprehensive income (loss) as of September 30, 2009 are expected to be recognized in earnings over the next 12 months. Canon excludes the time value component from the assessment of hedge effectiveness. Changes in the fair value of a foreign exchange contract for the period between the date that the forecasted intercompany sales occur and its maturity date are recognized in earnings and not considered hedge ineffectiveness.

Derivatives not designated as hedges

Canon has entered into certain foreign exchange contracts to primarily offset the earnings impact related to fluctuations in foreign currency exchange rates associated with certain assets denominated in foreign currencies. Although these foreign exchange contracts have not been designated as hedges as required in order to apply hedge accounting, the contracts are effective from an economic perspective. The changes in the fair value of these contracts are recorded in earnings immediately.

(10) Commitments and Contingent Liabilities*Commitments*

As of September 30, 2009, commitments outstanding for the purchase of property, plant and equipment approximated ¥24,006 million, and commitments outstanding for the purchase of parts and raw materials approximated ¥59,560 million.

Canon occupies sales offices and other facilities under lease arrangements accounted for as operating leases. Deposits made under such arrangements aggregated ¥14,317 million and ¥14,223 million at September 30, 2009 and December 31, 2008, respectively, and are included in noncurrent receivables in the accompanying consolidated balance sheets.

Future minimum lease payments required under noncancelable operating leases are ¥15,879 million (within one year) and ¥39,367 million (after one year), at September 30, 2009.

Guarantees

Canon provides guarantees for bank loans of its employees, affiliates and other companies. The guarantees for the employees are principally made for their housing loans. The guarantees of loans of its affiliates and other companies are made to ensure that those companies operate with less financial risk.

For each guarantee provided, Canon would have to perform under a guarantee if the borrower defaults on a payment within the contract periods of 1 year to 30 years, in the case of employees with housing loans, and of 1 year to 10 years, in the case of affiliates and other companies. The maximum amount of undiscounted payments Canon would have to make in the event of default is ¥19,602 million at September 30, 2009. The carrying amounts of the liabilities recognized for Canon's obligations as a guarantor under those guarantees at September 30, 2009 were not significant.

Canon also issues contractual product warranties under which it generally guarantees the performance of products delivered and services rendered for a certain period or term. Estimated product warranty costs are recorded at the time revenue is recognized and are included in selling, general and administrative expenses. Estimates for accrued product warranty costs are based on historical experience. Changes in accrued product warranty cost for the nine months ended September 30, 2009 is summarized as follows:

Legal proceedings

In Germany, Verwertungsgesellschaft Wort (VG Wort), a collecting agency representing certain copyright holders, has filed a series of lawsuits seeking to impose copyright levies upon digital products such as PCs and printers, that allegedly enable the reproduction of copyrighted materials, against the companies importing and distributing these digital products. VG Wort filed a lawsuit in January 2006 against Canon seeking payment of copyright levies on single-function printers, and the court of first instance in Düsseldorf ruled in favor of the claim by VG Wort in November 2006. Canon lodged an appeal against such decision in December 2006 before the court of appeals in Düsseldorf. Following a decision by the same court of appeals in Düsseldorf on January 23, 2007 in relation to a similar court case seeking copyright levies on single-function printers of Epson Deutschland GmbH, Xerox GmbH and Kyocera Mita Deutschland GmbH, whereby the court rejected such alleged levies, in its judgment of November 13, 2007, the court of appeals rejected VG Wort's claim against Canon. VG Wort appealed further against said decision of the court of appeals before the Federal Supreme Court. In December 2007, for a similar Hewlett-Packard GmbH case relating to single-function printers, the Federal Supreme Court delivered its judgment in favor of Hewlett-Packard GmbH and dismissed VG Wort's claim. VG Wort has already filed a constitutional complaint with the Federal Constitutional Court against said judgment of the Federal Supreme Court. Likewise, after rejection by the Federal Supreme Court of an appeal by VG Wort in relation to Canon's single-function printers case in September 2008, VG Wort lodged a claim before the Federal Constitutional Court. Canon received a brief from the Federal Constitutional Court in September 2009 to enable the Court to decide on whether to accept the claim, and Canon will respond to it in a due course. In 2007, an amendment of German copyright law was carried out, and a new law has been effective from January 1, 2008 for both multi-function printers and single-function printers. The new law sets forth that the scope and tariff of copyright levies will be agreed between industry and the collecting society. Industry and the collecting society, based on the requirement under the new law, reached an agreement in December 2008. This agreement is applicable retroactively from January 1, 2008 and will remain effective through end of 2010. However, in Canon's assessment, the final outcome of the court case regarding the single-function printers sold in Germany before January 1, 2008 remains uncertain.

Canon is involved in various claims and legal actions, including those noted above, arising in the ordinary course of business. Canon has recorded provisions for liabilities when it is probable that liabilities have been incurred and the amount of loss can be reasonably estimated. Canon reviews these provisions at least quarterly and adjusts these provisions to reflect the impact of the negotiations, settlements, rulings, advice of legal counsel and other information and events pertaining to a particular case. Based on its experience, Canon believes that any damage amounts claimed in the specific matters discussed above are not a meaningful indicator of Canon's potential liability. In the opinion of management, the ultimate disposition of the above mentioned matters would not have a material adverse effect on Canon's consolidated financial position, results of operations, or cash flows. However, litigation is inherently unpredictable. While Canon believes that it has valid defenses with respect to legal matters pending against it, it is possible that Canon's consolidated financial position, results of operations, or cash flows could be materially affected in any particular period by the unfavorable resolution of one or more of these matters.

(11) Disclosures about the Fair Value of Financial Instruments and Concentrations of Credit Risk

The fair values of Canon's financial instruments as of September 30, 2009 and December 31, 2008 are set forth below. The following summary excludes cash and cash equivalents, time deposits, trade receivables, finance receivables, noncurrent receivables, short-term loans, trade payables and accrued expenses, for which fair values approximate their carrying amounts. The summary also excludes debt and equity securities disclosed in Note 2.

	Millions of yen
	September 30, 2009		December 31, 2008
	Carrying amount	Estimated fair value	Carrying amount	Estimated fair value
Long-term debt, including current installments	(10,719)	(10,719)	(13,743)	(13,727)
Foreign exchange contracts:
Assets	7,160	7,160	10,516	10,516
Liabilities	(504)	(504)	(678)	(678)

The following methods and assumptions are used to measure the fair value in the above table.

Long-term debt

The fair values of Canon's long-term debt instruments are based either on the quoted price in the most active market or the present value of future cash flows associated with each instrument discounted using Canon's current borrowing rate for similar debt instruments of comparable maturity.

Foreign exchange contracts

The fair values of foreign exchange contracts are measured based on the market price obtained from financial institutions.

Limitations

Fair value estimates are made at a specific point in time, based on relevant market information and information about the financial instruments. These estimates are subjective in nature and involve uncertainties and matters of significant judgement and therefore cannot be determined with precision. Changes in assumptions could significantly affect the estimates.

Concentrations of credit risk

At September 30, 2009 and December 31, 2008, one customer accounted for approximately 20% and 19% of consolidated trade receivables, respectively. Although Canon does not expect that the customer will fail to meet its obligations, Canon is potentially exposed to concentrations of credit risk if the customer failed to perform according to the terms of the contracts.

(12) Fair Value Measurements

Fair value is defined as the price that would be received to sell an asset or paid to transfer a liability (an exit price) in the principal or most advantageous market for the asset or liability in an orderly transaction between market participants at the measurement date. The three-level fair value hierarchy that prioritizes the inputs used to measure fair value is described as follows:

Level 1 - Inputs are quoted prices in active markets for identical assets or liabilities.

Level 2 - Inputs are quoted prices for similar assets or liabilities in active markets, quoted prices for identical or similar assets or liabilities in markets that are not active, inputs other than quoted prices that are observable, and inputs that are derived principally from or corroborated by observable market data by correlation or other means.

Level 3 - Inputs are derived from valuation techniques in which one or more significant inputs or value drivers are unobservable, which reflect the reporting entity's own assumptions about the assumptions that market participants would use in establishing a price.

Assets and Liabilities Measured at Fair Value on a Recurring Basis

The following tables present Canon's assets and liabilities that are measured at fair value on a recurring basis consistent with the fair value hierarchy.

Level 1 investments are comprised principally of equity securities, which are valued using an unadjusted quoted market price in active markets with sufficient volume and frequency of transactions. Level 2 cash and cash equivalents are valued using quoted prices for identical assets in markets that are not active. Level 3 investments are comprised mainly of corporate debt securities, which are valued based on unobservable inputs as the market for the assets was not active at the measurement date.

Derivative financial instruments are comprised of foreign exchange contracts. Level 2 derivatives are valued using quotes obtained from counterparties or third parties, which are periodically validated by pricing models using observable market inputs, such as foreign currency exchange rates and interest rates.

The following table presents the changes in Level 3 assets measured on a recurring basis, consisting primarily of corporate debt securities, for the nine and three months ended September 30, 2009.

Balance at September 30, 2009	1,393

Gains and losses included in earnings are mainly related to corporate debt securities still held at September 30, 2009, and are reported in Other, net in the consolidated statements of income.

Assets and Liabilities Measured at Fair Value on a Nonrecurring Basis

Non-marketable equity securities with a carrying amount of ¥1,463 million were written down to their fair value of ¥478 million, resulting in an other-than-temporary impairment charge of ¥985 million, which was included in earnings for the nine months ended September 30, 2009. During the three months ended September 30, 2009, however, there were no circumstances that required any significant assets that are not measured at fair value on a recurring basis to be measured and recognized at fair value. All impaired non-marketable equity securities were classified as Level 3 instruments, as Canon uses unobservable inputs to value these investments.

(13) Supplemental Information

Gains and losses resulting from foreign currency transactions, including foreign exchange contracts, and translation of assets and liabilities denominated in foreign currencies are included in other income (deductions) in the consolidated statements of income. Foreign currency exchange gains and losses, net were ¥1,643 million losses and ¥310 million gains, for the nine and three months ended September 30, 2009, respectively.

Advertising costs are expensed as incurred. Advertising expenses were ¥48,253 million and ¥14,887 million for the nine and three months ended September 30, 2009, respectively.

Shipping and handling costs totaled ¥33,144 million and ¥11,102 million for the nine and three months ended September 30, 2009, respectively, and are included in selling, general and administrative expenses in the consolidated statements of income.

Consolidated comprehensive income for the nine and three months ended September 30, 2009 was ¥94,118 million (increase) and ¥2,845 million (increase), respectively.

Certain debt securities with original maturities of less than three months classified as available-for-sale securities of ¥142,322 million and ¥194,030 million at September 30, 2009 and December 31, 2008, respectively, are included in cash and cash equivalents in the consolidated balance sheets. Additionally, certain debt securities with original maturities of less than three months classified as held-to-maturity securities of ¥999 million and ¥997 million at September 30, 2009 and December 31, 2008, respectively, are also included in cash and cash equivalents. Fair value for these securities approximates their cost.
