Item 1.01. Entry into a Material Definitive Agreement.

On April 19, 2010, The GEO Group, Inc., a Florida corporation ( GEO ), announced that GEO entered into an Agreement and Plan of Merger on April 18, 2010 (the Merger Agreement ) with Cornell Companies, Inc., a Delaware corporation ( Cornell ), and GEO Acquisition III, Inc., a Delaware corporation and wholly owned subsidiary of GEO ( Merger Sub ). The Merger Agreement provides that, upon the terms and subject to the conditions set forth in the Merger Agreement, Merger Sub will merge with and into Cornell (the Merger ), with Cornell continuing as the surviving corporation and a wholly owned subsidiary of GEO.

At the effective time of the Merger (the Effective Time ), each share of common stock of Cornell, par value $.001 per share, issued and outstanding immediately prior to the Effective Time will be cancelled and converted into the right to receive either: (i) 1.3 shares of common stock of GEO, par value $.01 per share, in the case of Cornell stockholders electing to receive stock consideration or Cornell stockholders who fail to make an election; or (ii) the right to receive cash consideration equal to the greater of (x) the fair market value of one share of GEO common stock plus $6.00 or (y) the fair market value of 1.3 shares of GEO common stock, in the case of Cornell stockholders electing to receive cash. In order to preserve the tax-deferred treatment of the transaction, no more than 20% of the outstanding shares of Cornell common stock may be exchanged for the cash consideration. If elections are made such that the aggregate cash consideration to be received by Cornell stockholders would exceed $100 million in the aggregate, such excess amount may be paid at the election of GEO in shares of GEO common stock or in cash.

Concurrently with entering into the Merger Agreement, GEO entered into a Voting Agreement with certain stockholders of Cornell (the Voting Agreement ) pursuant to which those stockholders agreed, among other things, to vote their shares of Cornell common stock in favor of the adoption and approval of the terms of the Merger Agreement, the Merger and the other transactions contemplated by the Merger Agreement and any actions required in furtherance thereof and vote against any alternative proposal, action, transaction or agreement that would result in a breach of any covenant, representation, warranty or other obligation or agreement of Cornell set forth in the Merger Agreement or of a Cornell stockholder set forth in the Voting Agreement.

Each of GEO, Merger Sub and Cornell has made customary representations and warranties and covenants in the Merger Agreement. The Merger is expected to close in the third quarter of 2010 and the completion of the Merger is subject to various closing conditions, including but not limited to (a) approval of the issuance of GEO common stock by the stockholders of GEO in accordance with the requirements of GEO 's articles of incorporation and bylaws, Florida law and the applicable requirements of the New York Stock Exchange, (b) approval of the adoption of the Merger Agreement by the stockholders of Cornell in accordance with the requirements of Cornell 's certificate of incorporation and bylaws, Delaware law and the applicable requirements of the New York Stock Exchange, (c) absence of any applicable law, injunction, judgment or ruling prohibiting the Merger, (d) the SEC 's declaration of effectiveness of the registration statement on Form S-4 in connection with the issuance of GEO common stock in the merger and the non-existence of any stop order or similar proceeding by the SEC in respect of the registration statement or the joint proxy statement/prospectus in connection with the matters to be submitted for a vote of GEO 's shareholders and Cornell 's stockholders, (e) approval by the New York Stock Exchange with respect to the listing of the shares of GEO common stock to be issued in the Merger, (f) expiration or termination of the Hart-Scott-Rodino Act waiting period, (g) subject to certain exceptions, the accuracy of the representations and warranties of each party, (h) performance in all material respects of each party of its obligations under the Merger Agreement and (i) the delivery of customary opinions from counsel to GEO and counsel to Cornell that the Merger will qualify as a tax-free reorganization for federal income tax purposes.

The Merger Agreement contains certain termination rights for both GEO and Cornell. If the Merger Agreement is terminated under certain circumstances specified in the Merger Agreement, GEO or Cornell, as the case may be will be required to pay the other a termination fee of $12,000,000 and reimburse certain fees and expenses.

The Board of Directors of each of GEO and Cornell has approved the Merger and the Merger Agreement.

The foregoing description of the Merger, the Merger Agreement and the Voting Agreement does not purport to be complete and is qualified in its entirety by reference to the Merger Agreement, which is filed as Exhibit 2.1 to this report, and the Voting Agreement, which is filed as Exhibit 10.43 to this report and is incorporated herein by this reference.
