Regulatory approval update

We're making good progress on all of the approvals, and we still anticipate closing the transaction during the second half of 2015. Following is the current status of the necessary regulatory proceedings.

The U.S. Department of Justice completed its review under the Hart-Scott-Rodino Act on Oct. 24, 2014, with no further action required by the company.

We filed with all four state utility commissions last August, and we're working through each of the proceedings. At this writing, we anticipate reviews and decisions according to the following general timeline:

The Public Service Commission of Wisconsin expects to vote no later than April 16, 2015.

The Minnesota Public Utilities Commission expects to review our application in early May.

The Michigan Public Service Commission has set a schedule that calls for a decision by June 15, 2015.

The Illinois Commerce Commission staff has proposed a schedule calling for a decision on July 6, 2015.

At the Federal Energy Regulatory Commission (FERC), the public comment periods have now closed, and we are waiting for a decision.

In Michigan, Wisconsin Energy reached a settlement in January that will help clear the way for Michigan state regulatory approval of the proposed WEC/TEG transaction. The settlement calls for the sale of the electric distribution assets owned by both Wisconsin

Significantly, the Michigan Governor, the Michigan Attorney General and the iron ore mines sent letters to FERC in January stating that they have no objections to the transaction. These parties will not oppose, condition or delay consummation of the transaction in any proceeding at FERC – and the Attorney General, Michigan commission staff, and the mines will not seek or support any other conditions to the transaction in proceedings at the Michigan Public Service Commission.

Day One Task Team, functional teams formed
As reported in the previous Transaction Update, a Day One Task Team led by Wisconsin Electric Vice President Dan Krueger is looking into what work needs to be completed upon the close of the transaction (Day One). Although this team does not have any post-close (Day Two) requirements in its scope, it will be mindful of decisions that might have long-range impact.

Update on Michigan asset sale to UPPCo

Discussions continue among the various parties to the Michigan Settlement announced in January as they work to forge definitive agreements regarding the WEC and TEG asset sales to the Upper Peninsula Power Company (UPPCo).

WEC is seeking to transfer control of its UP electric distribution business, as well as the Presque Isle Power Plant. The transaction also contemplates the sale of Wisconsin Public Service Corporation's (WPSC) UP electric and gas distribution assets. We currently expect to retain all hydro-electric plant and related facilities, as well as WPSC's Menominee Service Center. It is expected that all WPSC employees located at Menominee would remain with WPSC, with a services agreement provided back to UPPCo.

Also, on Feb. 17, We Energies entered into an agreement with the owners of the Empire and Tilden iron ore mines in the UP. Under the agreement, the mines have committed to remain full-requirements customers of We Energies until the sale of Presque Isle Power Plant (PIPP) is completed, or until July 31, 2015, whichever is earlier. The mines returned as full-requirements customers on Feb. 1. As part of the agreement, We Energies provided written notification to the Midcontinent Independent System Operator (MISO) to rescind the company's earlier decision to retire PIPP and to request that MISO exercise the termination provisions of the system support resource (SSR) agreement, effective Feb. 1, 2015.
