Item 1.01 Entry into a Material Definitive Agreement.

On June 3, 2014, National Penn Bancshares, Inc. (the “Company” or “National Penn”), the parent company of National Penn Bank, entered into an Agreement and Plan of Merger (the “Merger Agreement”) with TF Financial Corporation (“TF Financial”), the parent company of 3rd Fed Bank, pursuant to which TF Financial will merge with and into the Company (the “Merger”). As part of the transaction, 3rd Fed Bank will also merge with and into National Penn Bank.

Subject to the terms and conditions of the Merger Agreement, upon consummation of the Merger, each outstanding share of common stock of TF Financial will be automatically converted into and exchangeable for the right to receive either: (i) $42.00 in cash (the “Cash Consideration”), or (ii) 4.22 shares of the Company’s common stock, with cash being paid in lieu of fractional shares (the “Stock Consideration” and, together with the Cash Consideration, the “Merger Consideration”). The Merger Agreement provides that 60% of the outstanding shares of TF Financial common stock will be converted into Stock Consideration and 40% of the outstanding shares of TF Financial common stock will be converted into Cash Consideration. Each shareholder of TF Financial will be entitled to elect the number of shares of TF Financial common stock held by such shareholder that will be exchanged for the Stock Consideration or the Cash Consideration subject to proration in the event that a selected form of consideration is over-elected.

The Merger Agreement contains customary representations, warranties and covenants from both the Company and TF Financial. Among other covenants, TF Financial has agreed: (i) to convene and hold a meeting of its shareholders to consider and vote upon the Merger, (ii) that, subject to certain exceptions, the board of directors of TF Financial will recommend the approval of the Merger and the Merger Agreement by its shareholders, and (iii) not to (A) solicit alternative third-party acquisition proposals or, (B) subject to certain exceptions, conduct discussions concerning or provide confidential information in connection with any alternative third-party acquisition proposal.

The transaction is subject to customary closing conditions, including the receipt of regulatory approvals and approval of the merger by shareholders of TF Financial. The Merger Agreement contains provisions that provide for the termination of the Merger Agreement in certain circumstances, and such provisions may require TF Financial to pay the Company a termination fee of $4.0 million.

The Merger Agreement has been filed to provide security holders with information regarding its terms. It is not intended to provide any other factual information about the Company, TF Financial or their respective subsidiaries and affiliates. The Merger Agreement contains representations and warranties by each of the parties to the Merger Agreement. These representations and warranties were made solely for the benefit of the other party to the Merger Agreement and (a) are not intended to be treated as categorical statements of fact, but rather as a way of allocating risk to one of the parties if those statements prove to be inaccurate, (b) may have been qualified in the Merger Agreement by confidential disclosure schedules that were delivered to the other party in connection with the signing of the Merger Agreement, which disclosure schedules contain information that modifies, qualifies and creates exceptions to the representations, warranties and covenants set forth in the Merger Agreement, (c) may be subject to standards of materiality applicable to the parties that differ from what might be viewed as material to shareholders and (d) were made only as of the date of the Merger Agreement or such other date or dates as may be specified in the Merger Agreement. Moreover, information concerning the subject matter of the representations, warranties and covenants may change after the date of the Merger Agreement, which subsequent information may or may not be fully reflected in public disclosures by the Company or TF Financial. Accordingly, you should not rely on the representations, warranties and covenants or any descriptions thereof as characterizations of the actual state of facts or condition of the Company or TF Financial.

The foregoing summary of the Merger Agreement is not complete and is qualified in its entirety by reference to the complete text of the definitive agreement, which is filed as Exhibit 2.1 to this Form 8-K and which is incorporated herein by reference in its entirety.

Item 8.01 Other Events

On June 4, 2014, the Company and TF Financial issued a joint press release announcing the Merger Agreement. A copy of the press release and supplemental data to the joint press release are attached hereto as Exhibits 99.1 and 99.2 respectively, and incorporated into this report by this reference.

Forward-looking Statements

Certain statements contained in this filing may be considered forward-looking statements. These forward-looking statements may include: statements regarding the Merger, the range of consideration of the Merger and the ability of the parties to consummate the Merger. Forward-looking statements are typically identified by words such as “believe,” “expect,” “anticipate,” “intend,” “outlook,” “estimate,” “forecast,” “project,” “pro forma” and other similar words and expressions. Forward-looking statements are subject to numerous assumptions, risks and uncertainties, which change over time. Forward-looking statements speak only as of the date they are made. Neither National Penn nor TF Financial assume any duty and do not undertake to update forward-looking statements. Because forward-looking statements are subject to assumptions and uncertainties, actual results or future events could differ, possibly materially, from those that National Penn or TF Financial anticipated in its forward-looking statements and future results could differ materially from historical performance. Factors that could cause or contribute to such differences include, but are not limited to, the possibility: that expected benefits may not materialize in the timeframe expected or at all, or may be more costly to achieve; that the transaction may not be timely completed, if at all; that prior to the completion of the transaction or thereafter, National Penn’s and TF Financial’s respective businesses may not perform as expected due to transaction-related uncertainty or other factors; that the parties are unable to successfully implement integration strategies; that required regulatory, shareholder or other approvals are not obtained or other closing conditions are not satisfied in a timely manner or at all; reputational risks and the reaction of the companies’ customers to the transaction; diversion of management time on merger-related issues; and those factors and risks referenced from time to time in National Penn’s and TF Financial’s filings with the Securities and Exchange Commission. For any forward-looking statements made in this filing or in any documents, National Penn and TF Financial claim the protection of the safe harbor for forward-looking statements contained in the Private Securities Litigation Reform Act of 1995.
