Item 1.01. Entry into a Material Definitive Agreement

On November 9, 2004, Advanced Medical Optics, Inc., a Delaware corporation ( AMO ), Vault Merger Corporation ( Merger Sub ), a wholly owned subsidiary of AMO and a Delaware corporation, and VISX, Incorporated, a Delaware corporation ( VISX ), entered into an Agreement and Plan of Merger (the Merger Agreement ), as announced in the attached joint press release dated November 9, 2004. Pursuant to the terms and subject to the conditions set forth in the Merger Agreement, Merger Sub will merge with and into VISX, with VISX continuing as the surviving corporation and becoming a wholly owned subsidiary of AMO (the Merger ). The Board of Directors of AMO has unanimously approved the Merger and the Merger Agreement and recommended that the AMO stockholders approve the issuance of shares of AMO common stock in the Merger.

In connection with the Merger, each share of VISX common stock that is outstanding at the effective time of the Merger (the Effective Time ) will be converted into the right to receive (i) 0.552 shares of common stock of AMO, and (ii) $3.50 in cash without interest (the Merger Consideration ). Each outstanding option to purchase VISX common stock (a VISX Stock Option ) that has an exercise price equal to or less than $26.93 will be converted at the Effective Time into an option to acquire AMO common stock and shall become fully vested and immediately exercisable and assumed by AMO. Each VISX Stock Option that has an exercise price in excess of $26.93 shall become fully vested and immediately exercisable at the Effective Time, and the holder of each such option will be notified that if such options are not exercised within 15 days (30 days for options granted under VISX 's 1995 Director Option and Stock Deferral Plan), such options will expire and be of no further force or effect. No fractional shares of AMO 's common stock will be issued as a result of the share exchange.

At November 4, 2004, there were 49,610,200 shares of VISX common stock outstanding. At November 4, 2004, there were outstanding options to purchase 8,425,399 shares of VISX common stock. Of these options, approximately 7,340,849 are expected to be converted into options to acquire AMO 's common stock at the Effective Time of the Merger.

The completion of the Merger is subject to various customary conditions, including obtaining the approval of the AMO and VISX stockholders and expiration of the applicable waiting period under the Hart-Scott-Rodino Act. The Merger is intended to qualify as a reorganization for federal income tax purposes. In connection with the financing for the Merger, AMO has signed a commitment letter, dated November 9, 2004, with Morgan Stanley & Co. Incorporated.

The information set forth above does not purport to be complete and is qualified in its entirety by reference to the full text of the Merger Agreement, a copy of which is filed herewith as Exhibit 2.1, and is incorporated herein by reference. A copy of the joint press release is attached to this Current Report as Exhibit 99.1 and is incorporated herein by reference.
